Let us live with that hope in our hearts day by day cit logether, and will be deposited at Som. We have been been that which passes so swiftly away; the House-a lesson to all time to wives not to their tempers too far if they do not slake to be their husband's property, or sales to lose their husband's property, or see it only by a lawsuit.—Pall Mall Gaz.

Let us rive with that hope in our hearts day by day come hearts that hope in our hearts day by day can be with passes of which passes os wiftly away; there is work yet unfinished, tasks yet to fulfil, there is work yet unfinished, tasks yet to fulfil, there is work yet unfinished, tasks yet to fulfil, there is work yet unfinished, tasks yet to fulfil, and the passes of yet the passes of the passe London Christian World.

For "The Friend," Westtown Boarding School.

At a meeting of the committee held 4th mo. 9th, 1858, a communication was received from Jos. and Hannah Snowden, requesting to be released from the stations of Superintendent and Matron at the close of the next session. "The following named Friends are appointed to look out for suitable Friends to succeed them in that important department, viz: Nathan Sharpless, Thos. Evans, Henry Cope, Beulah H. Nicholson, Hannah Rhoads, Elizabeth Pierson," and others.

At a special meeting, 9th mo. 17th, 1858, Thomas Evans, on behalf of the above committee, reported "that they had received a communication from David and Rachel H. Roberts, (which was read) informing that they believed it would be right for them to offer themselves for those stations, and which they were united in laying before the committee. Upon consideration it was concluded to accept the offer of those Friends, and they were accordingly appointed to the respective stations. Thomas Evans, Nathan Sharpless, James Emlen, Beulah H. Nicholson and Sidney Coates, were appointed to inform David and Rachel H. Roberts of this conclusion, and introduce them into the school.'

At this meeting an extract from the will of our late friend Jane Clark, was produced and read, as follows: "Item, I give and bequeath unto my executors, herein after named, and the survivors of them, &c., the sum of $1000, lawful money of the United States, in trust to pay over the same without any deduction. into the hands of the treasurer for the time being of the Institution established at Westtown, Chester Co., Pa., under the care and patronage of the Yearly Meeting of the religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, &c., for the school education and religious instruction of youth, &c., to be applied to the general use of that valuable In-Samuel Randolph,

On behalf of the Executors. 10th mo. 8th, 1858. In the will of our late friend Josiah Dawson, which since his decease has been duly proven, is contained the following bequest, viz: "I give and bequeath to my executors, and the survivor or survivors of them, four hundred (400) of my shares of the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven Railroad Company stock. In trust nevertheless to assign and transfer the same to such person or persons as the committee for the time being, having charge of Friends' Boarding School at Westtown by any minute of their proceedings, attested by the signature of their clerk, shall direct and appoint." This legacy, it was afterwards stated, was to be paid clear of deduction for collateral inheritance tax.

THOS. WILLIAMSON, In behalf of Executors.

Thomas Evans and Jos. Snowden were appointed trustees to receive it.

Repairs and alterations being needed in the bath houses, cooking apparatus, and in the ventilation of the boys' chambers, Thomas Evans, Horatio C. Wood, Aaron Sharpless and Jos. Scattergood were appointed to have them attended to.

Information was received by the committee in 1859 of a legacy of $500 from Ann Mifflin, and in 1860 of $200 from Catharine W. Morris, deceased.

4th mo. 5th, 1861. "The committee to whom was referred the resignation of our posed Dubree and Jane Knight to succeed Indians them as Superintendent and Matron of the In Rachel H. Roberts leave the school. Jas. Emlen, Beulah II, Nicholson and other Friends, also in its sales. were appointed to inform them of this conclusion: introduce them into the school, and age, not less than 170 persons being at present it is warmed and purified by its p render them such assistance in the perform-employed in this service in our own country, through the nose. ance of the important duties which will devolve upon them as may appear necessary.

torical and otherwise relating to Westtown States with the Scriptures Boarding School, which have from time to A Turkish Minister.—M. M. Mangasain by time appeared in "The Friend," having been birth a Turk, has accepted "a call" to a Presdesigned to bring to renewed notice the many byterian congregation in Philadelphia. advantages there offered for the education of the rising generation of Friends, as well as to said, is probably the smallest religious body soap in washing your hands, give time enlist the continued interest of our members in the world. According to count, there are thorough washing in this mixture, being in its welfare every way, and finding on the just sixty members in the little dingy hall in ful to thoroughly apply it to the affected. Minute Book, under date of 1861, an interest- Fetter-lane, where they meet to worship an which is most always the back part of ing address on this subject, it has been thought ideal humanity. Though they are avowed hands and wrists. In a day's time alm they might with propriety be concluded by its agnostics, they aim at a ritual worship, and the soreness will have left and the hand publication—asking for it an attentive perusal make an attempt to perpetuate the memory soon become smooth. In order that the by the members of our Yearly Meeting as well of saintly characters. Recently the "Festival may be permanent, this mixture shot as others who may be concerned for the best of Holy Women" was celebrated, Droquer, used every morning, especially during welfare of the youth of our Society. This it the high priest of humanity, officiating. He is proposed to publish in the next and final read George Eliot's famous Postivist hymn: New Material for Paper.—A new brais number of this series.

Whoever passes away, the Lord will abide with his people, and the church will be scenre. The grand old cause does not depend on one or two of us. God forbid! The truth was mighty in the land before the best man living was born, and when he is carried with funeral procession, sad and slow, to his resting-place, the truth will not be buried with him, but in its own immortal youth will still be powerful; yes, and fresh advocates will arise more full of life and vigor than we are, and greater victories will be won. If you cut down yonder noble oak which now covers so wide an area with its shade, there may spring up a dozen trees which else had been overshadowed by the giant and checked in their growth: the removal of one man is often the opportunity for the springing up of scores of others to do equal service. It is grand to say with Jacob, "Now I die, but God will be with you." Such language honors God and bespeaks a mind greatly trustful, and completely delivered from the self-conceit which dreams itself important, if not necessary, to the cause of God: So may we die trusting in the Lord, and meanwhile so may we live, reliant upon the divine power.—Spurgeon.

> For "The Friend." Religious Items, &c.

lating the Holy Scriptures without note or

It has distributed above 40,000,000 of conies in more than 80 languages or dialects; thus arises from different causes, for in Kingsley's depended upon it, I could not have fi reaching by its ministrations every quarter of Letters from the Tropics, he mentions that one shot. To see the men making the shores, and hundreds of thousands more to the water was drawn off. freedmen, and has paid special attention to Mouth-Breathing as a Disease Producer .- J. G. Wood.

Bible in raised letters for the blind.

friends David and Rachel H. Roberts, pro-the spiritual wants of the North American Dr. Carl Seiler addressed the Philach stitution, which on consideration was agreed wish to purchase them at the mere cost of ing." He said that many ills that are as to, and they are accordingly appointed to the manufacture, and at ten per cent. below cost to other causes are in reality due to the respective stations, and are expected to enter to auxiliary societies and dealers in book of this habit. Nature intended the 118 upon the duties thereof, when David and Thus the benevolent features of the Society's be used for inhaling and exhaling the work are manifest, not in its grants only, but phere and fitted it up for that purpose. I

> It conducts an extensive system of colport- give moisture to the air as it is inhaled and 214 in foreign lands.

The preparation of the several articles, his-time in the general supply of the United purity or improper temperature, or all r

"O might I join the Choir invisible," and re-ided passages from "The Imitation of Christ." the fabrication of T paper from moss, not A prayer was offered to the "Great Power" the living plant, but from the bleacher whom we here acknowledge as the Highest blanched remains of mosses that lived ground in Finland, having for its fundamental lence, from tissue to sheets three-quarts principle, the reversal of all ordinary ideas of an inch in thickness. These latter are he government, and establishing all or more than than wood. the most enthusiastic advocates of women's rights ever pleaded for. With them the work on Siam, relates, that during a jour woman is the first of the family, and the hus one of his suite fired at a monkey, wishit band undertakes to confess to her once a week.

A similar sect called Purists is said to exist in arms. He did not kill her, and the world. Siberia.

For " The Friend,"

Natural History, Science, &c.

the white-water of the Arabian Sea, is princi- we saw them burrying towards us should pally confined to a narrow belt to the eastward of the island of Socotra.

On a clear star-light night, a light here is were after the monkeys. suddenly discovered in the water as the ship moves rapidly along. In a short time this after them.' assumes a snow-white aspect, and in the course of a quarter of an hour extends to the sands coming down in the most unple horizon in all directions. The usually green manner. As the tide was out, there color of the sea is replaced by a whiteness great quantity of soft mud to cross t like that of milk. On drawing a bucket of they could gain the boat. Here the mor

This phenomenon has been attributed to pursuers were not twenty yards behind t reflection of color from the water, caused by a thin mist in the atmosphere. It probably treme, and I really think that, if my life of his fellow-passengers who had witnessed strenuous exertions to get through the It has prepared at great expense the entire it in the Indian Ocean, between Ceylon and mud, breathless with their run and f Singapore, said that a bucket of water taken combined, and the army of little wres It has supplied hundreds of thousands of up was filled with the same half-luminous drawn up in line within twenty yards o volumes to immigrants landing upon our whiteness, which stuck to its sides when the screaming! Besides there was the fe

Pharmaceutical Association, at the College Its publications are furnished to those who Pharmacy on the subject of "Mouth I mucous membrane contains glands, hi When taken d through the mouth into the lungs, their The Society is now engaged for the fourth apt, by reason of its lack of moistur to act as an irritant, especially in the lin A Turkish Minister .- M. M. Mangasain by and in the air cells of the lungs.

Remedy for Chapped-hands .- Take f teaspoonful to a tablespoonful of cider vi g The Church of Humanity, in London, it is and pour it into a quart of water, after Humanity, the Love of Humanity, the Hope turies ago, and of which enormous as of Humanity, bring you comfort, and teach have accumulated in most parts of Swl you sympathy; give you peace in yourselves A manufactory of paper from this may and peace with others, now and ever. Amen." has begun operations near Joenkaeping A Finland Sect.—A new sect is gaining is turning out paper in all degrees of a > Monkeys .- Sir J. Bowring, in his adm mother retreated into the jungle, car her child with her. The rest must be to Sir John's own words:

"Five men immediately followed her White-Water .- The phenomenon known as ere they had been ont of sight five min Ling, ling, ling, ling! (i. e., monkey). could see nothing, I asked Hunter if

"'Oh, no,' he replied; 'the monkey'

"And so they were; thousands upon The American Bible Society.—This organization the water, it is found to be beautifully clear, gained very rapidly upon the men; and tion has been engaged for 66 years in circuland not a vestige of anything white is visible, at length the boat was reached, their sa

> "The whole scene was ludicrous in th that they had the right side of the quest

THE FRIEND.

FIRST MONTH 27, 1883.

have received a communication from an med friend in Ohio, commenting on some rks of Dr. John Fothergill, on Education, shed in No. 20 of our present volume. writer is evidently fearful lest the recom ation of family worship, as therein exed, may be construed by some into an oval of stated prayers and similar formal ices which have ever been regarded as riance with the principles of our Society. iews on these points are sound and good; ve believe are the same as those held by Fothergill himself. In examining the le prior to publication, the same question nted -as to the danger of the expression nily Worship," being misunderstood; but ccompanying remarks seemed clearly to that it was not intended to recommend ing "inconsistent," as the article says, our religious principles and practices th our belief, that we cannot approach Amighty acceptably without a prepara-

e concern of Dr. Fothergill is in accord with the advices which have often been by the Society of Friends to its memi. e .- To read the Scriptures in their ics, "and to sit in reverent silence before a portion of Holy Scripture with our early Friends. s turned to Him who gave them forth, living desires after the true bread of life, eby our souls might be nourished, and He might be pleased to enable us to offer worship which is alone acceptable in his

of a fresh qualification for every exercise ic worship, are in the practice of praying, d times; and such labors are often spoken you. "family worship," In reference to such wing judicious remarks.

apprehend that if such a system were adopted would be danger of our settling into a form with-Many of our worthy early Friends recomled the practice of reading the Holy Scriptures tively and were faithful in the performance of d no doubt such opportunities were, often blessed em, in which they were at seasons enabled to offer up their sacrifice to God for them. be living high praises to the Lord. And I be-many times the dear children are made par-marks: "Will-worship is the offspring of the

believe, that when our hands are engaged in the tain of your salvation? Run not in your own performance of our lawful business, or we may be reclining on our beds in the darkness of the night ing of your own heads and contrivings, yet when no mortal eye sees us; our hearts may be turned to the Lord with fervent desires that He may be pleased to enable us to walk acceptably before Him, and to perform acceptable worship in his sight. As parents and heads of families are thus engaged, I fully believe they will be enabled, both by example and precept, to instruct their beloved children in the way to the kingdom; in stillness and in patient waiting upon their Father who is in heaven. as they may be brought by the instrumentality of rightly exercised parents, and the visitations of Divine love in their souls, to submit to the cross of Christ, they will see the necessity of denying them-selves of the vain fashions of the world. My great desire is that there may be a more earnest exercise of spirit before the Holy One to be redeemed from all improper engagement in worldly things and to be more entirely devoted to the service of our Creator. from whom we receive all our blessings, both spiritual and temporal, and thus we might be favored to experience more fully a partaking of that river the streams whereof make glad the whole heritage of

We value such comments and criticisms, written in a friendly spirit, both because they furnish opportunities for correcting mistakes we may have made and removing apprehensions which may exist; and also because they tend to increase that necessary care to avoid expressions which are liable to convey a wrong impression.

In reading the articles forwarded by Charles in whom we live and move and have our Shieldstream, of Nebraska; and remember-" and that heads of families in this ing that he was born and educated in Sweden ble, reverential silence should seek for a among those of the Lutheran profession, and fication rightly to discharge their duties that since his removal to this country he has ose dependent upon them. It is in ac-very rarely met with any one under our name; ince also with the views of our Ohio we have been much interested in observing spondent, who says he can fully unite the strong testimony that has been raised in the practice, which he himself has fol- his heart against the system of Will-worship, d for many years, "of having our families of which he constantly speaks as Babylon, the lomestics collected daily, to have read to term very frequently applied to it by our

The writings of William Penn furnish frequent references to this subject. In a Tender Visitation to the people of Holland, he says: "Babylon lives too much yet in every one, of otable inceuse unto Him, and to perform all sorts of people or professors, by whom the truth is held in unrighteousness. When they see not through the Light of the Spirit of my religiously disposed people, who do Christ, and when their knowledge and worgold the views of Friends as to the neces-ship of God, is not received and performed by that same blessed Spirit; there I say is Babylon .- that is, confusion; oh, come out of her unding or exhorting in their families at my people! saith the Lord, and I will receive

In a Call to Christendom, this passage ocal services, our correspondent makes the curs: "All that pray, preach, sing, worship, &c., and not by the Light and Spirit of Jesus they go before Christ, before Christ cometh. before He prepareth their hearts, and toucheth fe, and although good as to form or words, might their lips with a coal from his Heavenly altar; e at all acceptable to the Father. For 'they and perform worship in their own will, time worship Him must worship Him in spirit and and power, and stay not for his leadings. And therefore all such rob Christ of his office, who is the Leader of the true Christians; their Heavenly High-Priest to anoint them, and

In one of his epistles, William Penn remany times the dear children are made parts of the same, and words of counsel and in-serpent and of the will of man; and it can tion are handed forth by parents or such as may repared and qualified by the ever blessed and that led him so carnestly to exhort other to need of the enurch, use and acceptable worship is not confined to avoid, what he terms this dangerous device or place according to the declaration of our of the enemy of their souls: "Are ye followers wills, wait for his word of command, do nothdo all with diligence that He requireth. Remember what became of them of old that offered false fire.

"Touch not with man-made ministers, nor man-made worships, let their words be never so true. 'Tis but man, 'tis but flesh, 'tis but the will; and it shall have no acceptance with God.

"Remember that nothing bringeth to Christ, that cometh not from Christ. Wherefore all ministry that cometh not from Christ, God's great Prophet and High-Priest to all trueborn Christians, cannot bring people to Christ. Man only gathereth to man, to hear and helieve in man, and depend on man.'

"True silence before the Lord is better abundantly than forward prayers and selfwilled offers, or any traditional and formal performances. For, consider, that it is life eternal to know God. Now, no man can know Him, who has not heard his voice. And no man can hear his voice, who is not silent in himself, and waits not patiently for Him, that he may hear what God will speak to his

There is scarcely anything in the political aspect of the affairs of this country that has been more satisfactory of latter times, than the general interest that has been awakened in Civil Service Reform, both as to the National Government and the municipal administration; and the practical advance that has been made in carrying that reform into operation.

We seldom refer in these columns to matters purely political, but this subject has important moral bearings also. The general tendency of the system which regards positions in the administrative employment of the country as the reward of efforts to secure the political success of certain parties or persons, is so thoroughly demoralizing in its character to all concerned, that we can but rejoice in the success of every proper effort to introduce purer methods of administration.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS

UNITED STATES .- Five of the fourteen regular appropriation bills have passed both Houses, but of these the Agricultural bill is the only one which has yet been sent to the President for his signature. Three others. viz: The Indian, the Consular and Diplomatic, and the Williamy Academy bills, are in the hands of Conference Committees. The more important amendments to the Post-office Appropriation bill passed by the Senate on Seventh-day the 20th inst., are the following: Fixing Seventh mo. 1st, 1883, as the date on which the reduc-tion of letter postage to 2 cents shall take effect, instead of First mo. 1st, 1884; striking out the House provision in regard to compensation of subsidized railroads for carrying the mails, and inserting an appropriation of $185,000 for continuance of the existing "fast mail

On the 16th instant, Senator Dawes, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill to provide for the allotment of lands in severalty to the Ottawas in the Indian Territory, "and for other purposes,"
The Census Office has just issued a special bulletin showing the consumption of forest products as fuel in the United States during the census year. It appears that the number of persons using wood for domestic fuel was 23,375,074. The amount of wood so consumed was 140,537,439 cords, valued at $306,950,040. The amount of wood consumed by railroads and steamboats, in mining operations and in manufacturing, was 5,240,-698 cords, valued at $15,012,333. In addition to this there were consumed 74,008,972 bushels of charcoal valued at $5,276,736.

The Prohibitory amendment to the Constitution of Redeemer to the woman of Samaria, and I fully of the Lamb, that hath visited you, the Cap- lova, adopted by the people of that State last Sixth month, was on the 18th inst. declared invalid by the Supreme Court, on technical grounds.

The total exports of breadstuffs from the United States during the year 1882, amounted in value to $182,682,734, against $224,124,832 during 1881.

The "blizzard" which prevailed in the Northwest during Sixth-day of last week, was the worst storm of says: "It is evident that Saturday's proceedings in the winter. It extended from Nebraska north to Manitoba, and from Wisconsin west to the Missouri river, Many railroad trains were abandoned on different roads, and the blockade continued on Seventh-day, the wind blowing the snow into the cuts and filling them up. The the strongest part of the case. The inquiry will pro-temperature in Minnesota was about 20 degrees below bably be protracted for several weeks."

on the 16th instan and destroyed a great part of the city. It is supplezero; in Dakota and Montana, 30 to 35 below, and in

A Southern Pacific express train, which left San Francisco on Sixth-day morning, was wrecked near Tehicipa Station, and 21 persons were killed and 13 in-jured. The train had stopped to detach an engine and went over a fifteen-foot embankment. The other fire. Many of the victims were burned to death before the eyes of those who were unable to save them. the injured, nine were badly burned and one was not expected to survive.

reported to be "almost completely filled" with ice. The these two bodies, the decision will probably be left to cakes of ice thrown up along the shore have caused the Khedive.

much destruction to property.

The Hamburg-American Line steamer Cimbria, The Hamburg-American Line steamer Cimbria, criticizing the present situation, and claiming the Na-wbich left Hamburg on the 17th inst. for New York, poleonic inheritance. The manifesto was also found came in collision with the British steamer Sultan on Sixth-day, the 19th, off Borkum, an island of Prussia, in dwells on the impotence and incapacity of the Govern-The Cimbria quickly sank. At the time of making the army, and of the finances. He declares that religion this Summary, 410 persons it was feared were lost, and is attacked, and that the observance of the Concordat 55 were known to have been saved.

doubled in two years, and now reaches 300,000, and that the amount of taxable property is $50,000,000 At a sale of Jersey cows and calves in this city on Napoleon the 19th inst., fifteen of them sold for between $600 and ciergerie. $925 a-piece. and $545 each. Eighteen others brought between $400 and 8 of small-pox.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104; 3½'s 103½; 4½'s, 113½; 4's, 119½; currency 6's, 129 a 132.

Grain.—In wheat there was very little movement, but prices were firmer. Sales of 4000 bushels red in car lots at $1.08 a $1.18. Rye is firm at 65 cts, for No. 2 appearance of the accused to answer: Two were sen-Pennsylvania. Corn is firm in the local market, with tenced to two years' imprisonment, to pay 1000 francs Oats are in fair request and firm. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots at 45 a 52 cts.

the different yards at 43 a 7 cts. per lb., the latter rate appeal.

Three terrific explosions took place on the 19th in a

Sheep were dull and lower: 13,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at $3\frac{1}{2}$ a $6\frac{1}{2}$ cts., and lambs at $\frac{1}{4}$ a $7\frac{1}{2}$ cts. per pound, as to condition.

Hogs were in demand: 5000 head arrived and sold much damaged. The loss of life is unknown, it in Ireland under the Crimes act, were examined on Seventh-day last. The Times, in a leading editorial, plosion have been discovered. It appears that cials. Although the secrets of the prosecution thus far have been kept with praiseworthy discretion, it is not believed that the counsel for the crown has begun with bably be protracted for several weeks."

A cable despatch received in Boston recently from Dublin says: "The whole north of Ireland is in a most.

The Government of India did an admirable s. Exp : in Dakota and Atomana, we would have a series of the action of the series of the complete destruction business when it established chinchona plar white man were killed, and thirteen Chinese and one; the rotting of the entire potato crops, owing to the complete destruction. The cash profit on the Bengal plantations alwhite man were killed, and thirteen Chinese and one; the rotting of the entire potato crops, owing to constant white man were injured, some of them fatally. Eight rains. In one place send; general destitution destructions of powder blew up, leaving 200 tons intact. The cause of the explosion is not known.

The chinese and one; the rotting of the entire potato crops, owing to constant plant year was $10,700, besides $10,500 save was $10,500 save was $10,500 save was $10,700 sav

Policemen sent to Glendale, Isle of Skye, to serve a process and arrest Crofters, were forcibly driven back. The Times says: The scheme formulated by the them, leaving the Government to Gen. Iglesia which assisted in pulling it up the grade. The air-brake Egyptian Government, approved by Lord Dofferin, that the Diplomatic Representatives desirous of had been taken off, and the men who tended the hand and transmitted to the Foreign Office, proposes that the had been taken off, and the men who tended the land and transmitted to the Foreign Office, proposes that the have agreed to write to their respective Govern brakes "were away from their posts, one attending to Khedive of Egypt shall have a Council of twelve re-littat the only hope of securing peace is by a join switching the engine, and the other relighting his sponsible Ministers, and that a legislative Council of sentation at Santiago on a basis of the cession of lamp." The cars ran down the grade at a fearful speed fourteen members shall be formed, half of whose sheathed in the present for four miles, when the hindmost sleeper left the track be nominated by the Khedive and half chosen by the system of double election, such as that for which abunsleeper and the mail, baggage and express cars followed, dant precedents exist in the American Constitution and and were piled in a shattered heap, the wreck catching others. An elective Assembly of forty-four members is also proposed, to be convened to occasionally discuss Of special subjects

The latter will not participate in legislation, but will assist legislation by giving voice to the classes hitherto It is now known that of 177 people said to be in the inarticulate. The initiation of legislation rests wholly Newhall House, Milwaukie, at the time of the fire, 102 with the Conneil of Ministers; but its projects must be were saved, leaving the number lost at 75. The gorge below the ice bridge at Niagara Falls is law. In the event of irreconcilable differences between

Prince Napoleon (Plon Plon), has issued a manifesto placarded in several quarters of Paris. The Prince the North Sea, twenty-six miles northwest of Emden. ment, the disunion of Parliament, and the decadence of is attacked, and that the observance of the Concordat were known to have been saved.

Gov. Ordway, of Dakota, says in his Message to the any compromise with Royalists. He adverts to the Legislature, that the population of the Territory has plebiscites by which the Empire was sanctioned. The manifesto was torn down by the police. Having appeared in the Figaro, that paper was seized. Prince Napoleon was arrested and imprisoned in the Con-

At the recent trial of the anarchists at Lyons, Emile Gautier, Bernard, Bordat, of the Lyons Socialistic The deaths in this city last week numbered 407, which journal, Etendard Revolutionaire, and Prince Krapotkine was 17 more than for the previous week, and 43 less were found guilty and sentenced each to five years' imthan for the same period last year. Of the foregoing, prisonment and to pay 2000 francs fine, to ten years' 203 were males and 204 females: 66 died of consump- police supervision and to five years' deprivation of civil tin; 42 of pneumonia; 28 of diphtheria; 17 of brom- rights. Sentences varying in terms were passed in the chitis; 17 of old age; 13 of croup; 12 of typhoid fever, cases of other persons convicted, and also several sencases of other persons convicted, and also several sentences in default of the appearance of the accused.

Morkets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104; 3]'s 103]; 44's, 113]; four of the accessed were acquitted; ten, including the printer Vaillat, were sentenced to pay 50 francs fine Cotton.—There was no material change to notice in orice or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at pay 100 francs fine, to a similar deprivation of civil rights; nine bits son-in-law, William P. Dewees, Linn Co., 100 francs fine, to a similar deprivation of civil printer Vailary (100 francs fine, 100 francs fine, 10 101 a 101 ets. per pound for uplands and New Orleans. rights, and one year's imprisonment; eleven, including and elder of Springville Monthly Meeting of Fri Petroleum.—Standard white, 7\frac{3}{8} a 7\frac{1}{2} cts. for export, Regis Faure, to be deprived of civil rights, to pay a fine and 83 a 83 cts, per gallon for home use.

Flour is in good request and firm. Sales of 3200 three to be deprived of civil rights, to pay a fine of 300 Floir is in good request and nrm. Sates of 200 linere to be deprived of civil rights, to pay a fine of 300 barrels, including Minnesot extras, at $8.37½ a $6; frames, and to two years' imprisonment; three to ten Pennsylvania family at $4.75; western do. at $5 a years's police supervision, to pay a fine of 500 frames, $5.60, and patents at $6 a $7.50. Rye flour is quiet and to three years' imprisonment, and three were sentenced at $3.62½ a $3.75 per barrel. francs, and to similar police supervision.

The following sentences were passed in default of the refinsylvalia. Consistent in the local manage, with teneral to two years unfortenents to pay 3000 range (ght differings. Sales of 8000 bushels at 5a 629 ets.) fine and to five years police supervision, and ten to five loat are in fair request and firm. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots at 45 a 52 ets.

Beef cattle were rather dull this week and prices on the delivery of the sentences, and the court-room were a fraction higher; 3300 head arrived and sold at was cleared. It is believed that the condemned will > gunpowder manufactory in the town of Mniden, in Holconcussion. The neighboring towns and villages are at the different yards at 8\ a 9\ cts, per lb., as to feared that forty persons perished. The exple quality. FOREIGN.—A number of the persons recently arrested Muiden. Windows in the eastern suburb of Ireland under the Crimes act, were examined on dam were broken. Twelve bodies, victims of workmen were in the building at the time of plosion. The town is greatly damaged. The tants are leaving their houses

A despatch from Vienna says: A letter has ceived here from Odessa, reporting the occurre

soon as the Cajamarca Assembly names the offi the Northern Departments, the Chilians will e have agreed to write to their respective Govern

NOTICE.

A meeting of the Teachers' Association of Fri Philadelphia, will be held on Seventh-day, Seco 3d, at 2.30 P. M., at the Boys' Select School, 820 St. The subjects to be discussed are Written Et tions and Methods of Teaching Geography; and ot time permit.

The attendance of Friends interested, is invite CORRECTION .- In the last No. of "The Fi on page 188, middle column, in the 3rd line of t stanza, for angles read angels.

WANTED.

At Westtown Boarding School, in the Girls I ment, a teacher well qualified to give instruct Reading and Grammar. To enter on her duties opening of next summer session.

Application may be made to

REBECCA G. PASSMORF, Concordville, Del. Co., ANN ELIZABETH COMFOR Fallsington, Bucks Co., HANNAH EVANS,

P. O. box 129, Moorestown, Burlington Co., N

DIED, on the 27th of 9th month, 1882, MARIA of Wm. P. Dewees, in the 58th year of her age, a ber of Springville Monthly Meeting, Iowa. useful member of our Society, filling acceptabl several years, the stations of elder and overseer. bore a lingering illness with remarkable patienc resignation, leaving to survivors the coosoling evi-

This dear Friend possessed great meekness and hur which attended him through life, ever bearing a ful testimony against innovations upon the princ of our Society, and when laid upon a sick bed, we abled to endure a protracted illness with patien leaving a well-grounded hope that his end was pe-, at his home in Pennsville, Morgan co Ohio, on the 20th of 12th mo. 1882, WILLIA LLEWELYN, son of Thomas and Martha Llewel the 15th year of his age, a member of Penn-Monthly and Particular Meeting. His afflictions of many weeks of great suffering, which he was enable bear with a good degree of Christian patience and nation. On one occasion he interceded for help to e him to bear his sufferings with patience. A short before his close he seemed sensible his end was no at which he did not seem alarmed. His family friends feel a comfortable hope that his end was p

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

DL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SECOND MONTH 3, 1883.

NO 26.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

f paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail, Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to

JOSEPH WALTON, Moorestown, Burlington Co., N. J.

tions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PRILADELPHIA.

For " The Frienc,"

Pennsylvania History. he Projected Palatinate of Sir E. Plowden. (Continued from page 194.)

societies, overlook the truth that such not only of deep religious sensibility, but of has been involved in mystery, but the arrangement of their societies, out certain antecedents—without a cer-of great dimensions, which took in the past, and the present and the future, and which, moved the present and the future, and which, moved the present and the settlement of diverse claims, doubtless of essential value, and any atts to describe the origin of Pennsyltr Commonwealth ignored.

Jersey," which was colonized by leading inds of the period, he proved his attach-to the principles of civil and religious ty which he afterwards displayed upon science of one's fellow-citizens. Thus were Jersey, and have permitted his successful erected on the opposite banks of the Dela- efforts to establish a colony of his own, and ware, two Christian Commonwealths, similar to found a city, to overshadow the part he in spirit and design, and unlike any other took in influencing the legislation of the minor compacts or attempts to form a government and more agricultural province, of which, that had proceded wholly from the will and though not the founder, he was the master skill of man. The superiority of Penn's legis- spirit of its fundamental law. lation arose from the fact that "his jurisprudence was not drawn from the Old Testa-bis connection with the efforts to relieve from ment" but from the New. "He had made their difficulties the colonists who had folreligion the business of his life, and the world lowed Fenwick and his unstable fortunes, is more indebted to his religion than to his has recently been given us by Judge John at a theme so lofty as the History of talents, great as they no doubt were, for the Clement, of Haddonfield, N. J. More than sylvania, and demanding for its proper excellence of his institutions." "The policy seven years before he received the grant of his government grew out of his religious his Sylvania, Penn became interested in the wered should have found no worthy pen principles." "Greater than the divinity that efforts to establish this colony of Friends in thared to essay it, is not surprising. When doth hedge a king, is the divinity that en. New Jersey. He was early called upon to member how few who have aspired to compasses the righteous man and the rightone historians have deserved the name, one phistorians have deserved the name, one proved but partisan advocates, spetootprints of William Penn." "This pattern funds in improperly aiding Fenwick in his

* To Penn, we believe, belongs the many lyania, where been the first to propose a union of the separate settle-genuine Christian spirit led him to imments which were to become States. As early as 1697, gennine Christian spirit led min to impense which were to become States. As early as 1804, ester county, West New Jersey." This is billantbrophy and lofty sense of justice Jerue liberty. The "Charter of Liberties" with delegates from each American province, to determine the many of the English pioneers of one of the mine the ways and means for supporting their union, the of the "Concessions" to the New love of the New love of the state of the supporting their union, and the Jersey colonists; and in New Jersey and can Constitution," says Gladstone, "is the Pennsylvania was the example earliest set for most wonderful work ever struck off at a imitation by sister States, showing how it is given time by the brain and purpose of man." The biographers of William Penn have tions without disturbing the peace and con-cursorily treated of his connection with New

An important addition to our knowledge of bleaders, or writers of "romance founded of a Christian Commonwealth never fails to purchase. A decision was reached and Fencer," we may persuade ourselves that the the historian has not been properly cult its beauties." * "Every ingenuous soul parts, while to Byllynge's creditors, who were ad, or that philosophy has not yet president of the properly in our day," says the same just and eloquent mostly Friends, were awarded ninety parts I the way for the full comprehension of writer, "offers his willing tribute to those of the one handred into which the lands had rinciples upon which it should be found.

"Those who regard the histories of soso as the history of their great men, and and priligin of Plymouth Rock seems earthly and latter party. A controversy fierce and unrethat these great men shape the fate of coarse." "Penn," says Upham, "was a man lenting arose and continued a long time, and er have been generated nor could have as it were, by Divine inspiration, foresaw, an- William Penn became the purchaser of certain he culture which formed them. If their ticipated, and in part regulated the destinies rights, and through his wise and conciliatory ty is to some extent remolded by them, of humanity." Drawn from the source of course, litigation was brought to a close, but were, both before and after birth, molded pure wisdom—the immediate revelation of not until he had become governor of his new eir society-were the results of all those the Divine mind-we need not wonder that State. It was while thus engaged, in 1676, ences which fostered the ancestral char- "in the early constitution of Pennsylvania he assisted in framing a government acceptathey inherited, and gave their own early are to be found the distinct anunciation of ble to the adventurers and to the proprietors their creed, morals, knowledge and aspi-velopment of every valuable improvement in sions and Agreement of the proprietors, freehe experience gained by Penn in his government or legislation which has been in-holders and inhabitants of the Province of erattempts at colonization in New Jersey troduced into the political systems of modern West New Jersey;" and therein is exhibited epochs." (T. I. Wharton's Discourse before the the breadth and Christian spirit of Penn and Penn Society, 1826.) It was from the Constia's liberties would but imperfectly present tution of Pennsylvania, and not from that of in efforts to establish the true basis of reprehistory, were the story of the birth of her any New England colony, that the noblest sentative government, by placing "the power features of our National Constitution were in the people." The valuable paper by Judge his "Concessions, &c., to the settlers of drawn, features which have elicited the en- Clement has been published by the Pennsylthusiastic admiration of the ablest and wisest vania Historical Society, in the Pennsylvania who had made legislation and statesmanship the theme of study or discourse. "The American are the state of th grant settlers in Newton township, old Glou-cester county, West New Jersey." This is Colony," by Thomas Shourds, of Hancock's pioneer colonist.

Fenwick," the founder of Salem, N. J., the the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son earliest successful English colony, in which of God, unto a full grown man, unto the meawe have for the first time a clear account of sure of the stature of the fulness of Christ? the original records of courts, Friends' Meet-Jesus. ings and elsewhere. Previous to the effort the arrival of Fenwick in 1675.

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend." Thoughts about the Eternal Gospels and the full assurance, and in a child of Light there miles. Then come rolling grassy hills, v Falling Babylon.

TRUE MINISTRY.

Ephesians reads: "I, therefore, the prisoner in God, who sent his beloved Son into the Zealand, so high and rough as not to of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of world for a Light and a Teacher, near all and for any stock but rabbits. Among the the calling with which you are called, with in all, then men reject Him, their Saviour, and smaller mountains are many plai all lowliness and meekness, with long suffer-and will not have Him to rule over them; but considerable extent. The rivers Oret ing, forbearing one another in love, giving still claim to be a Christian people, and build Aparima have exceedingly wide and shifting the control of the Soirit in temples of wood and stone to God, to whom beds, and flow through flats for almo the bond of grace. There is one body, and no such a honse can be built; and hire parche, their courses. The sandbills where the one spirit, also even ye were called in one ers to preach about God and Christ in their bits were turned out are between the magnetic parts. hope of your calling-one Lord, one faith, one houses. Yes, they hire preachers taught by of those two rivers. baptism, one God and Father of all, who is men, who keep up will-worship, and keep 1n 1876 the evil bad grown to such a over all and through all, and in all. But unto their hearers depending on their words; tent that the colonial government appo each one of us was the grace given according though some of them never have attained to a Commission to inquire and report to the measure of the gift of Christ, wherefore the knowledge of the Truth; but led by their the state of the rabbit unisance, and to the state of the rabbit unisance, and the state of the rabbit unisance are stated to the state of the state of the rabbit unisance. captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men farther from the truth. Oh how infinitely through the country, and made many inqu (Now this, that He ascended, what is that but good and wise is God! and has he not made Their Report said what every one kne He also descended first unto the lower part men right—but they seek many inventions? ready—that matters were very bad, and of the earth? He that descended is the same Such preachers sometimes have no more true to be much worse. An Act was then p also that ascended, far above all heavens, that knowledge of divine things than their hearers, by the legislature which gave a bonus He might fill all things), and He gave some not having listened to the voice of God in halfpenny for every rabbit-skin exported to be apostles, and some prophets, and some their own hearts, but making up a way of empowered the inhabitants of any dievangelists, and some pastors and teachers; salvation according to texts expounded in badly overrun with rabbits to elect a B for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work their own carnal wisdom. of ministering unto the building up of the How can a child of man dare to steal the land destroyed their rabbits. In case body of Christ, till we all attain unto the words of holy men, and make a trade of them? holder failed to do so, the Board was to unity of the faith, and the knowledge of the How do people dare to hire a carnally minded it done at his expense. Son of God, unto a full-grown man, unto the man, how learned seever according to human It is hard for any one not acquainted outline sketch of two hundred years. Many measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ, wisdom, to be their instructor in divid familiar names of residents of West New Jer-that we may be no longer children, tossed to dom, when they have the true Light sey and Philadelphia appear therein, whose and fro, and carried about with every wind of enlightens every man who cometh in representatives would do both themselves and doctrine, by the sleight of men, and in crafti-world? their posterity a favor by procuring copies of ness after the will of error, but speaking truth in There is nothing more true, good, s it while it is in their power to do so. A cen-love, may grow in all things unto Him, which is and perfect on the earth, than man be tury hence Judge Clement's work will be very the Head, even Christ, from whom all the into unity with his God, Creator at highly valued by the grand-children of the body fitly framed and knit together through deemer; walking in the Light, and we living named therein. Another work of simi-that which every joint supplieth, according ping God in spirit and in truth. In lar intent, and very interesting to the families to the working in due measure of each several and reverence he bears the voice of God of those named and described in its pages, part, maketh the increase in the body unto indeed the temple of God. And there is a "History and Genealogy of Fenwick's the building up of itself in love."

Bridge, Salem Co., New Jersey, 1876; and is any one, no matter what organization of men nal notion, and resists and rebels again a timely effort to trace the descent of many calling itself the church, he belongs to, unless Light; and honors an unknown Goc of the early adventurers of that unhappy he is called and qualified by Christ himself, will-worship; yet pretends himself to be an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor or teacher of others, and talks about him "A sketch of the life and character of John preacher, or aid his brothren in attaining unto God's minister.

the eareer of this remarkable man, has ap- The true ministers who are sent by Christ, peared from the pen of Judge Clement, and they turn the people to Christ, the true Light; to Invercargil, a town in the south of was published by "Friends" [Hicksite] His- and when they follow the manifestation of Zealand, brought with him from Entorical Association of Philadelphin," in 1875; the Light, Spirit and Grace in their own seven rabbits. He offered them for a pamphlet of '95 octavo pages. This is a hearts, then they own Christ to be their free the authorities of the former proving the control of the former proving the former proving the former proving the former proving the control of the former proving the former provi very interesting contribution to New Jersey Teacher, Prophet, High Priest and King, and Southland; and they, thinking it would history, and is the result of research among they sit down in heavenly places in Christ good thing to have some furred game (

Now when ministers undertake to repre- him a small sum of money to turn the of Fenwick, a colony of English from New sent divine things by their imagination and there. I believe that rabbits were also t Haven, Connecticut, had, in 1634, settled on notions, which they never have witnessed or out further north in Otago; but those Salem creek, but finding that the territory handled, are they not like actors on a stage were the progenitors of the mighty s was claimed by the English Earl, Sir Edmund representing events they have never seen? which has infested the country.

Plowden, under grants from King Charles I., It has not been uncommon to hear a rethey swore featly to Sir Edmund, as the vivalist say, "I imagine that I am seeing about the sandhills, where there was "Palatine of Albion," though the country was men, women and children go right into hell;" good shooting, and little was thought of claimed by the Dutch and possessed by the and so describe hell as if he had been there; When they got very thick, they fed so Swedes. This earliest English colony was and tell the people, "come just now, just as to the ground that the covering sward varies annoyed, their houses burnt and goods you are, willing or not—come to the mourn-held the sandhills together was destr confiscated and themselves made prisoners; ing-seat and be prayed for," &c. It is awful and the sand began to be blown inland, but they were finally permitted to remain and to think how many scare-crows such blinding a good deal of ground. The rabbits build and continue in their chosen field until leaders of the blind have put before the ex-selves also become a nuisance to the fa cited imagination of their hearers. But the near the coast; but these holdings are gospel, the true Gospel, is not imaginary, but and by trapping and shooting, the farm stands in the Light and power of Christ, and be kept moderately clear. The country is no imaginary or uncertain sound. It is a most affecting consideration, that tains of about five thousand feet, fit for sl The 4th chapter of Paul's letter to the when men live and move and have their being and farther still is the great backbone of

Now, impartial reader, I ask thee, how can who professes God according to his ow

Rabbits in New Zealand. BY A RUN-HOLDER.

About a score of years ago an imm sandhills which abound on the coast,

For some years the rabbits seemed to begin the sheep-runs. Further back are n whose duty it was to see that all holde thousand. A sheep-run is generally a stretched and dried. es have only, in many cases, a short time away with. n, it does not pay the tenants to go to es of skins a good deal less.

many people used this plan to a considextent; but it was too expensive to atold hilly country. een found that oats-about one-third of nick. ice of wheat-are better, and that the rhodium and sugar are not necessary.

ubject to understand the desolation The process of mixing is now simple and safe. th by apparently so small a plague. It At first, people used to stir the mixture over be remembered that the population in an open boiler, and so ran great risks from the

of country belonging to the Crown, The cure is certainly wonderful. Wherever board of her. His fellow officers ridicaled the conthe run holder, for a yearly rent or the poison has been properly laid, the rabbits lidea of preferring an old collier to the noble ment, has the sole right of rearing stock. have well nigh disappeared, and the nuisance ship in which they then were; but he and his n the last year or so, the rabbit plague has become a perfectly manageable one. The friend persisted and transferred themselves to rown to such an extent that many runs skins at present prices bring more than it her. The same evening a hurricane arose, been utterly abandoned as worthless by costs to obtain and prepare them, so that any land the vessel they had quitted was never olders, who of course have ceased to pay one can afford to clear his run, however short heard of afterwards. In connection with this rents to the Crown. All sheep-farmers his lease may be. All this good is worked period he once remarked to a friend, on being different plans. The principal one has greater part of the South Island will be made was mercifully enabled also to see the remedy, to employ men with large packs of dogs useless. Better import game at some future and the entire spirituality of the Gospel disll at so much a skin—the skins being time, than be driven out of the country. The pensation. In accordance with this feeling, rly stretched and dried. These men native birds will not be exterminated. There he remarked, "I was at this time convinced rap. The cost of killing has generally As far as I can judge by experience, even lieved in looking back, that this had been the about twopence a head, and the produce where poison is thickly laid, birds do not take case; no human means were made use of; it rious other plans have been tried for over it every day, and I have never seen a Holy Spirit upon my heart." ng the nuisance, and ingenious inventors poisoned native titlark, a bird which abounds feelings he became dissatisfied with the milidevised many traps of the most absurd everywhere. None of the wood-birds are tary profession, and resolved that if permitted o be ruined.

from rabbiters' dogs. I am sorry for the we'year 1796.

ka and the Paradise duck—the latter a beauti- For some time subsequently, to this event, by its means to exterminate rabbits, or together without at times mutually and se truth; and in the course of a few months, he keep them in check over large blocks of verely jarring against each other." One of was led openly to espouse those views of it, the most holy and universally beloved per- of which, in after years he was an unflinehing at stat plan, and that which we all hope is sons I ever knew, once said to me in her old advocate. The little meeting which he atthe salvation of the country, has been in age, "My child, seek faith with your whole tended in the carly part of his religious course, r upwards of a year. It is to sprinkle heart, and obedience to God; for however that of Handsworth Woodhouse, was usually poisoned with phosphorus wherever amiable and devoted those around you may held in silence; and he has been often known are rabbits. At first, crushed wheat be, there is much need of forbearance with to refer to some of these solemn seasons, as sed, and a certain quantity of oil of rho-and sugar was added, to make the bait fully enough to try that faith and love at in which the power of the Lord was sensibly attractive. On experience, however, it times to the utmost."-M. A. Shimmelpen-felt, and his Truth revealed.

Prayer is the vital breath of faith.

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

Daniel Wheeler experienced some remarkcater part of the interior of Otago is fumes of phosphorus. A better way is to put able preservations, to which he often referred sparse—houses being seldom less than the oats into a barrel with a close fitting lid, as the merciful interpositions of an overruling iles apart—that a run of fifty thousand saturate them with boiling water, pour in the providence on his behalf; of these, one in par-is often worked by balf-a-dozen men, and phosphorus—which has been fused in a small ticular appears to have arrested his attention. rabbits breed once a month for eight pan of hot water—and then roll the barrel A vessel in which he was appointed to sail, as of the year, having from four to eight backwards and forwards for a quarter of an and which was considered a remarkably fine ones at a time. The surest test of the hour. The poisoned grain will be fit to lay one, was exceedingly crowded, from the prethe decrease of sheep, and there are out when cold. It is usual to sell the poison ference given to her by many of the officers, of the officers, and the decrease is three, to men who lay it out on the runs. They cold One morning after they had been some weeks so of the former stock. One run I know lect the skins of the rabbits, and are paid, gen-at sea, a collier (being one of the vessels hired the stock has diminished from twenty erally, twopence apiece for them properly as transports.) coming along side, he proposed to one of his friends, that they should go on been much impoverished, and many without disturbance to the sheep, and the questioned as to the means made use of in the d. The license to occupy runs are gen-packs of hideous mongrels which have for divine hand for effecting 'a new birth uncor for a period of ten years; and as these years infected the country may at last be done, righteousness' in his heart,—that he could not remember any outward means having The objections to the cure are of course ob-been employed, unless indeed, he might exexpense in killing rabbits.

vious. All imported and native game will cept a storm at sea, during which his mind to the run-holders, as rule, have done their suffer severely where poson is laid. The rub- was deeply affected; and when, under a feel, because the rabbits, and have tried bits much, however, be put down, or else the ing of his work lost condition by mature, he generally from twelve to twenty dogs is too much wild country which is not occu- of Friends' principles, they being neither more e, and of course cause incessant disturbined, and is not likely to be occupied for many nor less in my estimation, than pure Christo sheep. The dogs, too, often get away years. There they will be left in peace; and tianity. I remember when the Friends visited their masters, and worry the stock, when the rabbits are no longer a curse, the me on my application for membership. I took times men are employed to shoot, ferret, birds will return to the occupied country, them I was convinced at sea; for I verily beit very freely. I hear English larks singing was altogether the immediate work of the intastic description. It was proposed to likely to suffer much. Paradise ducks, wekas, again to reach the shore, he would endeavor luce weasels and other vermin, and one and pukekas will feel it most. The pukeka is to lead a life of more circumspection, and eman brought some mongooses from In- a kind of land-rail, very numerous and de which should tend to the glory of that Being, The worst of this plan was that while structive to grain, both when growing and in who bad thus mercifully visited him by his ermin were getting numerous enough to the stack. The weka is a curious rail which free grace. To this resolution he adhered: down the rabbits, we were all very cer-cannot fly, and has already suffered much he quitted the army in the early part of the othering the rabbits in their holes. The ful bird. But the destruction will not be so he became an inmate in the family of his plan was suggested by Dr. Black, Progreat as some people fear. Ever since the eldest sister, Barbara Hoyland; who was setof Chemistry in Dunedin College, to poison has been laid, I have seen or heard of tled in the neighborhood of Sheffield in Yorkisulphide of carbon. This chemical is very few poisoned birds. We must according shire. She had married a member of the dingly volatile; and if some cotton waste, by hope for the best. People are certain to Society of Friends; and before the period of sep-skin saturated with it, is placed in a continue laying the poisoned grain till some Daniel Wheeler's joining them, had herself and the outlets are carefully stopped, one invents a better remedy.—Chambers' become convinced of their principles, and abbits inside will be certainly killed. A Journal. near relatives, his mind became renewedly "No human beings can be placed closely impressed with the importance of Divine tion in his various steppings; and being great comfort and encouragement to him; that the only path in which he could walk with afterwards conspicuous, was then chiefly acsafety, was that of self-denial. Much mental quired. conflict was at this time his portion; but peace was only to be obtained by an entire commencement in trade, to close his shop surrender of the will; and in conformity with during the hours of worship on week days; what he believed required of him, he adopted and though this must have required a strong the plain dress. He once recounted to a friend exercise of faith, at a time when his future in lively terms, the trial it was to him to put support seemed to depend on his assidnity on a different but to that which he had been and exertion, he was never satisfied to neglect accustomed to wear; especially as in going to the worship of Almighty God, from the prothe meeting at Woodhouse, he generally met spect of any outward advantage; and he has a number of his former gay acquaintances, often expressed his belief, that a blessing had whom he crossed on their way to a place of rested on this sacrifice of apparent interest to worship, which he had previously been in the duty. practice of attending. In this instance it was hard to appear openly as a fool before men; he thought that if his natural life might have been accepted as a substitute, he would gladly let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy have laid it down; but this was not the thing youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, required. He diligently examined his heart, and in the sight of thine eyes. and believed he clearly saw the Master's will in the requisition; and that it was a discipline schools may find in arriving at the meaning designed to bring him into a state of child- of these words, is immaterial, for the "wislike obedience and dependence. In great dis- dom of this world is foolishness," &c. ; but he tress he called unto the Lord for help; and who is tempted to walk in the ways of his a passage of Scripture was powerfully applied heart, and in the sight of his eyes, need have to his mind,-" Whosoever shall confess me no difficulty in understanding the meaning before men, him will I confess also before my of the succeeding words: "But know thou, Father which is in heaven; but whosoever that for all these things, God will bring thee shall deny me before men, him will I also into judgment.' deny before my Father which is in heaven.' His resolution was immediately aken:—he put on the hat, and with his mind stayed upon the Lord, set out to join his friends at meeting. His difficulties vanished, - sweet peace was his covering; and he was enabled experimentally to know the fulfilment of that declaration,-"greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world.'

> Being made a partaker of the great privilege enjoyed by those who are of the flock of Christ, in being able to distinguish between

In the course of the year 1797, he was received into membership into the Society of Friends; and about the same time he entered into business in Sheffield in the seed trade. To this novel occupation he applied himself with that energy and assiduity, which characterized all his pursuits; and by the divine blessing on his exertions, he soon succeeded in obtaining a business fully adequate to his very moderate desires. It was striking to some of those around him, to observe how readily he adapted himself to this total change of habits; and with what true content and cheerfulness he engaged in the drudgery and toil of a retail shop; the daily attendance in which, rested for some years exclusively on himself. He has been frequently heard to refer to this period of his life, as one of great peace and comfort, and it appears to have been a time, in which his experience of the reality and power of divine grace was deepened and enlarged. It was his daily practice, at those intervals when the attendance in his shop could be dispensed with, if but for a few minutes at a time, to retire to a small apartment behind it, and in a prayerful spirit to explore the contents of the sacred volume; the light which shone upon the many passages as he read, and the clear and strong views of religious truth which were then unfolded to his seeking soul, were such, as greatly to confirm his faith, and strengthen him to the voice of the good Shepherd and that of persevere in that strait and narrow path, into the stranger, he was earnestly desirous that which his feet had been so mercifully turned. obedience should keep pace with knowledge. The perusal of many of the prophetical books. He waited patiently on the Lord for instruction of holy writ, was at this time the means of brought into a state of deep humility and and the extensive and accurate knowledge of prostration of spirit, he was made sensible, these parts of Scripture, for which he was

It was his uniform practice, from his first

For "The Friend," "Rejoice, oh young man, in thy youth, and Whatever difficulty the learning of the Selected. AT THE BEAUTIFUL GATE.

Lord open the door for I falter, I faint in this stifled air. In dust and straitness I lose my breath; This life of self is a living death,

Let me into thy pastures broad and fair.

To the sun and the wind from the mountains free; Lord, open the door to me!

There is holier life, and truer, Than ever my heart has found; There is nobler work than is wrought within These walls so charred by the fires of sin— Where I toil like a captive blind and bound; An open door to a freer task In thy nearer smile I ask

Yet the world is thy field, thy garden; On earth art Thou still at home. When Thou bendest hither thy hallowing eye My narrow work-room seems vast and high, Its dingy ceiling a rainbow dome. Stand ever thus at my wide-swung door, And toil will be toil no more.

Through the rosy portals of morning Now the tides of sunshine flow, O'er the blossoming earth and the glistening sea, The praise Thou inspirest rolls back to thee. Its tones through the infinite arches go; Yet crippled and dumb, behold we wait, Dear Lord, at the Beautiful Gate.

I wait for thy hand of healing, For vigor and hope in thee. Open wide the door, let me feel the sun, Let me touch thy robe-I shall rise and run Through thy happy universe, safe and free, Where in and out thy beloved go, Nor want nor wandering know.

Thyself art the Door, Most Holy! By thee let me enter in, press towards thee with my failing strength, Unfold thy love in its breadth and length! True life from thine let my spirit win To the saints' fair city, the Father's throne, Thou, Lord, art the way alone.

To be made with thee one spirit. Is the boon that I lingering ask-To have no bar 'twixt my soul and thine;
My thoughts to echo thy will divine;
Myself thy servant for any task.
Life! life! I may enter through thee, the Saved, sheltered forevermore!

HE LEADETH US.

AN UNPUBLISHED POEM BY ALICE CA "Shall I be prophet, Human Heart? Shall I tell thee sorrow stands Ready, with cold and cruel hands, Thee from thy chiefest loved to part?" My soul was chilled with sudden pain; Yet thus I made reply: "My Chiefest Loved can never die! And even earth's friends shall live agair

Old Time smiled sternly: "Thon art yo And hopeful. What if sickness pale Makes nerve to bend and heart to fail, Which now with bnoyant life are strong "My strength lies not in hope or youth The childhood of immortal years Cannot be struck with mortal fears; Even Death but rends the veil of Truth.

" 'Death,' thou presumptuous one! perci Within those doors of gloom
He waits, dread shadow, till thou come Watches thy heedless steps advance Even to the open tomb!"

"I will not tremble! I will trust! My days are thine, O Saviour dear! Thou seest all this coming year, Thou lovest me and thou art just; Thy poor child will not fear."

Time touched; the massy gates swing w I pansed-a voice not all unknown Spoke to my heart in sweetest tone : "Child, I will be thy guide; Fear not to travel on."

-The Inde

A Story of Four Boys .- The Constitu printed many a story of denial, ener heroism, but none more deserving the story of the Green boys.

These four boys started a few ye selling newspapers. They made te apiece the first morning they went the and for two winters thereafter they we footed through the snow and sleet in th ing dawn on their morning rounds. F very first they saved a certain perce their earnings, which they wisely inve Atlanta real estate. The oldest of now eighteen years of age, and the y twelve. They have supported an father and their mother all the time, all have property worth considerably over houses from which the rent is $20 a and $200 stock in a Building and Los ciation. They have educated themse meanwhile, remaining from school to in order that they might work the bar build a home for their parents, that is a front parlor and a bay window in it. little fellows have been carriers, ne errand boys, and apprentices about 7 stitution office, and one of them is nove ant mailing clerk. Their net saving their sales and salaries, exclusive rents, has been $20 a week for thi Next year they can do better, and by t the oldest of the brothers is of age the to have a comfortable little fortune.

What these boys have done other by do. The whole secret is steadiness, sel industry, and economy. There are sons more important for boys than the smallest income-no matter how smalmake a man independent if he will o s with. It is easy now, when they are from some other source than reason. ortably clad and housed, and everybody were formerly able to save in a month. have conquered life almost before they entered it, and if they will only keep aly hearts and genial souls, and broad, ty impulses, they will be not only rich, tiseful men .- The Atlanta Constitution.

Faith the Basis of Knowledge.

marsh-light as our guide in the journey of The fact is that the principles of all knowle God is greater than our logic,—because, brain? earching, science cannot find Him out to n arranging knowledge, in detecting con- be ours. ietions in apparent knowledge, and in ing forth all that is necessarily implied in premises. But that is all. It cannot Yet if we will, the living knowledge—the known the situation of his mind, and soon have been discouraging to these young-llutely no function until truth, derived from ours in religious things also, as it is already frozen ground rather than use it to buy anything at all, that knowledge must come and of that light we can pray;

Let the dogmatist in morals or in science

t them is comfortable, and their savings strive to conceal it as he may, no system of int to twenty times a week more than knowledge can be established on a purely rational basis. Let the first principles of mathematics or of science or of metaphysics be granted, or let their truth be intuitively perceived and accepted, and it is easy to demonstrate that, since these first principles are true, certain consequences follow. But these first principles are incapable of proof, and who is to certify them? If nothing is knowledge except what is capable of logical demonstrathas been claimed, and it is claimed anew tion at every stage of its genesis, then it is time day, that in the natural sciences, for that we all-religionists, philosophers, and nee, men are dealing with hard facts, and scientists alike-give up all pretensions to affirmation of an everlasting truth. Only as knowledge so gained springs directly knowledge, and confess that nothing which is we trust in the bodily perceptions which God contact with nature, with no intervening in the heaven above or in the earth beneath, has given us, do we have any knowledge of of faith. We are pointed to the mathes is capable of being known. There is no use the material world. Only as we come to God see as to a province of investigation in attempting to build a house if we cannot even in quiet waiting trust, content to see in the h no room is left for conjecture, but in lay a foundation. If we must have proof, who light of the Spirit, willing to receive through b every process leads to a definite result, is to demonstrate to us that the operations of faith the message of God, can we attain to h is to be accepted as certain and infal-our senses and the processes of our minds are any spiritual knowledge. And the assurance knowledge. In the sphere of religion, trustworthy? If we are dependent upon granted to us regarding spiritual things over, we are told that all this is changed; reason for our knowledge, we may as well give is firmer and more definite than that regardwe have no facts on which to build; this ourselves up at once to the dreariest skepticism ing material things. For though by faith we te domain of faith, and faith is-what any in regard to earthly as well as heavenly affairs; ij chooses to believe. And Christian people we must say with the old Greek skeptic: "I accept this distinction as real, and allow know nothing, and I do not even know that I also know that while these shall pass away the very other system of knowledge a degree know nothing." The so-called Agnosticism of word of ertainty which is denied to religious the day would be a system of reverent and Times. childlike faith in contrast with that self-deht does this distinction really exist in fact? structive skepticism which would be the inevtrue that we have a clear line of certainty itable outcome of any consistent attempt to side us in secular matters, but only a waver-find a purely rational basis for knowledge.

soul? No, the distinction is unreal. The edge are seen and received by faith alone. culties which lie at the base of religious In a sense, they are the revelation of God. wledge are common to all knowledge. They are not established by any formal defacts which are claimed in justification of monstration; they need none. And this is as ious skepticism, if their force is admitted true of the every-day facts and principles his sphere, lead logically to universal which we handle in ordinary life, as true of Meeting. In the course of conversation, he ticism. The mathematical reasoner may the scientific systems which the wit of man us to demonstrate the immortality of the has built up, as it is of the truths of religion. but so long as the keenest mathematical The scientist justly refuses to permit the nat-forgotten.) One morning he said, I am sixty leet is unable to prove a single axiom of ural sciences to be destroyed by skepticism nematics, -so long, for instance, as the because the first principles on which they are ing. He accordingly went to the meeting. le truth that "two straight lines cannot founded are incapable of demonstration; and After the meeting was gathered and still, ose a space" actually stands logically unthe believer in revealed religion can also af [a woman minister] arose and spoke as able,—we shall not be hasty to conclude ford to smile when he is met with the puerile follows: "I am sixty years old to-day, I what is unprovable must be false. The demand for an infinite chain of proof which will go to Quaker meeting." These words ntist may point to his chemicals, and ask never existed and never can exist. If the were spoken this morning (I believe) by angible proof of the existence of God; so apostle finds comfort in the thought that God one that is now present, whose mind is in as he himself cannot vindicate the bare is greater than our heart, why should we not a dreadful situation. I know not who it is. tence of matter before the subtle dialectic find equal comfort in the knowledge that God She then described his situation; and as argu-Berkeley, we need not be confounded be is greater than human logic and the human ments would arise in his mind, she would re-ing pictures which the light paints for us; erhaps the greatest need alike of believers only the car is sensible of the harmony of then sat down and after a few minutes arose skeptics, at the present day, is some sane sweet sounds. The eye cannot fulfil the office again, and stated that she had gained her ception of just what reason can do, and of of the ear, nor the ear that of the eye. So is point; that he or they were disarmed of the tit cannot do. Reason has been exalted it with faith and reason. Faith is the revealer lalse arguments wherewith they had fortified he discoverer and test of all truth; and in of knowledge; it is the office of reason to dey minds it has become a vague unknown fend that knowledge and to preserve it pure. ntom, omnipotent to wreck or to build up. Independent knowledge—the knowledge that that leads to peace and salvation. the truth is, that reason is nothing more comes not through faith-whether it be of a kind of bigher arithmetic. It is use things earthly or things heavenly, never can when [the same Friend] kneeled in supplica-

> "We have but faith; we cannot know, For knowledge is of things we see.

e of it, and compound his surplus. It discover any independent truth; it has abso-knowledge which comes of faith-may be when it took them a month to lay up a some other source, is given for it to work uplin earthly things. The light of God is falling e dollar, and it was heroic in them when on. You can never get out of it what you around us; and all we have to do is to open laid this dollar up and went barefooted did not first put into it. If man is to know our eyes and see. And of that knowledge

> "Let_knowledge grow from more to more, But more of reverence in us dwell That mind and soul, according well, May make one music as before,

> "But vaster. We are fools and slight; We mock Thee when we do not fear; But help thy foolish ones to bear; Help thy vain worlds to bear thy light."

Long before Anselm of Canterbury had uttered the watchword, "I believe, in order that I may understand," inspiration had written, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." And after centuries of conflict between faith and unbelief, the words of the Hebrew sage stand seathless as the clear understand that the heavens and the earth were framed by the word of God, by faith we word of the Lord will endure forever .- S. S.

For "The Friend."

A Remarkable Awakening.

An extract of a letter from Jacob Grave, in the State of Indiana, to his uncle Jonathan Grave, in the State of Delaware:

"On Fifth-day, 10th of Tenth month, 1822, on my return home from the Yearly Meeting, I fell in company with Moses Hocket, from Wabash, a member of Blue River Quarterly gave me the following relation of a man that had been a confirmed deist, (his name I have years old to-day, I will go to Quaker meettute them as pointedly as if she had heard Only the eye can catch the thousand vary-him speak them (as he afterward said), until he was entirely disarmed of them all. She themselves, and unless they again solicited a revival of them, they might live in the way

"On the next meeting-day he attended, and tion he also kneeled: which very much astonished the audience to see the old deist join in supplication. After meeting he made Friends. Since which time he has continued Christianity—a ceremonial show. a sober religious Friend.

and concisely as I was capable of.

JACOB GRAVE." For "The Friend,"

Religious Items, &c.

Presbyterians in Greece.—The Southern Presbyterians have decided to build a house but where it benefits in one direction, it harms feet above the level of the sea. In se of worship at Salonica, Greece, the ancient in ten. It substitutes form for power; it did not exceed that of walnuts. Thessalonica, for their mission.

Chinamen.-The Central Presbyterian congregation Denver, Colorado, has sixty China- and contempt of spirituality; it harbors immen in its First-day school.

A Theatre-going Christian an Absurdity .-The Christian Advocate, (Methodist,) has the following item:

"Some Munchausen started a story that a The venerable poet says that "it is a foolish silk of the silk-worm is in its body. On being white and yellow spots. I could not lie," and adds a very suggestive phrase, "A exposed to the air this fluid hardens. On the it as it flew away high up into the fo

ing is spreading very rapidly. A friend who is the strength obtained by this form of again to the same shrub and successhas hung around the cheap book-stalls, and structure of the web is very great. asked questions of the venders of novels at At this time of year the spiders are gen-male. I found it to be as I had exp small boys and girls are the chief purchasers. magnifying power to make them visible, This reading is a vice like the use of opium Those who deal in microscopes and micro-understand the intense excitement of that Society is better than the remarks forming the threads of which we have spoken come to our doors all through the wi would indicate.

foremost of the Christian powers, needs some broken, with seattering spray and fallen dig- birdie out of doors its mother might requested to be joined in membership with thing better and more worthy than a parade nity, bearing their unconscious testib

I thought the above worth penning down, [Christians, but it has such entangling alliances should not pass His commandment." which I have endeavored to do as correctly as to leave it uncertain whether, on the whole, at home and abroad alike, its influence is favorable or detrimental. This may seem a hard of John G. Lemmon in the mountair judgment, but no one can study the whole along the Mexican frontier of Arize bearings of the problem without reaching two or three varieties of indigenous I a some such conclusion. This does not deny They were found in abundance in that many are benefitted even by its ritualism; vated meadows, walled round by peal it nourishes pride and exclusiveness; it puts baptism for regeneration; it engenders neglect ing fully abreast of Western nations i morality and infidelity."

For "The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

Spider-webs .- The material of which the very first walk into the forest at Ba i play, the composition of John G. Whittier, web is made is a glutinous fluid secreted by had seen sitting on a leaf out of reacla would soon be put on the stage in Boston, certain glands in the body of the spider as the mense butterfly of a dark color mark Quaker playwright is an unspeakable absurd-lunder side of the abdomen of the spider, near I at once saw that it was a female ca ity." A Quaker, Baptist, Methodist, or Presits hinder end, may be seen several small prospecies of "bird-winged butterfly," t byterian theatre-goer, is an unspeakable ab-tuberances called spinnerets. Each of these of the Eastern tropics. I was very surdity, but they can be found. Some years is pierced with a multitude of minute open- to get it and to find the male, which since a Methodist from the country visited a lings, out of which the spider can force the genus is always of extreme beauty. I relative by marriage who lived in great style glutinous fluid at its pleasure; and this hard- the two succeeding months I only say in the city. On his return he said to a friend, lens as it comes into the air and forms a thread again, and shortly afterward I saw the "I think John - isn't much of a Methodist from each opening. These very fine fibres flying high in the air. I had begun to nowadays, is he?" "Why not?" "O, he unite with each other to form the spider's of ever getting a specimen, as it se doesn't have family prayer, ridicules class lines, which we see, somewhat as the separate rare and wild; till one day, I found meeting, plays cards, and goes to the theatre." fibres of flax or cotton unite in the formation ful shrub with large white leafy brit We may quote from Whittier, and say that of a rope. Thus the very finest thread of the yellow flowers, and saw one of these such a Methodist is an unspeakable absurdity." smallest spider, is composed of numerous sects hovering over it, but it was to Light Reading.—The epidemic of light read-finer ones collected into one strand.

prices ranging from five to twenty-five cents erally safely conecaled, but in warm weather perfectly new and most magnificent each, tells us that from two to four novels a one can readily find plenty of living specimens, and one of the most gorgeously colored week are bought by a number of persons large and can examine tor himself the spinnerets flies in the world. Fine specimens of enough to insure the sale of from twenty from which the thread issues, especially with are more than seven inches across th thousand upward of any cheap reprint of an the aid of a pocket microscope; but the small which are velvety black and fiery English story. Ladies and servant-girls and openings are so minute that it requires a high The beauty and brilliancy of this in and its effects on the mind are hurtful .- scopical preparations, keep for sale among rienced when I at length eaptured their slides specimens of the spiders' spinnerets, taking it out of my net and opening The Established Church in England.—R. S. mounted on glass. These are beautiful ob- rious wings, my heart began to beat v Foster, a Methodist Bishop who has been jects when examined with a magnifying pow-the blood rushed to my head, and I fo travelling in Europe, publishes his impressions er of 100 diameters. From each of the many more like fainting than I have done of the religious condition of the English Es small openings of the spinneret of the garden apprehension of immediate death. tablished Church, and of the hurtful effects of spider arises a spine-shaped bair which is headache the rest of the day, so great its ceremonial observances. A part of his re- really a tube, ending in a point so fine that excitement produced by what will a marks are reproduced here as a testimony the opening at its end is too small to be seen, most people a very inadequate cause against formalism and ritualism; though we From the extremities of these hair-like tubes lace's Malay Archipelago. hope the spiritual condition of the members the glutinous material of the web issues, A Kind Redbreast .- A little redbre ould indicate.

African Coast Surf.—One of the peculiar his meals, and a most friendly welcor

The least profitable service I attended was dangers in landing at any place on the Gold he has been. One spring morning in the great Cathedral-empty, pompous, Coast is caused by the heavy, raging surf. It robin do a deed of charity that mo spiritless—a form without the essence, in is ever a wonder and a danger as it rolls in ever endeared the little bird to our he which most that appeared was art, without from the South Atlantic, and breaks on a had been a bitterly cold night, and heart. The sermon did not rise above the thousand miles of coast without leaving a servant going down stairs to fetch so ritualistic show; altogether it was a spectacle single cove or harbor where a ship could find to light the fires, she found a poor lit to make one sad. Sir Christopher Wren has refuge in a storm. Right along the whole line ling, shivering and frightened in the left a lasting memorial of his great skill, which of the coast the foaming surf waves roar and She called me to see the bird; it had c must continue to be the admiration of ages; bellow as they sweep toward the store in unleft the nest, and it was so weak that but, judging by all that was visible on the broken lines of furious grandeur. On they roll not fly. I tried to coax it to eat, took [day] I attended service within its majestic with resistless swell until they reach the shore, the fire, offered it bread crumbs, seeds walls, it may be doubted whether it has not and there they lash themselves into a madden-but no! the starling would not be ten been perverted from any valuable Christian ing foam as they dash upon the unveilding. Breakfast time came, and with it t use. England of the nineteenth century, the immovable rocks, and retire disbanded and robin. We thought that if we put the unchangeableness of the declarati The Established Church has many noble gave to the sea his decree, that the > Discovery of Potatoes in Arizona .- In the discoveries made during the botan al

Scientific Progress in Japan.—Japan troduction of new inventions. Oncor latest signs of this is the extensive uno electric light in several of the Govern tablishments at Yokohama.

The cnthusiasm of a Naturalist .- Dun for me, and flew away. The next da indescribable, and none but a natura dit, keeping a very strict watch over the ing to answer or satisfy the reasoning parting's safety. Robin eyed it for a moment of man." hen flew away; still the little baby-bird he came to where the baby-starling was that day.

THE FRIEND.

SECOND MONTH 3, 1883.

marvellous success in turning thousands very weak and contemptible; but God very gloridarkness to light, and from the power ous and powerful." tan unto God. It must be borne in mind, ter speaking of the formality and dead hem that his Spirit and power should go * * making them migh with them." Those who were thus com- with his gifts and abilities.

of correct pronunciation.

-he was so very pugnacious. Well, we and to the movings of his power, not matter-

Very beautiful is the description which fol-

"Uh, how did the Lord prosper them in is a fatal error. Therefore, it has at times at times gathering she gathering his scattered, wandering sheep into been felt to be a cause of thanklinness, that we wand again returned with some food down like dew, and refresh the hungry, a baptizing ministry on weak and unpolished evoning bird, and then they both flew thirsty souls! How did they reach to the instruments.

We never saw the starling again, but life in those to whom they ministrated waitened. "Oh, how did the Lord prosper them in We never saw the starling again, but life in those to whom they ministered, raising little robin's deed made him more loved up that which lay dead in the grave, to give ever in the house.-Hardwicke's Science a living testimony to the living voice of God in them! How did they batter the wisdom and reasonings of man; making the loftiness thereof stoop and bow to the weak and foolish babe of the begettings of life! Eye bath not seen, ear hath not heard, nor hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive, what the power of life hath wrought through them, in "The Friend" for 12th mo. 16th of last the hearts and consciences of those who have were printed some comments on a pro-longed after and waited for, the Lord. Oh! on to employ a minister of cultivated the breathings and meltings of soul, the sense ect to officiate in a Friends' Meeting at of the living presence of God, the subjectn, Massachusetts, with the hope that such ing of the heart unto the Lord, the awakeners, and thus increase the number of the falling down and weakening of the powers ters, and thus increase the number of the laming down and weakening of the light of salvation, and which alone can build up no Church, we think it may be profit o some to revive at this time the account heart, and narrowly marked them in my conh Isaac Penington gives of the early verse with them, I have been often forced to ters in our Society, and of the secret of cry out concerning them, Truly here is man

As the dependence of these ministers was Isaac Penington was a man of learning, placed in the Lord, He was not wanting to moved in refined society, and who was give them all that was needful to enable them and critical even in such minor points as to perform the service that He required. So that the time came in which I. P. could say of the same men he had once despised, "They as to the life of religion, which preceded now abound with strength, and abundantly ise of our Society, he commemorates "the surpass the knowledge and wisdom both of ous breaking forth of the Lord" to some the world, and of other professors of religion. nom He opened the state of the people, The Lord indeed hath adorned them, putting gave them "the everlasting gospel to his beauty upon them, and causing them to to the inhabitants of the earth, promis- grow up in his strength, and in his wisdom * making them mighty and honorable oned and endowed, were not in a general It is the Light of Christ revealed in the persons of culture and intellect whose heart of man which shows him his sins, leads ts, eloquence or learning would make him to repent and forsake them, gives him attractive as religious lecturers. Isaac power to walk in the way of holiness, and agton says of them:—

| enables him to experience the forgiveness of they were for the most part mean, as to sins that are past through the mercy of God enables him to experience the forgiveness of utward; young country lads, of no deep in Christ Jesus, our Lord. The ability of a

for her lost child; then came the fear of their spirits) kept close to their testimony, tion of the intellect, or the refinement resulting therefrom; believing them to be of great value in the transaction of our outward business, in our intercourse with others, and, when sanctified by Grace, in the performance on one leg shivering, and no mother lows, of the effect produced by the ministry of various religious duties. But we regard it ed. Presently robin came flying back, of these poor, illiterate men, contemptible in as a serious mistake to think them essential to with something in his beak too. Hop, the eyes of the wise and learned professors of the exercise of a living and powerful ministry. To place our reliance on them in that work

> One of our readers, who was interested in the article on Spider Showers, in No. 22, asks, from what part of the body of the spider its threads are emitted - whether "from its mouth, or from some other factory, where the spinning, reeling, and expulsion must have been both curiously and admirably per-

> He may find an answer to his inquiries, under the heading "Spiders' webs," in the Natural History column of the present number of "The Friend."

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

for the storage of silver or else discontinuing the coinage of the standard dollars.

Thomazin, a priest of the Chippewa Indians in Minnesota, has been in Washington to protest against a bill introduced by Representative Washburn, of that State, for the consolidation of several tribes and their removal to the White Earth Reservation. Thomazin says the object of the bill is to enable speculators to obtain cononject of the bit is to exact a specimens to obtain con-trol of 1,000,000 acres of pine land.

During 12th mo. 1882, the value of the exports of merchandise from the United States amounted to $92,-960,433, or within a small fraction of $3,000,000 a day. 300,455, of within a small fraction of $5,000,000 a day. This was exceeded but once before, viz: 12th mo. 1880. The excess of the value of exports over imports during the six months ended 12th mo. 31st, 1882, amounted to $54,572,222, as against an excess of $25,902,683 during the fiscal year ended 6th mo, 30th, 1882

A joint resolution, submitting a Constitutional amendneut farbidding the payment of the State Railroad Aid, Levee and Hatford bonds, has passed the Arkansas Legislature and gone to the Governor. The amount repudiated by the resolution is about $11,000,000.

Twenty-six men were killed by the powder explosion at Berkely, near San Francisco. All the bodies have been taken from the ruins. The coroner's inquest has thrown no light upon the cause of the explosion.

The Chinese companies of San Francisco, Cal., intend to test the constitutionality of the ordinance which prohibits the maintenance of laundries within certain limits, and the performance of labor in such places during certain bours. The intent of the ordinance ouring certain bours. The intent of the ordinance seems to be to harass the Chinamen. The Augusta Chronicle published on the 26th ultimo, gives official statistics showing the agricultural growth be despised everywhere by the wisdom to this Light, to awaken them to a sense of the where for the power of their condition, to arouse, to encourage, to the solves an adout a mess, depends on the holy anointing, the Di-land a similar increase in the yield of other farm and twithin and of turning to that a mess, depends on the holy anointing, the Di-land a similar increase in the yield of other farm and twithin and of turning to that an mean into avoir which a secondary the products of 201 the secondary to the secondary to the secondary to the secondary to the secondary the secondary to the secondary to the secondary the secondary that the secondar preaching was repentance, and about a less, depends on the holy anointing, the Di- and a similar increase in the yield of other farm and twithin, and of turning to that, and power which accompanies his ministry. In 1870 Georgia raised 473,934 hales to be at hand. Wherein I confess my delivery, richness of thought, or any other of ecution, nearly 100 per cent. increase in the yield of other farm and not on the beauty of language, grace of cotton. In 1880 the State raised 814,441 bales were very sensible of their own less and unitness for that met was well as the proper of cotton, nearly 100 per cent. increase in the yield of other farm and not on the beauty of language, grace of cotton. In 1880 the State raised 814,441 bales were contained by the cotton producing State. "In 1882 the mess and unitness for that great work by the apostle Paul should ever prevail among which is the poster Paul should ever prevail among which is and so (in the fear and in the watch of the state of the proper cultival and so (in the fear and in the watch of the state of the proper cultival and so (in the fear and in the watch of the state of the proper cultival and so (in the fear and in the watch of the state of the s 000. The estimated value of farm products in 1870 was Jack, bound for Sardinia, with lead. The witnesses of ance, want and misery being prevalent when $80,000,000, in 1880 it swelled to $125,000,000.

tons, "one of the largest harvests, if not the largest, ever taken from the Hudson.

A telegram from Lynchburg, Virginia, says the unprecedented cold weather has produced widespread destitution among the poorer classes there, "and especially among the negroes, hundreds of whom are out of employment, owing to suspension of work in tobacco factories on account of tax agitation and unfavorable weather,"

On the morning of the 24th ult., an extensive "cave in" occurred in the Delaware and Hudson mine, situated in the Second Ward of Wilkesbarre. About forty acres of the mine beneath the surface went down, and on the surface cracks appeared for several acres in every direction. A number of houses settled down from six inches to two feet, causing the inmates to flee from fear of as arbitration has been decided upon, and thus there danger. No person was injured. Most of the caved in will be no necessity of sending another expedition of space is covered with dwellings and other buildings. space is covered with dweirings and other containing. The disaster is accounted for by the "robbing" of the pillars supporting the mine. It is said on the other, hand that the props put in the mine several years ago to sustain the roof have rotted away. The damage to tion of Keswick is submerged. the property of private individuals is estimated at

An advance in the prices of nearly every kind and grade of dried fruit in this market has occurred within the past few days, although the prices had been in many instances 100 per cent, higher than at this time uties on the question of excluding pretenders, based last year. The cause is attributed to a scarcity due to moving upward until spring. The exception is peeled peaches, of which the supply seems to meet the demand at present, though a movement in this fruit is anticipated; they are now quoted at from 20 to 25 cents. For unpeeled peaches, which were abundant this time a year ago at 3 a 3½ cents for quarters, 7 a 8 cents is the price now asked, with a corresponding advance in rates a few days ago at 62 a 7 cents for four quarters, and close of to-day's sitting. were obtainable at half those prices this time a year ago, and are stiff at 8 a 81 to 12 for fancy sliced apples. Blackberries and raspberries are exceedingly scarce from exercising the clear the brond and high, and pitted cherries are almost a blank. Large Paris, 1st mo. 27th.—Midnight. dealers express the opinion that the advance is not an artificial or speculative one, but due to the scarcity of dried fruits. The market for green fruits, such as oranges, bananas, &c., is without special feature, the ident Grevy and Ministers Fallieres and Deves. It is supply and prices being about ordinary.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 398, which is 9 less than for the previous week, and 36 less than for the same period last year. Of the whole number 206 were males and 192 females: 63 died of consumption; 35 of pneumonia; 30 of diphtheria; 16 of old age;

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\(\frac{1}{5}\); 32's 104\(\frac{1}{5}\); 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 113; 4's, 119\(\frac{1}{5}\); currency 6's, 129 a 132.

10½ a 10¾ ets. per pound for uplands and New Orleans, culty

Petroleum.-Standard white, 75 a 73 cts. for export,

Point is in fair demand and irin. Sizes of 2500 lasts of conditions the fair barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6; 600,000 marks.

Pennsylvania family at $5; western do. at $5.25 a

The Berlin correspondent of the Morning Post says $6, and patents at $6 a $7.50. Rye flour is quiet but, the visit of De Giers to Vienna has resulted in a comfirm at $3.871 per barrel.

3900 bushels red in car lots at $1.08 a $1.16%. nominal. Corn is in moderate request and firmer, ube. Sales of 8500 bushels, in car lots, at 62 a 70 ets. Oats at 46 a 51 ets

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 1st mo. $1.10 per 100 pounds; mixed, 90 cts. to $1 per 100 two branches, pounds; straw, 65 to 75 cts. per 100 pounds, it could be foll Beef cattle were in fair demand and prices were were found up

000. The estimated value of farm products in 1870 was Jack, bound for Sardina, with lead. I ne witnesses or a nace, wan and insert pening prevaied when $80,000,000, in 1880 it swelled to $125,000,000.

The Albany Evening Journal estimates the prevention where mable to render any assistance, demic ragel. Sanitary cordons confined the The Albany Evening Journal estimates the prevential whereast in the crew, numbering 12 men, swept one by one the hot region. It is said that "whole faulti reason's yield of ice on the Hudson river at 3,000,000 from the mist. The steamer was out of the reach of a single night. On some plantations there from the nist. The steamer was out of the reach of a single mgnt. On some plantaneous from the nist. The town of T rockets and unapproachable by boats. All hands per-three or four people left alive. The town of T ished, including the captain, who, it is believed, strip 8000 inhabitants, 600 of whom are dead. Of its people of the captain, who, it is believed, strip 1000 inhabitants, 601 000 are dead. The spiracy to tourder Government officers, is in progress dying daily." at Kilmainham, Ireland.

Reports have reached Sligo, Ireland, of deaths by starvation in the island of Innismurray, off the coast of the County Sligo. A gunboat has been sent with provisions for the inhabitants.

Crofters on the Island of Barra, Scotland, have seized upon grazing land belonging to other persons, and are in communication with the crofters on the Ise of Skye. time permit. A settlement of the question between the land-owners and the crofters at Glendale, Ise of Skye, is expected. police to serve processes-such as was recently repulsed.

The heaviest floods that have occurred in the British lake district for twenty years now prevail. Lakes Derwentwater and Bassenwaite are joined, and a por-

An order has been made for the voluntary winding up of the Honduras Inter-Oceanic Railway Company. Paris, 1st mo. 27th .- At a Cabinet council to-day the Ministers decided to accept the compromise between the Government and the Committee of the Chamber of Depupon M. Fabre's proposal, which prohibits pretenders short crops, and dealers expect that prices will keep from exercising the elective function. Admiral Jaure guiberry then resigned. General Billot, Minister of War, aunounced that he should oppose the measure, but consented to remain in office provisionally, in order to avoid a Ministerial crisis. The committee, on being informed of the resolution of the Cabinet, agreed by a vote of 6 to 5 to support Fabre's proposal. Marcotte price now asked, with a corresponding advance in rates then resigned the post of reporter of the committee, for choice Georgia and North Carolina grades. The Fabre, who was chosen in his place, was instructed to for choice Georgia and North Carolina grades. The Fabre, who was chosen in his place, was instructed to of her sister, Philena Y. Smedley, Media, Pa same remarks apply to dried apples, which quoted but submit the report to the Chamber of Deputies before the H. Yarnall, in the 50th year of her age, a

Fabre's proposal is a reproduction of the Government bill, with the additional clause prohibiting pretenders

Paris, 1st mo. 27th.—Midnight.—Duclere declines to accept Fabre's compromise, and insists upon the retention of the Government's proposals in their original form. He communicated his decision to-night to Presserted that Gen. Billot shares Duclerc's views.

Paris, 1st mo. 28th.—The Ministers met at the Ely-ee this morning and tendered their resignations, which have been accepted by President Grevy

London, 1st mo. 29th.—The Times, in a leading ar icle this morning commenting on the resignation of the 14 of debility; 14 of apoplexy; 10 of typhoid fever; 10 French Ministry, says the news is of a most momentous of Bright's disease and 8 of scarlet fever. character. Even its immediate consequences cannot at of Philadelphia, in the 75th year of his age, a once be divined. The resignation of the Cabinet exonce be divined. The resignation of the Cabinet exhibits a catastrophe which threatens the political ar-Cotton.—There was no essential change to notice in rangements of the country and renders the substitution price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at of a more powerful Ministry a matter of exceeding diffi-

The Berlin correspondent of the Morning Post states and 8§ a 8§ ets, per gallon for home use.

that the cost of realizing the proposal of the Bi-Metal-Flour is in fair demand and firm. Sales of 2800 lists to recoin the silver of Germany is estimated at 20, olete understanding between Russia and Austria on the Grain.-Wheat was dull and rather lower. Sales of leading political questions, and also in the arrangement Rye is of the differences regarding the navigation of the Dan-

Some miles south of Rome has been discovered an are quiet and weak. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots, ancient aqueduct six feet high, and varying in width from one and a half to two and a half feet. been followed for several hundred metres from north 27th, 1889.—Loads of hay, 302; loads of stray, 48; los south, and then eastward along the side of an ancient 27th, 1889.—Loads of hay, 302; loads of stray, 48; los grotto, until a point was reached where it divided into $1.10 per 100 pounds; mixed, 30 cts. to $1 per 100; two branches. The earth having fallen in at that point it could be followed no longer. Scratched inscriptions were found upon it, one of which mentioned a year and Beet cattle were in fair demand and prices were were ionici upon it, one of which mentioned a year and rather higher: 2500 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4½ a 7 cts, per lb, as to quality.

Sheep were a fraction higher: 10,000 head arrived

A letter from Manila states that a disease which is

Sheep were a fraction higher: 10,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4 a 1\(\frac{3}{2}\) ets, per pound, as to condition.

Hogs were in demand, and 25 ets, per 100 pounds higher: 4300 head arrived and sold at the different yards at \(\frac{3}{2}\) at 10 ets, per pound, as to per pound, as the pound and the per pound as the per pound, as the per pou in Tonola, upwards of 1000 are dead. The trial of twenty-one persons charged with a con- Chiapas suffered most severely, twenty to thir

NOTICE.

A meeting of the Teachers' Association of F Philadelphia, will be held on Seventh-day, Se 3d, at 2.30 P. M., at the Boys' Select School, 82 St. The subjects to be discussed are Written tions and Methods of Teaching Geography; and

The attendance of Friends interested, is inv

At Westtown Boarding School, in the Girls ment, a teacher well qualified to give instru Reading and Grammar. To enter on her dut opening of next summer session. Application may be made to

REBECCA G. PASSMORE Concordville, Del. (ANN ELIZABETH COMF Fallsington, Bucks (HANNAH EVANS,

P. O. box 129, Moorestown, Burlington Co.

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INS Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Phila Physician and Superintendent - John C. Ha Applications for the Admission of Patient made to the Superintendent, or to any of t of Managers.

DIED, on the 22d of 9th month, 1882, at the of Media Particular, and Chester Monthly M. Friends, Pa.

—, at the residence of Mary V. Miller, i Springs, Kansas, on the 7th of 11th mo. 1882, B. HOLLOWAY, in the 40th year of his ag David and Rachel Holloway, a member of C. Monthly Meeting, Iowa. He was esteemed b knew him for integrity of character and upri amongst men. He endured a protracted and illness with great fortitude and Christian resig

-, on 12th mo. 3d, 1882, at her residence ren Co., Iowa, CHARITY, widow of the late Maxwell, in the 84th year of her age, a membe Creek Monthly Meeting. Her friends have a c evidence that her end was peace.

— on 3rd of First mouth, WILLIAM G. l of the Western District Monthly Meeting.

—, 1st month 6th, 1883, at the residence o John H. Ballinger, JOSHUA BALLINGER, in year of his age, a member of Cropwell Partier Upper Evenham Monthly Meeting of Frien.

"Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, shock of corn cometh in in his season." His have the comforting helief that his end was pe

-, at Glenville, Harford Co., Md., on 19th, 1883, after a long and lingering illness, S Cook, widow of the late George P. Cook, in year of her age, a member of Deer Creek Meeting of Friends.

1st month 20th, at West Chester, wher gone for medical advice, Joshua Jacob, a m West Grove Particular, and New Garden Meeting, Chester Co., Penna., formerly of L Ireland, aged 42 years. An attack of malar followed by pneumonia, reduced the strengtl dear Friend so that he gradually sunk into unce ness before the close, but it was evident from marks during his illness, that he "was preps the solemn change, and that it found him with trimmed and burning, ready for the final st For some time previous to his decease, those him could see the gradual loosening from the

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

nL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SECOND MONTH 10, 1883.

NO 27.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

efpaid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON. MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

rions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA

For " The Friend,"

Pennsylvania History. lue Projected Palatinate of Sir E. Plowden.

(Continued from page 202.) 's claims of Sir Edmund Plowden to be "As late as 1784-5," says Judge nnt, "aperson named Charles Varlo came Aladelphia claiming to have an interest h Palatinate, and enlisted that able jurist lm Rawle in his behalf, making some bwden by reason thereof. One faithful espairing of success he pronounced the pears to have ended. matter a fabrication, and Sir Edmund

wich is unquestionable.

covered, not yet inhabited by any Christian and I several years resided." people, establish trading posts, with sole right Sir Edmund's patent as extending "from the of trade, and to make such regulations as were north side of Delaware unto Hudson's river, necessary to establish civil government. In just between New England and Maryland the spring of 1634 this exploring expedition and that ocean sca, I take to be about 160 departed, having as lieutenant Robert Evelyn, a nephow of Captain Young. Their object was to explore the Delaware or Charles river, himself Beauchamp Plantaganet, who, revisas it was called, out of compliment to the ing his former work and adding the later reking, and to ascend it until they should reach sults of his extensive travels, came again bethe great lake which was said to be its source, fore the public in 1648. In this last edition and to find the Mediterranean sea, which the Indians reported to lie four days' journey be-wonderful qualities of the region he desired youd the mountains. Captain Young found to render attractive to the adventurers he obstructions to his explorations in the Falls hoped to draw to the colony of New Albion. of Delaware, near Trenton, on 1st of Sept. A unique copy of this work is in the Phila-1634. He remained in the Delaware river delphia Library, and has elicited so much inaled as an historical personage have been until the fall of 1636, having sent Evelyn with terest that it has been reprinted by Peter tited, and his work and character under-despatches to England. Evelyn returned to Force, at Washington, in 1837, and again in Virginia next year, and became one of the the "Evelyns in America," Oxford, 1881. councillors and surveyors of that colony. At this time his brother George Evelyn came to found a detailed description of New Albion, Kent island, Maryland, as the agent of the which the author calls part of "North Vir-London partners of William Clayborne, and ginia lying between about 39 degrees at Delanong the holders of lands once claimed produced no little stir in this settlement, ware Bay, and scituate in the best and same budden by reason thereof. One faithful which was a rival of that of Lord Baltimore, temper, and as Italy, between too cold Gerdan to the color with the best and same temper, and as Italy, between too cold Gerdan to the color with the best and same temper, and as Italy, between too cold Gerdan to the color with the best and same temper, and as Italy, between too cold Gerdan to the best and same temper, and the best an igton of the city just named, made the cord, impoverish the people, and blast the jinst midway between New England, 200 miles of a specialty, bringing his knowledge prospects of those who had befriended him north, and Virginia 150 miles south,  is many others had failed in; but at the hands of the Marylanders, his mission aport of the one, and heat and aguish marshes of

When Robert Evelyn was in England, vlen an imaginary being." This was be- in 1635, Edmund Plowden was disquieted he day of "Notes and Queries," and the through family quarrels, and persisting in dation of the results of delving among denying his wife her alimony, was thrown ncient records of the mother country into Fleet prison, where he lay in May, 1640, ster colonies. Recent research has re- and was in no condition to advance his inin bringing to light much information terests in New Albion, hence Evelyn's deserpiting this hitherto by some esteemed tion of his cause. About the close of 1641 tical personage, and his existence and Plowden came to America, and after remaine re found upon record, the authenticity ing seven years returned to England. He is described as harsh and of ungovernable temr 1632, before the grant of Maryland to per, and a pest to his neighborhood. About Baltimore, Plowden and others peti-this time he left the Church of Rome and conof for a grant of Long Island and thirty formed to the Church of England. This act square, to be called Syon. In another destroys the historic accuracy of the late ation this is called Isle Plowden, and detempt to show that New Jersey was colonized d as "near the continent of Virginia, by Catholies,—a fiction set forth by a writer in The Catholic World, of Nov. 1881. A prewithout the Bay of Chesapeake," and vious attempt had been made to show that leagues square of adjoining continent as Maryland was settled by a colony of two hunb nature of a county Palatine, by the dred persons, chiefly Roman Catholics, but g of New Albion, to be held of his majesty's the publication of the records of the English of Ireland, &c. One month after the Jesuits proves that they themselves declared race of Maryland was given to Cecil, the the colony to have been "overwhelmingly te voyage to Virginia, and take posses or Charles river, just midway between New earnest workers?"

sion, in the king's name, of all territory dis-England and Virginia, where my uncle Young the other, and is like Lombardy, and a rich fat soil, plain, and having 34 rivers on the

* "The Evelyns in America," lately printed but not published, contains a reprint of Plantaganet's New Albion, and also presents us with a new issue of the Memoirs and Letters of Capt. W. G. Evelyn, and ac-counts of Capt. George and Robert Evelyn, who were prominent in the early days of Maryland and Virginia. The extensive appendix, beside other matter, contains valuable documents preserved in the Evelyn, Monstresor and Harcourt families, to which the editor and annotator has had access through the liberal kindness of their representatives. This beautiful work so highly creditable to its projector, our former townsman, G Scull, now resident at Oxford, England, is adorned by autotype illustrations of Wotton House, once the residence of the excellent John Evelyn, who hy his "Sylva, or a Discourse on Forest Trees and the Propagation of Timber," "did more than any earlier writers to promote and strengthen that taste for rural occupation among the enlightened classes which has happily be-come a national characteristic."

The "Evelyns in America" was privately printed, 250 copies only have been issued, but is accessible at some of our public libraries,

It is gratifying to observe that one American gentleman, resident abroad, has employed his leisure and talents in the services of his country, instead of dancing once of Maryland was given to Cecil, the the colony to have been "overwhelmingly latents in the services of his country, instead of dancing a round of that the request of the petitioners be locd.

The representative of the petitioners be locd.

Robert Evelyn again returned to England, and in 1644 wrote "Directions for adventing and on the plantation of the plantation of the plantation of New Albion, in North Virginia," (c. This few companied it declared it to be, sailed to Plowden's wife, and therein the services of his country, instead of damage around of dissipation and empty and mastisfying amusements, and in 1644 wrote "Directions for adventing and women is that of looking for happiness somewhat the plantation of New Albion, in North Virginia," (c. This few Latents and the some this truth is learned the extent of the plantation and women is that of looking for happiness somewhat the plantation of the plantation and women is that of looking for happiness somewhat the plantation of the plantation and women is that of looking for happiness somewhat the plantation of the plan to Chesapeake, captain Thomas Young states that, "Sir Edmund, on noble governor glance around among your friends and acquaintances, and Lord Palatine, persists still in his noble glance around among your friends and acquaintances, and mark those who appear to have the most enjoyment in life. Are they idlers and pleasure-seekers or THE FRIEND.

cape fifty leagues; in all seven hundred and exposition of them had taken place.

| patience; sustain and support me under cighty miles. A very vague description of Thus nobly beginning to confess Christ, sharp afflictions: let the lifting up an estate, the reader may remark, but he will the Truth, before men, while yet about 23 hands be as the evening sacrifice, acc remember that the entire region was a wilder- years of age, he grew and became established unto thee! O Lord! thou art my Rocness of forests, swamps, mountains and valleys in Him, so that, cleaving to His all-sufficient shadow of a mighty rock in a wear impenetrable, and that the great rivers and grace, the persecution and close imprison. The Lord hath promised to be with lead the ocean could alone be made available as ment, which shortly after became his portion, dren through the region of the sha land-marks, as they remain to be the best to only served to enlarge his experience of the death, and to bring them to a lasting el this day. When we consider the difficulties power and goodness of God towards him, where there is joy for evermore." under which he labored, we may esteem Plan-Being thrust into Aberdeen jail, he was soon addressed those about him-"The Lo taganet's outline description and characteri-called upon, it is said, in rather a remarkable been good to me from my childbood: He zation of the country and its climate worthy manner, publicly to give testimony by the to place his fear in my heart very earl of commendation. We know that he had word of exhortation, to that which had Lord never fails those who trust in His found the choicest lands on the Atlantic coast, wrought so effectually in him. He is repre- will be with them to death, and t and a climate that we would not exchange sented to have been a sincere and weighty death unto eternity. Fear God, and for that on either our northern or southern man, of good understanding and solid judg. Him; prefer his fear above all things, it borders. That the explorers remained long ment; a faithful, zealous, and sound mister will provide for you." Some little tip enough in New Albion to become well acquainted with the character of the climate mility and lowliness of mind, living in peace been at meeting, coming in to see hin and its healthiness is apparent, since the de- and unity with his friends, well esteemed like- a season of silence, and one present had scription conforms so accurately with what wise among his neighbors. He used daily to a few words, Alexander, being very we know at this distant day must have been devote some part of his time to religious re- broken into tears, said, "It is the his he his their experience.

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

In the year 1723, died Alexander Seaton, the year 1652. He was one of those students

goodliest oaks, and all timber for ships and signature, at the end of the account of this comes, it shall be in peace. The Co masts * 2 after 17 years trading and discontroversy, is not unworthy of perusal: it is is near, and will endure, while the covery there and trial made, is begun to be as follows: "I also declare, (who, being a planted and stored by the Governourand Company of New Albion." In chapter IV, follows are present at the dispute, and heard the lows a detailed description of the New Albion same with attention,) that the students, in an end: my Rock, my Fortress, my Patent, which seems to grow as it is again and their account, have grossly belied the Quakers Tower, dwelleth with me, and does in again described. It now appears "the bounds in many things. And although since that, it me nor forsake me; blessed be his not is a thousand miles compasse of this most hath pleased God to join me unto that people, hope to be with Him forever,—and temperate rich province, for our south bound yet at that time I had no mind to be of their more than a thousand worlds. The is Maryland north bounds, and beginneth at way. However, when I saw their account, mansion of glory prepared in my l Aquats, or the southermost or first cape of I did approve it, as ingenuous as now also I house; said Christ, 'There are man Delaware Bay, in 38 and 40 minutes, and so do; and disapprove the students, as false in stons; if it had not been so, I would be runneth by, or through, or including Kent many things.—Alexander Scaton." While you'—there has been a discovery of a list, through Chisapeack Bay to Pascataway, and including the fals of Pawtomecke river example set before him in his relations, Alexander Scaton, we can give a many things.—Alexander Scaton, which is a single property of the propert to the head or northermost branch of that ander Forbes and wife, under whose roof he hard put to it, and his friends were to the nead or northermose orated of the nead in the need lodged while attending college, had previously taken, in that they did not believe, the southward to the head of Hudson's river if they had some favorable effect on his mid; yet, Lord did afflict man without a sinful leagues, and so down Hudson's river to the it is clear by the above language, he was by ocean sixty leagues; and thence by the ocean no means prepared to acknowledge the re-order, he would say, "Lord! give mand Isles across Delaware Bay to the south ligious views of Friends, until after this public ease, or take me to thyself! O Lord tirement; and, although a scholar, was not power that supports under affliction: much known to be such in his public minis endured, as seeing Him that is invisible trations, valuing that learning but little in His distemper was tedious, and at comparison of the cross of Christ and the opera- exceedingly painful, but he was presen tion of his Holy Spirit. After his marriage, resignation to the last, and in great pea from a sense of duty, he removed to Glaseow, quietness, yielded up his earthly bein who was born in the shire of Aberdeen, about where the few Friends in that city were under concluded in exchange for an endless i going some sharp trial, as well by abuses from ance, on the 23rd of the 1st month, of the University of Aberdeen, who joined the magistrates, as from the rude rabble. Here about 71 years of age. the Society in consequence of being convinced his faithfulness and constancy were further of the scriptural rectitude of their principles, put to the test, and proved of considerable when they were publicly advocated by Robert use, both in comforting and strengthening ancedote of Queen Victoria is from the his friends, and overcoming the malice of Grace Greenwood: When in England I their enemies. At length, in 1699, he settled several pleasant anecdotes of the que with his family in Ireland; and it appears her family from a lady who had received The eral respects, much appreciated by the So-children. This governess, a very inter ciety in that land.

exercises and labors in the gospel of his Re-her residence at Windsor her mother deemer, he was visited with much bodily When she first received the news of affliction. He bore all with remarkable pa- mother's serious illness, she applied tience, was attended with much sweetness in queen to be allowed to resign her situ his spirit, and before he left the world attered feeling that to her mother she owed these comfortable expressions. On one occa- more sacred duty than to her sovereign. sion, his family being about him, he said, "Do queen who had been much pleased wit not put off repentance and amendment of life would not hear of her making this sacuntil the time of a dying bed; for, commonly, but said, in a tone of most gentle symp it hath enough to do for itself. The Lord "Go at once to your mother, child; stay of the precession of the prece main land, and 17 great isles, and partaketh Barclay and George Keith, against the sophisof the healthiest aire and most excellent comtry of his fellow-collegians. The candid conexercises:—his presence is near; a modities of Europe, and replenished with the fession which he published under his own manifested to me, that when my define patience; sustain and support me undel

The Queen and Governess .- The foll young lady, was the orphan daughte In the latter part of his life, after various Scottish clergyman. During the first y ^{*} E. F. Slafter has recently shown that the early latitudes of places on the Atlantic coast are generally untrustworthy to within a single degree; that anterior to the middle of the 18th century the minutes or fracthat his character and services were, in sev-from her friend, the governess of the tions of a degree are never to be relied upon. The sources of the errors of latitude are to be found in the rudeness and coarseness of the instruments then in use, which were graduated to degrees only; one degree occupying about one-tenth of an inch of space, which was not subdivided into sixty parts or minutes, and necessitating a dependence for minor divisions of the degree should be upon an absolute and sheer guess. The zodiacal ephemeris, moreover, was not graduated in minutes, and consequently the exact point of the sun in the zodiac could not be determined. The tables in connexion with this instrument, moreover, were not calculated oftener than once in thirty years, so that they became obsolete long before they were put by by reason of the precession of the equinoxes. These sources of inhave wholly prevented.

less of royal grandeur would have opssl her sorrowing heart beyond endury pathy of the queen-who came every ther school-room-and the considerate less of her young pupils.

Seeking Out Inventions.

ny; the Chinese women compress the find rest for your souls." while even in enlightened and Chrisid nations, some are unwise enough to Tess the vital organs by tight lacing. would fail me to tell of the precious a, the paints and cosmetics and other cls employed in beautifying (?) and otherprity, sufficient for every son and daugh- the bald reality would justify. olddam, so plain that the wayfaring man, orldliness has prevailed over many; posed to view. uh pure religion changeth not, neither te with the world. le we live in an age of progress and rvement, adding much to the happiness gess and improvement.

cless went, and had several weeks of Fox, Barclay, Penn and other of its noble designed to deceive as to one's expression and by They when she had seen that deal set in the kirk-hen id to sleep under the daises in the kirk-hen id to sleep under the daises in the kirk-hen id to sleep under the daises in the kirk-hen is to sleep under the daises in the kirk-hen id to sleep under t the returned to the palace, where the little here and take away a little there, or in are they like added hair in the dressing and any way to change or alter or find some easier adorning of the head. They are specifically way, been productive of any real benefit? designed to remove, or to conceal, the lines of ad it not been for the gracious woman- True, it may not be necessary in this latter character and the traces of experience in one's day to follow the early Quakers in all the non- face; or to give the appearance of other years essentials which belonged to the customs of than one's own. And for this very reason it aucient times and localities, and did not arise is that these appliances have always the show from their religious principles; but we must of deception. A whitened forehead or a be firm in retaining all the real essentials, as painted cheek is never natural or pleasing, plainness of dress and speech, worshipping The more refined and delicate the face, the Seeking Out Inventions. the Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, and greater the harm to its expression from anylike Lord as the Holy Spirit may direct, an

A tree is known by its fruits, and we know ahuman inventions sometimes lead from A tree is known by its fruits, and we know Even in church-building, this striving after hind uprightness. Man was created in the fruits of old-fashioned Quakerism by the a reputation above one's deserts shows itself iage of God, holy and upright, but he way men lived, and by the way they died. in the planning and finishing of houses of worflen from his original state of purity If its principles are founded upon the Truth, ship far beyond the ability or the readiness of bliness into the ways of darkness and any inventions and additions will be like the congregation to make payment. Every is the control of the ways of darkness and any inventions and additions will be first the energiation to make payment. Every the Alas, for the inventions that have adding dross to pure gold. If the religion of church mortgage or church debt is an evidence believes to improve upon the perfect the founders of Quakerism has so gloriously of the builders' purpose of making more of a physically, intellectually, morally, as saved them, it will save us and gain for us as display of devotion and generosity than their save from the hands of his Creator! As for them, a ready pasport to the skies; for contributions would justify. For their own be were many mistakes made in the thus saith the Lord: "Stand ye in the ways, satisfaction, or for the deception of other peoter of the "human form divine." The and see, and ask for the old paths, where is ple, they have insisted on putting up and be declared to the forebeach with thorse the standard ways and walk therein and was half in the growth of the wight than to not may had Indians compress the forehead in the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall furnishing a building which they do not pay

O. A. Pratt.

Greene, N. Y., 1st mo. 18th, 1883.

Making a Show Falsely.

While it is true that one's real character is a fresh lesson in deceitful appearances. orning (?) the human form: with refer- liable to be disclosed by a single glimpse of the subject home to you. You are a make very little difference with those who absolute right. and peculiar people; among the foremost look at that picture whether my portrait looks by aried scets in upholding the principles like me; but it will make a great deal of dif-yourself," is a pungent saying of the Talmud, ce, friendship, plainness, integrity, tem-ference to my reputation whether I appear in suggestion of the folly of attempting to cona e, charity and truth; and in advocating there to advantage." That is the way that ceal your true character from your fellows. teity and purity in worship, doing away most men feel about their pictures, whether Or, as our Lord gave the warning: "Beware bull needless forms and ceremonies, worthey say so or not. The more an artist flatty of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is page 60d in spirit and in truth, and pro-ters them in their portrait, the more they hypocrisy; for there is nothing covered that think of his skill.

"Paint me as I am," said Cromwell-Show my visage as you find it; Less than truth my soul abhors."

don's lessons; so in any event let your "seeking out inventions" to improve upon not to make claim to another face than one's deat rest in regard to your pupils." The the principles of Quakerism, as laid down by own? Enamel and rouge and hair-dyes are tenan upright; but they have sought out sistent Christian life, in word, thought and plexion; or that suggests the thought of an acted anachronism.

for, but which-with its frescoing and its mortgage-is to honor the Lord, and reflect credit upon their large-heartedness. To have a less imposing sanctuary would humble their pride. To lift a mortgage would cost too The alternative is a church debt, and much.

It is a good sign that all want to appear well. o which we may again quote from his face, of his conduct, or of his possessions. There is an element of hopefulness in the very dm: "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." there are very few who are willing to be proneness of men to crave a good reputation h great plan of salvation has been insti-known just as they are; who do not want to even while they lack a good character. As dand given to man in all its simplicity appear to somewhat better advantage than Rochefoucauld puts it: "Hypocrisy is a sort of homage that vice pays to virtue." Only a Cromwellian vigor of independent fessional thief prefers to be called a "kleptoah a fool, need not err therein; and yet manhood makes one ready to stand out on maniast"-as the amateurs are. He doesn't s have been the inventions sought out the canvas in his rugged naturalness, and be like the old Saxon term "stealing" for his busimn to devise and climb up some other judged by his face, with its blemishes and deness. And the average liar in the community at library in the community in the community at library in the community is a man with an active imagination, who is not always exact in his statements. But, after all, it is a great deal better to seek to deserve well, than to strive to appear well. And it is a great deal safer also; for in the long run men and women are resperity of man, yet many inventions responsible to the inventions of the common of wish was satirically suggested by Fitz Greene Halleck, in a conversation lated photographs do not make them any with the writer concerning a well-known on better looking. Their cosmetics and dyes id in nearly every article of merchandisc, graving of famous American authors, when offend more eyes than they deceive. Their cthing, food, &c. Railroad and other that was in course of preparation. "They sanctuary pretences blind neither God nor poolies have been planned. Fraudulent wrote to me from New York, a few days ago," man. Their church mortgage harms their kuptcies under the cover of the law have said Mr. Halleck, "asking what picture of my-good name more than it helps. Their conpontrived, and thousands of other in-self I would prefer to have copied for that enduct is judged by its nature, rather than by is and deep laid plots to rob and defraud graving. I wrote back to them to pick out any name which is given to its most objection er, until honesty and integrity have been the best-looking picture of me they could find, able features. God has so ordered it that men ght of by many, in the grand march of and improve on that. I am not desirous of a arc constantly stepping into testing scales in good likeness; but I do want to be shown as the presence of the public, and showing just The this introduction, dear Friends, I now a good-looking man. Fifty years hence it will how far they fall short of the standard of

"If there is anything bad about you, tell it

That may have been put forth in the And what are all the cosmetics used for, if not be known."—S. S. Times.

For "The Friend." Religious Views and Tenets.

I believe that the same God that said in the beginning. "Let there be light and there was light," has made ample provision through the light of the glorious gospel of his dear Son, shines in our hearts, in the new creation, to power of man instead of the power of God. give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face, or appearance of dor and show of "a worldly sanctuary." Jesus Christ. He is now the life and the light it was thronged with people. But Jesus told stock, and that when asked why, he ans of men. But the darkness does not compre-bend it. But "while we have the light, we destitute, not of people, but of the living pre- I own all that I have." Yet it did n must believe in the light, that we may be the sence of the living God. The holy sheehinah difference, for he allowed large quantichildren of light." For it is "the true light, no longer dwelt there—the chernbim of glory dead stock to accumulate, and neg which lighter hevery man that cometh into the world." "Light is sown for the right-inscribed upon it. And all because they had hand to improve the best opportunity eons, and gladness for the upright in heart." For "in thy light shall we see light." And "Who through faith wrought righteousness, this same Jesus, who once spoke to the out- had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings; think himself in the right path. It ward ear, while on earth, now speaks spiritually to the inward car. And to all who have Some may think these are hard sayings, who the man of God cried, "Who can under an open car to hear, and a willing heart to can hear them? But if they are not true, his errors? Cleanse thou me from believe and obey the Word, it becomes the then the Lord has not spoken by me. I be faults. power of God unto their salvation. And if lieve the times demand plain dealing. We It will not do to say, "I have no debit they escaped not who refused to hear Moses, need faithful watchmen on the walls of our own all that I have, and no examinat the old lawgiver, when he "spoke on earth, Zion. And if they give not the alarm in times necessary." In a religious way, every much more shall not we escape if we turn of danger, the woes of the Lord will be upon is an agent; he is doing business on bon away from Him that speaketh from heaven." them. But if a deaf ear is turned upon the capital. His Lord is now gone into And while I believe that this inspeaking Word warnings, his servants will be clear. It does country, but will return and demand a of faith is, upon the broad basis of the gospel, seem to me that the abominations which are count of his stewardship.

Several items should be taken into the gospel, seem to me that the abominations which are count of his stewardship.

Several items should be taken into the gospel, seem to me that the abominations which are count of his stewardship. heaven; and as it is revealed from faith to tute of the presence of the Lord, are set up count by Christians. A man should ask faith, bringing life and immortality to light, and standing in the place of true Christian self, Have I, during the past year, allower it becomes the power of God unto salvation religion and worship in many places. So that evil habit to get or keep control of more to all who obey it. Yet I believe it is hid from the living Word can no longer have free question, honestly answered, might the wise and prudent of this world—from the ourse and be glorified. The harps of many some of our readers, like a sharp pain a mighty and noble; because their faith stands of the true mourners in Zion appear to be heart. Have I been fair and just in my more in the wisdom of men than in the power hung, as it were, upon the willows in the ness transactions, or been dishonest in of God. Therefore He leaves them to their midst of the rivers of Babylon, or streams of or much? Have I been liberal in propo choice, but sends spiritual leanness into the confusion. soul. The heavenly light and life that enables us to see and do heavenly things, must unto rightcousness, while it is only with the left my children to themselves, under precome from the heavenly fountain. And the mouth that confession is made. And confess of business engagements? Have that before he can be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. The machinery of the various churches (ours not excepted) religion, is as great as light is from darkness, in its efforts to save men? Are my thou seems to run heavily. It needs the anointing The one is from the earth, and is earthly; the more or less upon the world, more or less oil of divine grace to make it run smoothly, other is from heaven, and is heavenly. The Christ and spiritual things than before It needs the energetic power of the gospel to one kindles up an earthly life in the earthly Selected. propel it forward through the rubbish of the or impulsive man. The other fans up the world. The mere cultivated intellect of man, beavenly flame in the heavenly minded man. though he may have the tongue of an augel, Spiritual death and darkness, and the abomi-deeply—to be drunk—is a sin; this is no and "also ordinances of divine service and a nation that makes desolate are abroad in the nied. At what point does the taking of st worldly sanctuary," yet without the baptiz- land. But life and immortality are brought drink become a sin? The state in which ing power of Christ and his gospel, it amounts to light by the gospel. Christ is the resurree-body is when not excited by intoxica to nothing towards raising the sin-sick soul tion and the life. He is the first resurrection drink is its proper and natural state; dri from earth to heaven. The polish of man by raising the soul from death to life. Blessed cannes is the state furthest removed from may cause the church machinery to glitter is be that hath part in Christ, the first resurmore brightly before a deluded world, and lead its votaries onward, in a self-confidence, power. The first death is the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of a man perfectly sober who has not tasted in the separation of the separ towards what Milton calls "the Paradise of the soul and body. The second death is the thing which can intoxicate; one glass exc fools." But it only leads to bewilder, and separation of the soul from God. The first him, and to some extent disturbs the statement of the soul from God. dazzles to blind. All is not gold that glitters, introduces the Christian into eternal life—to sobriety, and so far destroys it; another g Every thing that is true has its counterfeit, a joy unspeakable and full of glory. The excites him still more; a third fires his It is said that "Babylon is built in the likeness second forever banishes the sinner from the loosens his tongue, inflames his passions of Zion, but by another spirit." It is said that presence of the Lord, and from the glory of fourth increases all this; a fifth makes the leaders of the people in old times, caused his power. them to err, and destroyed the ways of the Dublin, Ind., 1st mo. 17th, 1883. ancient paths.

There is a ministry now threatening to lay waste our goodly heritage, and which I fear intellectual advantages, it remains true that stroyed. Every noble and generous and b is increasingly current amongst us; that if moral causes lie at the root of the greatness principle within him withers, and the im not cheeked, will tend to fill the minds of the of nations .- Lecky.

hearers with things like "the abomination of desolation," spoken of by Daniel, that would consists of a true statement of assets, fain stand in the holy place where it ought bilities, and accurate footing. It then not, making it destitute of vital religion, and what the person or firm, whose accoutrue spiritual Christian worship. And why? represented, is actually worth. A dis-Because the living faith is too much departed sheet shows only what the maker of iti for the restoration and redemption from the from, and faith in the wisdom and worship that it shall show. This is the time effects of the fall, of all mankind. His love is of man substituted. A portion of the minis- year when business men make an estituth tunbounded. Good so loved the world that He try which we now have palmed off upon us the profits or losses of the business of the fall of the profits or losses of the business of the fall of the profits or losses of the business of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the fall of the profits or losses of the fall of the profits of the profits of the fall of the profits of the fall of the profits of the p gave his only begotten Son, &c. And He now for the gospel, uppears to be mainly from the year, and determine what to change i

The temple at Jerusalem had great splen-1883 than in 1882. It was said of a c departed from the faith of their forefathers, pose of many things. yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonments.'

It is with the heart that man believeth more? Have I been faithful to my famil D. H.

Balance Sheets .- An honest balance policy, in order to make more or lose So merchant that he never took an acco

Morally, a man may be very far astra prayer for which every one has a reason to my prosperity, or do I give less as I

Where does the Sin Commence?-To d foolish and partially insane; a sixth ma him savage; a seventh or eighth makes! stupid-a senseless, degraded mass; his rea After all that can be said of material and is quenched, his faculties are for the time of God is polluted and defiled! This is a min: "for drunkards shall not inherit the gom of God." But where does the sin ir At the first glass, at the first step todecomplete intoxication, or at the sixth, eenth, or eighth? Is not every step from rtural state of the system towards the teof stupid intoxication an advance in sin. vielding to the unwearied tempter of sul?-John Bright.

> Selected. A FOGGY MORNING.

BY CLARA DOTY BATES

a small, close world it seems to-day, With fog about us, chill and gray, As if had giant spiders spun Cheir webs between us and the snn; Nor any wind had strength to stir Their leagues on leagues of gossamer.

Dim shapes of elm and locust wait, ike shadowy sentinels, at the gate, They outline 'gainst the ghostly white The utmost limit of our sight; There is no street, no passer-by No spire, no mountain-peak, no sky.

And yet a strong wind rushing forth With cool fresh breath from out the North, Would part this cobweb veil in twain, And bring the sweet world back again— The blue of sky, the fervid sun, And all bright things he shines upon.

As these gray mists, so doubts arise Vague, yet with chill to blot the skies; A power to shadow and efface, To shut the soul in narrow space, Impalpable, and yet so vast, That all the world is overcast.

But let the word of truth be sent, The dreary folds are shaken and rent; Again beams forth the blessed sun; Again the world's blithe work goes on; Hope brightens as the barriers fall, And God's blue sky bends over all. -S. S. Times.

RIVER, IN THE WHITE MOUNTAIN. BY HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW.

hy dost thou wildly rush and roar, Mad River, O Mad River? 'ilt thou not pause and cease to pour hy hurrying, headlong waters o'er This rocky shelf forever?

hat secret trouble stirs thy breast? Why all this fret and flurry? ost thou not know that what is best this too restless world, is rest From over-work and worry?

THE RIVER.

hat would'st thou in these mountains seek. O stranger from the city? it perhaps some foolish freak f thine, to put the words I speak Into a plaintive ditty?

s; I would learn of thee thy song,

With all its flowing numbers, d in a voice as fresh and strong thine is, sing it all day long, And hear it in my slumbers.

THE RIVER.

rooklet nameless and unknown Was I at first, resembling I ttle child, that all alone onies venturing down the stairs of stone, Irresolute and trembling.

ater, by wayward fancies led,
For the wide world I panted;
out of the forest dark and dread cross the open fields I fled, Like one pursued and haunted. I tossed my arms, I sang aloud, My voice exultant blending With thunder from the passing cloud, The wind, the forest bent and bowed, The rush of rain descending.

I heard the distant ocean call, Imploring and entreating; Drawn onward, o'er this rocky wall I plunged, and the loud waterfall Made answer to the greeting.

And now, beset with many ills, A toilsome life I follow ; Compelled to carry from the hills These logs to the impatient mills Below there in the hollow.

Yet something ever cheers and charms The rudeness of my labors; Daily I water with these arms The cattle of a hundred farms, And have the birds for neighbors.

Men call me Mad, and well they may, When, full of rage and trouble, I burst my banks of sand and clay, And sweep their wooden bridge away, Like withered reeds or stubble.

Now go and write thy little rhyme, As of thine own creating, Thou seest the day is past its prime; I can no longer waste my time; The mills are tired of waiting.

-Atlantic Monthly. For "The Friend."

A Contrast.

"Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding."-Prov. iii. 13.

In the summer of 1876, a friend at whose the rich appointments of the room. the end of all things." She appeared quite night I recall the descriptions given us of the inclined to talk, and was courteously kind, showing in every thing the world's culture and polish. She was very willing to listen, too, and asked a great many questions. Still, I could see that while she listened courteously, she yet steeled herself against the replies, and was really easting about for an argument to overthrow what was said to her.

O, how my heart yearned that she might see light in his light! and to Him I silently sent up this ery which He answered by anointing me with the spirit of prayer. I rose and stepped to her bed-side, and taking her hand in mine said, "I believe there is a God who is a dear, kind Father to all who will come to Him and permit Him to adopt them into his own royal family, that thereby He may bestow upon them eternal riches and an inheritance that fadeth not away. And I believe that God and Father loves you and is now yearning over you with a tenderness of which you have no conception, longing to fold you in his tender embrace and bear you close to his heart across the cold stream, that its waves may not chill you, and into an eternal and beautiful city, where you will know neither pain nor sorrow nor sighing, I shall have to go now soon, and I cannot talk longer to you, but I want to kneel just here by your side and speak to Him before I go. She made no resistance, and still holding her by the hand I knelt and poured out my desire to Him who, in his own way can make darkness light. Presently her hand began to tremble, and a low sob attested that she was hearing the house I was visiting said to me, "Do you ever voice of the Spirit as it talked with her own visit the sick who are sick in soul as well as in soul. When I rose from my knees I stooped body?" "O yes," I replied, "when I feel that over and pressed a kiss on her brow. Her I am sent." "Then," she said, "while you eyes were still closed, but I saw the tears are here I would like you to go with me to see coursing down her cheeks. I beckoned my one who will never rise from her bed." The friend to be silent, and we slipped away withmatter was not mentioned again, but it so re-out a word, leaving her in communion with mained with me that, two days later, I al-One who, if she would but commune with Him luded to it myself, and in the long twilight of "all that was in her heart," could answer of a hot day we went. A walk of three or all her hard questions for her, and speak peace four blocks brought us to the spacious dwell- to her soul. Three weeks later she cast off ing, the luxury of which impressed you ere the earthly house of her tabernaele, and with you had entered it. The bell was answered the words, "I know that my Redeemer livby a servant, whose soft tread and husbed eth," departed to abide in that "building of voice indicated the presence of suffering in the God, a house not made with hands," But O. house. We ascended the stairs and were what a short space she had left in which to shown into the apartment where the sufferer learn the many lessons that every soul needs lay. I cast my eyes casually about as I ento know! But we turn to another picture. tered. Nothing seemed wanting to complete A few months later in the same year, when

th snow lay on the earth, I was among the But, in the midst of this abundance, what mountains, and at the close of a meeting a a sight met my eyes! Partly reclining on the young girl said to me, "I would be so glad if bed was the panting, bloated, dropsical one you would come and see my grandmother; she whom we had come to visit. As we entered is very ill." "O, yes, I said, "I will go;" and she turned her white face and extended her so I asked the friend who had taken me to hot waxen hand toward us, saying. "I am the meeting to drive that way. And how so glad you have come again Mrs. R., and who shall I describe the contrast between this and the former picture? We stopped before an one who, I thought, might help explain some humble little dwelling of but three or four of those things of which we were talking rooms and were ushered into a plain, low room, when I was here last," explained my friend. on the floor of which was a well worn rag Her remark at once introduced the theme of earpet, and scattered about were a few chairs, greatest moment to us all. But how can I while a table stood near the wall. In a corgive my readers any idea of the frame of mind ner of the meagre room stood a bed on which in which we found the sufferer? It seemed lay an aged one, but as her grand-daughter simply negative, blank darkness. She "was brought me to her bed-side she turned her soft not sure there was a God, because if there was, eyes upon me with a look of such melting why did He permit such disorder as was seen tenderness as I shall never forget. I smiled all around us?" She had "little idea there and said, "well, you are almost home." "O, was a future," and "eould not see how we yes; and what a beautiful home it is!" and her were so satisfied that there was a soul to live face shone with the glorious light of its Sun. on and on forever." To her, "death seemed "I cannot read now, but as I lie awake in the beautiful, cheerful, child-like simplicity of a in a deep sense we are indeed unprofitable seasons, and all this by sanction of le christian life as while by that bed-side, where servants, if servants at all, and that our only taxation. one seemed to breathe the very air of a rest is in the mercy of our God in Christ heavenly presence. And I thought, ah, this is Jesus.—Christine M. Alsop. as it should be. He is not an "austere man," a "hard task-master," binding upon us bur-dens grievous to be borne. It is our own wilfulness binds the burdens upon us, and one of its worst burdens is the burden of fear. But a great city, the proud and beautiful capital cured by the magic of their connection this yoke had been taken from off her neck, of a great empire. It has grown immensely the Church. and she was free in Christ, and I felt as one in beauty and importance under the empire, who might sit at her feet and learn. As and takes rank with the first capitals of the look back at it now it seems to me the most cheerful room I ever entered. There was no form, the great evils which inhere in the civil Given these data, it is not difficult fear of death, for death had "lost its sting" - and religious fabric of the empire itself, which how a nation nominally Christian m death was "swallowed up in victory."

the contrast of the two pictures given, that a more than one in 20 comes under any proper the sad state of the nation will never they have been so wont to picture it. Which of these two was in the dark, and consequently of them well-known beyond Germany, and make the Church alive, it must be come in unrest? Ab, in that humble home soon to occupying positions which enable them to of living members; to awaken an interbe exchanged for a glorious mansion, there speak understandingly, to give me their view, it, it must cause the individual to feel a was a light and joy that far outweighed in both of the significance and course of this sad personal relation to it, and some personal value any home of luxury that earth can give, state of things, and of its inevitable outcome if sponsibility with regard to its work. It is for there comes a time when the trappings of not soon remedied. I asked, specifically, was be a community of real believers and past carth fail to satisfy. It is written, "As ye it indicative of prevailing infidelity? The answer sees of the divine life before it can proper sow, so shall ye reap," and how it was exemplified in the two cases! One had sown the "No." There are violent infidels, but the The Reformed Episcopalian Synod at seed of doubt and unbelief, and the harvesting masses are not so; it is mere indifference. I cage adopted a resolution in reference the left her garners bare of light. The other had, asked, then, what is the explanation of such First-day of the week, in which they spein the morning of life, "ere the evil days wide-spread indifference? Here the answer rest from labor, and the cultivation of the control of the come," begun to sow in confidence and trust was confused. That the educated mind of spiritual faculties as a protection against the seed of truth, and now her harvest was so Germany has been saturated with doubt can-malism and degradation; and recomme full of peace and joy that all who came in her not be disputed; that it has debauched the their members an avoidance of all unneces presence felt the exaltation and triumph of its masses to a greater or less extent is equally labor and a rigorous exclusion from influence. May I entreat you, seek the same certain; but I do not believe that real infidel-wisdom." "She is more precious than ru-ity is widely diffused. The present condition voted Christian labor. It is true that from a difference, nor the infidelity and disaffection, not aware that any record has been made heavenly condition of soul good works must are to be attributed to convictions resulting to the time of night that they turn to the flow, but good works [in the common acception investigation. The debate has not gone again after their obeisance to the setting tation of the term] may be performed with against Christianity. Nothing is more cerout this beavenly condition; so we have to tain than this, and hence there is no occasion in Colorado, in the summer of 1881, I to pray for the fresh and repeated anointing of for fear of the issue. the Holy Spirit, that by his grace we may be enabled to use all the gifts bestowed, in a man-state, has bartered away or neutralized all variety [of sunflower], Helianthus ann home prepared for them that love Him, and that it is when actions have become the out-the place of a Church, leaves the nation it seems so real." As we talked on I quoted flow of the new nature, that they have a out one. Any faith that survives is so to her the promise, "The Lord will strengthen leavening influence on those around,—an interest church, and any hope R to ber the promise, "The Lord will strengthen leavening innuence on those around," an in-him upon a bed of languishing; thou wilt fluence which is real, though often unper-form must spring from without the ca-make all his bed in sickness," "O yes," she ceived by those who exert it." Hence the [I will name the reasons for this view, and the language of the lord will strengthen leavening innuence on those around, and it is form must spring from without the Car-make all his bed in sickness," "O yes," she ceived by those who exert it." Hence the [I will name the reasons for this view, and the language of the lord will strengthen the language of the lord will be the language of the lord will strengthen the language of the lord will be the lord with the language of the lord will be the lord will be the lord will be the language of the lord will be tender hand is his, and his touch so gentle, as activity, I have been deficient in, of seeking spiritual care of the nation, (1) by produced the southest and comforts in the time of pain more earnestly to be rather than to do. I for the place of worship, (2) by indirecting more earnestly to be rather than to do. I for the place of worship, (2) by indirectly write this, fully believing that the doing will lating the instruction, (3) by procur, I never was so struck with the bright, follow the being, and the most effectively; and instructors, (4) by determining the tin

Philadelphia, 1st mo. 19th, 1883.

For "The Friend,"

Religious Items, &c. Religious Condition of Germany .- Berlin is and that in any event their salvations are portentous and alarming, and which may practically pagan; how doubt and disaff in I read a portion of Scripture to her at her culminate disastrously in possible contingen should inoculate the best mind, and in request, she making comments now and then, cies which may arise suddenly. Take a fact ence and neglect seize all the rest. Was and when I had finished she said, "it has been which is just now attracting the attention of religion degenerates into a form, and a a good while since I have been able to read thoughtful statesmen. There are about 1,300, ments become magical, common sense in a good while since I have been able to read thoughtful statesmen. There are about 1,300, ments become magreat, common sense we much myself, but I read the Bible much when | 000 in the capital of this great Christian against it, and educated mind repudiate young, and committed much of it, and now it seems to mind in the nights when I can't steep, and I see so much new meaning in it that I am constantly refreshed and strength ened."

I could so on and write much of her convert the validation of the development of the steep that I could so on and write much of her convert the validation of the development of the steep that I could so on and write much of her convert the validation of the development of the steep that I could so on and write much of her convert the validation of the development of the steep that I could so on and write much of her convert. I could go on and write much of her conver the religious problem of to-day-no less an The ignorant will retain faith in the Ig sation, if it would not occupy too much space; authority than Christlieb declared that prob- but cease to have an interest in the media but before I close I want to say a word to the ably not more than 50,000 attended divine ser-less farce, and look on as indifferent spects young, in love to whom I have chiefly written vice, and not more than 10,000 children were No Church has a right to exist and calls this. I wish they might be helped to see, by gathered in [First-day] schools; that is, not Christian under such conditions.

bies; and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her."

W. supposition. There is doubt and indifference, of which the Church is itself possibly, the chief and direct source. There is disaffection While the fact that sunflowers turn their I have thought that true religion consists and actual infidelity, traceable, probably, to towards the sun in its course during the more in the condition of the soul than in detuction that in the same cause. Neither the doubt and in is as old as our knowledge of the plant, enables to use an tree gues sowed, the range per control of the properties of the properties of the properties of the glory. I am persuaded the proper sense a Church, and, by usurping the broad faces of all the flowers were, it

2. The theory is established, that be is administered to the infant, initiates hi in the Church, and the sacraments are sang 3. The people are left to feel that the not responsible for what is done or left u or

4. The support of the Church, being I to

Natural History, Science, &c.

Flowers Changing Position with the St.

walk along the banks of a large irrigal trning by the same path less than an hour of a coral sea. tevards, and immediately after the day t sun's rising.—C. A. White in Nature. Fection from Funerals.—Where funeral rves are held in private houses, it is a Malay Archipelago. nion thing for the undertaker to provide eriof infection.

b to carry the germs of disease.

Where death has resulted from infectious seses, whatever has been used at the funeral old be carefully disinfected before being a used.

A rial Roots. - The most extraordinary trees ecbranches out above, so that there is no alrunk. This pyramid or cone is formed tots of every size, mostly descending in racht lines, but more or less obliquely-and cossing each other and connected by cross aches, which grow from one to another, as fim a dense and complicated net-work .ace's Malay Archipelago.

Luquage in Wasps .- At breakfast time, elate. A wasp came in at the window. dafter flying about for a while, alighted he plate, went to the piece of egg, and e nsect would do, I would not allow it to isturbed. After several unavailing atmts to lift the piece of egg, the wasp laid it w and flew out of the window. Presently orasps came in, flew direct to the plate, eld up the piece of egg, and in some way manion whom it had fetched to help it. I ad a kind of suspicion that when the came in, went to the plate without besi- and scattered along its track. tin, and carried off a piece of egg. The rem of wasps was so regular that I was ponce the reality exceeded the most glow-appreciable amount of light.—I. S. in Ledger lour doubts were well-founded, and that the

in the clear sunset, turned to the west, ing accounts I had ever read of the wonders

The fishes of Amboyna are perhaps une reater part of those flowers had already any one snot on the earth. Dr. Blecker has injury, if a person is in good health. Here is red their faces to the east, in anticipation given a catalogue of 780 species found at Am- a reserved force of one-third. boyna, a number almost equal to those of all In ordinary respiration, only about one-the seas and rivers of Europe.—Wallace's third of the lungs is required. The other two-

The Great Comet of 1882.-The comet is as or camp stools. These are carried from about disappearing from the gaze of the unne to bouse, and are liable to become car- aided eye. It will yet be followed for months by the telescope, for the sake of the accurate Te ice boxes in which the dead are laid determination of its orbit. It is rather distithe time of burial comes, are still more appointing to know, after the dire predictions concerning it, not only that it did us no harm, but that it is certain not to return for hun dreds, perhaps thousands of years. It has given us much new data, from which some of the mysterious questions of the physics of comets may be settled; but at present these seem only te Batchian forests are a kind of fig, the to deepen the mystery. That it passed unususted of 100,000 which is the healthy standured feet high, terminating just where the with great rapidity, requiring but about three his reserved force. hours to pass through 180 degrees of its orbit; that it followed closely in the tracks of the forces and leaves man less able to accomplish comets of 1843 and 1880; that its orbit is an the work that he ought to do and could do if immense ellipse, very much flattened with the he maintained the highest standard of health. sun close to one end, and the other end billions -Ledger. of miles beyond the orbit of distant Neptune; that when near the sun its active gases con-that it is a mistake to suppose that fruit is latterly the active constituents are carbon and preserves. A visit to a large jam-producing m pieces of the white of egg were left on hydrogen united as in the blue inner part of factory, showed that the work was being the flame of a candle, are the facts which have carried on without the aid of fruit at all. Jams return of the comets of 1843 and 1880, and rant, plum, strawberry, apricot, raspberry and to earry it off. Wishing to see what that it will, therefore, not come again in a few gooseberry. Yet neither current, plum, strawmonths and plunge into the sun, causing un- berry, aprieot, raspberry or gooseberry was imaginable trouble; that the atmosphere of in the building. Turnips served the purposes the sun did not delay its velocity appreciably, of the fruit. The flavoring matter was easo now seem to be certain. The computativated from coal-tar, and the resemblance tion of its orbit, based on observations since to raspberry and strawberry jam was further perihelion and applied to positions previous produced by mixing the boiling compound cher contrived to get it out of the window to that time, do not show that it was moving with small seeds of some cheap innocuous herb. We were evidently the first wasp and a in one orbit before, and another after, passage A common cheap sugar is used, and this is through the solar atmosphere. There is, the only honest ingredient of the mess. These doubtless, some reason why the three comets preserves are offered as made from "this seaas reached their home they would tell follow each other in the same track. That son's fruit." e companions of their good fortune, and reason may be found in the fact that they are put some more egg on the plate and portions of one great comet, shattered in past and. In a very short time wasp after ages by an internal explosion, as Biela's was,

One interesting and unique observation comes to us from Cape of Good Hope. Late to trace them to their nest, which was in in the afternoon of 9th month, 16th, two obke about half a mile from my house.—J. servers were watching the comet close to the No. 25 of "The Friend," there is printed sun's limb, at about the tine of its greatest what purports to be a letter from Cotton some classification of intrinsic brightness. They found it was applicable with the clearness of the water afforded proaching the sun's limb with considerable William Penn and his company on their way ene of the most astonishing and beautiful rapidity, and that, even when in the same field to this country. Is I have ever beheld. The bottom was of view as the sun, it could be distinctly seen. sutely hidden by a continuous series of One of the observers says: "By keeping the rs, sponges, actinize, and other marine sun's limb at the edge of the field, I was able ouctions, of magnificent dimensions, varied to follow the comet right into the boiling at rs, and brilliant colors. The depth varied the limb. I lost sight of it suddenly at 4h. of about 25 to 50 feet, and the bottom was 50m., 58 sec., Cape mean time, when the sur's fineven, rocks and chasms and little hills limb was boiling all the time whether the comet calleys, affording a variety of stations for did not known and the time whether the comet growth of these animal forests. In and was passing behind or in front of the sun, but knowledge far surpasses our own, we did not timong them moved numbers of blue and they scanned his face carefully to see any and yellow fishes, spotted and banded and traces either as a dark or a light spot. We ried in the most striking manner, while now know that the comet passed in front of orange or rosy transparent Medusæ the sun, and the failure of the observers to see ced along the surface. It was a sight to anything proves either that it was equally at for hours, and no description can do bright with the sun's disk, or that its solid from one of the officers of the Pennsylvania se to its surpassing beauty and interest. matter was so slight as not to intercept any Historical Society, which satisfies us that

Our Reserved Forces.-The human heart beats about seventy times in a minute. When any great effort is required, it may run up to rivalled for variety and beauty by those of more than one hundred beats without any thirds are reserved for speaking, running or any great exertion.

Without these reserved forces, we could aecomplish nothing beyond the daily routine of life. With these forces properly applied, what mighty results have been acquired!

There is nothing that destroys the reserved forces of man more generally than the use of intoxicating beverages. These increase the frequency of the pulse so that the man who drinks a pint of whisky or other strong alcoholie beverage will have his heart beating 125,000 pulsations in twenty-four hours, in-

The use of tobacco also exhausts the reserve

Artificial Fruit.—The London Times says tained sodium in a glowing state, but that absolutely necessary to the manufacture of been learned concerning it. That it is not a of various kinds were being produced-enr-

THE FRIEND.

SECOND MONTH 10, 1883.

In the article on Pennsylvania History in Mather, recommending the interception of

When this pretended letter was first made public some years ago, we rejected it as a labrication, because it did not seem to us to carry on its face the evidence of being genuine. Our impression of its character has always remained about the same. But as the article in which it appeared in our columns was written by one whose literary and historical like to cut it out without communication with the author, which, at the time, we had no opportunity of having. We therefore simply appended a note expressive of our doubt.

Since then we have received information

Reference hereupon may be had to the printed is given.

We make this correction, because we are very desirons that the columns of "The Friend" may ever continue to be a reliable source of information to its readers.

| Grain | Mean | M

The receipt of an obituary notice of a Friend who deceased about 18 months ago, leads to the expression of the desire that, in such cases, the relatives or friends would promptly forward to the Editor the requisite informa-

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.—The public debt statement shows a decrease of $13,636,883 in the First month. The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for fifteen millions of extended fives.

The Post-office Appropriation bill, on the 30th alt was reported back with the Senate amendments, and some of them were concurred in, others being rejected, Among those rejected were the amendments appro-priating $185,000 for the continuance of the special as the date when the reduction of letter postage to 2 cents shall go into effect.

Major Dewees has been ordered to Fort Reno by General Pope, to prevent intruders from settling on the ceded lands in Oklahoma. The "Walden Colony" left Oklahoma on Sixth-day last week, for the ceded lands, and Captain Payne, with 400 followers, was to start from Arkansas City on Seventh-day.

A mass meeting, under the anspices of the National Indian Association, was held in this city last week. from Dover.
Herbert Welsh and others made addresses, and a petition asking Congress to grant to the Indians the same rights of property and education now enjoyed by the white race was adopted. Professor Hilgard, of the Coast Survey, is going to the South Sea Islands to observe the eclipse of the sun. The Board of Education of New York city have of Fifth month next. They say these institutions have been maintained at a heavy expense, and, as the colored people do not avail themselves of their advantages as freely as was expected, it would be worse than useless of England and Scotland by a waterway from the Solbe done with the colored children who will thus be turned adrift? The preponderant popular feeling here has always been against mixed schools, but now that the feeling, or prejudice, is confronted with a question It would, of course afford a very convenient short cut of dollars and cents, it may possibly think better of it. There is much excitement at Warsaw and Leroy

New York, over the large salt productions developed in that region. A telegram from Rochester says: "Hundreds of barrels are daily being manufactured from two wells at Warsaw. Agents of Syracuse, Auburn and Canadian syndicates are on the ground to 1000 barrels of salt have already been shipped from points east of here.

Destructive floods have occurred in Pennsylvania and Ohio, caused by the melting of ice-gorges and recent rains.

The Wytheville (Va.) Dispatch says that the extent to which the searlet fever is spreading throughout the Valley of Virginia is appalling. About a month ago it broke out near Staunton, and has since reached that city, and spread to such an extent that many of the schools have been forced to close,

A disease among horses, ending in pleuro-pneumonia and frequently resulting fatally, is reported to prevail in Rochester, New York.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 417, which less than for the same period last year. The number of males was 216, of females 201: 72 died of consumption; 36 of pneumonia; 24 of old age; 19 of diphtheria; 15 of small pox; 13 of typhoid fever, and 9 of scarlet letter was really written, within a few years. price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at tionality is forfeited by residing for a certain a 101 a 103 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans, abroad, on the ground that this clause of the

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 2d mo. Hay and Straw Market, for week enting 2u mo, 3rd, 1883.—Loads of hay, 362; loads of stray, 73 indoors for several days. His condition creat Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 95 siderable anxiety. A later despatch reports t ets. to 51.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 90 to 95 tes. per pero considerably improved.

100 pounds; straw, 60 to 70 cts. per 100 pounds. Beef cattle continue in fair demand at about last attended with much pain, and will confine him week's prices; 3000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 41 a 7 cts. per lb., as to quality, head arrived and sold at 3 a 64 cts., and lambs at 42 a his family or the nation at large. ets, per pound, as to condition.

and sold at the different yards at 8 a 10 ets. per lb., according to quality,

FOREIGN.-The trials of the Irish prisoners at the Kilmainham court house has not yet been concluded. The Times, reviewing the circumstances of the agrarian difficulty in the Isle of Skye, says an accident at any mail service, and designating the 1st of 7th month next time may open up a new and more bitter phase of the controversy. The Government has refused the request of the authorities of Inverness for military aid to execute legal processes in the Isle of Skye.

A meeting of the Channel Tunnel Railway Company on the 31st ult, approved the bill and instructed the directors to proceed and endeavor to obtain the consent of Parliament to the enterprise. This is a rival scheme to that of Sir Edward Watkin, and provides that the exit of the tunnel shall be three and a half miles inland

During the excavations in connection with the construction of the new drainage system, at Brentford, in England, a large number of antiquated horse shoes of various shapes were found embedded in the gravel at a depth of eight feet. Antiquarians in the district suppose that they are the shoes of the cavalry horses which took part in the battle fought at Brentford in the year finally decided to close the colored schools after the 1st 1642, during the war with Charles I. and the Parliamentary party.

Still another important Canal is talked of in Europe, By it is contemplated nothing less than the separation to continue them. The question now arises, what is to way Firth to the River Tyne. An engineer is at present working on the surveys, and estimates are promised ditions on which he was restored. for early publication. This canal would have a length of only eighty miles, or twenty miles less than the Suez across the country for ocean steamers. Some forty years ago a scheme of the same kind was talked of.

The preliminary investigation in Prince Jerome's case has been concluded. The Court of Indictments will probably decide by the end of the week whether or not the case should be proceeded with, and in what manner. The printer of Prince Jerome's manifesto bas make large purchases of land and sink wells. Over been fined 400 francs. During the removal of Prince Jerome to Autenil a strong guard was placed to prevent Warsaw to Buffalo, and hundreds of barrels to other his escape. No visitors are allowed to enter the asylum where he is placed. It is stated that the Prince has be-come very much dejected.

A Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Com-pany says a report is current that the Orleans Princes have drawn up a manifesto in which they protest against the charges made against them, and declare their readiness to sacrifice their personal interests for France. It is stated that, should a necessity arise, they will publish the manifesto, and at the same moment quit the country.

In the French Chamber of Deputies, on the 1st inst., Fabre's compromise bill was passed by a vote of 343 to The bill prohibits the Princes from filling any civil or military post; empowers the President to expel was 19 more than during the previous week, and 16 them; and imposes a penalty of one to five years im-less than for the same period last year. The number of prisonment for the violation of a decree of expulsion, makes was 216, of females 201; 72 died of consump- The Sor anticipates that there will be a majority of fifteen votes against the bill in the Senate. Public uneasiness is increasing. The impression prevails that the army does not like the expulsion bill. An intima-

2500 or lens, inclining saminesora extras, as 250 a let of promotions are not on trained at 85 650; respectively. The state of the stat higher. Sales of 4000 bushels red in ear lots at $1.08 at stronger. Sales of 5000 bushels, in car lots at $1.08 at stronger. Sales of $500 bushels, in car lots, at 57 at 58 expense of the landlord in whose house he took ets. Otts are quite but firmer. Sales of 9000 bushels, discarding the sales of $500 bushels, and are lots at $1.08 at $1.00 bushels, the car lots, at 57 at 65 expense of the landlord in whose house he took ets. Otts are quite but firmer. Sales of 9000 bushels, glass.

fering from a severe cold, and will be obliged to

Prince Bismarck's illness, although not dange tion, when he declares that his life has been a f. rent yards at 4½ a 7 cts. per lb., as to quanty.

Sheep were dull, owing to the large receipts: 13,000 the he he need not any one happy, neither he for the nation at large. "If it were me," he once said, when in a despondent moon Hogs were dull and unsettled: 4000 head arrived world would have seen three great wars less, and thousand who died in their bloom might have and how many parents, brothers, sisters and w would have been spared their grief and tears!" A serious railway accident has occurred in He

Six cars fell down a steep mountain. Seven and some men were killed, and many persons w jured. The accident happened on a railway r up hill to the Salgo and Tarjanato coal mines line is constructed on a principle similar to that Rigi railway. Some of the teeth of the engine broke, and the train, which contained a num miners and women, began to recede, gaining a velocity. Most of the miners jumped out in t save their lives. The seven women who were remained on the train.

The Ansonia, a large Italian steamer, has wrecked on the coast of Tripoli. Twenty of the perished. The rest of the crew and the pass were saved.

A Berlin despatch to the St. James' Gazette say Giers, on resuming the direction of the Foreign issued a circular to the Russian Representatives: explaining that the result of his personal excha opinion with the German, Austrian and Italian F Ministers was satisfactory, and tends to the preser of peace. The Vestnik (newspaper) says a famin vails in the Government of Kherson, Russia.

Cetewayo has been reinstated as King of Zuli About 5000 Zulus were present at the ceremony. of the Chiefs expressed great dissatisfaction at the

WANTED.

By 4th month 23rd, 1883, a teacher for Bradford parative Meeting School. Address, LYDIA D. WORTH Marshallton, Chester Co.,

WANTED.

At Westtown Boarding School, in the Girls' Do ment, a teacher well qualified to give instruction Reading and Grammar. To enter on her duties : opening of next summer session.

Application may be made to

REBECCA G. PASSMORE, Concordville, Del. Co. ANN ELIZABETH COMPORT Fallsington, Bucks Co., . HANNAH EVANS,

P. O. box 129, Moorestown, Burlington Co., N

DIED, at her residence in Woodland, North Car on the 19th of 7th month, 1881, SARAH E., wid Ephraim Griffin, aged 72 years, a beloved and e plary member of Cedar Grove Particular, and square Monthly Meeting. She was in feeble healt several years, and nuable to attend meeting, but in quiet room was frequent in reading her Bible s perusing the writings of early Friends; and se much concerned at the condition of things in ou ligious Society at the present time. She sympatl fever.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\frac{3}{3}; 31's 104; 4\frac{1}{2}'s, registion to this effect has been conveyed to President Grécy, Cotton.—There was no material change to notice in proposed by the United States, according to which na

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

DL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SECOND MONTH 17, 1883.

NO 28.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

f paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

tions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For " The Friend."

Pennsylvania History.

the Projected Palatinate of Sir E. Plowden.

(Continued from page 210.) author or assumed author of the "Deand my friends to hide; for the roarings 17 journals, books of discoveries, volages, the Inhabitants, but therein to obey the Civil e cannon beat down their walls and huntings, tradings, &c. * * In fourteen days Magistrate." es, and the Musqueteers, Dragoons and having, with the two former books printed of rightly by God's Providence made light and Sequestrations, my friends were now this my labor, &c.' ed, our hearts humbled; our afflictions e us pray heartily, and call to God to dius, to infuse contrition and true sorrow purpose of amendment to follow his call-* * * * "I resolved to be a Neuter in the dred servants, and twenty of our old tenants and families." * * * "I viewed Barbadoes It is interesting to e to travel with, nor Farms, Tenements, and New Jersey, and was thus the earliest oppholds, and for our sins our pride eulogist of "That delightful land which is washed by the Delaware's waters, Guarding in sylvan shades the name of Penn the apostle."

His outlines of New Albion include all of Printz on the South river, "he would take an quarrell, not to kill Englishmen and Chris- New Jersey, three-fourths of Delaware, half tians, but with Christ to fly into Egypt, and of the eastern shore of Maryland, nearly all like the Apostle Paul to fly out of one city the remainder of that State, all of Pennsylinto another and get out of the fire; at last vania east of the Laurel Hills and a line drawn my seven knights and gentlemen imployed north-eastward to the head of the Mohawk me, the oldest and boldest traveller, to see all and Hudson river proper, which would in-English Plantations, by warrant to buy in the clude most of the State of New York, a right healthiest and best for us eight and for a hun-royal domain, and the choicest territory on

It is interesting to observe the liberal views and St. Christopher, Bermudoes, New Eng-land and Virginia and Maryland. * * 1 sailed treed the undertaking to plant New Albion. to New England where I found three months' His language is of the Protestant stamp and snow, hard winter but lean land; in generall not of the Roman Catholic, and is said to cor-all along the sea-coast well peopled Towns, respond to that held by the Virginia Puritans the people very thrifty, industrious and tem-perate. * * I went to Virginia, passing 310 settled in the Valley of James River, but aftermiles along the shores and Isles of New Al- wards agreed with Lord Baltimore to move ion of New Albion," has been ridiculed bion, by Manhatas Isle, by Long Isle, Cape to the shores of the Chesapeak Bay, on conviled as a landless adventurer, an idle reMay, and the two Capes of Delaware Bay, &c., dition that they should enjoy the free exerte and pennyless tramp, and some have * * * to Newport News. * * 1 viewed cise of their non-conformist religion. Similar rupled to add a reckless romancer; but Kent Isle, too wet and plashy, having bad language was afterwards embodied in the genuous reader of his book will, believe, water, but there * * and chiefly in New oath of office of 1648, and the act of 1649 of genuous reader of his book will, I believe, water, but there * * and chiefly in New loath of office of 1648, and the act of 1649 of bat the story of Sir Edmund Plowden's England they related of the excellent temper the Maryland Legislature. In his garrulous as been made known, unite with us in and pure aire, fertility of soile, of hills that and we may say sprawling English, he writes: ling to Plantaganet the merit of sincere sheltered off the North-west winds and blasts, "But it is material to give a touch of Religion tions and fair statement. That he had vallies of grapes, rich mines and millions of and Government to satisfy the curious and a great traveller appears from his pre- Elks, Stags, Deer, Turkeys, Fowl, Fish, Cot- well-minded Adventurer. For Religion is also a diligent student of all books on ton, rare fruits, Timber and fair plains, and being in England yet unsettled, several Trans-English colonies, and an enquirer among clear fields, which other Plantations want, lations of Bibles, and those expounded to each re and planters respecting the character thus excelling all others; and finding it lay man's fancy, breed new sects. I conceive new lands beyond the seas. Stimulated just midway between Virginia, too hot and the Holland way, now practised, best to conagth, and as he quaintly and poetically aguish in the blasted plains, on one side, and tent all parties; first by Act of Parliament or sit, "Having been blasted with the whirl- the cold New England on the other, and in Grand Assembly, to settle and establish all of the late unnatural and civill English the same situation of Naples, the Garden of the Fundamentals necessary to salvation—as seeing the Storm more likely to increase Europe; after one hunting voiage and  60 the three Creeds, the Ten Commandments, to calm, I recollected my former Jour-miles on one side of Albion, and 310 miles on Preaching on the Lord's day, and great days, and Manuall notes of my Travels by Land the other side, and Long Isle, finding the and Catechising in the afternoon, the Sacra Sea forty years since in Italy, France, countries better and pleasanter than related, ment of the Altar and Baptism. But no per-any, Poland and Belgia * * * I con- I made my addresses to the Lord Governour secution to any dissenting, and all such as to with my fellow patients of knights and of Albion, and having obtained under the the Walloons free chapels; and to punish all lemen, my kindred and neighbours, and Province Seal my grant of my Manor of Beleting the true state of all our colonies; vill, containing 10,000 acres, * * * 1 resolved while thus musing I stood all a maze un-to return to Holland, and to transport my argument or persuasion all Religion, cereved, the storm grew far more tempestufriends, where went happily the second time monies or Church-Discipline, should be acted with thunder and lightning, black and meeting his Lordship and perusing by his in mildness, love and charity, and gentle lanole gusts and spouts that made the rivers noble favor all his cards and seaman's draughts, guage, not to disturb the peace or quiet of

That Sir Edmund projected a colony on the ld horsemen swept all Ca  and their Albion, 1637 and 1642, made a full abstract banks of the Delaware is plainly apparent from safore them * * * new names and terms and terms and unknown tongue * * called Cava- and in the Depositions and M. Evelins and Swedish. In 1642 be appears to have sailed Engagers, Independents, Roundheads of the voiagers of Virginia and New England, Malignants. * * * These having plun. I thought it most necessary for the good of over by Captain Young and Robert Evelyn. and put upon us new Laws and Ordi- all the company and many volunteers in Hol- His claims to sovereignty were resisted by es, called Contributions, Excise, Quarter-land, distressed in England * * to publish John Printz, who arrived the following year at Fort Christina (Wilmington). In the Co-Plantaganet had evidently travelled in the lonial Records of New York it is stated that not troubled or incumbered with much region afterwards known as Pennsylvania in the time of Director Kieft and General Stuyvesant, a certain Englishman calling himself Sir Edmund Plowden, pretended that the country on the west side of the North river, as far as Virginia, was his property under a grant of King James of England, and that he, Plowden, having been offended by John opportunity of resenting and possessing himself of the South river." [Delaware.]

Governor Winthrop records in his journal, 1648: "Here arrived one Sir Edmund Plowden, who had been in Virginia about seven years. He came first with a patent of a County Palatine for Delaware Bay, but wanting a pilot for that place, he went to Virginia, and there having lost the estate he brought over, and all his people scattered from him, he came hither [Boston] to return to England for supply, intending to return and plant Delaware if he could get sufficient strength to dispossess the Swedes." To further his cause he probably employed a fellow-adventurer who styled himself Beauchamp Plantaganet, to write and publish the "Description into the minds of others of their hearers; as, day against a bitter, railing spirit, which hoe of New Albion." This name a writer in the that they denied the Scriptures, and did not pray knowledged then ruled in him. Being in the flexibility of the name of Jesus. This impediment was sometiment was sometiment was sometiment was sometiment.

The settlement made by the pioneers of Plowden's colony was at Fort Eriwomeck, which is recognized as situated at the mouth of the Penshaukin. This fort was so named from an Indian Sachem, Chief of the Amarongs settled thereby. Here, as early as 1633, with thirteen others, they traded with the Indians, and are said to have worked an unprofitable gold mine. For four years a trading post was kept up here by the English, until 1637, when it was occupied by a Swede. After the expulsion of the New Albion subjects in 1642, the lands embraced in their claim in New Jersey were cause of controversy between the Dutch governors of New Amsterdam and the Commissioners of the heard two English women exercised both in United Colonies of New England.

In 1634, and again in 1640, a colony from New Haven, Connecticut, attempted to settle in Salem county. "Now for choice sents for English," says Plantaganet, "Wahessit [Salem] first, where were seventy English, as Master Miles deposeth, he swearing the officers there to his Majesties allegiance and to vinced of the falsehood of those slanderous obedience to your Lordship as Governour, accusations, with which the preachers whom being twenty-one leagues up Delaware Bay she formerly admired, had been accustomed respecting him, that being overcome by in Charles river." This was undoubtedly the to calumniate the Friends. New England settlement at Salem already referred to under notice of the predecessors of John Fenwick. Perhaps the acknowledgment of Earl Plowden incensed the Dutch, who appear to have driven the colonists away. Encouraged by the terms of a subsequent treaty between Governor Stuyvesant and the Connecticut authorities, the New Haven adventurers again, in 1651, attempted to settle on the Delaware, but stopping at New Amsterdam (New York) they were arrested by the treacherous Stnyvesant and compelled to promise to return home. The Dutch threatened to resist any English encroachments upon the South river, even to the shedding of blood. It must be borne in mind that the beautiful memorial incident of the home of one of New England's gifted writers: "The relation between Lydia Maria Child and her husband was very tender. For twenty-two years they lived alone, without a servant, in the purpose of detaining the Truth of God in unrightconstheir humble but pleasant home in Wayland, Mass. Once, when he said to her, 'I wish for Mass. Once, when he said to her, 'I wish for your sake, dear, I was a rich as Cressus, 'she las not altogether ceased to exist in less flagrant forms, about, under pretence that it is in obediene responded, 'You are Cressus, for you are king even among some who name the name of Christ, however, the property of the external command, without the spiritual content of the external command content of the external content of Lydia.

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

About this time, (1668), Lilias Skene, wife of Alexander Skene, one of the magistrates of Aberdeen, a woman held in high estimation the land:" we may therefore assume, the there for her religious attainments, and especially by George Meldrum the minister, * eations as a Christian professor; and yelhis was brought under a great concern of mind is hardly to be in any wise traced or discount to join herself in society with the despised in the account he gave of his own condu Quakers. A material circumstance attending her convincement merits observation. While joined the Society, he related the follo no her mind was deeply exercised in a serious singular circumstance, that befell him inquiry after the way of Truth, she found her progress impeded by notions and prepossessions against that people, industriously instilled by the preachers into her mind, and of the providential hand of the Almitte removed in the following manner. She happened to be taken ill, and kept her chamber, in an apartment under the same room where Barbara Forbes dwelt. Barbara Forbes, was an individual particularly favored of the Lord, endeavoring to live in communion with Him. She had found her way into fellowship with the Friends, having measurably arrived at that difficult attainment, which Alexander Jaffray desired for her-namely, that she might behave and quiet herself as a child that is weaned of its mother. At her house, the Friends were accustomed occasionally to meet, so near to the apartment of Lilias Skene, that she could distinctly hear what passed. Attentively listening on one occasion, she plainly preaching and prayer, whose lively testimonies still very possible, in the face of his own she observed to be full of Scripture expressions, and their petitions put up in the name of Christ, as well as accompanied by his life and some modification. For, independent of power. Thenceforward, she was effectually general estimate of his character, we find reached by the Truth, and brought under acquaintance, Robert Barclay, thus testi subjection to it; being also thoroughly con- of him, "Alexander Skene was a man v to calumniate the Friends.

This valuable woman had not long enter spiritual worship, he found it incumbent tained and adopted such a change in religious views, when her husband, Alexander Skene, performing this great duty, and to join hi from a zealous opposer of this people, became self to us: that he also gave the reason of a sincere convert to their Christian principles; change, comprehending his views in the fo as did also Thomas Mercer, "late dean of of short questions, which he offered to t guild," about the same time. The civil sta. public preachers of the city." These questions tions occupied by these individuals in Aber- are inserted here because of their close appropriate the control of their close appropriate the control of the close appropriate deen, and the general repute in which they cation and instruction to some of the me stood, appeared only to add to the alarm and bers of our Society in the present day, as w indignation evinced by the ministers, on occasion of such persons withdrawing from their communion. Alexander Skene, in particular; he being one of those who were sent for to

* This George Meldrum, accounted one of the chief to every particular duty, whether should B Dutch were then and had long been masters of the sea.

On the sea.

On the sea.

(To be concluded.)

(To be concluded.)

(To be concluded.)

On the sea.

On the sea.

(To be concluded.)

(To be concluded.) and to secure his discourse from refutation, he actually Zion's Herald furnishes us the following enjoined such of his hearers who had taken it down in be a Protestant, hath such an uninterrupt writing, by no means to let the Quakers have a copy of measure thereof, that he may, without waiting as if conscious of the falseness of his statements.

The numerous calumnies, represented to have been vented forth by some in that day, who stood in the ness, and keeping those who embraced it in disgust among the people—a practice which, it is to be feared, at that time? 5th.—If any such duty be got all his true followers.

Edinburgh, by a religious assembly held here in 1651, that he might be present at claim conferences on the important inquiry, to the causes of the Lord's controversy lith was considered to possess some solid q life. one particular occasion. For, after he and time of his ignorance and height of unsancied zeal against Friends; and which he de ed might be remembered, as a warning instace Gordon, a nonconformist preacher, he id It were well to take that villain, (one of he early Friends), and hang him up at the cre of Aberdeen. Within a very few hours aften had uttered these words, he was smitte in his cheek and mouth with that complate called cynicus spasms or snarling spasmy which his mouth continually turned ab in this condition he remained for some we so that the witness for God in his conscion convinced him of the justice of this visita a for his hasty, furious speeches against innocent person, and against Friends.

Notwithstanding this sad specimen of outbreaking of the unregenerate nature, gravated, as it certainly was, in one who laid high claims to the religion of Jesus; loathing, that the case, so far as regards bitterness of the intention, might admimodest, and very averse to giving offence others." The same author further intima him to refrain from all other public modes as to others: "Queries on Worship by Ale ander Skene. 1st .- Should any act of Goo worship be gone about, without the motion leadings, and actings of the Holy Spirit 2nd .- It the motions of the Spirit be necessa bears the name of a Christian, or professes t go immediately about the duty? 4th .there be an indisposition and unfitness at som times for such exercises, at least as to the spiritual and lively performance of them life and motion necessary, whether such a bringing of 'strange fire' before the Lord? not understand, during the interlude. eing it is performed, at best, by the strength nether it be not as real superstition to coun-them. ance any worship of that nature, as it is to

Hospitality of the Bedouins.

turfa bushes, and served in china cups, first Correspondent of the Presbyterian. the "father" of the family, then to the rest. er going the rounds of the host's family it ain came to us, the operation being repeated or six times. Then a large bowl of sour t's milk was brought in, and made a comon vessel for the whole of us to drink from. e dose was not an agreeable one by any tense made as to the quantity that was en in at each round of the bowl. Forately, our Akabah Sheikh, Sehlami, who s chronically hungry, came into the tent ile the thing was going on, and giving mycredit for more than usual quick wittedness natural and acquired parts, and not by the violently among each other, and rising would unto whom is committed the training of imrength and assistance of the Holy Ghost, draw their swords and blunderbusses upon mortal spirits, the dread consequences of failhich was typified by the fire, that came one another. Just at the point, when the ing to attain to life's great end,—that I have wn from heaven, which alone behoved to thing became interesting, and we really felt long since more deeply felt the force of the lannsmme the sacrifice, and no other. 6th.— we should be treated to a show of Bedouin guage, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the hether such duties, gone about in the mere blood, two or three of the brethren would Lord.' And instead of coveting for them rength of natural and acquired parts, either seize the combatants by the shoulders, sepa-riches or length of days, the one great request public or in private, be not as really, upon rate them, and, taking their weapons away, of my life has been, that they might be pree gross matter, an image of man's invention, compel them to become "sahib," (friendly,) served from evil—no exemption from trials or the Popish worship, though not so gross in and fall upon one another's necks, and kiss and afflictions that the unerring Hand might see outward appearance? And, therefore, hug until the evil spirit had departed from meet to dispense—every wish or desire cen-untenance Popish worship, though there old Sheikh came into the tent leading a lamb, wrought out, the great Creator glorified, and a difference in the degree? 7th.—Whether which, with patriarchal fondness, he patted everlasting rest attained. be a ground of offence or just scandal, to upon the head, and then by his demonstrations untenance the worship of those, whose pro-sed principle it is, neither to speak for edifi ion nor to pray, but as the Holy Ghost shall at the thought that we must still wait until thee, 'for wisdom's ways are pleasantness and pleased to assist them, in some measure, less the lamb was killed and cooked before we all her paths are peace. There is no joy like more; without which, they rather choose to could finish the process we were undergoing; the joy of God's salvation, no peace like the silent, than to speak without this influ-but there was no help for it. So, declaring peace which He gives. But this joy and this that every thing was "tayib," (good,) we tried peace are the result of obedience to that into be patient. The old man then departed, speaking word of life and grace which is heard with a grim smile upon his face and the lamb in the secret of the soul, saying, 'this is the The generosity of the Bedouins is worth under his arm, and we proceeded to enjoy the way, walk thou in it.' My dear boy is not a welcome necessary to make us feel easy hospitality. The bowl was lined with Egyp- bring peace in a dying hour? ⁷Are they such their realm, and would offer us coffee tian bread cakes. Then the lamb was put in as will bring no condemnation when called to 1 tobacco, and sometimes be very prompt the centre. So long had we been waiting that answer for every idle word? toracco, and sometimes be very prompt the centre. So long had we been waiting that answer for every idle word? bringing along with bin a sheep or a goat we were thoroughly hungry, and the offering I write in no spirit of judging or accusation, our acceptance "as a present." When it not only smelled good, but we soon proved but with a desire for thy preservation and that it tasted good. No plate, or fork, or knife, been descept their "hospitality," but we were allowed that it tasted good. No plate, or fork, or knife, been described by the storage of the preservation and the storage of the storage of the preservation and the storage of the stora always tried to escape from if we possibly around we were compelled to help ourselves by give my life a sacrifice—that I would be dd. But there were two or three times to one of the cakes of bread. Then with the willing to do or to suffer anything that unerren the matter was insisted upon, and where fingers we reached such portions of meat as ing Goodness might appoint—if only my own excuse of fatigue, sickness, or indisposition we thought would suit us, dexterously dipping soul's salvation, with that of those who are uld be accepted.

from it upon the cake so much of the delect bone of my bone, might but be wrought out; Well do I remember how, one afternoon, able juice of the meat as we thought would the great end of life attained; and, when the were caught in this way by a tribe who serve us. Then with the help of our fingers solemn hour arrives when inquisition for ald not take "no" for an answer. We were we proceeded to eat—dipping again in the blood shall be made, when the heart-searching rehed to their "hospitality tent," and redish from time to time as we desired further language shall go forth 'What hast thou done ned by them for nearly four hours, until portions, sharing its contents with the twelve with the lambs I committed to thy care in the by had satisfied their desire for extending or thirteen dusky men who sat about the bowl wilderness? the humble response may be, 'Bebspitality" to us. The cloth was spread with us. Glad were we indeed when this op-hold I and the children which thou hast given on the tent floor, and we were seated alleration was over, and we could leave for our me, and the family compact once enjoyed on pately with the natives upon it. Coffee tent. We tried to appear "satisfied," and our earth may be unbroken through an endless s then made close by over a good warm fire entertainers seemed more than "satisfied."-

For "The Friend."

Maternal Affection.

Among the letters of the late Rebecca Dewith longing desires for their eternal welfare. Its reading may prove a help and comfort to others who are similarly exercised.

Home, 4th mo. 28th, 1875. "My Very Dear Son

As the anniversary of thy birth approaches, il this one was all taken care of. Coffee tion, I have often feared that it was not fully Bevan.

rty, thus performed, can in faith be expected was now again served, and then long discus-attained. But although I love my children be accepted of God, and not rather reckoned sions followed upon subjects which we could none the less, so deep has been my sense of the dangers that surround them, so fearful the Several times our hosts seemed to quarrel weight of the responsibility attached to those tering in this alone, that the work of grace After the second serving of the coffee the might be accomplished, the soul's salvation

I know that youthful hopes and prospects ticing. It was a common thing when enterthe territory of any tribe to receive from m an immediate visit, usually by the sikh of the tribe, who would extend to us with the contents, which was propared for our, be tried by the test, 'Are they such as will > eternity, united in singing the song which is ever new, even glory to God and to the Lamb.

mother.' The chemist and physiologist have wonwees, some extracts from whose diary have appeared in "The Friend," is the following of the soil and the bursting of the seed and which expresses the feelings of a Christian the blooming of the tiny flower. What does ans, and sometimes I fear there was some mother, whose heart yearns over her children the child know of all these sciences? Their very names it cannot spell; and yet the little one may plant the seed, and watch the opening bud, and gather a fair nosegay, and bring it as an offering of affection to a loving parent. So, simple-hearted child of God, thou mayest tend thy plot of life in God's great garden! assed the bowl to him. To my great sat my thoughts naturally turn towards a period The mysteries of the science of God and his ction he absorbed nearly its entire con- of intense anxiety, when I watched thy tiny life, his dealings with thyself, thou canst not You can imagine what a relief this form, and with all a mother's tenderness fathom; but thou mayest bring thy offerings s when I tell you that our dragoman as-ed us that no firther dish would be served me; and though I earnestly sought resigna-flowers of piety and sweet service.—L. D.

So desires, so prays, thy truly affectionate

For "The Friend."

Testimony Concerning Robert Pleasants.

Our beloved friend and elder, Robert Pleasants, having past from works to rewards, and closed the labors of a long and useful life,

He was born at Curles, on James river in Virginia, his parents, John and Margaret Pleasants, being reputable members of our religious Society. We have reason to believe that by yielding obedience to the manifesta-tions of Divine grace, he learned betimes to practise those Christian virtues, by which he at Whiteoak Swamp, in Henrico county, the was qualified for service in the Church, and 1st of the 5th mo. 1802, by which in an eminent degree accompanied the discharge of his domestic and social duties. He was an affectionate and tender husband, a kind father, an indulgent and prudent master,-in his family and neighborhood beloved and respected.

His anxious and continued concern for the future welfare of his children, appears not only from the general tenor of his conduct. but also from various letters addressed to them at different periods, wherein the lan-guage of counsel and persuasion, mingled with expressions of a parent's feelings, conveys in a very impressive manner his earnest solicitude for their prosperity.

In the exercise of the Discipline and his various services in religious Society, he was a faithful laborer, and we believe the instrument of much good; his circumspect and selfdenying conduct, keeping pace with the advancing testimony; being an example to others; and his labors for the help and restoration of those who departed from good order, or failed to comply with the salutary rules of our Discipline, were bestowed in the spirit of love and forbearance.

He was a diligent attender of meetings for worship and discipline, in which (especially in the latter part of his life) he was often engaged in acceptable and lively exhortations, and in laboring for the promotion of peace, order, and unity among Friends.

Being deeply impressed with the iniquity and injustice of holding the African race in bondage, he zealously espoused their cause, and became an earnest advocate for their just elaim to liberty and the rights of humanity. He emancipated upwards of eighty which he possessed, and through his patronage and interposition in their favor in courts of law, several hundreds have had their claims to liberty established. His services on their account were various and extensive-in laboring to promote among Friends a due discharge of their incumbent duties towards them-in uniting with other Friends in soliciting the legislature for a mitigation of the laws in their behalf-in affording the benefit of the law to those who were held in bondage with a legal title to freedom, and in holding up to the world a testimony against the principles and practice of slavery. Many of his letters upon this subject are preserved, some of them addressed to persons high in office, and of extensive influence in the State, with whom in the language of Truth and Christian simplicity he plead the cause of the oppressed.

He was also much concerned for the education of those minors who remained under Friends' care, and the descendants of those who had obtained their freedom, and appropriated the rents of 350 acres of land, and

£10 per annum towards the support of a free school under the care of Friends for that

As we mean not to enter into a particular account of all the occasions in which our beloved friend devoted his time and labor to the we feel our minds engaged in love to his cause of Truth, and the good of others, we memory, to give a testimony concerning him. deem it sufficient to add that he obtained a good report, and his memory is respected.

He departed this life, after a short illness, 3d mo. 4th, 1801, in the 79th year of his age; and was buried in Friends' burying ground at Curles, the 6th of the same month.

Signed on behalf of a Monthly Meeting held

ROBERT CREW, Clerk.

Selected.

DAILY STRENGTH.

"As thy day thy strength shall be;" This should be enough for thee; He who knows thy frame will spare Burdens more than thou canst bear.

When thy days are veiled in night Christ shall give thee heavenly light; Seem they wearisome and long? Yet in Him thou shalt be strong.

Cold and wintry though they prove, Thine the sunshine of his love; Or, with fervid heat oppressed, In his shadow thou shalt rest.

When thy days on earth are past, Christ shall call thee home at last, His redeeming love to praise Who hath strengthened all thy days.

-F. R. Havergal.

THE DREAMER.

All day the white-haired woman sits Beside the open door, and knits; No living thing her dim eye sees, As busy with old memories. She dreams her dreams of what has been, And knits her old-time fancies in.

She thinks of those who long ago Went out across the threshold low. How many times her listening ear Has thought familiar footsteps near, And she has started up to find A dead leaf rustling in the wind.

But never, as of those who lie Beneath the wide and tender sky, With folded hands on quiet breast All wrapped about with peace and rest, She thinks of them. For her they tread The green earth with her. None are dead.

Though years have fallen like the leaves Above the graves where summer weaves Her grass-fringed coverlet, to keep Safe hid from us the ones asleep, She sees them all. No grass nor mold Can hide the ones she loved of old.

She talks with them. When brown-winged bees Make merry in the locust trees She thinks he comes and sits with her Whose voice was love's interpreter. O dreamer! young again to-day, What matter if thy hair is gray?

Sometimes she thinks that round her knee Her children play in happy glee, And when they tired and sleepy grow She sings some song of long ago, And on her loving mother-breast, She rocks her little ones to rest.

O dreamer, knitting all the day Thy dreams in with thy stitches gray, Thine is a happy, happy heart, A haunted world from ours apart. The years that turned thy tresses gray Have given thee back thy youth to-day.

ALWAYS A RIVER TO CROSS. There's always a river to cross; Always an effort to make If there's anything good to win,

Any rich prize to take. Yonder's the fruit we crave, Yonder the charming scene; But deep and wide, with a troubled tide, Is the river that lies between.

For the treasures of precious worth We must patiently dig and dive; For the places we long to fill We must push and struggle and strive; And always and everywhere We'll find in our onward course Thorns for the feet, and trials to meet, And a difficult river to cross.

The rougher the way that we take,

The stouter the heart and the nerve;

The stones in our path we break, Nor e'er from our impulse swerve; For the glory we hope to win, Our labors we count no loss; 'Tis folly to pause and murmur because Of the river we have to cross, So, ready to do and to dare, Should we in our places stand,

Fulfilling the Master's will, Fulfilling the soul's demand; For though as the mountains high The billows may rear and toss, They'll not overwhelm if the Lord's at the h When the difficult river we cross -Congregations

For "The Frie

Whilst considering the present condition the Society of Friends, there remains a tion upon my mind that whilst we con for the faith once delivered to the saints. so diligently taught by our worthy fathers in the truth, of a Divine and unive Light for the conviction and restoration poor fallen mankind, that we ourselve not forget to pay strict attention to the admonitions: That we may exemplify a sistent life by its teachings. May we not to mind seasons of anguish and distress w we have had to call upon God to be mere to us for our unrighteous deeds, and thro his forbearance and mercy, we have t privileged to rejoice with joy unspeaks for his pardoning love and mercy; so the through unwatchfulness we sin, we have advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ righteous, whose atoning blood alone cleans from all sin those of every nation, kinds tongne and people, if this Divine Light Spirit is obeyed. So we see that this gr favor is on condition of our acceptance being taught by it. We have no privilege sin granted us. I am now a member of Upper Springfi-Monthly Meeting of Friends, Salem Quart whose annual meetings are held at Barn ville, Ohio, and feel myself to be within t circle of my birthright membership. Althou I am subjected to many inconveniences, ing remote from the meetings of my choice yet there is a peace of mind attending it th I would not exchange for convenience. Fro my earliest thoughtfulness on religious mt ters, worship, doctrines and practices, those Friends have always met my approbatic fully, and have stood the test for more the two centuries; and now these, by some w claim the same name, are held up to publ ridicule and contempt. I have no disposition to worship those devoted servants of the Lor William Penn, George Fox and Robert Ba clay; or those that suffered martrydom 0 ng forbearance and love, and cannot now my back upon a life of his mercies. We Joseph Morris.

dington, Ohio, 1st mo. 1883.

ra whole regiment of these people will for or who neglect them.—Selected. times agree to "amok," and then rush on such energetic desperation as to be very one or two a month on the average, and

es for the testimony of a good conscience he meets. "Amok! amok! then resounds inch of candle was placed on a piece of board re God-who labored not for notoriety through the streets. Spears, krisses, knives nine inches square, and lighted by one of the nath been said by some); but I do greatly and guns are brought out against him. He parish officers. The biddings were taken ire their constancy and willingness to rushes madly forward, kills all he can-men, down by one of the parish officers, and the er for our blessed Lord's sake; and as to women and children—and dies overwhelmed chance of taking the meadow was open to all experience in religions life, from youth to by numbers, amid all the excitement of a batanced age, I must pay deep veneration to tle. And what that excitement is those who der before the candle went out was the incomine and Light of Christ, have been in one best know, but all who have ig tenant. This year the candle liver given way to violent passions, or even in-guished suddenly."—Social Life in the reign of inward teaching and Light of Christ, have been in one best know, but all who have this now repudiated by very many call-ever given way to violent passions, or even inthemselves Friends, who also have adopt-dulged in violent and exciting exercises, may ractices at variance with the long-estab- form a very good idea. It is a delirious ined usages of the Society. I never claimed toxication, a temporary madness that absorbs An Epistle of Caution and Advice to Parents, e of much account, nor need I, but I feel every thought and every energy.—Wallace's elf to be a monument of our Lord's par-Malay Archipelago.

ly of that body, and was much comforted overestimate of the meaning of such an action And in order to make this the more easy to se alarm, owing to a slave having run these little ones which believe in me, it were is then too late to bring them into that subjected the would "amok," because better for him that a millstone were hanged then their incumbent duty.

When the custom died out I cannot learn, spirits. ext moment draws out the weapon and County of Dorset. At the annual letting of years cause them frequently and reverently ton Commons; or that died in loathsome stabs a man to the heart. He runs on, with the parish meadow of Broadway, near Wey-ons, and through cruel treatment in public bloody kris in his hand, stabbing at every one mouth, which occurred a few weeks ago, an while the candle was burning. The last bid-Queen Anne.

> recommending a godly care for the educating their children in a Christian conversation.

Dear Friends,-It having pleased the Lord It is always to the credit of a man to show in his great mercy, to visit a people in this looked upon by professing Christians kindness to a child. If you see a man on the latter age with the knowledge of the truth; rally with an eye of sympathy and pity, street, or in a railway car, taking pains to help and having brought us to a certain undersuch loose reins have been held whilst or gratify a child, it gives you at once a bet-standing, that the blessings thereof are only vations have been made, and the present ter estimate of him. A man with a somewhat enjoyed in following the Lord in the strait and arbing element suffered to predominate, coarse expression of face, and of unprepossess-narrow way that leads to life; wherein, by the vhich reason I have, with many others, ing appearance generally, was walking along daily bearing the holy cross, it hath, in a good onnected myself from this great departa street in the suburbs of Philadelphia. He degree, crucified us to the world, and the was noticed by two persons approaching him, world unto us; whereby the temptations of it and his unattractive manner and bearing were become daily more and more weakened, and commented on as he drew near. But just be our souls set free to serve the Lord in righthe writer of the above testimony is an force he reached these passers, the man stopped ensness and holiness. And for as much as Friend, who was formerly a member of and turned aside to help a poor street boy next to our own souls, our offspring are, or corganization, known as the Binns' Body struggling under a heavy load of refuse firehie; but who became so uneasy with the wood. The man lifted the load from the boy's care and concern, being a peculiar blessing rtures from the principles of Friends that bead, balanced it anew, steadied it until the from God; so we ought to be thankful to Him permitted among those with whom he connected, that he believed it right to connect. himself from that society, and simple, kindly act the man himself was trans-charge our duties towards them, and then we simple, kindly act the man himself was trans-charge our duties towards them, and then we oply for admission into membership with figured. There was now a winsome look about shall be eminently careful to be good examples of the branches of Ohio Yearly Meeting. him. He had shown himself another person to our children, as well as diligently exercised ras in attendance at the last annual as from his outer appearance. Nor was this an in a conscientious care and concern for them.

ingling with those who were endeavor as viewed by these chance passers. Four us, and effectual to them, parents should begin o walk in the same path, which he be thousand years ago, at least, in the funeral with their children betimes, and endeavor to ritual of the ancient Egyptians, one of the teach them, as soon as they are capable of intests of the soul before the final judge was the struction, that their wills ought to be entirely treatment of little children. The soul that subject to the will of God, and to the good adg at breakfast (in the island of Lombock) would pass unscathed must be able to say it vice of their parents. And we desire particuervant informed us that there was an had never refused help to a helpless child. lar care may be taken, to require nothing of k" in the village-in other words, that And our Lord and Master himself, as he set a them that is narcasonable, or unbecoming reh was "running a muck," orders were little child before his disciples as their example ligious and tender parents; for where a due ediately given to shut and fasten the gates and their charge, said emphatically: "Whoso care hath been neglected and put off, until r inclosure; but hearing nothing for some shall receive one such little child in my name they are grown up pretty far in years, it hath we went out and found there had been receiveth me. But whose shall offend one of been often seen by weeful experience, that it aster wanted to sell him. A short time about his neck, and that he were drowned in Dear friends, be early careful to keep them a man had been killed at a gaming the depth of the sea." It makes a good deal out of the vain fashions, and evil ways of the because, having lost half a dollar more of difference whether a church or an individthe possessed, he was going to "amok." and is faithful or not in loving ministry to chilplainness of language, apparel and behavior, the possessed, he was going to "amok." and is faithful or not in loving ministry to chilplainness of language, apparel and behavior,

the problem of the first, in the plainness of language, apparel and behavior,
the problem of the first, in the plainness of language, apparel and behavior,
the problem of the first in the possessed, he was going to "amok." and is faithful or not in loving ministry to chilplainness of language, apparel and behavior,
the problem of the first in the possessed in the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in the possessed in the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in
the problem of the first in the problem of the fi when they are grown up.

Be careful to bring your children, in their Selling by the Candle .- A curious custom ob- young years, to meetings, not only on the first dable to men not so excited as them-tained in this reign [that of Queen Anne of day of the week, but on other days also; which Among the ancients these would have England]—that of selling goods, notably has been of great advantage to many; and in-dooked upon as heroes or demi-gods who wines, by "the Candle." Pepys notes it in struct them to sit sober when there, and to riced themselves for their country. Here his diary as being new to him, so that it had have an awful sense of God upon their minds, not been long in vogue. Lloyd's and the Ma- and to be diligent in attending the testimonies deassar is the most celebrated place in the rine Coffee Houses were the principal places of truth, when testimonies are borne, that they for "running a muck." There are said where these singular auctions were held. may feel the love of God to season their

eten or twenty persons are sometimes but probably it was during the first quarter of them. It is the of this century. The latest account I can find with their minds stayed in the gift of God, to inal mode of committing suicide among of its being practised is in The Saturday Bris- bring their children to a sense of the same gift tatives of Celebes, and is the fashionable tol Times and Mirror of [Third Month] 29th, in themselves, impressing on their minds any of escaping from their difficulties. A man 1873. "Sale by Candle. The practice of let- awe and lear towards Him, which is the begin-ties desperate, grasps his kris-handle, and ting by inch of Candle still prevails in the misclow. And as they advance in make them sensible of the great love of God prevailed to their great hurt. in sending his Son Christ Jesus into the world; as also, of the great benefit of his sufferings, able, as they feel the Lord seasoning their In the day-time it is guarded by its on death, resurrection, ascension and mediation, spirits thereunto, to wait upon Him with their ters, and by policemen, many of them i in order to the great work of salvation; in |children in their families for the manifesta-|clothes, who are always on the watch. structing them in the work of sanctification, tion of his blessed power, that they may wit through his blessed Spirit, that they may ness his seed of life and grace in their hearts, know the operation thereof, against every to beget in them a living knowledge, and love thing that is wrong, and thereby may come of truth in themselves, that they may come tinguished for her good sense and solid to distinguish between good and evil in them- to know the work of sanctification and regenselves, and see the great benefit there is in a cration; the consequence of which will be, sober, virtuous, and religious life, and the that virtuous, holy, and religious conversamany mischiefs and ill consequences that attion, which we desire they may grow up in, tend the contrary, that so they may embrace and then they will be an ornament to our holy the one and avoid the other; for as they learn profession, and be preserved from the sorrow to make a godly conversation their choice in ful effect of a loose and vicious conduct; and their young and tender years, the cross of we question not, but as Friends are duly ex-Christ will become easy unto them.

receive any impressions, we advise, that be- to their sincere endeavors. side the reading the Holy Scriptures, they

of the Christian religion.

And Friends are desired to remember, that ous consequence to children, according to the what is herein recommended to parents, ought testimony of Ezekiel, chap. xvi. 49, 50. "Be- to be put in practice (as much as may be) by hold this was the iniquity of Sodom, pride, ful-masters, mistresses and tutors of children; and ness of bread, and abundance of idleness was those school-masters that teach the Latin and strengthen the hand of the poor and needy; use (in their several schools) of any heathen immense pinnate spiny leaves, which and they were haughty, and committed abome authors, that tend to profaneness, laseivious pletely cover the trunk till it is many ination before me, therefore I took them away ness, or immorality, as I saw good." Wherefore parents ought to So, dear Friends, ought to be provided for them.

For those who are bred up in pride and idle-this meeting to recommend them to you. ness, do often, if their circumstances permit it, live in luxury, and spend their thoughts (that might be better employed) in contriving what they shall cat and drink, and clothe them-to read the Holy Scriptures, and endeavor to their minds, and a spirit of undue liberty hath know who will be on the bank guard, orcised herein, the Lord will of his mercy open and dress up an anecdote, that the per And as the minds of children are early in them suitable counsel and advice to their whom it happened shall not know it busied about something or other, and apt to children and families, and will give a blessing may have the advantage of reading other good proper seasons, to tell their children their own derfully sets off her paintings, for she pa books, tending to promote the true principles experience, and what God hath done for their to use the pencil; but her production souls; for it is very often seen, that the good most miserable daubings, and it is the And we earnestly exhort and entreat all impressions that children receive in their ten- alone which makes them pass to the Friends, as much as in them lies, to keep their der years from their parents are not easily common eye. Though she has colors children from reading profane books, ro- worn out. As the Psalmist says, "We have sorts, black varnish is what she uses mances and pamphlets, which tend to infect heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have As I wish you to be very much on your indulging them in pride, idleness and luxury, parents in the education of their children; so her power to look straight at any ob is a great fault in parents, as well as of danger | the same lies on school-masters, and therefore | Barbauld's Letters, de. in her, and in her daughters, neither did she Greek tongues should be careful not to make larger than the cocoa-nut tree, and I be very careful to restrain their children from sire that truth may prosper, and that Zion mense terminal spike of flowers, after those things which lay a foundation for very may become an eternal excellency, and Jeruthe tree dies. It grows in swamps great evils. And when they perceive an in-salem the praise of the whole earth, and your swampy hollows on the rocky slopes of clination in them to pride, to take care no children may follow the steps of our worthy The mid-ribs of the immense leaves for ways to promote or encourage it, but on the ancients; and, that the name of the Lord may of the most useful articles in these land contrary, as much as may be, restrain it. And be magnified from generation to generation, plying the place of bamboo. They are an especial concern should be early taken, to do in a Christian concern of mind recommend 15 feet long, and when very fine, as the prevent a babit of idleness, and therefore some these things to you, heartily desiring, that the lower part as a man's leg. They are employment, suitable to their circumstances, you may find the same concern to put them light, consisting entirely of a firm pit in practice, as have been on Friends' minds in

> By direction of the Yearly Meeting. London, the 29th of the 9th mo. 1723.

The Bank of England.—The Bank of Eng. by side, they have a very neat appea selves withal; and sometimes can hardly in-land covers nearly five acres, and includes and make better walls and partition vent any thing delicate enough for them; so most of a parish; with the church-yard now boards, as they do not shrink, requi that it is no wonder that many, whose educa-known in bank parlance as "the Garden," and paint or varnish, and are not a quart tion has been after this manner, spend their a very neat little garden it is. Long after it expense. precious time and substance about things had ceased to be a burial ground, an ancient which are prejudicial to the health and wel-servant of the bank, of amazing stature, was is selected just before it is going to fl fare both of body and soul, and reproachful to buried there for safe keeping by request of It is cut down close to the ground, the our holy profession. And to the end that the his friends, who feared that some enterprising and leaf-stalks cleared away, and a labors and good advice of parents may take museum would get his skeleton. The bank strip of the bark taken off the upper s the better effect, great care should be taken occupies the site also of the house and garden the trunk. This exposes the pithy m the better effect, great care should be taken locatifies its star into the house and garden lie truits. This exploses the pluty to keep children out of bad company, and to of Houblon, its first Governor, a Huguenot, of which is of a rusty color near the bott have such servants as are religiously inclined, exemplary character, whose very wealthy descover, and orderly; for it bath been scoedants hold the estates be bought near hard as a dry apple, but with woody are strangers to the cross of Christ, have been ment of the Foot Guards, who take possession apart. This pith is cut or broken down a means to turn many of our Friends' children about five o'clock very evening. The dierer a cearse powder by a club of hard and I from the plainness and simplicity of the truth, on guard is allowed a handsome dinner for wood, having a piece of sharp quartz and bad them is excited and the company. and lead them into vain and victous company, himself and two friends, but the friends have firmly embedded into its blunt end an whereby they have been greatly corrupted in to depart at eleven o'clock. The men do not jecting about half an inch. By succe lusion is impossible. The building has And we believe Friends might find it profit- ternal windows, and contains acres of Misunderstanding.—Misunderstandin a respectable family, and has a half sis she herself, though not a little fond of ing, always takes the perverse side of an tion; she is often seen with one of timates, Misrepresentation, who is a gre bearer, and goes about from house to telling people what such a one says o behind their backs. Misrepresentation notable story-teller, and can so change, e how many friendships have been broken i two, or turned into bitter enmities! The And let it be also the care of Friends, at does a great deal of varnish work, which the minds of youth, and which children are told us, what works thou didst in their days, against this personage whenever you too apt to please themselves with. In the times of old." Psalm 44. And as there is an incumbent duty on guished by a very ugly leer; it is quite

> For "The F Natural History, Science, &c.

Sago.—The sago-tree is a palm, thick old. It has a creeping root-stem, and So, dear Friends, we having an earnest de- about 10 or 15 years of age sends up ered with a hard thin rind or bark. houses are built of these; they form a able roofing poles for thatch; split and supported, they do for flooring; and chosen of equal size, and pegged togethe

When sago is to be made, a full-grow

this state is sold as raw sago. Two men will finish a tree fected part." days, and two women will bake the into cakes in five days more .- Wal-

Malay Archipelago. ot.—Some years ago, I was a constant to the Zoological Gardens, and used to acquaintance with the various animals, as they would allow me to do so. arge and beautiful ocelot, or tiger-cat; day, I thought that I saw a mode of of salvation through Jesus Christ."

g at the animal's feelings. The place The letter is headed by two texts of Scripottle, and held it close to the bars, so xvi. 15; and "As my Father bath sent me, nake it buzz, and waited quietly. After even so send I you."—John xx. 21.

ok the fly. and to have its nose and chin rubbed, them, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost." does a favorite cat.-J. G. Wood.

of this, narrow strips are cut away, and traveller says: "Sometimes, while shooting menced this movement, and we can heartily wn into the cylinder formed by the turkeys in the shrubs, I have entirely forgot sympathize with rightly directed efforts to Water is poured on the mass of pith, ten the stinging tree till I was warned of its spread the kingdom of the dear Redeemer is kneaded and pressed against the close proximity by its smell, and have often among men; yet this project has given us r till the starch is all dissolved and has found myself in a little forest of them. I was much uneasiness; and we have believed it through. The water charged with only once stung, and that very lightly. Its right thus to call the attention of our readers arch passes on to a trough, where the effects are curious. It leaves no mark, but to the subject, so that they may not unadnt is deposited. The mass of starch is the pain is maddening, and for months after visedly enter into a course, the effect of which into cylinders of about thirty pounds wards the part, when touched, is tender in will probably be, ultimately to make them and neatly covered with sago leaves, rainy weather, or when it gets wet in wash-participants in proceedings which involve a ing, &c. I have seen a man who treats ordi-departure from our principles. truly an extraordinary sight to witness nary pain lightly, roll on the ground in agony e tree-trunk, perhaps 20 feet long, and after being stung, and I have known a horse in circumference, converted into food so completely mad after getting into a grove some one in Canada with no name attached little labor and preparation. A good of the trees, that he rushed open-mouthed at to the article. The writer had accidentally ree will produce 30 bundles of 30 pounds every one who approached him, and had to met with a copy of "The Friend" of 12th mo. nough to supply a man with food for be shot. Dogs, when stung, will rush about 16th last, containing the remarks on the proe year. The labor to produce this is whining piteously, biting pieces from the af position made to hire a regular preacher for

THEFRIEND.

SECOND MONTH 17, 1883.

A circular letter has come to our hands, day I was struck with the beauty of a which invites our women Friends to join in supporting an organization to be called the animal seemed to be a new comer, and "Women's Foreign Missionary Association of ery wary and fierce, declining to re-Friends." The object of the Association is to any overtures that were made. At stated in the letter to be, to convey to their nen standing by the cage on a hot sum-sisters among the heathen, "the glad tidings swarmed with flies, mostly blue-bottles, ture containing the command which our Saof which occasionally got inside the viour, after his resurrection, gave to his eleven f the cages. Seeing the ocelot try to disciples, "Go ye into all the world, and one of the flies, I captured a fine large preach the Gospel to every creature."-Mark le, the ocelot came cantiously up, and There are many professing Christians who one or two feints, took the insect and appear to regard these texts as sufficient au-I immediately caught another, and thority for any member of the Church to enit in the same way, giving a low gage in ministerial labor. But our Society is $1,345,816. e at the time. This time the occlot has ever believed, that no one can rightly t without much difficulty, and in half enter upon such service, unless he or she has ir or so he came at once to the whistle, individually received as distinct a call and the next visit, I repeated the proceed by their blessed Lord; and that such an one composed at intervals during a period of more he ocelot perfectly recognizing me; and must first receive the gift, as John records, ne or two visits, the beantiful creature when the above command was given, that the press itself against the bars to be ca-Saviour breathed on the disciples, and said to

It is this view of the necessity of knowing Cave .- Dr. Lund in his essay on the the Divine call and gift, and the fresh reof Brazil, states, that in a cavern which newal of the command on every occasion of tered in Brazil, and which is 120 feet its exercise, that makes the chief distinction rom 6 to 9 feet wide, and from 30 to 40 between our Society and other bodies of proigh; about 20 feet from the entrance fessing Christians in matters of worship; t with a layer of brownish earth, very so that while exercising Christian charity and about a foot in thickness. On extowards all, our consistent members have d about a toot in thickness. On ex-towards all, our consistent memoers have action taken in regard to Representative Kasson's on this mould proved to be full of small ever felt that they could not unite in outward amendment to the rules, which, if adopted, will enable He filled a box containing about half acts of worship with such, nor take part in a simple majority during the remainder of the session tion this mould proved to be full of small ever felt that they could not unite in outward e foot with it, and counted in this quan- those missionary schemes which are conductbout 2000 separate rami of the under ed on the same general principles—because any revenue or annual appropriation bill which may f a species of rat, besides the jaws of in so doing they would not be maintaining be on the the Whole. animals. All the skulls were fractured; one of the most important of the testimonies ds of the rodent animals whose remains of the rodent animals whose remains of the floor of the cavern.

in other places—but we believe their effect floor of the cavern. The value of the imports of merchandise into the United States during 1832 was $752,241,153, and for the present animals and the superior of the cavern of a luxurious shrub, pleasing to the eye, profession, and to prepare the way for greater States during 1882 was $767,976,337, and for 1881, r three inches to ten or fifteen feet in We do not question the sincerity of the mo-

We have received a communication from the Friends' Meeting at Lynn. Against this proposal he very properly remonstrates, as a departure from the principle of a free gospel ministry, and as showing that the anthors of it do not understand the spiritual doctrines of our Society

As the subject has recently been treated of in our paper, and as the name of the writer is unknown, we forbear to publish the communication.

The Annual Report of the Trustees of the Astor Library at New York, shows that it now contains 200,819 volumes

The additions for the year 1882 were 5725 volumes-principally in the departments of Science, History and General Literature. The Library appears to be especially adapted to the wants of students, and to be largely used by that class of readers. The Patent Office department was consulted by 4380 readers. The total number of readers during the year was 51,856.

The money value of the buildings, books, &c., and of the funds belonging to the Library,

We have received a copy of "Wayside Thoughts," a volume of poems written by the command as was given to the eleven apostles late Phebe Haines. It is a collection of pieces than forty years. The general tone of the book is spiritual, and it contains many beautiful and true sentiments that will find an answering chord in the heart of the religiously minded reader. It may be procured of Jacob Smedley at 304 Arch St., Philadelphia.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- The Tariff bill continues to occupy much time in each of the Houses of Congress. House of Representatives, the proceedings during the remainder of the term will depend largely upon the to suspend the rules and take up for immediate action be on the Speaker's table or pending in Committee of

During the twelve months which ended on 12th mo. vas evidence of a violent death; and in which our Society has been called upon to ve were found numbers of owls, which our Society has been called upon to ve were found numbers of owls, which our Society has been called upon to ve were found numbers of owls, which our Society has been called upon to ve were found numbers of owls, which our Society has been called upon to very find the very second or imports was $15,135,192, against an excess of our exports of one exposts of one expost of one expost of one exceeded our imports $33,336,739 arising 1881. During 1882, our exposts of one expost of one majority of the raiders into the Indian Territory have withdrawn "of their own accord." It is believed they were induced to join the expedition upon false representations of the leaders, several of whom have been arrested, and will be turned over to the civil authorities for trial.

The War Department has been advised of the capt, and emits a disagreeable odor. A tives which have actuated those who have com-ture of the notorious Captain Payne and his gang.

might have been saved if Congress had adopted repeated recommendations of the Commissioner for the punishment of such marauders.

A telegram from Boston says that two different com panies have applied for charters to build a ship canal across Cape Cod, and that they are ready to deposit, as a guarantee of good faith, from $100,000 to $200,000 before commencing operations.

The nickel five cent pieces, issued by the Mint since the 1st inst., cause much dissatisfaction. The designs and 8\frac{1}{2} a 8\frac{1}{4} cts. per gallon for home use. appear to have been copied from those on a Portuguese of unscrupulous persons gilding and passing them for a $6, and patents at $6.25 a $7.75. Rye flour is steady five dollar gold pieces. No order has yet been received at $3.90 a $4$ per barrel.

Grain.—Wheat was in better demand and a fraction

11,878 since 1880.

In the Senate of New Jersey on the 6th inst., a concurrent resolution providing for a Prohibitory amendment to the State Constitution was passed by a vote of 11 to 10. Bills were introduced reducing the legal rate of interest to 5 per cent., and prohibiting the sale of cigarettes and tobacco in any form to youths under 16 100 pounds; straw, 60 to 70 cts. per 100 pounds.

years of age.

In the House, a committee appointed to inquire into the matter of bribery at elections submitted a report. The report says "that bribery is universally prevalent in local, State and National elections in this State; that it has been condoned to such an extent that the senses of the people have become blunted to the enormity of its effects; that a large proportion of the voting popula- 3s. 6d. per barrel. tion depend upon election day as a regular source of income; that it is constantly reaching out after new otherwise is firm. victims; that it is totally subversive of popular government and free institutions; that in this connection, in to the light receipts: 2300 head arrived and sold at 5 view of the concentration of capital by individuals and corporations, the liberties of the people are entirely in the hands of the mercenary, and must in the near 110,000 nead arrived and soon at 55 a 02 cas, per pound, future, of necessity, lead to anarchy and revolution, and as to condition, and lambs at 4½ a 7½ cts, per pound, finally that both the creat political parties are equally Hogs were a fraction higher; 3800 head arrived and finally that both the great political parties are equally guilty of its pernicious practices." The committee re-ported two bills on the subject, one repealing the present law and the other embodying new provisions, for each case of bribery; requests for votes at any elec-tion or convention are also prohibited. The bill was referred to the Committee on Elections, who have reported it back favorably, and it has passed a first reading.

A great bridge is now under construction for the river, twenty miles north of Council Bluffs, Iowa, The piers are of iron, filled with concrete masonry, and the superstructure is also of iron. The bridge will be 1000 feet in length and cost nearly $1,000,000.

The Legislature of Colorado bas passed a bill to tax the net output of the mines.

"For the first time within the memory of the oldest inhabitant" navigation on Lake Michigan is reported act. to be entirely closed. In many places the lake is covered with ice several feet thick for a distance of 25 miles from shore.

The State of Indiana has a permanent school fund of $9,175,033.92, which is equal to $12.84 per capita for each child of school age in the State. The fund cannot be reduced in any way, as the counties are only allowed Bench to give bail for good behavior, or go to prison to use the interest thereon, and are held responsible for for six months, was arrested at the Imperial Hotel at any losses.

doing enormous damage and causing wide distress. Cincinnati on the night of the 12th, the flood of 1832 was exceeded, the river reaching a height of more than sixty-four feet, and continuing to rise. Thousands of Egypt representing the British Government, has drafted people have been driven from their homes in Cincip- a despatch enforcing the necessity of protecting the nati, Newport, Kentucky, New Albany, Indiana, and Government of Egypt against external intrigne and in-other cities and towns. Measures have been taken in ternal weakness until it is able to stand alone. He conother cities and towns. Measures have been taken in Cincinnati for the relief of the sufferers. Extra police precautions have also been taken, the city being left bility and annexation." without gas.

An unknown disease is reported to be causing great havoc among the horses in the Indian Territory.
affected animals "fall dead without warning."

An epidemic of "winter cholera" is reported in ment of a law not aimed at persons. The Ser Waterbury, Connecticut, about 250 persons being sick, vote of 170 to 115, decided to discuss the claus The disease is attributed to snow water in the reser-bill. Deves, Minister of Justice, announced voirs.

The deaths in Philadelphia last week numbered 371, and accept the proposal of Barbey rendering the which was 46 less than for the previous week, and 72 liable to expulsion by the decree of the Pre-It is said at the Indian Bureau that Captain Payne's less than for the same period last year. Of the whole the Republic, if their acts should compromise trails upon the Indian Territory have already cost the number 183 were males, and 188 females; 52 died of of the State. This proposal was rejected by Government about $200,000, and that this expenditure (consumption; 37 of pneumonia; 16 of broughtis; 13 of 148 to 132. The first article of the Ministerial convulsions; 13 of diphtheria; 10 of old age; 8 of then negatived by a vote of 172 to 89. The Se typhoid fever, and 8 of scarlet fever.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104; 3½'s 103½; 4½'s, registered, 112½; coupon, 113½; 4's, 119½; currency 6's, 129

Cotton.-There was no material change to notice in price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at 10½ a 10¾ cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans,

Petroleum. Standard white, 75 a 73 ets. for export,

Flour is in moderate request and firm. Sales of 3000 silver piece of about the same size. The word "cents" barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.75 a $6.75; being omitted on the reverse side, facilitates the danger Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.25; western do. at $5.25 for discontinuing the coinage.

Grain.—Wheat was in better demand and a fraction
A census of frovidence, Rhode Island, just combiguer. Sales of 5200 bushels red in car lots at $1.100.
A census of frovidence, Rhode Island, just combiguer in the sales of $1.200.
By a first mountain Corn—Local lots are quiet,

Corn—Local lots are quiet, but firm. Sales of 10,000 bushels, in lots, at 60 a 74 cts. Oats are quiet, but prices are firmly maintained

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 2d mo. 10th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 252; loads of straw, 58. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 95 cts. to $1.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 to 95 cts. per at 71 ets.

Philadelphia Freight Market .- Steam grain to Liverpool quoted at 7d. per bushel; for Hull and London

Sail grain to Cork, for orders, quoted at 5s. 6d. per quarter. Direct port in the United Kingdom or on the ontinent, 5s, Petroleum for a Continental port by sail quoted at

The absence of tonnage retards business: the market Beef cattle were a fraction higher this week, owing a 7½ cts, per lb., as to quality.

Sheep.—Good sheep were in demand at full prices:

10,000 head arrived and sold at $3\frac{1}{2}$ a $6\frac{3}{4}$ cts. per pound, sold at 8½ a 10½ cts. per lb., the latter rate for extra.

Foreign.—A man named Micheal Kavanagh, hav The ing been identified by a little girl, as the driver of the latter bill prescribes a punishment not exceeding $1000 car containing the assassins of Cavendish and Burke, he fine and one year's imprisonment in the State Prison has turned States evidence, and at the trial of the 13 prisoners at the Kilmainham court house, has identified thousand, the passenger cars at one hundred and several of them as participants or accessories to that thousand, and the freight cars one million five crime. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in a dred thousand. speech at Hawick on the 9th instant, denied the statements made that the diminution of agrarian crime in Ireland was more apparent than real. He referred to Sioux City and Pacific Railroad, across the Missouri the rapidity with which murderous crimes had diminished when it became apparent that the murderers would be executed. He denied that the Government had suppressed freedom of speech or liberty of the press. The Government was ready to work with the Irish members of Parliament in advocating legitimate schemes of re-form. Trevelyan also stated that 90,000 farmers in Ireland had taken advantage of the Arrears of Rent

> The agitation among the Crofters of the Barra Islands has been settled, the landlords having made conces-

Michael Davitt, who with T. M. Healy, M. P., and Quinn, was arrested some time ago for making inflammatory speeches, and required by the Court of Queen's 9.45 o'clock on the morning of the 8th inst., for refus-The floods in the Ohio river and its tributaries are ing to give bail, and conveyed to Kilmainham Jail. At ten o'clock Healy and Quinn, who also refused to give bail, were arrested and conveyed to the same jail.

The Times, says: "Lord Dufferin, who is now in a despatch enforcing the necessity of protecting the demns alike the premature abandonment of responsi-

In the French Senate on the 12th inst., Admiral Jaureguiberry opposed the Expulsion bill on the ground that it made martyrs of the Orleans Princes, who were never hostile to republics. He advocated the enact-

Government had agreed to abandon the Expu a vote of 165 to 127, adopted a proposal subm Waddington, Republican, that any prince foun of furthering pretensions endangering the Sta be banished, his trial to take place before Assizes or before the Senate sitting as a High (The Tribunal has quashed the indictment Prince Napoleon. He was released from cus the 9th and returned to his residence on the R Chansée d'Antin.

The Czar, in his manifesto giving notice of proaching coronation, says: "We determined heart not to perform this sacred rite until the excited by the crime to which the benefactor of ple fell a victin had time to calm. The Times, in a leader commenting on the E

of Russia's coronation manifesto, says: " Much t attention is attracted by the subsidence of the tionary storm and the reassertion of ascendancy permanent forces of Russian society. The event last few weeks indicate the break up, at any rate present, of the wicked and sterile conspirac Petersburg has resumed its normal appearance Palace is open to guests and the programme Czar's movements is announced for the nex months.

General Tchernaieff, commander in Turkes telegraphed to the Government, urging the nece Russia occupying and finally annexing Merv, the Turcomans there have given offence by invi Khan of Bokhara to form a treaty of alliance wit

The Vedomosti says shat the conduct of the is such that apparently the time is approaching Russia must reoccupy the whole of Kuldja.

The Montenegrin Government has issued a note to the Powers announcing a rupture of the latter has failed to agree to the cessions of territ the frontier. Three battles with Indians are reported to have fought by the Mexicans in Chihuahna, in which than 116 Indians were killed and nearly 100 ca with many horses and a large quantity of suppli The capital invested in all the railways of the has been estimated at twenty billion dollars. The mileage is reported as two hundred thousand in The locomotives of the world are numbered at si

WANTED.

By 4th month 23rd, 1883, a teacher for Bradfor parative Meeting School. Address, LYDIA D. WORT

Marshallton, Chester Co.,

WANTED.

At Westtown Boarding School, in the Girls' I ment, a teacher well qualified to give instructi Reading and Grammar. To enter on her duties opening of next summer session.

Application may be made to REBECCA G. PASSMORE, Concordville, Del. Co., ANN ELIZABETH COMFOR

Fallsington, Bucks Co., HANNAH EVANS. P. O. box 129, Moorestown, Burlington Co., N

DIED, at her residence in West Grove, Pa., on th of 1st month, Hannah, wife of Lamborn Pyle, 74th year of her age, a member of New Garden Mc Meeting; after a protracted illness of 16 months. she bore with Christian patience and submission Divine will. She was unassuming in her deport unselfish in all her ways, with a heart ever open be and succor the distressed, and she endeavored to herself unspotted from the world. She quietly peacefully passed away, leaving an indoubted ance of an entrance into "that rest that remaine the people of Gud."

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

LITERARY JOURNAL. A RELIGIOUS AND

DL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SECOND MONTH 24, 1883.

NO. 29.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

fpaid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

wments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS. PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

Pennsylvania History. he Projected Palatinate of Sir E. Plowden.

(Concluded from page 218.)

y, may be read in Hubbard's N. E., and achusetts Hist. Collections, and is quoted zard's "Annals of Pennsylvania," 1609-and is reported as follows:

Righteousness exalteth a nation and th honorable even in the sight of the very en, as was manifest at this time amongst adians, in the observation of the proceedof the English, for in this year those of Haven intending a plantation at Delasent some men to purchase a large porof land from the Indians there, but they present at that time, and taking notice em have what land they desired."

apted to settle upon the Schuylkill river, and finally Sir Edmund died in 1659, possessed from claiming compensation for the illegal site Fort Nassau, (at or near Gloucester of large estates in eleven parishes in England, alienation of New Albion from the Plowden in 1642, but great sickness and mortality but with no planted Barony in New Albion. family. ailed in the autumn of that year and the Puritan emigration at once suddeuly and statisfactorily, utterly suspended; 'the change, 'said Win-throp, 'made all men stay in England in ex-for thirteen years, though the Dutch claimed pectation of a new world.'" This apathy sovereignty. At the end of this term (1664) od to deal with them; it so fell out that 1650, a pass was granted for about "seven parts to William Penn, Gawen Laurie and not Sachem, who had fled his country score persons, men, woman and children, to Nicholas Lucas, in trust, Feb. 10, 1674, and time of the wars with them, and seated sail to New Albion," but it is said that there advision was agreed upon July 1, 1676.

The Duke's title was disputed and many my e English and their desire, persuaded the upon which appears a note on the Delaware claims of Plowden and his heirs were disrest men and had just cause to do what trade in furrs." In the same year Plowden another son had followed the fortunes of the Most of our information respecting the life solved the plantation" forty years before of Sir Edmund Plowden has but recently been urrival of William Penn. As early as made public. The only question of moment Albion, and his subsequent sinking into the from a historical point of view that remained limbo of forgetfulness until he became a myth ed on what is now the Lancaster road, at unsettled was, whether the grants had ever and his story a romance, we find that he was by Grove, two miles from the Schuylkill passed the great seal, and had thus become a man of like fashion with many in our day, go, having bought 100 acres of the Ingalized. To the researches of the contribution of the buddon "Notes and Queries," and they from excessive exhibition of the London "Notes and Queries," turer; but who, from excessive exhibition of the New England attempt at settlement, and those of G. D. Scull, we are indebted for temper and intolerant overbearing combined preturn to Sir Edmund, whose scheme of the information that there exists a copy of with political causes over which he had no ization had "fallen on evil days." Per-Plowden's charter in Dublin, and another in control, lost his princely estate and procured his failure to erect his Palatinate and Latin in Oxford. Accompanying the former immediate and prospective damage to his t the Delaware with manors, is due to are found opinions as to its validity, and the family and heirs. es deeper than the persistent opposition conclusions reached by the ablest legal coun-England had left their native land to erected into a Province and County Palatine bion," that the feudal schemes of Plowden pe the tyranny of a king who attempted or Palatinate, and Sir Edmund Plowden, did not succeed, and that peaceful Christian to rule without Parliaments, and "turned to rightly, legally and fully created and made the new world to redress the balance of the a Count or Earl Palatine, with all titles of old." "Out of the failure of their great con- honor and dignities belonging thereto, &c.  stitutional struggle, and the pressing danger and thus the Province of New Albion, "by to 'godliness' in England, rose the dream of the king as king of Ireland and under the a land in the West where religion and liberty great seal of Ireland, is annexed to the crown could find a safe and lasting home." Twenty of Ireland." This charter does not appear to years later (1640) "the summons of a Parlia- have passed the Great Seal of England, but ment woke the kingdom to a fresh life, and to have stood the test of a suit in England

continued to affect the Puritan mind for Charles II., privately and without sanction several years, but the success of the parliadof Parliament, and without even alluding to mentary armies induced among many royalists an ardent desire for expatriation. To a charter for the Province to his brother interesting episode in the history of take advantage of this appears to have been James, at the time of creating him Duke of the England attempts at planting New the animus of the issue of Plantaganet's latest York. This act of the unscrupulous Charles 'Description of New Albion,' and renewed was done, it is said, with the intention of pro-efforts to plant the Delaware. The year that voking a war with the States of Holland. followed the issue of this book (1649) saw the The Duke of York early sold a large portion beginning of the end of the Commonwealth, of one of the grants, which extended from the since the execution of the king gave fresh west side of Connecticut to the eastern shore vigor to the royalist cause, and those who of the Delaware river, to Lord Berkley and had hoped to retrieve their fortunes abroad, Sir George Carteret. In March 1673, Lord now decided to remain at home in hopes of Berkley conveyed his undivided half part of regaining their estates. There appears to be New Jersey to John Fenwick. This was but meagre evidence to prove that further afterwards declared to be in trust, excepting attempts were made to colonize New Albion ten parts, to Edward Byllynge's creditors. under the Patent of Sir Edmund. In June, John Fenwick conveyed the remaining ninety

A map of Virginia was published in 1651, suits were instituted in consequence. The Sachem to deal with them, and told river. "This river Lord Plowden hath a garded, and family dissensions rendered them hat however they had killed his country-patten of, and calls it New Albien, but the less able to prosecute therefor. Plowden, we and driven them out, yet they were Swedes are planted on it and have a great have seen, had disinherited his first born; did, for the Pequots, he owned, had done appears to have been in England. He had deposed King James II., and had probably wrong and refused to give them the disinherited his eldest son who had abused lost on the continent the documents necessary nable satisfaction which was demanded; his confidence and caused him heavy losses; to substantiate his claims. This loss of the eupon the sachem entertained them and another son and nephew and his wife and charter and the ignorance on the part of the family, had been killed by the Indians in at-representatives of the family that it had been is New England company it is believed tacks instigated by the Dutch and Swedes, enrolled (since found), prevented their heirs

Thus two and a half centuries after the ap-

Happy has it been for those who eventually he Dutch and Swedes. The Puritans of sel that said New Albion is by his Majesty found homes within the borders of "New AlDivinity that shapes our ends, rough hew and want of resolution. them how we will;" and the thought will arise age of his chosen people. J. S. L.

> For "The Friend," Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

parents, the Lord my God was near, and took away.' Thus the convictions of the good the line to Dunkirk, on Lake Eric, an me up, and at times moved upon my spirit Spirit were counteracted by those who were running of First-day trains, he at once let and melted my heart, before I well knew what hot subject to its government, but were agents direction. In 1813, he was present a it was that affected me. When very young to him, who rules in the children of disobedi-opening of the New Jersey Central road and capable of reading the Scriptures, and ence, and keeps in bondage and darkness. other writings tending to instruct me in that I remember in a meeting a valuable Friend The running of First-day trains being minion, when amongst my playfellows.

torrent, into irregularities that lead to the during our pilgrimage through this world. chambers of death.

Thus I continued till about my seventeenth my frailties often precipitating me to the the Christian stock and bond-holders to year; near which time I had a dawn of sense verge of ruin. given me, that my life was very unprofitably spent. I got intimate with several young men at the college in Dublin, I believe some of the most moral that were there; and I took appeared fresh in my remembrance, and I was or not the running of First-day trains, liberties inconsistent with the principles in which I was educated. We sometimes frequented the play-house, and after these amusements, when on my return home, oh! the onee more to health, to try my fidelity; but, gained is much more than counter balan anxiety and remorse that covered my mind to my shame and confusion, I ran into greater by the moral loss. In theory, there seems and overwhelmed my spirit!

I was then willing to covenant to be more careful in future, and avoid what now seemed tion, 'The heart of man is deceitful above all fresh air of the park, but when we are so distressing; but when those seasons of diversion approached, I felt my inclination to arise with redoubled strength, and my passion for gratifying it, like an irresistible torrent,

Friends there found a rest and a refuge free of understanding. When all was over, I was went on towards destruction, in reb from the domination of aristocracy of rank or ready to accuse myself as one of the weakest and disobedience against the divine Mo of title and manorial claims. "There's a of mortals, and to deplore my unsteadiness which, in boundless mercy, still follows:

Thus 1 continued for a considerable part of that an all-wise and beneficent Providence the three years I spent in Dublin, sinning and had reserved these choice lands for the herit-deploring my weakness and the commission of those things that afterwards stung like a serpent and bit like an adder. At particular from William E. Dodge to a minister of times when sitting in meetings, I was sensible of the virtue of Truth, and was very much of the former relative to railway traffice The following is an abridgment of some of brought down and humbled in my mind; but first day of the week. These experience the early experiences of Samuel Neale, taken my associates would cry out, This is a retend over nearly half a century. W. E. I ligious fit,-come let us take a coach and go states that he was twelve years a direct "In my early years, though deprived of my to the Park, or some such place, and drive it the Eric railroad, but upon the completi which was good and profitable, I felt my was concerned to speak in a prophetic line,—proposed and approved of, he left the man spirit tendered; and I enjoyed a sweetness of that the Lord would visit the youth, and pour ment, and sold out his stock which amount is the control of the control mind that made me very sedate and grave, forth of his Spirit upon them, and raise up to many thousand dollars. Similar wa and often the tears would run down my Samuels for Himself. I thought she looked experience with the Houston and Texas cheeks. In these seasons I felt myself very steadily toward me, and her words made a of which he was for seven years the presi-comfortable; and had a belief I was seen by deep impression on me. But endeavors were Although one of the first to become interthe all-wise Creator, who knew all things; used the same evening to eradicate these im- in the elevated railroads of New York but such impressions soon wore off, and the pressions, which through weakness and frailty his connection with them was severed levity of my natural disposition got into do- were but too successful; so that I feared I they decided not to observe a day of should never be able to stand my ground, and The project of opening the Delaware, Le Thus I went on for some time; when I was was almost persuaded to give over striving, wanna, and Western road, was, he contil attacked by the small pox; it reduced me very But my gracious and good Lord still followed started in his office in 1851. Since which low, and few thought I should recover. In me with his loving-kindness, and at times he has remained a director. He says: this disorder, I thought I was not fit to die, created a hope that I might overcome the has grown into vast proportions, but has and therefore entered into covenant, that if enemies of my own house; and in time, blessed a strictly Sabbath-keeping road, and gre the Lord would bring me through, I would be his holy name, I felt strength to resist prosperous. I was pleased some years be more careful of my words and actions than their wiles and insinuations; though alas! I when in the office, to see a telegram reply ever I had been before. I still remember had many combats. And but for the inter made by the President, Mr. Sloan, to a ever I had been before. I still remember had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats, and but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had many combats. And but for the inter-made by the Alexander had been long sines overther when the Alexander had been long sines overthrown and become acast. In the Alexander had been long sines overthrown and become acast. ness to raise me np. I was then about my away;—great are his mercies,—He still consome fifteen miles from Scranton. Ther twelfth year; and after this, though I often times to be long-suffering, and abundant in was short, but to the point: our trainsd remembered my covenant, yet my natural goodness and truth to poor rebellious man; run on Sunday.' propensity to youthful follies and amusements striving by his good Spirit to draw him from prevailed much, and stifled the good resolusin and iniquity, and calling him as out of foregoing letter, "now use the Sabbath tions I had formed; so that, not keeping to Egyptian darkness and bondage; to whom making up their freight trains with the the sense that was awakened in my mind, I the call is, by the Spirit of our Lord Jesus, to cumulated freight of the week, thus rum too much forgot the visitations with which I come out of this sinful state, witness the new more trains (freight) on Sunday than on had been favored from the gracious Hand birth, and be baptized by his pure spiritual other day in the week. Also, this day is of merciful help; and not being enough re-baptism, that of the Holy Ghost and fire; special day for repairs to cars and engines, strained, I took liberties in hunting, coursing, which purges the floor of the heart, brings the shops of many roads are more busy to and shooting, whereby I was introduced into into newness of life, and makes it a temple than on other days. I contend that by unprofitable company, which often lays a where acceptable prayer is offered up, by the policy the roads are driving from them t foundation for repentance. As I grew in power and excellent working of the pure best and most reliable men, and making years my passion for these amusements in Truth, which prepares every acceptable sacri-bulk of their employees men who have creased, so that I was hurried on, as with a fice in our devotion and religious exercises the fear of God, and hence are not to be

Thus I went on, between hope and fear; lief that "it is entirely within the powe

During this time I had a visitation from the Most High, by a fever and ague, which quently and lengthily discussed, and there brought me very low; my former covenant honest differences of sentiment as to whet now afraid to ask, because before I did not the use of horse railways, are conducive perform. I continued for some time in a low the best interests of the community. It is condition, until infinite Goodness restored me opinion of the writer that what is seeming evils than ever: thus ungrateful and hard-advantage in the possession of a ready method hearted, I could fully subscribe to that declara- of getting the people of a great city to things, and desperately wicked: I seemed running the full length of my chain.

strong; but company and the levity of my secured by the action of the professedly Christian insurmountable: so I went, like a man bereft temper quenched these convictions, and I agers of the roads,

(To be continued.)

First-day Travelling.

The Albany Evening Journal prints a remained a director of that line until

"Many roads," says W. E. Dodge, in trusted. He concludes by expressing the the running of trains on the Sabbath."* The whole subject, however, has been

^{*} One who is a director of several large railway My conviction and remorse were at times who is himself in favor of the observance of a da sending the day as one of recreation. idd residing in a suburb, who, being de- as possible, be obviated. os during several months, of spending the e a trial of the train that he could not Monthly and Preparative Meetings. but uneasiness of mind make use of it.

lditional meeting. J. W. L.

emination of a matter of conscience.

For "The Friend,"

Westtown Boarding School. Annte of 10th mo. 4th, 1861. The subject reparing an Address to the members of Yearly Meeting, bringing into view the entages offered by the School at Westof for acquiring a substantial and guarded lation, having been referred to the Comtee on Instruction at our meeting in the month, the following essay was now reed from that committee, and being read considered, was united with and directed signed by the clerk on behalf of the comee, and circulated among our members. atio C. Wood and Samuel Bettle were apited to have a suitable number of copies ted and distributed.

Friends of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting-

par was my own experience in hiring to the attention of the subordinate meetings adopted in 1794, and a committee appointed First-day at a livery stable, a horse and and members, the following language is used, to receive subscriptions and digest a plan, nge to take me at stated periods to a dis-viz: 'The education of our youth in piety rules, &c. In alluding to this important con-tmeeting. A more confortable feeling and virtue, and giving them useful learning clusion the Yearly Meeting states, that it sopanied when I was enabled to make the under the tuition of religious, prudent per originated in a concern on account of the exid arrangement with a person who sons, having for a great number of years en posure of the rising generation in common rd but a single team, and who was not gaged the solid attention of this meeting; modes of education, the vitiating examples, ored by my act from attending his place advices thereon having been from time to corrupting customs and opinions, which was reship. It is true that neither horse nor time issued to the several subordinate meet an occasion of solicitude, and excited earnest le were as smart-appearing as what I ings; it is renewedly desired that Quarterly, desires in many minds that the benefits acobtain for the same money at the livery Monthly and Preparative Meetings may be cruing to society, both religious and civil, b, but these were felt to be considerations incited to proper exertions for instruction and from well ordered establishments for the more b ought to have no great weight in the support of such schools, there being but little select and guarded tuition and instruction donbt that as Friends are united and cherish in piety and virtue of our offspring should Runembering that there are tender spirited a disposition of liberality for the assistance of under its watchful care be extended to its lated ones who may not view this matter each other in this important work, they will members. Our predecessors entered with die the same light as the writer, the latbe enabled to make such provision for the lively zeal and industry upon the prosecution as desired, nevertheless to redirect our accommodation and residence of a teacher of this work, and subscriptions were made ction to the fact that the obligation to with a family, as would be an encouragement with a liberality which showed that they ctly) observe a day of rest and religious to well-qualified persons to engage in this viewed the right education of their offspring evance, is more and more disregarded by arduous employment; for want of which it as of more value than any pecuniary cona-day trains has been perhaps the fore-committed to the care of transient persons of raised to that time was reported to be £12,000 sinstrumentality in promoting this laxity, doubtful character and sometimes very cor- (832,000), which was afterwards largely instit seems undesirable for Friends so to rupt minds,—by whose bad example and increased. The farm was purchased in 1796, the themselves as to be under the necessity fluence they have been betrayed into princithe building soon after begun, and in the 5th ting a train to reach the First-day meet ples and habits which have had an injurious mo. 1799, the school was opened. From that there are on the other hand causes which effect on them in more advanced life. It is time it has been sustained, sometimes with a ate to leave members a good deal seat therefore indispensably incumbent on us to small number of pupils, at other times full, but , so that Monthly and Quarterly meet-guard them against this danger, and to progenerally with an average number sufficient may occasionally have it in their power cure such tutors of our own religious persua- to defray its current expenses. Extensive adord relief by a change in the locality of sion, as are not only capable of instructing ditions have since been made to the buildings, beeting house, or, it may be by setting up them in useful learning, to fit them for the many valuable improvements promoting the y interest in our Yearly Meeting. Many digent circumstances. These schools con-ls members early saw and lamented the tinued in operation for many years, confer. In contemplating the great benefits of the schools contemplating the great benefits on the Society, and already conferred on many of our members, athe whole surface of the ice-bound river the youth from exposure to the indiscrimi-a few are still sustained. But the separation the park) is literally black with the an- nate associations of mixed public schools, pre- of 1827 took many of them out of the control and forms of the skaters," we must ad-sided over by teachers indifferent or inimical of Friends; and the effect of the present public that this manner of occupying the first to our Christian principles and testimonies; school system has closed others, so that the yf the week does not tend to godliness, where children attend over whose moral and Society in most parts of our Yearly Meeting same may be said of pleasure excursions religious education little or no care has been is probably more destitute of such schools to seaside and other resorts on this day. exercised at home, and whose conduct and than at any time since the year 1790, and its aing multitudes to absent themselves from language have a corrupting tendency, and children exposed to the temptations and inas of worship, and to accustom themselves Friends felt it to be a religious duty to en-jurious influences from which the Yearly deavor to provide means of literary instruc- Meeting was so zealously engaged in endeav I ave unity with the concern shown by a tion where these disadvantages should, as far oring to shelter them. In the year 1792, the establishment of a Boarding School for the One of the first objects which called forth children of Friends, to be under the care of t part of each First-day under the pa-the advice of the Yearly Meeting, was the the Yearly Meeting, was proposed to that al roof in the city, regularly walked the establishment and support of schools to be meeting by Philadelphia Quarter as a further the of six miles thereto, having found taught by members, and under the care of important means of promoting the right training and education of the youth. After ma-In recommending this important subject ture and solid deliberation the proposal was business of this life, but to train them in the health and comfort of the family introduced, knowledge of their duty to God, and one the course of instruction has been enlarged and systematized, and the number of teachers In the exercise of its tender supervisory increased, by all which its advantages as a care for the best welfare and preservation of seminary of useful learning and the opporits youthful members, the Yearly Meeting tunities of improvement offered to the pusubsequently enjoined the daily reading of pils are much enhanced, while a concern is the Holy Scriptures in all these schools, and maintained to endeavor to shield them from that where it was practicable, the scholars injurious influences, and to promote their should regularly attend a meeting for Divine moral and religious culture in accordance worship near the middle of the week. The with the principles and testimonies of Friends. advice thus given was followed by strenuous The large and valuable Library comprising a efforts on the part of concerned Friends to variety of works in the different departments procure for their offspring the benefits of the of History, Biography, Science and General guarded religious education consistent with Literature, the extensive philosophical and our Christian principles and testimonies thus chemical apparatus adding greatly to the incontemplated by the Yearly Meeting. Large terest and instruction of the lectures; the sums of money were subscribed, liberal do-regular course of studies judiciously selected nations and bequests made, school-houses and arranged so as to confer the greatest were erected, suitable teachers employed, and amount of benefit on the students, and carried Friends of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting— in many places permanent funds created, the on by competent and conscientious teachers, ear Friends,—The religious training and interest of which was devoted to the support all combine to render Westtown School a very ary education of the children of Friends of these schools, or for paying for the educa- efficient and desirable place for the thorough long been a subject of much concern and tion in them of the children of Friends in in-education of Friends' children in the various

and which it still offers, the comparatively small charge-much below the actual costcause of regret to the committee that more thee. children do not partake of the advantages Westtown confers.

them to bring the matter to the serious notice of Friends throughout the Yearly Meeting, to the usual vanity of youth, not undutiful, ments, but tried to vindicate his misre and to invite them to unite more generally in not likely to run into vice or even into or- tations? sustaining an institution which originated dinary folly, and yet the truth was applicable and has been continued under a feeling of reto him, 'you must be born again!' ligious concern for the welfare of the rising Let us now read what George Fox says great sufferings at that time, beyonch generation, and to encourage such as have about himself: "When I came to eleven years I have words to declare, for I was big children to educate, to use every reasonable of age I knew pureness and righteousness, for into the deep and 'saw all the religions' effort and to make every proper sacrifice in when a child I was taught how to walk to world, and people that lived in them a order to give them the benefits of an educa- keep pure. The Lord taught me to be faith- priests who held them up, who were as tion at this valuable Seminary.

committee.

JOEL EVANS, Clerk.

Philada., 10th mo. 4th, 1861.

For "The Friend." Thoughts about the Eternal Gospels and the Falling Babylon.

BY CHARLES SHIELDSTREAM.

REMARKS ON C. H. SPURGEON'S LECTURE ON GEORGE FOX.

Fifteen years ago I heard a friend read a few pages of "George Fox," a lecture by "C. H. Spurgeon." It sounded eloquent and eurious to me. I would have read and considered the whole of it; but the friend who had it was to leave and I could not have it. I have not read this lecture before this year (1882). It was often on my mind, but as no serious concern was on my mind about it, the time passed on, till I was more concerned about it, when I wrote to a friend who kindly procured it

Spurgeon praises George Fox, but seems ignorant of what kind of a man he was. When he talks about G. F.'s conversion, he seems to mean the many fiery baptisms which the Lord let G. F. go through in order to try the faith which He had given him; letting I had to do, I returned home, but did not go him see the depths of Satan on one hand, and the mysteries of God's everlasting kingdom on the other hand-letting him see the corruption and depravity among priests and professors, and the falsehood and vanity of all the world's religions; for when he was in that condition he had a sense and discerning given him by the Lord, by which he saw that when many people spake of God and Christ, the serpent spake in them. G. F. found that none but Christ could speak to his condition,-for the Light showed him that all men were coneluded under sin, and shut up in unbelief-as he had been when he expected that some of the priests could speak to his condition. But for the great work he had to do in the world, as he heard the voice of God, and was obe viz., to proclaim the day of the Lord after a dient to it, he came up through the flaming long night of apostasy. sword into God's paradise: as all have to do before they can fully understand the divine mysteries, and be true prophets of the Most mysteries, and be stree proposed of the propos

Spurgeon talks about the wrath of God. seet but join that he is most like. But from the Divine love to man come the man like G. F. knows where be belor the long-continued religious concern of the tremblings, grief and afflictions in him when to the New Jerusalem, where nothing at Yearly Meeting in which it originated and disobedient to the Light of Christ; and when can enter; and G. F. had learned fin under which it has been sustained to the pre-the Light shows man his alienations from God Lord that the world's religions are vi sent time; the noble generosity which has the most good, wise and almighty; or when that he was to gather a people in which furnished abundant means for the very large the most High prepares and fits his servants ments to sit down in heavenly places in the outlay incurred, and also the serious object for his own service. George Fox had heard tions which exist to educating the children the voice of God saying in himself, "Thou John Bunyan. Does not Spurgeon kn of Friends at the mixed public schools, it is art in my love, and my love was always with John Bunyan was an enemy to the It of the youth George Fox! He says: "G. F. versy with Edward Burrough, that the They have therefore deemed it due from was an excellent lad, naturally disposed to champion of the Most High, and how I me to bring the matter to the serious notice every thing that was serious, not at all joined did not mind the truth or the cleares me on at this valuable Seminary."

ful in all things, and to act faithfully two pany of man-eaters eating up the peor signed on behalf and by direction of the ways, viz., inwardly to God and outwardly to bread." George Fox was sent to turn the man, and to keep to yea and nay in all things, ple to the Light of Christ in themselves, and that my words should be few and savory, would lead them to the Morning Star, the seasoned with grace; and that I might not teacher of his people, who renews up it eat and drink to make myself wanton, but image of God, and makes them to appris for health, using the creatures in their service the Seriptures when they are in the same in as servants in their places to the glory of Him which gave them forth. But the Babyla who created them, they being in the covenant are fed by priesteraft on outward know and I being brought up into the covenant and which is the serpent's way and the sin of w sanctified with the Word which was in the and if Spurgeon would fully apprecia beginning by which all things are upheld, in spiritual worship which he praises Ged which is unity with the creation."

Spurgeon seems to ignore that George Fox would seek communion with the Fatwas born again at eleven years of age. He the spirits, and never more preach win had already then the law of God written in feeling the Divine anointing, nor try to his heart, which is the characteristic of the his hearers on words, but show them the new covenant. He was taught by the Lord Light of Christ in themselves, and tell and had power to do right. The seed of sin to live by the inward word, to which had not taken root in him, but the Light of things are possible, and come down of Christ, God's gift for man's salvation, the ansame level with other people that not tidote against the seed of sin, kept him pure called laymen, and not to try to keep his and undefiled. He was in the fear of God, tion as a master in Israel. which is the beginning of wisdom.

When G. F. was towards nineteen years of age it grieved him to hear his cousin (a professor) and another professor drink healths. and say that he that would not drink should pay for them all. G. F. says: "So I went away, and when I had done with the business to bed that night, nor could I sleep, but sometimes walked up and down, and cried to the Lord, who said unto me: 'Thou seest how young people go together into vanity, and old people into the earth; thou must forsake all and be a stranger to all, both young and old.' Then, at command of God, on the ninth day of Seventh month, 1643, I left my relations and broke of all familiarity with both old and young.

It was after the Lord prepared and fitted him for his service, and let him experience all conditions of men, so he should be able to speak to all conditions and be fully qualified

Spurgeon says that a man shall make no

Spurgeon praises George Fox and he cais Christ in man; that John Bunyan um Let us consider what C. H. Spurgeon says against the Friends and went into a no

> In the year 1670, before his geg America, George Fox writes: "I was a for having bequeathed* to the world, th

(To be continued.)

The Door-step of Nebuchadnezzar.-"1 Egyptian and Assyrian gallery at the Bi Museum, and in close contiguity to the tite monuments and the bronze gates of maneser, there has just been placed an o of considerable interest—a bronze door from the great temple of E-Saggil at Bors a suburb or division of Babylon. The step not only has inscribed on it the nan Nebuehadnezzar, but also mentions his ho or restoration to health. The door-step thus have been a votive offering. The thor may suggest itself whether the inscription the door-step has any relation to the madof Nebuchadnezzar spoken of in the known words of the 4th chapter of Da which record how the renowned mona after looking with pride on the great Bab which he had built, was in the same I driven from among men, and did eat gras oxen, and his body was wet with the dev heaven, till his hairs were grown like eag feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.' would not, however, be easy to make such identification. The temple of E-Saggil, which the door-step pertained, was a fam in spirit and in truth.

Babylonian idolatry, and remained Il the time of Nabonidas the last Babking."-Lon. Daily News.

TRIP LIGHTLY.

Selected.

Trip lightly over trouble, Trip lightly over wrong; We only make grief double By dwelling on it long. Why clasp woe's hand so tightly? Why sigh o'er blossoms dead? Why cling to forms unsightly? Why not seek joy instead?

Trip lightly over sorrow Though all the days he dark; The sun may shine to-morrow, And gaily sing the lark. Whilst stars are brightly shining, And heaven is overhead, Encourage not repining, But look for joy instead. -Reformed Episcopalian.

Selected.

THE SAFE REFUGE .- Ps. XLVI. BY ANNIE WITTENMYER. Lord is my refuge and strength, present and infinite Friend, learned the sweet lesson at length; ly soul on his love may depend.

seasons of sorrow, and doubt, When friendless I journey alone, mercies encompass about; His presence and love are made known.

en storms fill the earth with alarms, and mountains are rocked by the tide; gathers me safe in his arms and under his feathers I hide.

e earth may remove from its place, The mountains sink into the sea; change, while beholding his face, Can trouble, or terrify me.

city I soon shall behold, Where He is the centre and light; d walk on its pavement of gold, And know no more sorrow nor night.

ere, safe from temptation and strife, side the pure river of life, That gladdens the city of God. -The London Christian.

Selected. THE AGE OF INNOCENCE.

Drear were the world without a child, Where happy infant never smiled, Nor stirr'd a mother's love; We sooner could the flowrets spare, The tender bud and blossom fair, Or breath of spring-time in the air, Or light of dawn above !

No monarch rules with lordlier grace Than belpless infancy its place Soon narrowed to a span; Outstretching hands that claim as right All things that loom upon the sight And recking nought of greater might That will discrown the man,

O, little king, O, little queen, You rule not with the golden sheen And pomp of larger courts, But sovereign is your gentle sway, Strong hearts and willing, homage pay, Love scatters garlands on your way Where your young life disports.

No poet utters daintier word Than oft from lisping lip is heard, No wit moves purer mirth; In mimic satire babes grow bold And quaint surprises they unfold As first their untaught eyes behold The wondrous shows of earth,

- William Stevens.

For "The Friend," Religious Views and Tenets.

earthly wisdom they cannot understand the after them, nor follow them, for behold the deep things of God. But he says: "the wise kingdom of God is within you." shall understand. And that they shall shine By looking too much to that which is outfull fruition beyond the grave.

through righteousness unto eternal life by Magog "is as the sand of the sea." Jesus Christ our Lord. And it will much more abound in all who, like Paul, have witnessed the law of the spirit of life in Christ to them for a season, after their fall, and in esteemed among men, may be abomination which they brought forth children, in their in the sight of the Lord." The will of the own fallen likeness, but it is an eternal life that the Christian longs for, and which per-Daniel, in looking forward in prophetical haps Adam and Eve had renewed to them. vision towards "the time of the end," says And which we may all have, if we will com-"many shall run to and fro, and knowledge ply with the terms, by and through faith in shall be increased." But he does not tell Him who is the life and light of men. The whether it is the heavenly knowledge or the teachings of the Scriptures are from the Holy earthly that shall increase. Perhaps he meant Spirit. And it is alone through the Spirit both. As we see they are both in the world that they are understood. And the teachings —"The wisdom that is from above," and the of man must be through the same Spirit be"wisdom which descendeth not from above." for they can be successful in teaching transBy the heavenly wisdom we know heavenly gressors the way to holliers, or converting things, and by the earthly wisdom we know sinners unto God. For "the Scriptures are carthly things. And while we see that the only a declaration of the fountain, and not the worldly wisdom so largely prevails, and that fountain itself." Some are almost looking for perhaps it is on the increase, yet Daniel gives eternal life in the Scriptures; making them us the comforting assurance that "many shall their idol. And so fail to come to Hum of be purified, and made white, and tried; but whom they testify. Some are saying in effect, the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of "lo here is Christ, others, lo He is there." But the wicked shall understand." Because by the command of the Saviour was, "go ye not as the brightness of the firmament; and they ward, and listening to the teachings of those that turn many to righteousness as the stars who darken counsel by a multitude of words forever and ever." But if any of the ser without divine knowledge, we may find ourvants of the Lord, in doing this work, of selves on no better or safer ground than blind turning many to righteousness, should feel followers of the blind. "Wide is the gate, that they lack divine wisdom "let them ask and broad is the way, that leadeth to destrucof God, that giveth to all men liberally, and tion, and many there be which go in thereat: upbraideth not; and it shall be given them. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the But let them ask in faith, nothing wavering," way, which leadeth unto life, and few there And let them ask of God; and not look too be that find it." By this we see that godlimuch to man, or books, or any outward uses, righteousness and holiness do not go thing for that which alone may be found with the multitude in the broad way, as it within, "Why seek ye the living among the leads to destruction. But they do go with dead? He is not here, but is risen." Yes the humble few in the straight and narrow risen, far above the sepulchres of the dead, way of self-denial which our forefathers trod. He is not to be found there; although they They denied themselves of all cumbering be ever so beautifully garnished. We see things which obstructed their entrance in at that while the servants of the Most High are the strait gate. But now, in this age of at his command, travelling abroad, to spread liberty, how is it? There appears to be room the light of the knowledge of the glory of enough for us, their professed followers, to God; the servants of anti-Christ are also walk hand in hand with the world and its "going to and fro in the earth, and walking accomplishments. We can adopt the manup and down in it," or often riding in splendor; ners, the ways and customs of the formal probut under a different leader, even one who is fessors around us. We can in this new and transformed into an angel of light. So "be- easy way, conform to the world in dress and ware of false prophets which come to you in language, and still be of increased esteem Sin abounded unto death and respectability as useful and consistent in Adam and Eve. So it does in all their "workers" in the cause of Him who was posterity. That is, it abounds unto the death "meek and lowly in heart." We may willingly of that spiritual life which has been again lay aside all of our distinguishing views and begotten in the soul, unless it is resisted and practices, and yet wish to "be called by our overcome by "the free gift which has come name to take away our reproach." "Brethren, upon all men into justification of life." "For these things ought not to be." As to the the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God number that is spoken of, who go in the broad is eternal life through Jesus Christ onr Lord." way to destruction, I know that many, or a And eternal life is what we want, and what great multitude, is also spoken of, who are the we may have even here on earth, as a blessed redeemed children of the Lord. John, in the foretaste of that which we hope for in more Revelations, speaks of a great multitude, which no man could number, "which came Spiritual death was the wages that our out of great tribulation, and had washed their first parents received after the transgression, robes, and made them white in the blood of and this death has past upon all their post the Lamb." Though the number here spoken terity. For all have sinned. And as sin of is called a great multitude, yet it may be hath abounded and reigned under the law of small in comparison with the countless thousin and death, even so might grace, now, sands who have gone in the broad way to where it is received, much more abound, destruction. For the number of Gog and doctrine, nor hearing it oft repeated, or by Noto, Christianity is considered as an infection of the design of the standard of or our happiness as individuals, or as a So-treading in the footsteps of a missionary, will be that the motions of the spheres ciety. And sinners in all ages, are saved by be tainted with the foreign belief. Thus when material universe stand in some such the grace of God and not by the will of man. a French missionary recently visited the dis- to Him in whom all things exist, th Now "whosoever is wise, and will observe trict every body refused to give him food or present and omnipotent God, as the in these things, even they shall understand the lodging, and he was obliged to apply to the of my body do to my will—I do not a loving kindness of the Lord."

If we, with the multitude ever so great, worship in the will of man, instead of in the will of God, what is it but will-worship? Do Jesus, to set them free from the law of sin and we glorify the Lord, or do we glorify self? death. It appears that it was only temporal Such popular worship may receive the ap-life that Adam and Eve had lengthened out plause of men; but "that which is highly Lord can be done.

DAVID HUDDLESTON.

Dublin, Ind., 1st mo. 26th, 1883.

For " The Friend."

Who, but can say, "Not more than others I deserve," &c., and would not a true Chrisothers lead us on all occasions to observe the in Europe conducted by immoral men." "moderation" which the apostle enjoins unto and before all? and, whatever be our circumstances or favored lot in life, to regard simvirtues?

The pious Hannah More, in an allusion to the schools under her and her sister's care, speaks of feasting at a dinner five hundred and seventeen children, and three hundred tions is that they are promotive of physical they fixed their eggs singly to the woo others, for the sum of £15—"less," she adds, health and strength. If they were practised we used to feed them by taking the cor "than a fine dinner for twenty would cost."

his woes.

2d mo. 19th.

For "The Friend."

Religious Items, &c.

Lay-preachers. — The Bishop of Durham proposes the introduction into the system of the Established Church of England of a class of lay-preachers, who shall be at liberty to stand me at all as saying that there is no mys-neighborhood of Jedburgh Abbey in maintain themselves by their own exertions tery about the planets' motions. There is health and abundant bearers, said to be in the ordinary branches of business. If the just the one single mystery—gravitation— 500 to 600 years old. He also mention proposition should include the additional features, that these preachers shall be divinely that an atom of matter can attract another Hom Lacey, whose branches, when the called to enter on this service, and that they atom, no matter how great the distance, no came long and heavy, touched the gro shall wait on every occasion for a renewal of matter what intervening substances there and took root like the Banyan of India. heavenly help and power before undertaking may be; how it will act upon it; or at least coarser varieties of the pear, whose fruit dhist priests has been called for the purpose what is the action, I cannot understand. It fruit; and many varieties adapted to creature must be slain before the will of the clergy to marry or to eat flesh meat. In con- I will that my arm shall rise it rise trust with this news is an item in the Japan inscrutable. All the explanations th It is not the acknowledgment of sound Mail, announcing that in the Province of been given of it seem to me merely to be police for help. So the priests called their how, and never expect to know."hollowers together, and agreed that they would A. Young, of Princeton.

kill the obnoxious foreigner if he stayed. Water Mills on the Danube.—One The missionary left.

Immoral Theologians.—Joseph Cook in one western traveller—the mills of the D It is well perhaps for all, at their plentiful of his "Boston Lectures" says: "Walking The grotesque wind-mill which he see tables, to remember, and especially those who along the banks of the Rhine with a German other European countries disappears, indulge in excesses and superfluities, that professor, whose name is known throughout floating water-mill takes its place. T many here and there—and particularly now Christendom, and not seeking nor expecting consists of a floating house, a kind of from freshets and floods—are at the same any such disclosure, I was told that it is be. Ark, say 30 feet long and 20 broad, but time suffering for want of the necessaries of lieved that more than a few theological pupils water-tight hull or keel, and anchored life. Can we, though, through the blessing in Holland are immoral men. Nobody pre- at the shore or out in the current of the of Divine Providence, placed at a distance tends to doubt that, in some of the theological This is framed to another keel about !! from these calamities, any more than the schools of the Netherlands, morality is not feet at one side. A beam projects from Emperor of Germany, partake with impunity indispensable to membership of a theological ark, and rests on the adjacent keel a and complacence of our festive fulness, when class. I said to my informant: 'If the facts feet above the water, and the beam the over abundance of our tables and our were known in the United States that the axle of a great wheel like the side-whe houses would help and comfort so many; yea, lological students in certain schools are be-Sound steamer, which the current turn in some cases might preserve from starvation lieved on credible evidence to be immoral so the mill is put in motion. These mi men, we should no more take our theology anchored in flats at distances of from from that style of schools than we should take five miles, and on the shore are the ci our drinking waters from these gutters.' looking wagons which bring the grain tian fellow-feeling in the suffering sorrows of There is not a little of theological discussion the surrounding region. It is safe to sa

the Phi Beta Kappa alumni of New York, tive-looking contrivances. They seem Dr. Crosby stated that the formation in col-the centre of all the industry of the re plicity and economy as becoming, practical leges of boat clubs and ball clubs, with public along the river.—Correspondence of Chr contests which attract professional roughs, Pulex Irritans .- The Flea .- When I and introduce their habits of betting and boy we were rather interested about drinking, is an abomination of the first order, and so put two or three or four into a As is well known, the plea for these recreatube with a little cotton wool at one merely as a relief from the effects of confine- and putting the open end on the back of Another record worthy our consideration ment and severe mental application, then they hand, when the fleas would come down to is the following: "The prophets of Israel would be beneficial. But when the students In some parts, where fleas abound, it is were a very remarkable and peculiar race of put themselves into special courses of diet pleasant, but not uncommon to find the men; living, generally, in poor and mean and training; when the interest is intense for in the blankets. From specimens I habitations; contented with a bare sufficiency months before the day of contest arrives; mounted for the microscope each flea with to supply their daily wants; rejecting cheer- when the excitement is so great as to equal five eggs at a time. Their apparatu to supply their daily wants; rejecting cheer, when the excitanent is so great as to equal new eggs at a time. Their apparatus fully an abundance of this world's goods, and that which prevails on the eve of a battle that piereing and sucking is well worth not yet standing before kings and princes as the is to decide the fate of nations, the students but requires rather a high power to see accredited ambassadors of the Most High, participating must be drawn away from their — E. T. Scott in Science Gossip. declaring unhesitatingly His counsels, and studies, and the presence of professional gamdenouncing unshrinkingly his judgments and blers, as trainers, and of sporting men as witt ties of the European pears were produc nesses of the contests, and participants of the Belgium, through the labors of Professor wagers that are secretly being made, must Mons, of Brussels, who raised 80,000 seed produce a damaging effect upon the principles In some parts of England it is extens and character of all concerned.

> For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

to preach, it would bring them quite near to behave as if it acted upon it, I do not know; an austere taste, are used for perry, whit the standard of true Gospel ministry.

Buddhism.—A large convocation of Budgether by means of an intervening ether, or getter by means of an intervening ether, or I he pear, in America, is an introduced to the property of the pear in the pear i of abolishing the ancient rules forbidding the stands with me along with the fact that when climate and soil have been produced—son immediately attracts the attention within 300 or 400 miles below Vienna, Boat and Ball Clubs. In an address before are thousands of these grotesque and

The Pear Tree.-Some of the finest cultivated for making perry. It seems a very long-lived tree. There is a pear ore at Newland, near Malvern, which is kr to have existed over 400 years. Lo The Mystery of Gravitation .- "Do not under-mentions these fruit trees growing in Springs in the Island of Celebes .- On a bg most furionsly. gal jets which I managed to approach, who fully adopt the new system. my hand to see if it was really as hot who visited these springs ventured Him to be their Leader. ar the liquid mud, when the crust gave nd he was engulfed in the horrible .- Wallace's Malay Archipelago.

THE FRIEND.

SECOND MONTH 24, 1883.

unsettlement and disintegration which past is cause of monrning and searching hem.

hat the Light of Christ within, as God's or that his righteousness might be im- them, if they are travelling in diverging paths. to us, and we accepted of God, while is from our sins.

to repentance, and gives power to for contended. all unrighteousness, to those who yield elves to its guidance.

at the discoveries of this Light in the

But of latter years a different doctrinal systract of ground in a slight hollow is tem has been accepted by many under our the Ledger of this city showing the condition lake of liquid mud, in patches of blue, name. This system also asserts the Divinity of things a week ago, will give some idea of white, and in many places boiling and and atonement of our Saviour, but it teaches the trials which the inhabitants of Cincinnation most furiously. All around on the that when He said on the cross "it is finished," and cities similarly situated have been ented clay are small wells and craters, and gave up his life, his part in the work of during. ntinually, a small hole appearing first, that now remains to be done is for man to ac-emits jets of steam and boiling mud, cept that salvation by believing on and openly at a small depth, and bends with pres- Christ as ever held by Friends, has no neceske thin ice. At one of the smaller sary place, and is therefore rejected by those

From the fundamental principle of Quakeroked, when a little drop of mud that ism sprang, not only "the goodly tree of docton to my finger scalded like boiling trines that grew and branched out from it,"
A short distance off there was a flat but also the characteristic testimonies and urface of rock, as smooth and hot as an practices of its professors; especially their that there cau be no estimating what building stands oor, which was evidently an old mud sitting together in silence before the Lord in ied up and hardened. For hundreds their meetings for worship, and their dependds round, where there were banks of ence on the fresh openings and assistance of the outside world. Steamboat communication was and white elay used for whitewash, the Spirit of truth for every exercise of Gos—cut off, for they cannot get past the bridges. Railstill so hot close to the surface that pel ministry. Having clearly seen, as George and could hardly bear to be held in Fox says, that all was to be done in and by a few inches deep, and from which Christ, they waited in holy reverence and atstrong sulphurons vapor. I was in-tention for the arising of his light and power, that some years back a French gen- and ventured to go no further than they felt

From the new system has sprung corresponding fruits. Silent waiting on the Lord

tor entering on public ministry, the belief that appear note of their diversities in case of blockade in Christ as is in his own control, naturally by floods or snows is a serious matter. For its stimulates zealous people to persuade others milk, meats and perishable provisions a city lives to make profession of faith in the Saviour, from day to day on constant deliveries, and induces them to use various means of been progressing in our Society for producing an excitement in an audience, such as singing, calling upon the people to testify rt to those who love its principles, and to their salvation, to rise, to kneel, to go to r man's salvation, was the corner-stone be harmoniously developed in the same reir fabrie, the root of the goodly tree of ligious body. He that preaches and practises ne that grew and branched out from it. one, endeavors to root out the other. They y fully believed in the Divinity and cannot be reconciled. The more carnest and ment of our Saviour; that He came into zealous persons become in their advocacy of Those who adhere to the original principles a state of sin-but that He came to of our Society have just ground for complaint, when the honored name of "Friend" is made at this redemption from the dominion of to sanction doctrines and practices, which in s a Light into the hearts of all mankind, promoters from membership therein, and impossible to even light a fire for warmth or food," is a swift witness against soil which larging, which is original warms to be a swift witness against soil which larging, which is original warms. effected by his Spirit, which He has its earlier days would have excluded their is a swift witness against evil, which against which its original members earnestly

Before this paper reaches our readers, we has been received. are accompanied with a sense of their suppose nearly all of them will have seen the e purified from sin, and come to partiake of the distresses, anactive, self-denying energy of the work done during the transit at dif-rnal salvation through Christ; and that is often developed, which is truly admirable; ferent observatories throughout the world.

tare probably superior to the European one of these cannot be enjoyed without the and such appears to have been the case at Cincinnati, and probably at other places

The following extracts from an article in

"Darkness, cold and hunger are added to the portion of desolate Cincinnati, even beyond the thousands in the inundated districts who still conon hardening, forms a little cone, with confessing Christ, and that this belief it is in this to cling to the upper stories of their homes, in the middle. The ground for some man's power to exercise when he pleases. In With the water rising thirty feet in some of the te is very unsafe, as it is evidently this system, the doctrine of the Light of river streets, there is a regular conveyance by boats and rafts, at charges fixed by the mayor for ferriage. In the work of rescue many hundreds were removed from upper windows, and taken to places of safety under circumstances of great pathos, carrying with them in some instances the unburied dead and the newly born. With gas works, warehouses, whole-sale stores, railroad stations, under water, with sewers underground beginning to give away, &c., so safe on its foundations, there are other dangers still. Except by telegraph wires and country roads, Cincinnati ceased to have direct communication with cut off, for they cannot get past the bridges. Rail-road tracks are submerged. The water basins have but a scant supply, which may soon be exhausted, and were a fire to occur in the midst of floods, the city would be at the mercy of the flames. The gas lamps, which were totally dark for a whole night, are lighted with a flicker of coal oil lamps set inside their lanterns. Homeless families are sheltered in schoolhouses and churches and in a theatre; and the relief societies are hard at work to supply the imis held in less esteem, a desire for the good of mediate necessities of starving and destitute families. others is considered as a sufficient warrant for entering on public ministry, the belief that upper floors of their dwellings have lost their sup-

It was quite urgently brought to the notice of the people in London a winter back, when the heavy snows impeded the daily trains, that there were not provisions enough in all London to feed the people over rt to those who love its principles, and to their salvation, to rise, to kneel to go to the snow-siege if this had lasted even less than a esteem the fruits which have flowed the mourners' bench, &c. These things are week. The quarter of a million people in Cincinthe natural outgrowth of the doctrinal root nati have come to a practical stand-still except for the work of relief. There has been but small loss liam Penn says of Friends in the begin-that the Light of Christ within, as God's It is impossible that the two systems should of life reported, but the rescued people have passed through imminent peril and untold distress.

In the great belt of manufacturing industry which is represented by the map of the innundation the number of unemployed workmen from submerge and closed factories, foundaries, furnaces, &c., will reach far into the tens of thousands.

orld, in accordance with the Divine will, what they believe to be right and true, the an's salvation—but not as a substitute more marked will be the difference between along the river. The same distressful story of hundreds of families driven from their homes, of the means of living cut off; of workshops, mills, furnaces, railways and steamers brought to a standstill -come from Newport, Covington, Louisville, New Albany, Jeffersonville, Lawrenceburg—everywhere -some of them having every dwelling house over-flowed, as is the case at Lawrenceburg, making it

> The Sidereal Messenger for the present month, published by Wm. W. Payne, of Carleton College Observatory, Northfield, Minn.,

It contains an illustrated article on the e authority, and as the will of man is accounts of the suffering and destruction of bright comet of 1882, showing the nucleus bt into subjection thereto a living faith property caused by the very unusual floods divided into three masses. But, as might often, and that no other faith is saving in the Ohio River and its tributaries. Such have been anticipated, most of its pages are calamities call for the sympathy and help of occupied with observations and discussions at those only who are made willing to those who are more favorably situated, and of the recent transit of Venus. One of the in obedience to the Light, and submit we hope and believe that these will be freely most noteworthy of these is the statement cleansing operations of the Holy Spirit, administered. In those who are in the midst prepared by Professor Young of Princeton,

One series of observations consisted of noting the exact time of the external and internal contact of venus with the edges of the sun, measurements of its diameter, and of its position on the sun's disk at various parts of four to six inches in length, and is soft and silky. A stranger from these absorptions con pared with each other, the distance of the sun can be calculated.

Series of photographs and some spectroscopic observations were also obtained.

Observing parties were stationed at more than fifty places in the United States and Canada, and many good observations were obtained, though there was some interference by clouds.

At most of the stations in Europe clouds obstructed the view; but excellent results were obtained at Chili, Cape of Good Hope, New Zealand, Australia and Tasmania. The observers at the Straits of Magellan had not yet been heard from.

SULIMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES. - In the House of Representatives the Legislative Appropriation bill was passed after being amended so as to reduce the number of internal revenue collection districts to 82, and increases the hours of clerical labor in the departments. The House Committee on Foreign Affairs has agreed to report favorably the joint resolution giving notice of the termination of the fishing clause of the Treaty of Washington. Senate Committee on Foreign Relations agreed to recommend the ratification of the Reciprocity Treaty with Mexico. Much time has been spent on the Tariff bill, which has had so many amendments and changes as to render it unsatisfactory to various interests. Very little expectation is felt that it will pass finally.

The Secretary of the Interior on the 14th inst. sent

The Secretary of the Interior on the 14th mas, seen to Congress a request for an appropriation of $318,400 do. at $5.50 a *6.40, and patents at $6.20 a $5. Ayes to supply with oxen and cowe 2680 families of Sioux flour is firm at $4 a $4.121 per barrel, to supply with oxen and cowe 2680 families of Sioux flour is firm at $4 a $4.122 per barrel. Grain.—Wheat was in demand at a further advance. in accordance with the stipulations of the Sioux treaty within three miles of any place of public worship or bushels, in car lots, at 51\(\frac{1}{2}\) a 57 cts.

school house, upon petition of a majority of the adult!

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 2d mo, school house, upon petition of a majority of the adult inhabitants, male or female.

In the New Jersey House of Representatives, on the 19th instant, a majority report in favor of a Prohibitory Constitutional Amendment was accepted, a motion to 100 pounds; straw, 60 to 70 cts. per 100 pounds, substitute the minority report in opposition to the Beef cattle were in fair demand at full prices: 2300 Amendment was rejected by a vote of 35 to 24. The head arrived and sold at the different yards at 5 a 7 Amendment is yet to go through the various stages of cts. per lb., as to quality. legislation.

It is reported that the Attorney General of Iowa will soon petition the Supreme Court of that State for a rehearing of the case on which the Prohibitory Constitutional amendment was recently declared to be invalid.

The Diamond mine at Braidwood, twenty miles south of Joliet, Illinois, caved in on the 18th inst., imprison-ing 77 miners, who were all drowned. It appears that the thaw and the floods had loosened the earth around 1882. the mouth of the pit, and a land-slide followed, carrying down nearly 90 feet square of the surface,

The Ohio river at Cincinnati reached its highest stage on the 15th inst., at 4 o'clock, when it stood at 66 feet 4 inches. Reports from the flooded districts in the Ohio Valley show that the waters were subsiding, but the cold weather was greatly increasing the sufferings of the thousands of homeless and destitute people. the security of the canal and the peace of Europe: the At Toledo, Ohio, the breaking of an ice gorge had caused the river to recede ten feet. Trains are again land; the diminution of agrarian crimes in Ireland and running on time from the suburban stations. An evilute need of legislation for all parts of the Kingdom, esdence of the prevailing distress is given in a telegram from Cincinnati, which reports 1350 families in New Albany, Indiana, and its immediate vicinity, to be without homes, while by the stoppage of the factories without homes, while by the stoppage on the account of 1000 families are made dependent upon public charity.

Similar reports come from other points. Contributions the Irish prisoners has turned States evidence, and given for the relief of the distress have been started on a large a detailed statement of the plot which resulted in the more of the contributions of the Union. Cincinnati is murder of Cavendish and Burke. He has been corrobotic to the contribution of the Cavendish and Burke. He has been corrobotic to the contribution of the Cavendish and Burke. He has been corrobotic to the contribution of the Cavendish and Burke. He has been corrobotic to the contribution of the Cavendish and Burke. He has been corrobotic to the contribution of the Cavendish and Burke. lieving her own people by local contributions.

The Owen farm of fifty acres, at Warsaw, New York, was purchased last week by English capitalists, who not yet been arrested, but his whereabouts is believed consoling belief that here and was crowned with will erect a soda ash manufactory thereon, with an ento be known.

It is believed consoling belief that here and was crowned with ploying capacity of 1000 hands. It will be the only

It is made and the construction of the constru factory of the kind in the United States.

Heavy rain is reported in Kansas, and a large wheat is water everywhere. A good sowing time i crop is indicated. The loss of atock this winter has It is surmised that much of the autumn sowi been less than 2 per cent.

its passage. From these observations com-strand of it can be tied into a knot the same as flax fibre. It is found in what, from the description given, appears to be serpentine rock, and not very far from the crater of an extinct volcano.

The Board of Aldermen of Boston has passed an order for the lighting of the whole of that city by the electric light.

A communication from the Chief of Police to the County Commissioners of Philadelphia relative to the withholding of liquor licenses for certain places, was accompanied by a note from the District Attorney, in which he said: "I respectfully suggest that, under the law, licenses ought to be refused, so as to give effect to the earnest endeavor of the police authorities to break an arbitrary course like an Empire. The Sen up these objectionable places."

The deaths in Philadelphia last week numbered 367, which is four less than for the previous week, and 86 clause was rejected by a vote of 142 to 137. less than for the corresponding week last year. Of the clause also was rejected. The President then whole number, 206 were males, and 161 females; 51 to submit the entire bill, but the Senate rose died of consumption; 35 of pneumonia; 18 of convulsions; 15 of old age; 14 of marasmus; 18 of diphtheria; 11 of typhoid fever; 10 of croup, and 10 of apoplexy. Ninety-one deaths from small-pox were reported in

New Orleans last week. Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\frac{1}{2}; 3\frac{1}{2}'s 104; 4\frac{1}{2}'s, regis-stated that Jules Ferry will assume the post of tered, 113; coupon, 114; 4's, 120; currency 6's, 129 of Foreign Affairs, Martin Feuille, Minister of the control of Cotton continues dull, but price were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at 103 a 103 cts, per The pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.—Standard white, 75 a 73 cts, for export and 88 a 83 cts. per gallon for home use. Our total exports of petroleum and petroleum products during 1882 were valued at $44,623,074, against $48,556,103.

Flour was in better demand and prices were firmer. Sales of 3200 harrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.75 a $7; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.25; western do. at $5.50 a +6.40, and patents at $6.25 a $8. Rye

Sales of 6600 bushels red in car lots at $1,20 a $1.25. Rye is entirely nominal. Corn is in fair request and The Legislature of Arkansas has passed an act pro-bibiting for two years the sale of intoxiciting liquors Oats are fairly active and higher. Sales of 10,000 not very high, and over a million and a quarter

17th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 200; loads of straw, 40; pink coral, which is highly valued by some or Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 55 such as England, Germany, Russia, and the clocks to 31.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 to 95 cts, per; States; but, while fair beauties prefer this more

Beef cattle were in fair demand at full prices: 2300

Sheep were a fraction higher: 8000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4 a $6\frac{7}{8}$ cts. per pound, and lambs at 5 a $7\frac{3}{4}$ cts. per pound as to condition.

Hogs were firmly held: 3500 head sold at the different yards at 94 a 102 cts. per lb., as to condition. The total exports of domestic breadstuffs from the years. United States during 1st month last amounted in value to $15,874,286, against $11,977,524 during 1st month During the seven months, which ended on 1st mo. 31st last, these exports were valued at $133,696,842, against $124,121,439 during the corresponding period parative Meeting School. of the preceding year.

Foreign.-Parliament reassembled on the 15th The Queen's speech refers to the reorganization of affairs in Egypt, and the desire to observe international obligations; efforts to secure the stability of the Khedive, reinstatement of Cetewayo in the government of Zulu-pecially the agricultural population.

Leave has been granted in the House of Commons for the introduction of an Affirmation bill, the vote there rated by other witnesses, and twenty-one persons have been committed for trial to answer the charge of murdering these men. One of the chief conspirators has prospects. It says: "A crisis in field-work exists.

ten, and that all Europe is in a similar condi

A third tunnel under the Thames river is at Tillbury and Gravesend. The river at th in breadth about the width of the Delawar Philadelphia. A bill asking the privilege in fore Parliament. The prospectus urges as a the granting of the right to construct the tunry crease of dock buildings at Tillbury by the West India docks, from which it is expected ocsteamers will sail. The transfer of freight point to London is also proposed, and that the communication between the camps and arsen and south of the Thames.

much excitement, decided, by a vote of 160 t discuss the clauses of the bill separately. Clause was rejected by a vote of 142 to 137. The further vote. At a meeting of the Cabinet on the 18th, 1

In the French Senate on the 17th inst., Leon

revy accepted the resignation of the Minister It is officially announced that Jules Ferry entrusted with the formation of the Ministr terior; Waldeck Rosseau, Minister of Justice Minister of Finance; General Thibaudin, M War; Raynal, Minister of Public Works, and Minister of Posts and Telegraphs.

The Gambettist journals are favorable to Ministry. The Left, the Extreme Left, the Rad. the Bonapartists have decided to demand a re

the Constitution. King Alfonso of Spain has signed an append

American extradition treaty. At a recent agricultural exhibition at Le Germany, a threshing machine was exhibite was driven by electricity at the rate of 1400 rev a minute, and which at the same time illumin enclosure in which it worked. Word comes from abroad that the Naples c have been fished up, worth about $1,000,000 rough state. There is a goodly quantity of tint, pink coral is despised by their brunette s Spain, India and China, who favor the deep This fishery is of immense importance to Nap during the past year 600 vessels and 5766 m been employed from February to September d off the coasts of Sardinia, Corsica and Sicily, mainland of Southern Italy and on the Barba The Suez Canal is to be enlarged and improve expense of $4,000,000. The work will occupy

WANTED.

By 4th month 23rd, 1883, a teacher for Bradfo Address, LYDIA D. WOR'

Marshallton, Chester Co.

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSA. Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philade Physician and Superintendent-JOHN C. HAL Applications for the Admission of Patients made to the Superintendent, or to any of the of Managers.

DIED, on the 24th of First month last, at th dence of her son-in-law, Jesse K. Livezey, near l ville, Ohio, Anne King, relict of the late Josepl aged nearly 82 years, a member of Somerset M Meeting of Friends. Being unable for several y meet with her friends in their assembling for w she spent the meeting hours in retirement and on the Lord at her own home. Her friends he

No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

DL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, THIRD MONTH 3, 1883.

NO. 30.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

f paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON

MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. ions, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES,

3. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For " The Friend."

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

of the early Experiences of Samuel Neale; continued.) ontinued in this state until, intending to visit into Munster, to form acquaintand follow some business, I prepared y journey, equipped like a young man world, had a livery servant, and set wrd in good spirits on my expedition. As esed along, I called at Paddock, where Peisly lived, to inquire after her health hat of the family. Making some little there, I found myself delighted with instructive conversation; and upon leav-e place, I remarked how pleasing such any and conversation were, compared I what was generally to be met with.* ursued my journey to Limerick, where ared some days; here I fell into very dis-and company, old acquaintances that I In Dublin. From thence I proceeded to and on the road felt my mind impressed solid reflections, which I have since wht preparatory to what soon followed; was conscious that my weakness and les were great, my time running swiftly a, and I was irresolute with respect to ning against temptation and the allurens of sin, and sin-pleasing pleasures. In stisposition I reached Cork, and there led with my old acquaintances, and got emember at a play one evening being up and lying pretty long next morning, was First day, an acquaintance asked o go to meeting, and at the same time ned me there were strangers to be there, ig me who they were; I said I would, for worst state I generally attended meet-So to meeting I went, and it was a rerable one to me; for in it my state was so ed to that highly favored instrument in his goes to prove how important it is for Friends evatchful and guarded in their life and conversa-

the Lord's hand, Catharine Payton (who with near those messengers of glad tidings to me. follow, as I felt strength. I went with them to Bandon and Kinsale; and the same powerful dispensation of Divine comforted; the Lord was pleased to be with virtue followed me, breaking in upon me, and me, contriting my spirit and humbling me tendering my spirit in a wonderful manner, under his mighty hand. The mount of Esau in public meetings as well as in private op-portunities; which drew the attention and affecting and hard to be borne; and were it observation of many. When I returned to not for the Divine hand that sustained, I could Cork, I kept as private as I well could, and not have abode the fierceness of the furnace; resolved to quit all my worldly pursuits, and but it is a gradual work and must be accomfollow the gentle leadings of that heavenly plished; the kingdom of sin and Satan must Light, which showed me the vanity of worldly be destroyed, before the kingdom of the holy glory, and that the pleasures of sin are but Jesus becomes established in the hearts of for a moment.

cious to me, their conduct and conversation stronger, until it became established: so, in strengthening; and the inward manifestations a religious sense, converson is a gradual work; of heavenly goodness vouchsafed, were my the sinful nature declines through the officacy crown and rejoicing. My eyes were measurably opened to behold my insignificancy, re- which purges the floor of the heart, and makes bellion and backsliding. I saw the perverse-lit a fit temple for the Spirit of the Son of God ness of my nature, and that in me, as man, to dwell in. This causes a strong combat, a there dwelt no good thing. I thought I saw severe conflict, in which the poor creature that if I missed the present opportunity of suffers deep probation and tribulation; but it coming out of Babylon, I was lost forever: I is the way to virtue and to glory, and is the was come to the length of my chain, my heavenly preparer of paths to walk in accept-measure was full, and if I did not embrace ably to God: who, gradually earrying on his the present offer, ruin and destruction would own work in the midst of suffering, visits by be my portion. These sights of my condition his life-giving presence to animate, cheer, and stimulated me to exert myself in watchfulness enable the drooping soul to hold on its way; and care, to pursue with ardency the sense and so by this invisible and glorious work the that opened in my own mind, and to feel after day of redemption draws nigh; and the poor the spring and virtue that I witnessed there, pilgrim goes on from strength to strength, the spring and virtue that I witnessed there, beging me goes on from strength to strength, which far exceeded every gratification that I witnessed there, which far exceeded every gratification that I which far exceeded every gratification that I and from one degree of experience to another, which far exceeded every gratification that I and from one degree of experience to another, represents or influencing a mind so appared to favor-bryessing or influencing a mind so appared by the first after righteousness were great: I despite the first after righteousness were great: I despite the first of all flesh, until the work be completed the every professor of the name and religion of worldly things had no charms for me at this is not of him that willeth, nor of him that works be though, at times, I felt the mount of Esau is the uniont, but of Got that showeth mercy; it is Ho that works, both to will and to do of expression coupled with fear; a showing to bear, vet it was necessary in order that I member is elean and is kent in that state. conversation coupled with fear;" a showing to bear, yet it was necessary, in order that I temple is clean and is kept in that state, of a good conversation our works with meckens inght witness a new heaven and a new earth, which is only to be done, as we take heed to make the besing might witness an ensw heaven and a new earth, the power and Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ, milar good fruits now as in the case of S. Nede, wherein alone righteousness can dwell.

This was when I was in the twenty-second my beloved friend Mary Peisly were visiting year of my age. I journeyed homeward the churches,) that all I had done seemed to toward Dublin in great beaviness; fear seized be unfolded to her in a wonderful manner. I on me, lest I should not be able to stand my was as one smitten to the ground, dissolved ground amongst my intimates and acquaint in tears, and without spirit. This was a visitances, professors and profanc; being well tation from the Most High, beyond all others known in that great and populous city, and that I had as yet witnessed: I was so wrought having had many proofs of my own unsteadiupon by the power and Spirit of the holy ness and forgetfulness, when heretofore favor-Jesus, that like Saul, I was ready to ery out: ed with the tendering convictions of Truth Lord, what wouldst thou have me to do? on my mind. At times, I so reasoned with I was almost ashamed to be seen, being so flesh and blood, as to have thoughts of going bedewed with tears, and slunk away from the somewhere else to reside; but I was instructed meeting, to get into a private place. I joined to see, that He who visited me, was able to company with a religious young man, and preserve me, if I would but be subject and forsook my gay companions and associates, obedient to his wholesome instruction; and who beheld me with astonishment. The that where I had dishonored Him by my inchange was very rapid, and my doubts and consistencies, there, by my fidelity to the law fears respecting myself were very great, so He writes in the heart, I might honor and that I could not trust myself in any former confess Him before men. These intimations company, lest my innumerable frailties should quieted my mind, and I resolved to meet ridiprove too powerful for all my good resolu-cule, reviling, and even persecution itself, for tions. So I abode still and quiet, and kept the sake of Him, whom I was resolved to During this time I was often refreshed and men. The house of Saul grew weaker and Our beloved friends' company was pre- weaker, and the house of David stronger and the Captain of our salvation, watching and praying that we enter not into temptation: then, and not till then, will the temple of our heart be clean.

For "The Friend." Prey?

Whilst digging sweet-potatoes on my employer's farm, I noticed a very luxuriant growth of the vines covering a small mound in the field, and inquiry revealed that a horse and cow had been buried there some years before. Just then nothing impressed me in that connection save the immensity of the potatoes we found overlying these two graves; but in the afternoon and during the following day, "buzzards" shadowed the farm by scores, seeming to obey from all quarters of the heavens a mysterious summons to convocation. I soon perceived the sweet-potato field was the "radiant point" of each speeding shadow. Buzzard after buzzard I traced as they appeared in various portions of the sky with half folded wings, reminding me of mute aerial hounds "coming down the scent," their course as swift, silent and undeviating as an arrow. 'Twas a strangely interesting speetacle to behold them swoop within a few feet of the horse nades, and the slow, reluctant flaps indicative of disappoint-slow, reluctant flaps indicative of disappointfeet of the horse-hades, and rise again with "quarter" the ground (aerially speaking), with all the tact and persevering sagacity of their eanine compeers; in fact the performance was suggestive of a fox-hunt in which Reynard's place was represented by the dead bodies, "earthed" in this case, however, for other than Reynard reasons.

One of the vultures in particular showed an extreme faith in the guidance of its smelling powers by alighting without demur on the fence half a dozen paces from the centre of attraction, where, after some time of manifest uneasiness and uncouth posturing, it was joined by a few of its more dubious com-

This visitation of uncanny birds continued long after, though I never saw so many as at the time when the crop was ploughed out,this disturbance probably releasing for a time the pent up odors. I could detect no taint in the atmosphere of the place, even whilst working in the freshly ploughed ground, yet hundreds of buzzards assembled from far and near, and with unerring accuracy pointed out the place of burial with overshadowing wings.

In consequence of these observations, the theory that the vulture family are enabled to detect the existence of a dead body by scent, unassisted by any of the remaining senses, and this, too, at great distances and when such carcass had lain deep under ground for several years, was to me satisfactorily proven. S. N. Rhoads.

ing the coming of the harvest. And the hya-moval of all rank or improper development versity of gifts."
einth and the lily, the crocus, the snow-drop, in the branch, which, having a new source of But, time and space would fail me and the Narcissus, are preparing for the res-life, is yet a branch with tendencies which count all the ways in which busy self de urrection of the coming spring. The storm of must be carefully watched and guarded, that us into a blind zeal or false life. If we to-day will not be lost. It will come back in symmetry and healthfulness may be secured, but remember that our Father is the hus the early bloom and delicious perfume of the So our Father, by the "sword of the Spirit, man, leave ourselves and others in his spring, and the golden grain of the harvest. which is quick and powerful, even to the diand in willing obedience to his require greet its flowers.

For " The Friend."

"My Father is the Husbandman."

It would seem that the wonderful and pleasant, but, the rather, grievous for beautiful lesson of the vine and the branches, because we are so apt to forget that used by our Saviour for the instruction of his things work out for us a far more e: By what Sense does the Vulture Discern its disciples, contains within its small compass and eternal weight of glory;" so apt all of the most important considerations neces-sary to our salvation. The engrafting of the whom He receiveth." And then war branches; the abiding of the same; the in-quick, in our short-sighted haste, to t he fluent Word of Life which forms our nutri-work complete, when perhaps this ve h ment, our strength, our light and our wisdom; is the occasion for several improper ov the unity which exists among the branches cropping out, rank and green, in tlp as a result of this indwelling; the bearing of where one was removed. After such fruit; the keeping of his commandments of bitter experience, how often do 1 through the ability given by the inflowing cause, in looking back, to exclaim "S or Life, and the joy and love that well up as was I, and ignorant! sweet waters from a pure fountain,-all these This disposition to think the world are lessons to be learned through that beau-assumes a bad growth through a wily m tiful chapter.

> than the one contained in the words, "My beginnings that are to keep our eye led Father is the husbandman;" and it might aid the mark of the prize of our high can us in our submission to the Divine will, if we Christ Jesus. Through this tempta would more frequently consider what is the want to live on the manna of yestern office and work of the husbandman. As it is stead of that "daily bread" which our a his work to dig about the roots and prepare knows best how, from his divine store the soil, so it is our Father's work, as the Di-to each day's need. And through the vine husbandman, to go through the hard soil tendency to self-complacency, how ofter of our fallen nature, and, with the plow-share out the bad growth of creaturely a of truth turn up deep furrows and prepare through which we work with a "zeal" there a way for the result He designs to bring cording to knowledge," and look to cabout. And what a work this often is! It "oblations" and "incense," and to the may be the ground has lain fallow till it is so that are the work of our own hands! infested with weeds, and brambles, and briars, our tender husbandman finds busy wo in the form of evil habits and unholy tempers his pruning knife! Alas, that we in o and impure desires, that the work of the blind zeal are so ready to put forth or Spirit within us seems, as it were, uprooting and begin the work of pruning, either and overturning the very foundations of our own case, or in regard to others, as w being. And so it is, for a new growth of his it should be done! If in our own ca own right hand's planting is to be brought self-inflicted penance soon inflates us w about, to his glory and our lasting benefit, idea that we are becoming and so must The divine vine of life under whose shadow very pious, and we proceed to make we may sit down and find its fruit sweet to our phylacteries, to sound our trumpet our taste, is to be planted in our hearts, and us, and disfigure our faces to be seen of the soil of our nature must be stirred to its It will not do to "prophesy smooth f deepest depths in order that this vine may to such, even if we find ourselves amo take deep root and grow to the praise of Him number. The Lord loveth "mercy a who hath loved us, and given himself for us, sacrifice," and just as soon as any of us to be our life evermore. In order to this the to look to things such as these as merit stones of all forms of wilfulness that originate we prove at once that we are seeking in self must be gathered out of the way, and chase our salvation with the filthy the roots of all brambles of unholy tempers our own righteousness. and desires must be torn out of the soil where But, as we allow our husbandman to they have grown and become entangled and from us all considerations of self, and interlocked as a net-work, it may be. And him in a willing, self-forgetful, loving while going through the experience of the ence that goes out in desire of good to c progress of this work in our natures, how then, unconsciously to us, will our lives much more we are disposed to think of our forth his praise and not our own merit own sufferings than of the patient, loving toil not only do we with confident hand gra of our husbandman! May his patience and pruning-knife in our own case; we a careful toil help us the better to understand ready to use it on others, forgetful of that "He hath so loved us!"

But when the vine of the Christ-life has man's servant? To his own master he sta been planted in our hearts, and we have or falleth;" forgetful that the exact l become living branches, engrafted into that discipline needed by one may not b vine, it then becomes the work of the hus-exact line needed by another; forgetfu Under the snow, the wheat is silently await-bandman to use the pruning-knife for the re-the "unity of the Spirit" permits the "So shall My word be!" That Word will 'viding of joints and marrow," is the husband- go forward in what He gives us to do, win its triumphs, as surely as the spring will man whose work it is to remove from us all than in ways of our own devising, an would mar the beauty, usefulness sistency of the Christian character Hwi to develop. And this may not alw: a s

tion to look too much to the experi es But among these none is more important the past as things completed rather a query, "Who art thou that judgest ar

those unhealthy spiritual excreseences which fidently trust all to his wisdom, sure ay unto us and what we shall answer A. L. W. we are reproved? adelphia, 1st mo. 21st, 1883.

For "The Friend,"

Westtown Boarding School.

(Concluded.) less applicable now, than when they written more than forty years' since, he following lines by our late friend, h Kite:-

y and four revolving years have sped, oin the ages that before them fled, ee thy halls, Westtown, opened to receive, richest treasures parents' hearts could give.

many in these circling years have found, th and instruction, Westtown, in thy bound, many a heart tossed on life's stormy sea, erts to days of innocence with thee en the bright sun that shone above their head, en the origin sin that stone above their near, and on each moment beams of joy to sheld; if care worried for a little hour, the put itself away like summer shower, are eareful guardiane watched their infant road, rec learning held with virtue its abode. way any a one, drawn by Redeeming love, the trod these halls, now tread the courts above!

of the church—hope of the church—and long cherished object of affection strong, ough faithful members, she with guardian care, tches o'er Westtown where her jewels are. e first its outline on the vision rose, se first its outline on the vision rose, m' mid her worthies, she has chosen those led for the purpose, who with anxious eye k all its movements—sage advice supply,— e it their time—their love—their anxious care, haply bear it to the throne in prayer." d very frequent is the desire fervently that y children may, wide-scattered through the land, y healing influence spread on every hand.

ool of the prophets mayst thou be indeed, d all thy children prove a royal seed." the articles relating to Westtown draw close, at least for the present, the mind

ts to the many worthies who have at and memory turned to the number of ted from time to time in properly coning this Institution, who are now, we

y last end be like his." the first number of these articles, an exwas given from the journal of our late ed friend William Evans,* allusions are made in that interesting and instructive me to his concern for the right managet of Westtown, on pages 223, 319, and aps in other places, and under date 12th attended the quarterly meeting of the committee on Fourth-day, after getting ugh with the business, Samuel Bettle, Sr., arked, 'there was something of importwhich money could not purchase. It that Friends should be preserved under thus alludes to it in her journal, under date a lofty dome of great wealth. We entered a of 4th month 19th, 1857: "On hearing of a large room, which we could not see the end Friend being exercised in the Select Yearly of till we passed through. The room ap-Meeting on the subject of silent reverential peared grandly wainscoted, and beautifully waiting, and recommending it as one of our painted with different colors. The first sight peculiar privileges, she said: It did me good of this beautiful room abated my sorrow to hear it. Oh! this is what we want as a So- at leaving the other, which was very great ciety, even silent waiting before the Most High. while we came down the descent. I had but know what it will come to; and yet I would fore a number of persons, richly dressed, able men and women who had been in- A Dream or Vision of Hester Moxie, a Friend in England.

[This dream was printed in "The Friend," bly believe through mercy, gathered to everlasting rest, and the desire arose, me die the death of the righteous, and like a the request of a correspondent.—Ed.] lished at the request of a correspondent. - Ed.]

I thought I was dead; and behold my body lay like a corpse! There seemed to be a person of the appearance of a man, his raiment being somewhat of sheepskin, of a bright fawn color, who said "Follow me." He ascended a hill, on the top of which was a large building. The out-side appeared strongly built of 6th, 1853, he writes: "Went to Westtown large rough stones. I followed my guide into attended the quarterly meeting of the the house, but did not at first perceive the mittee held there. In the meeting of beauty of it to the full. It seemed white and bright, and a large company sitting; such a number as I never had beheld. The further I went in, the brighter it ap-

> * Hannah Gibbons was a member of the Committee who had charge of Westtown, for several years before and after her marriage.

less often mar the beauty of his work. a right exercise that the institution may be peared, and more like the reflection of the sun. we not with renewed earnestness, cease conducted in such manner as to support the The first stop my guide made seemed to be ok to the altars our own hands have primitive doctrines and testimonies of Friends half way of the house, by what I judged from -cease to look at self,-cease to look and educate the children in them. This was its appearance on the out-side. While my hers, but set us upon our watch, and the original concern, and it had been blessed; guide stopped, I looked at the countenances our eyes directed to Him, see what He and he believed, as Friends kept to this of those I could see, which were many, but I ground, a blessing would continue to rest on could not see to the far end of the room for the school.' He spoke in a feeling manner, the reflection of the light, which appeared and being now in the 80th year of his age, it brighter than when the sun shines in its seemed like a legacy left to the younger members, who might survive him, to bear in mind peared a sweetness and composure in every in the future management of the seminary. countenance, far beyond what I had ever seen It was responded to and had a good effect on in any person while in the body. The lustre reflected from the light extended even to the the feelings of many."

Samuel Hilles, late of Wilmington, Del., skirts of their garments, which appeared like was for quite a number of years an interested a plain robe or covering in one piece. Now member of the Westtown Committee. In the I was filled with admiration, and looked to obituary notice of this dear friend it is stated, see if I could distinguish men from women, On the day before he died, he had a con- but I could not. At my first entrance into versation with a friend, in which be seemed the house, I thought I had been at a meeting constrained to relate his own experience in a of solid Friends. I looked to see from whence way very unlike his usual reticent habit. In the light came, but could not perceive either this interview he spoke of some of these early window or opening. I then asked my guide, visitations, and in particular of a spot among "What is this place? He answered "Heaven." the woods at Westtown to which he used to I then looked to see what they sat on, but retire to 'prostrate himself in the presence of could not discover either bench or seat. The his Heavenly Father, where His presence more I looked, the more I admired; and had been especially manifested to him. And wanted to sit with them; but did not know in his later life in the silent meetings of the how. My guide turned about to go out, and Society of Friends, he had the same experi-looked at me to follow him; but I was so ence renewed, the sense of the love of his much delighted, that I was unwilling. He Heavenly Father so overpowering him at then beekoned and said, 'come.' We had not times that he was fain to ask that the tide gone far before I stopped again. He stopped might be stayed." Oh! this precious silence, for mc and said, "come!" I then followed, how much it will do for us if rightly dwelt often halting and admiring the inexpressible under. It seems at times to draw down the pleasure and content I saw in every counteblessing of the Most High, as if we might nance, till we got out; my guide then turned feel the wing of ancient Goodness to over on the left hand, and seemed to go down. I spread us. Our late beloved friend, Hannah Gibbons,* see my guide. We soon came where I beheld This wordy spirit which is among us I don't just time to take a view of this fine place, be-Standing alone some time since on the not check the lisping of a babe in Christ passed us, who smelt so strong of brimstone, a silence that could be felt seemed to Jesus. A few words fitly spoken are comthat I seemed almost suffocated; all of them the mind as well as the outward creative mind as well as th came to us looked well, but when near there appeared a blackness in every face; those who did not talk loud, moved their lips and seemed to mutter, which was also the manner of some who walked along alone. I was seized with horror, and asked my guide, "What is this place? and what are these? He answered, "These are miserable forever. They were in the body in tumults, and will be so everlastingly. At some distance sat an old woman in a chair, like a bath chair, a fine person, very white or powdered, and grandly dressed. I made up to her, to see if there was appearance of misery on her, and was more shocked than before. Her lips were moving; and from her eye-lids came small flames of fire. mediately after this, as I looked around, there appeared in my view a woman Friend, plainly dressed, in a green apron, whom I remembered well when I was young; often taking notice of her for the solidity of her deportment in meeting. I eagerly made up to her, and said, "What! art thou among the miserable? tell me, what brought thee hither? She looked very sorrowful, wept, and said,

ol. Lv., page 139.

Then he went a little further and under an arch appeared something which divided the place from a large chapel, where abundance of people were assembled to worship, and saying, "Amen, Lord have mercy upon us! Christ have mercy upon us!" These appeared more plain in their dress, and looked more white. I said to my guide, "These are not miserable too." "These" he said, "are they, who thought to be saved by a profession of religion, but have not the white robe of righteousness; they all came by the way of the room; some stopped among the worshippers, others went on to those who smell of brimstone." My He sees when their footsteps falter, when their heart distress was now greater than before, for I knew many of these, who looked at me as if He marks when their strength is failing, and listens to they knew me; and I thought they appeared as if they worshipped.

They looked to and fro, and seemed much discomposed. I again entreated my guide to let me go. He walked gently out of this place, and came again into the entrance of the house, which was large, with a wide gate. There He stood a number in black or dark clothes, who did not seem to move forwards towards the others. When we came to the outside of the gate, I met an intimate friend (the friend died about a month after,) coming towards the gate, two persons conducting him. I asked him if he was going among the miserable? "What is thy offence? What hast thou done? tell me?" He answered, "Beware of covetousness and the love of money! That brought me here." We both wept much, and were greatly troubled,-but I wanted to be gone, and followed my guide, but looking back I saw He giveth it! Friends the dearest can never this boon some pushing, others pulling him. We were now in a large inclosed field, where I saw many persons, some of whom are since dead. Their fees may gather around them, and storms may Out of it I could see no road, but my guide led me to a place where was but just room too. But, guarding them safe from danger, He giveth His He stood still, and looking earnpass out. estly at me said, "Thou art going into the world; remember what thou hast seen! 'Tis not enough to be honest to men, thou must be honest and faithful to thy God also! On this, Nor call, nor clamor, can rouse them from slumber so the thought of returning to the world again affected me much; for it seemed a doubt For only His voice can reach them, who giveth His whether I should be able to steer my course so as to be deemed worthy an admittance Weep not that their toils are over, weep not that their among the first I had sight of. But standing speechless, and my guide standing still, faith suddenly sprang up in my mind, and seemed to say these words, "Lord, thou canst, if thou wilt, preserve me through all?"

When I awoke the horror and distress I felt on my mind, I am not able to describe. seemed as if I drew my breath where sulphur was burning, and often said to my nurse, and those about me, it seemed as if the smell of brimstone was in my stomach, and I thought I could not live many hours. Nor do I believe I should, if the Almighty, in the extending of his goodness, had not had compassion on me, a poor unworthy creature, and caused

"No wrong I have ever done any man; but that suffocating smell to pass from me; and unfaithfulness and disobedience to my God, gave me to trust in his name. This melted brought me hither!" I thought I wept much, my spirit in contrition before Him, and caused as well as she. I then turned to my guide, me to vent my sorrow in many tears; after "tell me, am I to remain here forever? I which my tossed mind was favored with a

> For "The Friend." IN MEMORIAM.

His sun went down at noonday. In his prime He lay his armor off,-resting from toil While yet the battle raged; and while his strength Was scarcely tried, the bugle blew retreat.* Thy warfare now is over! never more Thy voice for truth, in modulated tones, Shall eloquently plead; and never more Thy faithful Christian walk—following Him Who died on Calvary, shall londer preach. Soldier of Christ, farewell! Thou wert to us Almost a stranger; yet thy courage cheered, And had our sympathy in thy attacks On Satan's citadel. True to thyself,-True to convictions! None has ever thought To call thee insincere; and o'er thy grave, The wintry winds chanting a requiem,) Let not a breath unkind be ever breathed. 2nd mo. 1883.

SLEEP.

Selected.

"So, He giveth His beloved sleep."

grows weak and faint, each complaint,

He bids them rest for a season, for the pathway has grown too steep, And folded in fair, green pastures, He giveth His loved ones sleep. Like weary and worn-out children that sigh for the daylight's close, knows that they oft are longing for home and its sweet repose So he calls them in from their labors, ere the shadows around them creep And silently watching o'er them, He giveth His loved ones sleep. He giveth it, oh, so gently! as a mother will hush to

The babe that she softly pillows, so tenderly on her breast: Forgotten are now the trials and sorrows that made them weep. For with many a soothing promise, He giveth His loved ones sleep.

hestow

features grow,

loved ones sleep.

All dread of the distant future, all fears that oppressed to-day,

Like mists that clear in the sunshine, have noiselessly passed away,

loved ones sleep.

God grant we may rest as calmly when our work like theirs, is done Till then we would yield with gladness, our treasures to Him to keep,

And rejoice in the sweet assurance, He giveth His loved ones sleep.

"Open the door for the children, Tenderly gather them in— In from the highways and hedges, In from the places of sin. Some are so young and so helpless! Some are so hungry and cold ! Open the door for the children, Gather them into the fold.

E. B. L.

Two years o'er this orb have passed away; Two years of sorrow and sadness Since thy spirit fled from its home of clay

For " The Fri

To a home of joy and gladness Two years! how slowly have they passed Over this aching heart of mine, Since on thy brow I gazed my last, Striving my treasure to resign.

I strove, and not in vain the strife, To meet the blow in mercy given, And bless the hand that into life Ushered thy soul prepared for Heaven;

Prepared, through mercy, for that hour Awful? which all on earth must meet, When clothed with majesty and power, God cites before his judgment-seat.

With trusting heart, and willing ear, Thou heardst the summons unappalled; His spirit with thine own did bear Witness, that thou his child wast called.

*Hope unto thee was lost in sight And death in victory was swallowed; Celestial glories opened bright, With visions pure and hallowed.

Oh! may not then this heart of mine, So graceless and rebellions prove, As at God's mandate to repine When summoning to a home above, A spirit purified as thine, To rest within his arm of love.

Nay, rather let it aid divine, In cheerful thankfulness implore, To see through all, his wisdom shine, And crave High aid strength to adore

That Power which from all earthly care, Sufferings and trials, called thee home, Received thy ransomed spirit where Sickness and sorrow never come.

And when the high behest is given, To my tried sorrowing soul, "go free,' Oh! may eternal rest in Heaven With Christ, my gnerdon be. E. S.

Integrity in Business.-As we rode out day with one of the members of the ch in which we were then preaching, we h long conversation on the subject of hones business. He was a merchant in the vi where we dwelt, and was very frank as t sentiments on the subject. He mainte But He touches the drooping eyelids, and placid the stontly that a man could not keep a store success unless, in various small ways, h frauded his customers. He did not say he committed such frauds himself, but the ference was pretty strong that he did so. contended just as earnestly that it was no cessary thus to make cheating a part of business; that a man who was upright honest in dealing was most likely to suc and, supposing the principle he advocat be correct, then no Christian man should a store, because it was a sin to rob our n

It is long ago now, that we met this bro and his remarks made us very sad. He a fellow Christian, or professed to b Though we talked long on the occasion which we allude, he urged no less stro than at first, at the close of our interview necessity of dishonesty as a means of suc Only a few months passed and he faile business, and left the village. We have a seen or heard of him since. We think his is an illustration of the usual result o principles-that if a man wants to b

* I have seen the glories of Heaven open before and glorious indeed is the rest prepared for the portion of money toward the support church, until, with a competency suffor the wants of his family and himself, familiar maxim that "Honesty is the blicy," even in worldly matters. - Thos.

^{*} Called from the conflict.

For "The Friend." hts about the Eternal Gospels and the

Falling Babylon. BY CHARLES SHIELDSTREAM.

RKS ON C. H. SPURGEON'S LECTURE ON GEORGE FOX.

(Continued from page 228.)

a man as George Fox, a child of the ny sect, neither will any child of Light any sect, for sect making is the work

nrch and Babylon: nilst I was under this great spiritual fell, even to himself. ng, the state of the New Jerusalem the elements. I saw the beauty and f it, the length, the breadth, and height out the obedient man's salvation! f, all in complete proportions,-1 saw sist the Holy Ghost, quench, grieve and the primitive church? e Spirit of God; who hate the Light, l and respected by all, giving regularly backs on God and his law, they were trodden half-hearted ones. under foot by other nations. Adam and Eve, when they obeyed God were kept in his image and in the paradise of God in dominion out and is still the honored resident over all the works of his hands; but when place lately in a railroad car that was crosspeautiful village of ---, an illustration they disobeyed God, they lost his image, the righteousness and holiness in which they were man, who had been slowly watching the vast made, they lost the dominion, were driven range of snow-clad peaks seen for the first out of Paradise, and so fell under the dark time, said to his companion: power of Satan, and came under the chains of darkness. But the promise of God was, seene without feeling himself brought nearer that the seed of the woman, Christ Jesus, to his Creator.' should bruise the serpent's head, should break who is the first and the last, sets man free, a Creator.' and is the resurrection of the just and unjust, the judge of the quick and the dead, and they turning to the lad. and a minister made by God, did not that are in Him are invested with everlastinto that state only, but into that also that never not see, smell, or hear God. Therefore-"

What is out of the light is in darkness! comes down out of heaven was opened Without walking in the Light the blood of try to smell with your eyes? he said, quietly. which some carnal-minded people had Christ has no effect! But how many have upon to be like an outward city dropped said and will say, that there is no such a thing as a divine Light in man sufficient to work

God had sent George Fox to turn the peowho are within the Light of Christ and ple to the Light of Christ in themselves; and faith which He is author of, and in the he said so himself. Can preachers say that of God the Holy Ghost, which Christ and God has sent them to baptize in water and to prophets and apostles were in, and with- turn the people to the outward history of grace and truth and power of God which Christ, or to the Christ after the flesh, or to walls of the city; such are within the city, the outward blood of Christ, or to hearing mbers of it, and have right to eat of the preachers who divine for money? Or can any haven't breadth and depth enough of intellect life, which yields her fruit every month, preacher, who practises will-worship, say that and of soul to do this. That is probably the ose leaves are for the healing of the na- God sent him to do so? Or can any pastor reason that you are an Agnostic But they that are out of the grace, or bishop of any so-called church say, that Light, Spirit and power of God; they his church is in the same power and spirit as display of any more atheism that day.

Spurgeon says: "Satan's servants serve he light of God into wantonness, and do him well, but the servants of Christ are often to the spirit and grace; they who hall-hearted." Who has more power, Satan keeps." "Birds of a feather flock together." tred from the faith and made ship-or christ? Those that receive Christ in his There are a good many restraints that hold of it and of a good conscience; who Light, to them He gives power to become men back from the company they would like the power of God and despise prophe-children of God (not by name but by virtue, —company of their own sort; but when those revelation and inspiration, these are efficacy and power.) They are not half restraints are off, the men naturally go to s and unbelievers who are without the hearted; they cannot become tired of doing their own company. It is Dr. Alexander hey make up the great city of Babylon, their master's will—for his will is their meat Raleigh, I think, who has brought out this on and her cage, the power of dark, and delight. They cannot run in their own truth most forcefully in a sermon from this ad the evil spirit of error surrounds wills, time and imagination, but as their Re-text. He pictures the restraints of the dayvers them over. Many things more deemer prepares them. Those who work in time to men of business, to elerks, to mesee concerning the heavenly city the their own time, will and imagination, they chanics, to students, holding one and another crusalem, which are hard to be uttered get tired. God has his valiants in all genera- to the higher or the lower associations, until buld be hard to be received. But, in tions. But those that have defiled their gar-the evening's freedom permits them all to this holy city is within the Light, and all ments or put on borrowed garments, they can seek their own company. Then being let go, ce within the Light are within the city, the not walk perfect before the Lord; but the will some go to the theatre, some to the bur-room, whereof stand open all the day (for ing, the obedient, the perfect ones, to whom some to the gambling house, some to the s no night there) that all may come in. He gives his commandments to serve Him, library, some to their own homes, some to the commercially, a very easy way to do it tasted death for every man, and enlighteneth delight to do the will of their Master. There mart enough to cheat his customers every man that cometh into the world; and are children of the Light scattered here and ing things, under the impression that his grace, that bringeth salvation, having ap-there over the surface of the earth, that have peared to all men, there is no place and no no outward name or organization seen by ne same village, at the same time, there language where his voice is not heard. The men, but who are in the Light, for the Light unassuming man, a member of the Christians in the primitive times were called is in them, and they walk in the Light and burch, who kept another store of the by Christ, a city set upon a hill; they were are therefore within the walls of the New ature, where dry goods and groceries also called the light of the world, and the Jerusulem, cating of the tree of life. They old. We asked him what he thought salt of the earth; but when Christians lost the know that their Master trod the winepress a principle as that for which his neightened. He said he did not believe in did not practise it. This brother consavory salt. Even as the Jews who, while loneliness on account of being isolated, but year after year in the village, his busi- they kept the law of God, were preserved are contented, and they know that the crown pereasing until he enlarged his store, above all nations, but when they turned their is reserved for them, but darkness for the Young Atheists.—A suggestive scene took ing the Rocky Mountains. A quiet business

"No man, it seems to me, could look at that

A dapper lad of eighteen, who had been his power and authority which had led into chiefly occupied in caressing his moustache, captivity and held men therein. So Christ, pertly interrupted, "If you are sure there is

"You are an atheist?" said the stranger,

"I am an Agnostie," raising his voice. ing rest and peace, out of all the labors and am investigating the subject. I take nothing travails and miseries of Adam in the fall. So for granted. I see the mountains, I smell the al men and darkness. Read how dear, He is sufficient and of ability to restore man rose, I hear the wind; therefore, I believe that and true George Fox, describes the into the state he was before he fell; and not mountains, rose, and wind exist. But I can-

A grizzled old cattle-raiser opposite glanced over his spectacles at the boy. "Did you ever "No.

"Or to hear with your tongue, or to taste with your ears? "Certainly not."

"Then why do you try to apprehend God with faculties which are only meant for material things?"

"With what should I apprehend him?" said the youth.

"With your intellect and soul; but-I beg your pardon!" here he paused; "some men

The laugh in the car effectually stopped the

Being let go, they went to their own company. -"A man is known by the company he s blood being shed for every man, He they serve Him well; and it is their greatest place of prayer. If you could pick your own company, what would it be at this hour? When death loosens the restraints of life, you will go to your own company .- Selected.

ence often exists between beer, wine, rum, gin, mother, a widow, was in a distant city. actions of the drunkards when drunk.

the most morose, and when drunk, they stay and dreary months of his imprisonment; all drunk the longest, and sober up the most the rest upbraided him, and rather rejoiced slowly. One of the best farmers in New England broke his wife's heart by continued ngliness and abuse, and came at last to poverty versation or reading; he wanted to be let through eider. In being taken by him alone to abuse those who had him punished. through his cellar, and shown seven varieties He tried to believe that he was the victim of of eider, the writer said, "Just the number of circumstances, a martyr for little indiscretions evil spirits that made the last state of a eer-only. He had been a little wild and foolish, tain man worse than his first." "O," said the but he was good-hearted and meant no barm. victim, "a little good cider does nobody any Such was the sophistry with which he tried harm.' But in a short time it ruined him, to excuse himself and to justify his conduct. A few years ago, when apples were unusually In the providence of God his sister became drunken melee.

casion he lighted a number of candles, placed himself to God. them on the table, and dared any one to blow them out. On another occasion, he filled a of the ablest newspapers in our country, rebarrel full of hay and placed it on the floor of spected by his fellow-men, and a member of the barn, and then set the hay on fire. At a Christian church. another time he filled a stove with ashes, and then said he would like to see any of his family kindle a fire in it. Once he attempted to cut the throat of one of his daughters. He was arrested in 1868, and again in 1870, on complaint of his wife, for cruel treatment. He was sent to the county jail, and subsequently to the penitentiary.—Christian Advocate.

Art Indecency .- Schools of Art are made also schools for the eradication of modesty. If needs and desires of a civilized man, he is fet distrust and suspicion. Who are the port, by all means let Christian parents en-gratification or compels him to any action, oppression, by cruelty and harsbness, by port by an include the contract of the courage it; but if it leads to that which is impure and sensual, rather should they let their impossible? If opportunity is denied to him, to be shunned and feared. Some, whose be contaminated by it. It appears to us that could be by the hand of any tyrant. by many Art is honored as a goddess, and all that promotes or is fancied to promote her opportunity, and free from every control, yet any which they can possibly indict. glory is considered and taught to be lawful by his liberty is curtailed by the want of power. by those whom they oppress, and dreade her votaries without regard to the law of God. He is sick and feeble, and incapable of enjoy-Surely Christian artists should lift up their ment, or he lacks the judgment, or intellistant fear of retaliation. voice against such idolatry, and Christian par gence, or force to fulfil his wishes. Every-Happily the power and the dispositions should be careful not to countenance it where he turns he sees cannot written as inextreme cruelty have both passed away. in any way.—London Christian.

A Happy Change.

Dr. Bass describes a visit, which he received from a resident of Pennsylvania, with whom he became acquainted fourteen years before in Cider and Cider Drunkards .- Many persons the Kings County Penitentiary. He was of eall themselves "total abstainers" but will good family, well brought up, and with a lib-not refuse "a little" or a great deal "good old cider." "Hard cider" contains from eight to bright, but he, like many young men before ten per cent. of absolute alcohol; that is, a him and since, made the acquaintance of perglass full of eider is equal to a glass of the sons of wild, dissolute habits, and in turn besame size one fourthfull of brandy, which con- came extravagant and reckless, lost his situatains less than fifty per cent. But it is not tion, and, to gratify the evil habits he had promote, are entirely dependent u the alcohol alone that accounts for the differ-formed, became dishonest, was arrested, conent sorts of drunkenness. A marked differ- victed, and sent to prison for his crime. His brandy, and whisky drunkards; in the general sister in feeble health was the only one of condition of the habitual toper; and in the his large circle of acquaintances and friends who showed him any sympathy or kindness, Cider drunkards are, generally speaking, the only one who visited him during the long

He was at first indisposed to religious con-plenty, a farmer in Rhode Island put down sick, and for months could not visit. He befor home use forty barrels of cider. Before came alarmed, fearing her death; and he says the spring three of the six of which his family the first real prayer he ever made was that God was composed had drunk themselves to death, would spare her life. The conversations he and one of the survivors was injured in a had with his sister, in which she had used her efforts to bring him to a serious frame of mind We are stirred to write on "cider and cider and he had ridiculed her, came fresh to his drunkards" just now, by the testimony re-memory. He became thoughtful, penitent, cently given before Surrogate Coffin at White prayerful, and after weeks of great mental Plains, N. Y. Westchester County is famous agony, he found in Christ Jesus a balm for for eider, and the daughter of the testator, his wounded spirit. After his conversion be who was a farmer, testified that her father was read "Doddridge's Rise and Progress," and in in the habit of drinking excessively, being fre- his cell on his bended knees, alone with God, quently intoxicated with eider. On one oc- he wrote out and signed a "Dedication" of

He is now the editor and publisher of one that liberty only means an escape from per-without fear of satire, or ridicule, or sonal control and authority, that we are apt construction, or slander. No liberty c to let slip by far the larger part of its true greater than that which we enjoy wh significance. The lonely inhabitant of a de-the presence of those we trust; we cast sert island is certainly free from all human all fear, and atter ourselves unreservedly. control, yet what sort of liberty can be boast? slavery can be greater than that of fear With the natural craving for society and the chains can be heavier than those forge the study of Art leads to greater admiration tered and bound on every side. What does victims of this slavery, the wearers of for that which is pure, lovely, and of good re- it matter to him that no one forbids him any chains? Surely those who by injustice children suffer loss in their earthly career than his liberty is taken away as effectually as it it is they are under no man's coutrol,

Liberty and Trust.

Another man may be surrounded by every truth, under a worse tyranny themselves those whom they rule, they live under a delibly for him in his own want of capacity we are still a long way off from that perfect as it could be in the pages of any staor the edict of any master. Without of power and opportunity, no wither human restraint can confer any libert me of the name.

There is yet another element in equally important to all who mingle in social relations-that of trust, examine human relations closely, we all the happiness they promise, all th tunities they offer, all the advanceme trust that is included in and inspire Without this, hopeless solitude were ble. Except for our trust in one and could never feel the least security o limb, of property or reputation. Al man values, save his own honor, is mercy of those around him. They o his life at any moment, and in a hunc ferent ways. They can steal or lay w property, burn his dwelling, destroy ily, ruin his good name. How is it can enjoy a moment's peace, know possibilities that surround him? Sin cause he trusts. He knows that the goodwill and right feeling of the com are sufficiently developed to preven than a remote possibility of such injuric even believes that the desire to befrie help one another is strong enough to him of a certain amount of sympathy of need.

Just in proportion to the growth confidence in the hearts of a people the liberty of each individual. When but feeble, life must be largely occup guarding against all sorts of possible dations and injuries. Where it is time and thoughts are set free for the ; plishment of worthy objects. When v with those whom, for any reason, we with suspicion and distrust, how gree our freedom curtailed. We immediate strain our feelings and guard our word do not dare to be candid and open; we gine every possible misconstruction tha be put upon what we say, and instine we conceal our real selves, and act a When from such society we pass into t tried friends, or a trusted family, w sense of relief do we experience, and gladly do we throw off our mask. W feeling of freedom ensues when we can We have become so accustomed to the idea utter our thoughts, and express our fee whose delight is to exercise authority, ar nired others, they are ever on the watch is injury to themselves. Even should be bared all retaliation, the spirit of fear New York Baptist congregations (that of yhemselves; having sown seeds of kind-stowed upon you labor in vain. kryest. They merit no ill treatment, e fear none, and know nothing of the r in which suspicion ever dwells.

Happily the power and the disposition

eletter of love to the young convinced, a Penn gives this advice:— other let us enter into many reasonings oposers, for that is the life God's power led to slay with the two-edged sword; the still, the quiet, the righteous life, hnust be exalted over all. And this I i a sound understanding through the ing and pragmatical Christians, whose confessing than forsaking; and in their vll-performances and external observa-, han in the reformation and conversion or souls to God. And, finally, we ourrd, may also reduce our good conditions cs matters in our understandings, and ing about them with every opposer the h a way of temptation, shall present to wich does no way advance our growth ibrease in the noble principle of Truth."

For "The Friend," Religious Items, &c.

istablishment.—There is said to be growin of the community, a demand for a feet of water annually hurch-one not connected with or desfaction.

this subject Joseph Cook stated in one in thickness recent lectures :- "Already Australia wich accompanies perfect trust. Pris-in all her colonies. I have heard Archbishop of a well scraped cocoa-nut shell. In the li rust in which they live is of itself a Madison Avenue) has decided to make some sesses a hawk which is perfectly tame and chalty, destroying as it must, their changes in the manner of holding their even-harmless. He lives most harmoniously with of mind and freedom of action, and ing meetings. A committee on the subject a green linnet which was originally put in his regorded that they thought the reformed cage for a meal; when first incarcerated with m way, we may be very sure, they must churches had made a mistake in rejecting his apparent enemy, he slunk into the furthest rehe suffering which they inflict. But liturgical services, and they proposed that corner, no doubt expecting instant death, but idest and sincere, whose hearts are ten- more time should be given to music and other perceiving do danger was to be apprehended, or true, whose word is reliable, whose things which would be attractive to people he approached the woodland tyrant and very te transparent, whose characters are generally. If some of the old fathers of the speedily both were on extremely friendly all dependable, will naturally be unsus-denomination could visit their descendants in terms; and ever since, if any one goes near uland confiding. They do not suspect religious profession, they might say with the the cage, the hawk will open one of his wings sof acts of which they could not be apostle, "I am afraid of you, lest I have be to shield his diminutive companion in cap-

> For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

The Lignified Snake from Brazil.—An object closely representing a small species of snake, means entered the body of the tree and made when the sun set .- E. L. A. in Science Gossip. its way under the bark Annual Rainfall.—The annual rainfall varies greatly in different parts of the earth. It is who have known something more of less than 10 inches in the central part of British America, around Slave lake; in the nutter loss, by seeking to comprehend district north of the Gulf of California; on the western slope of the Andes in South America in parts of Tartary, Mongolia, Persia and Arabia, in Asia; in the desert of Sahara and E. Dodge, that his death "occasions a proa portion of South Western Africa; and in the found feeling of regret throughout the whole central portions of Australia. It is over 75 community, as it will throughout the country. inches on the eastern slope of the Andes, in As a merchant and a citizen he exerted an inthe Alps, Caucasian Mountains, Bombay, in fluence that was felt far and near, and the the Himalayas and many of the islands of the influence was always on the right side." Indian Ocean. Some of the stations in Java writer also quotes the testimony of the Presi-Germany, among the more Evangelical and Sumatra register a downfall of about 17 dent of one of the New York banks, who had

place the impure sulphur forms a bed 25 feet

copted the American precedent for her contrivance, which measures time well in both ance associations to which he contributed hee. She has put all connection between rough weather and fine. It is simply a bucket money, and advice that was quite as valuable.

ar used to prevent and punish crime ecclesiastics in Dublin, that Ireland could not that when placed to float in the bucket a a just so much from the liberty we go back to a connection of Church and State fine thread of water squirts up into it. This thioy did trustfulness and trustworthi- if she would, and would not if she could, and gradually fills the shell, and the size of the p vail. Envy, jealousy, suspicion, and should not if she would. Church and State hole is so adjusted to the capacity of the vest at act and react to deprive us of our have long been partially separated in Scot, set that exactly at the end of an hour, plump sel that exactly at the end of an hour, plump fi freedom. Nature still, with her in land, and you already begin to hear all around it goes to the bottom. The watch then cries Il justice, grants true liberty only to the horizon of that land, rising thunders on out the number of hours from sunrise, and she enslaves in their own net. The who expects England to avoid radical disvery good measure of time. I tested it with a worthy will always be distrustful; cussions on this theme a century, or half a my watch, and found that it hardly varied a low that they have not bestowed con-century, or a generation longer? Disestablish-minute from one hour to another, nor did the ceso they expect none; conscious of hav-|ment is a great reform to be expected in a motion of the vessel have any effect upon it, as the water in the bucket of course kept level. - Wallace's Malay Archipelago.

A Tame Hawk .- A patient of mine postivity. At night-time the linnet invariably goes to sleep with his head snugly ensconced under the same protecting canopy. I myself have witnessed the above several times .--E. M. Boddy in Science Gossip.

The Dancing of Gnats .- The periodical meetwas found within the trunk of a tree north ing of gnats, midges, &c., at certain spots for of the Amazon river, and has excited consider- the purpose of holding their eccentric games able interest among naturalists. The piece is a curious phenomenon. How is it that the of wood containing the supposed reptile was same localities are chosen not only night after taken to France and submitted to learned night, but year after year, by these tiny revmen there for examination. The body has ellers. On a hot evening I have seen a column been found to consist of woody cells and of gnats hanging over a tree in a forest, so fibres, yet the resemblance to a snake is won- vast that they looked like the ascending of the Lord, that deadness, darkness derfully close. Professor Asa Gray suggests smoke of a camp-fire, and so numerous that visits of sprit, will be the end of such as the most probable hypothesis, that it is an the hum of their myriad tiny wings could be aerial root, such as the fig family are in the heard at 30 yards like the distant sound of a consists much more in words than habit of throwing out, which has by some the sea. Night after night they came there

FRIEND. THE

THIRD MONTH 3, 1883,

The New York correspondent of the Public Ledger of this city, says of the late William been a life-long acquaintance of the deceased, Sulphur Deposits in Utah.—At Cove Creek, who said he "was famous for the consistency tou the civil government. This feel-Southern Utah, a number of sulphur mines of his religious life with his business career, strengthened by the fact that the have been "located," and some of them slight. He never held stock in a railroad which run cers to the different congregations are ly developed. Its origin is probably from iron its cars on the Sabbath day, and he never ed by the State bureaus, and sometimes pyrites or other sulphuret in the earth, from drank spirituous liquors, no matter what the cher of rationalistic tendencies is sent which it has been expelled by volcanic heat, occasion. When he was travelling in Europe evangelical congregation; which causes and has condensed at the surface. In one he sometimes found it impossible to get good water to drink, but in that case he drank bad water. His death will be an irreparable loss The Water-clock.—This is a very ingenious to the many charitable, religious and temperh and State into process of extinction half filled with water, in which floats the half The amounts of his gifts for these purposes away $100,000 a year. He had enterprise, tablish to the satisfaction of the Court that he was, at indement and perfect integrity, and gave a large share of his attention in helping others."

truthfully be said of a man that his "influence or his property was on a ship sailing under the flag of was always on the right side," and "his re- the United States." ligious life" and "business career," were consistent with each other. We ought to be encouraged and thankful when such illustrations of the effect of religion are presented to us. Yet it must be borne in mind, that true religion always produces such fruits, for we are to know the character of people by their actions. "By their fruits shall ye know them." He who lives in obedience to the Spirit of amendment, have been defeated successively. Christ, will manifest the fruits of the Spirit in his business and his every-day life. cannot be under the influence of a worldlyminded spirit six days of the week, and be a godly man on the seventh.

The Report of the Managers of the Adelphi School in this city shows that it has been in regular operation during the past year, with an average class-list of 84. The school is an average class-list of 84. The school is the survivors were taken of by the steamer Republic, largely made up of very small children, who which arrived at New York on Seventh-day evening cannot be as regular in attendance as older last. In transferring them to the Republic another scholars. From this cause, and also from the scholars. From this cause, and also from the prevalence of small-pox, measles and whooping-cough in the early months of the year, the average daily attendance was reduced to 53.

Several of the more needy scholars had been supplied with shoes, through the kindness of children rushed wildly down the stairs, and the railing some interested friends, and this enabled them giving way the struggling mass was thrown to the floor their respective boundaries. to attend at school, when otherwise they would have been confined at home.

The Managers say. "We are encouraged to believe that the school is producing good fruit, inasmuch as it provides for a class who might disinterestedly devote time and thought to 129 a 132, the welfare of others, will experience the truth of the Scripture declaration, "He that of middings are reported at for uplands and New Orleans. watereth shall be watered also himself."

We have received the 28th Annual Report of the Howard Institution, under the care of an association of Women Friends, for the help $5.25; western do at $5.75 a $6.75; Pennsylvania under the table of $5.25; western do at $5.75 a $6.75; Pennsylvania under the table of $5.25; western do at $5.75 a $6.40, and patents at $6.25; common of Arch St. Meeting-house, Philadelphia an association of Women Friends, for the help $5.25; western do at $5.75 a $6.40; and patents at $6.25; common of Arch St. Meeting-house, Philadelphia and Philad

The building is located at 1612 Poplar St., Philadelphia. The expenses of conducting Philadelphia. The expenses of conducting $1.25. Rye is firm at 70 cts, for prime Penna. Corn is the institution during the year 1882 amounted doll and lower. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots, at By 4th month 23rd, 1883, a teacher for Bradi to $3028.93, of which about one-half was re- 61 a 70 cts, the later for sail, yellow and track. Oats parative Meeting School. ceived from interest on invested funds, and the are 1c. higher. Sales of 10,000 bushels, in car lots, at balance from donations of those interested in 51 a 581 cts. its welfare, and from other sources.

abled to report continued blessings upon their extra. efforts for the welfare of the sadly interesting objects of their care, giving them renewed assurance that the work, humble as it is, has been owned by the Master to whom it has head sold at the different yards at 9\{\text{a l l l}\} at 10\{\text{b cts. per lb}_n\} irith; with a watchful care faithfully discharging the conscient of the constraints of the constraints and a conscient of the constraints of the constraints and a conscient of the constraints of the constraints and a conscient of the constraints of the constraints and a conscient of the conscient of the constraints and a conscient of the constraints are conscient of the constraints and a conscient of the const been offered."

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

ult, the House bill to extent the time for filing claims before the Alabama Claims Court was reported and passed with an amendment which provides that "Every claimant hereafter filing his claim shall state and establish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel decree tablish to the satisfaction of the Court, a reasonable placing certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index exhausting a papel certain treatises on education in the index ex cause for his not having presented it within the time purgatorious.

In the Chamber of Deputies, on the 22d ult. Prime were very large; latterly, I know he had given which occasioned such failure; and shall further esthe time of his loss, a citizen of the United States, or had lawfully filed a declaration of his intention to become such citizen; and that his loss was one of the first-It is truly a noble testimony, when it can class described by said act and was incurred while he

Several of the appropriation bills are in the hands of Conference Committees of the two Houses

The wheat crop of 1883, on the Pacific coast, it is calculated will reach seventy million bushels. The San Francisco Journal of Commerce says, the present season bears a striking resemblance to that of 1879-80, when the yield was about 20 bushels per acre. The wheat sown covers about three and one-half million acres. In the New Jersey House of Representatives, all the prohibition measures, including the Constitutional

In the Senate of Maine on the 19th ult., the Constitu-tional Probibitory amendment was passed by a vote of execution of public works, and to introduc 21 to 2. A bill was also passed allowing women to vote looking to the organization of a protectorat on school matters.

on school matters.

Chief Justice Day, of Iowa, has ordered the petition that country. The foreign policy of the G of the Attorney General of that State for a rehearing of he said, will be peaceful, but not necessarily in the Prohibition Amendment case to be docketed for the action, "Whenever our interests and hot term of the Court at Council Bluffs.

on the 16th ult., after a fearful storm, in which her captain and five seamen were washed overboard and lost, was valued at $200,000. There is an insurance of about about 200 factories, in which 15,000 to 17,000 to 1 $100,000 upon it in Boston companies and agencies.

On the afternoon of the 19th of last month, a panic was caused in the schoolhouse attached to a Roman Catholic chapel, in New York, by an outbreak of fire under the stairs on the second floor. Several hundred Sixteen children were killed and six injured, veral dangerously.

The public schools in Leadville, Colorado, have been closed, owing to the prevalence of small-pox. There were 358 deaths in this city last week, 9 less otherwise receive no schooling whatever—surrounding them with good influences, and starting them in the rudiments of an education."

We believe that some of those who thus dishiterestedly devote time and thought to 129 a 132.

Cotton continues dull, but prices were steady. Sales nues at 35,000,000. of middlings are reported at 101 a 101 cts. per pound

Petroleum.—Standard white, $7\frac{3}{4}$ a $7\frac{7}{8}$ cts. for export, and $8\frac{3}{4}$ a $8\frac{7}{8}$ cts. per gallon for home use.

$8. Rye flour is firm at $4 a $4.12\frac{1}{2} per harrel. Grain.—Wheat is in better demand and a fraction higher. Sales of 5300 bushels red, in car lots at $1.18 a

Beef cattle were in good demand and prices were a welfare, and from other sources.

The Report says: "Its Managers are en different yards at 5½ a 7½ cts. per lb., the latter rate for Nemons, wife of Wm, Nichols, aged 66 year Sheep were in demand at an advance: 12,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 5 a 7 cts, per pound, and lambs at 5 a 8 cts. per lb. as to condition. Hogs were dull, but prices were unchanged; 2800 as to condition.

FOREIGN.—Much time has been occupied during the past week in the House of Commons in debate on Gorst's amendment to the address in reply to the speech UNITED STATES.—In the U.S. Senate on the 20th from the throne, declaring that, in view of the confest, the House bill to extend the time for filing claims sions of the Irish assassins, no further concessions should be made to lawless agitation.

In Paris, fourteen bishops have been summoned be-

Minister Ferry explained the programme the try and solicited the confidence of the said the Government's first care would be wish of the Chamber by applying the under which the Princes would be depr military posts. The Government thought more was necessary at the present. The not endangered, and in the event of a cons have ample power to protect itself by rig in all governments. Without infringing up tial liberties of the people, the Governmer that measures be taken against the utteral tious cries and against the authors of sedition Irritating questions and fruitless discussion must be set aside, leaving to the Governmer tive, which belongs to it as a right. quired in the Magistracy, A Military Habitual Criminal's bill were to be introd Budget for 1884 would shortly be presented Ferry said the Government proposes to fall and the reduction of the expenses of the oc gaged, we must maintain France in the ran The British steamer Glamorgan, from Liverpool for she is entitled. It is essential to give beston, was abandoned at sea in a sinking condition, spectacle of a Government sure of its future armed against factions; of an administration respected, and of a parliamentary Republic re the French virtues of good sense, labor a progress." About 4000 boats and 25,000 fishermen a in the sardine industry on the French coast. are employed. A good catch for a boat would a fish a day, for which they get about thirty-fit thousand.

King Alfonso of Spain, it is said, will acc posal which has been made to him to act as a between Colombia and Venezuela on the qu

The National Zeitung says the German Cc ciety intends to colonize Fernando with Gern

Morocco has contracted with the Paris Min of various denominations, representing a total about $5,000,000. On one side of the coi il than the previous week, and 40 less than during the stamped a verse from the Koran, and on the fiscal year are estimated at $27,000,000, and FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INS. The Annual Meeting of the Contributor Asylum for the Relief of Persons deprived o

Address,

LYDIA D. WOB Marshallton, Chester Co

days, an esteemed member of Salem Monthly of Friends, Iowa. This dear Friend stood firm principles of Friends through all the trials that ciety has been passing through. Her life was ch manifest duty, however great the cross to her will; a tender mother, an affectionate wife, and pathizing friend; the poor and afflicted being th liar objects of her attention, often denying hers necessaries of life that she might help others. her illness many expressions fell from her lips. those around her that she was ready and waiting as a shock of corn fully ripe, was gathered it

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER. No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

TIL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, THIRD MONTH 10, 1883.

NO. 31.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid l'advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to ns, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, 3. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

For "The Friend."

bd to accomplish in training her beloved of their faith held fast. ping for a life of usefulness here, and, we

s happiness hereafter.

nd scholarship of Samuel Wesley pro-life, were strictly inculcated. l little effect. His parsonage was twice entered. The father endeavored to force his bonds of confidence between her children and way to it, but was met by volumes of smoke herself, keeping open as it were the pathway and hissing flames; the staircase fell, and thus between their hearts and her own, along all access from within was cut off, and the which travelled many a loving word of counfather, in his agony, knelt down to commend sel, of warning, or of cheer. Few things perthe soul of his child to God. Meanwhile, the haps are more touchingly beautiful than to little one had been awakened by a red gleam see how her sons, as young and strong men, on the walls, and, after attempting in vain to applied to her for help and advice in their escape by the door, he ran to the window, spiritual embarrassments and difficulties, how where the little white figure was espied by they poured out their troubles into her willing some kind people who had gathered below. ear, and were animated by her words and the 'Go for a ladder!' cried one. 'There is no unspeakable yearnings of her soul for their time,' answered his neighbor; 'but mount on welfare. Susanna Wesley.

The following brief account of the life of jaws of the fire into his parents' arms.

When her husband was absent on Church and Wesley, taken from "Consecrated might they kneel down and thank God when affairs in London, and service in the church ren," is submitted for publication in "The they saw their children all safe about them; was held only once on the First day of the ell," with the desire that some "weary and well might this son, in after years, when week, she made it a practice to invite a few vay-worn mother" who may at times his fame as John Wesley was world-wide, de- of the people about, to join in her family read-most like fainting beneath their bur- scribe himself as literally, as well as spirit- ing with her children in the kitchen of the smay be encouraged to press forward on ually, 'a brand plucked from the burning,' parsonage. This became so popular that her furney of life with renewed vigor, when Thus wave after wave of trouble swept over room was soon crowded, and she was almost cabering what this dedicated woman was the heads of this noble pair, but the anchor startled at her own work. She read to them

If They were married about the year was found that some good had been lost by all this reached the ears of the worthy man, dand had nineteen children of whom ten the children during the dispersion; and some- and he wrote in great alarm; but she was so neglect of their mental training on the given to both by their father, until the sons mand her to do so, and then she should think the mother. But before we inquire were ready for college. Her methods were it her duty to submit. uh an excuse were needed, let us consider peculiar, and might not be necessary or possiof the circumstances that surrounded ble in all instances, though eminently success mission and family love, life passed away in ful in this. Strict discipline was of course of this remote parsonage among the fens of h husband was an excellent but eccent he first importance among such a number, Lincolnshire; till at length, one by one, the han, too much engaged in the duties of in so limited a space, and when so little help sons left their home, some of the daughters istoral office, and in literary pursuits, to of any kind was to be had. For instance, no married, and the father was laid down to rest ery much assistance in the early edu-child was permitted to cry aloud after the age in the quiet churchyard that surrounded the of one year; and strict rules as to food and scene of his life-long labors. Then Susanna of the children.

of one year; and strict rules as to food and scene of his file-long moors.

parish of Epworth, where the greater sleep, &c., were enacted. Perfect honorsty, Wesley went forth, still in outward poverty, sleep, it is the property of the p of their lives was spent, is situated in a uprightness, and truthfulness were enforced; and found a home with one or other of her of Lincolnshire known as The Island; reverence for their superiors, and just, as children, until her turn too came to go across

(it was believed by incendiaries, in re-served, and, as an instance of her indefatigable her children (though to them, as to herself, for some difference of opinion in politi- zeal and industry, it is told that, not satisfied life had anything but a thornless path to offer) hatters;) and on another occasion the with any manual of religious instruction with were conscious heirs of a better and more enman was taken off to prison, by some in her reach, she prepared one herself for the during inheritance. Some of them she saw rful adversary, for a small debt which a use of her children. Her own practice was prominently and extensively useful to a deforbearance would have enabled him to to spend two hours daily in private and special gree that has not often been equalled, and at These troubles, as may be supposed, fell prayer and communion with her God. Here her peaceful falling asleep she had the joy of ly on the noble wife and mother. The we have one of the secrets of her strength, believing that, through the riches of redeemde conflagration took place in the night; and of the calmness of soul which enabled her ing love, she would be permitted to rejoin or unily were aroused from their slumbers to accomptish her daily work. She trained to welcome every one of her nineteen children he ery of 'Fire!' but, after great exer- her children to a similar habit suited to their in the better world to which she was hastent, it was believed all the living treasures years. She also made a point of having ing. one lovely little boy, of about six, was by this means, and afterwards through cor- The luxury of luxuries is that of doing good.

sleeping alone in a room which had not been respondence, she maintained unbroken the

the best sermons she could find in her hus-It was some time before their parsonage band's library, and at length the people begged was rebuilt, and the family, which had been they might remain during the family worship, ssanna Wesley was the wife of a clergy-perforce dispersed, was re-collected. At length, which she also conducted during the absence nwhose income never exceeded £200 a however, this was accomplished, though it of her husband. Some exaggerated account of In their infancy; yet with the nine left thing like quiet settled down around them, convinced that she was doing rightly and right be supposed the mere struggle for Susanna Wesley was almost the sole instructure usefully that she said in reply, after explain stence and the cares attending on such tress of her daughters, and of her sons also, ing how simple the whole thing was, that if ally would have proved an excuse for with the exception of the classical lessons he still wished her to abstain he must com-

Thus, amid labor and prayer, wifely subat period the resort of a peculiarly wild well as kindly feeling among themselves, and the river.' She continued to be their best wess population, upon whom the learn- courtesy towards those of a humbler class of earthly guide and counsellor, and was soothed in return by their devoted love and filial care. Regular school hours and lessons were ob- She had the happiness of believing that all

For " The Friend "

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

Self-denial was the practice and glory of coming of Christ in the flesh; and shall we hope to go to heaven without it now, when our Saviour himself has become the most excellent example of it? And that, not as some would fain have it, viz., "He for us, that we ourselves, and so be the true followers of his blessed example.

from the opposition of worldly considerations; remember I tell thee in the name of Christ, that he who prefers father or mother, sister or brother, wife or child, house or land, reputation, honor, office, liberty or life, before the ceeds that of the wealth, honor and beauty of solemn and general inquest upon the world, when all shall be judged, and receive according to the deeds done, not the profession made by that presence which is within them. in this life. It is the doctrine of Jesus, that it off; and if thy right eye offend thee thou joyest, stand in thy soul's way and interrupt his gifts, they do not adore them, but Him; haste to be rich—the impatience of res thy obedience to the voice of God, and thy conformity to his holy will revealed in thy soul, thou art engaged, under the penalty of who see Him not. In their increase they are damnation, to part with them.

to sense as it is mortal to self. The children one, and comforted in the other, by his divine of obedience, with holy Paul, count all things presence. *hat as dross, that they may win Christ, and know and walk in this narrow way. Speculation will not do it, nor can refined self under foot. Those who know that station notions enter it; the obedient only eat the will not be easily moved; they learn to nun-good of the land. They that do my Father's ber their days, that they may not be surprised will, says the blessed Jesus, shall know my with their dissolution; and to "redeem their doctrine; them He will instruct. There is time, because the days are evil;" rememberno room for instruction, where lawful self is ing that they are but stewards, and must delord and not servant. For self cannot receive liver up their accounts to an impartial Judge. it; that which should, is oppressed by self; Therefore, not to self, but to Him they live, fearful, and dares not. What will my father and in Him they die, and are blessed with or mother say? How will my husband use them that die in the Lord. me? Or, what will the magistrates do with me? For though I have a most powerful persuasion, and clear conviction on my soul, a British iron steamer, loaded with wheat. of this or that thing, yet considering how weighed anchor and started down the bay of unmodish it is, what enemies it has, and how San Francisco. The pilot left her when about strange and singular I shall seem to them, I five miles outside the Golden Gate. Looking hope God will pity my weakness, if I sink; back from his pilot boat a short time after, I am but flesh and blood; it may be hereafter he saw the vessel stop, drift into the trough He will better enable me; and there is time of the sea, careen to port, both bulwarks going in the unchangeable Truth,-I have just enough. Thus selfish, fearful man.

Deliberating is ever worst; for the soul his convictions upon the soul; and such will first rough sea capsized it. always want it; but such as do receive Him, receive power also, like those of old, to be- with powerful engines, with a cargo worth keep in the meckness of Him who rode come the children of God, through the pure $100,000, foundering as soon as she left har Jerusalem upon a colt, the foal of au ass. obedience of faith.

Wherefore, let me beseech you, by the love five men, because the captain failed to have fore I rose from my bed, this language see and mercy of God, by the life and death of her properly ballasted. The moment she be to come vividly before my mind, "Re hope of immortality, you whose hearts are the lower side, and down into the established in your temporal comforts, and went. are lovers of self more than of these heavenly the ancients, who were predecessors to the things, let the time past suffice; think it not the trite lesson that so many have enough to be clear of such impleties, as too teach, and that they who need it me a many are found in, whilst your inordinate slow to learn. Young men starting love of lawful things has defiled your enjoy-life want to carry as little ballast as ment of them, and drawn your hearts from They are enterprising, ambitious. the fear, love, obedience, and self-denial of a anxious to go fast and take as much need not;" but for us, that we might deny true disciple of Jesns. Turn about then, and they can. Old-fashioned principles hearken to the still voice in thy conscience; garded as dead weight. It does no it tells thee of thy sins, and of misery in them. keep them, and they are thrown ov Whoever thou art, therefore, that wouldst It gives a lively discovery of the very vanity Good home habits are abandoned in do the will of God, but faintest in thy desires of the world, and opens to thy soul some pro- be popular with the gay and world! spect of eternity, and the comforts of the just Bible is not read, religious duties who are at rest. If thou adherest to this, it leeted, and lo! some day, when all t will divorce thee from sin and self; thou wilt are spread, a sudden temptation cor soon find, that the power of its charms extestimony of the light of Jesus in his own the world, and, finally, will give thee that young, in these days of intense activ conscience, shall be rejected of Him in the tranquillity, which the storms of time can vital importance of ballast. A cor never shipwreck or disorder. Here all thine seems to be an incumbrance—an obs enjoyments are blest; though small, yet great prosperity. But it is a safe thing to l

if thy right hand offend thee, thou must cut better of it, for they use the world without trough of the sea. If the Escambia ha rebuke, because they do not abuse it. They less wheat and more ballast, it migl must pluck it out; that is, if the most dear, see and bless the hand that feeds and clothes, been afloat to-day. And this is true of the most useful and tender comforts thou en- and preserves them. Beholding Him in all a man now in prison or in the gutter so the sweetness of his blessing who gives alas! how their wrecks lie just outsi them, is an advantage such have over those world's Golden Gates .- Christian Wor not lifted up, nor in their adversities are they The way of God is a way of faith, as dark cast down; because they are moderated in the

> In short, heaven is the throne, and the earth but the footstool of that man, who hath

Without Ballast .- One day the Escambia,

What was the cause of this sad catastrophe? gelical letter, which has brought thee loses in parley: the manifestation brings A want of ballast. She came into port from morning, very near and dear to my best power with it. Never did God convince peo- China, a few weeks before, with a thousand ple, but, upon submission He empowered emigrants on board. But she had in her hold Christian love to hold out a hand of en them. He requires nothing without ability immense tanks for what is called water bal- agement to a poor sister in tribulation to perform it: that were mocking, not saving last. Those tanks were full, and she battled spirit seemed to salute thee, and many of men. It is enough for thee to do thy duty, successfully with wind and waves. But the in your Yearly Meeting, in the language that God shows thee thy duty; provided thou captain, wishing to carry all the wheat he affectionate encouragement to hold fast closest with the light and spirit, by which He could between decks, neglected to fill those which you have received—let no man gives thee that knowledge. They that want tanks. He thought the eargo would steady your crown. Though the mountains sh power, are such as do not receive Christ in the ship. But it made it top-heavy, and the depart and the hills be removed, yet my bor, taking down with her a crew of forty- I was looking towards you this morning

Christ, by the power of his Spirit, and the gan to lurch, the wheat all tumbled

How this wreek of the Escambia wrecks the character and the life.

We cannot urge too strongly board. It steadies the soul. It keeps Even in this world the righteous have the careening when the winds drive it i

> For "The F Letter from Asenath Clark.

The following letter from that v Friend, Asenath Clark, then of North lina, was written soon after the decease husband, and has been sent to us for ins in "The Friend." It was directed to the Mary Kite, who at one time paid a rei visit to the meetings of North Carolina Meeting, accompanied by Pennock Pas and Mary Passmore. It was found a the papers of the last-named Friend.

Although many years have passed since it was penned, the Christian encor ment which it contains may prove refre to some of our readers; and strengthen still to abide "in Him who is the wa truth and the life," believing that as t their experience, "no weapon formed as them shall prosper."-ED.]

> Oak Grove, near New Garden, [N. 11th mo. 30th, 185

My dear and much beloved friend and under water, then suddenly capsize and sink. looking over thy truly sympathetic and ness shall not depart from thee, sayeth Here, then, was a vessel tight and strong, Lord who hath merey on thee :- and as

n upon an ass." se and sifted from sieve to sieve, yet the as soon as I could.

gty wheat will remain when the chaff is gl away, and the fine gold will lose nothits brightness, worth, or weight by nemelted, and passing from time to time ogh the fire. What I carnestly crave lyself and my dear friends is that we eep close to Him who was led as a lamb th slaughter, and as a sheep before her ars is dumb, so He opened not his mouth; h is the safety of all in this day who are ning for those precious testimonies of ris toward you of that Yearly Meeting :

the favor of a Yearly Meeting it eer- such belief. golden harp-however eloquently they Godhead. whant the songs of Zion when nothing st stop lest I become like I thought some or other bereavements, we have lost my sanctified. prother in law Joshua Stanley. My dear Affectionately thy friend,

Asenath Clark. For "The Friend."

Falling Babylon. BY CHARLES SHIELDSTREAM.

REMARKS ON C. H. SPURGEON'S LECTURE ON GEORGE FOX.

(Concluded from page 237.)

Christ is the same forever, and so are his written. it and righteousness, and desire to pre-followers. The children of Light or friends vithem in their purity as they came from of God (in scorn called Quakers), are the same true servants of Christ are not half-hearted, unds of those dignified sons of the morn in all ages. That principle, which was be- for they know that they are not their own, If these keep on the same foundation in lieved and followed in the days of the pa- for they are Christ's and partakers with their less of mind, and are abiding in Him triarchs, of Job, Elihu, and the prophets of Master in his glory and power. They have os the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no the old covenant, of the philosophers without been buried with their Lord through his up formed against them shall prosper, the covenant, (as Socrates, Plato, Seneca and spiritual baptism, and have risen with Him, very tongue which rises in judgment others,) of Christ and his first apostles, of and their minds are above self and vanities is them they shall condemn. I believe Jacob Bochme and George Fox, they believe of the world, and they know indeed that they rare many in your Yearly Meeting who in and follow to-day, viz., the Light of Christ do the will of God which abideth for ever to foundation to stand upon, and I am in man, which is general and all-sufficient for As they possess to the full extent the real ligh our poor Yearly Meeting has come tures of truth are the only guide and rule for rejoice in the Light and the power which is I conclusion to break off all correspond- the salvation of man. For the guide and rule given to men. O, they can say that the seed ewith you in an epistolary way, yet I of man's salvation is the Light, Grace and of God remaineth and ruleth and is over all the if you and Ohio Yearly Meeting con-Spirit of Christ within man. George Fox weakness and over death itself. still, whilst a mighty and strong wind, corrected the hireling who preached that the To them, Christ is the resurrection and life is the Lord is not in, is rending the moun. Scriptures were the rule, saying: Oh, no! it indeed. The second death has no power over and parting the hills asunder, your heads is not the Scripture, it is the Spirit of God them. The grave has no victory; death has

m; but however nicely some may play expressions as three different persons of the setheir path—if when the distressed state man's will; even the most eloquent and scrip-Sciety is brought into view they rise up tural preaching, human inventions, as sacrapenly become accusers of the brethren, ments, so-called, and singing and music, which t want anything more from them :-but burthens the pure life, and feeds carnality.

mmortal spirit took its flight from the with Him, are not sanctified; they are Baby-

h in thinking of my dear departed hus-ties George Fox passed through, when his spiritual eyes closed. But they that are be-I was ready to say, "Blessed are the mind was burthened with the iniquity of the lievers in the Light, and are become children at, oh daughter of Zion, shout for joy, oh dead who have died in the Lord"—his dear priests and professors and false religions: gter of Jerusalem, for thy King cometh redeemed spirit was delivered from being in- how he first thought that some man could ope, just, having salvation, lowly, and terrupted with those things which would have tell him something, and when he sought in wounded his very heart, and caused him to vain, found that only Christ could speak to his truly sensible, my dear Mary, that go mourning on his way. I think there were condition. Oh how many, with myself, have urt one who servest the Son and Sent of very few Tennessee Friends in attendance; been grieved the same way, by seeing the in-1 this humble, self-denying way, and Aaron Hammer or wife were neither of them consistency among the professors and priests, lead will be given thee-thy water shall there. I cannot say that I came in contact and hearing them plead for sin and imperme; and although your Yearly Meeting with any of them, for I was weary and the fections; and we have almost been tempted nlike being yet emptied from vessel to sittings exceedingly long, so that I got away to say, there is no God; but have been turned by God's leading from man into the wilderness, and there received the teaching of the Light within, and by the light have come off conquerors! George Fox did see that all the Thoughts about the Eternal Gospels and the see to-day. Be it therefore understood, that there is but one true religion which is spiritual; or Christ is the true Light which enlightens every man that cometh into the world, and those that obey and follow the Light become sons of God. This is the truth, which I have

I cannot omit to say once more, that the nited in believing they will stand upon man's salvation; and what they denied and character of the new covenant—that God root being moved with evil tidings. My rejected in former days, they reject to day:— dwelleth in man and walketh in man—they 1. They reject the doctrine that the Scrip- can realize the will of God in his time, and no sting-oh no! But it is their delight to do till be covered as with a mantle of love, who gave forth the Scriptures.

| due time you will be called out again | 2. They therefore reject and have no fellow-the will of God, and the will of God is that cute the command of the Most High. | ship with the making conversion (so-called) all men shall be saved and come to the knowlardly know what to say about our re- to depend on believing certain Scripture texts; edge of truth by that means which is given tearly Meeting. If multiplicity of words and regarding those as saved who profess for that purpose, viz., the Light of Christ in men, God's gift for man's salvation, and antiwas a favored one, for we had abundance 3. They reject as human inventions such dote against the seed of sin which the enemy sows in the heart of man. The servants of Christ will turn all men to take heed to the 4. They reject all kinds of worship done in Light in themselves; and if they do, it is an all-sufficient teacher for man's salvation. When all things are shown in the light, and people walk in the light of the Lamb, no priestcraft is needed—Babylon is fallen. 5. They reject all doctrine of a substituted all the true believers and followers of the righteousness without sanctification. For a Light have cut loose from all the outward bu hast heard, I suppose, that in addition man is not justified before God if he is not and vain traditions of man, and from all vain, changeable teachers. They have built on the Now those that reject these main points rock and they are immovable as rocks. But sent for me, and I went directly to them and do not believe and follow Christ as the Christ is a stumbling block and a rock of bund myself again in a house of mourn-true Light and teacher in themselves, for offence to all that believe not in the Light I was confined two weeks in close their salvation, and do not worship God in which is the Life in Christ, how much soever ag with my sister—stood by him when spirit and in truth, in inward communion they may believe in his outward life, sufferings and death. The Jews believed from the ing tabernacle, and no doubt with me lonians; and if they call themselves Friends Scriptures that Christ was to come, but they that it entered into everlasting rest;— or Quakers, they are not such, but bogus rejected Him when He came, because they when the remains were laid away, I re- Quakers and apostates from the truth. But rejected his Light. The Christians, so called, d home only one day and a half before we have not to use or recognise any nick-believe from the Scripture that Christ is come; commencement of our Yearly Meeting, name. Friends of God or children of Light, but they do not believe in the Light by which the sittings of which I attended, (with is what all who are partakers of the divine He has enlightened them, and which He has commanded, viz., believe in the Light that ye eart bleeding with these fresh wounds) glory and nature in the light arc. commanded viz., believe in the Light that ye I will most seriously turn the reader's at-may become children of the Light; and thereand some were very painful ones, in tention to the deep perplexities and difficul fore they are in the darkness, having their

of the Light, they walk in Christ, their way, life and salvation, and they have a discerning spirit and they judge a right judgment, never calling sweet bitter, or bitter sweet.

Central City, Nebraska, U. S. A., 1882.

From the "British Friend," Life's Difficulties.

While spending "Christmas" at Penmaenmawr I was kept indoors for several days by exceptionally wet and boisterous weather. Having occasion one very uninviting morning to post some letters in the village, I prolonged the walk by way of variety although the snow and sleet were driving over the hills THOUGHTS SUGGESTED BY THE DEATH OF which protect this quiet and beautiful retreat from the north and east winds. Through lanes with hedgerows green with ivy, holly, and brambles, my way led up the hillside to the Green Gorge, a wild and beautiful defile between two bold hills covered with heather. The bottom of this gorge is carpeted with soft green grass, slippery enough in dry summer weather, but a thin coating of snow and the sloppy condition of the ground made climbing still more difficult now, and the driving snow meeting me full in the face made the uncertainty of the foothold still more uncertain. Onwards I pressed, however, step by step, till I stood at the top of the pass, just at the foot of the last spur of Old Moet Llys, a grand hill skirting Penmaenmawr on the east. Not a ereature was to be seen save the hardy mountain sheep, and the grouse startled from their food among the heather. But I had my reward in a healthy glow, a feeling of difficulties overcome, a fine view of the gorge under uncommon conditions, and a bracing of the whole physical and moral nature.

How much, thought I, is this struggle up the pass like the life experience of most men and women! Battling at every step with difficulties, finding the wind and weather of circumstances against them, but in overcoming and surmounting these, finding just the stimulus to perseverance, determination, prudence, and forethought, which is the groundwork of all true and noble lives. For self-reliance is as necessary to the perfection of the moral, as faith and trust are to the spiritual part of our nature; and, were this remembered in our daily lives, how would it assist us to bear, with patience and a brave strong heart, the various little ills and disappointments which continually cross our path! Were it not for these very difficulties, what a feeble and emasculated race would mankind become! We have repeatedly heard it averred that the indomitable character of the English people is a consequence of the "cold grey weather," east winds, and leaden skies, which render active exertion necessary if we would keep the temperature of our bodies comfortable. Indeed, we have but to read biographies to see that the best and noblest of mankind were made what they were [in part at least] by difficul-ties, dangers, and trials overcome. Take a case in point. What would William Penn have been had he not taken the moral tonic of obeying conscience, instead of the desire of his father, the old admiral? Opposition, difficulties, persecutions and dangers, estrangement of friends, seemed the food on which his soul lived and thrived. He was sailing up one of the American rivers towards his newly acquired possession, and but small progress was made owing to wind and tide being against him. A friend remarking on this, William Penn replied, that was nothing new to him, as he had been sailing against wind and tide all his life. There can be little doubt that, if the law of the survival of the fittest, as seen in the extinction of races of animals, unable to hold their own against adverse conditions, is a beneficent one; so also is the law of the ultimate survival of those races and families of mankind who possess the qualities of courage, perseverance, patience, and a determination to overcome the difficulties which obstruct their path.

For "The Friend." A SISTER'S CHILD.

When a worn and weary pilgrim Looking toward the gates of day, Patient still, is ever longing Unto rest to flee away, Welcome then may be the message, Welcome then the messenger As Death comes to bear him upward, To the shining gates afar.

But unto the living ever, Who behold the work of woe, As some cherished life is vanquished, He must seem a cruel foe.

Not alone the aged pilgrim, Or the worldling bowed with years, Or the mourner seeking respite In the grave from woe and tears-

Not the wrecked on life's broad ocean, Who have seen their hopes depart, Who have tried the world and found it Hollow, hollow to the heart;

But those full of strength and vigor, With bright hopes and joyous heart Bride and bridegroom, youth and maiden, Man and child alike depart.

Oh the flowers of spring are lovely, Yet they early fade and fall! And the birds of summer cheer us, Though death may be traced on all!

So the loveliest human blossoms, Buds of rarest promise bright, Earthly hopes and earthly treasures, Ever perish from the sight.

But we know, and this is healing, That a Higher can command; When Death stands with arm uplifted, Bid him smite, or stay his band.

Scarcely yet the clods are resting O'er a bright and gentle one, Whose pure love, like hallowed sunshine, Sweetly on our pathway shone.

One whose feet would soon be stepping Out of childhood into youth; One who seemed a living lesson Of pure innocence and truth.

One whose memory must often Bring to mind the Father's love : If He lends to earth such spirits, What are those that dwell above?

Will not thoughts of her so patient, Meek, forbearing, tender, mild, Sometimes raise the prayer unspoken-Make me as a little child?

There is something sweet and holy In the yielding up of life, While the heart is fresh and stainless, And the spirit knows no strife,

That although the heart-chords vibrate At the touch of grief thereon, Are the notes all sorrow-laden. Are they mournful sounds alone?

Sometimes in the quiet pauses Sometimes when the heart is calm, In the bushed and tender silence Hear we not an echoing psalm?

Is there not an anthem swelling. In a peaceful undertone, That would lull the heart's commotion While it breathes of joy alone?

That the barque is safely anchored, Ere it crossed the breakers high, Ere the masts by storms were riven Ere the darkening night drew nigh;

That the journey is completed, Ere the tender feet had pressed O'er the rough and stony places, That still break the travellers' rest,

Ere they wandered from the pathway Leading upward to the sky, Or through weariness had stumbled On the mountains dark and high.

Joy that folded safe forever, In that home of beauty bright, One more in the song is joining, One more wears the robe of white!

Oh if mourners thus might hearken To the echo of the song; Echo of the harp's rich music That the notes of joy prolong, Would we not forget our sorrow?

While the clouds above our way Roll afar, or grow translucent, With Hope's sweetly beaming ray.

Though our lost have lived through eve Or till age has cast its snows, If we feel that they are resting Where the crystal river flows,

How the heart, so torn and bleeding, In that blest assurance given, Finds the balm of peace and healing Binding severed links to Heaven!

Then may we with resignation, To the Father's will bow low, Bless the hand that thus hath smitten, And in wisdom deals the blow.

Till the gold from dross is severed Till our lives one prayer shall be, Guide us, oh Thou Great Jehovah, Upward to our lost and Thee! Barnesville, Obio.

Into whose hands are the means of it ness most frequently placed? Who is frequently called to witness scenes of s and death? Is it not the physician?

The pious minister is occasionally seat the languishing beds of a part of the munity with messages of love : but the sician's call is to friend and stranger; destitute, friendless and profane, in the du of adversity. When the mind is soften affliction, it is the most susceptible of instruction; and when every token of syp thy, or consoling word, is a cordial t soul, if received from those who are add tering the cup of hopeful relief, it inches the confidence. How vastly important that they be men of God, and willing it ments in his hand; seeking his aid, an mediate direction in the treatment of where the lives of their patients are putil their hands; and asking wisdom to admir the balm of consolation and instruction t bleeding sonl, and to bind up the broken h

Then would they be Samaritans inc whose labors would be crowned with suc and whose minds would be richly rewa with the blessing of heavenly peace .- C rine Seely.

"All sunshine," says the Arab pro "makes the desert." And nothing har the average clay of humanity so much a sunlight of uninterrupted prosperity.

Selected for "The Friend." 'ne Administration of the Discipline.

ite the offences of those who had broken scipline, generally lost ground in a reos sense; and those whom they were dise to screen, rarely came to anything in nurch; and when such fell away, they emore severe against the unfaithful ones, magainst those, who, in the uprightness teir hearts, could not compromise the s of Truth, but stood steadfast in its suptagainst wrong things. He was not in of a rigid administration of the discipbut he believed that where it was kept to produce the effect, to keep to the gent of Truth; it would always be found h end, best for the meeting and for the ner."-Journal of William Evans.

Iv the Kitchen-boy became a Bishop,

Iwas wanted in the parish church of Ug-cathedral. ogh, a little village in Devonshire; and ee, and support myself."

the bade farewell to his father and his ters and sisters, and, with a little bundle n with him two or three miles of the way. nelt down with him at the road-side and the rebellion. God to bless him and go with him and him from every evil way. Then she so extended, that it was fourteen miles from lout some money and gave it to him for one extreme to the other; and fighting was jurney. Then the two kissed each other, of daily occurrence on some part of the line.

lweeping, parted.

ning at the window of a book-shop, look-devils?" t the rows of books on the shelves within. at moment, happening to lift his eyes, Iwant such a lad as he. And in a short succeeded in escaping. n he was employed to scour pans, to clean te kitchen.

gave up joking at the lad and went near to ties, and imposed a heavy fine upon the prohim, and saw that by himself alone he had vost, the four bailies, and the dean of the come very near to the reading both of Homer Guild. and the Latin poets. And then the dons took him away from the kitchen and made room for him in the classes of their college, and he became one of their foremost scholars, and one in whom they all felt pride.

And by-and-by John was made a "fellow," ira disposition to restore, and when that and then a professor of divinity, and for twenty-seven years he labored in that college as a professor and writer of books, where he had served as kitchen boy. And at the end of that time he was made a Bishop of Worcester, and therein proved the truth of the thought, shot through his mind, at the window of the book-shop in Exeter, that there but two hundred and eighty years ago a was a way through books to a place in a Bishop Prideaux was never ashamed of his the candidates was a young lad about early trials. He kept the leathern clothes, in on years of age, who came from a neigh- which he set out from his father's house, to ig village. But he did not get the place his old age. He loved to revisit the village ase of his youth. He was very much in which he was born. He greatly loved his lown. He was the son of poor, but parents. In his kindness he would plan surry parents, and one of a large family of prise visits. He would bring his doctor's ters and sisters. He said to his mother, scarlet gown and put it on to please them. h heavy heart, "I must not be a burden He never tired of showing them reverence. onger upon father and you; I shall set Often he would say, "If I had got the clerk's nd find work of some kind or other else-place in Ugborough, I should never have been Bishop in Worcester."—Sunday Magazine.

11th mo. 6th, 1882. Listened to the conhand, he left his home. His mother versation of an elderly man, now in the Postoffice Department at Washington, who had at length she was obliged to turn back, been in the Union army during the war of

As he stood at his post, and saw the wounded Band-by he arrived at the city of Exeter. men being carried to the rear, he remembered ent to the cathedral; he wandered about that our Saviour was ushered into the world

treets; he called at the shops; but of all, with the anthem: "Glory to God in the hom he applied that day, no one had highest; on earth, peace and good-will to for him. At last, he found himself men;" and he asked himself, "are we men or J. W.

Kidnapping in Scotland .- Lecky states that ought a glimpse of the cathedral; and the the citizens of Aberdeen, Scotland, were noted oght suddenly shot into his mind that for a scandalous system of decoying young was a connection between these books boys from the country and selling them as dhe cathedral. If he, poor though he was, slaves to the planters in Virginia. It was a a become learned in books, he might be trade which, in the early part of the cighphy of a place some day in the cathedral, teenth century, was carried on to a consider-I was a mere thought and it soon passed able extent through the Highlands of Scotfrom his mind. He left Exeter and land. In 1739, nearly 100 men, women and villed on and on, till he found himself in children, were seized in the dead of the night rd. He knew nobody there. But, hav- on the islands of Skye and Herries, pinioned, passed through Exeter, and knowing that horribly beaten, and stowed away in a ship ver College was the one to which Devon-bound for America, in order to be sold to the i students went, he knocked at the gates planters. Fortunately the ship touched at tat college and asked if they wanted a lad Donaghadee in Ireland, and the prisoners, thim, for any work he could do. They after undergoing the most frightful sufferings, divine conviction, and an inward hunger and

John was a faithful servant, and soon be-returned to Aberdeen and published a narracame a favorite with everybody about the tive of his sufferings, seriously implicating nonversation last evening with my be- college. And, as he had a good many hours some of the magistracy of the town. He was sources aton as evening with my or father, he said that in the course of of leisure, he set himself to learn Latin and prosecuted and condemned for libel by the core, he had remarked, that those Greek. And by and by the done going past local authorities, but the case was afterwards 3 s who had manifested a disposition to saw the kitchen boy poring over loose leaves carried to Edinburgh. The iniquitous system of grammars, and would ask him jokingly if of kidnapping was fully exposed, and the he was reading Homer or the Latin poets. | judges of the Supreme Court unanimously But after awhile, one and then another reversed the verdict of the Aberdeen authori-

For "The Friend,"

Dear Friends.-I feel there is too much looking back among us as a Society, not enough examination of our present state to see what the Great Master is requiring of us day by day. Oh let us sink down in deep humility of spirit low at his feet, and there remain, that we may be worthy to receive the crumbs that fall from his bountiful table. Our strength will then be made equal to all of his holy requirings; and then there will be many springing up to carry on the work of those faithful servants of the most high God that have gone before us; yea, we shall be strengthened to leave an example worthy to be followed by those that come after us.

I have desired that every one that beareth the name of Friend may walk faithfully upon the stepping-stones that the Lord God hath cast up for them to walk upon; that our memory may live in the hearts of the faithful long after we have passed away. I would that we as a Society could show a closer walk with God. The meek and lowly Jesus has called us to be a people: Oh let us be more subject to the will of Him who hath called us to follow the guidance of his Holy Spirit, and is still calling us who are so unworthy. Sons and daughters of men, let us draw near unto God as much as within us lies, that we may be steadfast and abide under the wing of the Almighty, that nothing may harm or make us to fear in the hour of trial.

Trials will surely come to us all, sooner or When in the Wilderness, their lines were later, and we should all be prepared to meet our great King Emanuel in peace. This will make all things here easy to be borne, for what are these trials when our hearts are overflowing with his holy presence. Oh what is equal or comparable thereto? Yet frail man will turn aside from all this and settle down at ease, feeding as it were on dry husks that will not give life or strength to the fainting soul; yea, my spirit is burdened for such as these, desiring that their darkness may be changed into light, even the light of Heaven; that there may be a hungering and thirsting after the true bread of life, until it is felt and received by every waiting soul. Then will the fruits and savor thereof be seen in our midst, causing us to feel a tender sympathy one for another, that will far surpass anything that the heart of unregenerate man can conceive. Thus we will appear unto God and man to be what we profess-followers of Him who is meek and lowly in spirit, and without spot in the sight of God.

Mansfield, Ohio, 2nd mo. 19th.

When Thomas Wilson was brought under thirst for the bread of life increased in him, In 1742, a case occurred which attracted it is recorded of him, that, "ere the time of ies, to brush shoes, and in other ways help much notice a few years later, when one of singing of psalms a thoughtfulness seized him, the victims having escaped from servitude, that men should be made holy before they could sing to the praise and glory of God, and his mouth was stopped from singing with to have filled the same position that is occu- "a little larger than a newly-batched in them through a godly sorrow possessing his pied among Friends by the committees of chicken, was covered with exquisity heart, with humble prayers to God for the men and women who are charged with ad-gray down, had a long black bill b kg knowledge of the way of salvation, he being ministering to the wants of the poor among the end, a beautiful blue eye, the slines now become weary both of the heavy load of us. sin, and of the doctrines and worships of men's making."

Thomas Story relates that in a meeting

adds:-

few words which was granted; and I spoke for the priesthood. A Methodist deacon is to this effect. That I had once been among elected by the annual conference, and ore thing gray, never against any thing of the property of the price of the in silence and rest, is not true, nor can any sing in that state; though I did not accuse them of pride, but this for instance.' I proceeded further, and said, That the Apostle Paul says, I will pray with the spirit, and of the largest in the United States, recently beholders. with the understanding also, and sing also in like manner; and speaks of making melody in of beer-drinking: the heart to the Lord in bymns and spiritual songs; but nothing of singing other men's psalms without the Spirit: And that I had sion to note the deaths among a large group nor salted meat. Grasshoppers, cricket observed in those countries, among those who of persons whose habits in their own eyes and butterflies are especially welcome. 1 think themselves reformed, a great deal of in the those of their friends and physicians most accomplished catcher of hous images, pictures and outward show, and also high and lofty instruments of music; which of beer. When the observation began they which was let loose near the bird. had not been duly considered in their reformation."-Life, p. 508.

For "The Friend." Religious Items. &c.

Deacons and Deaconesses.—P. Schaff, in the S. S. Times, discusses the duties connected original proportions the mortality in it was took a dry crust be could not break, and with these offices in the primitive Church, astounding in extent and still more remarkable ping it in the pool, waited until it wi and recommends the revival of them at the in the manifest identity of cause and mode. present time. The first appointment of deacons is mentioned in the 6th chapter of Acts. and grew out of complaints among the Greek-Jews, that their widows were neglected in the daily ministration at the common love-malaria, and instantly some acute disease this seemed inexplicable, but the develo feasts. This duty had before devolved on the apostles, who now recommended the brethren to select seven men to whose care it should be poor and sick—they were alms distributors there was utter collapse; every fibre was of his flight. I have seen the wild du and nurses. This care probably implied instruction and consolation as well as bodily relief, and the men selected for the office were of strong faith and exemplary piety.

There appears also at an early day to have been deaconesses, who exercised a similar care over the female portion of the congregation. In the East the sexes were much more strictly separated (as they are at this day among the Mohammedans, Jews and Gentiles) than in Christian Europe and America. Hence there was a practical necessity for a special class of instinctive, and which were the result of his head, he wets himself thoroughly. female officers who had access to their own training or imitation, D. A. Goodsell, of New then goes to the sunniest spot, and, pa sex and could discharge such charitable duties Haven, obtained during last summer a young each feather between his mandibles, cons more easily and effectually than men. Phebe Stormy Petrel, just hatched, on a rocky island an hour at his toilet. So far as I have is called a deaconess (diakona) of the congre- a few miles from Mt. Desert, Maine. His ob- this dressing of his feathers is in a de gation at Cenchrea, and by her Paul sent his servations are published in the Christian Ad-order, and leaves him as smooth and sle Epistle to the Romans.—Rom. xvi. 1.

These officers of the primitive church seem

coness was continued down to the end of the with irregular brown spots. He was 12th century. In the Roman Church the con- the color of the rock on which the t among the Menists, in Holland, after his gregational deaconesses were superseded by that I almost stepped on him withous meeting closed, one of them read a verse of a sisterhoods devoted to charitable work. The him. It seems that this may be one in Psalm and some of the company sang. He term "deacon" as used among the modern protective resemblances of which nat Reform churches has very different meanings. vides a multitude. To this day, June "The song ended, I desired to be heard a An Episcopal deacon is simply a candidate that is the name the children gave in a custom among many still: But I desired and to solemnize marriage, and to do the I brought him from Mt. Desert in them to consider the foundation of their sing-duties of a travelling preacher. In the Luth-basket, which the Indians made for hi ing, whether it was any part of the worship eran church of Germany, a "diaconus" is an was very quiet, but alert, on the stear of God, or that He required it of them as afternoon preacher, or chaplain, or assistant the cars. I put him in the state-roof such; and also whether they all sung their minister, but equal in standing with regular bowl for a bath, which he took in the own conditions; for things might be true in clergymen. A Congregational deacon is what rapturous manner. In the two days the Psalmist which were not so in them: as a lay-elder is in the Presbyterian churches journey be ate three times his weight for instance, a high-minded, proud man's sing- In the Dutch and German Reformed churches, gorging pieces of a size far beyond ing that he behaves himself as a weaned child the deacon comes nearest the primitive func-parent capacity. I believe that his lov tions of taking care of the poor and attending unlocks, in order to accomplish his man to the temporalities of the congregation.

> necticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, one weeks it continued, to the astonishmei fi gave the following testimony as to the effects

great population of beer-drinkers, I had occa- very fond. Tainted meat he will not were temperate; but they were habitual users One day the children eaught a live were upon the average something under mid- could have caught it more quickly. dle age, and they were, of course, selected it by the tail, tossed it, and caught it lives. For two or three years there was noth- head, crushed it flat, and, accidentally ing very remarkable to be noted among this ping it, took it by the tail, carried it group. Presently death began to strike it; pool, swung it back and forth until cles and until it had dwindled to a fraction of its then swallowed it. On another occas

"There was no mistaking it; the history was almost invariable: robust, apparent health, the most comical manner. He would full muscles, a fair outside, increasing weight, his little stumps of wings, and hop us florid faces; then a touch of cold or a sniff of down for minutes together. For a lon with, almost invariably, typhoid symptoms, of his wings has solved the mystery. was in violent action, and ten days or less wing was not clipped, he would now fl ended it. It was as if the system had been when he tries to fly he invariably tur kept fair outside, while within it was eaten ward the wind, and leaps up to catch the The office of deacons was the care of the to a shell, and at the first touch of disease rent against his wings to assist the begin poisoned and weak.

"And this, in its main features, varying of stinct of flight before the growth of the course, in degree, has been my observation in struck me as very remarkable. beer-drinking everywhere. It is peculiarly deceptive at first; it is thoroughly destructive thereafter, he had but one note-an exat the last."

For "The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

Instinctive Actions.-In order to determine species. His delight in bathing is imp which of the motions of young animals were With fluttering of his wings, and bobbi

When found, the young Petrel was, legs, and very delicately webbed fe In the Eastern churches the office of dea- color was exactly that of the egg, da feats of deglutition. This voracity Beer Drinking .- The President of the Con- marked now that he is grown; but He accepts and rejects various art e food without hesitation. Of fresh fis "In one of our largest cities, containing a sters, clams, oysters, and fresh meating ened, and then ate it.

From the first he had a habit of dance the same on rising from the water.

When first caught, and for a long ingly plaintive piping. He has since, wi the possibility of hearing one of his kin quired two others. One is the laugh-v gives the name Larus Ridibundus t possible. In his play the gull nature ch ol, elimb on a box near by, and then fly cob, and bear it off, as old gulls do with need a mirror where Jumbo could see n image, instantly his feathers bristled the charged furiously on the mirror. tting his supposed foe, he flew at him Meeting with no better success, he I behind the glass; stood with an apse facts are surely enough to show that as the Tomato. he egg, though wholly separate from le and teaching, his instincts suffice to Is his own kind; to acquire the art of them martyrs for money .- Wm. Penn. ng and throwing objects as the wild es with fish; to turn toward the wind st his flight; to leap from the ground t the wind to assist the beginning of ht; to acquire all the characteristic gullin short, without example or teaching, ome an independent and well-ordered for the destruction of those reptiles, it can be of true spiritual benefit. 0, rewards were paid for the killing of 6 snakes; and in 1881, for 254,968. been proposed to extend this system een organized to destroy the pests, and up that homage which is his due. gage in this occupation.

of tunnels were run into a steep hill, 0,000 lbs. of powder were placed in six ers at their termination. The blast and performing what it calls for. ed by electricity, on the 11th of First cts of Diet on Liability to Infection .le distemper. He found that those fed esisted the effects of the inoculation.

ikes the cob or spool, throws it up, mies of building stone are of three kinds—to those who wait on the Lord. s it, and then parades about, ba-ha-ing at chemical, mechanical and organic. Among cess. Sometimes he will drop the cob in the chemical agents are various acids, am-written by Robert Jordan, of North Carolina, monia, &c., found in rain water. Frost is an in 1736, which shows that the Church nearly effective means of destruction. A granite 150 years ago was troubled in some places, by Egypt, was removed to Paris, and in forty years was found to be full of cracks .- Sci.

Vegetable Rennet.—In endeavoring to introduce cheese-making as an additional branch of agricultural operations in India, it was ee of astonishment at not finding his essential to find some substitute for animal then went back in front of the mir-rennet in curdling the milk, as the natives d flew at his own shadow again. Once would not touch cheese made with it. It was he went behind the mirror, this time found that the fruit of the Punceria coagulans, he other side. There he stood for a a shrub common in Afghanistan and Northern nt, and then walked away, and has not India, possessed the property of eurdling milk. It belongs to the same family of plants

I have myself once known some, that to nine his proper food; to bathe and dress get money have wearied themselves into the thers; to wash the dirt from his food; grave; and, to be true to their principles, rete himself by lying near or upon an when sick, would not spare a fee to a doctor of similar tint; to soften by water that to help the poor slave to live; and so died to he cannot otherwise eat; to recognize save charges; a constancy that canonizes

THE FRIEND.

THIRD MONTH 10, 1883.

A living Gospel ministry is a great blessing to the Church, and was undoubtedly designed ! Indian Snakes.—The destruction of for the edifying of the body, as well as for the life by the bites of poisonous snakes awakening of sinners. Yet it should ever be tish India (amounting to about 19,000 borne in mind that it is only as it proceeds in a year) and the loss of cattle from from the Spirit of God and is accompanied me cause have led to the offering of re- with his blessing and life-giving power, that

We think it was William Dewsbury, who in speaking of our early Friends said, that t of the loss of life is caused by four being unable to perform Divine worship of s, which are numerous and deadly. The themselves, when they met together, they poisonous species are either less numer-could do no other than wait in spirit on the less aggressive. Gangs of snake hunters Lord, and seek from Him for ability to offer

In accordance with this is the language of thout all the districts. One difficulty Isaac Penington: "I freely confess, all my sed by the religious scruples of most religion stands in waiting on the Lord for the dency to promote infidelity, by giving grounds os, who regard it as unlawful to take riches of his Spirit, and in returning back to e, even of a poisonous serpent, so that the Lord (by his own Spirit, and in the virtue aly men belonging to certain castes that of his own life,) that which He pleaseth to bestow on me. And I have no faith, no love ting Rock.—At the limestone quarry of no hope, no peace, no joy, no ability to any endon Iron Company, Easton, Pa., a thing, no refreshment in anything, but as I find his living breath beginning, his living breath continuing, his living breath answering,

When prayer, praise or exhortation arises . The amount of rock displaced was from the motion of this Spirit on the hearts ted at 130,000 tons. from the motion of this Spirit on the hearts of any, in a gathered assembly, it is truly refreshing to those who are prepared to receive sor Feser, of Munich, in experimenting it. But where the Spirit of the Lord is not believe it required of them to open their subject inoculated rats with the poison the moving power, the preacher cannot reach mouths in the assemblies of the Lord's people; the witness for God or impart true religious but to eall attention to the evil fruits that etable diet were quickly attacked with instruction, no matter how learnedly he may may be expected to be produced by a minis-sease, while those fed exclusively with talk of the doctrines of the Gospel, or of the try which has not the Divine sanction, and precepts contained in the Holy Scriptures, rests on the will and wisdom of man. ay of Building-stone.—In a paper on this The benefit of a meeting is not therefore to t, by Prof. Julien, of Columbia College, be measured by the amount of preaching ion is called to the effect of the weather heard therein; for we sometimes experience one. Marble is gradually dissolved on there is that which darkeneth counsel by seventh Congress expired at noon on the 4th instant.

ongly. For a long time he has had a the outside and washed down. It undergoes words without knowledge; and at other times be at one end of the yard, and a thread-internal disintegration, and also bends and we are favored to find in seasons of silence at the other. Half-flying, half-running, eracks. Brown stone wears away. The ene-that renewal of strength which is promised

> We have been much impressed with a letter obelisk that had stood for forty centuries in a ministry which was not of Divine appointment. The letter says.

> > "I am often cast down at the evidence of false ministry prevailing in many places, and am weary of contending in spirit against it; though not weary of suffering for the truth. It is a clear and incontrovertible fact, that in proportion to the declension of religion in the root and life, preaching increases, to the lessening the credit and authority of the ministry, and rendering it contemptible. I am confirmed in my judgment, and have been many years, that as the ministry was, and the sincere ministry yet is, instrumental to gather the churches, it is now proceeding apace to scatter them, and this through the working of the mystery of iniquity, with the heat and forwardness of man's spirit.

> > "To some, yea to many, that silence and passiveness of mind, so essential to the performance of these calm, meck and deliberate acts of worship, is as strange and irksome, as it is by their conduct rendered useless to the people. But though we cannot help seeing, we are told we must say nothing; all is revelation, all is perfect, and there is great peace. To put it out of all doubt, we are often told they are under a mighty sense of life and power, are under heavy burdens, and sore exercises; but whether they lay them on themselves or not. I shall not determine. These find it easier to do than to suffer till the Master gives direction and makes way.

> > "Some measure their service by their noise, and would prove a Divine gift by human wit and extacy; and while they are full of peace and joy, the church mourns. Even prophesying is coming pretty much into practice, several instances of which have proved talse and ridienlous.

"Some who preach up self-denial and mortification, can hardly bear contradiction, much less reproof; and though they preach up humility, they aspire to the chief seats and the uppermost rooms.

of suspicion that the noble principle, the holy unction, the light and superadded grace that comes by Jesus Christ, is either uncertain or dangerous to follow.

"The nature of man is subject to extremes, being apt to step out of a state of superstition into that of unbelief. In short. I may conclude by saying with John Fothergill, 'that the distemper in the ministry is the greatest in the church.' Robert Jordan.

We print this letter not to discourage any humble, sincere followers of Christ, who may

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.-The last session of the Fortynont, was closed President protempore of the Senate, south for fifty miles, is covered with water. Corn, tittle people have to maintain fife is through to succeed David Davis, resigned, Senator Bayard refences and live stock have been destroyed, but there is less yet enough the control of the Covernment is evil by certain the control of the Covernment is evil by certain the control of the Covernment is evil by certain the covernment is evil by The Tax-Tariff bill was passed by the House by a vote of 152 yeas to 116 nays. All the General Appropriation bills were passed, but the River and Harbor bill failed in the Senate.

Ten thousand six hundred and seventy bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the Forty-seventh Congress, 8018 in the House and 2652 in the Senate. During the session just closed, besides the regular annual appropriation bills, 163 bills and joint resolutions passed The aggregate amount appropriated by tion bills is $229,327,511. The aggregate both Houses. the appropriation bills is $229,327,511. The a of last year's appropriations was $219,367,983.

The provisions of the Tax-Tariff bill, including the repeal of the stamp tax on bank checks, drafts, orders and vouchers will take effect on the 1st of Seventh month next. Exception, however, is made in regard to the tariff duties on sugar, which will take effect on 6th mo. 1st, and the reduction of the taxes on tobacco, snuff and cigars, and the reduction of the special liceuse taxes which will go into effect on 5th mo. 1st.

The public debt, less cash in the Treasury, on 2d mo. 28th, was $1,892,542,863, and the reduction during last month was $7,630,678.

An election was held in San Francisco on Seventhday on the question of adopting a new charter, 18,613 votes were polled. The official cauvass of the vote shows that the charter was defeated by 32 votes. Fraud is suspected, and many protests have been filed.

Secretary Folger, on the 5th inst., ordered that the word "cents" be added to the new five-cent piece, to meet the requirements of the law.

The total coinage of the U. S. Mint during 2d month included 7,862,840 pieces of all denominations, valued at $4,548,860. The number of standard silver dollars turned out was 2,400,000.

During the twelve mouths which ended on 1st mo. 31st, 1883, our imports of merchandise amounted in of middlings are reported at 103 a 103 cts. per pound value to $752,727,367, and our exports for the same for uplands and New Orleans.

period were $783,298,409. A forestry bulletin just issued from the Census Bureau, relates to the forests of West Virginia. It says the forests have been largely removed from the Ohio river counties, and that the most valuable timber along the principal streams has been culled in nearly every part do., at $5.50 a $6.35, and patents at $6.50 a $8. Rye dangerous. Cold weather seems to cause met of the State. The area still occupied by white pine is estimated in the State. The area still occupied by white pine is estimated by the State. timated to extend over 310 square miles, and to contain 990 million feet of merchantable lumber. The lumber bushels red, in car lots at $1.18 a $1.24. product of the State for the census year was 180,112,000 feet lumber, 1,207,000 laths, 3,695,000 shingles, 41,992,-000 staves and 1,952,000 sets of headings, in all valued at $2,431,857

Alexander II. Stephens, Governor of Georgia, and ex-Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, died in Atlanta on the morning of the 4th inst., at half-past three o'clock. He was in the 72d year of his age.

A very large and brilliant meteor was seen early on First-day morning at Petersburg, Virginia. It is described as "an immense ball of fire darting across the heavens, brilliantly illuminating the entire city, so that a newspaper might have been read with ease. Its course was northwest, and its explosion was heard shortly afterwards.

The total losses by the floods in the Ohio and Wabash rivers are estimated by the New York Herald at $8, 048,000, of which $2,250,000 falls on Cincinnati and its suburbs, and $1,000,000 on Louisville. More than 6000 dwellings in the Ohio Valley were swept away or wrecked beyond repair. The figures given do not include the losses from a suspension of business and trade, for the construction of two steamers, The subsidence of the floods is taking place very slowly, the same size and speed as the Fulda, and are to run and it may be a mouth after the waters have resumed their usual limits before the manufacturers along the river banks can get to work. The inhabitants of the inundated districts suffer terribly, the principal needs being provisions, bedding and clothing. From some of sors Huxley and Tyndall, Herbert Spencer, the pub-the smallar towns come appeals for medicines, and it is lishers of John Stuart Mill's works, John Morley, and feared that as the waters subside there will be a prevalence of typhoid and malarial fevers. The Cincinnati unbelief, and in some cases rank atheism." Commercial Gazette prints a detailed report of the losses by the flood at Lawrenceburg, Indiana, which foots up people here is alarming. Crowds of persons are be

Later reports from the overflowed country along the Mississippi show that the "sunk lands" in the St. in the St. Francis river region are entirely submerged. Nearly the people. as far south as Helena there are few places above water, and the people are living in the upper stories of their houses, where there is more than one story, and when they will be employed in a cotton factory. there is not, "floating around on rafts or in boats." The of Guardians has voted £50 towards furnishing the streets of New Madrid are submerged to the depth of emigrants with an outlit. two to four feet. The whole country back of that place

During its closing hours, George F. Edmunds, of Ver- as far as Cairo, on the Missouri side, and from Hickman is published, in which he says the only chancing fences and live stock have been destroyed, but there is He says the policy of the Government is evil the > last year will be reached. The trestle on the Helena branch of the Iron Mountain Railroad, at Longville river, which a week before was forty feet above the river, was threatened on the 5th with total submersion. The water is also rising at Arkansas City. The levees in the districts mentioned remain intact, and the planters are putting in their crops. A later despatch reports a serious break in the Pastoria levee, in Chicot county, > Arkansas, which will flood many plantations.

> On the 1st instant, the Chief of Police of Philadelphia presented to the City Commissioners a list of 155 places where licences to sell liquor are recommended to be refused. The following letter accompanies the request!

"I am directed by the Mayor to forward you reports of the Police Lieutenants of the drinking houses in their respective districts that are the resorts of thieves, lewd and disorderly persons. These places are well-known to the officers of this department, as appears by the criminal record of each station-house, and therefore carnestly protest against license being granted for the sale of liquor to the proprietors of such places

The deaths in this city last week numbered 404, which was 46 more than for the previous week, and one less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the whole number, 216 were males, and I88 females: 61 died of consumption; 30 of pneumonia; 20 of dien regard to secret societies still receive diphtheria; 19 of old age; 13 of typhoid fever; 12 of ing letters. The trial of the Socialists at Pr dipitherna; 19 of old age; 13 of typhold lever; 12 of ing letters. The trial of Bright's disease of the kidneys, and 6 of small-pox. been adjourned because Markets, &c.—U. S. 38, 104; 3½'s 104; 4½'s, 112\(\frac{1}{5}\); registered, 118\(\frac{1}{5}\); coupon, 119\(\frac{1}{5}\); currency 6's 129 charges of high treasure.

Cotton continues quiet, but prices were steady. Sales

Petroleum.-Standard white, 73 a 75 cts. for export, and 8 a 8 cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour is in moderate demand and steady. Sales of suicide. A woman is less apt to take liquo 2900 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.75 a man, but when she does she can hardly be re $6.75; Pennsylvania family at $5.12\{\} a $5.25; western She becomes shameless and abominable, but Grain.-Wheat was a fraction higher. Sales of 4700 Rye is firm at 72 cts. Corn is in fair request and local lots are steady. Sales of 10,000 bushels, in lots, at 60 a 70\frac{3}{2} cts. At the open board 70\frac{3}{2} cts, was bid for futures. Oats are quiet, United States stands first with the two most in but steady. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots, at 53 a articles of flesh food-cattle and hogs-and th 57 ets.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 3d mo. 3rd, 1883. — Loads of hay, 385; loads of straw, 80, strides to a higher position. These statistics of Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 90 United States with 38,000,000 cattle, India v ets. to $1 per 100 pounds; mixed, 80 a 90 ets. per 100 000,000, and Russia with 20,000,000. Furth head arrived and sold at the different yards at 54 a 74

cts, per lb., the latter rate for extra Sheep were in fair demand and firmly held: 8500 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 45 a 7 cts., and lambs at 43 a 8 cts. per lb. as to condition. Hogs were a fraction higher; 3500 head arrived and Africa with 15,000,000, and Mexico with 6,000 sold at the different yards at 101 a 11 cts. per lb., as to Foreign.-The North German Lloyds Steamship Company has made a contract with John Elder & Co. They are to be of between New York and Bremen. The names of the 3rd mo. 17th, at 10 o'clock, in the third-story new steamers will be the Ems and the Eider.

The London Society for the Suppression of Blasphemous Literature propose to get up cases against Professors Huxley and Tyndall, Herbert Spencer, the pubothers, who, "by their writings, have sown widespread Loughrea, 2nd mo. 28th.—The distress among the sieging the houses of the priests, clamoring for food. The Town Commissioners have been hurriedly convened to take measures toward relieving the wants of

Limerick, 3rd mo. 1st.-Three hundred women will start from here this week for New Hampshire, where made to the Superintendent, or to any of the fences and live stock mave over which in destitution among the people yet.

A letter from the Bisbop of Rawhoe, County Donegal,

The latest reports from the Lower Mississippi show that the water at Helena is rising at the rate of an inch the Government is willing to settle the pre in the control of the states of Dines in Schleswick and the state of the states of Dines in Schleswick and basis that only those living there, born befor it ing the year 1864, shall be exempted from the military service.

The cost of the government of Paris is a than $50,000,000 annually.

It is stated that W. E. Gladstone, in his on the 27th ult. with President Grevy and C La Cour, Minister of Foreign Affairs, apperdi desirous to bring about an end of the presen between France and England. It is believed negotiations relative to Egypt are impendin hitherto, on the basis of a condominium, b arrangement that will place France in a more of position than she now occupies.

The relations between Germany and Englara ported to be better now than they have bee years. The North German Gazzette expresses th satisfaction at this state of affairs. Germany bas given 1000 marks to the fund fe lief of sufferers by the floods in America.

The Madrid Imparcial says the Socialisticalled the "Black Hand" numbers 49,910 in and includes 990 minor societies, with Gener centre for Western Europe. The existence of of the Black Hand Society has been discovered madura. The Judges who are conducting thei been adjourned because the preliminary exa resulted in the implication of other person

The Russian Minister of War has issued prohibiting all connection with the press of serving in the army or in its departments

Drunkenness has been investigated by Verga, of Milan. Men or women given to inte are, strange to say, seldom given to klepton ence upon women.

Live stock statistics for the chief producing of the world have been collected and compare second in horses, and fourth in sheep, but th regard to the latter two items, she is makir pounds; straw, 55 to 65 cts. per 100 pounds. shown that Russia has 20,000;000 horses, the Beef cattle were dull and prices were easier: 2300 States 10,500,000. and Austria 3,500,000. passesses 80,000,000 sheep, the Argentine I 68,000,000, and Russia 63,000,000. The Unite -fourth in this list-has 36,000,000, but in the of swine she heads the world, having 48,000,0 goats, India is credited with no less than 20,

> Valuable coal discoveries continue to be madeast coast of Vancouver's Island, British Colun

> WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL A Stated Meeting of the COMMITTEE ON ADI is to be held in Philadelphia on Seventh-day n No. 304 Arch street.

> FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSA The Annual Meeting of the Contributors
> "Asylum for the Relief of Persons deprived of of their Reason," will be held on Fourth-day month 14th, 1883, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Con room of Arch St. Meeting-house, Philadelphia. THOS. SCATTERGOOD,

> FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSA Near Frankford, (Twenty-third Ward,) Philade Physician and Superintendent-JOHN C. HAL Applications for the Admission of Patients of Managers.

> > WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, THIRD MONTH 17, 1883.

NO. 32.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid iadvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

JOHN S. STOKES.

). 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

ila, Countess von der Recke Volmerstein. BORN 1801. DIED 1867. mny childhood a favorite book was "The be idle, and for many years he has had, to his own door, on his estate of Crasch-a happy Home for poor imbeeile chil-on the 10th of 11th mo, 1878.

dren, whom the aged Count still watches with hard life he had chosen. At last, however, it tender interest.3

self to the care of his large family he felt that tilda could give that care. Matilda's mind he had no time to think of getting married. was already prepared to accept as her future He thought too that a wife who was not husband one whose judgment she had learned God was dearer to him than any earthly hap-disappointment was a great trial, she left herpiness. God had, however, other thoughts self in God's hands, and He at last opened a woman, one "who feareth the Lord," and who It was a joyful day when Count Adelberdt also "looketh well to the ways of her house- took home his bride. Long before they aphold," is a help and not a hindrance to her proached Düsselthal many people came to meet husband. And so, in a far-off home, led by them, so that they "passed through the gate God's hand, and taught by his Spirit, a young with a great company." The garden in front girl was being trained to become, at the age of the house was illuminated, and they had on shore, the rescued dove shared the me in all good resolutions which I make now, it, to preserve and dry fruit, to visit the sick, afast of bread and milk which he had and always let me recognise thy grace, that to dry the state of the point the garden seat. From her eastle I may turn away more and more from all. Here is a picture of her, later on, from her

If to the needs of the large family. It was preparing. Matilda read with interest the money for this object, because all they in 1819 that Count von der Recke Volten opened his Home with three orphans, and in 1825 they met for the first time. The eend of the year he had forty-four chilcount felt a great interest about her, and she orphans. to take care of, and the numbers rapidly looked up to him with reverence and trust, became clear to him that his adopted children While Count Adelberdt was devoting him-needed a loving mother's care, and that Maentirely consecrated would only hinder his to lean upon; but her father decided that the work; and that work which he was doing for count was too poor to marry. Though this Dove," it is a true story of a German of twenty-five, the mother of this great Home. quite a festal reception. A few days after the One day, when a little boy, he saw a Matilda, Countess von Pfeil, now comes Countess Matilda writes: "To set before you, dove drowning in the middle of a deep before us; she was of noble birth, and fitted, my dear parents, the duties of all sorts that He did not stop to think of danger to both by her natural powers and by education, I have would be impossible to-day. I will off, he only thought, "that poor dove will to shine in society; but if this had been all, only say in haste that, thank God, I am getdowned if I do not save it." He found thousands would not still bless her memory, ting on very well here; that I am well, and the pond a washing tub, and getting into as is the case now. At the age of twelve from the o'clock in the morning till half-past what a stick for an oar, paddled out to the Matilda sought her Saviour. When fifteen ten at night I am not free from work. I have bened bird. He took it up tenderly, she dedicated herself to God in writing; you. tis wet feathers, and, unfastening his ing to give up everything, that she might be fare for four tables, to see after the meals coat, placed it in his bosom. When a partaker of His grace. "Only strengthen every day, to give out work and superintend was his mother watched her boy's peril-that is earthly to thee alone; that to me, too, daughter's pen. "While a girl watched by oyage with tears of mingled joy and Christ my Saviour may one day say, 'Come, the cradle of her sleeping child, the young and her prayer was that when her thou blessed of my Father, enter thou into morning, in the dairy, busily skimming the and to his fellow men as he then was to These were no mere words. At the age of cream; then in the store-room; later in the als; for it was not only doves that he be- twenty-three she wrote: "Living to God gives dairy again, washing the butter herself; then ded.

at prayer was answered. When grown to the outward unpleasantnesses of the present; giving out work, visiting the sick, and later ood, Adelberdt's heart went out towards which, indeed, cannot be made better by com- by the child's cradle with the great account ittle ragged children made orphans by plaining of them. Oh, if I could only share books. At mid-day again in the kitchen; leon's wars. Though a count he was this peace with everybody I should be quite and I remember that one day, about ten his father having had severe losses from happy."

At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy, sharing dred helpings of meat, she fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was very busy at the fell down faint by At this time she was cablished a Home for these poor children, some of their studies with her brothers and the kitchen table." To show how she denied ed that God would help him with the sisters, reading religious books for her own herself I will mention one incident. After s wherewith to carry it on. And God profit, helping in the kitchen, and doing all her marriage her mother wrote to ask her elp him, and when the purse or flour-bin she could for her poorer neighbors, teaching and the count to have their likenesses painted, empty, always supplied the want, often the children, and visiting the sick and afflicted but the Countess Matilda replied that they ong the exact sum required, or food just Little did she foresee the life for which she did not feel that it would be right to spare

God gave to the count and countess ten ased; so that, between that time and as to one who was far more experienced and children of their own, and she who was a good bresent, thousands of destitute children could help her in spiritual things. But he mother to the orphans was a most tender been helped and sheltered in the Instident help her in spiritual things. But he mother to the orphans was a most tender been helped and sheltered in the Instident help her in spiritual things. But he mother to the orphans was a most tender here helped and sheltered in the Instident help her in spiritual things. But he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to them. All work that could be done in the mother to the orphans was a most tender help her in spiritual things. But he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the orphans was a most tender he mother to the mother to ded over it himself; but in 1847, worn question, "Is Matilda indeed the right wife their room. She often spent hours there over by hard work, he retired to a quieter for me?" For many months he sought to her accounts and other writings, the children expenses the still lives, and old man of more know God's will touching this matter. He playing around her, and she ever ready to give to them loving words and a helping band. grandehildren. But even then he could many comforts that she would not like the As they grew older she found for them teachers, whom she could trust, to give them good * The Count has since died. He departed this life teaching and to lead them on in the heavenly way. Her daughter says of her: "She did learning to help with love and pleasure, and press. to emulate her, although we might never attermissions this busy, happy life went on for twenty years. The countess was the joy of her husband's heart, yet they seldom met, except at meals, from the early morning till late in the evening. But he knew that everything under her care was in order and going on well, while he was fully occupied in his own department. Was not this a rest and help to him? Of her it might be said, during the forty years of their married life, "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil."

After leaving Düsselthal the countess enjoyed the opportunity of more uninterrupted association with her family and friends. Still pure gold in the sanctuary ever had, and still tion of the Inundation of St. Petersb the claims of the poor and the sick were never forgotten by her. The failing of her health, was gradual, and the last illness short. Very tenderly was she watched over by her husband and children, and the thoughtfulness for all around, which had characterized her from early life, was continually apparent. The Saviour whom she trusted for her salvation in the beginning of her Christian course was her strength all through the dark as well as on her Lord, "in quietness and confidence," receiving doubtless the fulfilment of her degrace of God, which bath appeared to all bed this morning, would exhibit. On sire, uttered fifty one years before, "That to men, and brings salvation, will not make us ing the apartment of my hostess to re me, too, Christ my Saviour may one day say, partakers of it in any other way, or by any my breakfast to be sent into my root to God, and lie open to the influences of in us, we are utterly incapable of all the bless usual walk; but, to my surprise, I four heaven; then it is, that the Sun of righteousings of the gospel of Christ. All that He hath heaven is usual wark, out, to my surprise, I come heaven; then it is, that the Sun of righteousings of the gospel of Christ. All that He hath were so surrounded by water that I ness doth visit us with his directest rays, and done for us, without us, will avail nothing, obliged to return home. On telling my dissipateth our darkness, and imprinteth his unless we be inwardly transformed, and re-lady that we lived in an island, she smill image on our souls. As there is one sort of newed in the spirit of our minds, unless we me, not aware of the fearful consequence prayer, wherein we make use of the voice, become new creatures, unless we make it the very soon followed. Observing the se and another wherein, though we utter no continual and sincere endeavor of our lives to of an English-woman, who lived under sound, yet we conceive the expressions and keep the commandments of God. The obedistance of unable to reach home in her reform the words, as it were, in our minds; so ence and sufferings of our blessed Saviour, are from marketing, I proceeded to go and in there is a third and more sublime kind of indeed accounted to us for righteousness, and her mistress of her situation, and crosse there is a time and more subline Kind of prayer, wherein the soul takes a higher flight, will most certainly redound to our unspeak, yard to her apartment dry-shod; althoug and having collected all its forces by long and serious meditation, it datted itself, (if I may serious meditation, it datted itself, (if I may so speak) toward God in sighs and groams, that every man that names the name of the yard. I stepped on a cellar-window and thoughts too big for expression. As when, the stepped of the continuous contamplation of the lighten was contamplating of the lighten was contamplated by the light was contamplated by the after a deep contemplation of the Divine per-fections, appearing in all his works of wonder, perform this condition, if we carnestly ask it, concluded no time must be lost in making it addresseth itself to Him in the profoundest and do sincerely co-operate with it; provided way home: I waded through it, and h adoration of his majesty and glory: or when, we do what we can on our part, God will not hesitated many minutes longer, the ris after sad reflections on its vileness and miscarriages, it prostrates itself before Him with grace of God in vain, and take no care to per-reached my home. A hole was afterw the greatest confusion and sorrow, not daring form the condition, and neglect to implore obliged to be ent in the wall of the same be to lift up its eyes, or utter one word in his prest the grace and assistance of God's Holy Spirit house, to save the life of a woman who not teach by many words, but she did so beauty of holiness, and the unspeakable feli-ourselves; because it is then our own much the more powerfully and lastingly by city of those who are truly good, it panteth we fall short of that happiness which her example. It was impossible to see her in after God, and sendeth np such vigorous and her untiring, vigorous, silent activity, without ardent desires, as no words can sufficiently ex

Gleanings from Quaker Annals.

This mental prayer is, of all other, the most tain to her many-sided efficiency; for what-effectual to purify the soul, and dispose it ever she undertook she succeeded in amply unto a holy and religious temper, and may be for the fulfilment of her duty or for the plea termed the great secret of devotion, and one of sure of others; and everything which came the most powerful instruments of the divine life: under her observation, which went on in the and, it may be, that the apostle hath a pecuworld, or of which she read, awoke her lively liar respect unto it, when he saith, that the attained, but looking forward, with interest." In addition to her other work she Spirit helpeth our infirmities, making intertook upon her the labor of dispensing medi-cession for us with groanings which cannot cines to the sick, and the people came from be uttered, or, as the original may bear, that miles round to consult her. With a few in cannot be worded."

> Let ministers be careful not to judge too theless there is a time to be athirst, i highly of any of their services; for it is only that we may know how to estimat when the breath of the Lord blows through which ministers refreshment and st the trumpet, that life and harmony are known, Sound faith and love, patience and pe and the great truth is evinced, that it is only lance, are the cardinal points of a Ct his own works that praise Him, or benefit the traveller, after boxing the compass fro churches: nothing that man can do. In most to side! places, the elders want to stand deeper in Jordan. A more unreserved, total sacrifice of the world must be made, and even the accursed thing east out of some of their tents, before they can stand as valiants for the Lord's cause upon earth. Every shekel of insertion in our columns, a poetical d must have, the signature of Holiness upon 1824, brought from Russia by Thoma it; for what is of man is but man: the Lord litoe, who was there when it occurre > and purity are known again amongst us, then St. Petersburg is built on low grounds the glory of the Lord will appear as in former River Neva, and the flood occasioned years; and his praise sound forth through all destruction. The following description the churches.

The salvation which the Son of God hath the bright days of her life, and her love to purchased for us, and which He offers to us but little sleep last night, from the most by the gospel, is not to be accomplished and tempest of wind and some rain, which In 1867 she died as she had lived, resting brought about any other way, than by for remember. I little expected what an saking our sins and reforming our lives. The scene this city in a few hours after I leading to the fulfillment of hours. Come, thou blessed of my Father, enter thou other means, than by teaching us to deny un asked if there had been much rain in the godliness and worldly lusts, and to live sober as there were much water in the street ly, righteonsly and godly in this present supposing, as afterwards proved to be the world. God sent his Son to bless us, by turn-that this water floated up the common se ing us away every one from his iniquities; from the swell of water in the river. In prayer, we make the nearest approach and unless this change be effectually wrought taking my breakfast, I proceeded to tak hath purchased and promised to us, ut reasonable and easy conditions as the

My fellow Christian travellers to land of promised rest; where human sickness, sorrow, and perplexing thin ing from ourselves or others, will r offend; let us press on; not as hav faith in that invincible Power, when our spiritual enemies may be subdue Satan trodden under our feet. The m press after the pure river of life, the ma shall drink of its refreshing streams;

Inundation of St. Petersburg.

[The recent floods in our western bloweth upon it, and lo, it is nothing, however specious in the eyes of men.

"By whose landlady the lines were we ever specious in the eyes of men."

"By whose landlady the lines were we have a specious in the eyes of men." I see clearly that when the ancient simplicity Westtown School when he was there in occurrence is from T. S.'s Journal.-En

"Sixth-day, 19th of eleventh month." ence: or when, having well considered the to that purpose, we have none to blame but taken shelter there. After I left it, get wading up to their arm-pits in the water; T the foot path on to the road, where it Daniel Wheeler, and his family, in con have been over her head. Horses and quence of his high situation had escaped." ges were swimming in the streets, until in which I was a resident, was occupied grocer; the water rose up to the ceiling shop and his other apartments, without bout eleven o'clock the flood reached its t; from that time until about four o'clock afternoon, the most awful stillness I vitnessed prevailed: as far as my eyes see, not a person was to be observed at window, nor anything in the streets had life, excepting a poor horse that astened to a small cart, and had made ay thus far towards home, but durst not re further; he had preserved his life by ng his fore-feet on some steps, which lay above the foot-path, where we could obhe was only barely able to keep his h above the water. About four o'clock afternon, a policeman came in a boat, let this poor prisoner loose, when he into a yard that was near: this policewas the first person, except our own y, whom we had seen anywhere, from clock in the morning until this time in fternoon, when the water began to re-eventh-day, 20th of eleventh month, the s had left the streets: after breakfast I out to view the calamity, which this exdinary visitation to this magnificent city occasioned. Scarcely a bridge has es-I uninjured by it, and many are carried off their bearings: part of one of the bridge of boats across the Neva, was left ing against the walls of the palace: rafts, boats, with two of the large steam-boats ity, on what is called the island. Here ffeets were more severely felt than in the off their foundation, and carried out to some of these poor inhabitants were obd sitting on the roofs of their houses, to to have fallen victims to this awful , escaped. The number of horses, horned ccording to various reports, the emperor ed himself to be the father of his people, eaving the wants of such of his poor subas had suffered from the inundation, to nspection of the police, or any other of flicers, but going himself in person, and ding to their wants; so that it was beely a fence standing, on one side of the the land was covered with glass lights * Alexander of Russia.

f my wet clothes, I took my standing at from the gardeners' grounds, also temples, ters, widows, would have been spared their indows of our apartment: the streets summer-houses, boats, timber of various de-grief and tears!" soon exhibited a scene of great distress; scriptions, crosses out of the burial-grounds, parts of coffins, the dead bodies of some who coman up to her neck: I watched her had perished from the flood, and a variety of fought; but not without understanding and no little anxiety, expecting to see her cattle, that had perished also. My kind friend, lamenting the miseries of war. After the Daniel Wheeler, and his family, in conse-

lites not venture forward, the passing that over the dead, who use an extension of the lites and the same along the results of the streets eight feet; and Thy son of erwhelmed thy steels in splendid halls; the twelve feet. The ground-floor of the lites was a ride to the; Thro' every square, that was a pride to thee; All, all is still, save when whirlwinds roar, Or groans the drowning beast; or sounds the plashing shop and his other apartments, without mg him time to move his goods or house stuff, its progress was so sudden and stuff, its progress was so sud Whirled in confusion o'er thy splendid quay, Ships without masts, and human bodies lay,-Ten thousand shapeless things confused were seen, From temples, houses, wrecks of what had been.

Where stood a bridge, the Neva claimed her sway;
And floating hamlets, o'er her bosom lay.
But pause my muse! Thy pensive Queen to cheer, Her woes are soothed, a sovereign* wipes her tear;

His bosom melts, tho' monarch on a throne, And while he dries their tears, in sccret sheds his own. His generous deeds, his prudent, active zeal, No pen can tell, but every heart can feel. Ye holy angels! be on earth his guard, And final bliss in Heaven, his reward.

For "The Friend."

Bismarck and Wellington on War.

The following being the fearful, yet, no doubt, truthful experience of Bismarck, is cut from one of the daily papers. Would that more of our warriors, and especially statesmen holding influential positions in the government, yea, all who are in any wise accessory to, or responsible for such national and individual evil in principle or in practice, might have like feelings of sorrow and remorse unto lifting up the heart and the voice against all wars, as ever opposed to the reign of the Prince of Peace, and to the angelic anthem: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men."

How influential for good to ourselves and to others, is the power of deep conviction, when carried out into consistent living pracoyed in going to Cronstadt, were left in tice! "Fits of dejection" and "despondent moods" are not appropriate terms to represent the stirrings and strivings of the grace houses, with the people in them, were of Jesus in the heart. It is the Spirit of truth as our guide into all truth-promised before, and purchased, at least to a more full extent, by the Saviour's ever precious atoning sacrilife as long as they were able. On the fice-which convicts for sin. It is a belief in, arine Hoff road, in a row of cottages, two and an obedience to this saving power from red and fifty women and children were on high that, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, redeems man from his fallen tion; the men being from home at their and lost condition, and enables to realize the promise: "Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, e, and pigs, that perished, was said to be ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." The annexed is the slip alluded to:

"Bismarck is subject to fits of dejection, when he declares that his life has been a failure; that he has never made any one happy, neither himself, his family or the nation at large. 'If it were not for me,' he once said, when in a despondent mood, 'the world would d many were placed in a better condition have seen three great wars less, and eighty they were in before. First day, I walked thousand who died in their bloom might have to meeting: for two miles there was lived, and how many parents, brothers, sis-

To the foregoing, we would add a testimony concerning the Duke of Wellington:-" He battle of Waterloo he shed bitter tears, and made the remark, that even such a victory was no compensation to him personally for the death of his friends, whatever relation it might have in other respects. In regard to civil wars in particular, he once made the decisive declaration, which shows that in his case the spirit of war had not quelled or overruled the spirit of humanity, that such was his sense of the horrors of civil war, if he could be the means of preventing even one month of civil contest in his own country, he would sacrifice his life in order to do it.

Who cannot see that wars have thrown back civilization, humanity, and religion; as well as opened the flood-gates of vice and immorality, sad proof of one of the fruits of the evil tree? And upon whom does the responsibility rest for "the supposed necessity" of organizing armies and fitting up regiments for the untold horrors of human combat, and for the low emulation which associates fame with blood? And when shall the end be?

The Power of Kindness.

"What a dull, dreary day!" How many times these words had been spoken, and how plainly were they expressed on the faces of the dozen passengers that afternoon. We were to change cars at this place, but on our arrival found that the train was two honrs late, so there was no alternative but to wait.

It was a cold, rainy day; the streets were filled with mud, and a chilliness and gloom seemed reigning everywhere, even in the hearts and actions of the waiting passengers. No one seemed inclined to talk, so there we sat, with long, sober faces, thinking what a dull, dreary day.

While we thus sat waiting, an old man entered the room, carrying in one hand a cane to support his feeble body, and in the other a basket filled with sundry articles for sale.

He approached the passengers, one by one ommending the usefulness, durability and cheapness of his goods, but no sale did he make. One said that he had no use for such things; another that she was well supplied already; another that he did not care to be bothered with such articles while travelling; and so on, until the entire circuit was made. And the manner of each one seemed to say to the old man that such an intrusion on his part was very unwelcome.

He had turned away, and was leaving the room, when a lady, almost unnoticed before, approached him from a remote corner where she had been reading, and desired to look at his goods. She first invited him to a comfortable seat, and then selected one after another of the useful little articles, until five or six had been stored away in her satchel.

In paying for her purchases the exact change could not be made, and several cents were due her, but she told him not to trouble himself to get so small an amount, the goods were cheap, and well worth the money she had paid for them. The old man's face brightened up during this transaction, and he expressed his gratitude by saying:

"I thank you, ma'am, with all my heart, for this little trade. Business don't amount to much such a day as this, but I have to keep working all the harder for you see we To some of the Junior Members of Philadelphia vicissitudes of David's early life mad when the sun shines. 'Twas so wet and muddy that I didn't go home to dinner today, and trade was so dull I couldn't 'ford to lady asked him if he would not remain scated to take up their daily cross because of the favorable surroundings and the mo by the stove a few minutes, until her return. She then repaired to a lunch room connected them into the narrow way. The outward the truth, that it is only through fa She then repaired to a much room connected with a circumstances in life of these are varied, yet mice lunch and a steaming cup of coffee, and asked the old man if he would not like a little in other respects, find that they have a share asked the old man if he would not like a little in other respects, find that they have a share experiences that they had, and on

What a look of honest surprise and gratitude beamed in his face! He thanked her quietly, for he seemed too deeply touched by her kindness to say much, and ate the lunchher kindness to say much, and are the innen-con with a hearty relish. When he had years ago, that "they who will live godly in and the justice of his dealings will finfinished he approached where the lady was Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." sitting, and said:

"You may be sure I won't forget your kind ness, ma'am. It's not often that any one takes any notice of a poor old man like me; and your kindness has warmed up the feelings

The little group of passengers had been the fittle group of passengers and been called into. Discouragement may arise from the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye man turned to go, a gentleman stopped him, saying he would like one of his picture books effort to subdue our passions and bring every for his little boy. But his purchase extended thought into proper subjection. Unless we to several articles, and some of the others who had before refused to purchase, now bought shake our confidence in Divine goodness, quite liberally went his way, much gratified by their liberality.

What a change had come over that room! lowering clouds, the effect could not have her dress and retired in manner, resumed her seat in the remote corner.

The gentleman who had bought the picture book approached her and said:

"We are strangers, but I want to thank you for the good your little sermon has done me."

She looked at him in surprise, as she asked: "My little sermon, did you say sir?"

"Yes. I am a minister, and have preached many years, and should be very glad to know that your act of kindness has done."

The lady modestly replied that she had done no more than obey the golden rule.

The mental clouds had dispersed by this time, and a friendly conversation sprang up of those things whereof they may be called among the passengers.

The time of waiting, that had commenced so gloomily, passed away in the most pleasant and cheerful manner, and we all felt that it was due to the power of one little act of kind- youthful Christian if we have not partaken of ness .- Christian at Work.

person seasonably observed, that though the the Divine service will be increased. Lord was pleased to effect conversion and edification by a variety of means, he had never men and women with whom we now asso-

For "The Friend." Yearly Meeting.

within the limits of this Yearly Meeting, not countered. Did not their steadfastne buy any; but 'twill be all right now, for I'll a few young people who give evidence that zeal, their disregard for the opinion they are yielding to the convictions of the world, all indicate the possibility of He was again about to start off, when the Holy Spirit in their hearts, and are willing life devoted to Christ in the midst of love they bear Him who has in mercy called sufferings? Were they not examples asked the old man it is wound not like a little and temptations to encounter and may be of a different character from overcome. I am occasionally led to sympa-but the result will be the same, and thize with this class of my young friends, and glory will be increased and our own so am therefore induced to offer them a few secured by patiently yielding to them. words of encouragement.

persecution may not come from man,-it may only consist in the continued assaults of our important of all. It is the animating t unwearied foe, who always struggles after that this life is but the entrance to su that heart that has been dedicated to Christ, of inconceivable happiness to all the Trials of faith may result from youthful an love Christ. The Christian knows the and your kindness has various up the teerings of my heart as the coffee did my body. Good ticipations being spoiled and scattered, from youd the grave there is untold companday; and may God bless you all the days of disappointment in business, from bereave-for all the trials he has passed through ment, from disease, or even from a sense of So then let us remember the languag loneliness in the way we believe ourselves ye steadfast, unmovable, always abount tinding ourselves making little headway in the that your labor is not in vain in the L Satan will endeavor to persuade that if God After thanking his customers, the old man really cared for us, our path would be much ent his way, much gratified by their lib. casier than it is. Each time however, we question the correctness of God's dealings with us, or seek unduly to analyze his motives, If a sunbeam had burst through the dark, or yield to discontent because of our lot, we lose ground in the heavenly race, and in some been greater. The lady, who was plain in measure subject ourselves to the influence of our eruel enemy. Rather let us recollect, that there bath no temptation taken us but such as is common to man," and that "in due time we shall reap if we faint not."

friends whom I address, will, if faithful, be called to various stations in the Church, and consequent labor in religious Society. Some The aged man and the feeble woman administration of the discipline; some may serve their Lord by the offering of many secret that one of my sermons ever did the good prayers, and some may glorify Him by patient suffering. In their future spheres of action they will find that present difficulties have made them more useful to the Church, and in many ways given them a practical knowledge upon to speak. How can we tell of the benefits of affliction if we ourselves have never been afflicted? How can we properly estimate the conflicts and temptations that beset the them? How can we enlarge upon the mercy and forgiveness of our Heavenly Father, if we The pious John Newton says: "I was once have not known ourselves to be raised out of in a large company where very severe things trouble and sin? Let us then endure all that were spoken of an absent gentleman, when a is meted out, if by so doing our efficiency in to those who had to contend with the experienced warrior, and all the morcontend for the victory of Israel's It is encouraging to observe that there are The apostles testified to the troubles ever He may take away from us He es It was written, over eighteen hundred than recompense, and his good pro This vindicated.

The voice of history and the experience of known anybody convinced of error by what ciate, all prove that misfortunes in early life occasions, especially of circumstances who were no disadvantage, but rather a blessing tend to irritate.

There is one more consideration, the Philada., 2d mo. 27th, 1883.

An Earnest Word for Young Smoker the "monthly letter" of the English Ar bacco Society and Anti-Narcotic Leag the 1st month of 1883, the following from Charles Garrett, President of the ference, is given: I am deeply grieved to see so many people enslaving themselves to tol Smoking is not only a waste of time money, but it injures the health, the te and the influence of the smoker. It evid promotes indolence and selfishness; a every idler is a smoker, while the condi In the ordinary course of events the young illustration of their selfishness; one sm rather than exercise self-denial, will ma alike sacrificed to his personal gratifies The bondage of the smoker is more des than that of the drunkard. I have bee sured scores of times that the giving tobacco was more difficult than the givin of drink; every thing has to bow to this a tite when once formed. The company o fair and the wise and the holy is gladly for a pipe. I have seen Christian men m able in the most attractive and interes eompany, and stealing away to the most attractive room to secure a smoke. It sad thing to see a young man, and especi a Christian young man, fastening these fet upon himself. I trust you will never be but for the sake of your health, your pu and your soul, you will resolve with me ne to touch a pipe or cigar, but to retain and joy the freedom from this injurious habit v which our Maker has endowed us.

A LIFETIME.

Selected.

Selected.

BEANT AFTER THE DEATH OF HIS WIFE. n well I know that a brightness Iom his life has passed away n a smile from the green earth's beauty, Ad a glory from the day.

nI behold above him, I the far blue depths of air i battlements shining faintly, and a throng of faces there.

eover crystal barrier he airy figures bend, il those who are watching and waiting he coming of a friend.

one there is among them, ith a star upon her brow, ner life a lovely woman, sinless seraph now.

low the sweet calm features, he peerless smile I know; I stretch my arms with transport rom where I stand below.

the quick tears drown my eyelids; it the airy figures fade, n the shining tattlements darken, nd blend with the evening shade.

a gazing into the twilight, the wind of night is swaying he trees with a heavy sigh.

DEAR HANDS. haed and worn with ceaseless toil and care, rfumed grace, no dainty skill, had these; ot the scars unlovely for their share. and slow, they had the will to bear hole world's burdens, but no power to seize ying joys of life, the gifts that please, of and gems that others find so fair. hands, where bridal jewel never shone, n no lover's kiss was ever pressed, e in unwonted quiet on the breast, through tears, your glory newly won, colden circlet of life's work well done, if the shining pearl of perfect rest.

-Susan Marr Spalding.

MY HOME.

then in gray of early twilight, ades the brief November day hile the lamps are yet unlighted, And the work is laid away, Irn I from the voices round me, From the sounds of thrift and care, lom all outward toil and burdens, To my home serenely fair.

Fir when Autumn's brimming sunshine Fills the lofty rooms with light, Fir when dusky shadows gather, And the fire burns red and bright, Fir when spring-flowers fresh and fragrant, Through the opening windows lean, lir when household joy and comfort, Laugh at winter's frozen sheen.

way fair, but not with gilding, Statues, paintings, old and rare, stly carpets, stately mirrors, Pride of wealth, and fashion's glare; it the charm of perfect fitness Touches all with simple grace, nd a clear true sense of beauty Harmonizing all, I trace.

ere we often sit together, One beloved well, and I, , amongst the sofa cushions, Idly by the fire I lie,- eaking not, while thought retraces Paths wherein we have been led; eaking not for very sweetness Of the peace around us shed; nd the only outward token Of the trust and love we bear, the thoughtful, mute caressing, Of the hand which strokes my hai

But my home has pleasant voices Tones not marred and strained by strife, Cadenced to the gentle measure Of a true and loving life; And a sound of baby laughter Sometimes thrills the quiet rooms;

Ah! the tiny cradle-blossom, Dearer is than April blooms. Fairest light that falls from Heaven

Shines in this dear bome always, Shines through loving eyes, whose brightness Changes not for stormy days. Pride and envy never enter, Anger cannot there abide For our Heavenly Father's presence

Therein centre true affections, Active care for others' need Holy thoughts and aspirations Seeking truth in word and deed. But they call me,-fades the vision, Close the pearly gates again; Lamps are lit, and night has settled

With a sound of falling rain.

All the place has purified.

R. G. A.

For " The Friend."

Religious Views and Tenets. Has the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, set us free from the law of sin and the flesh, that the righteousness of the law hope-the law of the spirit of life in Christ in the fall. The old law was given by Moses, but the new law of grace and truth comes by Jesus Christ. And the true Christian is no

the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus. "On Sinai's mount Jehovah gave the law, Life for obedience; death for every flaw."

It was then ontward death for outward transgressions. It is now spiritual death for inreceive it, is preached to every creature, or and I should heal them." his counterfeit gospel, by sending them to and are your eyes, for they see; and your ears for fro in the earth, "as ministers of righteousness." "By their fruits ye shall know them." Yes, by their fruits; not by the multitude of "eonverts," or of adherents; because "many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the ways of truth shall be evil spoken of;" while but few enter in at the strait gate, and walk in the narrow way that leads to life eternal.

Many are crying up men, and the ways and religions of men, seeming to have more faith in the wisdom and eloquence of men than in the power of God. Many appear to be secretly, and some more openly, intercepting the ways of the true Israel of God; and like the Philistines stopping the mouths of the wells, and the springs of living water; not entering the heavenly Canaan themselves, but seeking to hinder those who are striving to enter. But "other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." He is the stone which the builders of Babylon have ever rejected; but which remains to be, through all ages of the world, the head of the corner in the true temple and worship of the living God. But He is "a stone of stumbling and rock of offence" to the wise and prudent of death? The law of Moses was given for the this world, who are seeking to climb up into restraining of the outward acts of an outward heaven some easier way than that of the people. It was only added because of the cross. "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, transgression of the inward law of the Spirit and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which of life which man first had. But what the are named the chief of the nations! That law could not do because of the weakness and chant at the sound of the viol, and invent to sinfulness of the flesh, God sending his own themselves instruments of music, like David; Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and as an out they are not grieved for the affliction of offering for sin, condemned sin to death in Joseph."—Amos vi. 1, 5, 6.

If we are of the flock and fold of Christ we might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after shall be heirs of his kingdom. And then, and the flesh, but after the Spirit. So Christ came not till then, we shall know the voice of Him, not to destroy the law and the prophets, but the true Shepherd, from the voice of the to fulfil. And the righteousness of the old stranger; our wills would be subjected to his law is fulfilled in those who are crucified with will. But if our wills are not entirely sur-Christ. It is done away with for the weakness rendered to the will of the good Shepherd, we and unprofitableness of it. For it made noth- cannot distinguish his voice from the voice of ing perfect. But the bringing in of the better the stranger, nor be led by Him. Because our wills are in the way. And the voice of the hire-Jesus, does make perfect, as it brings that life ling, or of him who is a stranger to the coveand immortality to light again which was lost nant of promise, is far more congenial to the unrenewed man, as it has less of self-denial and the daily cross in it. Our Saviour in speaking of the blind guides and persecuting inlonger under the law, but under grace—under habitants of Jerusalem, says, "How often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathered her chickens under her wings, and ye would not." His will was to gather them to Him, by the drawing cords of his love, but their wills were too much exward transgressions. And since by the dis- alted, and they would not be gathered. They obedience of man, came death, even so by loved darkness rather than light, and why? obedience to the Son of man came the resurbecause their deeds were evil, and their house rection from the dead. "For as in Adam all was left to them desolate. Their wilful darkdie, even so in Christ (not out of him) shall ness and disobedience caused their overthrow, all be made alive." But professing Christ, and and how great was their fall? It is also said talking abundantly about Him, is not being concerning them that "hearing ye shall hear in Him, nor being made alive by Him. "If and shall not understand; and in seeing ye we have not the spirit of Christ we are none shall see and not perceive; for the heart of And if we are his, we will learn of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are Him. For the Father says of Him, "This is dull of hearing, and their eyes have they my beloved Son, hear ye Him." It is by closed; lest they should see with their eyes, Christ that the gospel which is the power of and hear with their ears, and understand God to the salvation of all who believe and with their heart, and should be converted, So the salvation of intelligent individual under heaven. And as God was turned away from them, and offered Christ has his ministers, to minister out his to those who were willing to see and hear and gospel, in his power, so those who are obe-receive it. And to such as had willingly redient to it, become heirs of salvation. And ceived the gospel light and had their spiritual anti Christ has his ministers, to minister out eyes opened to see it, Christ said, "Blessed are in their generation wise than the children and abide the cross,) yet in those humbling abas-of light." We have a worldly wisdom; and abide the cross,) yet in those humbling abas-we have a heavenly wisdom. The world by ing seasons wherein no human consolation ber of these people emigrated to Ce rai its wisdom knows not God, nor the deep things can avail, except what is felt in the deep utof God. The children of light are, in their terance of united spiritual exercise, I find not of God. The enharch of light are, in their terance of united spirited exercises, and I were conscientiously opposed. In the lord; and I in Bokhara, near the borders of Bothey are generated anew into the Divine life, have clearly discovered, that to support an Turkestan, and have had a trying the That is, they are re-generated born again—unrequired familiarity with them, is to be in ing been four or five times foreibly born from above-born not of flesh and blood, great danger of hurting myself; and if it born from above—born not of flesh and blood, great danger of burting myself; and if it by the Bokharans across the bounty of corruptible seed as we by nature have, but should be grateful to any such, will rather the Russian possessions. The Rula of incorporatible seed by the greenshadowing temperature to the procession of the results of the second of the control of the second o of incorruptible seed by the over-shadowing strengthen their contentment in their present power of that eternal Word which liveth and state, than turn them from the sandy to the abideth forever. But the children of this true foundation. world are in their generation, blest with a wis- Thus my dear friend, has a line sometimes the liberation of 50,000 Russian auch of the worldly-wise, and to bring to nought were under the power of the seducer. * * * light, must believe in the light, and walk in enables to possess the vessel in sanctification the light, that they may become children of and honor."

A poet, in writing on heavenly wisdom says:

"More than a sun is in thee though 'tis hurled Beneath the worthless rubbish of the world; Immersed in vanity's inconstant tide, And buried deep beneath the waves of pride."

Dublin, Ind., 3d mo. 1st, 1883.

in what the world calls good, and what under upon the statute book of the Nation.—Chris. the blessing which makes truly rich, is really Advocate.

Thy kindness and my feelings have urged me to write; an employment from which I am has excited profound interest by a course of in the "Established Church," by a clere often led, believing that if it is my lot to lectures lately delivered at Bombay. She is named Mackonochic. As the time drev make a safe progress, I must learn more and a widow, twenty-five years of age, and is when he would be deprived of his "os more to salute but few by the way. There is pleading for the emancipation of her sex from and thus lose his position as a clergyme an airy, unconverted mind, very prevalent the many debasing superstitions of India, and law has been evaded by inducing him among the professors of Truth, and may it not for female education. At one of her meetings sorrowfully be said, amongst some of the fore several native ladies followed her in speaking, rank of the people; which is naturally seeking and gave their carnest indorsement to her take charge at St. Alban's, and the va rank of the people; which is naturally seeding and gave their carries independent to the lake charge at St. Albans, and the vertex to attract us from the Rock of our strength; efforts for the elevation and education of wothing the strength of the strength of the many seeding and though it is attended with a specious appointment. The possibility of such a meeting, and it of Mackonochie—with the full expec

But "the children of this world of the Lord,' (and there is something in me are in their generation wiser than the children that loves to be courteous to these, rather than

dom for which we should be truly thankful to opened to the view of my mind, which being the great Giver. For by it, the natural man opposite to my natural disposition, brings is enabled to invent and carry on many won-with it its trials, a daily call for circumspeederful works to the benefit of the world. But tion, and according to my measure, the sufnot many of this class are called by God to fering path of the great and holy Pattern, aid in the works of the heavenly kingdom, who, though he ate with publicans and sin-For He chooses such as are esteemed the fool-ners when salvation was sent to their houses, ish of this world, yea, and those who are de-spised hath he chosen, to confound the wisdom who boasted of being Abraham's children, but things that are, that they should have no To be sensible of our own infirmities, and thereplace in beavenly things, nor with the chil-fore to be chaste to the Bridegroom of souls, dren of light, in carrying on the works of God. when he is pleased to withdraw the sensible That no flesh should glory in his presence. enjoyment of help, and discoveries of his put-That no flesh should glory in his presence, enjoyment of help, and discoveries of his put-so the children of this world are, in their gent ting forth, is a desirable situation for the mind contain, wiser in relation to worldly things, to centre in a sit presence as from insight. The soil would need in eration wiser in relation to worldly things, to centre in; as it preserves us from joining for which the Amn Daria River And the children of light are, in their renewed with those spirits and things, either in our-And the confidence of neglection to heavenly selves or others, which we have once seen to things. But such as are not the children of be in the degeneracy from the pure life; and as follows:—In eight days it is our improvements.

The San Francisco Herald says, that "despite the hostility which has recently been whilst the men travel on horsebase will so 100 werst, crossing a desert was displayed against them, the supply of Chinese go 100 werst, crossing a desert, was demands of the comparation, hear and in reach the Amu Daria River, where demands of the corporations here and in thing is landed on a ship, and we Oregon;" and further, that "a brisk demand for Chinese servants exists in the city, and tination. they are employed in many instances by the Selected.

United States Army and Navy officers at $20, are 'free' quite 'free.' All the rest till tell. The word of the Lord is and in Rebecca Jones dated 3d month 18th, 1785, contains much that is replete with instruction. In the viney are so California. It is stated, as sad with us as has been said of us. "There is so little in me that is comfortable, too, that $10 premium per capita was offered many outside think. We are happy much less desirable even to myself, that I am lately for 1,000 laborers for the Southern Paready to 'say to corruption, thou art my cific Railroad, and so great was the demand The feith of father, to the worm, thon art my mother and for their services that no laborers could be right home for them is in Central Asia interes, to the worm, from at my months and for their services and the strength one for the breaking in of found to meet the demand. By and by the strong—but in view of the efforts of the immortality in the depth of this abasedness, American people will wake up to the great stans to extend their dominions in the immortants in the depth of this abasequess, American people with the passage of the world, and the consequent frequency of strength behind it, how abject of this iniquitous bill. It will be remarkable wars with the native governments. would my case be! Were there not some to hear Californians crying out for a repeal of would seem to be a great probability to thing which no outward gratification can the bill; and yet that is what is not unlikely inoffensive Mennonites would cre lor thing which no outward granded to the barry and the start of the ten years of prorespects, might soon fix my mind in a sort of hibition have passed away. It is with shame their faithfulness to the principles of possed away. earthly paradise, and centre my enjoyments and confusion of face that we see this bill go again severely tested.

Pundita Romabai, a learned Hindu lady, pearance of loving the Truth, and a readiness dressed by native ladies, indicates a wonder-to say, 'Blessed is he that cometh in the name ful advance in India.—Extract.

to escape from military service, to web

thorities have procured them a ho in principality of Khiva, where large di

The London Friend for the Secon no contains a translation of part of a te seribing their situation and prospec w was sent to some of their brethrein braska, probably during some par of year. From this it appears that a dent of their number, accompanied by a us officer, waited on the Emir of Kh assured them of perfect religious land his domain, and promised to give eaclor much land as he could take care of, tion to the four years without taxes to start per wagon from here, and to gal 30 werst* beyond the city of Bokhai. we must take camels, on which we Ik baggage, as well as our wives and cld along the river till we reach our poin f

Ritualism in the Church of England .- (u circles in England have been consider agitated by the persistent defiance of the sign his benefice of St. Alban's. Ar on both places.

^{*} The werst is nearly two-thirds of a mile.

ference to this action, the Church As-

Record says : " The Mackenochie affair d a definite change of front in the attidour rulers towards Ritualism. It beial toleration of the Mass.'

de movements, and the confusion which from State interference with matters ssion and of action which are not posby their neighbors, the Germans and as, who are more sternly held in the f military despotism.

For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

cer of water is both refreshing and simultaneously. chening as a drink, especially in sum-ie. In the Baldwin Locomotive works, dink it, they do not seem to want their about 2,760,000 cords.

ael no longer means that it was made a sacred rite of some sort. year, but that it has the taste or color

Flying Lemur.—Another enrious anihich I had met with in Singapore and to same illegal practices will be con- by day, going up a tree by short runs of a few birds then became very timid and did not feet, and then stopping a moment as if the seem at first inclined to take to the box; but action was difficult. It rests during the day their natural instincts soon prevailed. Betn "records its protest against a transclinging to the trunks of trees, where its olive fore however the parents regained confidence, which it looks upon as a betrayal of or brown fur, mottled with irregular whitish the young ones began to get cold, so T. Kemp testant reformed religion established spots and blotches, resembles closely the color very thoughtfully saved the poor little creaof mottled bark, and no doubt helps to protect tures by warming them in his hands, till the it. Once, in a bright twilight, I saw one of old ones resumed their nursing. This they these animals run up a trunk in a rather open did notwithstanding the noise of the work-place, and then glide obliquely through the men's hammers, and the usual busy stir in al, and is accepted as betokening, the air to another tree, on which it alighted near the room. After this brood was flown, five its base, and immediately began to ascend. I more eggs were laid in the box, all of which paced the distance from one tree to the other, were successfully hatched and reared .- Sciand found it to be seventy yards; and the ence Gossip. ship, seem to be preparing many for amount of descent I estimated at not more earation of Church and State, and the than thirty-five or forty feet, or less than one lation of State patronage and State in five. This, I think, proves that the animal must have some power of guiding itself through the air, otherwise in so long a disnal named Freden (Peace) has been tance it would have little chance of alighting aboved as the special organ of a move-exactly upon the trunk." [We remember, h favor of peace, and of making Den when a boy, trying to catch the common a Friend in Canada, is here inserted, in the neutral country, which shall not be flying squirrels of our country. One of them hope that it may prove encouraging to those by the wars or disputes of the other which had been disturbed from its nest in a who are travailing in spirit for the welfare of nn States. A portion of the columns hollow tree, flew towards another tree, on the Church, and for the spread of the Re-bjournal is devoted to the question of which one of our company was perched. Be-deemer's kingdom in the earth; and whose > eries at Hissarlik by Dr. Schliemann, are the 'The Friend,' signed Joseph Morris, the cauremains of buildings of great antiquity, in tion therein expressed, so met my approbation which the walls were made of unbaked bricks, and unity, that I felt my heart to leap for joy which had afterwards been baked in situ by to hear the language of a true travail of soul

flying animals .- ED.]- Wallace's Malay Arch-

gives the amount of wood used for domestic are many throughout the length and breadth lpt on hand, and the men, even those purposes in the United States and Territories of those called by the name of Friends who in the year 1880, as 140,537,439 cords; the are secretly laboring for the good of Jerusa-

Trepanning in Prehistoric Times.—One of the true Church will be blessed. les Ready-made.—Quite a trade has the most curious traces of primitive belief eveloped in ready-made houses by a which has come down to us is found in the in due season we shall reap if we faint not. Walkerton, Ontario, where orders for trepanned skulls which have been discovered row of buildings can be filled at short in several caves and dolmens of France be-They are made knock-down, and the longing to the earlier portion of the new Stone Sufferings have recently added to their pubal shipped by rail to the point of desti- Age. Dr. Paul Broca has devoted a pamphlet lications, three small books—Margaret Lucas, accompanied by one of the partners, to the description of these trepanned skulls Elizabeth Stirredge, and Rebecca Hubbs. perintends the erection of the building and the discussion of their significance. The these the very interesting biographies of M. dication of Brandy.—A recent report of fact is certain that a great number of these Lucas and E Stirredge, are already in the circan consul at Rochelle, states that skulls were trepanned during life-time, pro-"Friends' Library" series; but their publicabe greater portion of the brandy is bably in infancy and early youth, and that tion in this more portable form will probably om alcohol of grain, potatoes or beet, they healed up again, the subject of the opera-give them an increased circulation. and flavored to imitate the genuine tion surviving it for many years. P. Broca Rebecca Hubbs was a minister in our So-The mention of a particular year on supposes this trepanning to have constituted ciety, who resided at Woodstown, New Jerto brandies of that year are supposed lows built a nest on the ledge of an iron girder fects in intellectual abilities and culture in It is said that an increase of violent in the drawing-room of a new mansion in the the exercise of Gospel ministry. The preface patal crimes in France has been caused course of erection; the birds having access of this little book, written by one who knew use of this brandy and absinthe.—See through the windows. The nest was finished her well, says her ministry was an illustration and five eggs laid. But before all the young of the truth of the Scripture declaration: ones were hatched, the workmen had to go "God hath chosen the foolish things of the into the room to lath and plaster the ceiling. neo, but which was more abundant The work could not be delayed in favor of should glory in his presence. n Sumatral, is the Galeopithecus, or the feathered occupants of the room. Fortunately, however, for the little strangers, T. because the learning of the schools, Relative for the schools of the schools ities of the toes, and to the point of the He made a box and carefully placing the nest called her in upholding the standard of rightlong tail. This enables it to pass obtain to it, suspended it from the ceiling by a binto it, suspended it from the ceiling bout through the air from one tree to anpiece of copper wire. The nest being about and see that the Lord is good."

It is sluggish in its motions, at least six feet from its original position, the old We believe many Friends are very sensible

THE FRIEND.

THIRD MONTH 17, 1883.

The following brief letter to the Editor from ntional Arbitration, and to papers showgreat superiority of this mode of setsputes, as compared with the costly directed its flight at a considerable angle to taking the process of the superiority of this mode of setsputes, as compared with the costly directed its flight at a considerable angle to tations to the sons of men, and his offers of erible resort to war.

another tree; proving that a certain power of salvation to those who will submit to the guiding their course is possessed by these operations of his Spirit.

"Dear Friend,-In reading a communica-Baking Walls .- Among the recent discov- tion in the 28th No. of present volume of tueal Water.—A handful of out-meal in masses of wood piled on both sides and kindled for us individually, and for Zion's sake. This same subject has dwelt much upon my mind Consumption of Wood.—The Census bureau for a length of time. May we not hope there te given to drinking intexicating li- in the year 1880, as 140,537,439 cords; the are secretly morning for the good of secret grow fond of it. They say that when amount used on railroads and steamboats, the secret travail of soul increases. I believe ble secret travail of soul increases, I believe

"And let us not be weary in well doing, for

The Book Committee of the Mceting for Rebecca Hubbs was a minister in our Sosey, and was a remarkable instance of the Swallows .- In the year 1878, a pair of swal- manner in which Divine Grace supplies deworld to confound the wise, &c., that no flesh ' "Though very by our Meeting for Sufferings; and frequently find occasions to present copies of them to those to whom they hope they will be useful. To do this to the best advantage requires the donor to be himself familiar with the books he distributes, so that he may adapt his gifts those who feel this concern, to procure and read the works now noted. They are for sale at Friends' Book Store 304 Arch St., Phila., at 25 cents per copy.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.-In the next United States House of Representatives there will be 192 Democrats, 127 Republicans (counting the six Virginia Readinsters as Republicans), four Independents and two Greenbackers, The new House will have 365 members, making 163 a do., at $5.50 a $6.40, and patents at $6.50 a $8. Rye quorum for business.

On the 6th instant, an election was held in Vermont on Constitutional Amendments forbidding Federal officers to become members of the Legislature, and providing for the election of State Treasurer and Auditor by the people instead of by the Legislature. The returns indicate their adoption by a large majority

In the Ohio House of Representatives a constitutional amendment resolution has passed—68 to 25—providing for full Legislative control of the liquor business, with power to pass local option laws, to levy a special tax yards at 5½ a 7½ cts. per lb., as to condition. and to prohibit. Two Republicans voted against the Senate for concurrence.

In the New Jersey House of Representatives, on the 12th instant, a resolution was adopted, providing for a joint meeting of the House and Senate on Fifth-day to under 16 years of age, under penalty of $20 for each offence, passed finally, as did also a joint resolution offence, passed finally, as did also a joint resolution failure for years. The area is reduced and much re-amending the Constitution, and making four persons sowing will be necessary. There is also much alarm at out of a jury of six, and nine persons out of a jury of the spread of the foot and mouth disease among cattle." twelve, competent to render a verdict in civil cases.

On the 7th instant, a ruddy-faced lad about 15 years old, named Emil C. Gattstein, was brought before Jus-tice Duffy, at the Essex Market Police Court, New York, charged with stealing $70 from his mother, who keeps a small cigar store, and who is treasurer for the Two more New York boys were arrested at the Erie searched. "Four revolvers, two bowie knives and 1000

The Assistant Secretary of the Interior on the 7th, received a despatch saying that about two hundred settlers recently invaded that part of the Sionx reserva-tion which lies east of the Missouri river and put up shanties there; also that thousands of others are prepar-ing to follow. The intruders will be expelled.

There are 1286 school buildings in Arkansas, valued at $254,217: 129 of the number were erected during last year. The school teachers number 2418, of whom 471 are colored.

The fruit growers of Southern Illinois are reported to be hopeful of the largest peach crop for several years,

The Mississippi river has fallen nine inches at Memphis and three inches at Helena, since the decline began. The levees around Helena are in good condition. A break occurred in the levee at Mason's, below Australia, Mississippi, on Seventh-day night, which is 500 yards wide and five feet deep. This will overflow a large district. The break at Green Grove, on the 7th instant, overflowed the country back of Australia, before the Mason's break occurred.

Judge Taylor, of Fort Wayne, a member of the Mis-June 1 and 1 the damped of the case the of the importance of a wide circulation of such "There have been very exaggerated stories in some of valuable spiritual publications as those issued the papers," he said, "but the facts are, that only slight other foreign representatives that the treath has on Mexico for Sufficient and the said amage has been done, and nothing has yet occurred merce will expire on 3rd mo. 12th, 1884. It during this great flood to show that the general plan of the improvements is not correct, and the money well expended."

The deaths in this city last week numbered 433, which was 29 more than during the previous week, and ten less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the entire number, 218 were males, and 219 females: to the condition and wants of those to whom 173 died of consumption; 43 of pneumonia; 24 of from they are sent. It would be well therefore for diphtheria; 19 of convulsions; 12 of old age; 14 of 1880. typhoid fever and 10 of cronp.

Markets, &c.-U. S. 3's, 1041; 34's 104; 41's, 1124; 6's, registered, 118$; coupon, 119$; currency 6's 128

Cotton continues steady, but there was very little movement. Sales of middlings are reported at 101 a 103 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans. Petroleum.—Standard white, 7% a 72 cts. for export, and 83 a 81 cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour is in limited request, but steady. Sales 1800 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.75 a $6.75; Pennsylvania family at $5.10 a $5.25; western flour is steady at $4 a $4.12\frac{1}{2} per barrel.

Grain.—Wheat is in limited demand and rather lower. Sales of 4200 bushels red, in car lots at $1.17 a Rye.-Car lots are wanted at 70 a 71 cts. Small lots will not bring over 68 cts. Corn was inactive and easier. Sales of 11,000 bushels, in car lots, at 60 a 691 cts. Oats are dull but steady. Sales of 9500 bushels, in car lots, at 523 a 57 ets. Beef cattle were in demand and prices were a fraction higher: 2400 head arrived and sold at the different

Sheep were a fraction higher; 7500 head sold at the resolution and four Democrats for it. It goes to the different yards at 5 a 71 cts., and lambs at 5 a 8 cts. per lb. as to condition.

Hogs were in fair demand at an advance: 3200 head arrived and sold at 101 a 111 cts. per lb., as to quality. Foreign.-The statistical agent in London of our elect a State Comptroller. The bill prohibiting the Department of Agriculture reports, that in England sale of cigarettes or tobacco in any form to minors, there are "continued rains and floods, great injury to the wheat crop, and gloomy apprehensions of the worst

> On the 10th of this month, a large party gathered in London to witness the trial of the Tripp electrical tram The car ran a distance of four miles satisfactorily, and fulfilled the requirements of the Board of Trade.

Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in a speech in the House of Commons on the 10th, assured the House Women's Bohemian Benevolent Society. The youth, that the condition of Ireland was more tranquil than it it would appear, has been an inveterate reader of dime had been for some time past. The same day Judge novels, and when discovered the night before in a Lawson, addressing the Grand Jury at Armagh, referred novels, and when discovered the ingnt before in a lawson, addressing the Grand Jury at Armagh, referred to the reputure, has proposed to the consumers to the decrease of lawlessness in Ireland. The murder gation of Article 7 of the Constitution, which percentage of the revolvers and a scalping knife, he informed his captors revolvers and a scalping knife, he informed his captors that he intended to go out to fight the Indians on the Plains. He had a passenger ticket in his pocket, but of the money as stolen from his mother, only 70 cents remained. The Justice committed him for trial, remained. The Justice committed him for trial, a meeting of the Local Board of Swineford, Compy TRACT ASSOCIATION OF FRIEND Mayo, it was reported that great distress prevailed in Railroad depot in Jersey City, on the 12th inst., and the district. Over 30 persons are in the poor-house, searched. "Four revolvers, two bowie knives and 1000 suffering from famine fever. There are 700 names on rounds of cartridges, together with $184 in gold, were the list of persons needing relief. The distress has not been so great since the year 1847. People who refuse to exterminate the hostile Indians."

The Assignation Scortiers of the Laws. outside. The Government has ordered that prompt measures be taken for the relief of the starving people in Longhrea.

In Paris, on the 9th inst., five thousand persons, most In Paris, on the 9th 11st., IIve thousand persons, and of them attracted by motives of curiosity, collected on the Esplanade des Invalides. The police, without resistance, prevented groups from forming. Fifteen persistance, prevented groups from forming. sistance, prevented groups from forming. Fifteen persons were arrested. The police barred the passage of 500 men who were marching to the Elysee, the residence of President Grevy. The affair was a fiasco

The total number of persons arrested in Andalusia for complicity in the Anarchist movement is 1200. this number, 300 are charged with murders, agrarian ontrages, and with being abettors of the "Black Hand"

The steamer Navarre, bound from Copenhagen to Leith, foundered during the gale of the 8th. There were SI persons, mostly emigrants, on board, only 16 of a member of Middleton Monthly and Particular whom were saved.

The trial of 29 Socialists at Vienna, on charges of high treason and complicity in murder, was begun on the 8th. The accused persons admit that they carried out a resolution passed at club meetings to murder and

The Porte has notified the United States Mi that there will be no difficulty in concluding ties involving increased import duties of fro per cent. Alexander Coumondonros, the Greek state leader of the opposition to Triconpis, the pres Minister of Greece, died in Athens, on 7th He was Prime Minister of the Kingdom sey. from 1866 to 1882, his last term beginning in Prince Gortschakoff, ex-Chancellor of the Empire, died at Baden-Baden, on the 11th in The revenue of Russia on imports during

1882 exceeded that of 1881 by thirteen millio but was 5,500,000 roubles less than that Among the prisoners to be arraigned at the a ing trial of Nihilists are several important St inals, three naval officers, an army officer, and the constructor of the famous mine in Little

Calcutta advices to the Times state that gre ment has been aroused because of the prop-giving native magistrates criminal jurisdict whites in certain cases, and has spread to the a letter from an officer doing duty in a large g published. He says the danger is most serious, it will be impossible to control the men if a co sentenced by a native judge. A feeling of v dignation is universal among both officers and Advices from Tamatane, Madagascar, unde

2nd mo. 26th, announce the arrival there of th gunboat Vaudreail. The town had not yet be pied. Four French men-of-war had arrived northwest coast of the island. The natives cited and were preparing to resist the French. was no British war vessel present.

The Director of the Mint has received a let J. W. Helffrich, formerly coiner at the Ne Mint, and now Superintendent of the Mint nickels at the City of Mexico, stating that he h tract for coining 190,000,000 pieces of nickel the Mexican Government. He submits spec the one, two and five-cent pieces, as coined by I states that over $370,000 worth of them are al circulation. The value of these nickel coins is ted simply by a Roman numeral. The revers the five-cent Mexican nickel is almost an exact part of the reverse side of the five-cent nickel no issued from the Philadelphia Mint. They about the same size. The face and inscription ever, are entirely different. It is also stated, connection, that the French Government has the nickel coinage, instead of bronze.

Affairs in Hayti are quiet. Gen. Solomon, P. of the Republic, has proposed to the Chambers t

TRACT ASSOCIATION OF FRIEND The Annual Meeting will be held in the Con room of Arch Street Meeting house, on the eve Fourth-day, the 28th instant, at 8 o'clock. Friends generally are invited to attend.

EDWARD MAL Philada., 3rd mo. 1883.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

The SUMMER SESSION opens on THIRD-DAY, Ist, 1883. Parents and others who intend's pupils, are requested to make early application of the state of th ter Co., Pa.: or to CHARLES J. ALLEN, Treas'r, Arch St., Philadelphia.

DIED, at East Fairfield, Ohio, on the 14th of month, 1882, MARY, wife of Joseph Taylor, in the year of her age, a member of Middleton Month Particular Meeting of Friends, Columbiana Co.,

WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

THE FRIEND.

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, THIRD MONTH 24, 1883.

NO. 33.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

aid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid dvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. cles designed for insertion to be addressed to

JOSEPH WALTON. IOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. ns, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS,

PHILADELPHIA. Selected for "The Friend," How Deceit May Get Up.

stscript to a letter of Stephen Crisp, not judging all that which is at enmity e life, and tends to the burting of the int of God."

r Friends and Brethren,-I have somereave you of this under any pretence false spirit, and corrupt practice thereof. ever. But as you come to a true feelbeguiled.

s times, and it is needful for every one things for the sake of Jesus Christ.

way of peace, but make them crooked paths. grow in and among you all, to his praise that

But some may say, was not Christ meek and lowly? and onght not all to be like unto Him?

It is true, my Friends; but there is a difference between the Seed's suffering and its mind that vast region lying immediately reigning, and there are times for them both, south of the Great Desert and sometimes When it doth please God to permit the hour called Nigritia, but the comparatively narrow and power of darkness in the open perseen-strip lying east of this and stretching from tors, to exalt itself against his seed and peolegypt proper to the country of the famous ple by persecution, or such like; they are led M tesa. It is a narrow strip, a tract of land, by his spirit to appear in meekness and quiet-ness, as a sheep before the shearer. But what the name. Make its area a common denomiis this to suffering bad and perverse spirits, nator for European States, and the area of that appear under pretence of the Truth, and Germany, or France, or Austria-Hungary, or yet are out of the Truth, and enemies to its Sweden, would be contained five times; that prosperity, striving to exalt and set up an-of Great Britain and Ireland, or Italy, or Nor-other thing instead of the Truth? Such as way, would be contained nine times; and the these the Lord doth require you to use not combined areas of Belgium, Switzerland, urther in my heart to communicate only patience and meekness towards; but if Greece, and the Netherlands, twenty times, ou, in dear and tender love, and in de-that will not reclaim them, they must know Kordofan, Darfur, and Sennaar are some of its your preservation out of the snare of the judgment of the Truth, and you in it must principal divisions thus properly included, versary; and that is, to exhort you stand over them; for in this case the day of and help to make up the 1,640 miles in length. well in the pure judgment of the Truth, the exaltation of Christ is come, and God is 660 mean breadth which are its approximate s a defence upon your glory; and let crowning Truth with dominion over every dimensions. The reduction of Sennaar and the life in yourselves, to which alone his goings for h, and as you feel his life in you the annexation of Darfur and the Equatorial tain judgment appertaineth, so let this to witness against any evil and corrupt thing district was effected under Ismail, the ex-Khee freedom, and stop it not from judg or practice, use plainness, and keep sincerity, dive. Thus obtained and constituted, the Southat which is at enmity with the lite, and turn not judgment backwards. That dan was organized into a province of Egypt ds to the hurt of the true plant of God. which is unwilling to be judged, and cries out, in 1877. ave seen a harm hath come to many judge none, leave all to God, &c., the same will Of the character of the population, we have very parted with their judgment, and so take upon it both to judge and rule, but not reason to believe that in a portion personal in the wisdom of God. Those that cry out bravery is a trait to a degree remarkable for each upon them, under a pretended tenson much for tenderness, and against Truth's Africans. Their soldiers displayed their valor to permit or suffer such things as judgment, the same are in much danger to be in initiating and, together with Egypt, accomurtful to themselves and others; and drawn out from the patient suffering in the plishing the invasion of Darfur in 1869. They the Lord hath given them judgment spirit of Christ Jesus, when they ought to have since conceived a sentiment of antagonseerning in the matter, yet were be appear in the most meekness; they lose the ism and independence which the absence of a of that gift, and so by little and little exercise of that by which all should keep do-vigorous provincial policy has fostered. Genminion over deceit, and lose that strength by eral Gordon has described them thus: "They dear Friends! consider these days are which they should be enabled to suffer all are smart, dapper-looking fellows, like ante-

h in that same eternal light to which Dear Friends, in that which keeps out the Africa." Dangerous instruments in the hands turned, that by its righteous judg-defiler and the betrayer, all wait upon the Lord, of unscrupulous leaders, they might be transe may be preserved from every thing that you may have your armor on, and be formed into useful members of society under rselves that appears contrary to that fortified with the strength, with the might, the uplifting influences of Christianity and slife of which you have tasted. When land with the judgment of God. Keep that righteons law executed. This class live in ve so done, then take heed that the under in every place, which under pretence of Lower Soudan. The tribes in the vicinity do not do that by an instrument, tenderness and forbearance, would make void and south of Gondokoro, are less aspiring, less through your watchfulness in the light, the testimony of Truth, or make the offence attractive. The Arab immigrants are eager d not do without. All beware of that of the cross to cease in anything wherein you to take up the inconsistent war cry "This is tenderness that eries out, be tender to have been instructed from the beginning; that our land-we know no Khedive here!" pray for all, and mind the good in all, the Lord may behold and see judgment estabe all, and judge none, but leave judg-lished, and be pleased.—Isa lix. The Lord being rapidly depleted by the slave-dealer.

God, &c. I say, heed not the plausi-looked, and there was no judgment, and it Few realize how rapidly. Two years ago Col. ds of that spirit, which being guilty, displeased Him; for thereby deceit got up, Gordon expressed the opinion that two-thirds on; and is indeed truly his judgment, preserve you faithful, fitted for every good Sir Samuel W. Baker was sent out to stop this to be administered in his wisdom and word and work; the strong to watch over the forced migration, and upon his return, reportfor the cleansing and keeping clean weak in singleness, and the weak to be sub-ed success. Gordon, while Pasha, was uncleary. Such as have no judgment in ject to the strong in the Lord, that so the wearying in his efforts to follow it up, repeat-olings, are they that know not the true pure plant of righteousness and Truth may dely dispersing caravans containing from 1,-

He that goeth in them, shall not know peace. hath called you; to whom be glory and honor for ever, amen."—S. C.

The Soudan and the Slave Trade.

In writing of the Soudan, we have not in Kordofan took place toward the close of the Therefore, dear Friends, eye the Lord in long rule of the warlike Mehemet Ali; while lopes, fierce, unsparing, the terror of Central

The country thus defined and inhabited, is its own head from a stroke, would be-tou of your judgment which God hath So the Lord God of power and wisdom away into slavery. More than ten years ago of the population had already been carried 600 to 2,000 slaves. In 1876 Egypt concluded an anti-slavery convention with Great Britain.

"In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of out of great tribulation, that wash tol. Gordon's resignation and a change of good cheer: I have overcome the world." John xvi. 33 robes and made them white in the an anti-slavery convention with Great Britain. Khedive suspended the exercise of a firm authority over this region. Russia's recent one who deceased a number of years ago, (M. be, if we would attain to a "closer wa interdiction of the abduction of Circassian M. S.) in the perusal of which I trust I have God." maidens has destroyed the chief source of sup-received much instruction, though her path ply for the Turkish harems, and thus increased the demand for Africans.

bers has been revived with impunity and at lat times have bitter cups to drink? but these himself has said, "Call upon me in th tended with more abhorrent cruelties than dispensations are no doubt intended to purify trouble, I will deliver thee;" but w before. Obeid in Kordofan is the headquar- and qualify, and make such as are willing to lows? "and thou shalt glorify me." ters of the slave-hunter. To this point 40,000 endure them, meet for the Master's use. are led annually, like dumb sheep, to be driven across a desert of twenty days' march to De-this way, on their pilgrimage journey through ness and mercy to us? In whatever beh. At Debeh they are embarked on the heights and through depths. As the out calls for it, faithfulness is require Nile for the market at Wadi Halfa.

Christian world could follow one of those long, But what a great favor it is, to have a little potice; but when peace consisteth in dismal processions over that baked and bar-grain of faith left, a little glimmer of light is it not worthy of attention? Our ren soil: England would go forward. Recent- when seasons of affliction appear, and the has declared, "Herein is my Father; ly acquired dominance rolls upon her the enemy comes in like a flood, and seems ready that ye bear much fruit."

pation of the Africo-American, are rapidly dis- ing to abide these chastening seasons; know- silence of its professed friends. It he appearing from among us; the agencies which ing that the dear Master will not afflict more been injured because the action (or the furnished an opportunity and a channel for than is necessary, but will come to their help tion) of its professed friends put weapo concerted effort, were largely disbanded nine- in his own good time, and his everlasting the hands of its enemies. A professed teen years ago; and abolitionists and auti- arms will be underneath to support. He is tian, a "pillar in Zion," who is sharp slavery societies linger with the younger gen- not an hard Master to those that give up all honest in business, who lives in selfish! eration as memories of an heroic age. Such to follow Him, but is full of tender compassion whose whole life testifies that this w an organization drags ont a feeble existence in and pity; for, "Like as a father pitieth his all, this man gives religion a staggering Great Britain. The facts which we have cited children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Voltaire would have been powerless reaching some of its members, led to a public Him.' conference during the month of November. throughout the Egyptian dominions the legal while on the sea of life? It is not intended status of slavery. Arnold M. P., moved a detaction of the antagonism of the slave trade outward elements should always be calm. to legitimate commerce and civilization, and But what the Christian wants when chas- the voice of the Blessed Shepherd, a of the justice of interference. The Earl of tened, is faith; for "Whom the Lord leveth that they could be persuaded to follow Shaftesbury presided at this meeting. His He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom Nothing in this life could so rejoice my name recalls to us a passage in our own colo- He receiveth :- If ye endure chastening, God as to see my precious offspring meek inal cabal; and through royal favor, was one and not sons." So that it behooves us to gird I do for my children than to bear them Carolina. He associated with himself in the armor of faith, that we may be enabled to grace. They are naturally amiable and making of a lasting constitution, the philosobear all that He is pleased to try us with, for but 1 long to see them new-born bapher John Locke. That instrument conferred He dealeth gently with his children, his little Christ, and not ashamed or afraid to c times two centuries have intervened, and as time. Then what is wanting is to have a Disraeli would put it, "a great many things simple, childlike dependence and trust; wait soul, rejoice that the Lord reigneth. have happened.

less. In the Circular Note which Earl Gran thee." I believe when a low state is the a reviving ray upon the drooping heart ville sent to Her Majesty's representatives at Christian's portion, it is not an evidence of cause a sweet screnity and peace to the various European courts, occurs this par-being forsaken by the blessed Master; but it within. Trust in the Lord at all times agraph: "The question of the suppression of is a trial of our faith; and it will be well for still, and know that He is God. the slave trade and of the abolition of slavery any not to take their flight at such a time, as possible in Egypt, is one which Her nor to be as the servant, when his master de-Christian, to know, that He who rule Majesty's Government have much at heart. layed his coming.

They will lose no favorable opportunity of The Christian's path has ever been and nations, and individuals, is his Father a advising the Khedive to take such steps as still remains to be, one beset with thorns; at friend. may be judicious for the attainment of these the same time not one that is bereft of joy objects,"—E. C. Dayton in N. Y. Evangelist, was at times a tribulated one, and one of than to have Him for our friend, that demand for Africans.

Prayer is the vital breath of faith.

The exportation of natives in large numwhere is the trueborn Christian that does not to in times of trouble. For our bless ward elements and seasons come in their though it may be in a very little t We wish that the concentrated gaze of the turn, so it is with the Christian traveller, small it may hardly be thought wo moral responsibility of the initiative. A re- to devour; and what joy when light again cent eye witness testifies that the route tra-breaks forth! "Unto you that fear my name versed by these bands is strewed thick with shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings." So that any that would Those whose object in life was the emanci- be followers of the Lord Jesus, must be will-false testimony, the false lives, the mis

R. W. Felkins, a medical missionary returned the bitter draughts as well as the sweet, open vice, and wringing the means of from the Court of M'tesa, confirmed the re-knowing they are very necessary for refine-indulgence from the poverty and ignor ports of correspondents in the field. Wm. E. ment, for purification. Where would be the the people. Foster, indicated a line of action in the resolutearnest pleadings, if our lives were all suntributed in the false testimony of professed tion that the Government be urged to exert shine? Where would be our earnest prayers tians that Christianity has most to discovered by the false testimony of professed tion that the Government be urged to exert shine? its influence to the utmost in abolishing if we were to glide along smoothly all the Selected.

nial history. It will be remembered that an dealeth with you as with sons; but if ye be sweetly bending to the yoke of Christ. Earl of Shaftesbury was a member of the orig- without chastisement then are ye bastards sometimes ready to cry out, what more of the proprietors and sovereigns of provincial up our loins, and arm ourselves with the my tears, upon my heart before the thi upon every freeman "absolute power and au-lones. His tender compassionate eye is over Him before men. thority over his negro slaves." Between all such, to give them help in every needful for the Lord in seasons of desertion, for He calm the rough surges of the mind. .I The meeting in Exeter Hall was not result has said, "I will never leave thee nor forsake bid the inward tempest cease. He can > and peace; but the latter overbalances the wisdom, love, faithfulness, and truth first. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, more we shall bow before his throne in whose mind is stayed on thee: because he ble adoration, and filial confidence and

For "The Friend." trusteth in thee." It was those "w I have lately been reading an account of the Lamb." So that these things mu

And what is more desirable in th not the Master want some fruits as I love very much going along with one, in dence of our love and appreciation of h

Philada., 3d mo, 4th, 1883.

Christianity has often been injured the help he got from the professed Chi There must be a willingness to partake of of his day, from prelates and priests li

Words of an Exercised Mother (now ne for her children .- They doubtless have

"Be still and know that I am God," (

all worlds, in whose hands are the destin

The more we know of God; of his p

War and its Consequences.

the ubiquitous soldier. In his various cms, white, scarlet, or blue,—he is every-a recent conversation with one of observation have been unusually " , he stated it to be his belief, "That if ersally known, accepted and adopted, it d bring about the millennium."

aping its moral destiny."

credit to themselves in the school or col- sant dreams." s swept away; let disappointment in some murmuring heart. ing scheme meet us in an unexpected moter, in which no hope of earthly prefer- what he wanted. t can ever enter; or let death, or sickth) enter our dwellings and seize upon our feast."

passed through such trying ordeals? A bright young girl, the pride of a house- of my ungrateful sheep." Except in their modern equipments hold, not many years since was slowly but colossal standing armies seem like mon surely fading away. Her young life had been vision had fled.—Selected. relies of the dark ages. * * What-were my impressions of various coun-assurance of long continuance, although the sone thing is very clear, and that is, that parents, in their fond anticipations, had shut nerican Republic is making a prodigious their eyes to the fact patent to all besides, are too grave, sober and quiet; that our peossion upon the older continents. It is until at length physicians of the highest stand-ple lack the merry, mirthful, nonchalant ways neely the coming nation; it has come! ing were constrained to say that hope of her and manners of those of older countries; and recovery could no longer be entertained. The it is supposed to follow, as a matter of course, en Plymoth Rock and San Francisco, father, who had, like all other professing that we lead, upon the whole, less happy lives, to devil gets America, the progress of Christians, so often repeated the formula It is a fact that careful observation is connity goes back more than ten degrees "Thy will be done," sealed his lips to what tinually affirming that the more despotic the dial plate. If the Lord Jesus Christ seemed to be a solemn mockery. One evening government, the more light, trifling and vola-America, then all the sooner will the as he sat beside the sick-bed, with feelings of tile is the disposition of the people. It is true strained to say, in agony of spirit, " No, my rather than as they choose; yet they are vivachild, I do not think it is. We might ask for cions and mirthful, often humorous and frolic-

I do not want to die.'

"Thy Will be Done."
expression is uttered more frequently uman lips in prayer—and possibly I and meet the last great change with hope and self-government. They are so hedged about ommercial life, we are too apt to utter, father was granted all he asked for, and even disposition and manners. The great unction and with a spirit submission of the dispensations, "Thy will be Hardeney Father's will, and abundant evisit in its demands nor so serious in its obligations." When social advancement, or politically the social advancement and the social advancement an referment, or any other thing on which heavenly grace, the old, old longing for her but not of the giddy and careless kind. There ave set our hearts, turns out a successful presence here, comes back at times upon the are continual choices to be made, decisions to ure, then the same formula, with the lather's heart with a spirit half rebellious, half form, undertakings to accept or refuse, actions the slow and toilsome accumulations of his only child, illustrates the rebellions and

t, when all seems ripe for full fruition; storm he went forth, lamenting loudly the a son on whose bright and prosperous calamity that had a second time fallen on his er in the path of fame or fortune, turn house, and was seeking a lamb for the cus tenly aside under an overmastering sense tomary funeral feast, when suddenly there luty to God and his own soul, and enter met him in the way a stranger of a majestic n some sphere of humble service for the and awe-inspiring presence, who asked him

"He had lost his only child," the poor man s, or mental obscuration (commensurate to said, "and he wanted a lamb for the funeral

rt's most cherished idol; then how few of "Does your flock make any resistance when an say in integrity of purpose, and with you take a lamb, or any lamentation after some mental protest or some secret re-ing, "Thy will be done"? "wards?" inquired the stranger. "Never," was the answer.

It is such ordeals and such distresses that "How differently am I treated," said the try our faith. It is such crucial tests that put stranger; "I shield my flock from the frosts rthe conclusion of Theodore L. Cuyler's our professions to the proof, and turn the of winter and the heats of summer, and I lead "From the Nile to Norway," occurs pure gold of our imaginary submission to the them through green pastures, and cause them flowing: "All through the Orient, yes, divine will into dust and ashes. How many to lie down beside the still waters; and yet, if Il through Europe, the perpetual eye of us have—or rather, how few of us have not I choose one of the lambs to eherish in my own bosom, my ears are filled with the clamors

The man looked up in amazement, but the

The Serious Aspect of Freedom.

It is sometimes said that, as a nation, we minim dawning break. It is not a matter bitterness and suppressed emotion, he was that there will be more suffering, there will mpty boasting, but it is a matter of startled by this inquiry from his darling fehild, be stern laws to obey, unwelcome tasks to permutous responsibility to be an American "Papa, is it right for any one to pray and not form, tastes and preferences must be given an and to bear even the humblest part say, 'Thy will be done?" and he was conjuncted the people must do as they are bidden peyond four-score years, but still in the something, in our shortsightedness and ignor some. The truth is, they are, to a great ssion of a clear and superior intellect; ance, that it would not be proper for God to extent, in the condition of children. They inent legal ability, and whose opportu- grant." "Well. papa," responded the child, have no cares at all about State affairs, no responsibility in them, and consequently but The bitterness of soul with which the father little interest about them. They submit, as octrines of the Society of Friends were heard that sad response, can never he ex- a matter of course, to be governed, and have pressed in words, and he attered in spirit, al- no thought as to how it shall be done or by though no audible sound escaped his lips, this whom; their only part being to obey without t add, with less idea of its solemn and reconciliation, I will ask no more!" And he with restrictions of authority and of custom I import—than the phrase that heads did receive within a few short days more than that their employments, conditions, modes of article. When prosperity attends our he had asked or even hoped; for the dear life and even habits of thought are marked teps in the path of life, and all things child looked death in the face with an un- out for them, and to make a choice or a deteps in the path of life, and all things of uses and use seen to work together for good to dismed eye and an unclouded intellect, even cision for them, and to make a rure event. All on ours, how easy it is for us to say, will be done." When we are gathering sly emoluments or honors for ourseful event with event of the every portals of immortal life. She this, which would seem to be so galling to us, by emoluments or honors for ourseful event with our notions of individual freedom, tends but children are growing up around us his couch about him, and lies down to pical and easy view of life to those who are accussively the says of the expensive the expensive the expensive to say the expensive to tomed to it, which is quite sufficient to acor are rising in the ranks of professional And yet, notwithstanding that bereaved count for the lightness and volatility of their

the tion the same formula, the five will, is by willing submission to the divine will, is by willing submission to the divine will, is The old legend of the Scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander, traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with consequences more or less improved to the scottish Highlander traught with the scottish Highla arthly prosperity turn against us; let us who for the second time had been bereaved of portant and far-reaching. Wherever authority is absent, responsibility is present, and in the same proportion. It is not strange that In the midst of a bitter and blinding winter the constant pressure of this influence should give to the manners a certain quiet gravity which contrasts with the volatility of some other nations. The necessity of wisdom, judgment, energy and discretion, which self-govenment implies, has a sobering effect on every one who is capable of it, and the thoughtful habit of mind which it induces must leave its trace on the countenance. And when to the responsibilities of self-government is added a share of responsibility in the government of the nation, the effect will be still more marked. Thus, in the very freedom of our institutions and the consequent responsibility laid upon our people, we see abundant reason for a graver and more dignified bearing than will my way, and asked the assistance of one of be shown by a people who have less liberty the poorest of these 'rice-planters.' He left and fewer obligations. When, however, this his work instantly, and with the smiling, is brought up as an evidence that our lives friendly courtesy, of which, by the way, one are less happy than theirs, we must deny the is always sure in the poorest Chinaman at conclusion. There is nothing easier than to home. He remained with me from noon till confound volatility with happiness, yet there dark, searching among the winding creeks is nothing more fallacious. As in nature, the and flat marshes for my companions. When most volatile substances most quickly lose we had found them, I handed him a dollar, a their individuality, so in humanity the most sum larger than he would own probably in volatile people usually have the least indition or three years. He refused it, nor could viduality of character. Yet all our best ideas all my persuasions force him to take it. of happiness are bound up in this very individuality. The slave, who does not own him-strangers, and the chance to obey the rule self and has not even the charge of providing comes to me so seldom that I dare not destroy for his physical existence is, of all people, the the good deed by taking pay for it.' most trifling and volatile. Yet who would "How many Christians might les think of ranking him among the happiest of son in humanity and faith from this poor fol- Endowed by heaven with gifts and graces rate mortals? or who, having once tasted the lower of Confucius!"—Youth's Companion.

Whom restless winged feet forever onward be sweets of freedom, would accept his lot? So as we ascend the scale of individuality, of intelligence, of liberty, of responsibility, though when his little boy toddled into the room, and laughter be less loud and gambols less frequent, real happiness increases with every step. Were this not the case the passage from it! childhood to manhood would be one of sorrow a sentence, glanced bastily at him, and with My thick and flowing locks, before me thrown and regret. With every advancement in lib-liust the slightest tone of impatience, said, "I Conceal my form, nor face nor breast is shown and regret. With every advancement in lib just the slightest tone of impatience, said, "I erty, with every new power of choice, the can't help it, sonny." The little fellow's eyes youth grows somewhat more serious, some grew higger, and, as he turned to go out, he what more impressed with the dignity of life, said, in a low voice, "Yes, you could; you somewhat more burdened with claims and might have said, 'Oh!'" obligations, yet at every succeeding advance he grows more conscious of the richness and fulness of life's happiness. Just as fast as self-government becomes established other governments become unnecessary, and the highest and best happiness of which we are capable must come, not through the merry, careless, easy life which depends on others and feels no responsibility, but through the serious and dignified acceptance of the duties and obligations which only the most perfect freedom imposes.—Public Ledger.

An American merchant who has been engaged in the tea business for seventeen years in Hong Kong, related lately some incidents which had fallen unde his observation in China, which throws a pleasant light upon the character of these little-known people.

"Americans," he said, "are the best fed and best clothed people in the world. It is absolutely impossible for them to realize the excessive poverty which exists among the agri-cultural population of Northern China. They have no food but rice and water, and seldom enough of that. There are hundreds of thousands of them who do not possess twenty cents in currency in the course of a year.

"When famine comes-and it needs but a partial failure of the rice crop to produce famine-they are reduced to live upon earth and grass. Lots are drawn to find which of the children shall be sacrificed for the others, and the victim is brought down in the town and sold for fifty cents as a slave, the parents parting with a grief and despair, which are I believe genuine.

"Female infants are strangled at birth in a 'hard summer,' because the parents aver, it is impossible to feed them, and it is better for them to die in this way than by slow starvation.

"I tell you of these extreme conditions of their life to make you understand my story I once went with some English officers duckshooting up into these barren regions. Becoming separated from my companions, I lost

·My religion,' he said, 'bids me be kind to

"How many Christians might learn a les- Say, who art thou with more than mortal air Sympathy .- A man sat in his study writing, holding up his pinched finger, said with an Not the swift eagle in his swiftest flight expression of suffering, "Look, pa, how I hurt | Can equal me in speed; my wings are bright,

Selected. THE CLEAR VISION.

I did hut drenm. I never knew What charms our sternest season wore, Was never yet the sky so blue, Was never earth so white before; Till now I never saw the glow Of sunset on you hills of snow And never learned the bough's design

Did ever such a morning break As that my eastern windows see? Did ever such a moonlight take Weird photographs of shrub and tree? Rang ever bells so wild and fleet The music of the winter street? Was ever yet a sound by half So merry as you schoolboy's taugh?

Of beauty in its leafless line.

O Earth! with gladness overfraught No added charm thy face hath found; Within my heart the change is wrought, My footsteps make enchanted ground. From couch of pain and curtained room Forth to thy light and air I come, To find in all that meets my eyes The freshness of a glad surprise.

Fair seem these winter days, and soon Shall blow the warm west winds of spring, To set the unbound rills in tune,

And hither urge the bluebird's wing The vales shall laugh in flowers, the Grow misty green with leafing buds, And violets and wild-flowers sway Against the throbbing heart of May.

Break forth, my lips, in praise, and own The wiser love severely kind; Since, richer for its chastening grown, I see, whereas I once was blind. The world, O Father! hath not wronged With loss the life by thee prolonged; But still, with every added year, More beautiful thy works appear,

As thou hast made thy world without, Make thou more fair my world within Shine through its lingering clouds of doubt:

Rebuke its haunting shapes of sin: Fill, brief or long, my granted span Of life with love to thee and man; Strike when thou wilt the hour of rest. But let my last days he my best !

-J. G. Whittier.

HITHERTO AND HENCEFOR

Hitherto the Lord hath blessed us Guiding all the way

Henceforth let us trust Him fully, Trust Him all the day.

Hitherto the Lord bath loved us. Caring for his own; Henceforth let us love Him better. Live for Him alone.

Hitherto the Lord hath blessed us, Crowning all our days; Henceforth let us live to bless Him Live to show his praise. -F. R. I OPPORTUNITY.

I am Occasion! known to few, at best; And since one foot upon a wheel I rest, Constant my movements are; they cannot be 1

The father, interrupted in the middle of And man who sees them waved is dazzled by

That thus, as I approach, my coming be not k Behind my head no single lock of hair Invites the hand that fain would grasp it there But he who lets me pass, to seize me may desp

Whom, then, so close behind thee do I see? Her name is Penitence, and heaven's decree Hath made all those her prey who profit not by And thou, O mortal, who dost vainly fly

These curious questions, thou dost not descry That now thy time is lost, for I am passing by!

—Translated from Te

Exercise of a Mother in the Truth, about year 1860.-I feel solicitons that, not o literary but the religious guarded edu of the children should be promoted by means as may be in our power. Where able schools cannot be obtained, much be done at home. A mother or a sister, a due sense of the importance of the su if concerned to devote a portion of their to the careful instruction of the junior bers of a family, may greatly aid in prep the tender minds of the children to re the precious Seed, and opening their u standing in best things: early impression very lasting, that we may be encourage hope, with the divine blessing, a gener. may be raised up prepared to support in day, the doctrines of the Society and als peculiar testimonies, the treading down overlooking many of which, we deeply me on our own account.

Religious Prudence.-It is a part of relig prudence to place ourselves as much an often as it is in our power to do, in cire stances directly favorable to our great desi and to avail ourselves of all the positive he and furtherances which these circumstar afford. But we are to remember that it is world which constitutes our outward circu stances; that in the form of the world, wh is evermore at variance with the Divine for or idea, they are east and moulded; and the of the means and measures which prude requires in the forming anew of the Div image in the soul, the greatest part suppo the world at enmity with our design. are to avoid its snares, to repel its attacks suspect its aids and succors; and even wl compelled to receive them as allies within ols.—Coleridge.

s and Americans. — A Chapter of Con- the lesson. trarieties.

iz chapter. Perhaps, however, we ought home, and does not go out for a month. of mber, when we call them a peculiar In China, the funeral customs are often I that they call us the same, and say directly the reverse of ours. In our country, ime.

bs, yet to commit the outworks alone language has no alphabet. The written lan-bells from the outside, and actually turn their charge, and to keep them at a jealous guage is not spoken, and the spoken language screws in the opposite direction from ours.—

p from the citadel. The powers of the is not written. Two men can converse in Selah Brown in Chris. Advocate. re often ehristened, but seldom Chris- writing when they cannot understand a word They are but proselytes of the outer of each other in speaking. A Chinese school r, like the Saxons of old, enter the land is a perfect Babel. The pupils study out loud. viaries, and remain in it as conquerors each one at the top of his voice, and all at be opposite side of the globe from own courting, and engagements for marriage ra is a nation of people who are not are made by the parties most concerned. In he lived; and then he added, "But I have a or antipodes in geographical position, China, the parents, with the help of "go-by differ from us in a multitude of ways, betweens," select husbands and wives for conversation attracted the attention of other y are they asleep when we are awake; their children, and the parties often never see passengers, and one of them who narrated it by is their midnight our noonday, and each other till the wedding is over. After said that those words kept ringing in his ears inset our sunrise; but their peculiar marriage, instead of a wedding trip, the bride all the rest of the day. He could not get rid as and eccentric customs form a very is shut up as a prisoner in her husband's of the deep impression made by the singular

ve are the ones that do things contrari- a coffin would not be considered a very appro-Still, to us they are a very odd people. priate present; in the "Flowery Kingdom," chake hands as a salutation; a China a coffin is often given to a parent or a triend. Little, too, did the veteran think of the takes hands with himself; that is, he while they are yet in perfect health. This is is hand since, and, clasping both hands kept in the house for years, and often used as the carts of his fellow travellers, who did not ter, he shakes them up and down at you. a table or bench. We go in silence to the even know his name. Our unconscious inof saying, "Good morning," or "How grave; they with great noise and confusion, fluences are frequently the best or the worst of do?" they say, "How old are you?" We deposit our dead in cemeteries; with them that we exert. Lve you eaten your rice?" We uncover each family has its separate place of sepul. days the best of all is when the pilgrim life had as a mark of respect; they keep ture. We bury in the earth; they on its surgest a far and when the staff and cast evered, but take off their shoes face. We put our inscriptions on the top of sandals are so soon to be laid aside, to feel that htter of politeness. We shave the face; a coffin; they on the end. We choose a shady our best and largest "interests are in the next have the head and eye-brows. We place for burial; but no shadow must ever world." That treasure grows at more than he patriarchal beard before; they have fall on a Chinese grave. With us, black cloth- compound interest. Its value increases as og "pig-tail" hehind. We cut our finger ing is a badge of mourning; with them, white the vision of it widens like the firmament!

When broken off they are used as sites it is the old men that fly kites, play marbles, walk on stilts, and play shuttle-cock; the rest of mankind begin. His waist they play the latter with their feet, instead are eternal."-Selected. outside his coat, and his drawers out- of their hands. In China, women do men's s pants. We blacken our shoes; he work, and men are the milliners, dressmakers s them. Our ladies compress the waist; and washerwomen. With us the right hand the feet. Our women wear long dresses; is the place of honor; with them it is the left Ind Prussian blue, and wonder at the pay stops. Here, men kill their enemies in he frequently does. red taste that demands "doctored tea." revenge, a Chinaman gets "sweet revenge"

By the Wayside.-Two aged men entered a street car a few days ago, in a neighboring city. One of them, who was paralyzed, said once. When a scholar recites he turns his in reply to a question of the other as to his once. When a scholar recites he turns his welfare, "I have a very large interest in the next world." When asked, "How are you In America, young people prefer to do their off for this world?" he answered pleasantly that he had enough to meet his wants while earnestness and happiness of the old disciple. Surely this is the beauty of old age, its joy and blessedness, the calm assurance of a portion beyond this life in "the inheritance of the saints in light.

Little, too, did the veteran think of the

But the best of all is when the pilgrim life they consider it quite aristocratic to garments indicate the loss of friends.

hails from three to five inches long, But where shall we end this chapter of conwings, and fly away. It is a life interest for they are obliged to protect in silver traries and oddities? In that land of oppo. eternity, and faith only asserts its divine prerogative, "while we look not at the things which are seen, for the things that are seen atters of dress John Chinaman finishes and to keep up their odd way of doing things are temporal, but the things that are not seen

For " The Friend,"

Natural History, Science, &c.

The Polar Bear .- The polar bear is an anilong sleeves. In China the men carry hand. In dating letters we place the year mal of great strength and flerceness, and he women wear the tronsers. Last; they write the year first. Instead of seems to grow stronger and flercer the further eating, their enstowns are in striking saying. "North-eavi" or "South-west," they North he dwells. His rich soft fur is of a striking saying. "East-north" and "West-south." They yellowish-white color. He has a long flat s, and dessert at last; they have dessert always speak of the mariner's compass (their head, a long neck, high logs, and a powerful and soup at last. They ignore knife own invention) as pointing to the south body. It is curious to observe how admirably the and spoon, and eat with two "chop-Here, a mother shows her affection or her his feet are adapted to the conditions under the wines iee-cold; the Chinese of it. We locate the intellect in the brain; kind of thick fleece, so that be treads the rough theirs scalding hot. In our land we they in the stomach. We pay our physicians ice as on a carpet; while, the toes being conour beautifully colored "Young Hy- when we are sick; they pay the doctor while nected by a membrane or web, the feet serve in the land of tea they leave out the in- they are well, but as soon as they get sick the as paddles when he takes to the water, which

He is not often found on the land. He not only leave off the coloring, but al-by killing himself. They mount a horse from loves to prowl about the floating ice field, the right side, and when they want him to go where he feeds upon the dead bodies of whales it books are also quite dissimilar to ours. they say, "Whoa." The men ride sidewise, and seals, or attacks the latter on their emerbegin just where ours end. We read and the women astride. We use lanterns in gence from the water. When he catches s; they in columns. We read horizon- a dark night; they carry more lanterns at sight of a seal basking in the sunshine on a rom left to right; they perpendicularly, full moon than at any other time. We place distant piece of ice, he quietly drops into the top to bottom. Our foot notes are on a candle in a candlestick; they put the candles water and swims until to leeward of his inbttom of the page; theirs on the top, stick in the candle. Their detectives sound tended victim, who otherwise would seent his int on both sides of the leaf; they on a "tom-tom" at night to give thieves and approach; thence by short but frequent dives, one, but their leaves are always double. rogues notice of their coming. We draw he silently continues his approach, and so artour volumes up on end in our libra- canal boats with horses; they with men. We ranges his distances that after the last dive they lay theirs down. We print with sell wood by measure; they by weight. We he comes up at the spot where the seal is type; they with wooden blocks. In vaccinate in the arm; they in the nose. We peacefully reclining. If the poor animal at-We peacefully reclining. If the poor animal atur pen obliquely; they perpendicularly, store-signs are horizontal; theirs are perpen-finds himself in the bear's terrible grasp; if hk is a fluid; theirs a bard cake. Their dicular. They launch ships sidewise, ring on the contrary be lies still his enemy makes proceeds to devour him.

not hibernate, as its food being chiefly animal, one of the many water-holding plants which it is able to obtain a supply of it at all seasons. thrive in the forests, qualified his cold refresh-The male is said to leave the land in winter, ment by a drink of rum. Shortly afterward and go out on the ice to the edge of the water, he died in excruciating agony, and a post morwhere it hunts the seal. The females bury tem examination showed that his internal orthemselves in the snow from the 11th to the gans were literally sealed up with India-rub-3rd month. Preparatory to going into win-ber. He had imbibed the sap of the Mimusops ter quarters, she selects a hollow place, often balata, the juice of which coagulates and at the foot of a bank or underneath overhang. hardens in alcohol, and the rum had had its hardly any of the people appeared ing rocks, and there allows the drifting snow usual effect in the poor man's stomach, with seen a European before. He says, "(e) to cover her over to a considerable depth. necessarily fatal results. She is at this season very fat, and on this fat numbers of the females in their holes during average time is not more than 2 minutes. winter, being greatly helped in this by their Unfortunately the narrow strip of territory dogs, who scent thein and then begin scratch from which alone this eclipse is visible traver by me-not for fear of my own, but ing at the snow overhead. As it would be un-ses the South Pacific Ocean nearly from side safety. They would first stick out the safe to make too large an opening, a narrow to side, just falling short of the solid ground and stare at me, and then on a near trench is dug, just wide enough to let a man see for an astronomer to stand on in South Amer-break loose from their halters or teth where the creature's head lies. This being as- ica or in Australia. The track of the eclipse rush away helter skelter without any certained, the spear of the Esquimaux is just misses nearly all of the small Pacific is for what might be in their way. W thrust into a mortal part, and the prize is then lands, including, in fact, only two small coral I met buffaloes carrying packs along

Iceland, where parties of bears have been may be interesting. known to land, as the old Norsemen used to The expedition is sent by the United States lage, and tethered in the shade are do on the English coast, and do great damage Government, by the co-operation of the Na. houses; and then I had to creep about by attacking and devouring the flocks, until tional Academy of Sciences, of the Naval Ob-thief by back ways, for no one could to the inhabitants rose en masse and destroyed servatory, and of the Coast Survey them. A recent traveller in Iceland states The island is a mere reef, or collection of were I to walk among them. If I car of no fewer than thirteen polar bears. Weak been visited since 1874. and emaciated, however, from want of food Strait, which are forty miles apart.

The strength of the polar bear may be in-ferred from his size. He generally measures in every way, and from the skill of its various maining work was not wisely done; six feet in length, and about three feet in members and from the unusual opportunities the want of uniformity in style, which height to the top of the shoulder; but much which they have, we have every reason to be sure to mark a translation which we larger individuals are met with. He is not look for important results. an unsociable animal, and usually wanders Teeth of the Beaver .- So hard is the enamel, about in small troops, while hears of a family and so good a cutting instrument is the incisor plan, the substance of which is as folloalways "flock together." Parents and off-tooth of the beaver, that, when fixed in a spring are united by bonds of the most devot- wooden handle, it was, according to Dr. Riehed affection. The vigilant care with which ardson, used by the Northern Indians to cut ent books to individual translators. the female watches over her cubs has been re-bone, and fashion the horn-tipped spears, &c., marked by every traveller. - In the Polar Re-till it was superseded by the introduction of eight members, four of whom shall be for one powerful leap, kills him on the ice, and Guiana, where an inexperienced traveller having, as is the custom in tropical countries. The polar bear, unlike other species, does taken a refreshing draught from the stem of ravages of the beavers say they, are greater than the polar bear.

Sun's Eclipse. - The Sidereal Messenger, she subsists for nearly five months, during states that the total eclipse of the sun of 5th went, dogs barked, children screamed which she sleeps in her bed of snow. The mo. 6th, 1883, will be peculiarly favorable for ran away, and men stared as though bed gradually enlarges around the bear, owing studying the phenomena of the Sun's atmost some strange and terrible cannibal in to the melting of the snow caused by the phere on account of the duration of the total Even the pack-horses in the roads at an animal's warmth. The Esquimanx kill great phase, which will be 6 minutes, while the would start aside when I appeared, the content of reefs named Flint and Caroline Islands, re- way, or being driven home to the variety for the polar bear is a great sailor, and takes spectively. To the latter of these (which had to turn aside into the jungle and bear is a great sailor, and takes spectively. advantage of floating masses of ice to trans- must not be confounded with the Caroline Is-self till they had passed, to avoid a catan port himself from one island to another. In lands, which are further west), an expedition which would increase the dislike with this way he occasionally gets as far south as is shortly to be sent, some account of which I was already regarded. Every day that in 1859 vast masses of polar ice were small islands, which contained in 1874 only denly upon a well where women wered swept down on that coast, and that on this some thirty native inhabitants, and one stray water or children bathing, a sudder pack the Icelanders received an importation Englishman. So far as is known it has not was the certain result; which things oc

during their long sea voyage, they were easily turn home via Honolulu and San Francisco, dispatched on landing. "One of these brutes," after a voyage of some 12,000 miles by sea says the traveller, "made his entrance into a and a land journey of 3,000 miles. The party peasant's hut on the northwest coast in rather consists of Prof. Holden, director of the Washan unceremonious manner. The snow being burn Observatory at Madison, Wis., who in-on a level with the roof, Bruin found himself tends to examine the vicinity of the Sun for there in his travels in quest of food. Attract, the detection of a planet nearer the Sun than Agent of the American Bible Society is ed, I imagine, by the redolent odor from Mercury; of Prof. Hastings, of the Johns convey intelligence which is indicative within, be commenced scratching, and eventu- Hopkins University, who will make spectro- rapid progress of Christianity in that (ally went headlong through, scaring the whole scopic observations of the solar corona; of It is to the effect that a number of Ja family. The poor beast, however, scarcely Rockwell, of Tarrytown, N. Y., who will obless frightened, was speedily dispatched and serve the contacts and make eye observations; appeal to be allowed an active part eaten, the fate of everything the natives can of Prof. C. S. Pierce, of the Coast Survey, who work of translating the Old Testament. lay hands on during the winter months." will also make spectroscopic observations; of speak of the translation of the Bible as The polar bear is also a great swimmer, Capt. Lieut. Brown, of the navy, and of two pho work, and far reaching in its consequence. Sabine having observed one making its way tographers who will be sent by the Royal of the blessings which had come to between the north and south shores of Barrow Society of London, to photograph the corona through the New Testament, which ha and its spectrum.

iron, when the beaver tooth was supplanted ers and four Japanese. Curions Accident.—The Colonies and India by the English file.

3. That the Japanese reports an extraordinary fatality from British | The power of these natural tools is well de-by Japanese Christians.

scribed by Lewis and Clark, who see effects on the banks of the Misson parent: in one place the timber was at prostrated for a space of three acres great part of it removed, although were in large quantities, and some of her thick as the body of a man, Terror caused by a White Skin.-R. Waltace was collecting birds and on he penetrated to a village in Celebe w disagreeable result of this was, that he terror alike in man and beast. Whim into the jungle; and as to those uglyn the buffaloes, they could never be apply noon the buffaloes were brought into be mischief they might do to children and day after day, were very unpleasant t When the eclipse is over the party will re-son who does not like to be disliked.

> For "The 1 Religious Items, &c.

The Bible in Japan .- Letters fro already published and widely circulat The party is well equipped with instruments the severe evils which would ensue if duced by the labors of many different se working apart. They therefore sub

> 1. That the whole work be given t Translating Committee, instead of the

2. That the Committee be compos

3. That the Japanese members be e hat the foreigners and Japanese memwe equal rights in voting.

members of society.

e Pressensé and Parisian free-thinkers. clical religion is making in France, that friends of God .- Dr. Prime. arisian free-thinkers are not unwilling the "new gospel," as they term Protestbristianity, have a fair bearing. day, E. de Pressensé, one of the best of French evangelical workers, rean invitation to address a free-thinking Paris. He went, and he reports that od. "No," he replied, "I have not seen "We ten ian truth.

ing Seed .- At the funeral of Gambetta is, a woman named de Broen had dised 67,000 copies of a "souvenir" ad- Holy Spirit on their minds.' d to the citizens of Paris, "Free-think-atholics or Protestants." They conere eagerly received and generally care-

igal a Republic.—Ledger.

homes about sixty seven thousand chil- count each day as lost on which I had not carried out?

THE FRIEND.

THIRD MONTH 24, 1883.

The Society of Friends has frequently exwarmly received. Much of what he horted its members to the careful perusal of the Lord Jesus Christ, "must feel the law of defence of Protestant Christianity was the Holy Scriptures. In the book of Advices life, the holy laws of the new covenant, not ed with every mark of approval; al. of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting is the follow- comprehended outwardly in his mind, but a more than once signs of dissent were ing passage, issued in 1732, more than 150 written inwardly in his heart by the finger

"We tenderly and earnestly advise and exut I have felt and heard him whenever hort all parents and heads of families, that ice of conscience has reproached me in they endeavor to instruct their children and attention to the very different condition of whe for any wrong I have done. I pity families in the doctrines and precepts of the different Monthly Meetings in regard to the who do not hear this voice, but you will Christian religion, as contained in the Holy support of their poor. Some meetings are so a rit one day." This statement was rewith solehn silence. Pressense him diligent reading of those excellent writings, contributions from their members for this purhinks that this gathering "presented which plainly set forth the miraculous con-pose; in consequence of which there is danger hopeful features," especially as showing ception, birth, holy life, wonderful works, that their benevolent feelings will not be suffiven in a radical and revolutionary club, blessed example, meritorious death, and gloric ciently developed for want of exercise. In ed over by the notorious Louise Michel, ous resurrection, ascension and mediation, of others, the demands are so large, as to be a possible to gain a hearing for words of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and to little oppressive. Our correspondent suggests educate their children in the belief of those that a remedy may be found by making all important truths, as well as in the belief of such expenses payable out of the common the inward manifestation and operation of the stock of the Yearly Meeting. One advantage

We regard this advice as an evidence of the ings would more largely assist the poorer, soundness of judgment of Friends of those. Some difficulty would be found in carrying before giving their evidence. Belgium at such other time as may best suit their busireece bave also been considering the mess arrangements; and to spend a suitable mentary oath. In Portugal the Depudince after it in a serious waiting together ave to swear upon the Holy Gospels to upon the Lord. Where this is done, not thful to the king and to maintain the merely in a formal way, but with proper the subject should be carefully considered in blic. Apostolic and Roman religion. A reverence and dependence on the Lord tor in- its various aspects before being adopted. ty from Madeira, a pronounced Republistruction, we believe it will be found useful. found no difficulty, it seems, in making Many can testify that such seasons have been d a bill to abolish the religious oath, de- to maintain a daily watch against evil, and a ject to such reading at stated times, as being tendency to embrace Christianity, which it

If I had another life to live, and two thous- too much like a formal offering, but would and letters to write again, with God's help I not the same objection apply in measure to hat means be furnished to enable the would not hurt the feelings of the humblest the appointment of regular times for meeting rs to devote their whole time to the of all God's creatures, honestly trying to do for Divine worship? Does not experience good. He might be as big as Daniel Lambert, show that where there is no time set apart larger's Aid Society.—During the last and I would not call him fat and unctuous; for such family readings, they are very seldom years the Children's Aid Society of he might be as lean as Calvin Edson, and I put in practice? and that the concern of the ork has taken out from that city into would not call him a bag of bones. I would Society on this subject is very imperfectly

In the majority of cases the children, made some hearts gladder than they were in We have need to be on our guard lest the ould otherwise have grown up into the morning; on which I had not plucked up undue prominence given to the Scriptures and sism and crime, have become good and some thorns, or planted some flowers on the other outward means, by some, should lead path of human life. Dogs will snarl at him, any to the opposite extreme of improperly but angels are around him. He may never neglecting them. For as Isaac Penington pleasant sign of the progress which have riches or fame, but better than both are says: "The directions from God's Holy Spirit in the Scriptures, are exceedingly weighty and precious in themselves, and very proper to the several states to which they were given forth; and blessed is he, who is found in the practice and observation of them." At the same time, it is right to bear in mind the caution given by the same experienced Christian, that he who would be a true disciple of of God's Spirit."

> We have received a communication calling of this plan would be, that the wealthier meet-passages from the Bible, of consolation days, and of their care not to push their views out this scheme, from the fact that some meetafflicted and of pardon to the penitent, of one great and fundamental truth to such ings have special funds, the income of which an extreme as to lead them to undervalue is applicable to the relief of their poorer memothers. The chief mission entrusted to them bers, but might not properly be applied to cial Ouths .- The injunction "Swear not undoubtedly was to call the attention of the the help of others. Again, to extend proper seems to be coming nearer and nearer world to the spiritual nature of true religion relief to those in need, is a duty that requires atobservance in Europe. Bradlaugh's —to turn people inward to the work of the not only sound discretion, but tender symbols called up the subject in two ways. Spirit in their own hearts, where the Light pathy. The knowledge of the circumstances ot merely proposed to substitute affir of Christ reveals sin, and enables all those to of each case must be confided to but few, so n for the oath on grounds of belief or forsake it, who will be obedient to the holy that the feelings of the recipients may not be elief, but in Italy, where the oath has commandment thus given to them. But they improperly wounded. There is some danger ligious significance, objection has been were willing to avail themselves of every help, that if this proposal is carried out, there may by pronounced republicans to being which the Lord in his goodness might afford, grow up some disatisfaction, and that meetto support the monarchy. France has in the working out of their soul's salvation. abolished even the judicial oath, and Many Friends are in the daily practice of mon stock may be thought to be less prudent fter witnesses will only be confronted reading a portion of the Bible in their col- and careful in their expenditures than they the penalties for perjury, read over to lected families, either at the morning meal, or ought to be; and that unpleasant discussions may result.

It is quite possible these difficulties can be obviated, but like every change suggested in the discipline of a society like that of Friends,

We have received the first number of The ntal reservation. He was sworn in at comforting and refreshing to them, and that Hebrew-Christian, published at No. 25 East present session, and immediately prettee they have been helpful in assisting the mind 7th street, New York. The prospectus says: "This paper is called The Hebrew-Christian, ig himself at the same time an inflexible constant looking unto the Source of all good, because we are first Hebrews and then Chrisnent of the monarchy, desiring to see on which largely depend our preservation tians. It will be the exponent of the Hebrewand growth in spiritual life. Some may ob Christians." It is designed to foster the Jews at present than it has since the days of the apostles. It desires also to awaken in the Christian community, greater interest in this movement.

The first number of a monthly periodical, "devoted to the cause of truth," has come to hand. It is called "The Primitive Friend." and is published by Ezra Lamborn, at Emporia, Kansas, at 50 cents per annum. It is issued under the supervision of a committee of Cottonwood Monthly Meeting. The Editor states, "It is our intent to publish nothing contrary to the principles and profession of the Society of Friends, believing them to be the Truth." This intention appears to be faithfully carried out in the number now issued.

In the notice of the three small books re-111 cts. per lb., as to quality. rently issued by the Book Committee of the rible explosion occurred in the local government board Meeting for Sufferings, one of them is spoken offices in Westminster. The report was heard at the of as a memoir of Elizabeth Stirredge. distance of two or three miles; also in the House of Commous, where it caused alarm. Being the dinner was an error and should have been printed, Elizabeth Ashbridge. hour, few members were present, and no one was in-

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- The ratifications of the Treaty with Madagascar were exchanged in Washington on the 13th inst., and the Treaty was proclaimed by the President. The adjacent streets are filled with myriads of frag-Sheep men in Texa-report heavy loses by the recent ments of glass, and heavy plate glass is lying in heaps cold rain. Some of the largest owners say they will on the ground. A stone, weighing 200 pounds, was lose a third of their flucks and all their lambs.

The number of hogs packed in Chicago during the ear which ended 3d month 1st, 1883, was 4,223,000 a inspector has made an examination of the portion of year which chief on month 188, 1655, was 1,225,000 a Inspector has made an examination of the portion of decrease of 878,000 on the number of the preceding the building damaged by the explosion, and places the year. The average weight of the hogs packed was 218 loss at £4000. A close inspection shows that the exponds against 231 in 1881, and 234 in 1880. The piosion occurred from the outside of the building. The number of cattle shughtered in Chicago during the last Government has offered a reward of £1000 for the disconnections. year was 774,578.

Mayor Jacob, of Louisville, says the greatest suffering in the lately flooded portions of the Ohio valley, is among the farmers, not in the towns. Many of the on behalf of Irish laborers and for a large scheme of farmers are entirely destitute.

The Mississippi river continues to decline at Memphis, and at many places between that city and Helena is again within its banks. The track of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad is free from water and the damage to it is being repaired. At Helena, the river is falling six inches daily, and a few days since registered 45 feet.

The bottom lands will soon be above water, and planting is expected to begin within three weeks. Stringent sanitary measures will be enforced in the flooded region when the water subsides. A telegram from Helena says, "the backwater from White river, uniting with the overflow from the Hubbard and Old Town breaks, has submerged a large region of country in the Beaver Bayon and Lower Big Creek section, which was never by the Conference, which has been in session in Paris, before known to be inundated from any cause. Owing to these hitherto high points having always withstood overflows no stock was driven out; consequently there has been absolute annihilation of every kind of live stock, together with a large number of deer and other

The latest reports from the lower Mississippi districts show that the water is receding at all points, and however, that these States will give their adhesion the planters are preparing to put in their crops.

The large railroad bridge across the Schuylkill river at Norristown was destroyed by fire on the evening of the Socialists on trial in Vienna has broken down. the 15th inst. The loss is estimated at $40,000.

The compendium of the census, recently issued by the Census Bureau, shows that there are 8,567 mann-convert the Desert of Sahara into an inland sea. facturing establishments in this city, and products valued at $324,342,935

There were 400 deaths in this city last week, which was 33 less than during the previous week, and 25 less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the whole number, 188 were males, and 212 females: 63 died of consumption; 33 of pneumonia; 21 of old age; 20 of diphtheria; 15 of marasmus; 17 of croup, and 11 of typhoid fever.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104; 3½'s 104; 4½'s, 113;

4's, registered, 1191; conpon, 1201; currency 6's 129 that the Minister of Agriculture is making every effort a 132

Cotton is quiet but steady, at 102 cts for middling upnds.

Petroleum rules firm, at 8 a 8½ cts. for refined, in steamer Parisian, which sailed from Liverpool for ard" do.

1000 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.75 a

Average price during the week-Prime timothy, 95

and to have been the work of Fenians. The building is a deep trench, ten feet by three in dimensions, in one ing a hole the size of a man's head. A Government

Lord Dunraven intends to propose at the present emigration, in order to prevent a recurrence of distress

Three Skye Crofters have each been sentenced to 21 months' imprisonment for resisting a sheriff,

The French Chambers have adjourned for a month

The Budget for 1884 has been presented in the Chamber of Deputies. The total increase of expenditure is estimated at 50,000,000 francs. The estimated revenue is 3,203,640,825 francs, and the expenditure 3,103,441,-

On the 20th instant, the representatives of France,

Italy, Belgium, Spain, Portngal, Roumania, Servia,

Switzerland, Brazil, the Argentine Republic, San Sal-securing to the citizens of the various States the same advantages with respect to patents, designs, trademarks, and commercial names that other countries accord to their own subjects. England is holding off, and will defer action until the bills, now pending in Parliament, are passed. Russia will not sign. America will wait to see how the Convention works. It is possible,

It is evident that the charge of high treason against

De Lesseps has embarked from Marseilles for Tunis to direct the surveys in connection with the project to

It is intended to reduce railway rates in order to en

Islands to Brazil, where the loss is already so serious

It is expected that the emigration to Canada during to discover a means of stopping it.

separately

overy of the anthor of the explosion.

moves slowly at $3.75 a *4 per barrel.

local lots, but weaker for options.

as to condition.

thinks exists in a greater degree among the barrels, 10 cts. for "Chester" cases, 103 cts. for "stand- Halifax on the 15th inst., took 450 emigrants. number of Seandinavians and Germans will p Flour and Meal .- Flour is dull and weak. Sales of Northwest Canada in the course of the next fiv

> *6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5.10; western do., at pany of heavy Eastern and English capitalists $5.121 a $6.25, and patents at $6.25 a $8. Bye flour formed with a view of colonizing from twenty thousand immigrants in Mexico, It is pro Grain .- Wheat is weak and |c. lower. Sales of red, provide each immigrant with a plot of groun in car lots at $1.15 a $1.202. Rye is steady at 68 a 70 and farming implements and animals, and sta cts. Corn is unsettled and lower: sales of 10,000 to work; the Company to receive in return fi bushels, in car lots, at 55 a 66½ cts. Oats are steady for Mexican Government $800 for each immigrant large land grants. The scheme will be suba Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 3d mo. the Mexican Congress next month. 17th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 341; loads of straw, 54.

Mexican officers, now in St. Louis, say that

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

cts. to $1.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 a 95 cts.; straw, A Stated Meeting of the Committee having cl the Boarding School at Westtown, will be Beef cattle were in fair demand at about former rates: Philadelphia on Sixth-day, 3rd mo. 30th, at 11

2900 head arrived and sold at 5% a 7% cts, per lb., as to The Committee on Admissions and the Com on Instruction will meet the same day at 9 A. M Sheep were in fair demand; 10,000 head arrived and

The Visiting Committee, appointed to attend sold at 41 a 7 cts., and lambs at 51 a 81 cts. per pound, amination at the School, meet there on Secondary 26th inst. For the accommodation Hogs were dull: 3000 head arrived and sold at 10 a committee, conveyances will be at Street Road on the 26th inst., to meet the trains that leave t FOREIGN .- On the evening of the 15th instant, a terat 2.25 and 4.55 P. M.

Philada., 3d mo, 1883,

The Temperance Association of Friends of delphia, will hold a meeting in Friends' me jnred. It is thought to have been caused by dynamite, house, Sixth and Noble streets, on Fourth-day er 3rd mo. 28th, at 8 o'clock. Addresses may be exhas the appearance of having been bombarded. There from several Friends interested in the cause. The attendance of Friends generally is respect room, the floor of which has been literally ploughed. invited, THOS. SCATTERGOOD, Chairn

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

Wanted, a teacher for Arithmetic and Natural H in the Girls' Department, to enter upon her dut the opening of next session.

Application may be made to Elizabeth C. Dunn, Trenton, N. J

Benlah M. Rhoads, Haddonfield, N. J Martha D. Allen, 3709 Baring St., Phi TRACT ASSOCIATION OF FRIENDS.

The Annual Meeting will be held in the Comm room of Arch Street Meeting house, on the eveni. Fourth-day, the 28th instant, at 8 o'clock. Friends generally are invited to attend.

Philada., 3rd mo. 1883.

EDWARD MARIS

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL.

The SUMMER SESSION opens on THIRD-DAY, 5th 1st, 1883. Parents and others who intend sen pupils, are requested to make early application Jonathan G. Williams, Sup't., Westtown P. O., C. ter Co., Pa.: or to Charles J. Allen, Treas'r, No. Arch St., Philadelphia. vador and Guatemala, signed the convention adopted

> DIED, at Germantown, 11th mo. 7th, 1882, JAME Comfort, aged 72 years, a member of Falls Mool Meeting, Bucks Co., Pa.

> —, on 1st month 24th, aged 93 years, It THORP, a member of Frankford Monthly Meeting. -, at Mount Laurel, Burlington Co., New Je on 1st mo. 28th, WILLIAM JESSUP, a member and of seer of Evesham Monthly Meeting of Friends, in 79th year of his age. His family and friends have > consoting belief that his end was peace. -, on 2nd mo. 4th, at Media, Pa., T. CHALKI PALMER, in the 79th year of his age, a member

> Chester Monthly Meeting, Pa. —, at Crosswicks, New Jersey, on 2nd mo. Il Amos E. Middleton, in the 69th year of his agreementer of Chesterfield Monthly Meeting of Friend

Powers that an international detective force be organized to ope with Anarchists, Nihilists, Fenians and Socialists, France, Switzerland and Austria have actional content of the proposal.

The coffee blight has spread for the proposal.

The coffee blight has spread for the proposal.

-, at his residence in this city, on the 14th insta WILLIAM S. PEROT, in the 83rd year of his age, a me ber of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelph

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER. No. 422 Walnut Street.

THE FRIEND.

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, THIRD MONTH 31, 1883.

NO. 34.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid ndvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

cicles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, IOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

leess on War, by Henry Richard, M. P.

Condensed from the London Friend. markable passage many years ago in land has ever waged against any country." I will come now to times within the remer Take again the American War. I suppose in lamenting to me that he had suffered himword in defence of it. That war involved us declared that he ought to have resigned. in conflicts with France and Spain, as well as onrown Colonies; it cost us at the time £136,- what you call your Christian principles can-000,000; there was borrowed in its support not be trusted to give an opinion that is enhave this awful circumstance, that Lord or Mr. Pease or Mr. Richard may say against had made the war, was, as has since been and therefore we cannot trust them." shown by the publication of letters by his I say that those who have no principle, who daughter, against the war the whole time he are swayed by influence, by passion, by cawas earrying it on.

says that it was "the most hateful, the most war, for in the great majority of instances hember meeting with the following unjust, and the most atrocious war that Eng-history reverses their judgment.

London to commemorate the proclama-the Cabinet Ministers who made that war 000,000 in 1879. the war he said, "They are ringing have since declared that it was unjust and un."

What is the result of all this state of things?
Is now, but they will be wringing their necessary. Sir James Graham told J. Bright. The scoreeigns of these countries are living score long;" and his prophecy was ful. "You were entirely right about that war, and in constant terror of assassination, society is emphatic than at the same place a year ago, They are all inspired with an insane ambition there is no one living now who would say one self to be drawn into the Crimean War. He

£104,000,000; the interest on which amounts titled to respect in regard to any particular to about £345,000,000; and here again we war. It is no use listening to what Mr. Bright North, who was the Prime Minister, and who any particular war. They are against all war, price, by popular clamor, can least of all be With regard to the French War, Buckle trusted to decide what is a just and necessary

Since the year 1816-that is, in sixty seven s History of England: "There seems I will come now to times within the remember years—England has been engaged in seventy-to be in religious men, whatever be brance of many of you. You will recall the six wars! If you take a wider view you will eed, and however limited their intel burst of excitement that passed over this find that during the last twenty-seven years, power, a prophetic faculty of insight country at the commencement of the Crimean beginning with the Crimean war and coming true bearings of outward things, an War, and the opprobrium and contempt that down to the present day, 2,188,000 men have which puts to shame the sagacity of were cast upon all who resisted the popular perished in the wars of Christian nations, and en and claims for the sons of God, and clamor. Richard Cobden was fiercely as the cost of those wars has amounted, accordthe them, the wisdom even of this world, sailed and out-voted in the largest town in his ing to the most careful calculation—now try to only read the world's future truly who own constituency in Yorkshire; John Bright comprehend these figures if you can the 22, ith in principle as opposed to faith in was burned in effigy at Manchester; Joseph (53,000,000 sterling. And the mischief is that dexterity, who feel that in human Sturge was threatened in anonymous letters, when the wars are over there is no relaxation there lies really and truly a spiritual and, if I recollect aright, on one occasion in the demands made upon the people, for a spiritual connection, a spiritual ten-which the wisdom of the serpent can and I, who was humbly associated with them, which the nations menace each other cost an-er, and can scarcely affect." It seems was denounced as a Russian spy, even in my mally £300,000 sterling in three items; here is a very profound truth in this, own country. Iremember going down to Car-first of all, the money that is actually exat those who hold no principle in this diff in the midst of that excitement to deliver tracted by way of taxation; secondly, the are far less able than we who do, to a lecture, and when I reached the town I saw money, the enormous capital, that is sunk in nd to pronounce a calm and judicial large placards posted against me, announcing all kinds of machines and munitions of war, to even upon the current events of the that the Russian spy was coming down to ada and which are utterly unproductive; and, Now look at the way in which wars dress the town, and calling upon the people thirdly—the most important item of all—the ly arise.

The way in which wars dress the town, and calling upon the people thirdly—the most important item of all—the ly arise. the war with Spain in 1739, into this so frightened the poor people who had six million strong and active men, from the Sir Robert Walpole was driven against been getting up the meeting for me that I fields of profitable and productive labor to a will by political intrigue and popular could not persuade one of them to take the service where they have to be maintained at The people demanded a war with chair for me, or accompany me to the plat-the cost of the rest of the country. And yet, it was the fault and the folly of Sir R. form, and so for two mortal hours I had to with all this prodigious expenditure going on that he continued in office and all fight the wild beasts of Ephesus alone.

Well now what is the fate of that war in be met, for the national debts of Europe have Igment. When the bells were set ring-the retrospect of history? Three at least of grown from £2,626,000,000 in 1865 to £4,324,-

This war lasted for nine years, and we were entirely wrong, we ought never to honeycombed by conspiracies against Govern-the time 54 millions of money. There have gone into it;" and Lord John Russell, in ments. In nearly all the countries of Europe prowed to support it 29 millions, the inthe last work that he published, a work called these are going on—Germany, Russia, Italy, we are now paying, and which would to 140 millions sterling more; it is sian War was a blunder." He takes the are driven by sheer desperation, on account ed that it cost 240,000 human lives, blame largely to himself and says, "Thus has of the double burden laid upon them, not t Burke says that he examined the the course of history been changed by my merely of an enormous taxation, which grinds I documents concerning these transacted and, as regards Lord Aberdeen, them to the earth, but the compulsory military nd that they perfectly satisfied him of I received a letter from my friend Cobden, is a still more heavy and opterme injustice of the war. Nay, he written from the Bishop of Oxford's seat, in pressive burden. Would it not be a more pat he conversed with the principal Sussex, and he said in that letter, "I paid a reasonable thing that the Governments of in the agitation which led to the war, visit to my neighbor, the Bishop of Oxford, countries that are in such conditions as these adds. "None of them did in the least and met Lord Aberdeen, Roundell Palmer, should first direct their attention to their own the measure, or attempt to justify their and some others. The Earl was even more internal affairs? But what are they doing? herself into Central Asia, and into China, and this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and the which is out of sight, out of mind also casting a covetous eye upon some of the pro- love of other things, as to overlook the right Others find, or fancy, that there is a vinces of Turkey; France interfering with use of the Lord's outward gifts, and even to cut and surer road to riches, than Tunis, Madagascar, and nobody knows where; neglect the great purpose for which we were which plodding industry holds on h England seizing Cyprus, Egypt, Borneo, and created, and for which redeemed, or put into and weary way. Industry is too dul South Africa.

Selections and Reflections.

The accumulation of wealth, when it is accompanied and fostered by an earnest, longing desire after its possession too much for desire to do a great stroke of business, get says the apostle Paul, "that they ti its own sake, is a temptation, by no means the least, which besets us in this probation world, is as much some men's besetting sin, who giveth us richly all things to enjo ary life; wherein Satan wages a too successful as ever the love of strong drink has been that they do good, that they be rich in good warfare, in seeking to beguile and ensuare so of others; but where the temptation is yielded ready to distribute, willing to commu as to lead us by the wide gate into the broad to, which of these do we conceive to be the laying up in store for themselves a goo way, where his seat and empire are. How greatest since—he, whose mind and facul-dation against the time to come, the apt and conclusive is the testimony of the ties are so besotted with strong drink, that may lay hold on eternal life." The apostle Paul on this subject: "They that will be is rendered thereby unequal to the per-showing the nature of riches—"uncer be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and formance of either his civil or religious duties; every thing but their danger,—the san into many foolish and hurtful lasts, which or he, in whom the same effect is produced by writer, from which the foregoing strown men in destruction and perdition. For an overcharge of business, and desire to make was made, continues: "Paul cautions the love of money is a root of all evil; which a splendid appearance in the world? This the love of riches from their uncertain while some coveted after, they have erred must disqualify for a faithful discharge of then contrasts what is uncertain wit from the faith, and pierced themselves through those duties, when the mind and spiritual is solid and durable. That confidence with many sorrows." Paul had just before faculties of any person are so benumbed and is not to be placed in 'uncertain ric represented to his son Timothy in the faith, overcome, if not with surfeiting and drunken directs to be transferred to 'the livin that "Godliness with contentment is great ness, yet with the cares and gratifications of the foundation of all substantial opule gain. For," he continues, "we brought noth-this life, (Luke xxi. 34,) with the love of his giver of all the good that is enjoye ing into this world, and it is certain we can gold and silver, houses and lands, so intent on giver of all the power to get wealth, earry nothing out. And having food and his mortgages and bonds, his interest, and the heart to use it to his glory. Thi raiment, let us be therewith content." And compound interest, trying to make a heaven ness 'to distribute,' this willingness ' then follows the fearfully solemn declaration here below," &c. Would that the sage warn-municate,' these unequivocal fruits of concerning such as "will be rich," quoted ings-the line upon line and precept upon obedience, and love, not the pure above.

convictions earlier felt; which, too, may be mine also. but the forerunner of the power of resistance being first weakened, and then laid waste; thor, instructively treats on the same subject; before God and man, that living faith till finally the thirst for wealth, the desire to "Among the innumerable difficulties daily in shall enable us to quit freely the tl make a showy, attractive appearance before cident to the life of man, we may reckon as this world, which, together with the men, with the coveted honors which they not among the least, the danger almost in-possess them, will all pass away like a bring, seem to be idols the nearest and the separable, which attends the yet inevitable even as we see our ancestors are go ness into their soul." And again: "Behold, and liberal mind. these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches." Which, and of purity of intention and integrity of conof whom, he continues, he did not compre-duct, are in constant danger, while in pursuit happen to us. Every thing will pas hend, "until I went into the sanctuary of of their object, of being entangled in compilifrom us, and that which is of God wi God; then understood I their end." Does it cated schemes, and overwhelmed with excessions. How good is it then to be un not hereby appear, that there is much danger sive solicitude; of being so overcharged with Him alone!"

to extend their territories; Russia pushing of being so swallowed up with the cares of the cares of this world, as to put tha a capacity for salvation, through that ever enterprising spirit; integrity too ser memorable propitiatory sacrified on Calvary's for a mind which is bent on a quick faithful watchman on its walls, has left the ous for him 'who maketh haste to be stirring record: "I cannot doubt, but that a "Charge them that are rich in this great riches, and make a great figure in the in uncertain riches, but in the livir precept—from so many sources, superadded heaven, but the evidences of faith in H.

The greed for gain alluded to, unless over to the immediately vouchsafed instructions died to purchase it for them—will no come through submission to the cross of of our inward, ever-present guide and Teacher jected by real Christians, after his deck. Christ by whom we become crucified to the —above all worthy of much heed—night re' inasmuch as ye have done it unto on world, we apprehend grows almost insensibly eleive the close attention they not only elaim, least of these, my brethren, ye have upon its votaries. The habit of yielding to but so richly merit. Then would the pure anto me."

this as to any other temptation of a cruel foe, limits of in the pure the pure anto me."

The annexed is from "The Holy Li is strengthened by each repetition. The voice use of all the gifts with which we have been [De Renti, a French ubbleman;" who of conscience, which at first sounded an alarm entrusted, be more duly regarded; the pang 1649, in the 37th year of his age: " in the bosom, is drowned by indifference or of sorrow and remorse be less our portion; and matter of amazement to me, when I c neglect; so that the sting for having violated at the final issue, that earnest dying wish that a thing so little as man, being r its wholesome reproofs ceases to be felt. Is which otherwise may be too late for some—so high a degree of honor as that which it not in this way that frequent transgression because of having set their affections upon tianity bestows upon him, can yet against the law written on the heart, causes the attainment of riches and the gratificathese admirable advantages, esteem the first unconcernedness to its pleadings, and tions of this life-be avoided: Oh! that even and make great account of its vanities then insensibility and hardness of heart? Lazarus' life and portion on earth might Hence a long indulged craving desire for bave been mine, if thereby his eternally happy death will entirely strip us, and that f riches, may generate a disregard of heavenly condition in the great end might have been should these, I say, occupy our heart dearest, which lead away the heart from God. necessity for money. To reconcile integrity there is no more remembrance of then Should we not fear and avoid this, as one in the pursuit with innocence in the posses the ebbings and flowings of those je of Satan's gilded baits so beguiling to many sion, is indeed to convert a perilous trial into griefs, which cleaved so closely to their in the present day? and which is so far astray a valuable blessing. Riches are no evil in and which they found it so difficult from the holy precepts, "Take my yoke upon themselves; the danger lies in not being able render to the law of Jesus Christ? you, and learn of me; "Seek first the king-to manage the temptation they hold out to have all vanished! and is there not to do m of God; and all things needful shall be us. Even where the object is fairly pursued, to think that they must have been added unto you." Moreover the Psalmist, and the acquisition not unfairly appropriated, foolish, if, during their short stay bet in allusion to Israel formerly, has written a close application to the attainment of wealth considered any thing else of important "God gave them their request; but sent lean- is not without its snares to the most upright what related to their present and eter plishment of its object. The rewards

A valuable minister in this Society and are too remote, too uncertain, and too

"But, should the things of earth, v little time allotted to us here, to work The subjoined selection from a pious au-salvation? Ought we not rather to dition; or passed much of their time in Even these better disposed persons, in spite ing upon any other subject than God of purity of intention and integrity of con-will concerning them? The same this e that are in business.

njoyment of any, that the attention, man, a spiritual entity, that He loves to visit, articularly of our younger members, is and there to brood and give to it a sense of to the sentiments presented in the fol- an endless life article, which may perhaps be pro-grasp of that which is not.'

AILURE OF ART PRODUCTIONS TO PRO-MOTE SPIRITUAL GROWTH!

has been remarked, that the predompassion may generally be discerned in untenance; because the muscles by it is expressed being constantly or nally contracted, lose their tone and totally relax; or that the expression s when the passion has subsided; thus ry, a disdainful, a subtle and a suspiemper is displayed in characters that most universally understood. It is true of the pleasing and softer emohat they leave their signatures upon ntenance when they cease to act." rmatory of the above extract is the ing impressive letter from one now in h year of his age, and whose opporfre worthy of attention and confidence, "Philadelphia, 9th mo. 1st, 1882. -: Thy note asks me to re-

I cannot approve, in very many re-other, probably, began a study of counten-sion and degradation of the intense degree of application and ances illumined by a Divine expression, though on, which seems often to be required I had observed it in my mother and others San Lorenzo, the mausolenm of the Medici re is one danger to which the man of ever since, and have found in it a strong ties, all is vanity.' Here are marbles, agates, ss is particularly exposed, and the more natural argument that the Holy Spirit does jaspers, lapis lazuli, pearl and alabaster, shaped of gaining a worldly spirit, and of soul thus visited must be immortal. And cost of many millions of dollars, and all for that tenderness of conscience, that love why such affectionate entreaty, such earnest what purpose? To preserve and laud the memrion, which is the ground of all virtuous desire, expressed in tones so sweet and pa- ory of those who debased their fellows and deattentive to his eternal interests, that intelligence; but to these were added a power they committed, the miseries they inflicted lso may be kept in a flourishing, pro- from within that can make the unsymmetri- upon the innocent, and the degradation they condition: if this be not the case, the cal regular and harmonious and beautiful and brought have been committed to the page of his scanty leisure, that he may not upon the heads of the Madonna painted by as they were powerful and ambitious, they e at the very idea of any man's mainly I have seen and heard and known, never tivated Christian nation. ng his perishable interests, when per-omitting Sarah Emlen's. That diviner living none short moment he is gone. How expression of countenance made by the Divine eivably terrible and exquisite must be Spirit, cannot be imitated by the highest skill of given up an eternity of bliss, for the the face the index of the divine harmony and of the flowers and set his irridescent glories tary of Ireland. It says:-For "The Friend." in the heavens. He who is spirit, and can , we trust, with no desire to curtail the dominate all matter, all life, placed the soul in

> Thy affectionate nucle, ELI K. PRICE."

J. S. L., now travelling in Europe, a man of superior mind and æsthetic tastes as well as a close observer of the effects produced by the cultivation of the fine arts, so-called, has written home some interesting letters; from one of these, dated at Florence, Italy, and recently published in "The Friend," the following striking passages are taken, believing they are worthy of repetition: "Many reflections arise as I traverse this old city, so given over to art and beauty. To me, the human soul seems to be a vastly more noble subject for the shaping chisel of reforming art, than are the cold bronze or marble. Florence, in her teachers and revivers of ancient learning and art, has aimed to excel in moulding the insensible stone and painting the unfeeling canvas; but the intellect and wment. She placed her nephew under fluence, and consistently collected and burned of the infidel .- Newton.

estimable John Barclay has bequeathed my care, as one of the largest boys. She was the pictures that contributed to impurity of he following: "Business, in its proper very impressive in her ministry, and her sad thought and manners. In harmony with his , is useful and beneficial, as well as ab- and pathetic earnestness was very persuasive great purpose, he also suppressed the use of y necessary; but the abuse of it, or an and her person and expression of countenance musical instruments, believing them to be enof it, is pernicious in many points of very attractive. In her, more than in any gines conducing to mental and moral perver-

"What a sermon does the new sacristy of before, and have continued such observation family, preach from the text, 'vanity of vaning, because it is concealed,—I mean the indeed visit the human soul; and that the and fitted in forms of wondrous beauty, at a t. The person who is engaged in world-its, whether the sphere of his engage-give a voice so did not inspire the feeling and stroyed their liberty, to gratify unboly ambi-give a voice so did not inspire and greed for power! They bave passed be large or small, should be most ank. Teature were regular and naturally expressed, away, and the factions they raised, the crimes of W. Penn is true with regard to such attractive; an attainment within the reach history, but their influence for good or for — He that loses by getting, had better of all who will submit truly to the Divine evil han not died with them. Had they—the an gain. He should also be very jeal. Teacher in the soul. * * * I have looked, Medici—been as virtuous and philanthropic o employ some of it in his daily duties the greatest masters of painting that have might have made their people the advanced the made and in the constant cultivation of lived. They painted in their best conception guard of enlightened intelligence, and have play frame of mind, which, it is the slow of the beautiful and sacred; yet, I have had led them, as Savonarola was permitted to insure tendency of the spirit of the always to recur to my memory for examples cite some of his adherents, to the zealous silently to counteract. For I own I more sacred in the living and the real, whom illustration of every trait that ennobles a cul-

Christian Feeling.

The following letter written by the widow an's anguish, whilst on the very brink human art. Only He can do it whose spirit of Frederick Cavendish, was penned in ang he knows not whither, to think that broods upon the human soul, and can make swer to the request of a clergyman who had asked permission to dedicate to her a sermon beauty within. He who can paint the colors upon the assassination of the late Chief Secre-

> "The Dublin disclosures do indeed teach the awful lesson contained in the last verse of the third chapter of 2 Samuel. You will, I am sure, forgive me if I beg you, before sending the MS. to the printers, to look through it first, with the special view of seeing if there is any word that could be turned into a desire for vengeance. You will readily understand how I must shrink from any such feeling. I would rather, as far as I reverently may, adopt the Lord's prayer on the cross,-'Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.' The law, I know, must take its course, for the sake of the unhappy country itself. I pray that neither the unspeakable greatness of my sorrow, nor the terrible wickedness of those men, may ever blind either myself or any of the English people to the duty of patience, justice, and sympathy in our thoughts, words, and deeds, with regard to Ireland and its people at large.

Believe me, dear Sir, Yours truly.

LUCY CAROLINE CAVENDISH."

If all the blind men in the kingdom should legal practice have been unusual, and spirit of her people she has left in darkness, endeavor to bear me down that the sun is not vainly hoping that the study of and familiarity bright, or that the rainbow has no colors, I with forms of beauty and grace would reflect would still believe my own eyes. I have seen their charms upon the human character, them both; they have not. I can not prove They have by the study of art lost the art to their satisfaction what I assert, because writing some expressions I casually lessness of innocence, and their devotion to they are destitute of sight, the necessary meat a recent interview. First will be forms of ideal beauty has done nothing to re-dinm; they would not they could not hesielating to our valued friend Sarah form their hearts, or add any grace to hide tate a moment if they were not blind. Just I was a scholar at Westtown one the native deformity of unregenerate human so they who have been taught of God, who ginning in 1813, ending in 1814, and nature. Savonarola early saw the inherently have tasted that the Lord is gracious, have ler the ministry of Sarah Farquhar, debasing influence of art as pursued by its an experimental perception of the truth which seacher; a widow in the sorrow of her devotees generally, because of its sensuous in renders them proof against all the sophistry

The Red Sea.

At Aden you see a British Gibraltar-an island that is little more than a cinder, but carved into military might, heavy batteries frowning from the lower, middle, and upper slopes, great reservoirs for water in a rainless region, 30,000 people, large military detachments, huge men-of-war, a position that dominates Arabia and Northwestern Africa, and, of course, insures a proper respect for British interests in the whole length of the Rea Sea and the Sucz Canal. Nowhere on the highways of travel around the earth do you find a hotter region than between the sands of Arabia and those of Sahara. On your tour around the world you afterward cross the Equator, once in the region of the East Indies, and again south of the Sandwich Islands; but you suffer little from heat in the former case, and in the latter, under the cold trade-winds from the Andes, you cross the line in your ulster. In the Red Sea, however, it is possible that you may need a double Scotch cap, with the interstices filled with pounded ice, to prevent sunstroke. Many a poor invalid has had just this precaution provided for him. In spite of the broad punka, which servants of the ship now swing above your table in the eabin, in spite of your constant use of the wide fans of the Orient, in spite of your dressing as nearly as possible in gauze, in spite of your punctual attendance to your baths, in spite of your total abstinence, you need to guard against sunstroke by a helmet sun-hat. At Suez you carry everywhere in the sunshine an umbrella, covered on the outside with white. There is a fierceness in the sunbeams utterly unknown to one who has not been in the tropies, something searching and deadly in the impact of the radiance even at sunrise, but especially when the sun is directly overhead, or in the mid-afternoon sky. "Stand out of the sunshine! Keep out of the glare of the sun!' You hear constantly these directions given in anxious tones to inexperienced children. You fall into the habit of holding your eyelids half closed, a tendency which your present lecturer has not yet overcome, and perhaps never will. You are sometimes in a ship that moves with a slow wind, and so you have no relief afforded by the breezes of the ocean. Occasionally a ship has been known to turn about in the Red Sea, reverse its course, lose time, and move against the wind for a few hours. in order to relieve its passengers from the effeets of the intolerable heat. There is however, in the Red Sea, as there is not in the cool season at Bombay, a great difference between the temperature at night and by day. The sands radiate heat rapidly. There is an Arabian proverb which says that "the servant in the coolness of the morning forgot to provide water for the heat of the day."-Joseph

Vanity and vexation of spirit.—Oh! if the time which is, and has been, spent in making ruftles, tassels, and such like foolish and need-less articles, was occupied simply in preparing needful and comfortable appared, with the mind rightly turned to the Lord, how it would lead to the lopping off all these spurious brauches, that choke the good seed of the kingdom, and a lasting comfort would be the result; such as is not changed by fashion, nor worn out by time; but would redound to our everlasting happiness and peace; instead oil which, the days of these are now spent too much in perplexity and vexations.—Rachel C. Bartram.

UNDER THE LEAVES. Selected.

Oft have I walked these woodland paths In sadness, not foreknowing That underneath the withered leaves The flowers of spring were growing.

To-day the winds have swept away These wrecks of autumn's splendor; And here the fair arbutus flowers Are springing fresh and tender.

O perfect flowers with lips of bloom! Surpassing in their beauty The pearly tint of ocean shells, To teach me faith and duty.

Walk life's dark way, ye seem to say, In hope and faith, foreknowing That when man sees but wither'd leaves, God sees the fair flowers growing.

SONG.

Stay, stay at home, my heart, and rest; Home-keeping hearts are happiest; For those that wander they know not where, Are full of trouble and full of care; To stay at home is best.

Weary, and home-sick, and distressed,
They wander east, they wander west,
And are baffled, and beaten, and blown about
By the winds of the wilderness of doubt;
To stay at home is best.

Then stay at home, my heart and rest; The bird is safest in his nest; O'er all that flutter their wings and fly A hawk is hovering in the sky;

To stay at home is best.

—H. W. Longfellow.

Selected.

Selected.

SHADOWS.

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows, Floating far o'er the hills away; As over the sky The light clouds fly, So over the mountains wander they!

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows,
Sleeping soft on the meadow green;
Fair are the flowers
In sun-bright bowers,
But fairer the flowers these shadows between.

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows, Dancing light on the ocean's spray; Changing each wave From gay to grave,

Like the frowning smiles of a child at play!

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows,
Sinking deep in the mountains seem
As if viewed in a dream,
And a world of purce beauty make.

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows,
In the world without and the world within;
For joy may borrow
A charm from sorrow,
And charity smile on repented sin!

Oh the shadows—the beautiful shadows,
Falling soft on the dazzled vision,
Where the tender thought
By memory brought,
Tempers the glare of hopes Elysian,

And there are shadows—merciful shadows,
Dropping the balm on the bleeding heart,
When first it knows
That love's flame glows Stronger and purer when joys depart.

Then bless the shadows—the beautiful shadows, And take this thought as thou goest abroad, That in heaven and earth Shades owe their birth To light; and light is the shadow of God. Religious Views and Tenets.

A SUMMARY. Now of the things spoken in my former cles, this is, in part, the sum. We have a priest over the house of God; whose hous are, if we hold fast the confidence of our: and hope firm unto the end. And he is minister of ministers-the "minister of sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle w the Lord has pitched and not man." the old and outward priesthood, the ser was "unto the example and shadow of hea ly things." But now under the spiritual pr hood, as we come from the shadow to the stance, we have "a more excellent mini-As our great high-priest is made higher the heavens, to whom we may come and fer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to by Jesus Christ." If we want a pure and defiled religion, we need a pure and unde ministry. And for this, our ministers : draw from the pure and living fountain. I must eat of the tree of life, and drink of pure stream which flows from the thres of the house of God. Thus, and thus a will they become strong in the Lord, as the power of his might. Then they will the flock over which the Holy Ghost made them overseers, with wholesome f that they also may become strong and va in building up the broken walls of our ? As we receive this living and heavenly the faith of both ministers and hearers w be turned away from the wisdom and quence of men, and be increased in the sa power of God. "For the kingdom of G not in word but in power." And we sh experimentally find that the gospel is power of God unto the salvation of all hear and obey it. And as we receive it believe and obey it, we should no longer special need that "every man should teac neighbor, and every man his brother, say know the Lord," for we might all thus k Him from the least to the greatest. We also, in addition to the Scriptures, "a 1 sure word of prophecy" than any thing ward; whereunto we do well that we heed, as unto a light shining in our hearts. For as we are led by it, and wa it, it will become as a shining light, w will shine more and more unto the pe day. And by this universal and saving l "that which may be known of God is man in man; for God hath showed it unto th by his light. And "whatsoever doth i manifest is light." So when we have light of the Spirit within, and the Scrip without, the man of God is thoroughly nished unto all good works. But if we the Bible without the Spirit, what does it fit? Does it make us men of God? Ar thoroughly furnished unto all good we Does the Bible give us the Spirit of t which is able to guide us into all truth? we may have the Spirit without the Bible yet be men of God; having it, the heav anointing-the unction from the Holy or bring all things needful to our remembr. and even to reveal unto us things to c So we may have the Bible without the S and we may have the Spirit without the F and we may have both together in my harmony; and thus witness them to I great comfort, and blessing to the w Christian traveller as he journeys on through his tribulated path from cart

Il, a hypocritical beart. and we may have, and thank God do have, y like Paul says his was, "not after men; he says, "I neither received it of man, ther was I taught it but by the revelation of Israel be glad. us Christ." So it was in the demonstration of Spirit and power. It came from God, and ed the people to Him. So we may have a e ministry, and we may have a counterfeit. may have a ministry from the head, and inistry from the heart. A ministry from nistry from the true light, and a ministry in a transformed light. Paul's ministry s but could not see heavenly things. . Ears strength. could not hear-hearts that could not unthey see; and your ears, for they hear." the beauty of holiness on the one hand, t his kingdom will not come, nor his will to arise. done, until the kingdom of anti-Christ is the Divine will.

ven. But the Bible without the Spirit is too much between man and man. We want prepared for the war," like David's mighty "the savor of death unto death." But our fellow members to think well of us. So men, let us take God's way to become so. b the Spirit it is "the savor of life unto we look more to their wills concerning us, Selected. For "the letter killeth but the Spirit than to the will of God. Our faith may stand eth life." And we may, without the Bible, more in the wisdom of man, than in the power e the sword of the Spirit, which is quick of God. So we prefer the friendship of the country, and when we had friends to tea, and powerful, to cut down and to destroy the world, and of our fellow members, to the the meal was drawing near its end, my mother, nsgressing nature within; and which is friendship and grace of God. But we are thinking some one might want half-a-cup o a discerner of the thoughts and intents told "that the friendship of the world is en-he heart. And we may have, and now do mity with God." We have mingled with the whispered direction to put a little more water e, a ministry with the Bible in hand, but world in its fashions, customs and worship, in the tea-pot; but the thoughtless girl would Spirit of it not in the heart. And the Strangers to our peculiar ways have devoured fill it, and when the expected demand was aker may have the tongue of an angel, and our strength and we do not seem to know it. made for the half-cup, and it was poured out, prompted to utterance from a desire for "The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and it presented such an appearance that my applause of men, and yet have hid under the pride of life," prevail over us to an alarm-mother would unconsciously exclaim, "Oh, ing extent. We go hand in hand very much in that girl-she has drowned the tea-pot!" common with other denominations. May the This, as it appears to me, applies to those n a tried and persecuted remnant, a min- Lord turn again the captivity of his people. speakers, who, after they have said what they Then would the aged pilgrims rejoice as in really have got to say, and said what is likely, days of old; and the mourning remnant of our through God's blessing to have good effect, D. II.

Dublin, Ind., 3rd mo. 10th, 1883.

Stillness.

"Their strength is to sit still."

How these words oblige us as it were to used the separation between man and his tain top, when our Lord Jesus spent the night the poor and humble. ker. And while "sin lieth at the door," it in communion with his Father (Luke vi. 12,) l forever bar our entrance into the king- or when he rose up a great while before day, that men are in alienation from God and his nof God. And how is this hindering bar and went into a solitary place to pray (Mark ways, when they live in pride, ambition, our happiness, to be removed or destroyed i, 34.) Mary was learning the lesson as she vanity and the fashions of this world, ruled by the assisting grace of Him who came "sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word;" and by the prince of darkness, and holding up self, o the world that he might destroy the we read of her afterwards, that in her sorrow which must die. If these profess religion, it is rks of the devil? and thus make an end she "sat still in the honse" till the message religion of self. They can praise the excelsins, and also make reconciliation for the came, "The Master is come, and calleth for lency of creeds and ceremonies invented by quity that is past; and bring in an ever thee;" then O, how she must have loved to fallen man; and eulogize formal preachers ting righteousness into every individual arise quickly and go to Him! And so it will and scribes as being so able in their dis-I, that God's kingdom might come, and always be, for God's "sitting still" is not idle-courses! They can think that they are in-

Then, stillness of heart seems to be part of of Satan. stroyed, and our wills taken out of the way the very preparation God looks for in us before He can use us in his service; our voice,

Drowning the Tea pot .- We lived in the go on to weaken that effect and weary the hearers by repetitions and wearisome dragging out of the address .- From the Christian.

For " The Friend." In Humility and Faith.

The eternal gospel, which is the invineible letter, and a ministry from the Spirit. A take breath, to pause in the midst of the many power of God for salvation, has in all ages thoughts and plans and duties of our busy been working to draw the humble and obedays. They are God's words, very different dient souls back to God from their alienation s to open the eyes of the Gentiles, and to from what man would say; for would not the from Him. Enlightened by the true Light, n them from darkness to light, and from thought of the natural heart be, What is to be in true gospel faith, Enoch walked with his power of Satan to God, &c. They had gained by sitting still? God says it is "their God; Job knew that his Redeemer lived; the patriarchs, Moses and the prophets, and other Stillness, and yet power; is not this God's good and wise men of the old times, did walk stand until they were divinely opened way? We see it in the wonderful works of in righteousness before Jehovah, and had a en so it is now with the nominal professors. his creation, all going on so silently, and yet manifestation of better things to come. In the ey "are wise in their own eyes, and pru-manifesting through the very silence that He, fulness of time, the Word became flesh and it in their own sight." But our Saviour the Creator, is "strong in Power." Surely dwelt among men; and those born not of flesh 1 to his disciples: "Blessed are your eyes, we need to remember the teaching in this, and or blood or of the will of man-but of Godthe companion verse of this chapter (Isa. xxx., they beheld his glory as the glory of the only d it is a great blessing to the man of God, [7, 15,) for, too often perhaps, we mar the work begotten Son of the Father, full of grace and have his spiritual eyes opened, that he may of God in our own souls, in his vineyard, by truth. Jesus, the Saviour of mankind, the our hurry, our neglect of sitting still. "Com- perfect and just One, who had a glory with the mystery of iniquity on the other, and the mine with your own heart upon your bed, his Father before the world began, lived and the might hear "the still small voice," and be still;" then only can we offer acception of the still small to do its own the voice of stranger.

Stranger.

We must be still, to hear the "still small was obedient unto death—to the death on the t is only as we receive the breath of life voice." May not this sometimes be the reason cross. The prince of darkness and this world t man becomes a living soul. And it is why we are puzzled as to this or that plan of will exalt himself, and his servants, and teach y as we are alive unto God, that we can work? We would not for a moment under-people ambition and pride-not self-denial; while the deep things of God. And that which take it without consulting Him; but has there the Son of God, the Sun of Righteousness, pw letteth (or hindereth) will let until it be been stillness of heart before Him first, stillness teaches lowliness of heart and humility. God en out of the way." It was sin that first such as there must have been upon the monn-resisteth the proud, but giveth his grace to

It is the most sad, lamentable, affecting fact, will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. ness, it is not holding back when He calls us creased in goods-needing nothing; but it is the anointed eye alone that can see the depths

How few are the truly born children of God -the Father of Light. But praise to the We may, without great eare, let our own our thoughts even, must be hushed, while we Father of Light and of immortality, they lls, and our own human reason, take the hear Him say: "Be still and know that I am existed in all ages, and they exist now. They ce of revelation; and suffer our ideas of God."-Ps. xlvi. 10. The work is his, and it have by the invincible power of Christ taken at would best suit the present occasion to is his way we want to take, if we are loyal to beed to the Light, and the heavenly seed in vern us, instead of yielding simple obedi-Him; let us hear his thoughts about it—not their souls has got life, and Christ has been ce to what the promptings of the Spirit be so full of our own; "the meek will He teach born in them, and in some his kingdom is fully old incline us to deliver. Our religion is in his way." We all wish to be strong, "ready established, and He is the king who ruleth yealed in the humble by Christ living in them; in the glorious kingdom. and they follow his footsteps in humility. O, how deep is the wisdom of God; what instructhe Bridegroom? It is crucified, dead and gone! I have been, have given me a measure of exshall descend down into the deep? (that is to follow." bring Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The Word is night hee, even in thy mouth and thy heart; that is the word of faith which we preach.

is one with his Father. They all partake of sion of what we are accustomed to consider ply if they wish to hold a service or by the same love, the same love, the same little sins. the same joy, the same love, the same little sins. humility, the same goodness and kindness. There can be no jar, schism or dissension (which things are out of the Light) between the true children of Light. What a holy perfect state is attainable by those who are mittee of Councils of the City of Philadelphia boring district, was addressed to Lord Fev Christ's indeed! This blessed oneness with agreed to report a resolution of request to sham. Christ is what puts down the dominion of Congress to adopt an Indian policy covering Satan and Babylon, and never can be un-the following points. Never break faith with World. We regret to observe by the Brit derstood by those who know not that Christ the Indians. Keep all intruders out of the Friend, that in the remonstrance address is in them.

established in man, that can keep men un tribe liable for the crime of individual mem that in use among consistent Friends. Su spotted and without blemish; along with Him bers. Abolish all privileged tradeship. Ab-evidences of departure from our testimon who is holy and free from sin nothing unboly solutely destroy all traffic in liquors. Civilize indicate a loss in a direction of far great and sinful can exist. He must purge his floor the Indians where they are. Educate the en moment than the possession of an old meeting thoroughly, and with his holy baptism of tire Indian reservation population. On reser-house. spirit and unquenchable fire, burn up all the vations divide the lands in severalty as soon as chaff before Hernleth. Nothing of anti-Christ, Indians can farm them. Give citizenship to speakers at a recent Liberation meeting however subtile, must enter the cleansed tem- all self-supporting Indians who ask it. ple of God, who thus tabernacles with man; and in that condition man is free indeed, made free by the Son of God.

loncliness in this time of probation; and often inotorious, attain exceptionally great ages, bas in and demand a tithe of their gain, and the felt as if there were no more children who had long been well known. It may not, however, in addition to the usual tithe levied upon t got that precious faith which overcometh the be so generally understood that the average land. With respect to that impost, we ha world and Satan in all his allurements, and duration of life among them is constantly heard more than enough of the mythic had owned Christ revealing the mysteries lengthening. Yet such seems to be the case, "pious ancestor" who imposed the burde of his kingdom in rightconsness and peace, if we are to judge from the annual obituary, but the assumption can scarcely be plead Often would such a child think with Elijah: Thus the average life of Friends dying in the for this tax on personal earnings. No gra I am alone. But again consider: with me and triennial periods ending as below will be found from any "pious ancestor" centuries ago con in me is my Lord. If I am alone here, I meet to demonstrate the fact we have stated: In furnish any equitable right to individu with an innumerable company in the spirit, the three years ending 1850 it was 52 years; or corporation to subtract from these po My Lord is all! He trod the winepress alone, in 1860 it was 53 years; 1870, 52 years; in toilers in a dangerous and arduous occupation and I have to be contented with my Master, 1875, 54 years; in 1879, 58 years; and in 1882, any portion of their hard carnings for an i For such an one, when it has pleased his 58 years. Master to make known other children of Light, what joy is it to find that through the lish Government propose extending to all the of the personal tithes, the claim to which w wonderful leadings of the true Light, even members of Parliament, the liberty which had once universal, including in its mesh even blessed Immanuel state! God in man! O, about each other before, they are still of one One of the London papers urges the propr blessed condition, in which the first resurree mind, no different doctrines among them, but of taking a more radical step and abolist tion is attained, where the natural will and one in Christas He is one in his Father. There self is nailed to the cross, where the soul has is great joy and gladness for such children of its communion with God, its father, and feeds Light to meet and glorify their Saviour who in humility and faith on the tree of Life! This lives in them and leads them according to his is hid from the proud and worldly wise, but re- good pleasure, in righteousness, peace and joy

"The natural, uncontrolled, active mind tion to the mind humbled and enlightened delights in doing something that shall appear by Christ, the Light of the world. My soul goodly; yea, can make sacrifiees in its own bows in humility and reverence before the will and way, and is gratified in self-complagladly accepting the Affirmation Bill, we wisdom of God. Where is the self of man, cency, and it may be applause: * * * my gret that an obsolete and useless form she when the soul of man is owned and possessed by long life and observation, tossed and sifted as All praise to Jesus who saves his people from perience in the delusions of self. Of how different, All elements of self, pride and sin are gone, and humility and love are the elements in which humble waiting at the feet of Jesus, the highthe children of Light are living. O, the depths est Teacher, as with our mouths in the dust; of the divine mysteries and the perfection of feeling our own impotency, our own blindness! salvation, which is Christ in man, or the Here is subjugation indeed, bearing the true say, from a period previous to that at wh Word in the heart and in the mouth. Truly cross. * * * If I know anything of true Lord Feversham's ancestors entered into did Paul say: "The righteousness which is of peace, it is in simple, childlike obedience to session of the estates which he at pres faith speaketh on this wise: 'Say not in thine the still small voice of the Good Shepherd, holds. This meeting house has been used heart, who shall ascend into heaven? (that is who instructs the lambs and the sheep of his the Friends for services from time to the to bring Christ down from above:) or who fold; a stranger's voice they will not know or and has naturally been regarded by them w MARY CAPPER.

Third mo. 1836.

Even admitting that some sins are not so taken, possession of the building, having tal great as others, let it still be remembered that the key from the custody of a member of The children of Light walking in the Light, they lead to the same fearful result, and that Society of Friends, who happens to be one having fellowship with one another, and cleansed our greatest danger is not in the commission his tenants, and placed it in the care of by the blood of Christ, are one in Christ, as He of enormous wickednesses, but in the permis- agent, to whom the Friends have now to

> For "The Friend," Religious Items, &c.

Humane Indian Policy.-The special Com-strance, signed by fifty Friends in the neighbor that the second strance is the second strance of the second strance. in them.

There is nothing short of Christ born and and property on reservations. Never hold a and the manner of dating does not conform

Christian World, (London) says: "That mem-subject. When those engaged in the pileha bers of the Society of Friends, the calm placid-fishery bring to land the spoil of the ocea Often has an isolated child of Light felt the ity and temperate habits of whose lives are some representatives of the State Church st though they be distant for thousands of miles previously been given to Friends and Jews of kind of laborer and handicrafts-man, be in perfection, righteousness and peace. O, by water and land, and had never seen or heard choosing between an oath and an affirmaall such tests. It says :-

"We make the meshes of the net of all sible sizes, so that every conceivable spe of fish can pass through, and yet we religion refrain from pulling the net down altoget and casting it aside. Surely, if it is righ do the one thing, it is right to do the ot "Swear not at all" is, we are convinced, comprehensively right and final direction be applied to Parliamentary oaths.

be perpetuated. Bilsdale Meeting-house .- According to Northern Echo, "Lord Feversham has [m] a] virtual confiscation of a humble meeti house, in Bilsdale, which, with its adjac burial ground, has been occupied by the ciety of Friends ever since 1670-that is considerable interest and affection from venerable associations and history. N Lord Feversham has resumed, or rath

The above is taken from the Christi

at his discretion to a neighboring viear conduct services in, according to the rites

the Established Church. An earnest remy

Tithes of Fish in Cornwall.-One of t Preston mentioned a tax to which some Longevity in the Society of Friends .- The the fishermen on the Cornish coast are s stitution with which they have no sympath Parliamentary Affirmation Bill.—The Brit- The truth probably is, that this is a surviv out any compensation.—Extract.

For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

I on at the same time.

granted the injunction; holding that cocoa plantations profit greatly by its introvry owner of land has the right to have duction .- Am. Naturalist.

than it can take the land itself.

numption.

Te Mongoose of the West Indies .- In all tween the wings so as to be invisible. e Vest Indian islands the black and brown were introduced; but the ferret suc- it were equally conspicuous when at rest as to the "wisdom of man." med before the attacks of the chigo; the when on the wing.
Itn ant, though it maintained itself and Pride in Animal ei first patron, Espent, has undertaken to head.

the quantity of rat-eaten sugar canes to one- and march slowly out of the room. fourth or one-fifth of what it was previously, representing an annual saving to the island of is given by Dr. Bennett, was exceedingly ne sand and water, or emery and water, rashly. The Mongoose is now too common, a steam pressure of 60 or 80 lbs. per and is making itself felt in other ways beside re inch, against the file-teeth. Two tubes rat-catching. To some extent it preys upon ased, so that both surfaces of the file are eggs and chickens, where dogs are not kept, ing noise, at the same time inflating the airand quail, wild guinea-fowl, and game birds sac, and regarding the persons laughing with ight to Pure Water.—In a suit recently generally are rapidly diminishing before its a most serious look, until they had ceased, ght in Rhode Island, by one manufactur attacks. As the Mongoose cannot climb a when he would quietly resume his dinner." company to restrain another company tree, the rats take refuge in cocoa nut plantaed nearer the sources of the stream from tions, and prove more destructive than former ting the water by dye-stuffs, &c., the ly; but, on the other hand, the coffee and vater which passes his land come to it in Leaf-like Butterfly of Sumatra. —Of this ire, natural state;" and that the Legis-species, A. R. Wallace says: "Its upper surte itself cannot take the right away, any face is of a rich purple, variously tinged with on in the English periodicals respecting the ash color, and across the fore wings there is employment of untrained and unordained Inics.—The Lancet says there is no use a broad bar of deep orange, so that when on ministers. This class of preachers has long eserting that assemblies of sane persons the wing it is very conspicuous. This species been made much use of in the Methodist soet not to become victims of a panic-for was not uncommon in dry woods and thickets, cieties. But of latter years there has been a ervous system of man is such that there and I often endeavored to capture it without decided increase in the proportionate numbers liways be a tendency to receive and im-success, for after flying a short distance it of trained ministers; and this has been acrimpressions, which so powerfully affect would enter a bush among dry or dead leaves, companied with a corresponding diminution and body, that judgment is for the and however carefully I crept up to the spot in the growth of the societies. suspended, and the limbs are under the I could never discover it till it would sudrol of the emotions. Discipline is the dealy start out again and then disappear in a "in the oldest or Wesleyan Methodist body, baskets. After it is thoroughly washed, close before my eyes, but that in its position preachers; whilst among the Primitives they boiled for about two hours, chopped up, of repose it so closely resembled a dead leaf are as yet but one to fourteen local preachers. It into lumps and sprinkled with oatmeal let it to be in the property of to the Swansea market, and sold for in this position, with the wings closely pressed of their number of lay local preachers to each "d, or 5d., per pound. The poor people together, their outline is exactly that of a trained minister." very fond of it, and eat it either with moderately-sized leaf slightly curved or shriv-ch fat, or cooked like a vegetable with ciled. The wings being pressed together, their may fairly be drawn, that the higher literary a—Kew Report.

| under-surface alone is visible, and these are education of ministers does not increase their claim. | diameter | di istrug are annually consumed. At present those of dead leaves. The imitation is made that must ever depend on the extension of e argest manufactory is at Milan, Italy, more perfect by a dark curved line which re- Divine power. e an establishment turns out 1,200,000 sembles the mid-rib of a leaf, and by cross nes, or more than one-fourth of the world's markings which imitate the lateral veins The head and antennæ are drawn back bets are cause of great loss to the sugar from the attacks of insect-eating birds and place their reliance on the anointing power mins one of the planter's best friends, de-many animals. In herds, there is generally mental powers, which results from a sysroing the young of the rapacious rodents; one leader at the head, who will not suffer ab attacks kittens, puppies and calves. In any move to be made without his permission, to lead their possessor to rely in measure on 7 nine Mongooses were brought direct In one case the man in charge would not or India and turned loose. In ten years suffer the head cow to go first out of the yard as this effect is produced, it is reasonable to ed have so multiplied that they are abund- to pasture. The result was that she refused expect that the Divine blessing will be withtill over the island [of Jamaica]. Cuba, to go at all; and in order to get her out, the held. ro Rico, Barbadoes and Santa Cruz have man had to drive the others back again, so speen supplied with these animals, and that she might take her proper place at their narrated by the writer above quoted, corpation, as it has reduced the expenses of an insult which he could not brook, and would hath this and can speak from it, though he be

h has had to be abandoned by the elergy rat-eatching fully 90 per cent., and has reduced arch his tail, hold himself very stiff indeed, nearly £45,000. Notwithstanding this benefit, tame, and at meal times always came to take the short history of the Mongoose on the ishis share, a corner of the table being approsharpening Files. — This is effected in land goes to prove that the introduction of a printed to his use. Dr. Bennett says: "When large establishments by forcing a stream new species into a district should not be done from any of his ludicrous actions at table, we all burst out in loud laughter, he would vent his indignation at being made the object of ridicule, by uttering his peculiar hollow bark-

FRIEND. THE

THIRD MONTH 31, 1883.

Some discussion has recently been going

A writer in The Nonconformist states, that the medy.

her Bread.—Laver Bread is made of a concept for the low rocks. The women gather it in some time, I at length I was fortunate the trained ministry has gradually grown till the properties of the properties o by made along the Gloneester and Devon- I captured several specimens on the wing, and increase of special and trained ministry, has be coasts, where a great many women earn was able fully to understand the way in which come a decline in the rate of increase. The eliving by making it. After it is cooked this wonderful resemblance is produced." rates of increase for Primitives, New Connextwell keep for three or four days in summer. The habit of the species is always to rest ions and Wesleyans, have almost precisely folwl keep for three or four days in summer The habit of the species is always to rest lons and Wesleyans, have almost precisely foldbout a week in winter. Most of it is on a twig, and among dead or dry leaves, and lowed, in their proportions, the proportions

We think from this statement the inference

Transformation of apostate man From fool to wise, from earthly to divine, Is work for Him who made him.

And those ministers will be most efficient The completeness of its disguise saves it in carrying on this work, who most fully avers. To combat these posts various ani-reptiles, which would probably destroy it if of the Head of the Church, and trust the least of possessing a large fund of knowledge and Pride in Animals.—Pride is developed in ideas, and of practical skill in the use of the tematic theological training, naturally tends them in his ministerial labors. In proportion

The experience of our Methodist friends, as responds with the statement made by Robert rsome to Australia and New Zealand, to | Many of the domestic animals are very Barclay 200 years ago: "The power, life and mat the rabbit pests. As a rat-catcher sensitive to ridicule. J. G. Wood had a eat spirit of Christianity is the marrow and subis unimal has proved itself worthy of its "Pret," who when laughed at, felt that was stance of a Christian ministry. And he that a poor such rection of a usual manning and more way we were sections of viscosian prime way, we make 100,000. In make 100,000 and more 100,000 and notions; yet speaking from the Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Minnesots, Iowa, and notions; yet speaking from the Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Minnesots, Iowa, indianous converted to the speaking from the Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Minnesots, Iowa, indianous converted to the speaking from the Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sections of Viscosian and Poor Spirit, his year. The spring wheat sec ministry will have more influence towards

"In our day," he continues, "God hath raised up witnesses for Himself as He did fishermen of old; many, yea most of whom are laboring and mechanic men, who, altogether without that learning, have by the power and spirit of God, struck at the very root and ground of Babylon; and in the strength and might of this power have gathered thousands, by reaching their consciences, unto the same power and life, who, as to the petition of a majority of the adult inhabitants. outward part, have been far more knowing than they, yet not able to resist the virtue that proceeded from them.

the successful discharge of the service of a borough are prostrated. Gospel minister. Gospel powerdepends on the measure of the Spirit of Christ that clothes the minister, and not on the measure of in- Of the above, 201 were males, and 219 females: 54 tellect or culture which he may possess.

We have received an Address on the 200th disease. anniversary of the landing of William Penn at Upland, written by Howard M. Jenkins.

It is a well-written and interesting tribute to the character and statesmanship of that peculiar features of his career to the influence of those convictions of Divine Grace, which, during all but a few of his earlier years, he followed as his guide through life.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.—Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster higher. Sales of 4600 bushels red, in car lots at $1.15 General of the United States, died on the 25th instant, a $1.212. Rye is steady at 68 a 70 cts. Corn is dull in Kenosha, Wisconsin. He was a native of Maine, a and weak; sales of 9500 bushels, in car lots, at 55 a 64 lawyer by profession, but removed to Wisconsin in cts. Outs are quiet but steady. Sales of 10,000 bushels, 1845. He represented the last named State in the U.S. in car lots, at 511 a 55 cents. Senate from 1861 to 1879, inclusive. He was 67 years of age at the time of death, which was caused by pneu-

All the designs submitted for the new two cent postage stamp bear the head of Washington. The select 60 a 70 cts. tion of the design may not be made for several weeks.

The removal of Sitting Bull and his immediate followers, now under military surveillance at Fort Ran- ferent yards at 5\frac{3}{4} a 7\frac{5}{8} cts, per lb., the latter rate for dall, to the Standing Rock Agency, where the others of the Sioux reservation Indians are stationed, will take place on 4th mo. 15th.

The Secretary of the Interior, on the 26th inst., addressed a letter to the Commissioner of the General Land Office in regard to the occupation of large tracts of Indian lands in Kansas by stockmen, saying that the for extra. Interior Department "will lend its influence to their appropriate punishment under the law for their tresand directing the Commissioner to notify the the 26th instant. trespasser by circular of its determination.

Special Agent Townsend having written to the Com-missioner of Indian Affairs from the Sac and Fox driven the stock of Lord MacDonald away. Agency in the Indian Territory, under date of the 15th inst., reporting an alarming condition of affairs, owing to the struggle between the opposing Creek factions, and recommending that the Government should interpose "to prevent further bloodshed and devastation," troops "to prevent further bloodshed and devastation," troops assumed alarming proportions. Several districts are ter Co., Pa.: or to Chafron Fort Gibson and Fort Reno have been ordered to fast becoming depopulated. It is stated that Gut. Arch St., Philadelphia. arrest and disband them.

The Cincinnati Frice Current publishes a report on to the bad harvests and American competition the condition of the wheat crop throughout the winter wheat belt of the West, in comparison with last year's at Extreorum is at standstill consequent on the morelife condition of which was placed at 100. The ment of the Russians in the Caucasus. The growing immeber, elder and overseer, of Coal Creek M report shows the present condition as follows: "Ohio, apinion is that at Russof-Illickie conflict is insured. Meeting of Friends. She was of a meek and I st. indiana, 89; Illinois, 90; Missouri, 93; Kanasa, 91; The Armeniansare wearied with the indifference shown spirit, very small in her own estimation, yet wo Michigan, 96; Kanasak, 97. Transpers a poor shepherd or a fisherman, and ignorant winter wheat sections of Wisconsin promise well, the Russian occupation. The Russians along the ministry will have more influence towards are as compared with last year. It is hardly reason-the converting of a sinner unto God, than all able to look for a crop equal to last year's estimates, of them who are learned after the flesh." million bushels, or fifty-three millions less than last prisoners in the jail have been removed to a la year."

Reports from Des Moines, Iowa, state that the apple orchards in that section have been killed by the severe winter.

The new Tennessee funding bill, scaling down the commander of the French squadron in Maya debt to fifty cents on the dollar and three per cent. interest, has become law by the Governor's approval.

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a law which prohibits for two years the selling of liquor within two thousand Ashantees have renounced their aller to miles of any meeting-house or school-house, except on

A snow storm prevailed at Lynchburg, Virginia, from First-day evening until the next morning. The Victoria, report great damage from floods. In telegraph wires were levelled in some places. A heavy land there have been terrible thunder storms, we snow storm raged on Fifth-day, south of Weldon, North, and high winds, destroying the crops and killing. Robert Barelay was a lover of learning Carolina. At points along the Raleigh and Gaston sheep. himself, and he did not despise it when kept Railroad the snow is reported to be ten inches deep. himself, and he did not despise it when kept lairoad de show is reported to be ten inches deep.

The Hayten Chambers have passed a our it in its proper place. From its very rise our Society has encouraged the literary education of our youth, as well as their religious traingle on the level, and at Henderson three feet. At maining.

The Hayten Chambers have passed a our if the strength of the str ing; but it has ever been careful to guard Kittrell, a number of houses have fallen under the against this being considered as essential to weight of the snow. The telegraphs north of Greens-

> The deaths in this city last week numbered 420, which is 20 more than during the previous week, and Of the above, 2007 were mades, and 219 relatives 229 (Reports of the motion in Cook in Scota stage) died of consumption; 47 of pneumonia; 34 of heart nearly every county bridges and mills have bee disease; 20 of convulsions; 18 of old age; 18 of typhoid away. The Eastern Extension and Halfarx at fever; 16 of cromp; 10 of searlet fever, and 90 of Bright's Berton Railways have suffered great damag unsease. Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104; 31's 103½; 4½'s, registered, 113; coupon, 113; 4's, registered, 119;; coupon, 120;; currency 6's 129 to 132.

Cotton.—There was very little movement, but prices were unclauged. Sales of middlings are reported at illustrious man; and attributes much of the 102 a 103 cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans. Petroleum.—Standard white, 8½ a 8½ cts. for export, and 9½ a 9½ cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour continues dull, but prices were unchanged, with sales of 1900 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.124; western do., at $5.50 a $6.25, and patents at $6.25 a $8. Rye flour is steady at $3.75 a $3.87\frac{1}{2} per barrel.

Grain.-Wheat is in fair demand, and a fraction

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 3d mo. 24th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 880; loads of straw, 45.

Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 95
amination at the School, meet there on Seco ets. to $1.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 a 95 ets.; straw,

Beef cattle were dull, as most holders were demanding an advance: 2900 head arrived and sold at the dif-

Sheep were also dull: 9000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4½ a 7½ cts., and lambs at 5 a 8½ ets. per pound, as to quality.

Hogs were in demand at an advance: 3500 head arrived and sold at 101 a 111 cts. per lb., the latter rate

Foreign.—The trial of six more of the members of the Armagh Assassination Society, began in Belfast on

A despatch from Glendale, Isle of Skye, reports that the Crofters at Waterstein are excited. They have

The Standard states on good anthority that the Cabinet are divided on the question of the construction of a tunnel under the English Channel.

The emigration from Switzlerland to America has tannen is without an inhabitant. The exodus is owing

The Standard's Varna correspondent says: Business Michigan, 96; Kentucky, 70; Tennessee, 86. The by Great Britain to their wrongs, and would welcome double honor. It is believed her end was peace of Mount Etna. There is a great panic among ple of that place. They are building buts in country, fearing that the town will be destroy safety. There are eleven fissures in the mounta central opening is active, but there is no discre

A despatch to the Standard from Vienna waters has been ordered to spare Tamatave (a possible, and to blockade but few ports.

the king, and demanded the establishment of a ri protectorate.

The latest advices from the Anstralian Con Victoria, report great damage from floods. In

The Haytien Chambers have passed a bill ra

Advices from Buenos Ayres of the 24th ult that a fight occurred in Patagonia between troop Argentine Republic and Chilian troops, owing refusal of the former to quit Chilian territory, men were killed and a number wounded. tines finally retired across the frontier.

Reports of the floods in Nova Scotia show town of Sherbrooke has been flooded, several have been swept away, and the people through town have been driven into the upper stories dwellings. Mining operations are suspended where.

Arrangements have been made by which l attending the Yearly Meeting can be furnished simple meals, both before and after the sittings meeting, at moderate charge (15 cents), story of the central part of the Arch St. Meeting Meals will also be furnished for those attend Meeting for Sufferings and Select Meeting, th ceding week.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL A Stated Meeting of the Committee having el the Boarding School at Westtown, will be Philadelphia on Sixth-day, 3rd mo. 30th, at I1 The Committee on Admissions and the Com on Instruction will meet the same day at 9 A. M evening, 26th inst. For the accommodation committee, conveyances will be at Street Road ! on the 26th inst,, to meet the trains that leave t at 2.25 and 4.55 P. M. WM. EVAL

Philada., 3d mo, 1883.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL. Wanted, a teacher for Arithmetic, Natural I Natural Philosophy, &c., in the Girls' Departmenter upon her duties at the opening of next ses

Application may be made to Elizabeth C, Dunn, Trenton, N. J.
Benlah M, Rhoads, Haddonfield, N.

Martha D. Allen, 3709 Baring St., P

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

The SUMMER SESSION opens on THIRD-DAY, 1st, 1883. Parents and others who intend s pupils, are requested to make early applicat Jonathan G. Williams, Sup't., Westtown P. O ter Co., Pa .: or to CHARLES J. ALLEN, Treas'r, .

DIED, at her residence, near Coal Creek, Iou month 3rd, 1883, LAVINA KING, widow of the

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L LVI

SEVENTH-DAY, FOURTH MONTH 7, 1883.

NO. 35.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

aid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid Ivance $2,50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. icles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON ayments and busioess communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS.

OORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

The Apostolical Miracles. BY MARK HOPKINS.

stem of invariable sequences, as in na-should come. ely natural order, where prudence alone they ceased till Christ came.

iter out of the rock.

These being the objects of miracles, it is obvious that they would be especially needed at And here, I think, we must see that nothing so we find them.

nature, and who has control over it. through the sea, drank of the water that came power give witness of the resurcction of the nselves miracles may be of small actifrom the rock, ate of the manna, and followed Lord Jesus," but we are told that by "their Relatively it is of little importance the pillar of cloud and of fire. Respecting hands were many signs and wonders wronght er a blind beggar shall have his sight these they could not have been deceived, and among the people, insomuch that they brought d. The restoration of sight, therefore, if they had not occurred, the record of them forth the sick into the streets, and laid them viracle, may be as nothing compared could not have been credited by the very gen- on beds and couches, that, at the least, the tose great processes of nature by which cration which is appealed to as having seen shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow millions constantly enjoy perfect them, or by any subsequent generation which some of them."

The processes of nature by which cration which is a process of them and the process of them are the process of them are the process of the proce

when the Israelites were fully settled in the an organization was formed for its perpetua-ter, could never suggest the idea of a promised land, and their institutions were es-tion and extension. The position thus reached at being lying back of them as their tablished, miracles, in a great measure, ceased, was analogous to that of the Israelites when I. If supposed to include human ac- After that, the appeal is constantly made in they had gained the promised land; and hence is it must to be universal, it would be the record to the miracles that had taken we might expect that miracles would cease in lent to fate. It would preclude free-lection fate. It would preclude free-blace. Still there were emergencies when a measure from that point, as they did from they were needed, and then they were the analogous point under the Old Testament worthy of the name. A miracle alone wrought. In some measure they were con-dispensation. And so we find it. In the prothat which would be indispensable to tinued till the return of the Jews from their gress of the gospel, as we recede from Jerusa-ver nature, miracles, or direct interwith the spirit of the new dispensation; and them at Athens, or at Rome; and in the Epistwith God as equivalent to them, are in their number and variety they seem to the to the Romans they are scarcely referred at in the Bible just as the being of have been purposely adapted to show a con-to. trol, not only over the elements and forces of Having, then, aided in establishing an orsecond object of miracles is to show nature and over every form of disease, but, as ganized Christianity, what further place could that he who works them has himself had never been done before, over the spirits miracles have in accomplishing its greatend? control over the forces of nature, or, of the invisible world, and over death itself. That end is not to prolong life indefinitely by is the messenger and servant of Him. These miracles wrought, as has been said, belling diseases, it is not to excite wonder, as such control. When Christ wrought (Christ in his own name, were sufficient, to or to detract from the value of industry under said, as in his own right, "Peace, be substantiate his claims. To them he himself fixed laws. It is not to gather multitudes said, as in his own right, "Peace, be appealed. "If I do not the works of my and lead them to shrines in expectation of He said, "I will, be thou clean." But Father, believe me not. But if I do, though physical effects. Its object is moral and spiritudes the said of the said the apostles wrought miracles they did ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye itual. It is to save men from their sins. It is ce name of another, and a miracle thus may know and believe that the Father is in a moral transformation of them into the image ht was conclusive proof that that other me, and I in Him." Thus were the miracles of Christ. This no miracle has any direct tenower over nature, and that they were intended and adapted to bear witness to Him dency to produce. When the Jews had seen vants. Here was a vital distinction, so who came out from God to give life to the the miracle of the resurrection of Lazarus, hat Moses was not permitted to enter world, and who was himself, in his miraculous they immediately sought how they might put comised land because he did not suf-birth, and sinless life, and teachings, and both Christ and Lazarus to death. As ad-

greatest miracle of all.

the opening of a new dispensation; and also short of miracles wrought by them could have that they would need to correspond with the substantiated their claim before the Jews to nature and object of that dispensation. And be true witnesses of the resurrection of one whom they had crucified between two thieves, At the opening of the Jewish dispensation, and over whose tomb they had set a watch. when a nation was to be organized, and a new Here were a few uneducated, friendless, timid order of worship, elaborate, typical, burden Galileans, whose hopes had been utterly some, and one that was to endure for genera-crushed, and miraculous power was not less tions, was to be established, we find miracles needed to strengthen them in facing the whole flaming out as a bright constellation in the power of the Sanhedrin in the hour of its historical sky. We find them conspicuous, seeming triumph, and to give effect to their greatly varied, long continued, addressing works, than it had been to draw attention to themselves unmistakably to the senses of the Crist in his humble guise. This, accordingly, objects of miracles are two. The first whole nation, and made the turning points of was the period of the apostolic miracles. Not tow the existence of a personal God its very existence. The whole nation passed only did the apostles at that time "with great

We now come to the time of the apostles, owing that the whole order of uniform but no more than sufficient to establish the deniable, as the healing of the impotent man is flexible to his will, a miracle is of a civil institutions of the Jews, and that peculiar in the temple, together with the special power beneficent or stupendous. However beneficent or stupendous. Companied the worship which was to continue till Christ preaching of the apostles, Christianity gained a footing. Its great facts were established, personal beings immersed in a system eaptivity, and then, so far as we have evidence, lem, and especially as we recede in time from the resurrection of Christ, we find the number ind a sphere, into a dispensation where the here find again, bursting upon us at of miracles decrease. Of miracles among the should be true freedom, and a law of once, after a long period of their absence, an Gentiles the accounts are few. They were ousness. As thus essential in showing other constellation of miracles. As uniformly less adapted to them than to the Jews who istence of a personal God who has con-beneficent, these miracles were consonant sought after a sign. We hear nothing of

ly honor God in the miracle of bring-death, and resurrection, and ascension, the dressed to the senses, a miracle has no more power to produce a moral transformation than the rising of one from the dead would have had to persuade those brethren of the Letters and Memoranda of William Scattergood. Moses and the prophets.

appears throughout their writings. Especial second son of Joseph and Ann Scattergood of and earnestly concerned to bring ly does it appear in the comparison of them Philadelphia; who was born in that city the children in the nurture and admonit by Paul with charity, or love. A man might 26th of 10th month, 1804; and deceased at Lord. work them all, and yet be but as "sounding Concordville, Delaware Co., Pennsylvania, on brass, or a tinkling cymbal." They felt that the 13th day of the 8th mo. 1857, in the 53rd fond of the active pursuits and am a the great end of miracles had been accom- year of his age. plished, and that it was of comparatively little the miraculuous cures effected by the apostles Ghost." greatly aided their efforts in convincing the It is said to be by many painful incisions upon his mind while there, which people of the truth of Christianity, is abund that the eye is made single; and if exercising permitted to be wholly dissipated. antly evident from the Scripture records. But lessons in tribulation were permitted our antly evident from the corriptive records. Due then as now, the great agency by which conversion is effected, is the Spirit of Christ operation on the heart of man. The power of apostle in that, "We must through much this Spirit, which accompanied the apostles' tribulation enter into the kingdom of God." which manifested that he was early of words, carried conviction to their hearers; These, also, Paul gloried in; "knowing," as that it was his duty to honor them is an adventure of the control with a land we doubt not would have been effectual he continues, "that tribulation worketh particles the continues of th in spreading Christianity in the earth, even if tience; and patience, experience; and experi- Upon his return from Westtown in the Divine counsels it had not been at ence, hope; and hope maketh not ashamed; he began the study of the Latin tended with the working of any outward because the love of God is shed abroad in our in order to qualify himself for lear and visible miracles. The same Divine Power hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given anothecary business; in which, after which performs miracles and brings convictuation in the had as tion to the heart through their agency, is able when patiently abode under, serve to chasten to engage. The next year he was to produce that conviction immediately with and to purify; and, withal, to prepare the soul ticed to his relative, William Evan out their intervention.

Nor do we believe that such an extension Saviour's will. of this power, as may truly be regarded as

and I have found their minds more tender up, and to give them an inheritance among and open to receive the truths of the gospel, all them which are sanctified.

I shall succeed, time alone can prove that I wish to discard every thing but tain portion of each day in retirement, and even offerings in righteousness. from that time forward received a blessing A concise testimony, principally relating to should be of the first importance to all, from God upon his labors.

For "The Friend."

The following are selections from the let-This view of miracles the apostles had. It ters and memoranda of William Scattergood, members of the religious Society of These manuscripts-his correspondence and moment whether they were continued or diary—clearly represent their author to have of age, he was placed at Friends' had strong natural powers of mind; which School at Westtown. At this sem [The above article, condensed from the S. were gradually subjected and humbled by the weil as those he had previously atteks. Times, is interesting and valuable. But leavening transforming discipline of the grace conduct and the progress he may we think the statement, that nothing short of and cross of Christ; and thereby made substandies were satisfactory to his teachs miracles could have substantiated the claim of servient to the advocacy and exaltation of care and concern of those who could the apostles to be true witnesses to the re-his kingdom in the earth, which consists "in Boarding School, gavehim a favorable surrection, is not sufficiently gnarded. That righteonsness, and peace, and joy in the Holy of its usefulness; and there is reason more diligently to heed the requisitions of the quire a knowledge of that busines

miraculous, is altogether withdrawn from the in respect to its vicissitudes, its humilia- with fidelity to his employer; and h Church at this day, though we have little tions, its crosses, its sore afflictions, the lesson, able manners and conscientious depo confidence in some of the pretended evidences through and over all, cannot be too strongly accompanied with a knowledge of I of its exercise, that have been brought to pub-impressed, that that grace, which made the ness, secured to him the respect and lie notice of latter times. The spirit of pro- apostle Paul what he became-"strong in the ment of many Friends and others. phecy at times still rests on the living members. Lord and in the power of his might"—is suffi-fond of intelligent society, and of of the Church, and would it not more conspic-cient for each one of us, as, like him, we yield pursuits; and his reading was genera uously do so, if the communion of these with our hearts to its justifying, teaching, saving, select. their Holy Head was more close and abiding? and regenerating power. In proof of the In the early part of the year 1822, same, moreover, how are we compassed about brought under renewed religious & with a great cloud of witnesses, all bearing and yielding to the serious impression I observe the first settlers in new countries testimony to the efficacy and sufficiency of upon his mind, he became dissatisfi are generally people in low circumstances; the unspeakable gift of establishing grace some things in which be had too from the had too to encounter. When amongst them, I have remain effectual for the salvation of all, who pany of some associates whose socie often felt great tenderness towards them are willing to yield themselves to it as the no longer congenial to him. In a let Their fare being every way hard, they are low apostle did, who declares: "Unto every one of relation with whom he corresponde us is given grace according to the measure of much freedom at this period, he, und have large families about them to provide for, the gift of Christ:" while to this same power of 5th mo. 11th, 1822, says: "I am en and little to do it with. Many of them feel from on high he commends the elders of ing to become entirely indifferent to humbled under the trials of their situation; Ephesus, as that which is able to build them thing that is not substantially useful.

As has been said, and as the sequel of this immediately relates to religious pursu autobiography will prove, Wm. Scattergood to put aside every thing that is mere "When art thou quiet?"-It is told of Claus had much to endure calculated to humble and for speculation and trifling amuseme Harms, a great German preacher in the first to instruct. And is it not in the school of to read only such books as afford re half of our century, that he related to a haptism that any learn saving lessons, and unmingled truth; which will review Quaker how much daily he had to speak. The from the depths of Jordan as of old, that pleasing remembrance on the mind, to come a source of unfailing delight." ished his narration, he asked, "Brother lieved that the baptism through which he Harms, if thou speakest so much, when art passed, like to "a refiner's fire and to fuller's ticularly on religious subjects. It is thou quiet? and when doth the Spirit of God soap," had the precious effect, in measure, to speak to thee?" Harms was so impressed "purge him as gold and silver," in order that to the passing events of the day, even to his offerings might be pleasant unto the Lord, he was accustomed to write with green.

to have been written by a trul brother of his, also deceased, prefacts joined, W. S.'s letters and memoran

His parents were exemplary and of childhood.

In the year 1816, when about two that strong religious impressions was

He was a dutiful and affectionate whom he remained until he was 21 In view of this pilgrimage journey, whether age. He performed the duties of his

dom. The subject he felt to be, and his early years and experience, and believed theme he loved to dwell upon. To religious experience qualified them to thize with him, and afford him counsel lp, he freely imparted his religious exthe pressure of which at times appears been almost overwhelming. The deep es he was permitted to pass through, f which he ascribes to his unfaithful e instructive to survivors. They doubtere to himself, enabling him to enter ully into sympathy with those who ssailed with similar feelings; to some lm he was at times qualified to afford iant counsel and help.

(To be continued.)

Religious Conversation.

i his breast like an anchorite in his cell. built on a sandy foundation. cil does not consist in speaking of rebit of communicating "experiences" I ing the blessings of divine life prepared for projections be very prejudicial to the mind. It those who truly love God. is old age should be, and how he would sing pretimes be right to do this; in the simplicity of the Light of Christ, God is his dying song: lhings, is easily destroyed. And if these calling and election is made sure. be directed to the invigoration of the and life, and resurrection obtained. glus character in our own minds; and we Dymond Essays.

79. I am often deeply pained on account sewho love to feel more than to hear.

For "The Friend," Simplicity.

When man walks in the Light as God is Light, and is in simplicity before his God, then be knows and feels the divine life in him. The thoughts and affections are in union with God. In simplicity of walking in the Light of the Redeemer is acceptance of the divine kingdom, hid from the prudent and wise, but revealed unto babes. The eye is single, and all is light in the child of Light. There are no questioning and no wonderings after secret things, because all things are made manifest in the Light to the soul which liveth of every word which proceedeth out of the mouth of God, and feeds on the tree of life. For the lieve both that the proposition is true, child of Light, living in simplicity in oneness tt it is expedient to set it down, that with Christ, there is no desire after that is conversation is one of the banes of knowledge which is not revealed by the Light, rigious world. There are many who Grace and Spirit, coming from God. Many ally attached to religion, and who some-seeking souls have commenced to serve God sfeel its power, but who allow their in the Spirit, but have ended in the flesh; be-They forget how much religion is an all-truth-revealing Light; and would not subof the mind, and how little of the tongue; mit to the thoroughly purifying and chaffrget how possible it is to live under its destroying, fiery baptisms of Christ, the great and true baptiser of his people; and hecause sme, it is to be feared, may forget how they lusted after an outward knowledge te it is to talk without feeling its influ- which was not from the Spirit, and so being Not that the good man's piety is to turned from the simplicity in Christ have

When the soul in simplicity of Light draws rbut in speaking too much; not in mani- near to God in perfect faith and submission o our allegiance to God; not in encour- to Him and his will, then is known the supergby exhortation, and amending by our natural unity with God, and the true peace c; not in placing the light upon a candle- which the world and worldly religion cannot but in making religion a common topic give, and the spiritual eyes behold the eversourse. Of all species of well-intended lasting glorious kingdom of God in righteousils conversation, that perhaps is the ness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit,—seeing pent have departed from simplicity in Christ! xeeptionable which consists in narra-ur own religious feelings. Many thus ing what natural ears have not heard,—and ne upon that religious quietude which is realizing supernatural things which never en-I rly favorable to the Christian character. tered into the natural mind of man,—and tasttrajetity of instances I believe it is not all and everything to the obedient soul. And fial, and not right. Men thus dissipate as God is Light, and in Him there is no dark in my veins is extinguished, when Winter is impressions, and therefore diminish ness at all, so in the Light of Christ there is reigns in my heart and his white flakes fall reffects. Such observation as I have no darkness for the soul—the darkness but sparingly on mine head, and his mist is mabled to make, has sufficed to conswallowed up by the immeasurable occan of as a veil before my eyes. The old names ene that, where the religious character Light flowing from the Father of Light have died away, and I myself am heard no I, there is but little religious talk; and There is a living in the paradise of God or more; honored still perhaps by few, by many , here there is much talk, the religious heaven, inward, which is righteonsness, peace despised, and loved by none. And boys with ter is superficial, and like other super and joy; and nothing can hurt a soul whose rosy cheeks come to me, and put the old harp ceral religious conversation, how peculour salvation, having passed through the beard, sing us again songs of the dreams of ylangerous must that conversation be, ministration of condemnation, and realizing thy youth.

exposes those impressions that perhaps the blood of the immaculate Lamb to sprinkle "Then I take the harp, and the old joys fewer branches might have a deeper of knowledge, or the outward history of I sing a song of the flowers of Brenta Christ and his blood, it has no efficaey to save lig over a meeting, up starts one and an-heirs, officers or soldiers,—and just so, men is a perfume in the flowers of Brenta."

1 and away it goes, to the wounding of have no benefit in believing in Christ and his "A tree shall hang over my tombstone." given them for antidote against sin and the North. It shall be a linden, and lovers vanity, and suffer and die with Christ, and arise with Him, and have Him to rule over them, and so be partakers with Him in his kingdom-become joint heirs with Christ.

The outward knowledge of Christ and his work for mankind, may give a sort of satisfaction to the outwardly directed mind, when supported by imaginations, and stirred up by the carnal feelings and affections. But this cannot save the soul, unless man walks in the Light.

Consider the effects of music, that nowa-days seems to form a large part of the worship of some. Look, for instance, at a troop of horsemen coming along with music, and we will see its effects on both men and horses. See how proud the men look and how proudly the horses advance! And who can deny that there is a great effect on the natural feelings from music? Think of a battle-field-the great music-fire-rattling of guns-eryings and wailings of dying and wounded-blood reclings to evaporate in an ebullition of cause they did not submit in simplicity to the and carnage,—there is wholesale murder and music! None can deny that music has a great power to raise the passions of the actors in that terrible drama!

But since a man must retire and sink deep into his own soul to find the precious pearl of salvation, and have communion with God and hear his voice; how greatly injurious is it to use the exciting sounds of music, which draw the attention from the inward power and Light of God in man, to the outward feelings? The many hymns and songs used by outward professors hinder them from coming to the true knowledge of God, by stirring up the religious passions of men, and drawing them off from the true Life. Men beguiled by the ser-

CHARLES SHIELDSTREAM.

Two Pictures from Heine.

In 1826, in Germany, Heine, in his full con-

"At last, the day will come when the fervor in my trembling hand, and laughingly say: hattendants, and in part the consequences In the Light of Christ we therefore possess Thou hast long been silent, thou lazy grey-elesigned exclusively for ourselves, and our consciences from dead works, to serve and sorrows awake, the mists dissolve, tears of which may be frustrated by com-God in the newness of life. All is seen and bloom again from my dead eyes, there is ilting them to others. Our solicitude judged by the Light, and access given to God spring again in my heart, tears of sweet regret tremble in the strings of my harp; I see once But without the Light is darkness. If the more the blue river, and the marble palaces, be anxious that the plant of piety, if Light is rejected, and man feeds on the tree and the fair faces of women and maidens, and

"It will be my last lay. The stars will gaze upon me as in the nights of my youth, the from sin, without the Light.

Wen may believe that Alexander the Great enamored moonlight kisses once more my sperficial ministry among us. True and conquered several kingdoms, but it will not checks, the spirit choirs of dead nightingales isilence is too little known in many of benefit them anything,—even if they seriously are heard in the distance, my eyes close them oligious meetings. Sometimes when believed that be conquered these kingdoms selves in the intoxication of sleep, my soul comments to be something solid and weighty for them, because they are not Alexander's dies away like the music of my harp.—there sufferings, if they do not follow his Light, should prefer a palm; but this thrives not in shall sit there of a summer and caress. greenfinch who listens and rocks himself in Spurious Ministry-Speaking Smooth Things. the branches is silent, and my linden sighs sadly above the heads of the happy ones, who are so happy that they find not time to read what is written upon the white headstone. But, afterwards, when the lover has lost his beloved, he will come again to the well-remembered linden, and sigh, and weep, and look long and often at the headstone, where he rather than endure silence in our religious will read the inscription, 'He loved the flowers of Brenta.'

The years passed. Experience enred the poet of some of his vagaries. Illness seized upon his frame, and stretched him for eight ligious exercise; and the practice of thus as years in perpetual pain. Not only did he see many things in a different light than that in form. If the habit of public speaking withwhich they had appeared in his younger days, out life is promoted, a multitude of such but in the paralysis of his body, his spirit attained a higher flight and sweetness. His "Hebrew melodies" he published in those last away from the place of true waiting and feedeight years; and in the preface of his volumes ing, into a restless desire after words; which of poems, he makes the following recantation, which may serve as a companion-picture to the one already given:

"When we lie on our death-bed, we become very gentle and tender-hearted, and would speeches, and extol them as fine preachers; willingly make peace with God and man. confess I have scratched many, and bitten from speaking the truth, will feel that his tesmany, and been no lamb. But since I have timony is not relished, and a secret prejudice stood in need of God's mercy I have made a is indulged against him. But there are in The hills! the hills! what painter's hand can s truce with all my foes; many beautiful poems, almost every meeting, some painful travellers, which were directed against very high and who understand the language of the Spirit, very low persons, are for that reason excluded and rejoice to find others speaking the same Each changing one o'er their kingly brow from the present collection. Poems which thing, and walking in the same tribulated jewelled gift is cast, from the present collection. Poems which thing, and walking in the same tribulated contained in any degree personalities against path. These will sainte each other as brethren past. Almighty God, I have committed to the and sisters, and rejoice in the fellowship of There are colors like the fading eve, the pompet flames with the zeal of fear. It is better that the gospel; and a secret satisfaction is felt the verses should burn than the vesifier. Yes, in having been instrumental in visiting the And the solemn gloom of purple skies in t I have made peace with the Creator as well seed .- Journal of William Evans. as with the creature, to the great displeasure of my enlightened friends, who repreach me for my relapse into the old superstition, as WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY. Clear bird-notes, and the hum of bees, and I they are pleased to call my return to God. Others express themselves with still bitterer intolerance. Atheism's convocation has pronounced its anathema over me, and there are certain fanatical priests of unbelief who would willingly place me on the rack to make me renounce my heterodoxy. Happily, they have no instruments of torture at command except their writings. But I confess every-thing without torture. I have really returned to God, like the prodigal son, after feeding swine with the Hegelians for many years. The divine homesickness came upon me, and drove me forth, through woods and vales, over the dizziest mountain pathways of dialectic. On my way I found the God of the Pantheists, but I could make nothing of him. This poor visionary creature is interwoven with and grown into the world. Indeed, he is almost My childhood's earliest thoughts are linked with thee imprisoned in it, and yawns at you, without voice, without power. To have will, one must have personality, and to manifest one's self, one must have elbow room .- Jewish Messen-

Without holiness, without a heart thor- When birds and flowers and I were happy peers. oughly purified from the stains of voluntary transgression, we may be assured that we shall not enter into the secrets of the most. Thou teachest me to deem. transgression, we may be assured that we High; the hidden life will be hidden to us; and there will be many things in the Christian's privileges, more precious than rubies. which will never, in the present state of being, come within the range of our experience. Upham.

Selected for "The Friend."

Wherever there is a fondness for speaking and hearing, there will be a danger that sound indement will not be exercised, in suppressing forward, active persons, who would intrude themselves into this sacred office, (that of the ministry.) Hence a spurious ministry grows up, and the people love to have it so, meetings. By this means, instead of being seasons of solemity, imparting spiritual strength, the mind is vacant, uneasy, and listless. Many seem to be very ignorant of the nature of resembling, is in danger of becoming a mere preachers may be spread over the Society, ministering death; and leading the members will never build any on the most holy faith, nor strengthen them against one sin. Such find that speaking smooth things pleases their hearers, who will caress them for their fair while the true minister, who eannot flinch

Selected.

Though troubles perplex you, Dishearten and vex yon. Retarding your progress in sombre array; To shrink with terror

Is surely an error, For where there's a will there's a way.

The task may be teasing, The duty unpleasing, But he who confronts it will soon win the day; Half the battle is over When once we discover

That where there's a will there's a way. Misfortunes precornted Are often surmounted.

If only we quit not the field in dismay; Then once more endeavor, Remembering ever That where there's a will there's a way.

Selected.

THE DANDELION

The sight of thee calls back the robin's song, Who, from the dark old tree

Beside the door, sang clearly all day long, And I, secure in early piety, Listened as if I heard an angel sing

With news from heaven, which he did bring Fresh every day to my untainted years,

How like a prodigal doth Nature seem, More sacredly of every heart, or escretary or every nearty gleam

Of heaven, and could some wondrons secret show,
Did we but pay the love we owe,
And with a child's undoubting wisdom look
On all the living pages of God's book.

J. R. Lowell.

THE CURE OF SORROW.

Silence is no certain token That no certain grief is there; Sorrow which is never spoken Is the heaviest load to bear.

Seldom can the heart be lonely If it seek a lonelier still, Self-forgetting, seeking only Brighter cups of love to fill.

Fruitless will not be the labor, Evil to subdue with good Try to understand your neighbor, And you will be understood Frances Ridley H.

THE HILLS.

The hills! the hills! when we hear those word the joyous breeze Sweep past us on its free, wild way, like the stormy seas;

We tread once more with blithesome step o'er peaks and dells, Where fresh green moss like a velvet robe beauty swells;

Again we see the gorgeous furze in its dress (With the glowing heath and bright sundew, and purple thyme; And the rich pine-odors float around, as in days of old,

When we deemed, at sunset's lovely time, ea was a shaft of gold.

varied shades That flit o'er their streams, and glens, and kn-dewy fern-clad glades?

ing light, majestic night!

And the sounds from their green solitudes, h and glad they seem-

The hills! the hills! from their lofty heigh radiant scenes we se Fair sheltered valleys, fertile plains, and the gleaming sea We look on fields of harvest-wealth with theirl ears of gold, On cities, hamlets, lordly halls, and shadowy old: We see the ivied homesteads 'mid their mo chards lie,

With the blue smoke rising merrily to the cle arching sky:

And amid their low and daisied crofts, by sun tures green, And beneath the shade of bending trees white dwellings gleam! The hills! the hills! they bring glad tales from t of childhood back. When we marked the royal eagle's flight, and to wild-deer track;

When we saw the storm-clouds gather, and the nings flash on high, Or heard the glorious thunder-peals like anther

ing by. All beautiful they were to us, in sunlight and in And when the white mist floated o'er the gli heather bloom: Oh! a world of magic loveliness our dreamy fand When we hear a young voice telling of the hill glad green hills!

1792. 1st mo. 12th. Opened in the spr life, in our Quarterly Meeting for wor proceeded a little, but was suddenly an expectedly shut up, and sat down im ately; after which my soul rejoiced the will was in subjection, and that I was ble I could do nothing of myself.-J. & For " The Friend," a Man has no Judgments Against Him." i presence concerning a man of considergiven, my informant's summary of opinspecting his solvency being, that "Such has no judgments against him." Never-(s, I could but reflect, respecting him, whilst all the court-records would ex-

which all must appear. written that "the blessing of the Lord, Therefore it is that the man of business ple did according to this promise." ossesseth the wisdom that is from above, not neglectful of the injunction to be to the principal, but will diligently look esteemed as earthen d them and consider how they may hands of the potter! er serve the Lord with their substanceat manner they may most wisely apply silver and the gold," which, He says, mine." These desire to be preserved any approach to the miserable end of eys of his money-chests in his hands.

hildren of men will be lifted. ere seemed to be a great deal of instrucand warning for this generation, in the those shadowy ventures, was, "buying what and read by each soldier as it passed. At the you don't want from a man who hasn't got battle of Cunaxa, says Smith's Dictionary, ta main has no suggments Against film.

it;" and yet, according to the authoritative the watchword was "Jesus the Saviour and testimony of the statistician of the New York Victory." In each case this was a white ke the caption of this article, was spoken Produce Exchange, "ninety per cent. of the stone with a new name written which no man sales at the Produce Exchange were for future knew, saving he that received it. The enemy peans, who, I believe, is a member of no delivery." How opposed to the truth is such knew it not. bus society, and is one who is reputed to falsification, and such dealing upon utterly sorrow for, and of turning away from, this for a victor, riding to the capitol in his chariot, offence, on the part of the many participants, to cause great numbers of these white stones tlear searches as to any adverse liens or one is led ardently to desire such a general to be thrown to the crowd. One fortunate ents, there was a possibility (without restoration to the way of financial rectitude enough to secure one of them might read on ng any harsh estimate) that riches too as we have account in the book of Nehemiah. it: "Ten pounds of meal," or "Two bushels dly acquired might deprive their pos-"Also I shook my lap," is the record of this of corn," or "Five loaves of bread;" and the of blessings in this life, and likewise earnestly-concerned governor, "and said, So stone would entitle him to receive whatever a judgment of condemnation, altogether God shake out every man from his house, was named upon it. And the Saviour may pyable, at the bar of that awful tribu and from his labor, that performeth not this be conceived as giving to every sincere folwritten that "the blessing of the Lord, emptied. And all the congregation said, ten upon it; and upon the stone is pledged to seth rich, and He addeth no sorrow with Amen, and praised the Lord. And the peot the holder every needed blessing in this life up for the holy purpose of maintaining the ent," will find himself controlled by an standard of pure and undefiled religion before the judges who sat with him were furnished d check or limitation, instructing him the people, let none of us, forgetful of our high each with a white and a black stone. At the to amass worldly substance as that it commission, waste time and energies in simply conclusion of the pleadings on either side, prones that sore evil under the sun, which heaping up dollars for the sake of accumu-clamation of this fact was made, and then the een by the Preacher, "namely, riches lation, or for self satisfaction and love of ease, judges deposited in the urn the black stone if for the owners thereof to their hurt," or for family pride and aggrandizement, lest he voted for condemnation, or the white stone o the burt of their precious offspring. gradually there be witnessed that pitiful trans- if he voted for acquittal. If those for acquittal e know that "he that trusteth in riches formation from the precious and heavenly to were in the majority, the Prætor announced fall;" but, it is also added, "the right-the vile and earthy which was the burden of the result, and it was said of the liberated man, shall flourish as a branch." Hence, the prophet's pathetic lamentation, "How is "He has the white stone." the prophet's pathetic lamentation, "How is "He has the white stone. these have been given to know that the gold become dim! how is the most fine The tessera hospitalis, however, seems most possess a sufficient estate, they will not gold changed! * * The precious sons of fully to meet the conditions of the case. In hue adding each recurring years' in-|Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they ancient times, when travel was rare and nan of whom it was lately related that ried and curious part in ancient life. Among tus. He invites him to his home. They bed declared be would not be separated the Seythians this custom is said to have excome acquainted and, it may be, warmly athis wealth, and that he died clutching isted! The thoughtful man, at the close of tached to each other. When the time arrives curse which accompanies the pursuit duct and thoughts since he left his bed in the a small white stone of marble or alabaster, thes for their own sake, was perhaps morning, and, if the verdict was favorable, he oblong in shape, and on it each one writes his more strikingly and speedily illustrated would go to the urn kept for the purpose and name, one on one end and the other on the in the case of that well-known "merchant drop into it a white stone; if unfavorable, a other. The stone is then broken in two, the e" of a neighboring city, who died a few black stone. Then, at the close of a longer host retaining the part on which the name of ago the possessor of millions, and whose or shorter period, by comparing the number the guest is written, and the guest the part on mercantile and other enterprizes have of white and black stones in the urn, he could which is written the name of the host. They now mostly come to naught. His poor see how his account stood with himself. This separate, each possessing a white stone with ins stolen from their place of sepulture, custom suggests a good lesson on the passage a new name written, which no one knoweth ostly cathedral mausoleum intended to in Rev. ii. 17, where we read: "To him that saving he that receiveth it. And now, not tuate his name, will scarcely be the overcometh will I give a white stone." If, at only these two persons, but their families and with its ornate furnishing and elabo-the end of life's day, Jesus give us, what else their posterity are bound by laws of hospitalicervices—where the aching burdens of we could not have, a white stone for the urn, ty which it is infamous to break. it were the same as his saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant.

The White Stone.

tter, as stated by a notorious operator in passed from hand to hand along the ranks, for and finds the family of the one named on Again, the white stone might be the tessera s great business shrewdness. It being wrong principles! And when one thus specu- frumentaria. This was a "white stone" on ble that I should be apprised of the lates in life's necessities, making gain his god, which a certain quantity of food or sum of iary standing of this person, some in- can it be said of him, however prosperous as money was specified, together with the name s of his aptness for profitable dealing to the outward his affairs may seem to be, of the giver; a name known only to him who hat might be called "sharp practice," that "such a man has no judgments against received it. And on the presentation of this stone to the steward of the giver, whatever Contemplating this matter in its social and was mentioned upon it, would be given in exnational aspects, and witnessing so little of change for the stone. It was not uncommon promise; even thus be he shaken out, and lower a white stone with his own name writand in the life to come an inheritance incor-Our beloved Society having been raised ruptible, undefiled and that fadeth not away.

In ancient trials, before the Prætor at Rome, bands of the potter!"

J. W. L. "institution." In the houses of the more wealthy a separate part of the house, with an entrance of its own, was set apart especially for stranger guests. We may imagine a citizen of Athens to encounter in the street a ven-The "white stone" played a singularly va- erable or comely looking stranger from Milethe day, would question himself as to his con- for the stranger to depart, the host brings out

Years roll by, and at length (say) a grandson of the Athenian sets out for a voyage to Or the white stone might be the tessera mil- Miletus. Before his departure he will examnce lately produced before the Legisla- itaris. This was a white stone—it might be ine the contents of the tessera box for a stone Committee of Inquiry, of the State of of earthenware, or marble, or alabaster, or having on it the name of some citizen of the York, relative to stock and merchandize hard mined material of almost any kind—used city to which he goes, and he finds the one de-dation, and especially concerning the to convey the watchword of the day when an posited there so many years ago. On the voynating and dealing in what are styled army was on the eve of battle. Upon it the age he is shipwrecked, and reaches Miletus hers' and "futures." The definition of watchword was engraved, and the stone was destitute of all but his tessera. He inquires it, and claims the rites of hospitality. When He who created the cause is able to care for and imprisonment during the Royal p asked upon what grounds he makes his cauling to experience the unstended avor in our daily their own protest by this refusal, their tessers box, and find a white stone, and hourly walk, to show that the ways of crown has the right to appoint by which, being fitted to the one brought by the boliness, like those of wisdom, are "ways of patent twelve days after the refusal stranger, shows indubitably that it was once pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. a part of the same whole. The stranger is now admitted, and treated as an old friend of the household-a very comfortable termination of the disastrous voyage.

Let every church member examine bimself, and see to it that the stone in his possession is genuine, and not a mere fancy, deceptive and illusory.

For " The Friend," The Beauty of Holiness.

Occasionally we see people whose lives show very conspicuously the loveliness and sweetness that Divine Grace can produce in the human character. How such people attract us, not only to themselves but to that which has produced these effects in them! That it is Divine Grace which produces this loveliness of character we cannot doubt, as none have the fruits of the Spirit-love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance - without they have yielded to that power which alone can produce such fruits.

In reflecting on this subject, I have thought how important it is that those who profess the Christian religion should, by their lives, show what it can and will do for those who yield wholly to its influence. We are creatures of influence; whether we will or not, we cannot belp being influenced by or influencing those around us; and it we do not show in our lives the fruits of the Spirit, we will bind not show the cause of Christianity. There are many the cause of Christianity. There are many the cause of the spirit we will be caused the same and the same of the spirit we will be caused the same of the spirit we will be spirit with the Reformance of the spirit we will be spirit with the spirit was a spirit with the spirit was an analysis of the spirit was a spirit with the spirit was a spi exemplifying in themselves and by their lives, what it has done for them. True, we are all human, subject to the weaknesses and temptations flesh is heir to, but if those who make a profession of religion, instead of being loving, joyful, peaceful, gentle, meck and temperate, commenting on the election of Dr. Benson as contact, to the source of real happiness?] believe there are many in our own beloved ing than custom house oaths. The Bishop is sire is not only to secure their own eternal of a sick chamber, show the meekness, patience, gentleness and love that abide in the heart of a Christian, will have a great influence; an influence that will not be confined to the narrow limits the suffering body is con- The old forms were retained, but the substancausing many, perhaps, to seek for that which asked upon what grounds he makes this claim it, to keep it and promote it! And if we de-Nor could they do anything more thanks

For "The Friend," Sportsmen.

Would that those who are given to the sport (so-called) of shooting, often of wounding, and taking the life of birds and other animals—"dumb, but yet endued with clo-bis position. Confirmation confers upon quence that agonies inspire"-might be imquence trace agoing included the burd with more of the tender Christian spirit him a right to his pay and completes the following paragraph from his "Letters—Esthetic, Social, and Moral:"-

"Travellers on the Nile frequently go ashore for the purpose of shooting. The sound of exhibited in the experience of life assu to me to be cruel. I cannot see the good sense, the humanity, or the religion, of taking away that life which God alone can give, for the gratification of a useless and momentary pleasure.* Hearing a gun one day, I looked up and saw a dove winging its way beavily towards the boat. Its slow, irregular motion attracted my attention. The blood dropped from its breast. It struggled, but still descended nearer and nearer to the water. Its strength failed. Its white plumage sank in the dark wave. Near Minich a wounded eagle fell by the side of the boat, and was taken on the deck, and died. That dark struggling wing, now feeble in death, had those around us; and if we do not show in power to climb the mountains. As the light

> For "The Friend." Religious Items, &c.

Election of the Archbishop of Canterbury.-The London correspondent of the Tribune in are fault-finding, contentious, unhappy and Archbishop of Canterbury, quotes the caustic are hand-manny, and the likely to repel, rather description of the process given long ago by Emerson.

"The modes of initiation are more damagelected by the Dean and Prebends of the ca-thedral. The Queen sends these gentlemen a sire is not only to seems the Fountain of peace, but to draw others to the Fountain of living water, who do not sufficiently show forth them the name of the person whom they are in their lives "The Beauty of Holiness." Not to elect. They go into the cathedral, chant only in public, but in the domestic life of every and pray, and beseech the Holy Ghost to asthe Christian graces shine with brightness; set tuem in their enoice; and, after these insist them in their choice; and, after these inand they who in their daily life, no matter the Holy Ghost agree with the recommendations of the Queen.'

In early times, the right of choice rested, we suppose, with the Dean and Prebends. But Henry VIII. made the recommendation of the Crown obligatory upon the Chapter. tiaf part was changed. If the Chapter should can bring such happiness and contentment to licence, the canons would be liable to ontlawry now refuse to elect the person signified in the it.

Chapter.

Before any one can really become bishop he has to be: 1, nominated; 2, e the 3, confirmed; 4, enthroned. The noming which practically makes him in the can of the public the second head of the Cur (the Queen being first,) leaves bim whe was. Election does not seem much to in spiritual prerogatives. Enthronization monies by which he becomes fully entitle perform archiepiscopal functions.

Probability of Life to Total Abstainer Moderate Drinkers .- The law of average companies during the last forty years triumphantly justified the temperance p ple of total abstinence. Among seriou thoroughly well-informed persons dehi over on this matter. When I was in Lo I took much pains to ascertain exactly facts as to the experience of British life ance societies in making a distinction bet moderate drinkers and total abstainers. nearly half a century now many of the life assurance societies of England hav sured moderate drinkers and total absta in separate sections, and a bonus has been to the sections made up of total abstaine seven, thirteen, seventeen, and in some of of twenty-three per cent. over that pa teach the children that "it is more blesse give than to receive." For three years 1 one of the largest of these schools has as Christmas season approached, referred matter to the unbiased decision of the pu whether the old custom should be follow of a Christmas tree loaded with present the scholars, or whether the children sho themselves contribute to the aid and com of poor children.

Each year they have settled the matte favor of giving rather than receiving, and sum contributed in a single instance by t school of between six and seven hundred c dren amounted to fifteen hundred dollars.

> For "The Friend Natural History, Science, &c.

discovered near Ashland, Clay Co., Alaban The tin is finely disseminated in gneiss roo The ore is crushed and the metal extract on the spot. Tellurium in Copper Ore .- Some copper o from Colorado, in which neither arsenic n antimony were present, was purchased by metallurgical firm, who were unable to refit When the copper was passed through the rollers, cracks showed themselves, which b Doubtless the zealous, tender-spirited Christian sees much around him in the world to grieve him; and many dispositions have a tendency to yield to discouragements; but should we not strive to not allow these to dwell with us too much, remembering that the string of the string of the support of themselves, their friends, or their families.

*No doubt there was a clear distinction maintained in the mind of T. C. U., between the act of the sports when the life of animals for his pastime of more anumement—which a Christian poet has termed by Detected sport?—and such as used the gun to procure, which are the support of themselves, their of the produced such a decided effect, was is than one-tenth of a per cent.

They may be found in the interior be dead.' es of the stem as well as upon the leaves. asferred to the human skin they multiply lly in number and set up the inflammaso well known.

nother species attacks the destructive er away as with a pestilence.

vestigations on Contagious Diseases.—The 00 francs at the disposal of Pasteur to mate. - J. G. Wood. rinue his admirable investigations upon contagious diseases of animals.

ethis anecdote, I am indebted for several not for Christ .- W. Penn. y most interesting accounts of animal. She does not wish her name to be mened, but it is well known throughout the ble literary world.

n the years 1864 and 1865, a robin made at home in my dining room, always ring to the window and tapping to have it shared my oat-meal porridge with me, chen picked up crumbs of bread or toast, ame to his breakfast.

winter of 1864-5, he again established of life. irself in the house, on his own familiar

msements

es to the bowl.

fects of Bacteria.—The peculiar poison of swallowed large lumps of butter himself while Father for their refinement and preparation common poison-vine, swamp sumach, and helping his young ones. This went on for lor the joys of his kingdom, of which at searn species of the genus Rhus, is now be some days, and at last he did not make his sons, He is pleased to grant "large prelibation d to be due to a species of small vegetable appearance at all; his wife and family came oft to saints below," tendering their hearts, nism, which has been named Micrococcus without him, and then we knew that he must filling them with a sense of his goodness, and

The reason that the wife and family did not enter the house is evident to all who know the habits of the red-breast. It is one of the most jealous of birds, and never will allow without toil, and struggle and self-denial. another bird to enter the place of which it ich-bug, so as in some seasons to sweep has pleased him to consider himself the owner. previously forbidden his family to enter the the efforts we are making. We cannot alter heh Minister of Agriculture has placed house where he felt himself a privileged in the Divine laws under which we live, and we Red-breast .- To the lady who sent can take up the cross for covetousness and circumstances attending upon our passage

THE FRIEND.

FOURTH MONTH 7, 1883.

med at breakfast time. When he came in that wise elder, and estimable man, Alfred should mainly regard, but whether we are so Cope, he mentioned that a young woman had walking in the Light of Christ, that "each ang himself on the edge of the cup, and gone over the Bible, and made from it a col-to-morrow finds us further than to-day," on cing out such grains as eaught his laney. lection of texts, pointing out the peace, hap-the road to the Heavenly Jerusalem. piness and joy which attend the steps of him when he had satisfied himself, he sat on who is living in the fear of the Lord. After pack of my chair and sang, or sometimes examining the sweet promises and blessed entitled "Home" has affixed to it the signatok bimself to the top of a large screen, hopes thus grouped together; and which, if ture "R. G. A." It was probably taken from en he wished the window to be opened for taken without reference to the unavoidable a book entitled "Gold and Frieze," compiled he used to make a peculiar little noise, conflicts and baptisms which are to be en by R. G. Alsop. We are requested to state, ice any sound I ever heard from a bird—dured, might paint the Christian's path as that "It was not written by her, but by an oloud, but very much like articulate lan one of perpetual sun-shine and fair weather; author whose contributions appear in that Alfred Cope advised her again to take the work under the signature of 'L Alfred Cope advised her again to take the As you may fancy, he was a great favorite sacred volume, and select from it those past every one in the house. If the day was sages which speak of the trials, temptations a cold, he always seated himself on the and sore buffetings of which we must partake, ds of the fender as soon as he was let in, as well as of the consolations of the Gospel. ing out his feathers to receive the heat. He thought, that the two collections of texts more than during the preceding quarter of the same when he found that he was warm enough, would enable her to form a more just concepwould enable her to torm a more just conception of the real truth than she could obtain 1st, was $1.891,966,271, and the decrease during 3d mo. During the summer of 1864, he came oc- by dwelling exclusively on one of its aspects.

isnally to the window, but seldom came She excused herself from following his sugges-mo. 1st, was $315,034,983. , nd then only for a moment, though he tion, by saying that it was more agreeable to old sometimes follow me out of doors. In her tastes to look at the joys than the sorrows However pleasing may be the contempla-per to the porridge-cup for his breakfast, sent world. The glorious hope set before us, I never allowed him to take too much of eternal felicity to those who, by patient fealmost lived in the house, sometimes re- continuance in well-doing, seek for glory and When summer came round again, he ap-counted all things but loss, so that he might ed one day at the window with his wife win Christ; and though he knew that bonds in children, who sat on the ledge of the and afflictions awaited him wherever he went, flow while he entered and took food out yet none of these things moved him, "neither, them. It then came out that of late he had said he, "count I my life dear unto myself, to been detected in carrying off food from so that I may finish my course with joy." heeacoek's bowl which I kept in the dining- There have been thousands since his day, och; this food he had, doubtless, earried to who, through the power of Divine Grace, is dy in her nest: the dining-room window, have been made willing to lay aside every eig mostly open in summer, gave him ac-weight, and to run with patient endurance the race set before them; having their hearts A sister-in-law of mine and her daughters so filled with the love of God, and the gloriare to stay with me just then, and to see ous prospect opened before them, as to willheittle red-breasts get their breakfast daily ingly endure all the struggles and sufferings their papa was one of our morning's that they have to encounter. Many of these have felt a secret comfort in the soul-sustain-But, alas! one day, he came looking very ing assurance that the trials and baptisms , vith his feathers puffed out, and looking which they were enduring, were part of causing them to overflow with love to others.

It is very evident, that in the wise ordering of the Ruler of the universe, no great object can be accomplished in this state of existence These are often hard to endure, however they may be sweetened by the hope of snecess, or There can be little doubt, but that he had by the consciousness of Divine approval in which are undoubtedly adapted to our mental and spiritual constitution. It would be wise A Covetous Man .- O monster of a man! that therefore not to think too much upon the through life, whether joyous or grievous, but to have our thoughts mainly directed to the accomplishment of the great object of life; which is, a preparation for admittance into the Kingdom of Heaven, through submission to the heart-changing power of God inwardly revealed. As to our temporal experiences, it In conversation, several years ago, with is "not enjoyment and not sorrow" that we

In "The Friend" of 3d mo. 17th, a poem

SUMMARY OF EVENTS,

UNITED STATES.—The receipts of the Post-office Department for the fourth quarter of 1882 were $943,000

$9,344,826. The amount of cash in the Treasury 4th

During last week the number of immigrants landed at Castle Garden was 5568, against 13,598 corresponding week of 1882, a decrease of 8030. For the 3rd month the total was 28,091, against 40,691 in 1882, and since 1st mo. 1st, 49.652, against 68,685 for a like period ons, and became even a greater pet than tion of uninterrupted comfort and pleasure, it in 1882. The explanation of the heavy falling off is not the path marked out for us in this premany then availed themselves of that advantage

It is reported from Santa Fe that Lieutenant Thomp son, with a body of the Fourth Cavalry, is in pursuit of laing all night when the weather was bad honor, so animated the apostle Paul, that he the Indians in New Mexico, and will follow the hotiles into Mexico, the recent treaty giving him the right to do so. A despatch from Tucson, Arizona, says that Captain Dougherty, who is scouting the country, has orders from Gen. Crook to take no Indian prisoners.

A late despatch from Portland, Oregon, says the reports of Umatilla Indian hostilities are unfounded, and adds: "It is believed that the rumors of the movements of the Indians were circulated for the purpose of bringing on a commission, which would result in their re-moval and the throwing open of their reservation to land sharks.

The Senate of Delaware on the 29th ult., passed the Local Option bill favored by the State Temperance Alliance, but it is not expected to pass the House. A resolution to adjourn sine die on the 13th instant has passed both Houses.

The Tennessee Legislature passed an act making it a felony to keep gambling houses in that State, or to rent buildings for gambling purposes. The penalty is imprisonment for not less than one year, nor more than three years, in the penitentiary.

A telegram from St. Louis says that a number of we his natural size. I observed that he the dispensations allotted by their Heavenly capitalists of that city and New York have formed a company to build and operate an immense steel mill in Gunnison, Colorado. They have bought 2000 acres of land at Crystal Butte, twenty miles from Guunison, the track containing large and valuable deposits of iron and anthracite coal. The iron is said to be equal to the best in Missouri, the coal superior to the best in Pennsyl-The mill, when finished, is to employ several thousand hands.

A large number of capitalists at Buffalo, New York, have petitioned the Common Council of that city to grant the right of way to build a tunnel under Niagara river, the city to receive 25 per cent, of the profits of the tunnel when completed.

The Wilmington Every Evening is informed by prominent fruit growers in the lower section of Delaware, that the peach buds have not been damaged by the storm of last week. Had the season been more advanced, there might have been damage to the crop.

Professor Sharpless, of Haverford College, says: is possible that we may soon beable to add to the bright comets of the last two years yet another, which can be seen by the naked eye. A comet of medium brilliancy appeared in 1812, which was found to be moving in an iptic orbit. A recent computation brings it back to ns in the fall of 1884, but as a margin of two or three years on either side is permitted for uncertain data, we may have it at any time

The Public High School in Hartford, Connecticut, is to have a new equatorial telescope with an object glass nine and one-third inches in aperture. This will be one of the most powerful glasses in the country

The deaths in this city last week numbered 425 which was five more than during the previous week, and 14 less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the whole number, 211 were males, and 214 females: 67 died of consumption; 48 of pneumonia; 22 of old age; 20 of typhoid fever; 17 of convulsions; 14 of diphtheria and 13 of croup.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\(\frac{1}{2}\); 3\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s 104; 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, coupon and registered, 113%; 4's, registered, 119%; coupon,

1205; currency 6's 129 to 132,

Cotton.-There was very little movement, but prices Petroleum .- Standard white, 81 a 81 cts. for export, and 9\frac{1}{8} a 9\frac{1}{4} cts, per gallon for home use, Flour was in fair demand and prices were steady. Sales of 2200 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5; western do. at $5.50 a $6.25, and patents at $6.25 a $8. Rye flour is steady at $3 75 per barrel. Grain.-Wheat was unsettled and rather easier. Sales of 4200 bushels red, in car lots at $1.16 a $1.23. is nominal. Corn is fairly active and firmer. Sales of 12,000 bushels rejected and yellow, in car lots, at 61 a 66 cts. Oats are quiet and barely steady. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots, at 511 a 55 cts., the latter for No. 1. Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 3d mo. 31st, 1833.—Loads of hay, 231; loads of straw, 40. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 90 cts. to $1.00 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 a 95 cts.; straw, 60 a 70 ets.

Beef cattle were a fraction higher: 2400 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 54 a 74 cts. per lb.,

the latter rate for extra.

Sheep were in demand and prices were a fraction higher: 9000 head arrived and sold at 43 a 73 cts., and lambs at 4 a Scts, per pound, as to condition.

Hogs were firmly held: 2800 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 101 a 112 cts. per pound, as to quality.

Foreign.—A man named Denuis Deasy, a resident of Cork, was arrested in Liverpool on the 29th ult. He was carrying a box containing explosives. Another man named Patrick Flanagan, an Irish railway porter, was also arrested on the suspicion that he was an accomplice. On the 31st they were arraigned for trial. At Flanagan's lodgings a variety of explosives were discovered, besides a revolver, false beard and other equipments for dynamite war and disguise. The most interesting evidence given during the examination was that of expert scientific witnesses, who testified that the explosive material in question was known as "lignine dynamite," an article that could not by any possibility be connected with commercial or business transactions. and which was not made for any legitimate purpose. Meeting for Flanagan interrupted the proceedings with the pointed ceding week. question, "It is material similar to what shook the House of Commons, is it not?" The prisoners were remanded for a week.

Judge Lawson has sentenced twelve of the members of the Armagh Assassination Society, who were recently convicted of conspiracy to murder, to terms of penal servitude, varying from five to ten years,

One hundred and fifty persons have left the Island of Achill, County Mayo, on the west coast of Ireland, and sailed for America on the steamer Nestorian, They were driven away from their homes by famine.

Reports from the Scottish coast say that a terrific and destructive gale has visited that section. Three vessels have gone ashore in the vicinity of Aberdeen. are no reports of loss of life as yet. Damage to property, however, is considerable.

Leon Say, speaking at Lyons, strongly advocated the opening of fresh outlets for commerce, which, he said, would be of more advantage to France than protection, France should keep in close rapport with her offshoots twenty years, almost entirely in the quiet sec abroad, and even with those not now under the tri-Advices from Tozer, Tunis, say that Count de Lesseps disease; with frequent weeks of utter prostra has arrived in that place. He says his explorations acute suffering. But she was combact to him that the intend on the control of th make it plain that the inland sea in the desert of Sahara which he has been advocating is practicable, and that it can be accomplished by using one hundred excavating machines, equal in their aggregate capacity to

In many parts of Spain farming operations have made little or no progress since the expulsion of the cept in their literal meaning; that his time had Moors. The same sort of plow is used now as then, oxen tread out the corn after the ancient Oriental fashion, and women separate the chaff from the corn by tossing the grain up in the air during a breeze of wind. The craters of Mount Etna are again in a state of activity. The rumblings of the volcano are frequent, and signs of an earthquake are becoming more evident. A special despatch from Trebizond to the Daily News done for twenty-one years—calling upon the confirms the statement that the Russians are preparing deeply sympathized with her, to "magnify tla to occupy Armenian territory.

the labor of a hundred thousand men.

An exhibition of marine products and fishing implements was opened in Tokio, Japan, on the 1st instant. "Fifteen thousand varieties of fish and other productions from sea, lake and river" were displayed. It is reported that extensive deposits of gold and silver have been discovered on the northern end of ancouver's Island.

Two steamers have arrived at St. Johns, Newfoundwere unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at land, one with 16,000 old seals, the other with 27,000 10½ a 10¾ cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans. fisheries, and an unusually good season is expected.

> The Annual Meeting of "Temperance Association of Friends," will be held on Fourth-day evening, 4th mo. 18th, at 8 P. M., at Meeting-house, 12th St. below Market. The attendance of Friends generally is re-spectfully invited.

THOMAS SCATTERGOOD, Chairman.

FRIENDS' FREEDMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA AND ITS VICINITY.

The Annual Meeting of "The Contributors," will be held in the Committee-room of Arch Street Meetinghouse, on Second-day evening, 4th mo, 16th, 1883, at 8 o'clock

Friends who are interested in the cause, and others, are invited to attend.

The Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the Indian Aid Association of Friends of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, will be held in Arch Street Meeting-house, Philadelphia, on Fifth-day, 4th month 19th, 1883, at 8 P. M. Friends generally are invited to attend.

RICHARD CADRURY, Clerk.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

The SUMMER SESSION opens on THIRD-DAY, 5th mo. 1st, 1883. Parents and others who intend sending pupils, are requested to make early application to Jonathan G. Williams, Sup't., Westtown P. O., Chester Co., Pa.: or to Charles J. Allen. Treas'r. No. 304 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Arrangements have been made by which Friends attending the Yearly Meeting can be furnished with simple meals, both before and after the sittings of the meeting, at moderate charge (15 cents), in the secondstory of the central part of the Arch St. Meeting-house. Meals will also be furnished for those attending the Meeting for Sufferings and Select Meeting, the pre-

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE, Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadelphia Physician and Superintendent-JOHNC, HALL, M.D. Applications for the Admission of Patients may be made to the Superintendent, or to any of the Board year of her age, a member of London Grove Mon of Managers,

DIED, on the 24th of 12th mo. 1882, at his in Bristol, Penna., NATHAN D. ROBERTS, in year of his age, a member of Fallsington Meeting. He was esteemed by all who kne his integrity of character and upright walk amo at There He endured a protracted and suffering ill. great fortitude and Christian resignation, H have the comforting belief that his end was p

---, on the 3rd of 2nd mo. 1883, MARY

Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, in the 50th ye age. This dear Friend was called to pass n daughter of Horatio C. Wood, a m

Grace by a cheerful patience, instructive to the were privileged to be with her; for early in Saviour became precious to her through his f and redeeming love. About seven months be decease, it was given her to understand that the words "I am the Lord that healeth thee," she raise her up from the feebleness which had so pressed her; and after a season of deep baptiso to but few, to make her willing to resign hersel into his hand, his strength was made perfec weakness, and in simple trust in Him she we from her chamber to take her place in the famil and was even enabled to walk and drive as she with me, and let us exalt his name together, giveth all thine iniquities: who healeth all thy who redeemeth thy life from destruction : who c who redeement thy the from descriptions whose thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies, again and again, "It is the Lord's doings and lous in our eyes." She spoke with tenderest of the renewal of the Holy Spirit which had mercy granted her, and showed to those about fresh dedication of her humbled spirit - be countenance bewraying her that she had be Jesus," This anointing, however, was soon for be but a preparation for deeper trials; and in litt than a month the sudden removal by death of loved mother, was a great shock to her feeble

Lord was with her, and his rod and his staff cor her; and her friends have the joy of believing the is now fully "satisfied in awaking in his likenes -, at his residence in Pennsville, Lycomi Pa., on the 11th of 2nd mo. 1883, THOMAS ME HALL, in the 87th year of his age, a member of Monthly Meeting. This dear Friend was warr tached to the principles of our Society; and hi judgment, with an amiable, sympathising temper peculiarly qualified him to fill the station of which position he occupied, to the comfort and se which position he occupied, to the comfort and as tion of his friends, nearly fifty years; and ha-gathered, we reverently believe, to his heaven heritance, "in a full age, like as a shock of corn c and not long after a new form of disease man itself, which brought her, with intense bodily su to the valley of the shadow of death : but she abled to walk through that valley without fear,

in his season.

in his season."

—, on the 27th of 2nd month, at her resinear Camden, New Jersey, Lydda, widow of the Benjamin W. Cooper; in the 78th year of her member of Haddonfield Monthly Meeting of Fria -, on the 1st of 3rd month, at her reside Moorestown, N. J., JANE, wife of Amos Roberts, 81st year of her age, a member of Chester Mo Meeting, N. J.

-, on the 11th of 3rd month, TRUMAN COOF member and elder of London Grove Monthly Me

Pa., in the 74th year of his age.

-, at Rahway, N. J., on the 14th of 3rd m 1883, Sidney Wilson, wife of Joel Wilson, in the year of her age, a highly esteemed and consistent ber and overseer of Rahway Preparative and Ra and Plainfield Monthly Meeting of Friends. lieved that the following scripture is truly appli to her: "Thou hast also given me the shield of thy vation, and thy right hand hath holden me up, and gentleness hath made me great; thou hast enlarge steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

—, on the 17th of 3rd month, Susanna J., wi James P. Cooper, in the 66th year of her age, a n ber of New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends, 1 -, on 23rd of 3rd month, at Harrisburg, Per ELIZABETH D., wife of Thomas J. Edge, in

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FOURTH MONTH 14, 1883.

NO. 36.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

f paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

tions, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend." s and Memoranda of William Scattergood. (Continued from page 275.)

1822, being as follows: "The correence which has so long ceased to exist ation than the reality would warrant. en I look back upon my past life, my ered from the highways and bedges of the rsation, my thoughts, my actions, I am that I have walked so long after the shadow of his wing." of the flesh, heedless of the reproofs of who speaks from above-following my corrupt inclinations and passions, and all cloaking these with the mask of risy-I am in amazement at the longing mereiful kindness of an Omnipotent

s with feelings, I trust, of heartfelt gratithat I acknowledge the mereiful condeon of the ever gracious Lord who has pleased to arouse me, I hope effectually his state of torpid uselessness, and called y his grace which purifies the heart, to an inheritance in that city which hath ations, whose maker and builder God Whether I shall persevere to the end, or e of tribulation make shipwreck of faith, t to be tried; but by trusting in that ain of light and life in which alone is sting strength, I hope, humbly hope, made a fit vessel for the house of the house of the Lord, than dwell in the of wiekedness. m as yet a novice in the mysteries of ish my eyes, and I can say: 'Thou art iful, O my love, as Tirzah; comely as is, no doubt, was Mary Tatum; then living with cents at Woodbury; who was afterwards the wife n Mickle Whitall—a cousin with whom he was te when young.

oduce any permanent benefit, but often tie of consanguinity and friendship, may grow this view of things particularly needful. to draw the mind into a belief that those in the grace and truth which is in Jesus Christ gs which are professed, stand on a firmer our Lord. And I am sometimes, through faith, led to believe that many will be gath-

To the same.

"6th mo. 4th, 1823. * * * I am exceedingly desirous that nothing that I may have done or may do, reserved towards me; but, on the contrary, that the bond of friendship may be more and tions which are the bond of civil society may not be laid entirely waste, although rendered subservient to religion. There are some who conceive that religion is incompatible with the pursuits, even though lawful, of this stage erroneous idea. Although we are to keep ourselves unspotted from the world, yet as long as we are in the world we are allowed the exereise of those faculties with which we are endued, when kept within the bounds of moderathough occupying the lowest place tion by the regulating principle of light and rate the a door keeper grace. With these views I shall still continue to desire the preservation of that harmony and good feeling which I trust has subsisted ingdom; but enough has been shown me led into closer union and connexion-into true gospel fellowship, which is beautifully peace.' "

To the same.

"11th mo. 11th, 1823. The limited sphere of action in which it is character. 'Tis theirs to call to life the dor-

Jerusalem; terrible as an army with banners.' my lot to move, denies me the opportunity of O, may my future walking through life be seeing, knowing, or enjoying many of the repure, as my former has been impure! And fined enjoyments of the more polished circles; may the beams of heavenly radiance so far and also debars me from the view even of enlighten the dark chambers of my heart that, many of the miseries to which my follow Zion may put on her beautiful garments; that, beings are subject. The latter eircnmstance henceforth there shall no more enter therein I regret far more than the former. The benethe uncircumeised or unclean. I am sincerely fits which result from scenes of misery and desirous that I may not be found sounding a distress are more essentially useful in their false alarm, and that those things which I do nature, more salutary to the heart, and prodesire may be my experience; may, through mote more effectually the permanent interests faithfulness on my part, be sanctified unto me of the soul, than any of the smooth paths of by the washing of regeneration; and that, life could suggest or produce. They are calpurified and cleansed from the defilements of culated to draw the mind out of that habitual the world, I may be qualified to go forth a listlessness into which it is too apt to fall faithful standard bearer in the armies of the when not aroused by something which presses of first letter of W. S., as presented by living God. May I be permitted to address immediately upon its interests or its happi-SS, is to M. T.* and dated 12th mo. thee in the language of the prophet: 'Come, ness. It calls to action; it calls forth the and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, sympathies and the energies of the mind; and to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will points to the line of difference there is been us, has not been for want of a thought-teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his tween our own situation and those who are membrance on my part; but from a fear paths.' I often feel myself led to desire the the sad subjects of famine, misery and disease, nany of those letters which are written preservation of those who are young like my- and calls upon us in our more favored posiy in the name of friendship, are too often | self; and to crave at the footstool of mercy | tions, to render to Him from whom all true with matters which are not calculated that those to whom I am joined by the double blessings flow, that thanksgiving which is in These reflections have been suggested by my having been called upon to attend frequently the bed-side of a poor sick man, who has now passed from this to another state of world to bear their testimony to the goodness existence. I furnished him with some few ished. Thou mayest wonder that I write of Him who is the leader and supporter of articles, in order to render him more conbut when, I say, I look back and con- those who humbly and reverently trust in the fortable, and to smoothe the pathway to the grave. * * * In looking round upon the children of pennry and want, I have been led to exclaim, Not more than others I deserve, yet God has given me more;' and sincere desires that I might be found grateful for the unmerited blessings which are showered upon may tend in the least to render those who me, have been renewed in my heart day by have been my sincere friends either shy or day. We cannot fully appreciate our blessings unless we compare them with the privations of others. And if we were more frequentmore strengthened, and that those social affec- ly to consider the situation of forsaken orphans, or children of dissolute parents, we might be better qualified to look upon our different lot with an unprejudiced eye. I eannot avoid referring to another circumstance which has claimed my attention in my of existence; but this appears to me to be an little adventure which, though not necessarily connected with poverty, is often an attendant upon it-I mean the want of an affectionate nurse, a sympathizing friend, who can soothe the sad hours of affliction and soften the pangs of disease or pain. * * * The wife of the invalid to whom I have referred is a sad instance of the evils which (sometimes) attend degradation and ignorance. Instead of the kind and soothing language of soft affection, between us; and also to wish that we may be I heard nothing but the reproaches of indifference; the look of dismal dislike was the substitute for love; and instead of the cordial expressed by the apostle as the 'bond of of kindness to mitigate the distresses of her husband, the dram bottle was provided for her own debauchery. But the reverse of this is what forms the truest element of female the subjects of their care. occurs that thou with myself might be found The few foreign luxuries that were coveted sidious, and insulting. The memorials occurs that thou with mysel might be decided by the constant of the constant o of existence could ask. They are above every station of a company, with a monopoly of the with such indignity, as to expound the earthly consolation, and they afford feelings furtrade, counted, perhaps, sixteen or seven-which the world and all its fascinations can teen thousand inhabitants."

Manifest you be immediately taking the original properties of the content of the conten neither give nor take away. Could we attain As the English colonists increased in Nova allegiance in the common form beful to this state of mind, could we so far cast Scotia, the position of the Acadians become council.'

(To be continued.)

The Removal of the Acadians.

Utrecht they had been forgotten or neglected, distress of these poor people to overflowing, ten years of age, were peremptorily on and had prospered in their seclusion. No They were willing to take an oath of featly to assemble at their respective posts. O tax-gatherer counted their folds no magis-trate dwelt in their hamlets. The parish to bear arms against France. It was deter-obeyed. At Grand Pre, for example, priest made their records and regulated their mined that they should be earried away into hundred and eighteen unarmed men successions. Their little disputes were settled among themselves, with scarcely an instance minious. "They have laid aside all thought and its avenues were closed, when Win into non-existence; by enlivening the mind the rivers and the tide from alluvial marshes best and largest tractof land in this prin by assiduous attention; by affectionate and of exuberant fertility. The meadows, thus if they refuse the oaths, it would I m tender sympathy; and by all those arts which reclaimed, were covered by richest grasses, or better that they were away. none but themselves can practise, and which fields of wheat, that yielded fifty and thirty "The inhabitants of Minas and the isonoc can appreciate but those who have been fold at the harvest. Their houses were built country pleaded with the British of or in clusters, neatly constructed and comfort- the restitution of their boats and the gu I have thought that it I was half so often ably furnished, and around them all kinds of promising fidelity, if they could bured in thy remembrance as thou art in mine, I domestic fowls abounded. With the spinning-their liberties, and declaring that not the should be favored with a letter at shorter in wheel and the loom, their women made, of of arms, but their conscience, should no tervals than has for some time past intervened flax from their own fields, of fleeces from their them not to revolt. 'The memori between thy communications. A desire often own flocks, coarse, but sufficient clothing. Lawrence in council, 'is highly arrestated

in this cause is worth more than fields of blood, neutrality and in the abundance which they knew no enemy was left in their vim or laureds stained by the blood of thousands drew from their native land. They formed, 'Guns are no part of your goods,' e of human beings. It is worth every faculty as it were, one great family. They formed tinned, 'as by the laws of England all on we possess to be found among the militant were of unaffected purity. Love was sanctichurch of the Lamb; to be found pressing fied and calmed by the universal custom of and are subject to penalties if arms ar ou forward in the glorious cause of Christian early marriages. The neighbors of the come in their houses. It is not the lang ge liberty, and following Christ, the Captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we our salvation, through every bitter trial their cottage, while the wilderness offered crown, or capitulate about their fidely such pursuits as this afford the most solid land. Their numbers increased, and the columbtraction when the columbtraction is a subject to talk of terms we have a subject to talk of terms we can you me and the columbtraction in the columbtraction is a subject to talk of terms we can you me and the columbtraction in the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you me and the columbtraction in the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you me and the columbtraction in the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the columbtraction in the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the columbtraction in the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the captain of the captain of munity would assist the new couple to raise British subjects to talk of terms we can you make the captain of satisfaction, which mortal man in this stage ony, which had begun only as the trading your presumption in treating this gove m aside every temptation, and every foolish more insecure. "Ignorant of the laws of "The deputies replied that they wed though glittering toible which dazzles the their conquerors, they were not educated to as the generality of the inhabitants of eye, could every thought and every word and the knowledge, the defence, and the love of determine; and they merely entreated every action be brought into obedience, there English liberties; they knew not the way to to return home and consult the body (the would be a precions unity felt far surpassing the throne, and, given up to military masters, people. that natural affection which binds the worldly-bad no redress in civil tribunals. Their papers "The next day, the unhappy men, to minded together. It would be a band un and records, the titles to their estates and in ing the sorrows that menaced them, broken by any unpleasant attendant, and of heritances, were taken away from them. Was to swear allegiance unconditionally; but which the Lord himself is the portion and the their property demanded for the public service? were told that by a clause in a British (a cause. To Him would the aspirations of they were not to be bargained with for the persons who have once refused the oat c gratitude often, yes constantly ascend; and payment.' The order may still be read on not be afterwards permitted to take a our hearts, sanctified through his grace, would the Council records at Halifax. They must but are to be considered as Popish Rect a be fit receptacles, and would indeed be in-comply, it was written, without making any and as such they were imprisoned. habited by the great and holy One of Israel. terms, 'immediately,' or 'the next courier "The chief justice, on whose opinior u would bring an order for military execution the fate of so many hundreds of in a upon the delinquents.' And when they de-families, insisted that the French inhala layed in fetching firewood for their oppressors, were to be looked upon as confirmed 'r The Removal of the Acadians.

Acadia, now called Nova Scotia, was the do not do it in proper time, the soldiers shall tion become 'recusants.' Besides: these states are the soldiers shall be soldiers shall the soldiers shall be soldiers. oldest French colony in North America. There absolutely take their houses for fuel.' The counted in their villages 'eight thouse the Bretons had built their dwellings sixteen unoffending sufferers submitted meekly to the souls, and the English not more than 'n years before the Pilgrims reached the shores tyranny. Under pretence of fearing that they thousand; they stood in the way of the of New England.

By the Treaty of Utrecht, in 1713, Acadia in Canada, or convey provisions to the French pliance with the conditions of the trey was ceded to Great Britain, but the old in garrisons, they were directed to surrender Utrecht, they had forfeited their possess. habitants, says Bancroft, "remained on the their boats and their firearms; and, conscious to the crown; after the departure of the soil which they had subdued, hardly conscious of innocence, they gave up their barges and and troops the province would not be that they had changed their sovereign. They their muskets, leaving themselves without condition to drive them out.' 'Such a still loved the language and the usages of the means of flight, and defenceless. Further ture as the present might never occur?' their forefathers, and their religion was graven orders were afterwards given to the English advised 'against receiving any of the F upon their souls. They promised submission officers, if the Acadians behaved amiss to inhabitants to take the oath, and for t to England; but such was the love with which punish them at discretion; if the troops were moval of 'all' of them from the provine France had inspired them, they would not annoyed, to inflict vengeance on the nearest, "To hunt them into the net was imp of an appeal to English authority at Anna- of taking the oaths of allegiance voluntarily; the American commander, placed himse polis. The pastures were covered with their thus in August, 1754, Lawrence, the Lieutheir centre, and spoke:— herds and flocks; and dikes, raised by extra- tenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, had written "You are convened together to man

mant energies of the body when just sinking ordinary efforts of social industry, shut out of them to Lord Halifax. 'They poless

ence, by immediately taking the oas fight against its standard or renounce its whether the guilty one or not,—'taking an name. Though conquered, they were French neutrals.

"For nearly forty years from the peace of English and French nations filled the cup of and young men, as well as all the its contractions."

this his province. I am, through his ma- mourning for their children and were compelled to beg for bread. The tenth of September was the day for dikes, and desolated their meadows.

mbarkation of a part of the exiles. They "Relentless misfortune pursued t e Monekton, from Fort Cumberland, near Bancroft adds: "I know not if the annals s I would not send off their husbands Acadia." out them.' Their hope was vain. Near apolis, a hundred heads of families fled to woods, and a party was detached on the to bring them in. 'Our soldiers hate c, women and babes and old men and of great numbers of horned cattle, bogs, sheep not of the Lord, which if persisted in may and horses, were seized as spoils, and disposed drift into fanaticism or religious mania.

ty-three souls. The blow was sudden; of by the English officials. A beautiful and The object of this article is to caution those had left home but for the morning, and fertile tract of country was reduced to a soli- who may have confided too much in man's never were to return. Their cattle were tude. There was none left round the ashes of boast of religious attainments. ay unfed in the stalls, their fires to die the cottages of the Acadians but the faithful believe not every spirit, but try the spirits n their hearths. They had for that first watch-dog, vainly seeking the hands that fed whether they are of God." Reject not all of even no food for themselves or their chil- him. Thickets of forest-trees choked their or- religion because of counterfeits. Counterfeits drawn up six deep, and the young men, wherever they fled. Those sent to Georgia, than by its noise. hundred and sixty-one in number, were drawn by a love for the spot where they ed to march first on board the vessel, were born as strong as that of the captive could leave their farms and cottages, Jews, who wept by the side of the rivers hady rocks on which they had reclined, of Babylon for their own temple and land,

For "The Friend," "The Deepest Waters Stillest Run."

d a lair in their native forests; some were flaming advertisements, his real advertise-itably sheltered from the English in the ment being in deeds and not in words. Those The tr ou his majesty's final resolution to the of selling themselves as laborers. Households, with love to God and man; and is not to be ch inhabitants of this his province. Your too, were separated; the colonial newspapers measured by the strength of the vocal organs and tenements, cattle of all kinds, and contained advertisements of members of fami- in preaching, praying, testimony and singing, stock of all sorts, are forfeited to the lies seeking their companions, of sons anxious for these may be thus exercised while the n, and you yourselves are to be removed to reach and relieve their parents, of mothers heart yet remains carnal. There are some whose "strength" seems to consist in religious "The wanderers sighed for their native excitement, in continued bodily prostration s goodness, directed to allow you liberty "The wanderers sighed for their native excitement, in continued bodily prostration rry off your money and household goods, country; but, to prevent their return, their and other outward manifestations, which beany as you can, without discommoding villages, from Annapolis to the isthmus, were speak a diseased state of mind and body, essels you go in.' And he then declared the king's prisoners. Their wives and In the district of Minas, for instance, two The power of religion in the soul does often ies shared their lot; their sons, five hun-hundred and fifty of their houses, and more affect the body, as was often experienced in and twenty-seven in number, their daugh-than as many barns, were consumed. The the tremblings visible in the meetings of our five hundred and seventy-six; in the live stock which belonged to them, consisting early Friends; yet there are manifestations chards; the ocean broke over their neglected prove the existence of the genuine thing. Know every tree by its fruits and not by its "Relentless misfortune pursued the exiles leaves, and every river by its depth rather Greene, N. Y., 3d mo. 6th, 1883.

Every-Day Duties.

An element of weakness in many of our berds and their garners; but nature escaped to sea in boats, and went coasting desires for better life and larger usefulness is ned within them, and they would not be from harbor to harbor; but when they had that we think of great and perhaps impossi-ated from their parents. Yet of what reached New England, just as they would ble attainments, and overlook the simple was the frenzied despair of the unarmed have set sail for their native fields, they were things that lie within our reach. No violent, They had not one weapon; the bayo- stopped by orders from Nova Scotia. Those overstrained exertions are necessary to a noble from them to obey; and they marched who dwelt on the St. John's were torn once life, no superhuman efforts and achievements y and heavily from the chapel to the more from their new homes. When Canada —nothing but every-day duty faithfully done. between women and children, who, surrendered, hatred with its worst venom The most of us must be content to live what ing, prayed for blessings on their beads, pursued the fifteen bundred, who remained are regarded as common-place lives, without themselves weeping, and praying, and gbynns. The seniors went next; the dwelt in Pennsylvania presented a humble winning the latterist of the world, or and children must wait till other transportation to the Earl of Loudoun, then the greater part, devote ourselves to the vessels arrive. The delay had its hor. British commander-in-chief in America; and duties that spring out of our ordinary basis the cold-hearted peer, offended that the prayer researce of life's necessities is so great that or raiment, or shelter, till other ships; pal men, who is their own land had been per- we cannot often turn aside to do things that to take them ways, and December with sons of dignity and substance, and shipped lie cuttible of our common calling. Whitever, to take them away; and December with sons of dignity and substance, and shipped lie outside of our common calling. Whatever palling cold, had struck the shivering, them to England, with the request, that they service we render to Christ must be rendered slad, broken-bearted sufferers, before the might be kept from over again becoming in and along the line of these relations, and troublesome by being consigned to service as while we are busied in the imperative duties of the inhabitants goes on but slowly, common sailors on board ships of war."

which every day brings to our hands.

It is just at this point that many fail. They h he had burned three hamlets; the of the human race keep the record of sorrows spend all their life seeking for the place in part of the wives of the men we have so wantonly inflicted, so bitter and so per-this world which they were intended to fill. ners are gone off with their children, in ennial, as fell upon the French inhabitants of They never settle down to anything with any sort of restful or contented feeling. They have a lofty ideal of a very brilliant life, to which they would like to attain, in which The Deepest Waters Stillest Run. their powers would find full scope, and where Humility ranks among the prominent graces they could achieve great things. But in their , wrote an officer on this occasion, and of the Christian character. As the roar of the present condition, with its limitations, they can ey can but find a pretext to kill them, stream or river indicates shallowness rather accomplish nothing worthy of their powers. will.' Did a prisoner seek to escape? than depth of waters; so the boasting of man So they go on discontented with their lot and ras shot down by the sentinel. Yet some indicates shallowness in those things of which sighing for another; and while they sigh the o Quebec; more than three thousand had he boasts. The man who is truly rich in this years glide away, and soon they will come to drawn to Miranichi, and the region south world's goods seldom refers to his vast post the end to find that they have missed every to Ristigouche; some found rest on the sessions. The true physician does not seek opportunity of doing anything worthy of an s of the St. John's and its branches; some to introduce himself to the public by long and immortal being in the passage from time to

The truth is, one's vocation is never some wams of the savages. But seven thou- who boast of the possession of knowledge and far-off possibility; it is always the simple of these banished people were driven on wisdom, or of aught else, may well be sus-round of duties that the passing bour brings, dships, and scattered among the English pected of not baving all that they claim to Some one has pictured the days as coming to possess. Says Wisdom: "Let another man us with their faces veiled; but when they thousand and twenty to South Carolina praise thee and not thine own mouth: a have passed beyond our recall the draped 2. They were cast ashore without recess; bating the poor-house as a shelter deir offspring, and abhorring the thought the power of Christ revealed there, filling it houses. No day is commonplace if only we had eyes to see its splendor. There is no duty that comes to our hand but brings to us the possibility of kingly service.

We greatly mistake, therefore, if we think there is no opportunity for ordinary people to make their years beautiful-to fill them with acceptable Christian service. There is room in the commonest relations of life, not only for fidelity, but for heroism. No ministry is more pleasing to the Master than that of cheerful and hearty faithfulness to lowly duty, when there is no pen to write its history, and no voice to proclaim its praise. be a good husband-loving, tender, unselfish, and cherishing; or a good wife, thoughtful, helpful, uncomplaining, and inspiring, is most acceptable service. To live well in one's acceptable service. place in the world, adorning one's ealling, however lowly, doing one's most prosaic work diligently and honestly, and dwelling in love and unselfishness with all men, is to live grandly. To fight well the battle with one's own lusts and tempers, and to be victorious in the midst of the countless temptations and provocations of every-day experience, is to be a Christian hero.

There is a field, therefore, for better living very close at home. It is in these common things that most of us must make our progress and win our distinction. And there is room enough in these prosaic duties and opportunities for very noble and beautiful lives. There is nothing possible to a human soul greater than simple faithfulness. "She hath done what she could," was the highest commendation that ever fell from the Master's lips. An angel could do no more. When we are resolving to live more grandly in the future than in the past, it will help us to bring our eyes down from the far-off mountain peaks, where there is nothing for us to do, and look close about our feet, where lie many neglected duties, and many unimproved opportunities, and many possibilities of higher attainment in spirit, in temper, in speech, in heart.

Another element of weakness in much of our resolving is, that we try to grasp too That has made his future a barren much of life at one time. We think of it as Far greater than any king am I, a whole, instead of taking the days one by one. Or than any army beneath the sky.

It ought not to be hard to live well one day. Any one should be able to carry his burden, or fight his battle, or endure his sorrow, or stand at his post, or do his work, for just one day. Any one should be able to remember God, and keep his heart open toward heaven; and to remember others in need and suffering about him, and keep his hand stretched out Said the water glass, "I cannot boast in helpfulness, for just one day. Yet that is of a king dethroned or a nurdered host, all there is to do. We never have more than But I can tell of a heart, once said, one day to live. We have no to-morrows. By my crystal drops made light and gladone day to live. We have no to-morrows, by my crystal trups made indicated for the first requenched, of brows I've laved, of thirsts I've quenched, of brows I've laved, of hands I have cooled and sonis I have saved: Got in only days. If we live each day well, I have leaped through the valley, dashed down the beautiful.—S. S. Times.

I find it needful to take care lest the Spirit should be grieved by too much social converse. I have made the parched meadows grow fertile with than to gain or regain it. Some persons seem as if they never know where to stop talking; and such often speak on subjects of little or no instruction or real use. Scarcely anything renders company more disagreeable, than a person who seems to delight in nothing more I set the chain-wine captive free, than to hear his own voice. ÌĹ J.

To be descended of wealth and titles fills no man's head with brains, or heart with truth. On the rich man's table, rim to rim.

"THIS IS LIFE." BY SARAH K. BOLTON.

"I have planned much work for my life," she said; A girlish creature, with golden hair, And bright and winsome as she was fair.

The days are full, till he comes to wed; The clothes to buy, and the home to make A very Eden, for his dear sake." But cares soon come to the wedded wife

She shares his duties, and hopes, and fears, Which lessen not with the waning years; For a very struggle, at best, is life; If we knew the burdens along the line

We should shrink to receive this gift divine. Sometimes, in the hush of the evening hour, She thinks of the leisure she meant to gain And the work she would do with hand and brain.

am tired to-night; I am lacking power To think," she says; "I must wait until My brain is rested, and pulse is still."

Oh! woman and man, there is never rest, Dream not of a leisure that will not come Till age shall make you both blind and dumb.

You must live each day at your very best: The work of the world is done by few; God asks that a part be done by you.

Say oit, of the years, as they pass from sight, "This, this is life, with its golden store:

I shall have it once, but it comes no more."

Have a purpose, and do with your utmost might: You will finish your work on the other side, When you wake in his likeness, satisfied. -S. S. Times.

THE TWO GLASSES.

There sat two glasses, filled to the brim, An On a rich man's table, rim to rim; One was ruddy and red as blood, And one as clear as the crystal flood. And one as clear as the crystal mood.
Said the glass of wine to the paler brother,
"Let us tell the tales of the past to each other.
I can tell of banquet and revel and mirth,
And the proudest and grandest souls on earth
Fell under my touch, as though struck by blight, Where I was a King, for I ruled in might.

When the state of himself have town the rown. From the heads of kings I have torn the crown From the heights of fame, I have hurled men down; have blasted many an honored name; I have taken virtue and given shame; I have tempted the youth with a sip, a taste, That has made his future a barren waste. I have made the arm of the driver fail, And sent the train from the iron rail; I have made good ships go down at sea And the shrieks of the lost were sweet to me, For they said, 'Behold, how great you be, Fame, strength, wealth, genius before you fail, For your might and power are over all.' Ho! ho! pale brother," laughed the wine, Can you boast of deeds as great as mine?"

mountain,

Flowed in the river and played in the fountain, Slept in the sunshine and dropped from the sky, And everywhere gladdened the landscape and eye; I have eased the hot forehead of fever and pain;

I can tell of the powerful wheel of the mill That ground out the flour and turned at my will; I can tell of manhood debased by you I can tell of mannood depased by you That I lifted up and crowned anew. I cheer, I help, I strengthen and aid; I gladden the heart of man and maid; And all are better for knowing me." These are the tales they told each other-The glass of wine and paler brother As they sat together, filled to the brim,

"THE INNER LIGHT."-John iii, 1-22 Gliding along from morn to night Upon life's all uncertain sea, Our pilot is the inner Light,

To show where hidden dangers be, How quick this all-illuming ray To point the path, and lead the way! Brought near the entrance to the tomb,

All unprepared to enter in.-

We shudder at the awful doom Still due to unforgiven sin; Thy chastening Light, O Lord! is there, Moving to penitential prayer.

Oh Death! thy stern forbidding mien Out Death! Int stern forbidding mien Stirs the deep fountains of the heart,Gives sight to "see as we are seen," Ere flesh and spirit rend apart; Gives confidence, or clothes with fear, As life's last solemn hour draws near.

Can man deny the pardon bought Through Christ, "the Life, the Truth, the And deem it all a thing of naught— This heavenly Light's most holy sway? In vain our hope-in vain man lives, But for the peace its presence gives.

Though fleshly minds eschew the right, And "walk in darkness" all their day, God knoweth his—"for God is light," E'en unto those who go astray: Invited all-all may be free, Born of the Light, O God! and thee.

Marshallton, Pa.

For " The Ind."

For "Th ries

In carrying out the salutary advice the Meeting for Sufferings, made throug th Yearly Meeting last spring, that subor pat meetings should examine into the cor tie of all their various records, some interting minutes have been found bearing even that what was once written in the never fades away, no matter how long i may have lain in obscurity. The followir an obtained from the first book of recorta the meeting of "ministers" tof Chester on and since 1800, known as Concord Qua al Meeting.

FIRST MINUTE.

"At our meeting of Ministering Find held at the meeting-house in Provident the county of Chester, held the 22nd d the 9th mo. 1701.-We being met togetl the fear of God with desires for the prost it of Sion, and that the blessed truth of our may spread over all nations, who was a the upholder of all those that put their in Him; and several fresh and living monies being delivered to the comfortil our souls; have renewed cause to say the strength of Israel's God is still felt with those that wait for Him and truly after the blessed enjoyments of his prese and now it is concluded that the next mee of ministering Friends is to be held at same place, upon the account of the same vice, upon the last 7th-day of the 12th next, and next upon the last 7th-day of 3d mo., and the next upon the last 7th-da the 6th mo., and upon the last 7th-day in 9th mo.'

"At our meeting held in Providence 28th day of the 12th mo. 1701. Several liv testimonies being delivered, the love and

* This book was bought for the use of the Ministe Friends in the county of Chester, by Jacob Sime Anno 1703, † It is understood that elders did not attend meetings of ministers until about 1710 or 1711. ‡ All the headings are in German letters.

him, it is the judgment of this meeting in the 10th mo., 1702." e ought to be silent and not to appear in testimony in meeting till he be truly h-day of the 3d mo."

gathered and brought our ancients service of ministering Friends.' o himself, is still felt and enjoyed to the and praise of his holy name. This meetr at our meeting of ministering Friends. Burlington next," &c. &c. next meeting of ministering (Friends) is Walter Fausit,* Vincent Cordwell, Abra-Elizabeth Fishbourn, Marg't Minshall, Maris."

t our meeting of Ministering Friends, n a public meeting-house in Providence, was there met have fresh eause to say, the Ancient of days was with us, and from the following minute : al sweet testimonies in the demonstraof life were borne amongst us to the ing of our hearts-glory be given to that is worthy to have the rule. This ng appoints Geo. Maris and Jno. Smith end the meeting of ministering Friends rlington at the time of the Yearly Meet-This meeting adjourns to the last 7th-

t our meeting of Ministering Friends, at the house of Jno. Simeock, in Ridley, 8th 9th mo., 1702 .- We that was met and ered there had cause to praise the name holy Jesus run through our meeting of the Great God for his great love and great comfort and reviving of our souls, blessed glorious appearance; several living that the Lord's power reigned to the of his name. Complaint being made to filled the hearts of those present, that was to eating against — concerning his tes-the glory and praise of his name. Let it by being burdensome to Friends, and examination things not being found well at Walter Fausit's, in Ridley, the last 7th-day

"At our meeting of Ministering Friends, piled to Friends. It is concluded that held at Walter Fausit's, in Ridley, this 27th ext meeting of ministering Friends be day of 12th mo. 1702.—It pleased the Lord it John Simcock's, of Ridley, upon the in his ancient love and goodness to appear to present; several fresh and living testimonies our meeting of Ministering Friends in being borne in the power of God, which was v, in the county of Chester, this 30th day to the encouragement for the going on of this 3d mo. 1702.—The love, power and great work which is the upholding of the nce of the great God of wisdom being blessed Truth. Geo. Maris and Jno. Blunston and amongst us, several sweet and living appointed to attend ye Quarterly Meeting of onies being borne with wholesome ad-ministering Friends at Philadelphia. It is which was to the overcoming and affect-concluded the next meeting of ministering the hearts of those present, which give Friends be held at Jacob Simeock's, in Ridley, for us to say, that He, that by his great and that Jacob Simcock get a book for the

"At our meeting of Ministering Friends, ppoints Geo. Maris and Jno. Blunston held at Jacob Simcock's this 29th day of ye end the Quarterly Meeting of minister- 3d mo., 1703.—Many sweet, living and heavriends next at Philadelphia. This meet-enly testimonies being borne, the Lord's great rther concludes that if any appear from power and heavenly majesty was with and o time in meetings in declaration [not] amongst us, by which our souls were livingly acted by the Spirit of Truth, and not and divinely comforted and our faith strengthing to sound words in declaration, that ened; forever blessed be his holy name. Inbe spoke to by any person or persons quiry being made concerning ye affairs of ging to their meetings, that they keep truth in meetings, it was reported well in True Guide, or otherways to be silent; general way, and now this meeting appoints if such a person refuse to take that Geo. Maris and Jno. Smith to attend ye te advice, that then he have notice to Quarterly Meeting of ministering Friends at

In a meeting held in 1808, no allusion is held at Providence the last 7th-day in made to any vocal service, the minute states, the month. The names of those that "After a time of sitting together in silence present at that meeting: Jno. Simcoek, waiting upon ye Lord for his assistance, this Maris, Jno. Blunston, Jno. Smith, Jno. meeting proceed to business," &c. &c.

3d mo. 17th. Elizabeth Webb laid her con-Varshall, John Maclear, Jacob Simeock, cern of visiting Friends in Old England bebeth Simeock, Elizabeth Herm, Hannah fore this meeting; ye meeting approves well Elin Smith, Lydia Carter, Hannah Kins- of, and have good unity with her therein," &c.

The foregoing may serve as a sample of these interesting minutes, which continue to express the same feelings of gratitude for favors received. The presence of elders at 9th day of the 6th month, 1702.—We these meetings appears to be first mentioned 6th mo. 1710, informally, as it might appear

"At a meeting of ministers held at Concord for the county of Chester, &c., the 28th day of the 6th mo. 1714. After a time of silence. we were exhorted to wait on the Lord in true humility, that so those that minister may know and be covered by the Spirit of God, keeping upon the true foundation, the Rock of Ages, Christ Jesus, which abilitates those n the 9th mo, which is to be held at that preach the truth, to live in the truth cause we renew our request to the Yearly the did volumes of these records, there is an ingress account of the close of W. F., which may be the to publish.

The Empty Coat. F. DENISON.

Some months ago there came to our notice a touching story that we find ourselves incapable of forgetting. In the case of a ship-wreek, on one of the islands of the Atlantie, a mother and her little boy were washed from the wreck and driven towards the shore. The mother, in grasping for her child, seized the belt of the coat at the back and held fast as she was rolled and dashed by the billows and blinded by the spray and brake of the waves. the reviving of the hearts of those that was With an undying grasp, she held to the belt till she was thrown upon the beach, in an almost lifeless condition. Her rescuers on the shore were deeply affected by the sight, the almost dead mother holding fast the little coat by the belt. When at last she could open her eyes to see what was around her, how keen was her anguish to discover that she held only the coat. Her boy was gone. The waves had torn him out of the little coat and made him their prey. Then there was an agony of soul such as only a mother can know and no eyes were dry around her.

That mother's aim, effort and final agony, suggest to us what we only too often find in other relations and experiences of human life. How many love this world, and, in their idolatrous passion, grasp its garments and hold fast with all the energy of their natures, and amid all perils, until their eyes are opened at last to find that their idol has passed their reach, leaving only the empty coat to remind them of their vain struggle and to stir their souls to unavailing agony. The grasping after wealth, after honor, after a name, after renown, after pleasure, is only a clutching upon the belt of what proves finally to be an empty coat. How often the last hours of human life are filled with experience like these of the agonized mother; labor lost, aims deceived, hopes disappointed, the future darkened, the heart wrung with anguish. In sober truth, the world and all it contains will soon be washed from our grasp by the billows of time, leaving us utterly alone and miserable, if we have no hold upon things beyond. In the final wreck of all things here belowan event sure to come to us all-what shall we have? We can carry nothing of this world in our hands. Shall we then have a grasp upon what is living and enduring? Shall we have the pledge of life and joy forever in our hands, or shall we have only an empty coat?

Oh, man, by time's fierce billows tossed, Not on the transient, ontward dote, Lest in the end they all be lost And thou have but an empty coat.

-Observer. For "The Friend."

Religious Items, &c.

Good Friday a Chronological Mistake.—This Simcocks, in Ridley, for the service of after which, supplication being put up to God is the title of a book recently published in for the renewing of his Spirit, his good pres- London, in which the writer attempts to ence being witnessed amongst us, the meeting prove that the generally accepted opinion, proceeded to business. * * Inquiry being that our Saviour was crucified on the Sixthmade concerning the ministers, the answer day of the week, is a mistake; and that it was, that things in general are pretty well, was really on the Fifth-day of the week, that considering we are at present without the as- the momentous event occurred. It is stated preceding it, must commence at sunset on is a misfortune. Fifth-day. The question is one of some interest, but its practical importance is not very Baptist Liberality.—The Baptists have raised $50,000 for the renovation of the University Hall of Brown University, Providence. appropriated to the scientific department.

that in these days of high intellectual culture, shower at Fresno.-Local Paper. great care should be maintained not to depart ear.—British Friend.

longer exempt from taxation.

Spanish in South America, has a foreign lan- better.—Chr. Ad. guage spread more rapidly through great populations. There is a universal demand of Agriculture has leased a piece of ground can form a fair idea of the food of t for instruction in English among the edu- in the District of Columbia for an experi- piers. The Celtic short-horn (Bos los cated classes.

fessors dates from 1811, and originated with The farm will be under charge of Dr. E. E. were largely consumed. The horse w Thomas Campbell and others in Washington Salmon, who has been for many years em-scantily used. The number of borco, Pa. They now claim 625,000 members ployed by the Department in the investigation from the red deer and roebuck in the United States, and some in other coun-tion of animal diseases, and the Pasteur system that venison was by no means a rare tries. They are Congregational in polity, of inoculation will be adopted. Investigations to the list of their dietary. Among bit each congregation being ecclesiastically independent of every other.

Sapphiro, Japan, instruction is given to the preventing and curing those diseases. students on the physiological effects of alcohol.

is for six months in the year.

the Ritualists in these emphatic and most of Greenland. He proposes to proceed along was in such places that the ground-the press exactly the same thing in five words—

The enormous stretch of inland ice the restoration of the Mass. That is the thing always been a barrier to exploration. for which we are contending. Anything Another object in view by Baron Norden, and prickles of Sunbawa, whose surfa

Sabbath as commencing on Sixth-day at sun- which tends to bring about this consumma-skield is to attempt to find traces of the set; and therefore the preparation day, a day tion is a victory. Anything which hinders it colonies, which existed in Gree an

For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

Sand in Snow .- Henry G. Hanks, of the their existence after the end of the on Mining Bureau, read an interesting paper before the Microscopical Society, on "some legacy of $250,000 recently received is to be notable features of the great San Francisco the settlements; thus the Danisle snowstorm." He showed that the snow, far Graah, who in the years 1828-31 was Ministry .-- At the Monthly Meeting held from being pure, contained an immense amount for remains of the same, sought the iu London on the 29th of 1st month, the at- of fine sand, estimated at seventy-five tons Cape Farewell, but without succe tention was turned to the ministry as it exists per square mile. An analysis showed it to Nordenskiöld is, however, of the opin amongst us. A strong feeling was expressed be identical with that which fell in the mud the Osterbygd and the Norse sil

Salt in Rain .- According to observations he intends to search for them .- Ch from the true basis of ministry; and that the made for the last fifteen years near the sea in exercise of the gift should always be under England the amount of salt carried from the harvest has been very plentiful, alt the renewed anomating and fresh putting forth sea by the autunnal gales and deposited after quality is not very high, and over of the Holy Spirit. The few words uttered rain varied from five to seven grains per and a quarter pounds have been a in His power and demonstration being more gallon, while the ordinary amount was only worth about $1,000,000 in the roll effectual to reach the heart than any elaborate 5 grain. The average winter quantity was There is a goodly quantity of the or learned discourse which might please the but slightly in excess of the summer average, coral, which is highly valued by so At Oakley Park one side of the trees was tries, such as England, Germany, R A bill has been introduced into the Con-severely injured after a south-west tempest, the United States; but, while fair cor necticut Legislature for the suppression of and if no rain fell for a few days after the prefer this more delicate tint, pink the sale of corrupting papers.

Church property in New Hampshire is no distance of thirty-five miles from the sea. The India and China, who favor the deq salt acted in abstracting the moisture from During the past year 600 vessels Growth of Christianity in India. In India, the leaf-cells, and formed a condensed solu-men have been employed in dredgir Burmah and Ceylon the number of native tion, so that the leaf became completely dried coasts of Sardinia, Corsica and Sicily Christians in 1861 is said to be 213,370; in up, and consequently perished. As has been mainland of Southern Italy and on 1871, 318,363; in 1881, 528,590. Of the spread remarked by Sir J. D. Hooker, the celebrated bary coast. of the English language in India, Joseph Dalton was the first to note a like phenomenon Cook remarks in a recent lecture, that no- at the beginning of this century. Some trees where, except perhaps in the case of the resist the influence of the storm-carried salt Owen, Rolleston and Cleland on a

Investigation of Diseases.—The Department ings at Dowalton, Lochlee and Bus mental farm for the investigation and treat-the so-called goat-horned sheep (Ov The Disciples of Christ.—This body of pro- ment of the diseases of domestic animals, var. brachyura), and a domestic breed will be made into the origin and nature of the the goose has been identified, but th pendent of every other.

Texas cattle fever, pleuro-pneumonia, and criterion of the extent of their energy frames.—In the Christian College at hog and chicken cholera, and the means for on the feathered tribe, as only the

Exploring Greenland .- An arctic expedition this bill of fare the occupiers of Lo Theatrical Performances.—The vice-chan-this summer has been decided upon in Sweden. Crannog, being comparatively near cellor and heads of Colleges of Cambridge It has been promoted by the well-known added several kinds of shell fish. In University, England, have exercised the right Swedish Macenas, Dr. Oscar Dickson, and lake dwellings that have come under which the law gives them, of shutting up the will be in command of Baron Nordenskiold, servation the broken shells of hazle-na theatres in the town during term-time; that whose intention it is on this occasion to ex- in profuse abundance. Ancient Scotti plore the east and north-east coast of Green Dwellings—Munro. Educated Ministers.—At the meeting of the land. It was originally his intention to have Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church proceeded this summer into the Siberian seas, feature of the jungle was its thornines South, in Charlestown, West Virginia, Bishop but seeing the delay caused by the Danish shrubs were thorny, the creepers were Keene, in an address, said that it would be Polar Expedition, which will now be there the bamboos even were thorny. Even a lamentable day for the Church when the during the summer, this idea was abandoned, grew zig-zag and jagged, and in an incselection of preachers is confined to educated and Greenland decided on instead. Baron ble tangle, so that to get through the Nordenskiöld, having formerly visited the with gun or net, or even spectacles, w Ritualism.—The Church Review recently country, is of the opinion that some kind of erally not to be done, and insect cate expressed the real object and ultimate aim of "break" or oasis is to be found in the interior such localities was out of the questithe cast coast of Greenland as far as the ice often lurked, and when shot, it became "The thing wanted to correct and purify will allow, and then to penetrate into the ter of some difficulty to secure the bi our worship is-if you like to express it by a interior, some 300 miles across the inland ice, seldom without a heavy payment of phrase—the restoration of the Holy Com—The country inland is nearly the whole year and scratches and torn clothes could the control of the Christian worship —or if you prefer to exsummer months, render it entirely one bog. The enormous stretch of inland ice has also stunted and thorny vegetation, for the

about the year 1000 until the end 'the teenth century. The ultimate to Norse settlers in Greenland is so mystery, as there is no authentice century. There has also, in later ay great diversity of opinion where were situated east of the Cape, and

Mediterranean Coral. - The Na

Animals in the Ancient Scotch Lake-I -From the respective reports of P of osseous remains taken from the lak bones were collected and reported upo

Malayan Jungles.—The most charac assured me that this was nothing to the ng the shrubs and trees that are not the Apocynaceæ were most abundant, ilohed fruits of varied form and color, en of most tempting appearance, hangerywhere by the waysides as if to indestruction the weary traveller who unaware of their poisonous properties. particular, with a smooth shining skin lden orange color, rivals in appearance mson seeds which are displayed when great palm, called "gubbong" by the s, is the most striking feature of the payment of its necessary expenses. where it grows by thousands. It has cylindrical stem about a hundred feet nd two to three feet in diameter. The hands. At last he gave up the wire he was for a time the President. ad turned his attention to the bars of Of the trials and afflictions which belong xt-door neighbor.

and did his best to get out the bar be-could reach him. I at once sent for ph pliers, and at last succeeded in con-Many of those who knew him can bear tesop the pliers. Bosco's presence, how-elicited a scream of rage; and as the be covering of volcanic ashes thrown of them. He afterwards tested the wires from the prospect thereof than at other times, does ty years ago by the terrible eruption end to end, tried to undo every knot, and, it behave us to dwell deep, and under close finding himself baffled, gave up the whole religious exercise, that so preservation be business as a bad job .- J. G. Wood.

FRIEND. THE

FOURTH MONTH 14, 1883.

In the obituary column will be found a notice of the decease of our aged and valued den apples of the Hesperides, and has friend, Daniel B. Smith, of Germantown, whom attractions for many birds, who feast on it seems proper to notice here, because he was

This publication originated in a concern to support the doctrines and testimonies of our Society, by spreading among our members are large and fan-shaped, and fall off correct information on matters connected with the tree flowers, which it does only its interests; and by the weekly introduction its life, in a buge terminal spike, on into their families of reading matter calcuare produced masses of a smooth lated to strengthen their good desires and fruit. When these ripen and fall the their attachment to those principles which fruit. When these ripen and fall the their attachment to those principles which es. Troops of monkeys may often be William Penn declared to be Primitive Chrisseupying a tree, showering down fruit tianity Revived. For these principles, Daniel at profusion, chattering when disturb- B. Smith maintained a sincere love, and there-I making an enormous rustling as they fore he felt a warm interest in the prosperity er off among the dead palm leaves.— of the journal he had been instrumental in establishing, and contributed many valuable we's Matay Archipelago.

dotes of a Raven.—My raven, "Grip," articles to its pages, during a long series of general. Formula, to be Postmasterunfortunately, died from cating too years. When the infirmities of advanced age (General. Formula Formula Series). liver, had astonishing delicacy in the were more sensibly felt, and his pen was laid requisition for postage stamps ever drawn in the United to his great iron beak. If I tied a knot aside, he still preserved a thoughtful over-time for the New York Post-office to the Postage of Loring the Third Assistant Postmaster-General, on the 21 inst, ce of string and left it within his reach, sight of its contents, and his words of loving the number of stamps being 21,220,000, which represents to until it and then walk about counsel and encouragement were cheering to sented a value of $453,000.

phantly with one end of the string in its conductors.

Peter Cooper, of New York, died on the string in the 93d year of his age.

Though so warmly attached to our religious the 4th inst, in the 93d year of his age.

Papers have been filed at Albany, chest, and faced with strong iron bars. Society, his labors were not confined to its was cut in the end of the box, leading interests alone. He was instrumental in orwas cut in the end of the box, leading interests alone. He was instrumental in orlogo "run," enclosed with wire netting, ganizing and putting in operation several type "run," enclosed with wire netting, ganizing and putting in operation several type was not a spot at which the netting valuable institutions which have since largely ments that will overcome all the present obstactes and was not a spot at which the netting valuable institutions which have since largely ten joined that had not been tested by developed. Among these are the Apprentices beak, and more than once I have just Library, now situated at the corner of Fifth n time to prevent his escape. He al- and Arch streets, the House of Refuge, the a time to prevent his escape. He are an Arch streets, its Third and Walnut, the greented my interference, and used to Savings. Fund at Third and Walnut, the he flanor question. One provides for prohibition and the back the wire with which I was Pennsylvania Company for Granting Annuithe other for legislative control.

I the offect good, and try to pull it out ties, and the College of Pharmacy, of which leads at I lead to the control flows met on the 3d inst. in Davenport, and oral arguments were beginn in the re-leader. On the control of the provides of the control of t

ge. They were much too strong for to this state of existence, he had his share, bend, but he deliberately set to work but the conflicts and struggles of an active life of the central bars, and dug away the were succeeded by a calm and peaceful old in which it was set until he had loosen-age. Much of his time in his last few years t the bottom. Fortunately, I was just was passed in his quiet library, where he was e to see him pulling out the bar, or surrounded by the valuable works which had would have been an escaped raven and accumulated about him, cheered by the visits ful havoe among the poultry kept by of those who loved and valued him, and sustained by a humble confidence that the everbetly Grip saw me he set up a great lasting arms of Divine mercy, which had

g the whole of the bars with cross-wire, timony to his superior intellectual abilities, to t unless all the bars were dug out both the extent of his literary and scientific acand below they would hold their place. quirements, to his amiable character, and to be was horribly angry during the time, his devotion to the cause of truth and rightied to annoy me as much as possible by cousness. But there is abundant consolation bg at my fingers through the bars, and for our loss in his removal, in the belief that che pliers, and I was obliged to bring on generation and the renewing of the Holy capital was invested the place of the Holy capital was invested to enception, before I could induce brim (Lrist, he has entered into his eternal rest. Toward the second of the Holy capital was invested to the place of the Holy capital was invested to the Holy capital was invested witnessed, and the Lord's cause be promoted to his honor.

The above extract from a letter recently received from a beloved friend, seems to the Editor to express so clearly and briefly the feeling which pervades the minds of many, in looking towards our approaching Yearly Meeting, that it is here inserted in lieu of more elaborate remarks. For the Lord's cause can only be promoted by us, as we abide under that religious exercise with which one of the little company who commenced He will clothe the hearts of his children; the publication of "The Friend," more than neither is there reasonable hope for preserva-55 years ago, and became responsible for the tion to the church or to individuals, but in the extension of his power—the arisings of which are to be reverently waited for and sought after.

> When Richard Shackleton attended London Yearly Meeting in 1776, he wrote to his wife, "This is a time and place for deep feeling, weighty concise speaking, and close attention to a variety of church business.

The cautions embodied in these few words are applicable at the present time.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

Peter Cooper, of New York, died on the morning of Papers have been filed at Albany, organizing the Globe Telephone Company, with a capital of $10,000,talk over the longest distances

The Ohio Legislature on the 4th inst., agreed on the report of conference committee for the submission of two propositions for amendments to the Constitution on hearing of the Prohibitory Amendment case. On the result depends the validity of the amendment. In the Massachusetts House, the proposed prohibiory amendment to the State Constitution has been defeated by a vote of 115 to 83.

It is said that the law prohibiting the direct importation of Chinamen to the Sandwich Islands has been tation of Chinamen to the Sandwich Islands has been repealed, and that the regular steam-lip Oceanic, on her next voyage from Hong Kong, will stop at Honolulu ton her way to San Francisco, and unload nearly 1000 Chinese laborers. The next five steamers will take more than 3000 to the islands. A reminon of the so-called "Reorganized Church of Mormons," was began on the 6th instant at Kirtland, Ohio, Joseph Smith, Jr., presided. About 300 members were present. This body repudiates polygany. Bishop Taylor from England, reported a membership in Europe of 8000, and in England and Wales of 2000. The Wyoming Stock Growers' Association is holding its tenth annual session in Cheyenne. The Executive Committee's report shows that during last year 220,000 Committee's report shows that during last year 220,000 beef cattle were inspected. an increase of 52,000 on the aumber for the preceding year. About 1000 head of cattle "were killed by the Union Pacific Railroad." Herds of breeding cattle are selling 25 per cent, higher to pull away the wire. Once he did through his submission to the washing of re-theras or occasing came as $30,000,000 of Scotch and English he pliers, and I was obliged to bring on generation and the renewing of the Holy (capital was invested in Wyoming and the Texas Pan

The annual report of the Board of Managers of the House of Refuge, of this city, states that on 12th month chicited a scream of rage; and as the fell from his beak, I seenred possession of the holding of our Annual of the holding of our An of them properly instructed and reformed were restored fensive leagues against us, but * * * to society

Eighty-six deaths from small-pox were reported in New Orleans last week. The small-pox is reported to is France."

A desna

The deaths in this city last week numbered 462, which was 37 more than during the previous week, and 36 more than during the same period last year. Of the whole number, 228 were males, and 234 females: 59 died of pneumonia; 52 from consumption; 17 from diphtheria; 17 from old age; 15 from scarlet fever; 15 from typhoid fever; 14 from convulsions, and 13 from oath, when desired. bronchitis.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103\(\frac{2}{3}\); 3\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 103\(\frac{1}{3}\); 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 114\(\frac{1}{4}\)'s, 120\(\frac{1}{3}\); entrency 6's 129 to 132.

Cotton.-There was very little movement, but prices were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at 10\s^3 a 10\s^5 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans. Petroleum.—Standard white, 81 a 81 cts. for export, and 91 a 91 cts. per gallon for home use. Sales of 2100 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at disaster.

$5,25 a $6,25; Pennsylvania family at $4.87\frac{1}{2} a $5,12\frac{1}{2} western do. at $5.25 a $6.15, and patents at $6.25 a $7.75. Rye flour is dull at $3.75 per barrel. Grain.—Wheat is dull and easier. Sales of 4400 bushels red, in car lots at $1.15 a $1.21. Rye is nominal.

Corn is in fair request and irregular. Sales of 12,000 bushels in car lots, at 60 a 65 cts. Oats are quiet and easy. Sales of 10,000 bushels, in car lots, at 525 a 56 cts.

Beef cattle were dull this week, and prices were un-settled: 2600 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 53 a 8 cts. per pound, the latter rate for a few

Sheep were a fraction higher: 7000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at $4\frac{1}{2}$ a $7\frac{3}{4}$ cts., the latter rate for extra, and spring lambs at \$4 a \$8 per head. Hogs were in fair demand: 3300 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 102 a 112 cts. per pound,

the latter rate for extra.

FOREIGN.-On the 5th instant, four men were arrested in London and one in Birmingham, all of whom are believed to be associated in the plot to blow up Government buildings. A dynamite factory was also discovered in Birmingham, and 150 pounds of a highly explosive liquid was found stored in skilfully devised rubber bags. Several arrests have since been made.

A bill to amend the law in regard to explosives has passed both Houses of Parliament and is expected to receive the royal assent immediately. It provides that the maximum penalty for causing an explosion by which life or property is imperilled shall be lifelong servitude. An attempt to cause an explosion or the making or keeping of explosives with intent to cause an explosion is made punishable by imprisonment for held in the Committee-room of Arch Street Meetinga term of twenty years, and the unlawful making or house, on Second-day evening, 4th mo. 16th, 1883, at keeping of explosives under suspicious circumstances is 8 o'clock. to be punishable by fourteen years' imprisonment. All accessories to such crimes are to be treated as principals. are invited to attend.

Provision is made in the bill for the ordering of official inquiries into the crimes specified for the arrest of cial inquiries into the crimes specified for the arrest of abscooding witnesses, and for searching for explosives. The penalties are to be inflicted irrespective of the dange done by the explosives. The bill also empowers the master of any vessel to break open any packages to search for explosives. The act applies both to explosives proper and to materials for making them, or Firth-day, 4th month 19th, 1883, at 8 p. m. Friends generally are invited to attend.

KICHARD CADBURY, Clerk. to any machine or part thereof connected with them.

It contains no retroactive clause.

The arrests in London and other cities of England of men having explosives in their possession cause considerable uneasiness in France. Fears are entertained lat attempts will be made to blow up buildings in Paris. To prevent the introduction into their houses Paris. To prevent the introduction into their houses JONATHAR & WILLIAMS, Supt., Westuren P. O., Chestablishments are stopping up the openings to their cellars, as was done in the time of the Commune.

OKATHAR & WILLIAMS, Supt., Westuren P. O., Chestablishments are stopping up the openings to their cellars, as was done in the time of the Commune.

The Capitan Fracassa, an Italian paper, states that the Governments of Italy and Austria have given their assent and affixed their signatures to a treaty by the attending the Yearly Meeting can be furnished with terms of which each Empire guarantees to the other simple meals, both before and after the sittings of the complete integrity of territory. Although Germany is meeting, at moderate charge (15 cents), in the second-not directly and by signature a party to this treaty, the document contains a clause in which it is mentioned that her approval has been given.

An article in the Republique Française, attributed to ceding week. Challemel-Lacour, Minister of Foreign affairs of France, on this subject has the following remarks: "The Republic will attack no one, but will make itself respected by all. To recommend the Republic to the kind feeling of Europe as the sole safeguard against the supposed bellicose instincts of Frenchmen is an outrage against the nation, and every Frenchman, whether Monarchist made to the Superintendent, or to any of the Board or Republican, resents the insult. Watch us, form de- of Managers.

save us advice concerning the Constitution best suited to us, Republic or Monarchy. France in the presence of the foreigner

A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris, says Prime Minister Ferry, informed Pre-sident Grévy that the Government had decided to take energetic action in Tonquin with the view of establishing a Protectorate.

The Spanish Chamber of Deputies has passed the bill, permitting the substitution of affirmation for the

The resistance of the Danes in Schleswig to the demands of Prussia that they serve in the Prussian military service, is as strong as ever. Thirty of them have just been expelled from the country for refusing to inscribe their names for such service.

A conflagration at Vallorbes, in the Canton of Vaud, has destroyed 145 houses, together with the post-office, in which important securities were deposited. Twelve Flour continues dull, but prices were unchanged. hundred persons have been made homeless by the

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL. A Stated Meeting of the Committee having charge of the Boarding School at Westtown, will be held in Philadelphia on Seventh-day, the 14th inst., at 2.30 P. M. WM. EVANS, Clerk.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach French, Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School. Application may be made to Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwood St. Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ninth St. Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh St.

There will be a meeting of the Friends' Teachers' Asso-Anner with de a meeting of the Friends Teachers Asso-ciation of Philadelphia, at 520 Cherry St., on Seventh-day, 4th mo. 21st, at 10 A. M. Subjects to be discussed: Teaching Elementory Arithmetic; Methods of Securing Good Discipline and Morals, and others to be announced at the meeting.

All interested are invited to attend.

MARY W. WOOLMAN, Secretary.

FRIENDS' FREEDMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA AND ITS VICINITY.

Friends who are interested in the cause, and others,

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL.

Arrangements have been made by which Friends Meals will also be furnished for those attending the Meeting for Sufferings and Select Meeting, the pre-

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE, Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadelphia. Physician and Superintendent-John C. Hall, M.D.

Applications for the Admission of Patients may be

The Annual Meeting of "Temperance of Friends," will be held on Fourth-day events in the state of the state of Friends generated and the state of the state o Market. The attention spectfully invited.

THOMAS SCATTERGOOD, C

DIED, at his residence in Philadelphia, or of 12th mo. 1882, WILLIAM M. PHILLIP, vears, a member of the Monthly Meeting of Philadelphia for the Northern District. young Friend bore a serious illness for ma with great fortitude and patience, expressing ness and appreciation for the comforts he w with and the many tokens of kindness from sympathizing friends. He was of a diffider tiring nature, which greatly endeared him to knew him intimately. For some time afte attack he manifested a strong desire to recov to his mother-"There is so much I would li and to one or two other dear friends, " I feel t done so little for my Lord." His mind conti and bright to the last, when he was permitte the mercy of his dear Saviour, to have a full evidence of his acceptance. When queried dear Friend "Whether he was afraid to die quiet earnest confidence he replied, "No! short time before his death he spoke in r and earnest manner to his brother and mothe weeping by his side, "Do not weep, it will no before you follow me." In a clear, distinct gave directions about his interment, and al mediately after passed peacefully and quie leaving the consoling evidence of being adm that city "Whose walls are salvation and wl are praise." , at the residence of his son, James Ke near Amo, Hendricks county, Indiana, on th Second mo. last, Dr. JAMES KERSEY, in the 8 of his age. He was born in Guilford coun Carolina, and when fourteen years of age, he j Society of Friends, and was ever after an ex member. At this period of his life he was er reading the Scriptures to the colored children huts on First-day afternoons. He also galiterary instruction, and throughout his life tinued his interest in the welfare of their rac ing for their freedom whilst they remained in and after the war made several journeys to on their behalf. In the year 1821, he visited and in 1831 he removed to that State. In eat was engaged in teaching school; but his kno medicine as well as his success in prescribin sick, soon rendered him quite popular as a p and he continued in practice about forty yes labors among the sick were not actuated so mu emoluments of the profession as the conscious of doing good; often prescribing without fee o He was diligent in attending religious meetings generally opening therefor, though at the simuch-needed rest. With natural and acquired above the average of his day, he was an interest instructive companion, modest and unassum daily Christian walk being manifest to those nessed it. For nearly half a century he was in the church, and for a long time he was o correspondents of Western Yearly Meeting of His last sickness was short, during which he of of feeling no choice as to the result, whether t or not-all looking bright before him. He was beloved by many, and his funeral was largely The remains were interred in Friends' buris walk and conversation of this beloved Friend, amiability of his disposition, had endeared large circle of relatives and friends, who say the "ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, w the sight of God of great price." While mile bearing in his intercourse with others, he was for the maintenance of the doctrines and te given us as a people to bear before the wo friends deeply feel their loss in his removal church militant in the meridian of his usefu they have the consoling belief that through re love and mercy, he has been admitted to the Triumphant, and has received the gracious w at Spring.

Trumphant, and has received the gracious w well done, good and faithful servant."
—, on 29th of 3rd month, at his residence, town, Philada, DaxIRL B. Suttru, a member ford Monthly Meeting, in the 91st year of his

THR FRIEND.

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FOURTH MONTH 21, 1883.

NO. 37.

PHRLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. ticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON.

IOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

ons, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES. . 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS

PHILADELPHIA

For "The Friend." and Memoranda of William Scattergood.

(Continued from page 282,)

M. T.

"2d mo. 25th, 1824, d that a desire to ramble much from s calculated to draw the mind off from n states and to lead into unwatchfulnd if encouraged too much, scatters and s: vet if kept in subjection to the aly Minister, such a disposition may be ed in moderation. I feel sincerely defor myself that I may be kept from snare which may entrap my inexperi-ind unwary feet. It is not so much in ces themselves, as in the disposition in we visit them. For the Lord's presence ywhere; and if the mind is properly upon Him, he will deliver out of every

is the instability and such the weakthe mind of the young, that the exnt of company is liable to overthrow esolution if not carefully entrenched safeguards of watchfulness, vigilance priety. It is my sincere desire day by abide in that state of watching unto so emphatically recommended by our nd glorious Pattern, and to be as the t who is looking for his Lord, having my rt about and my lamp burning. O! this ssed state to be in, and one which I may aily covet; but such is the prevalency flesh and the devil, that I often find a sad delinquent in my well known I am often led to reflect upon the unty of our prospects here, and by what ties we are held to this state of existnd though through the merciful goodd condescension of my Redeemer I am to feel that state of mind in which I at times

r life or death is equal—neither weighs, ll weight in this—O let me live to thee."

is is not sufficient to answer for future ncies; and hence the importance of ober and vigilant lest the Son of man n an hour when we think not, when il must be our doom. These things serious reflection; and the very great stimable consequences dependent upon nneeted with a proper exercise of our is duties are calculated to arouse the it faculties of every soul.

and all its fading allurements — whatever virtue, and who as an affectionate and kind others may think of their value—I am ready adviser and reprover in more advanced years, to exclaim. Who that has had a taste of the endeavored to keep me in that straight and precious enjoyments of the communion of the narrow way in which he had found true and Holy Ghost, would be willing to resign their lasting peace, yet when I reflect that the hoped for portion in the heavenly mansion measure of his tribulation seemed filled up, for all worldly gratifications? who would not and that to have remained longer in this unrather count all things as dross that they stable world would have been but to endure might win Christ?

It is a sorrowful thing indeed to look round overwhelm the strongest—when I reflect upon the inhabitants of the world and to see upon these things can I but rejoice? Yea, them pursuing its phantoms with all the eager land I will rejoice. But at the same time when and come after me, cannot be my disciple;" and "except a man be born again, he cannot of the bed whercon his body lay, will force to the import of which we cannot be too much alive; and which must convince us that nothing short of the operation of the regenerating power of Divine light and life in our hearts. and a full surrender to the cross of the Redeemer of all our unsanctified propensities. will obtain for us an admittance with the saints in light. How truly awful, then, must the summons of death be to him who is reposing at ease in the possession of worldly and perishing acquirements, who, caring for the sphere of my connexion, that I could nothing but the advancement of his temporal stand unmoved by those feelings which many interest, looks upon the world to come as something in which he has no concern.

Let us then, my dear friend, seeing that time here is uncertain, and indeed that all its enjoyments are alloyed more or less with trouble and sorrow, let us seek for those things which are above where Christ sitteth on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty on high. There will be in this true and unchanging satisfaction, while it will give to the lawful pleasures of this life a zest which can be found nowhere without it.

To the same,

"About 7th or 8th mo. 1824. Thou mayest a little wonder at the time that has been suffered to elapse since my promise of writing to thee. It has seemed as though but one subject has occupied my leisure moments from the affairs of business, next to the one great concern. The recent deeply afflictive dispensation* which we have experienced has stood prominently forth as the claimant of my meditations. But why should I call it afflicting? Deeply trying as it truly is to the natural and affectionate part, yet I am ready to think we have in reality cause to be thankful for the mercy and good ness and wisdom of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own pure, holy and blessed will. Yes, my friend, I may, for my own part say, that while I much deplore the loss of him who diligently strove to guide

* The death of his father, which occurred in the 6th mo. of 1824.

For my part, when I reflect upon this life my infant and childish feet in the path of persecution which seemed almost sufficient to avidity of a fatal delusion, for such it will I recur to the blank that is thus left in our prove unless turned from ; and then to reflect family, and look around me for the countenupon the assertion of our blessed Lord when ance and voice of him who has departed to He says: "Whosoever doth not bear his cross, his long home, those feelings which burst upon me like a flood as I first sat by the side see the kingdom of God." These are precepts themselves upon me and recall all the fondest recollections of my heart. Thou who hast partaken of such feelings canst no doubt realize them even at this distance of time. Well. my friend, I am ready to think that these feelings, these manifestations of affection, are held excusable in the Divine sight, and that He looks upon us and remembers that we are dust. I have sometimes in former days looked forward to such trials, and have thought that should such an event take place within think it is a relief to indulge in upon such occasions. But when the reality came, when I saw him inanimate whose animation and whose smile had been my joy and delight, when the object of my strongest affection was forever enclosed in the arms of unrelenting and unsparing death, my fortitude forsook me, and I gave vent to my feelings in sighs and in tears. The prayer of my heart was, Lord pardon my weakness; and as I was brought to look a little more into the subject,

> The above tribute of filial affection and gratitude to a worthy father for his Christian care and oversight, is none too strong. We would that this and other similar testimonials, might have a stirring effect upon more of the descendants of watchful and concerned parents; and lead to the wise resolution to heed the counsel, and to cherish the precepts and example of these while they have them; as we have no reason to doubt was the case with W. Scattergood toward his venerable father.

I was favored to feel that heavenly language of holy resignation pervade my bosom: "Not my will, O Lord, but thine be done." This is what heals the bleeding heart; this is the language which Christianity enables its votaries to adopt, and which furnishes a strong consolation amid all those distressing events which affect and encumber the soul in this transitory and probationary state of exist-

Tenderness and tears on such solemn occasions and bereavement need no apology nor valve to the deep feelings of such stricken, of Keshub Chunder Sen. sorrowing hearts!

Faithful and exemplary parents who, with cated at the Hindu College in Calcutta. judicious restraint and prayerful solicitude, college, although at first fond of mathematics, the Spirit of God. For a long time the have endeavored to watch over and to train he devoted himself almost exclusively to Eng. Somaj has ceased to believe in reasons. those so responsibly committed to their care, lish literature and mental and moral philosoin the nurture and admonition of the Lord, phy. He passed four years in collegiate study. God for the direct revelation of truin are worthy of much honor; and it is to be He became an active member of the Brahmo soul. The Brahmo Somaj has alwe, hoped that the favored offspring of these will Somaj about 1859. His devout character and the faculty of faith to be the organ for a never forget the obligations they owe, not his eloquence at once made him a leader. He cerument of spiritual realities and ass be only while blessed with them, but in emula- visited England in 1870, and was received such matters a subordinate place to is tion of their virtues and in taking up their with distinguished honor, especially by the Of Chunder Sen as an orator, Joseph mantles, honor them by walking in their foot- Unitarians, and was introduced to the Queen. says: "He was born an orator. He steps, when the places which have known Two volumes of his addresses in England splendid physique, to commence with them and their upright walk on earth, can have been published at Calcutta, and have lent quality of organization, capacity know them no more.

his departed mother, writes:-

"My mother! when I learned that thou wast dead, Say, wast thou conscious of the tears I shed?

And the same author in pointing out one way by which we may miss that happiness we might have found, says :---

"Some friend is gone, perhaps his son's best friend! A father, whose authority, in show When most severe, and must'ring all its force, Was but the graver countenance of love; Whose favor, like the clouds of spring, might low'r, And atter now and then an awful voice, But had a blessing in its darkest frown, Threat'ning at once and nourishing the plant. We lov'd, but not enough, the gentle hand That rear'd us. At a thoughtless age, allur'd By ev'ry gilded folly, we renounced His shelt'ring side, and wilfully forewent That converse which we now in vain regret. How gladly would the man recall to life The boy's neglected sire! a mother too, That softer friend, perhaps more gladly still, Might be demand them at the gates of death. Sorrow has, since they went, subdued and tamed The playful humor: he could now endure, (Himself grown sober in the vale of years,)
And feel a parent's presence no restraint.
But not to understand a treasure's worth, Till time has stol'n away the slighted good, Is cause of half the poverty we feel, And makes the world the wilderness it is."

(To be continued.) Chunder Sen and the Theistic Societies of India.

which he is identified.

been greatly influenced. Ram Mohern Roy, of the Christian Scriptures. who was one of the early laborers in this field, highly reverenced the Christian Scriptures, tion of his own that should seem to be opposed solitudes of the Himalayas. but did not become a professor of Christianity. to fundamental biblical truth. Nevertheless, seated on this platform, he enters into the sought to bring his countrymen back to he believes that supplementary truth may be long prayer. His pupils and followe the worship of one God. The Brahmo Somaj discovered through prayer, and that it has youtly believe that, in the best parts (God Society) was established in 1860.

explanation. It is written for our learning, munion with God began to be explained with dan, and Pagan, so far as they agree in that Jesus, the adorable Son and Sent of God new intensity; sacraments and ceremonies inmost voice of conscience. himself, wept for Lazarus whom he loved. were instituted; and, at last, the New Dis-And who has not experienced that the effusion pensation, as the highest development of the of tears, when the bosom is overborne with Brahmo Somaj, was proclaimed, in 1880, grief or with religious exercise, is as a relief- under the spiritual and intellectual leadership practice are not derived by processes ( lately been followed by a third volume, con- den heat and of tremendous impetuos The poet, Cowper, in a beautiful tribute to taining English lectures of his in India. Be-lightning-like swiftness of thought sides editing a weekly religious newspaper pression, combined with a most ir and directing the instruction of theological control. You cannot throw him off his students and various religious assistants, he before any audience, with a manusco preaches often to his people in a tabernacle in without one. He is unquestionably t Calcutta, and once a year delivers, in the great eloquent Asiatic I ever heard. He town hall there, to an immense assembly, an English as perfectly as any man in elaborate oration in English on some point of sembly; he seems to have learned it fi faith or practice connected with the religious pages of Addison or Macaulay, and n movement he represents, and which he hopes colloquial usage. His English is ext to make national in its influence.

honest, but a profoundly devout man, who complexion and quite regular feature sees religious truths through his conscience, a commanding figure, in his Asiatic co rather than through mere reason, listens de- whether seen in public or in private." voutly to the inner voice, believes in Providence, and is perpetually inculcating the duty patronized. The examination paper and the blessedness of prayer and self-sur-in it include many Christian hooks, a render to all the loftiest impulses of conscience, questions are very keen on the topics of which, as he teaches, are really supernatural dence and prayer and inspiration. touches of God upon the spirit of man inspiration which has often startled his British andas on both lower and upper stori and American readers, so far as they have at-standing in large, open grounds, among tended to his English utterances. He believes ful and stately palms, he has what he that, at certain moments, he is himself in-sanctuary. I must introduce you to thi spired; but, after cross-examining him again of holies of Chunder Sen's home, if you and again on this theme, I am convinced that understand this theistic reformer of by his inspiration he means very little more He showed the room to me with a man than we mean by illumination of the Holy intense reverence for it, and I could b Spirit. He grants, however, that the reality it to be a sacred place. of his inspiration must be tested by the accord "Chunder Sen meets his theological of his teachings with those of every inspired and his chief religious associates in his This is the subject of one of the series of authority in religion. It is reassuring to find tuary nearly every day, except Sunday, Boston Lectures, recently delivered by Joseph that he holds, in as many words, that the spirit he is usually engaged in preaching Cook. The lecturer visited India last year, of the prophets must be subject to the protable. The room is fitted up in a and was several times in the company of phets. He regards the Christian Scriptures style. C. Sen has a little platform, not Chunder Sen, and took pains to ascertain his as incomparably the most important sacred than three or four inches high, on wh character and sentiments, and to become ac- books of the world. Familiar with all the is scated in the Asiatic manner. The quainted with the religious movement with sacred books of Asia, he and his followers find mats scattered about the floor for the in the Bible only that which satisfies their of pupils and apostles. Musical instru This movement commenced more than 50 deepest spiritual wants. All their study of stand in the different corners—not ela years ago, and probably originated in the dissecomparative religion brings them back with instruments, but of the simple ancient semination of Christian ideas, by which it has unabated hunger and enthusiasm to the study patterns, some times one stringed lyres been revealed to him that a new dispensation prayer, he is inspired. They note car An Indian Reform Association was established in 1870; an active missionary organization was constituted; preachers began to Church of the New Dispensation, is to lead him in his devotions, they feel that the travel from one part of the country to the this movement; and that it is to unify all the communing through him with the Holy other; the doctrines of love for God and com-religions of the earth-Christian, Mohamme-They actually believe this and are corres

In the issue of his paper, for 5th 1 1 1882, he says :-

"Our doctrine and principles of : h: ing; but excited in our hearts by prer He was born 11th mo. 18th, 1838, and edu-inner experiences, so that we can't In view them as directly dispensed un us source of religion, and professed to ken pure, and is pronounced without the sli Joseph Cook regards him, not only as an foreign accent. Six feet in height, with own dwelling, the Lily Cottage, on C "Chunder Sen holds a certain doctrine of road, in Calcutta, a mansion with dee as the Hindu saints and recluses, we "Chunder Sen would not trust any inspira-customed to use in their meditations After 1 solemnized. They hold in reverence, er, not the organ, but the divine influhat plays through it.'

d mere Hinduism.

ngregation cries out repeatedly, 'Vic- eternal.

e profound knowledge of Christianity.

For "The Friend," Religious Views and Tenets.

the religious services in the tabernacle, ontwardly or inwardly, may be suffered to power, with that saving belief which pro-Chunder Sen, when his health permits, come in and take the place of true religion duces the new birth, not of flesh and blood, estimates sen, when his nearing permits, come in and take the place of true rengion faces the new orth, not or ness and blood, so there is a most impressive ecremony, and worship. Some worldly object, either nor of the will of man, like the old birth that sition God for light. There is then a take the uppermost sent in our hearts. If our of several minutes, the whole of it oc, presumably, in secret devotion. Every God, we become idolaters. No mundane or domards and knowledge of God! How unsearch set this Chief Church of the North Discovery of the control of the secret devotion. or of this Church of the New Dispensa-cements to be a man of prayer. Remembetween us and the Sun of righteousness long finding out by poor finite man! The world at these persons do not profess to be enough to celipse the brightness of its shining, by its wisdom can never know Him; nor the ians. They say little against Chris- If we suffer our affections to be placed more deep things concerning his kingdom. They Except by asserting the sufficiency on earthly than on heavenly things, an evil are wisely hid from the learning and prudence form of Theism, I could not find that heart of unbelief; or cold indifference will soon of this world, and placed far beyond the reach now ever says a word against Christellikely to enter and cause us to depart from the living God. And if we forsake Him, the God, a sufficient portion is revealed to the new h and practice all those parts of Chris-fountain of living waters, the busy restless born babes, or little ones in Christ Jesus, to that can be made to accord with his mind of man is not long content without a guide them onward from glory to glory, even c principles. In moving the vote of substitute, or a similitude. So we go to work by his secret and invisible power. Here let at the last address I had the honor to in our own will and strength and hew out us leave it; remembering that secret things Calcutta, Chunder Sen said that India cisterns; but what are they? "Broken cisterns belong to God; but those which are revealed by Christ. On another occasion, in that can hold no water." So the Lord combelong to us, and to our children. While I nassive Town Hall, holding more than plained that "his people had changed their thankfully admit that almost the entire sum people, he said, 'The crown of India glory for that which doth not profit." We and substance of both the old and new Testaot belong to Great Britain. It belongs may have a zeal of God, but not according to ment, is to point us to Jesus Christ and Him o Jesus Christ our Lord.' He is almost an inward experimental knowledge. And crucified to save a sinful world; yet we must ntly uttering things that are nearly while we are carnestly exerting this zeal for also admit that the Scriptures set before us ian in their tone, and yet at frequent the salvation of others, we may neglect our the difficulties of the way—the hardships, the als he utters things that lean far over own. And we may go about under the solemn trials and temptations that a Christian has pretext of working for our Lord, while the to encounter in this present evil world. The chas introduced into his Church several secret promptings of the heart, are to estab. Bible sets before us a race that we have to onies imitated from old Hindu practices. lish our own righteousness, instead of silently run, laying aside every weight, and every benow that there is great reverence for submitting to the righteousness of God. Here setting thing. And a battle that we have nong many Oriental sects, and C. Sen is a great snare of the enemy. He cares not to fight; "not against flesh and blood, but deavored to transmute one of the old how near we are on the Christian's path, so against principalities, against powers, against nearour to transmute one of the ord now near we are on the Christian's pain, so against principantics, against powers, against I takes the wood, and before the whole take us away from him, nor from the pride of all the fiery darts of the wicked." egation, throws it, stick by stick, into life. We may speak fluently of justification, another place he speaks of fighting the good edingly impressive, for at the end of it ing Him for ourselves, whom to know is life body without the spirit is dead, so faith with-the old Hindu ways, appear to be in-lateral spirit of man, that by it be may know his death on the cross for the sins of the world. I to conciliate Hindus. The criticism the deep things of God, which the natural He said to his disciples when He was about many acute missionaries make upon man with all his boasted wisdom can never to leave them, "It is expedient for you that s that his composite set of ceremonies know. It is God alone, by his enlightening I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter eligious doctrines has in it so many ap Spirit, that can open the eyes of the blind, will not come unto you." For if He continued o ancient Hindu prejudices that it never and unstop the deaf ear, and turn us from to dwell outwardly among them, they would ad the mass of the Hindu populations darkness to light, and from the power of Satan look to Him outwardly, and fail to receive their attachments to hereditary mis- to Him, and enable us to carry on his work Him in the heart as a comforter, a convictor, Chunder Sen replies that he is anx- to the salvation of souls. And to such as fear a reprover for sin, and as a guide into all nly that Christian truth should be pre- his name, and thus work under his power, the truth. to India in an Oriental dress, and that Sun of Righteonsness will arise with healing should be something national left in the in his wings; and they will become increas-spiritual dispensation, of our holding Christ on of Hindustan. At times he exclaims, ingly strong in the Lord, and in the power of too much outwardly, in our views, and deced Jesus, I am thine. I give myself, his might, and be enabled to overcome the pending too much on what He has done out-and soul, to thee. Let India revile and wicked one. What is it that gives us the wardly for us, and so fail to realize Him so ute me, and take my life-blood out of victory, and enables us to overcome sin but fully as Christ within, the hope of glory. rop by drop, still thou shalt continue to the faith and power which He gives to all Let us thankfully receive and acknowledge my homage!"

the faith and power which He gives to all Let us thankfully receive and acknowledge who receive Him? For as many as receive what He has done for us outwardly, and reere is something very interesting in the Him in his spiritual coming, to them He gives ceive Him with more full faith inwardly. y and spiritual views of this remarkable power to become his sons. And for what is the heart that is deceitful and impure. So and one can join in the desire expressed purpose does He give us of his power, except it is an inward work that we need. e lecturer, that he may yet be led into for us to use it in working out our own sal- a more inward and heart-changing religion, vation, and the salvation of our fellow-men and less of an outward show.

willing to receive Him in the way of his coming. He does give power to become his sons, Idolatry, in some of its various forms, either even to them that believe in his name or ones, saying, 'Thus perish our lust, our and of sanctification, and of the cleansing fight of faith, that we may lay hold of eternal our worldliness, our unjust anger, all blood of Jesus, without having passed through life. But I do not find that faith of itself, the washing of regeneration, or without know, without a conflict, is sufficient. "For as the out works is dead also." So there is a living o God! and then be pronounces over All true Christians have a portion of God's faith that overcomes the world; and there is or invokes upon them the benediction, to general ceremonies of this is an earnest of that inheritance which fadeth world. Our faith may be on a present Christians have a portion of God's faith that overcomes the world; and there is or invokes upon them the benediction, to general ceremonies of this is an earnest of that inheritance which fadeth world. Our faith may be on a present Christians have a portion of God's faith that overcomes the world; and there is ntroduced by him, with slight changes not away. And it is so much above the -a Christ within us, -without undervaluing There is a danger now, even under this

I write as I do, under a fear that many a in co-operation with Him who worketh in us both to will and to do? And to such as are precious seeking soul is in danger of stopping be found by a more carnest striving to enter system of Hindu education and the Brahmo in at the strait gate. There is great danger Somaj movement in religion, only what Chrisof taking up our rest under the praise and tianity and missionary labors in India have flattery of men, and yet know but little of made possible there.—Independent. that true rest that remains for the people of God. Dangers also of a counterfeit peace which the world can give, instead of that true peace of God which passeth all understanding Farel to him, "who would moderate his zeal of the natural man. So what I say unto one, against the opposers of the truth; but I cannot I say unto all, watch. Dublin, Ind., 4th mo. 4th, 1883.

among our aequaintances a well known citizen History of the Reformation. of the State of Alabama. He was writing us on matters appertaining to some things in which he is interested. He makes some state-ments that are of general interest. They show that if the colored people of that State ever make any progress, the laws will not be to blame for it. There is a great deal of work to be done by somebody to humanize the laws. Our correspondent, who is a very calm and careful man, and speaks simply as an observer, says: "The outlook of the colored people in Alabama is very gloomy. The strict laws, the 'sundown law,' selling an article of produce after sundown, or before sunrise, is a felony; the stealing of an article of produce, an apple, a potato, or an ear of corn, is a felony the sale of seed cotton, except one thousand pounds is a felony. (This law is restricted to the 'black belt.') Seven-tenths of the victims of the 'chain-gang' and State-prison are young men. We have sixty-four counties, and two Courts held in each county per annum, and there is upon an average twelve colored men, sentenced at each court; these are all disfranchised, and the fare and treatment of the convicts as a general rule is simply horrible. The two previous years of scarcity reduced the people to great want. the last year, though one of plenty, has not fully relieved the masses ; nearly all are in debt, consequently religious institutions, among the poorer classes,

The Hindu ladies of Bombay are having a new and strange sensation. A fair widow aged scarcely twenty-five, who has attained quite a reputation as a learned Sanskrit scholar, and who has devoted her life to the labor of educating her country women, has been delivering a course of lectures in a hall crowded to excess with the Hindu and Parsi ladies of Bombay. This lady, called the Pandita Romabi (Pandita being the feminine of Pandit or Pundit, a learned man,) spoke with perfect fluency and self-possession, and argued the importance of education for women, that they might be real companions to their husbands, and receive their share of the benefits of the languish; finances short, morals low, and pure

Christianity at a discount."-Chr. Ad.

It has been like an electric shock to those who heard her, stirring them up to an ambition to gain such culture as they saw that the Pandita had. After she had finished, the ladies present were asked to volunteer to express their own views; and it is said that a number did so, with a force and propriety that were surprising to themselves and to the audience.

A native newspaper says that "even the most hopeful of women's advocates among us were hardly prepared for this singular but most delightful spectacle." This is not a short of that full salvation which is only to Christian movement; but it is, like the whole

A Well Directed Zeal.—"Some there are," said . Ecolampadius to Luther, in introducing help discerning in that same zeal a wonderful virtue, and which, if but well directed, is not less needed than gentleness itself." Posterity Colored people in Alabama.—We number has ratified the judgment of Æcolampadius.-

THE GIRDLED ELMS.

A wanderer in far distant realms, I turned my pilgrim feet, To seek beneath a grove of elms, A refuge from the heat; The swaying branches overhead, With foliage dark, and close, Cast on the earth a cooling shade, Inviting to repose.

The sportive breeze above me played, And whispered songs of praise; While graceful branchlets gently swayed, Attuned to nature's lays. The stately trunks, above were crowned With verdant living green, And not a withered branch around

Did mar the lovely scene. Though living grace and beauty rare, Above appeared to be; A cruel foeman had been there,

And girdled every tree; The sap of life no longer flowed From root, till hoastful head Which wearing still life's garb above Was living while 'twas dead.

And when the present season's past, The present leaves decay; And chilling winter's icy blast Sweeps present life away; Returning spring shall give no more To death a living grace, Nor clothe his grizzly visage o'er, With living, smiling face,

How many men are like this grove, Dead while they seem to live, Whose life consists in mercies past, The root hath ceased to give: Whose life consists in mercies past, And not in mercies new; Who seek to make old manna last,

And not each morn renew. Alas! alas! how many here, Have names to live, while dead: In sight of men are green and fair, And yet to sin are wed. When death shall strip their guise away Which they on earth have worn, They'll shine not in the glorious day Of Eternal Spring's return.

Oh God, let thy preserving care, Be round me day by day, And answer thou my daily prayer, Keep deadly foes away May I each day draw life from thee, The true and living Vine; That, nourished by thy love, I be Preserved in Life Divine.

That, when the wintry blast of death Hath blown my leaves away. Hath chilled this fleeting feeble breath, This body froze to clay; This hidden life that in me lies, By thee kept from decay, May into glorious being rise,

And live in endless day.

A WISH.

There is a joy, a pure delight
That Nature's lovely works bestow,
The gleaming torches of the night The whispering breeze, the streamlet's The sight of vernal fields, the song

Of birds melodious from the spray, The glorious tints of light that throng The closing portals of the day,— A smile of joy, a song of praise

From field, and wood, and stream are g
That prompt the swelling heart to raise Its song of gratitude to Heaven.

There is a peace, a Heavenly peace,

That reigns within the tranquil breast; That bids each troubling conflict cease, And doubt and fear alike repress. A thrilling sense of Heavenly love A wakes a love responsive there, And lifts the trembling soul above The thoughts of earth and worldly care This heart-felt joy, this Heavenly peace, This grateful song, this love divine, Forever as thy years increase In life, till death, my friend, be thine.

For " The I

Old Minutes of Concord Quarterly Mee Ministers and Elders. At our meeting of Ministers and held at Providence meeting-house th of 7th month, 1721.

Friends met, and waiting in the fear Lord for the enjoyment of his love and ness who, in his infinite mercy, was p to draw near unto us, and by the influe his Holy Spirit bow our hearts, in which timonies were dropped tending to cautiencouraging one another. The paper the Yearly Meeting of Ministering Frie London, called a Brief Memorial, &c., is: in by this meeting, and is as followet to the end that they may for the fut better able to answer the particular Q therein contained, viz:

1st. Against undue and restless bel under one another's ministry whilst i unity of the body.

2d. Against long, frequent and un sary preambles.

3d. Against pretending to a few wo a brief declaration, and apologizing for a conclusion, and contrariwise prolongi several pretended conclusions, and r mending the people, &c.

4th. Against misstating, misquoting misapplying the Holy Scriptures, for pr ing whereof it is desired all those cond be conversant in reading the Scriptures

5th. To be careful how they fall upo putable points or dialoging and making fair objections, such as they do not c

6th. Against hurting meetings to conclusion by unnecessary additions the meeting was left well before, and public friends keep to week-day meeting

7th. Against all affectations in s tone, sounds and gestures not agreea gravity, affecting and seeking popular themselves.

Sth. Against undertaking or running employment they have no knowledge experience in, as physic, merchandizing also to avoid an idle life, applying selves to some lawful employment when return from their services; yet not to charge themselves so as to hinder the vices.

9th. Against speaking against person

T. C. B.

ng things on hearsay without first waited upon Lord Granville at the Colonial ing discord.

sation unspotted, being examples of ess, temperance, and charity. Not to indulge themselves in what reach against in others. To be just and honest in dealing, t to launch into trade and higher living eir estates will answer.

ouses, as well as their tables, be with y, modesty and temperance.

Against men and women travelling er as companions in service, to avoid er their brethren in their service in meetings, and that the brethren have towards the women and not to dise them in their respective services.

To beware of too much familiarity, to draw out the affections for one

r to their burt.

in their worship.

gain credit.

sume to prophesy therein against any city, town, people or person.

in London.

such entertainments as they meet among friends.

ed on behalf of our Yearly Meeting by i Davies, Geo. Whitehead, laddock, Ambrose Rigg, a Fallowfield, Jno. Taylor, Benjamin Coale.

For "The Friend."

n an editorial on the practical working Church of England system, says:ere is no Church, there is no Governhere is no institution in the world that adapts its means to its ends, its red—will have to be adapted to the sentiment in favor of prohibition is rapidly everywhere to be done unless the Church growing—Chr.Adv. It is affirmed on the an Northern Europe. The cabbage was derived of the leading missionary societies, pounds per individual .- J. Cook.

g to the person concerned; and there-Office, for the purpose of calling attention to tract is taken from the Philadelphia Inquirer To be careful to keep their whole islands of the Pacific. The evils complained from the Episcopal Bishop of Philadelphia and French colonies, under circumstances That their apparel, and furniture of the treatment of native races by lawless and the chief power of the ministry lie?' could be That women friends be careful not themselves in the same forms again and again. It is not enough to be acquainted with his their brethren in their service in On behalf of the deputation referred to, T. personal history, what He said and did, but eetings, and that the brethren have Powell Buxton stated that the traffic in na-jone must be possessed of the Holy Spirit. Against any one running headily in false pretences to leave their homes, to work study of the Bible." wn will to disturb or interrupt any in the colonies of this country and of other nations. Dr. G. Smith, one of the deputation. That all be eautions in laying too gave an account of missionary work done in tress on their testimony by pretending the New Hebrides by the Society of the motion, and too often repeating the Scotch Free Church and others, since 1852, hargeable, and be courteous and thank- from the New Hebrides, said, among other things, that the natives, who appeared to might spring up in the public roads. be strong when removed from their native reason for the Act is given in the prea we recommend you to his Holy Spirit, away as laborers to the colonies; and the reseed Leader, great Remembrancer, and sult of the present system, if continued, would length in some seed leader, great Remembrancer, and be to entirely depopulate the islands. Both bushes to the great loss and damage of the Lord Derby and Lord Granville expressed inhabitants of this province."

Lord Derby and Lord Granville expressed inhabitants of this province."

The Origin of Cultivated Plants.—Alphonse tation.

Relative number of Drinking places.—Nevada has 1 for every 65 inhabitants; Colorado, 1 to 76; California, 1 to 100; Oregon, 1 to 170; New Jersey, 1 to 178; and New York, 1 to 192. by the Christian Advocate from a review of De South Carolina, of all the States of the Union, Candolle's book in Nature. Religious Items, &c.

Church of England.—The London portion to population—I to 917, while Kansas the Old World, and 45 are believed to be an editorial on the practical working comes next, with I to 879. The figures are American. The best domesticated plants from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and were computed to 7th mo. 1, 1881.

prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating li- as little susceptible of development as the to its work, its men to its positions, as quors is making considerable progress in the plants of the United States, whose capabilities areh of England. The fact is proved, South. In Georgia, under a local option law, are ranked so low. If the gardens of the nt supplied, and the evil mitigated by many of the counties have voted for prohibi- United States are filled with Old World vegerounding atmosphere of Nonconform. The Atlanta Constitution says that it tables, the houses are inhabited by an Old rywhere pressing in to fill the void, does not know of a single county that has World people. The two things seem to go nistry—that is, the entire system of voted on the question, and authorized the sale together. The indigenous races could neither ment in the service of the Church of of liquor. In some of the other States the develop their latent vegetables, nor hold their

The Power of Ministry.—The subjoined exmalpractices in the New Hebrides and other of recent date and is a striking testimony of have arisen in connection with the exporto the spiritual views long held by Friends tation of natives of those islands to English on the right origin of the Christian Ministry.

"Bishop Stevens delivered an address yeswhich are not to be distinguished in many of terday afternoon to a number of the ministers their repulsive features from the slave-trade. of the city on the subject, 'What is the Chief The story bears a strong resemblance to Power of the Ministry?' He thought that others, which have frequently been told, of the answer to the question, 'Wherein does adventurous Europeans in various parts of found in the words of Christ when he said the world. The resemblance arises from the 'Ye shall have power after that the Holy fact that under similar conditions the baser Ghost has come among you. The speaker passions of human nature—such as selfishness, continued 'We may know a great deal about cruelty, and greed—are very apt to manifest Christ and yet not be able to preach Christ. tive labor had long been carried on in the Pa- Only as we know and understand the power cific Islands, and that in connection with it of the Holy Ghost working in us can we great injury was being done to the natives, preach Christ as He should be preached. both physically and spiritually, numbers of Knowledge of the truth is revealed only by them being kidnapped, and others induced by the Holy Spirit. It does not come from mere

For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

Blight.—It has long been believed that the spores of a species of blight, common npon and asserted that "the present operations and the barberry bushes, would develop on the That none follow their own spirits future permanence of the mission were conume to prophesy therein against any tinually imperilled" by the absence of settled belief appears to be confirmed by experiments government in the islands, by the prevalence described in the Gardener's Chronicle for 1882, That none show or expose manu- of the labor traffic, leading frequently to in which the spores of the barberry blight so as to give expectation of their being bloody reprisals, and by the fear of the natives sown on wheat produced disease; and the before they are approved of by the that the French whose ships of war frequently spores of wheat blight produced a similar day morning meeting of ministering visited the group, desired to use the islands effect when sown on the barberry. In 1755 for the extension of their convict settlement the province of Massachusetts passed a law And lastly, that ministers be careful in New Caledonia. In supporting these representations, Inglis, a returned missionary barberry bushes growing thereon, and the overseers of the roads to cut down those which reason for the Act is given in the preamble tender salutation in our Lord Jesus islands, died like rotten sheep when carried which states: "It has been found by experience that the blasting of wheat and other de Candolle, one of the most eminent of living botanists, has published at Paris a work giving the results of his researches into this subjeet. The following statements are condensed have developed their merits with the races that educated them. If we stumble now Prohibition in the South.—The principle of against the primitive stock, they might seem thority of official statistics that Russians and from the western coasts of Europe, where its ngs in the New Hebrides.—Recently a Britons consume annually one pound of to-wild stock may still be found. Purslane is consisting of representatives of bacco; but that Americans consume three wild from the Western Himalayas to Greece. The onion was brought from Western Asia.

Southern Europe. This was displaced by a wing feathers very much crushed and injured; native of countries south of the Caspian, I tried to explain to him and the others, that seems to have been brought into Europe by bird, some for more, and one for as many as menced on Second-day, 4th mo. It the Scythians about 1500 B. C. The grape-six. They said they had to go a long way for first sitting of the Yearly Meeting of the wine is indigenous in Western Asia, whence them, and that they would come back as soon and Elders was held on the Seventhan its use was carried to various countries by as they caught any. both Aryan and Semitic races; but it did not reach China before 122 B. C.

Southern Mediterranean shores and lands.

The common bean seems to have become in a day. extinct in a wild state; it may have originated very doubtful, and it may possibly be an an- ago. eient cultivated derivative from the wheat stock. As to barley, the inhabitants of the Swiss lake-dwellings cultivated both the tworowed and the six-rowed kinds. Oats and rye seem to have originated in Eastern Eumost intimately, a little further testimonial. rope. From Pliny's mention that the Germans used oat-meal, it is concluded that it was not cultivated by the Romans.

Procuring Birds of Paradise at Waigiou.—

My first business was to send for the men who were necustomed to catch the birds of paradise. Several came, and I showed them my hatchets, beads, knives and bandkerchiefs; and explained to them as well as I could by signs, the price I would give for fresh-killed specimens. It is the universal custom to pay and passed away without groan or struggle, for everything in advance; but only one man ventured on this occasion to take goods to the innocent life opened to her a blissful immorvalue of two birds. The rest were suspicious tality. and wanted to see the result of the first bargain with the strange white man, the only one

As to textiles, the origin of flax is somewhat who had ever come to their island. After complicated. The inhabitants of the Swiss three days, my man brought me the first bird lake-dwellings did not use our present annual -a very fine specimen, and alive, but tied up flax, but a subperennial sort indigenous to in a small bag, and consequently its tail and which was introduced into Europe and India I wanted them kept as perfect as possible. by Arab races. The knowledge of hemp Six others took away goods; some for one

The red birds of paradise are not shot with of brief communications, the longest blunt arrows as in the Ave Islands and some perhaps did not occupy more than term The almond seems to be a native of West-parts of New Guinea, but are snared in a very in its delivery. The general current ern Asia, and perhaps Greece. As late as the ingenious manner. A large climbing Arum cise seemed directed to two subjections. time of Pliny the fruits were known to the bears a red fruit of which the birds are very right source and qualification for transcription as Nuces Grææ. The wild stock of fond. The hunters fasten this fruit on a stout rry and spiritual worship, and the our pears and apples seems to have been in-forked stick, and provide themselves with a training and education of the young. digenous to Southern Europe and Western fine but strong cord. They then seek out ence to the first, the doctrine was cla Asia, before the Aryan invasion. The quince is a native of North Persia, but seems to have are accustomed to perch, and climbing up it heart of man is the foundation of all been introduced into Eastern Europe in pre- fasten the stick to a branch and arrange the timonics. In speaking on the latter Hellenic times. The pomegranate seems to cord in a noose so ingeniously that when the a fear was expressed that some in the have existed in France at an early date; but it bird comes to eat the fruit its legs are caught, their children reversed the order le died out, and was reintroduced from countries and by pulling the end of the cord which by our Saviour, "Seek first the kin adjoining Persia into the Mediterranean re- hangs down to the ground, it comes free from heaven and the righteousness there agoing fersia into the scatterranean relations and brings down the bird. Some-gion, of which it is now so characteristic a feature. The primitive home of the olive was feature. The primitive home of the olive was apparently the eastern shores of the Mediter-bunter sits from morning till night under his trusting that the Heavenly treasure tree with the cord in his hand, and even for rancan, where the Greeks discovered its user tree with the cord in his hand, and even for somehow be subsequently attained, fill qualities, the Romans learning them later, two or three whole days in succession, with The home of the fig must be sought in the out getting a bit; while, on the other hand, to examine into the weak places and the control of the same places are tree with the cord in his hand, and even for somehow be subsequently attained, was manifested in the meeting a will be supported by the control of the same places are tree with the cord in his hand, and even for somehow be subsequently attained. if very lucky, he may get two or three birds and to labor for a reformation. Th

When it was necessary for me to return, waiting on the Lord, and the meet south of the Caspian, and was introduced into most of the men who had taken payment from felt to have been a favored and profita Europe by the Aryan. The remains of lentils me had brought the birds they had agreed for. have been found in lake-dwellings of the One poor fellow had been so unfortunate as people was in unison with that wh Bronze Age, and it was probably indigenous not to get one, and he very honestly brought largely prevailed in this Yearly Mee in Western Asia, Greece, and Italy before its back the axe he had received in advance; a considerable time past, and which eultivation in these countries; subsequently another who had agreed for six, brought me principal cause that led to the appoit was introduced into Egypt. The chick-pea the fifth two days before I was to start, and one year ago of the large committee wh was carried from the south of the Caucasus went off immediately to the forest again to been since laboring so extensively in the by the Aryans to India and Europe. The get the other. He did not return however, ings and families of our members. The carob is indigenous to the Eastern Mediter. and we loaded our boat, and were just on the exercise on behalf of this interesting el ranean, whence the Greeks introduced it into point of starting, when he came running down manifested in the meetings for worship Tally and the Arabs into Western Europe, after us holding up a bird, which he handed following day, when the most fervent, De Candolle regards all the various kinds of to me, saying with great satisfaction, "Now and impressive appeal was made to twheat as derivatives of the small-grained kind, I owe you nothing." These were remarkable yield their hearts to the visitations of found in the most ancient lake-dwellings of and quite unexpected instances of honesty Western Switzerland. The origin of spelt* is among savages.—Wallace's Malay Archipel-Amid the discor-

For "The Friend."

Lydia Cooper, a notice of whose death appeared in No. 35 of "The Friend," we feel deserves from those who loved and knew her

She was a much beloved member of Newton Particular Meeting, where she was constant in attendance whenever her health permitted. Of an unobtrusive character, she was faithful, tender and loving as a wife and mother, always kind and sympathizing to the poor and afflicted. In meekness and patience she was favored to endure increasing bodily weakness and suffering during the last year of her life with uncomplaining submission, -and we doubt not the peaceful close of her

If Christians must contend, let it be like the olive and the vine, which shall bear most to a future sitting. Among the subjects and best fruit; not like the aspen and the clm, claimed their attention, were the follow -Jeremy Taylor.

THE FRIENI

FOURTH MONTH 21, 1883.

PHILADELPHIA YEARLY MEE N

The annual gathering of this by vious. It was marked by an unusualu much time spent in silent meditat;

The concern expressed in it for our

Amid the disconragements which at the present time in our religious So was cheering to have an undoubted eof the Lord's holy presence eminently shadowing those who were assembled upon and worship Him. It tended to the faith of some, that He, who in day moved upon the hearts of thousand awakened an earnest desire to know bo might obtain power to overcome the and enter into the Divine rest; and w pared them to receive as glad tidings the sage of George Fox and his fellow-la turning them to the Light, Grace and of Christ, which would bring them sal -would still care for his own precious and raise up those who would be as bu bearers in the Church, when the present ers were removed from works to rewa

At the meeting for business on Secon after the usual opening, the minutes Meeting for Sufferings were read, omit Address to our members, which was de

The circulation of the Address on de izing literature and art, approved I

^{*} A hardy variety of wheat, in which the chaff closely adheres to the grain, cultivated in Switzerland and which shall make the most noise in the wind.

o exercise an extensive influence over ed a set of queries relating thereto, forcible document. were forwarded to the different Quar-

Trustees of the Charleston Estate had inthorized to pay $500 to Dunning's ore Yearly Meeting,—$300 to Deep as already stated, was postponed to give time Monthly Meeting, N. C., and $425 to for attention to some other business. quare Monthly Meeting, N. C., to assist n building or repairing meeting-houses. as to the proper disposition of the ap-lessay on oaths was committed to its care. ons which come before them, a comesented; but not to assist in the erec-pursued with respect to such applications. repair of meeting-houses where it was les and practices of Friends. Report of the Book Committee showed ibution of more than 4000 volumes, benany pamphlets, during the year endd mo. 31st, 1883. This branch of the of the Meeting for Sufferings has so printed in portable form the lives of in man by faith in the teachings of the Light must be continued to retain it. were in the Friends' Library series.

se about 8000 had been mailed to Li-Friends at Minden were at present in such a experience one without partaking of the other. in various parts of the United States, situation that some aid would be desirable; The Gospel Expositor says: "Holiness as a in various parts of the United States, situation that some aid would be desirable; The Gospel Expositor says: "Holiness as a large number had been sent to the and the balance of the money was accordingly distinct experience through faith in Christ, rs of First day schools, and to other remitted—thus closing an account which had was taught definitely by George Fox, the s whose character or position enabled been a source of care for nearly 80 years,

The subject of judicial oaths having claimed pumittee had been appointed on the had been prepared, designed to diffuse in the delivered from the guilt of our sins, placed in preservation of the Records of our So-community at large correct views on the duty a state of acceptance with God, and are therewhich had been recommended to its and importance of obeying the command of fore in a saved condition, (in other words, jusour last Yearly Meeting. They had Christ, not to swear. It was a clear and tified) by an acceptance of what Christ did for

The proceedings of the Meeting for Sufferings were approved by the Yearly Meeting, ustees of this estate, having requested and the publication and circulation of the

had been appointed to consider this attention to a case of application for member-them knows all; but he that doth not feel whose report had been adopted, re-ship by a person residing out of the limits of one of them, feels none of them at all. nding the trustees freely to make ap- any meeting of Friends, a committee was (Works, Ed. of 1831, Vol. 3, p. 450.) ations for such uses, where no obstruc- appointed to consider the proper course to be

The sitting this day was largely attended, le the meetings held therein would not and was a dignified and harmonious one-in ducted in accordance with the ancient which the business was transacted, as our the natural powers of belief, but by receivand love of each other."

Meeting is deferred until next week.

nuch developed during a few years past have received several numbers of The Gospel others, he says: "I was to turn [people] to has been supplemented by a fund de- Expositor, a weekly paper published at Columbathe Grace of God and to the Truth in the rom the estate of our late dear friend, bus, Ohio, and edited by Dr. Dougan Clark, heart, which came by Jesus; that by this Anna Cope, which has been applied to In his "salutatory," the editor says: "Its Grace they might be taught, which would ridgment of Barclay's Apology," and this journal claim (as we suppose) to be mem-glad that I was commanded to turn people iges from the Life and Writings of bers of the Society of Friends, yet its general to that inward Light, Spirit and Grace, by m Penn," which is properly a new work, tone is not in accordance with the doctrines which all might know their salvation and ed from the various sources of information and practices of our Society. It is therefore their way to God, even that Divine Spirit ow accessible. Of these three valuable rather satisfactory than otherwise, that it which would lead them into all truth, and several thousand have been printed does not assume to represent the views of which I infallibly knew would never deceive rculated, of which no notice appears on Christian doctrine as held by the Society of any."

In the "Expositor" for "February 9th," the one of a Bi-centennial celebration of may properly be regarded as speaking the proprietor of the paper gives directions how eth Ashbridge and Margaret Lucas, of Christ in the heart, and obedience thereto, Meeting one year ago. Of this 30,000 member of the Meeting for Sufferings during between justification and sanctification, they had been printed and widely diffused. last summer to Germany, it was found that were practically so united, that we could not founder of the Quakers.

As we understand the views of the conducattention, an essay on them and their effects tors of that paper, they believe that we are us when on earth in a body of flesh; and that The danger to which our members are ex-this is independent of the practical redemption lectings. This matter was still under posed from the diffusion within the Society wrought within us by his Spirit. This reof principles and practices inconsistent with demption from the dominion of sin, they beour religions profession, had occasioned much lieve to be a subsequent experience, which uthorized to pay $500 to Dunning's exercise, and led to the preparation of an may be instantaneously received by an act of Monthly Meeting, Pa., (belonging to address on these matters, the reading of which, faith. George Fox was so far from holding such a view, that he distinctly states, "So far as a man is sanctified, so far is he justified, and no farther; for the same that sanctifies a man, justifies him; for the same that is his sanctification, is his justification, and his wisdom, One of the Quarterly Meetings having called and his redemption; he that knows one of

He fully proclaimed the doctrine that redemption is through the blood of Christ; but be taught that the way to partake of that redemption was, not through the exercise of discipline advises, "with decency, forbearance ing his Spirit in the heart, and walking in obedience thereto; and that those who so The remainder of the account of the Yearly walked would receive a Divine and saving faith in Christ, and would know his blood to cleanse them from all sins. When he was Through the kindness of the publisher, we commissioned to proclaim the Gospel to blishing and distribution of "Passages object will be primarily and chiefly—but not bring them salvation, that their hearts might be Life and Writings of George Fox," exclusively—to promote the doctrine and exact of the salvation of Fox's Journal; "A perionee of scriptural boliness." View of Christian Doctrine," which is Though the proprietor and conductors of salvation nigh." He further adds: "I was nding of William Penn in this country, sentiments of those who have most widely to obtain sanctification, (which he speaks of the way for a wide distribution of this departed from our original standard. William Penn, and about 1500 copies spread abroad on that occasion. This all the necessity of holiness—as that without "A public confession of consecration and and a Life of Rebecca Hubbs, had been which no man can see God or be admitted trust, with a continued abandonment of your during the year, to the list of those into his Heavenly Kingdom; and this holiness all to God, is essential to the reception of this the Book Committee distribute. They or freedom from sin, they taught was wrought inestimable blessing to the Christian, and

A public confession will be of no value whereby they were both taught and enabled whatever, unless it is called for by the Lord. were in the Friends Library series. Legacy left to the charge of the Meetlegacy left to the charge of the Meet"to live soberly, righteously and godly in this II one of our early Friends had been giving ses Wharton, for the benefit of Friends nee and Germany, was one of the cares the care of man's redemption was the earers to take heed to the Light of Christ, mercy and forgiveness of God, who sent his and walk therein. Thus Edward Burrough that meeting had long been desirous Son into the world that we might obtain salsays: "Whosoever will be saved with the the reliaved Sums of more cut of the protein and the large in terminal the reliaved Sums of more cut of the treation, and the this calculation of (feel more own the Light of ng relieved. Sums of money out of that vation; and that this salvation is experi-salvation of God, must own the Light of ad been sent at different times to France enced by the washing of regeneration, and Christ Jesus in his own conscience, and he ermany through the Meeting for Sufferther renewing of the Holy Ghost, shed on us the Holy Ghost in this Light and walk in it."

A halance of about $1200 through Him, our Holy Redeemer—that what Thomas Stubbs: "Loving this Light of Jesus ned on band. Through the visit of a ever theoretical distinctions might be drawn Christ, it will teach you to deny yourselves

Lord Jesus Christ through the regeneration: and watching to be guided by it, the pure law of God will be set up in thee, and judgment will pass upon the vain, earthly, carnal part in thee," William Penn, in a letter of love to the young convinced, thus admonishes excess of that of any previous year.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 417, his readers: "This I am fully persuaded of, his readers: "This I am fully persuaded of that the same pure principle of Light and I less than during the corresponding period of last Truth that hath appeared to give a certain year. Of the whole number, 227 were males, and 190 discerning of our states and conditions, and the same period of last of of l standings, is able to give us that succor and support, if our minds be but seriously stayed! thereon, as shall sanctify us throughout in body, soul and spirit, and so preserve us clean to God over all.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

Revenue in regard to the withdrawal, transportation and storage of matches without the payment of stamp postal cards.

The design for the new two cent postage stamp was approved on the 13th instant by the Postmaster General. It contains a tablet, upon which is a profile of Washington similar to that on the present three-cent stamp. Surrounding the profile is an oval band. In the upper part of the band the words "United States Postage," beneath the hand a large "2," and at the extreme boot-tom of the tablet the words "2 cents." After the design After the design is engraved the color will be decided upon.

The nickel 5 cent piece, bearing the word "cents," now being issued from the mint.

and Donegal, sent out by the British Government. The British agent furnished money to those who desired to go to places beyond Boston, the amounts-depending on the size of the family—varying from a few shillings to five or six pounds. The Parthia, from Liverpool, has arrived with a large number of the same class of emigrants.

The Department of Agriculture reports the average of winter grain at 80, against 104 last 4th mo., and 85 in 4th mo. 1881. The Department has received returns from the spring wheat region, showing that on 4th mo. 1st seeding was in progress but had not been finished anywhere. In Dakota and parts of Minnesota it had hardly begun, large areas being still covered with snow

A tornado struck White Oaks Station, on the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad, ten miles west of Ozark, Arkansas, about one o'clock on Seventh-day morning, making great havor there and in the surrounding country. Oak trees on the mountain sides were snapped like mill and about twenty dwellings were demolished, a ment, the wron number of persons were injured, three fatally. The loss his disclaimer. in property is estimated at $50,000.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided to grant a request of the Hawaiian Government for the coinage coinage will be done at San Francisco, and the dies probably made in Philadelphia Mint. The Hawaiian silver coins are of the denominations of one dollar, half a dollar, quarter of a dollar and eighth of a dollar, The Secretary of the State Board of Health of Indiana has announced that the small-pox has assumed 'alarming proportions" in that State. It is epidemic in many towns in the eastern and southern portions of the State, while scattered cases are reported in the other sections.

Northern Pacific Railroad officials at St. Paul say that large slaughter-houses will be established at points

merce, has collected reports of the condition of the and take up the cross daily and follow the winter wheat crops in fifteen of the principal States, BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN (These reports estimate the damage at 20 per cent, making an aggregate of 100,000,000 bushels short of last year's crop.

Work in the pineries of Minnesota is practically suspended. The total cut of logs on the stream above St. Paul is 435,000,000 feet, which is 50,000,000 feet in wrought a convincement upon our under- of old age; 17 of typhoid fever; 17 of convulsions; 14 of diphtheria, and 9 of scarlet fever.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, $103\frac{1}{2}$; $3\frac{1}{2}$'s, $102\frac{1}{2}$; $4\frac{1}{2}$'s, $113\frac{1}{2}$ 4's, $119\frac{1}{8}$; currency 6's 129 to 132.

Cotton continues dull, but prices were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at 10\stract{3}{8} a 10\stract{6}{8} cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans. Petroleum.—Standard white, 81 a 88 cts. for export

and 91 a 98 cts. per gallon for home use

Flour is in moderate request and steady. Sales of UNITED STATES.—Commissioner Raum is preparing $0.25; Pennsylvania family at $5; western do. at $5.25 a Revenue in regard to the with Laural at $6,25 at $6,25 at $7.50. at $3.62½ a $3.75 per barrel.

Grain.-Wheat was dull and lower. Sales of 4600 and storage of matches without the payment of sample that affect the 15th of 5th no. next, in accordance with the provisions of the new Internal Revenue act.

Orders from Postmasters were received at the Post-office Department on the 10th inst, for seven million

Sales of 10,000 bushels, in car lots, at 61 a 66 cts. Oats are quiet.

Sales of 10,000 bushels, in car lots, at 53 a 57 cts.

Beef cattle were in fair demand this week, and prices Beet cattle were in fair densition in sweets, and process were rather easier: 2400 head arrived and sold at the different yards at $5\frac{5}{4}$ a $7\frac{5}{6}$ cts, per lb., as to condition. Sheep were in demand at full prices: 12,000 head

Sheep were in demand at thi prices; 12,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4½ a 7½ cts., and spring lambs at 5½ a 57 per head, as to quality.

Hogs were in demand: 3300 head sold at the different ards at $10\frac{1}{2}$ a $11\frac{1}{2}$ cts. per pound, as to quality. Foreign.—On the 12th instant, Norman, Gallagher,

Dalton, Wilson, Curtin, and Anshurghe, the six men recently arrested in London on suspicion of being connected with a dynamite conspiracy, were taken to the The steamer Nestorian arrived at Boston on Seventh-The steamer Nestorian arrived at Boston on Seventh-day night with 650 passengers, most of them evicted Ingham. Joseph Brady, one of the Phenix Park con-Irish tenants from the counties of Galway, Mayo, Derry spirators, has been convicted and sentenced to be executed. Daniel Curley, another of their number, is now

The papers chronicle as a remarkable circumstance that William Leadham Bright, second son of John Bright, was married recently to Isabella McIvor Taylor. The ceremony was performed by Canon Farrar, and in the Carsbalton Parish chapel, although both the bride the Carsuatton Farish chapt, atthough ooth the price and groom, and their families and friends are Friends. The London Exchange Telegraph Company announces that a Commissioner has been sent from Queensland to take possession of the island of New Guinea as a dependency of Queensland.

A special committee of the Danish Folkthing has presented to that body a report upon the order issued by the Prussian Government on the 7th of 1st month. The committee says the order dealt unjustly with the Danes living in Schleswig-Holstein, and although the German Minister to Denmark at the time and since has disclaimed that his Government was actuated by any pipe stems; three meeting-houses, a gin mill, a planing feeling of hostility toward them or the Danish Government, the wrong done to Denmark was not removed by Advices have been received from St. Petersburg to the effect that the secret police in that city, as well as at Moscow, are making numerous arrests at night time of its silver money in the United States mints. The in consequence of the recent strong revival of Nihilist In consequence of the recent strong reviva of Munical intrigues. On the 4th inst. 39 arrests were made in a house in Wassily Ostrow, where a quantity of prepared explosives was discovered. The newspapers are for-bidden, on pain of complete suspension, to publish reports of arrests or of the trial of Bogdanovitch Stephanovitch and the other Nihilists, which was begun on the 9th inst. with closed doors. The London Evening the 9th inst. with closed doors. The London Eneming West Chester, Pa., Joseper J. Lewis, a member Moscow on suspicion of being engaged in plotting of his age. In early life he married out of the life of the Cast.

temporarily.

There arrived in the Dominion of Canada during 3d mo. 8598 immigrants, and during the first three months in the Yellowsone country, along the railroad, for the jumps of this year 20,646, against 20,191 during the first quarpurpose of sending dressed beef to the East. This will be cheaper than shipping live stock.

T. W. Tallmage, of the Milwankee Chamber of Comagainst 9841 in the first quarter of 1882.

WILLIAM H. PILE, PR
No. 422, Wahnu Str.

AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Ps John Sharpless, Chester, P. Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCH The SUMMER SESSION opens on THIRDof Fifth month.

Conveyances will be at the STREET ROL on that day, to meet the trains that leave STREET STATION of the Pennsylvania Ra pany, at Broad and Filbert Sts., Philadelpl 9.05 and 11.13 A. M., and 2.25, 4.55 and Those who can more conveniently go the will be met at Street Road Station on Sec timely notice is sent to JONATHAN G. WILLI address Westtown P. O., Chester Co., Pa.

The Union Transfer Company w

BAGGAGE to any place in the built-up part c phia, if notice is left either at No. 838 Ches the South East corner of Broad and Chest the Baggage Room 15th St. above Market, or St. Ferry, (north side), and will deliver it at St. Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co a charge of 25 cents per trunk, to be paid e the order is given or when the trunk is calle the same charge they will collect baggage fi the other railroad depots, if the railroad chee such baggage are left at one of the offices of th Company above designated. In all cases i stated that the baggage is to go to Westtown School, Street Road Station, on the West C Philadelphia Railroad.

DURING THE SESSION, passengers for the S be met at the Street Road Station, every First-day, on the arrival of the second throfrom the City, and small packages for the left at Friends' Book Store, No. 304 Arch s be forwarded every Sixth-day at 101 o'clock expense charged in their bills.

4th mo. 17th, 1883.

There will be a meeting of the Friends' Teach ciation of Philadelphia, at 820 Cherry St., on day, 4th mo. 21st, at 10 A. M. Subjects to be 6 Teaching Elementory Arithmetic; Methods of Good Discipline and Morals, and others to be a at the meeting. All interested are invited to attend.

MARY W. WOOLMAN, Se

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School Application may be made to

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwood Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Nint Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh

DIED, on the 25th of 9th mo. 1882, near Pl Indiana, NATHAN HARVEY, a firm believer in cient principles and practices of Friends, aged 8 2 months and 3 days, a member of Plainfield Meeting of Friends, Hendricks Co. Indians.
—, on the 17th of 3rd month, DEEGRAR Jacob Parvin, a member of Maiden Creek Pa and Exeter Monthly Meeting, Pa., in the 66th her age.

, on the 28th of 3rd month, at his resid Germantown, Philada., SAMUEL MASON, a mem elder of Frankford Monthly Meeting, Pa., in t year of his age.

—, on the 5th of 4th month, at his residence.

LEWIS, a member and thereby lost his right of membership There is another flood at Helena, Arkansas. The water is within two feet of the level of the late flood, and is rushing through the old town break, submerging rivers. Traffic on the railways has been suspended born a member. Having seen the vanity of ambition, his latter days were marked by an desire to lay up treasure in Heaven, the attain which was evidently the main bent of his hear

WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FOURTH MONTH 28, 1883.

NO. 38.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid dvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

ticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON. MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES. . 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend," and Memoranda of William Scattergood. (Continued from page 290.)

" Philada., 9th mo, 4th, 1824.

broken by no common occurrence; hat He would be with me in the way of life! n I go.

and confusion it will doubtless create. Where should be transmitted to future generations can be his enjoyment of such foolish pomp for instruction in the way of life will never and parade? Is this the design of man's creation? Are such extravagant manifestations windicate his own cause. Nevertheless, the of respect due from men to man-almost tear of pity will fall for those, more particuamounting to worship? and this too on ac-larly in our own religious community, who count of war and bloodshed. This is a weighty have been caught in the snares of the devil, consideration; and although I am ready to and are led captive by him at his will. How believe that the Almighty does look upon his important is it that those who are mercifully poor creature man with an eye of infinite preserved upon the unchangeable foundation spect be paid to the ever adorable and glori- what is written: 'The effectual fervent prayer ous, yet lowly, meek and humble Saviour, of a righteous man availeth much.' who died to save millions of immortal souls are many who have known better days; but from the bondage of sin and from endless per- who for want of a close attention to the na-Dear Cousin,—A feeling of affectionate dition, should He appear at the present day ture of the insidious workings of the adver-thy, I trust, subsists between us which in the manner he did near 1900 years ago? sary, have been unwarily led astray. The Oh! when will men learn true wisdom? when situation of such as these is peculiarly stirring; have wished many times of late, that will they be taught that all the honors and and the awful consideration that the last state the more and more united together beasures of this life, are but as grass and as of some such is worse than the first, certainly bands of true gospel fellowship: that the flower that fadeth. Words are not strong calls for the deeperst commiscration. That for our aim the same thing, and mindenough to express the abject litteness of all we should beware of falling from our first essame rule for its attainment, we might earthly things when brought into comparison tate is of the greatest importance; remembertogether in grace and in the saving with those infinite and eternal. And what ing that, Let him who thinketh he standeth, edge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus are man's short sighted and short-lived pro-take heed lest he fall. -pressing forward with a fixed and jects when weighed in the balance with his ering ardor for the mark of the prize future never-ending existence? The Scripthe best sense, and with love to all your high calling of God. I feel it, for my tures hold up this in a very interesting point family, I remain thy cousin, art, a precious privilege, poor and un- of view; exhorting to leave the perishing y as I am, to be enabled to draw near things of time, and to seek carnestly a better sons to the footstool of mercy, and, and an enduring substance. Truly how great a sense of my many backslidings, hum- an attainment must it be to become meet to beseech Him, who has promised to be be clothed upon with that house which is from th to them that turn the battle to the beaven, that mortality may be swallowed up had occurred in the family, he writes : These when I reflect upon the heavenly con- confined to the Scriptures; and the more I if the loss of an earthly father may be the ns which are sometimes permitted to read these blessed writings, the more I learn means of arousing any of my much loved to the soul, I cannot but desire that of their tendency; and the more I see of their young friends to a sense of the importance of ch loved young friends could, or rather scope and design, the more I am astonished making Him our Father who sitteth on high be willing to undergo the sanctifying with the wonderful workings of Him, whose and who has promised to be a Father to the fonof the Divine Word, that they might ways are indeed past finding out. I see them fatherless in his holy habitation—if, I say, it e made fit vessels for the Lord of hosts studded with jewels, precious jewels, which may be the means of arousing us to a sense of ll in. It is a blessed state to be brought to those who find them are better than gold, this solemnly important concern, may we not and although the means for its attain yea than much fine gold. I think I may say bless the means which Infinite Wisdom has may seem, as it is represented to be. I read them day by day with increased satisseen fit to employ, and thankfully and revero flesh and blood, and may tend to cast faction; and with the hope that the relish for ently acknowledge, that 'He hath done all nany visionary prospects of unhallowed their invaluable contents may never be lost, things well. As this comes to be our blessed thich we have formed, and every proto mere self-gratification, yet as we are cried. Those whose principles and whose Hand that is thus stretched out for our saney and patiently abide the turnings and lives have not been brought into subjection tification, and under all the dispensations of rnings of his holy hand upon us, we to the Holy Spirit which gave forth the Scrip- his providence sincerely say in humble resighis own good time, as the apostle extures, and anxious to east down such a barrier nation and filial confidence, 'Thy will be it, 'Reap if we faint not.' My soul is to their evil designs, boldly declaim against done.' It is truly said, 'He wounds for his I may say daily, introduced into such them as false. Those who thus cry out, can mercy's sake. He wounds to heal.' The s as these. They are not the produc- not bring a single substantial argument to means that are often made use of, to try and a moment; but the result of carnest prove their position. Yet who so positive? to prove the Christian traveller in his prothat there may be those raised up who who so dogmatical? I have latterly given gress through this vale of tears, are such as and as watchmen upon the walls, and myself to the examination of those proofs seem calculated to overwhelm his feeble efforts, ars in the Church, which shall go no which stand in favor, together with some of and many, many times prompt the exclamathe strongest arguments put forth against tion, 'Lovel! save, or I perish.' Thus under a inhabitants of our city are much ex-their authenticity. My searchings have thus sense of their own weakness and frailty, of by the approach of General La Fayette, far resulted in the fullest convertion that the their own utter nothingness and insignifi-but thou hast no doubt heard. I could shafts of infidelity must ever be levelled in eancy, they are led ardently to desire to sup-nyself removed during next week (bils vain. He whose will it was that the records plicate that the Lord would be pleased to be probable stay here) from the seene of tumult of his ancient goodness to the children of men mercy, yet He is surely a just and righteous should seek for a qualification to intercede for Judge. Would the same, even the same rethese at the throne of mercy; remembering

With affectionate desires for thy welfare in

WILLIAM SCATTERGOOD."

To the same.

"10th mo, 7th, 1824.

[After alluding to several deaths which deeply trying bereavements I hope may not My reading of latter time has been much altogether be without their good effect; and with them in the way wherein they go, know grey heights of Monte Solaro, and flooded story so fearfully dark, I apprehening that of themselves they can do no good with beauty this already charming seene. still much of exaggeration and many statements of the statement of the sta thing. It is surely worth all the chastening To-day "a sunshine rich as fell, brightening placed to the score of batred by o and tribulation meted, poor rebellious creatof old with golden rain, the isles Apollo loved who were later safely beyond his relations and tribulation meted, poor rebellious creatof of old with golden rain, the isles Apollo loved who were later safely beyond his relationship. them, such glorious prospects as those of becoming the inhabitants of the courts of the rambled around the terraced walks among Capri, he could have enjoyed a pa Lord's holiness, and of being forever present lines of olive trees to a high outlook, clamber earth, in an almost inaccessible retained. with the Most High. Moreover, how ought down the rustic stone path, and picking our had be surrounded himself with election the fact to be inbued with gratitude and way along the steep slope that dips to the sention in his carly days, or had be had thanksgiving to the glorious Giver of every we spread our shawls, and bask in the sent in his carly days, or had be had the good and perfect gift, for the way which is shine, to enjoy the dolce far niente (the sweet of Dioclesian, and found in his grant the steep of the steep of the sweet of Dioclesian, and found in his grant the sweet of Dioclesian, and found in his grant the steep of the steep of the sweet of Dioclesian. set open through the Mediator of the new do nothing, appropriate to the day, the occa- pleasures of peaceful occupation, h covenant for poor lost man to return to a sion and the seene. Above us are frowning solicited to return to Rome, have be state of reconciliation and acceptance with escarpments of limestone, grey and broken make the sage reply: "Did you. the Father?"

minister from England, he says: "The situa throw a mantle of malachite upon the pebbles with you the cares of the throne tion of a gospel minister, in whatever circum- beneath. The varying blue and golden in could have exclaimed with Napole tion of a gosper minister, in whatever circums stances he or she may be placed, is surely a stances he or she may be placed, is surely a very important one—one which calls for peculiar watchfulness, lest the cause which they are advocating should suffer by their contrary example. The situation of those who are down to the water's edge the slope descends, for which men spend time and street down to the water's edge the slope descends, for which men spend time and street down to the water's edge the slope descends, for which men spend time and street down to the water's edge the slope descends, for which men spend time and street down to the water's edge the slope descends, for which men spend time and street down to the water's edge the slope descends. thus called from home and all its endearments, grassy, stony, rocky, while flowers of many often life itself in aiming to compass from the comforts and enjoyments of their kinds, mostly unknown to the stranger, deck remarks supply! How much more families and friends, to advance the interest the sod even thus early. Hieraciums are returned the quiet, useful enterprises, that fine of every mind."

as I believe it has already proved to many of than two inches in diameter, to star the green-scason, jonquil and lovely white heat the present generation. I have no doubt cry beneath. A St. John's Bread—Carob—arborea), and bright purple anemone there has been much good seed sown in the tree (Ceratonia siliqua) stands near by-the the gathering, and the fragrance of the hearts of children while there; and although only tree besides the many grey olives that blossom with which it is scented, for it may have lain dormant for a season, yet line the terraces, that is permitted to feed are both in fruit and in bloom at t there is no doubt that precious and flourish upon the scant soil of this rocky slope. Near time, remind me that I am far away f ing plants have been brought forth to the us terrace beneath terrace steps down almost northern home. Alas! how often am praise of the Great Husbandman, under whose to the sea, each with contorted olives, of re-upon to compare the loveliness of nati direction, I trust, it was founded, and who cent planting, but thrifty growth; and inland the unworthiness of man: "where evstill continues to bless the honest endeavors in a few sheltered places, the orange and spect pleases, and only man is vite of those who feel an interest in its welfare, lemon are glowing among their wealth of has this fair land been the prey of ment of its inmates.

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend,"

Isle of Capri. Island of Capri, Italy, 2d mo. 22d, 1883.

Capri, where seven years ago I passed twelve But the sea! the blue sea! how it sparkles in Catholic restraint upon the minds are days. * * I am again permitted to breathe the sunshine,—how gently it laps the foot of have but eventuated in rendering this its pure air, and gaze upon its azure sea. * * yonder lofty rocks that rise like cathedral the most mendacious of men. "It It is still as lovely, its air is as soft, its sun spires from the depths! and there they have alone that needs the support of government. shine as grateful, its flowers as attractive as stood and looked upon other men and other Truth can stand by itself." This is of old, when we dwelt for a time among its times. A Roman tomb, it is said, rests upon wise maxim, would that it had been passed many weeks in Naples, where I had and through and beneath it small vessels can been mewed up too closely, and felt the need securely sail. These stately Farallioni, the of "fresh fields and pastures new," and sun- grey rock of the island and the adjacent coast of our ascent of Monte Solaro, but t shine. We had three weeks before, returned of the mainland, are tertiary limestone, the last justice would extend this seraw bey from a week at Sorrento, where I had con-raised above the sea in the convulsions or durance if not already thus prolonge tracted a cold, which had added to my dis-gradual changes, as it may be, that have over-climbed its height, 2000 feet, on donke comfort, and even here we were yesterday taken nature; yet though geologically of yes found it rough, precipitous, rude and obliged to keep house and exercise ourselves terday, what scenes have they witnessed even what dangerous; one only of our five onligent to keep noise and account of the grape-vine trimmings within the historic period, on the sea and on panions fell to the ground three severa and olive sticks into a blaze, upon a hearth the land around them! The traditions of happily unhurt. A new road cuts off 24 and beneath a chimney built before the art of nearly two thousand years still throw a pall up stairs, but 535 remain for those who and beneath a enimney built believe the art of heart of h the day was dreary the night was glorious, through the ages to be the theme of execration in the brink of the precipice that for the moon shed a silver radiance over fair tion. Whatever there may have been of evil, down nearly 1000 feet to the sea benea white buildings, over clive terraces, over the and there must have been much to color his from which Naples, Vesuvius, Sorren and rough, and we sit upon the talus, still far delights I find in my garden at Salor After alluding to the arrival of a female above the waves that kiss the shore and my cabbages, you would not ask my of their Heavenly Master's kingdom in a cognized, which here take the place of dande-contented with its lot, and leave I foreign land, certainly claims the sympathy lions, many large Euphorbias of remarkable. The morning has passed, we return aspect, of which I have observed six species, In reference to his sister being about to go a wild thyme clings in crevices of the rock to Westtown Boarding School, he writes: I above us, and purple anemones at more disgreat bouquet of wild flowers, brill hope it may prove a lasting blessing to her; tant points spread their bright petals more beautiful; numerous crocuses, the fit especially in the religious and moral improve-glossy foliage. How beautiful is a luxuriant ambition, and misguided attempts to orange orchard! the golden balls hanging in man to its purposes, and to force h rich clusters or covering the mass of bright paths it was believed would result green with their golden color. We have seen highest good! What a lesson its story them at Sorrento in all their glory, on a vast tinually telling us! What a sermon scale and impressive indeed, characteristic as the nnion of "Church and State" doe they are of scenes so unlike anything even petually preach. "Constraint makes by My Dear Cousins, -Again at Capri, lovely in our Atlantic land of rank productiveness, crites," surely not converts, and thee the summit of one, seemingly inaccessible,—and regarded in times past! how might we arrived here on the 20th inst., having the other is pierced and stands as a bridge, have profited by its peaceful application.

In the afternoon my A- havin

2d mo. 27th .- I would like to give a beauty of sea and land are spread be-A mighty precipice towered above m whose grey, grooved sides hung blue flowers and many a green growth, sible. The level of Anacapri was soon l, and we began to ascend the mouna way so rough, rocky and obscure, ir little guide often mistook his way l us by zagzag steppings, dangerous not necessary for me to live.' icult. Our poor donkeys had a hard written pages of detail.

J. S. L.

makers."—United Presbyterian.

Decision of Character.

We bend in homage before the ambitious spirit which reached the true sublime in the occasion: "It is necessary for me to go, it is

Revenge has produced wonderful examples the strongest form of such a character. this hard climb, until they could not of this unremitting constancy to a purpose. s further, and we were compelled to You may have read of a Spaniard, who, being or ourselves, and learn how hard was injured by another inhabitant of the same t. But we could not do without them town, resolved to destroy him: the other was stance, the late illustrious Howard. ain brought them into service, and apprised of this, and removed with the utmost hey carried us to the summit were too secreey, as he thought, to another town at a erop the tempting grass around and considerable distance, where however he had been shown only for a short time on particular em. I thought as they gazed upward not been more than a day or two, before he consists as decision of the third that their sade eyes were found that his enemy also was there. Here impetuosity; but by being unintermitted, it hing us for driving them to heights moved in the same manner to several parts had an equability of manner which scarcely here was nothing for their enjoyment of the kingdom, remote from each other; but appeared to exceed the tone of a calm conpatient, hard used neddies! The view he summit was extensive and truly deadly pursuer was near him. At last he thing like turbulence or agitation. It was The islands—Baiæ, Posallipi, Sorren-went to South America, where he had enjoyed the calmness of an intensity kept uniform by hore below; but, "the waves that on sociates calling themselves his friends, till his equal to a small or moderate one when swollen numbered pebblos idly chafed, could last means were exhausted, when they of to a torrent.

The descent was course treated him with neglect or contempt.

The moment of finishing his plans in delibsuccession of servile employments, in different to which he had consecrated his life.

ient wealth. I did not hear, or have forgotten the continued course of his life; but the final result was, that he more than recovered his lost possessions, and died an inveterate reply of Pompey to his friends, who dissuaded miser, worth £60,000. I have always recolhim from hazarding his life on a tempestuous lected this as a signal instance, though in an sea in order to be at Rome on an important unfortunate and ignoble direction, of decisive character, and of the extraordinary effect, which, according to general laws, belongs to

> But not less decision has been displayed by men of virtue. In this distinction no man ever exceeded, or ever will exceed, for in-

The energy of his determination was so great, that it, instead of being habitual, it had sa, Amalf, Salerno, Capri, lay basking his security but a very short time, before his he nature of the human mind forbidding it to have substine, a dreamy scene of love-relentless pursuer came up with him, and actual peace. We stood within a discomplished his purpose. 1 fort, once a stroughold of the British You may recollect the mention in one of our passion of his mind was a pitch of excitement e expulsion of Bonaparte—now a sad conversations, of a young man who wasted in and impulsion almost equal to the temporary From its battlements the works de-two or three years a large patrimony, in pro-extremes and paroxysms of common minds; almost sheer 2000 feet to the mala-fligate revels with a number of worthless as as a great river, in its customary state, is a foot and was painfully difficult; but Reduced to absolute want, he one day went eration, and commencing them in action, was eshed ourseless by the way, and stop-call upon the hermit brother Anselmo, end to his life; but wandering a while almost the amount of that bribe, in endounced to rected us with a winning smile, and unconsciously, he came to the brow of an emi justice, the amount of that bribe, in endounced to rected us with a winning smile, and unconsciously, he came to the brow of an emi justice, and unconsciously, he came to the brow of an emi justice, and commencing from its factoring, and commencing from its factoring, and commencing from its factoring, and commencing from its factoring fro his white wine before us. Passing nence which overlooked what were lately his inactive after their final adjustment. The law he lofty platform in front, that com-a fine view of the saddle of Capri and of which he sprang from the ground with a determination of his feelings toward the main age below, the distant forts and villa vehement exulting emotion. He had formed object. The importance of this object held aros of Tiberius on the coast. Bidding his resolution, which was that all these estates his faculties in a state of determination which to our bost we essayed the further should be his again; he had formed his plan was too rigid to be affected by lighter intertoo, which he instantly began to execute. He ests, and on which therefore the beauties of the be ourse now dry, we reached our don- the very first opportunity, of however humble leisure feeling which he could spare to be dieady drawn up for remounting, and a kind, to gain any money, though it were verted among the innumerable varieties of the nat refreshed, I hoped. Where not too ever so despicable a trifle, and resolved abso-extensive scene which he traversed; his suband precipitous, the mountain is ter-littly not to spend, if he could help it, a far-rith sustaining walls, and vines in the thing of whatsoever he might obtain. The cerraces and olives in the upper are first thing that drew his attention was a heap grand one. There have not been wanting nt. Wheat and lupines are also grown of coals shot out of carts on the pavement be-trivial minds, to mark this as a fault in his Much dark soil has gathered or fore a house. He offered himself to shovel or character. But the mere men of taste ought ught in the hollows of the limestone, wheel them into the place where they were to be silent respecting such a man as Howard; mountain side, but whence derived to be laid, and was employed. He received a he is above their sphere of judgment. The inobvious, but certainly, I thought, not few pence for the labor; and then, in pursu-visible spirits, who fulfil their commission of edecay of the underlying rock. It is ance of the saving part of his plan, requested philanthropy among mortals, do not care ree of improvement made available by some small gratuity of meat and drink, which about pictures, statues, and sumptuous build, y peasants who have borne vast quantum was given him. He then looked out for the lings; and no more did he, when the time in their heads to the terraces below; next thing that might chance to offer; and which he must have inspected and admired he pabulum of growths for the life of went, with indefatigable industry, through a them would have been taken from the work cached home in time for dinner, with places, of longer and shorter duration, still His attention was so strongly and tenaciously ther incident. What a meagre sketch scrupulously avoiding, as far as possible, the fixed on his object, that even at the greatest condensed from my original eight expense of a penny. He promptly seized distance, as the Egyptian pyramids to travelevery opportunity which could advance his lers, it appeared to him with a luminous disdesign, without regarding the meanness of octune these as if it had been nigh, and beguiled cupation or appearance. By this method be the toilsome length of labor and enterprise by e is inestimable blessing in a cheerful had gained, after a considerable time, money which he was to reach it. So conspicuous When the soul throws its windows enough to purchase, in order to sell again a was it before him, that not a step deviated cen, letting in the sunshine and pre-few cattle, of which he had taken pains to un-from the direction, and every movement and to all who see it the evidence of its derstand the value. He speedily but cau-every day was an approximation. As his s, it is not only happy, but it has an tiously turned his first gains into second admethod referred every thing he did and kable power of doing good. To all the vantages; retained without a single deviation thought to the end, and as his exertion did not catitudes may be added, "Blessed are his extreme parsimony; and thus advanced relax for a moment, he made the trial, so selby degrees into larger transactions and incip-dom made, what is the utmost effect which may be granted to the last possible efforts of a had no lack,' even as it was with the Israelites human agent: and therefore what he did not of old. For the brethren that were wise and accomplish, he might conclude to be placed be-eminent, who had received much from the yond the sphere of mortal activity, and calmly Lord, behold there was so much the more releave to the immediate disposal of Provi-quired of them; so that, of all they had, they ducing (if I did not hesitate to introduce in my own part, I, who was so little in mine any connexion with merely human instances) own eyes, and so mean and contemptible in the example of Him who said, "I must be the eyes of others, had no cause to complain; about my Father's business. My meat and for though it was often that I knew not what drink is to do the will of Him that sent me, I should say when I went into a meeting and to finish his work. I have a baptism to yet even at such a time hath the Lord been be baptized with, and how am I straitened till pleased to give me his word so plentifully, it be accomplished!"-John Foster.

For "The Friend."

William Caton's Ministry.

that day were more diligent in the duty of and yet had plenty and fulness, though I was this sacred office, visiting most parts of Eng- often daily at meetings, and not only so, but land, and many places divers times, travelling in the evenings also, the Lord giving a fresh chiefly or altogether on foot, often in the supply always out of that gospel treasury depth of winter; his ministry doubtless carry- which affords both new and old. ing with it its own evidence in the hearts of "Now these things I rehearse, not for my his hearers, as he writes that "the word of own praise; but do say 'Not unto me; not unto the Lord grew mightily, and many were me (that have nothing but what I have readded to the faith.'

may serve to illustrate that state of entire I can truly say that which I received of Him dependence and emptiness, into which gospel I delivered unto the people; and did much reministers must be brought, before they can joice in the Lord, notwithstanding my great truly witness the Lord to be unto them travails and sufferings; all which through large and precious meetings I had in the coun- parison of the power and presence of the try, and the Lord was very much with me, Almighty, which did so sweetly and eminently who furnished me plentcously with his word accompany me in those days. and power; insomuch that I stood admiring, at sundry times, from whence I had that fulness. And it was not [admired at] by me only, but by many more, who looking with the eye of reason upon my earthly tabernacle or outward man, could not expect any great thing from me, being then but about twenty years of age; neither had I ever been in much profession, until I was convinced of the Truth of God. Yet plenty of heavenly things the Lord was pleased to open in me, and through me, to the end that I might communicate the same to the multitude, which sometimes being very great, I was ready to say within myself, Where shall I have wherewithal to satisfy all these.' And when I looked out to my own weakness and insufficency, as of myself, I was ready to faint within me; but when I looked only at the Lord, and put my confidence entirely in Him, I was strong and courageous. For the Lord showed me this, by his eternal light, upon a time when I was bemoaning my own weakness, and groaning under a sense of the weight of the burden of the service and work of the Lord; saying or thinking within myself. Oh, such and such (meaning the ablest and wisest of the brethren) are so and so fitted and furnished, that they need not care what service they are called nnto. But as for me, I am so simple, I am so weak, and I never have anything beforehand, neither do scarce ever know when I go into a meeting of several hundreds, what I shall say, or whether any thing or nothing. And even when I was full of those and such like reasonings, the Lord showed me, I say, how 'they that had much, had nothing over, and they that had little had nothing over, but what they were to em-This would be the proper place for intro-ploy in the work and service of God. As for that through Him I was enabled to speak two or three, yea, sometimes four hours to the congregation, with little or no intermission. And often it hath been with me, that as I About the year 1655, being then not more than eighteen years of age, William Caton speak in a meeting, neither could I remember began his career as a minister. Few even in after the meeting what I had spoken in it;

"a door of utterance."

ceived) be the praise, but unto the Lord alone, His experience in the work of the ministry who is the giver of every good and perfect gift "mouth and wisdom," and to open for them Him were made easy to me, neither were they much to me, with all the dangers and perils In speaking of his ministry he says: "Many I went through both by sea and land, in com-

FLOWERS.

Selected.

Selected.

With what a lavish hand God beautifies the earth, When everywhere, all o'er the land, Sweet flowers are peeping forth!

Down by the babbling brook, Up in the silent hills, The glen, the tower, the shady nook, Their breath with fragrance fills.

They creep along the hedge, They climb the rugged height, And leaning o'er the water's edge Blush in their own sweet light.

They seem to breathe and talk,
They pour into my ear,
Where'er I look, where'er I walk, A music soft and clear.

They have no pride of birth, No choice of royal bower; The humblest, lowliest spot on earth, May claim the fairest flower.

TRUST IN PROVIDENCE.

On a bridge I was standing one morning, And watching the current pass by, When suddenly into the water There fell an unfortunate fly.

The fishes that swam to the surface, Were looking for something to eat, And I thought that the hapless young insect Would surely afford them a treat.

"Poor thing!" I exclaimed with compassion, "Thy trials and dangers abound," For if thou escap'st being eaten, Thou canst not escape being drown'd.

No sooner the sentence was spoken, Than, lo! like an angel of love, I raw, to the waters beneath me, A leaflet descend from above.

It glided serene on the streamlet, Twas an ark to the poor little fly; Which, soon to the land reascending, Spread its wings in the breezes to dry.

Oh! sweet was the truth that was whisper That mortals should never despair; For He who takes care of an insect, Much more for his children will care.

And though to our short-sighted vision, * No way of escape may appear; Let us trust; for when least we expect it, The help of our Father is near.

THE MOTHER HEART.

I am cutting papers to-day, mother, (Papers to cover a shelf,) And saving out bits for my scrap book; But unlike my former self, With the thoughts that are grand and no And the lines the poet sings, I am saving some very simple And decidedly childlike things.

For throned in her chair beside me, Sits the wee one, dainty and sweet, And I trust in the days that are coming She will care these lines to repeat, I think that, in planning her life-work, The same fair future I see Which you saw in the long ago, mother, When you planned and prayed about n

I long to come home at the twilight, And sitting down by your feet, Listen again to the Bible tales You used long ago to repeat-Of Adam, and Eve, and Abel; Of Noah, who heard and obeyed; Of Ahraham, Isaac and Jacob, With the faith and the love they displa

There was Joseph sold into Egypt, And Moses before the king And David, who slew Goliath With a little stone in his sling; There was Samuel called at night-time, And Jonah cast in the deep, And many a dream and vision Of prophets and kings asleep.

Then there was the wonderful story Of the Child in a manger bed, Who marked the pathway to glory With tears and blood that He shed. Dear mother, that "old, old story" Is the light of my life to me,
And I want to train up my children
To be all He would have them be.

A Thousand Children .-- An old m lately died in Vienna, whose name d to be chronicled in all lands for the s goodness of his life. Ferdinand Re been known in his own city as the " of the Orphans" for nearly half a c He was a man of considerable means, happily married, but it was a great p him and his wife that they continued childless. Herr Reidt said to his wife, we are not to have children of our or we not be parents to some of those w fatherless and motherless?" He was of action, and began at once to carry ception into practice. He commence taking fatherly charge of two or three o but his zeal and repute increased to extent that, at the time of his death, legal guardian of more than a thousand less children. Those whom he ado this manner were not fitfully taken then let drop, but he kept consciention and ward over them from their early at he is departed, however, every one of his singular life, its quietness and idelity to his self-imposed obligations, to perfection. nn by asking as a favor to be accepted honorary guardian" of two or three , serving without fee or reward, and ng, which he had thus taken up for d by many of his fellow-eitizens as a fficial occupation, which he was bound —London Globe.

For " The Friend,"

Our Late Yearly Meeting.

deep feelings of gratitude for the unmercies vouchsafed to us during the sittings of the late Yearly Meeting, y members, it is apprehended, return at the time of their next annual assembling.

respective homes after its solemn

There are probably many who were presen Sixth-day last.

inusually large attendance, the unaof judgment in regard to the various nt subjects considered, as well as the emnity that prevailed, were all causes and reverent thankfulness; may they in grateful remembrance by all!

w of the probably increased attend-future, both by our own members, as those from more distant places, the y, if not the necessity, of providing invenient and comfortable lodging forcing itself on the attention of many . It is apprehended that some are evented from attending Yearly Meeto would gladly do so, if they knew of e accommodated with food and lodgmoderate cost. pening, during the late Yearly Meet-temporary home on a limited scale, ep in the right direction. The kind d liberality extended to it by a few of Philadelphia, is much to be com-, and it is believed if a larger establishthe kind could be provided by next Meeting, by some official department ty, conducted in a Society capacity, ated near the meeting-house, where s could be had at a moderate cost, it fford positive relief to very many who attend the Yearly Meeting, but who ve no place to look to for shelter durittings. It is to be hoped that some y open in the minds of Friends who uthority, to consider the subject in all ings, and take such action as may the relief of many country members.

ever sought fame or publicity, and and by these we shall be judged. He does not call to service, the what, the where, and when! credit to himself for his devotion to despise the day of small things; the bruised ho had no natural claim upon him. reed, the smoking flax, the grain of mustardseed, the little leaven :- over these small beginnings He watches with patient and graless energy, its conscientiousness and cious care, till by little and little they attain

> For "The Friend." Gather up the Fragments.

A valued friend has forwarded for insertion satisfaction, as he put it, was in time in "The Friend," the following notice of a remarkable communication of Thomas Evans in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of 1867. It may those superficial ideas of religion which tend to draw the attention of people away from the work of Christ in their hearts; for though his life was prolonged till the 5th month of the following year, he was confined at home by disease, and unable to meet with his friends

> There are probably many who were present on that memorable occasion who remember the holy authority and divine power which accompanied this testimony, under which a willingness was wrought in the mind to follow the Saviour whithersoever He might lead even if that should be, as in days of old, to suffer persecution for his sake.

When the late Samuel Cope was near the people, but it would be by submission to the end of his long life, passed in the bosom of our leadings and guidance of Him whose is the Society, and with the opportunity of listening to many of the most eminent preachers who have been raised up amongst us in the present century, he was asked, what particular sermon had left on his mind the strongest impression, as to the degree of the Divine anointing and authority which was manifested ce near the meeting-house, where they by it. His reply indicated, that this communi- body in the minute the substance of the testication of Thomas Evans, bore the most impressive evidence of being "in the demonstration of the Spirit and with power.'

the ministry of our worthy friend Thomas Evans, who, though his outward tabernacle is frail and tremulous, yet is a strong man in the of 1867 appear to be those which more es-Lord. His communication followed the reading and answering of the first three Queries. In the course of which he spoke much of there being a great deal of what might be termed surface religion in these days, not only amongst other societies, but it was creeping into our own. We could hear flourishing accounts of other societies, how prosperous they were, and how much they were doing, and ars the slightest deviation from the Christ who took it upon themselves to teach companions. ids fair to rise by gradual but certain others. These do plead in excuse that our There are influences operating in the pre-til their marriage, or their start in things. He looks at motives more than at did they first endure, nor did they presume to e at the close of their apprenticeship, actions; at thoughts more than at words; go in their own wills, but they felt a distinct

> In perusing the writings of Geo. Fox, we might see he often makes use of this language; -'I was moved;' to do so and so, and Wm. Penn said 'we were changed men ourselves before we went about to change others.' And the apostle said 'That which we have heard. which we have seen, which we have looked upon with our eyes, and our hands have handled of the word of life, that declare we unto you.' And much more to show that all our efforts in our own will, and by the strength of our intellectual faculties would be of no avail. How was it with Leigh Richmond? a be regarded as his dying testimony against minister in the Episcopalian Society. He was at length favored with a powerful visitation from on High and humbled in dust, saying he must go back and begin at the beginning. How was it with Cowper's brother? On a bed of sickness be was brought to a like acknowledgment. In both instances they were brought to see the utter insufficiency of themselves by all their scholastic attainments to make themselves acceptable and true ministers of the gospel, &c., with much more, accompanied with life and authority.

Many wanted us to be an aggressive people, to go forward and gain converts and do a great deal and make a show. He believed the time was coming when we would be an aggressive cause, and not in the will of man."

A recent letter from a friend states, that Thomas Evans was one of the committee named in 1867 to draft a minute on the state of the Society; and that he was urged by one of the other members of the committee to emmony delivered by him-though such an excroise, partaking so largely of the character of gospel ministry, would seem much less striking when put in words. The writer of ed by a few Friends, afforded accomn to quite a number of this class, and ing of the Yearly Meeting, with a remarkabefore or since, listened to such a stirring and ble overshadowing of Divine Goodness, under profoundly solemn and reaching communica-

> The following extracts from the minutes pecially refer to the concern expressed by Thomas Evans.

"We cannot doubt that the Lord has preserved within the professing Church a noble band of witnesses to the spirituality of the Gospel and the transforming power of his grace. These, whatever their profession, and whether conspicuous in good works or more while he believed there were many amongst obscure, are the true Israel of God whose eirthem who clearly saw and mourned over such cumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit a superficial religion, yet, the great tendency and not in the letter, whose praise is not of was, to bring the people to a literal and head men but of God. But there is abundant eviknowledge merely; that which is obtained by dence that a large portion of those who claim can be no appearance more hopeful the exercise of the intellectual faculties, with the name of Christians, are satisfied with an mising in childhood and youth, than out experiencing that change of heart which outside performance of rites and ceremonies, rness of conscience respecting small it is nesessary for all to experience for them- and substitute obedience to the moral law and A child who is never inclined to plead selves. There is no other way to come to works of their own righteousness for submisfor what is known to be wrong, by Christ but by the Cross. Said there were sion to the crucifying power of the cross of "Is it not a little thing?" who resists many who had need to be themselves in Christ, and walking in that strait and narrow roper thought, forbids a basty word, structed in the rudiments of the doctrine of way in which alone is found the flock of his true excellence. But whatever may early friends were very active in going up and sent day, both within and without the pale of view of the subject, it is certain that down, preaching and doing good, &c. But our Society, the tendency of which is to draw es not, in any sense, contemn small what preparatory tribulations and exercises the members from the simplicity and spiritfaithful and consistent support of the principles and testimonies of the gospel as always held by us, into a nearer conformity to the religion, the worship, and ways of the world. These influences are apparent in the same dis-ing out what, and when, and where; and He breaks in upon our enjoyment of Go position to shun the daily self-denial and cross-bearing belonging to the Christian; in the effort to reduce religion very much to a formal and intellectual work, which the unaided powers of man may originate or promote; to smooth and widen the path to salvation, so as to make it more easy and attractive to the tastes and inclinations of the unregenerate mind; and to substitute works of a benevolent or ostensibly religious character, for lowly watchful waiting, in silent introversion, at the feet of Jesus, to be taught of Him, in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, and who only can savingly instruct in the things which belong to the soul's peace.

Minds which have been favored with the precious, tendering visitations of the Lord's Spirit; have been turned from the vanities of judgment and burning, to purity from the pollution of sin, and to create them new creatures in Christ Jesus, may, it is to be feared, have had their attention diverted from this indispensable work in themselves, to their serious injury, by being persuaded that it is necessary they should at once become active in underand withered by being urged into performrequisite preparation, and which were mainly attributable to the unsanctified activity of the natural will.

Christ's cause, and unless it watches diligently I intend to spend it now. unto prayer, in the Light of the Lord, the will of man prompts this desire into unbidden over New England, in 1780, and when it was activity; takes pleasure in it; gradually dims proposed that the Legislature of Connecticut the spiritual vision, and leads to the substitu-should adjourn because they thought the Day tion of these formal services, for the patient of Judgment was approaching, the memorable abiding under the heart-changing and crucifying work of the Holy Spirit in the soul, which "If the Day of Judgment is not approaching, is in danger of settling down at ease in them. there is no reason for adjournment; and if it We should ever bear in mind the words of our is, I choose to be found doing my duty, so dear Lord, "Without me ye can do nothing;" and also that we are told such "as kindle a the pungent preaching of John, the soldiers, fire, compass themselves about with sparks, roused by his powerful appeals, came to ask, walk in the light of their fire, and in the sparks "And what shall we do?" he said unto them, that they have kindled, shall have this of the "Do violence to no man, neither accuse any Lord's hand; that they shall lie down in sor-falsely, and be content with your wages.

for all our dear Friends, and especially for the edly taught us. For the common avocations 'wrongness' by the greater or less de younger class, we tenderly desire that we may and duties of every-day life are all designed prominent according to its environment. all diligently watch against these plausible to be, and to a right spirit as truly may be, bricks were eminently pretentious and and delusive tendencies, and strive to dwell the gate of heaven as the sanctuary itself. All until some one reared a stone front, an much inward with Christ Jesus, in reverent, of them are intended to be, and all in fact are the same ruling, man is well satisfied silent retirement from the many alluring means of grace; that is, they are means for de himself until he is set down among at voices that are abroad, seeking above all to veloping and exercising our Christian graces, Thus much I reasoned last Sabbath mor be taught of Him who is the only saving in the practice of which we gain the discipline and contritely added my separate sins, w Teacher, and who will not fail to give true and training that form us to a high and holy bad accumulated to an amazing sum. peace and rest to all who come to Him, take character, and fit us for duty and for heaven, collected wickedness stood out in star is meek and lowly of heart.

ried on; all the preparatory baptisms of the jug, the right ordering of our property, or meeting, which I found in the north et nality of our christian profession, and from a Holy Spirit and of fire will be endured; and farm, or merchandise, our family or hor when the period arrives in which the Lord or business eares, each of these ma sees meet that any should engage in more means of access to God and of faithful public or active service, his call and command ing Him. So that a busy life, instead o will be distinctly and intelligibly heard, point- an irreligious life, or one that nece will vouchsafe his own wisdom and strength give us nearer access to, and therefore and cause his blessing to rest upon it; and The laborer toiling at his daily ta without these, all our efforts to advance his mother diligently training up her chile cause must prove unavailing.

Hat-honor .- I was once myself in France sional man in his office, the farmer on his before I professed the communion I am now or the servant in his daily duties, eac of) set upon about eleven at night, as I was not only find a sphere for the exercis walking to my lodging, by a person that way-laid me, with his naked sword in his hand, ness and contentment and charity an who demanded satisfaction of me for taking denial, but through these, for that ner no notice of him, at a time when he civilly to and joy in God, which only the goo saluted me with his hat; though the truth faithful servant may expect, or can fin was, I saw him not when he did it. I will truly spiritual life does not mean a life suppose he had killed me, for he made several emption from common and every day of passes at me; or I in my defence had killed but it does mean the discharge of thosed him, when I disarmed him; I ask any man of whether they are what we call sacred o understanding or conscience, if the whole ular, with a right aim, and in a holy Spirit; have been turned from the vanities of the world to seek the durable riches and right-ceremony were worth the life of a man, conhact which is the spirit that companies of heaven, and in inward, silent prossistering the dignity of the nature, and the anywhere find and serve and enjoy God. tration to bear the operation of the Spirit of importance of the life of man, both with re-that is faithful in that which is least, w spect to God his Creator, himself, and the faithful also in much."-Nat. Baptist. benefit of civil society .- W. Penn.

Serving God in our Daily Duties .- The an- The Holy Spirit is the efficient agent i ecdote is told of the excellent Ceeil, that call-regeneration of lost men. No masterly ing one day, to see one of his parishioners, a quence, no exhaustive learning can sublacksmith, who was diligently at work in his his place. "Paul may plant and Ar takings professedly designed to promote the shop, the latter began to apologize for his ap water, but God giveth the increase. cause of religion; while some who may be a pearance, and that he was not suitably dressed consolidation of all human agencies is little further advanced, have been dwarfed to receive his pastor, when Cecil pleasantly, paratively inoperative in the work of a but seriously stopped his apologies by saying, renewal and uplift to spiritual life. It is and withered by being arged into period and all of "May the Lord, when He comes, find me, as by might, nor by power, but by My 8 them; for which the Master had not called "May the Lord, when He comes, find me, as by might, nor by power, but by My 8 them; for which they had not undergone the I find you, diligent and busy with your appro-saith the Lord." This conclusion is fi priate work.'

And when a lady once said to Wesley, "Suppose you knew you were to die at two o'elock The awakened mind is readily influenced to-morrow night, how would you spend the the Spirit of God, is the essential of such by the desire to be doing something for intervening time?" he replied, "Why, just as We are to concern ourselves less about

> And so when the eelebrated dark-day came reply of good old Abraham Davenport, was, bring in the candles!" And so when, under

Serving God in the daily occupations of life; In the feeling of Christian love and interest this is the lesson, in all these cases, so point in this world, and everything is relative his yoke upon them, and learn of Him, who is meek and lowly of heart.

Thus, the work of santification will be carpractise it. Our trade, or profession, or callmost peculiar sect, I repaired to their plant.

taking the oversight of her househol merchant in his counting-house, the

The Holy Spirit God's Agent in Salvati significance to all who are endeavoring to men into a better life. Not the elaborate of our efforts, but the presence and pow intellectual greatness and more about fitness to be instruments, through which with which the divine power can work.

The coarsest reed that trembles in the marsh If heaven select it for its instrument, May shed celestial music on the breeze As clearly as the pipe whose golden tip Befits the lip of Phœbus.

> For "The Frie Religious Items, &c.

Dunkards.—The St. Louis Times-Dem contains the following sprightly letter, g some account of the Dunkards, and wi by a fashionable woman of that city wh attended one of their meetings.

"Says Carlisle, 'All goes by approxim

ous resemblance to that which the have portrayed to us as that of the Mary, the purest face ever worn by osolutely free from a tracing of guile. stringent laws than did this Dunkard. perfectly fascinated and dwelt long e absolute beauty of that faultless face, g meanwhile lest be should speak, and uman, destroy the illusion. The woear simple white caps, their dress plain naker degree, no ruffles, no puffs, nor test hint of a shirr. The simplicity e garments lent a happy air of purity ron and maid. The preacher exd their severe doctrines, with a plain-

t to be misunderstood. wonderfully insignificant, as I sat bein my Sunday clothes, which before ad viewed with such comfortable satis- the deficiencies which are apparent. was then an accusing eye. Thus you incing and theatres mainly.

carned. They are a wealthy people, timony to bear against pride and vanity. to erect a church here shortly. They With thankfulness it may be said that unt belongs exclusively to men.

Deputies has passed a bill permitting the substitution of affirmation for the oath, when

THE FRIEND.

FOURTH MONTH 28, 1883.

PHILADELPHIA YEARLY MEETING.

On Third-day (4th mo. 17th) the Queries ked exceedingly humble. In my ex- and answers were read. In deliberating on held as usual in the morning. In the aftere it was the only instance wherein I the condition of things amongst us, as thus noon, the Report of the Committee in charge logance of vesture at a discount. Un-brought to view, the meeting was dipped into of the Westfown Boarding School was read. tely I had removed my fur coat on en- much religious exercise, under the pressure It was an interesting document, and repreand had thus exposed my partnership of which many of those present, both of our sented the institution to be in a prosperous nal sin, by sundry bits of ribbon and own members and of visitors from other condition. The warm interest felt in this Each jet bead, which on my outstart. Yearly Meetings, labored for the removal of nursery of our Yearly Meeting had been manig apparel, he condemned worldly pleas freminded that true religion had ever led its it funds for the purpose should be voluntarily unusual amount of play-going lately, these subjects is an inlet to the spirit of world- Committee. that moment my opera gloves were liness which, if allowed to spread, will eat out y cooled. These transitions of thought the life of religion. The practices of Friends gave the number of children of school age as Beondemning, yet one cannot say but in these matters were not the result of any $44, or full berating by a righteous mann is bene- formal agreement or conclusions of the foundition in The sensations of being taken to task ers of the Society, but naturally gree out of Society. very singular in this easy day of liberal the fundamental principle of the Light of t, I was forced to transcribe. Passing Christ, in the heart of man, which William its members to abstain from the use of all nt where I felt he preached directly at Penn terms the root of our doctrines. This beverages which could intoxicate. I found much meritorious worth in led our early members, as it always leads its he approached with friendly mien, and their words and actions, and gave them a tes-

With thankfulness it may be said that the y, they prepare 'for the Lord's Supper and sufferings in the flesh, and to the work of Meeting.

n. They are the Brethren, and are of a good, substantial meal,' around which all his Spirit in the heart of man as the means by nkard school; their singular customs assemble as in one family. Before eating the which we must be saved. It proclaims the one lightly until, seated in their midst, Biblical ceremony of washing the feet is gone doctrine, that while we are reconciled to God uence is felt of their honesty, sincerity through with. After the Supper, the bread by the death of his Son, we are to be saved by and the cup is blessed and partaken of. Leav- His life-the life of Christ inwardly revealed. men wear full beards, and long hair ing this pious people, one can but feel their It points out, how the fundamental doctrine in the middle, thrust back of the ears presence has a purifying influence within this of the Light of Christ as God's gift for man's cring the collar. One face struck me tainted town. The reflecting mind is amazed salvation, was the root from which our man-. Such an one I never before saw, or that with so much iniquitous dust floating ner of worship and other distinguishing pracg that approached it. It bore a most upon the air, as is blown about these modern tices flow; - and also how a departure from days, they should hold themselves so spotless. this has led to corresponding departures in Their self-control and self-denial is worthy of practice which, if unchecked, would destroy a Spartan, and Lyeurgus could not make more the character of our religious meetings.

A solemn and comfortable feeling attended Judicial Oaths .- The Spanish Chamber of the reading of the document; and the revival in its pages of many of the clear testimonies borne by our early members to the truth was refreshing. It was very largely united with, and without a dissenting voice directed to be published and circulated.

It is a source of great satisfaction that the Yearly Meeting of Philadelphia has thus once more re-affirmed in unequivocal language, its adherence to those doctrines and testimonies, for which it has contended during many

On Fifth-day, meetings for worship were fested during the year by several donations Among other subjects that claimed attend to its funds-$16,000 having been received before, how materially the standpoint, tion cautions were extended against a super- from one Friend, since deceased, and several the variance of visual rays, alters the stitious removal of the hat on entering places other sums from others. The Committee the original object. I felt profound for worship, or approaching a corpse at the were desirous of introducing several improveilness that my friendly gloves covered time of funeral, and against the use of plural ments in the heating, ventilating and other gs, when the preacher hit upon the language to one person. The spiritual dwarf-arrangements, for which the present building of jewels. I tucked my bracelets, unlishness which must ever result from a want (erected nearly 90 years ago) was not thought sleeves, and longed to take out my of full obedience to the convictions of the to be adapted, and they asked the permission s. Such a poor, vain peacock was I. Spirit of Truth, was adverted to; and we were of the Yearly Meeting to erect new buildings, followers into plainness and simplicity. A subscribed. This permission was given, and attractions have been such that I have disregard of the testimonies of our Society on the whole subject left in the charge of the The Reports from the Quarterly Meetings

844, of whom 177 were receiving their education in schools not taught by members of our

The Yearly Meeting again recommended to

On Sixth-day the meeting closed. The erds of this simple man. At close of obedient children, into watchfulness over all committee appointed one year ago to visit the meetings and members made their report. They had been industriously employed, all of the meetings had been visited, many of them to contributions, have no paid ministry. good presence of the Lord was evident in the several times, and portions of the committee seven serving a congregation. They assembly, tendering the hearts of some; and, had gone into the greater part of our families. go to war, and let the law alone, never it may be hoped, raising fresh desires to walk They had found a body of men and women oath, recognize no secret organiza in prightly and consistently before Him.

In a prohibitionists. They practise itation of the 'holy kiss,' and live the reading and consideration of an Adrice in the 'holy kiss,' and live dress prepared by the Meeting for Sufferings, there is reason to believe a renewed visitation of the quotation, 'Don't pull' other people's houses; build a better setting forth several of the leading doctrines of Divine love is operating. They had felt invite them over. The women do which have ever been held by the Society of that as to a middle aged class, much loss had it the hair, nor wear hats, which article Friends, bearing a renewed testimony against been sustained both by individuals and the the departures in principle and in practice Church, from a want of more full obedience young girl was recently expelled for which have erept into our Society, and ex- to the Divine requirings, which had retarded g a hat; they neither wear gold, and tending cautions against becoming infected the spiritual growth of many. The com-nequally pianos and fast horses. The with those errors. This essay bears a clear testimony to Christ and their report directed to be printed in the Communion celebration is peculiarly This essay bears a clear testimony to Christ and their report directed to be printed in the wn. Following the New Testament as the Author of our salvation, to his coming Extracts from the Minutes of the Yearly ting of the Yearly Meeting to consider the popular vote. proper course to be pursued where individuals are brought under convincement of our principles, and desire to be received into membership, whose residence is remote from any meeting of Friends. This committee proposed the adoption of a rule of Discipline, authorizing Monthly Meetings to act on such applications in the same manner as if they resided within the usual limits of such meetings, which was accordingly done.

The reading of a memorial for our beloved friend, Elizabeth Stroud, of Wilmington, Del., brought a precious covering of solemnity over the meeting.

A Friend from another Yearly Meeting, who was in attendance, proposed a visit to the women's meeting. Though sympathy was felt for him, the way did not open with that clearness which is desirable in such cases.

This sitting, as well as those which preceded it, was favored with a precious covering of solemn and tender feeling, drawing the hearts of those present nearer unto each other -and under this feeling the meeting closed.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- The little towns of Wesson and Beauregard, in Mississippi, were devastated by a tor-nado about four o'clock on First-day afternoon last. Twenty-seven houses in Wesson were demolished, while the whole of Beauregard was destroyed. At Wesson, according to the latest reports, 13 persons were killed and 60 injured; at Beauregard the killed numbered 23, the injured 90. The town of Tillman, on the Vicksburg and Meridian Bailroad, was also destroyed, and several persons killed and injured there. The tornado passed near Aberdeen in the same State, killing 8 persons and injuring about 50. It also swept through lower Georgia, killing, according to one estimate, 25 persons in that State. A terrific gale struck West Point, Mississippi, State. A terrific gale struck West Point, Mississippi, at 12.20 on the same afternoon. It was accompanied "torrents of rain and the largest hail ever seen there. The Court House, two hotels, Flanagan Hall and several other buildings were unroofed and otherwise damaged, but no persons were killed.

According to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Captain James B. Eads, projector of the ship railway across the inst. for the United States and Canada, carried nearly Isthmus of Tehnantepec, asserts that "the work is being vigorously prosecuted, and that the massive railroad will be finished long before De Lesseps' Panama Canal is opened."

An epidemic of glanders has prevailed among the horses in Whiteside and Carroll counties, Illinois. the latter county, a man and his son contracted the disease and died.

Rain fell throughout California last week. An average wheat crop is now believed to be ensured in every part of that State. The seeding of wheat in Dakota is about finished. Contrary to expectation, the winter wheat crop in Wisconsin promises to be the largest for wheneverly in viscous promises to be the largest for lude, themselves with the idea that Italy would ever beyond years.

The New York Tribune publishes several columns of Agriculture.

The New York Tribune publishes several columns of Agriculture.

The New York Tribune publishes several columns of Agriculture.

The Tribune publishes several columns of Agriculture.

The Tribune publishes several columns of the serious properties of gipteen prominent Nihilists ended it serious the condition of the winter wheat crop. They should be serious the tribune of the condition of the winter wheat crop.

They the tribune publishes several columns of the serious properties of the serious properties of the serious the condition of the winter wheat crop. They should be a serious to the serious properties of the serious propertie founded. In actual results, however, it is too early yet to do more than give indications.

slight expense electricity could be used as a motive soldiers. power, not merely to propel street cars, but to run the most complicated kind of machinery." The energy stored in a box a cubic foot large, he said, could take a car full of passengers from one end of New York city to the other. He claimed that "the contrivance might exceed in value the invention of the telephone, as the Porto Negro in Congo, after some resistance on the secret of applying electricity as a motive power has part of the natives. hitherto been sought in vain.

In the Senate of Connecticut, the prohibitory Constitutional amendment was defeated for lack of a twothirds vote in the affirmative.

The Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment was defeated on the 20th in the House of Representatives at tion has occurred in this city. Two thous Harrisburg—yeas 27, nays 151.

The City Council of Minneapolis has passed an ordinance raising saloon licenses from $100 to $1500. The deaths in this city last week numbered 38 which was 30 less than during the previous week, and 3 less than during the corresponding period of last year. Of the foregoing, 199 were males, and 188 females: 34 died of consumption; 46 of pneumonia; 17 of old age; 15 of diplhteria; 12 of croup, and 10 of scarlet fever

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103½; 3½'s, 103; 4½'s, 113½; s, 119½; currency 6's 129 to 132.

Cotton continues dull, but prices were unchanged.

Sales of middlings are reported at 10% a 10% cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.—Standard white, $8\frac{1}{8}$ a $8\frac{1}{8}$ cts. for export, and $9\frac{1}{8}$ a $9\frac{1}{4}$ cts. per gallon for home use. Flour is in good request at full prices, Sales of 3300 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at \$5.50 a \$6.50 Pennsylvania family at \$5 a \$5.12½; western do. at \$5.25 a \$6.20, and patents at \$6.25 a \$7.50. Rye flour

Grain.—Wheat was in fair demand, and 1 cent per bushel higher. Sales of 6600 bushels red, in car lots at $1.17 a $1.25. Rye is nominal at 67 ets. Corn is in fair demand and higher. Sales of 11,000 bushels in ear lots, at 63 a 68 cts. Oats are quiet. Sales of 9500 bushels, in car lots, at 53 a 57 cts.

Beef cattle were a fraction lower: 3000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 51 a 72 cts. per lb. the latter rate for extra.

Sheep were dull and lower: 15,000 head sold at the different yards at 3½ a 6 cts., for clipped, and 4½ a 75 cts. for wool sheep. Lambs sold at $4 a $7 per head. Hogs were in fair demand, and prices were steady: 2400 head sold at the different yards at 10½ a 11¼ cts.

per pound, as to condition. Foreign.-Daniel Curley, one of the Phoenix Park conspirators, has been convicted and sentenced to be

The Pall Mull Gazette says the evidence that the dynamite plots now under investigation were hatched in New York is as clear as the proof the foreign police possessed twenty-five years ago that Mazzini's plots against Italy were hatched in England, and it says the extradition of Rossa from the United States is about as likely as Mazzini's was from England. Steamers which sailed from Liverpool on the 19th three thousand emigrants.

It is stated that the object of the alliance between Germany, Austria and Italy, is to secure the isolation of France in order to effect a simultaneous disarmament which Prince Bismarck intends to propose at a European Congress.

During a discussion in the Italian Chamber of Deputies on the 19th inst., on the subject of tobacco culture, Magliani, Minister of Finance, declared that the Government firmly intended to encourage the home cultivation of that plant, and would grant large bounties for the purpose; but the people, he said, must not deat Odessa previous to the time fixed for the coronation of the Czar. Twenty persons will be arraigned on the to do more using the indications.

Frofessor Henry Morton, of the Stevens Institute of learge of propagating Nithilistic ideas among working Technology, delivered an address in New York on men. Fifty persons have been arrested for Nithilism Second-day night, in which he is said to have shown indiring the last week. They inclined military discretes, by experiments that "by a simple contrivance and at young ladies, teachers, students, working men and the state of the sta

> It having been discovered that a certain area in Central Asia is suitable for the production of cotton Orenburg Russians are preparing to make the experi-

Lisbon papers state that the French have occupied

In reference to the announcement that a commissioner The Delaware House of Representatives on the 17th had been sent from Queensland to take possession of made to the Superintendent, or to any of indefinitely postponed the Senate bill for the submis- the Island of New Guinea as a dependency of Queens of Managers.

A committee was appointed at the first sit. sion of the question of license or prohibition to the land, it is pointed out that this action is the Colonial Institute having notified the Government in 12th month last that an arti peared in the Allgemeine Zeitung advising t Government to annex New Guinea.

> have been destroyed, and a great number The steamer Scandanavian, which has just are destitute and homeless.

Moville for Quebec and Montreal, took 282 from County Mayo, It is stated that 12,000 Galway have applied to the Government for to enable them to reach America. The exports of the Dominion of Canada mo. were nearly $500,000 less than during sponding month of last year, while the imp Dominion during 3rd mo. last were $469,00 of those of 3rd mo., 1882.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHO The Committee in cnarge of the hold a special meeting on Second-day, 30th o'clock A. M., in the Committee-room, Arch WM. F The Committee in charge of this Insti-

4th mo. 1883.

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CE AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pic

John Sharpless, Chester, Pe Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine

An assistant in housekeeping—a Friend pro Address R. F. EVANS, Marshalton, Chesto

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHO The Summer Session opens on Thirdof Fifth month.

Conveyances will be at the STREET ROA on that day, to meet the trains that leave STREET STATION of the Pennsylvania Rai pany, at Broad and Filbert Sts., Philadelph 9.05 and 11.13 A. M., and 2.25, 4.55 and Those who can more conveniently go the will be met at Street Roat Station on Sectimely notice is sent to JONATHAN G. WILLI address Westtown P. O., Chester Co., Pa.
The Union Transfer Company w

BAGGAGE to any place in the built-up part of phia, if notice is left either at No. 838 Ches the South East corner of Broad and Chest the Baggage Room 15th St. above Market, or St. Ferry, (north side), and will deliver it at St. Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad C a charge of 25 cents per trunk, to be paid e the order is given or when the trunk is calle the same charge they will collect baggage f the other railroad depots, if the railroad cha such baggage are left at one of the offices of the Company above designated. In all cases stated that the baggage is to go to Westtown School, Street Road Station, on the West Philadelphia Railroad.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonw Rebecca S, Elkinton, 400 S. N Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Sevent

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE IN Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Phi Physician and Superintendent-JOHNC. I Applications for the Admission of Patie

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FIFTH MONTH 5, 1883.

NO. 39.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

aid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid lvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. icles designed for insertion to be addressed to

JOSEPH WALTON. OORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

as, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

(Continued from page 298.) M. T.

No date. heart is often deeply depressed, and innocent and rational, are not capable ving or supporting the mind. The of human nature is such, that although where he says :ably relieved from the seductions of hose even who are striving for the , ofttimes find themselves sorely perand baffled by this unwearied advertheir soul's peace. Under such cir-nees as these, how dark, how unchrisow discouraging, is the doetrine which teach that man's salvation is to depend imself-upon his own weak efforts. m led to bow and adore the wisdom goodness which led to the glorious man's salvation; it is beyond all human is above the comprehension of man, so little and insignificant in his view, slights it or heeds it not. The cirnee mentioned in thy last letter is one thousands of others, which could be t to attest the excellency of the one ffering and sacrifice by which, through nce, faith and obedience, our transns are blotted out. This is one of the an's great consolations; this the sin-

ever there may be those who are enng to overthrow the importance and f these, our great Redeemer's sufferowever they may bring forth reason se the efficacy of this, yet every truly ned soul finds it an unfailing fountain y; in and by which, and through subto the law of the Spirit of life in Jesus, all our sin and uncleanness may hed away. I could enlarge upon this , but words, of themselves, cannot show to the phrensy of a madman.

formed its beauties, in reality know not God.

"Acquaint thyself with God, if thou would'st taste His works. Admitted once to his embrace, Thou shalt perceive that thou wast blind before."

To enter into this acquaintance with the Author of our existence is surely a glorious attainment to aim at! short of it there is no true enjoyment on this side of the grave, and, may I not say, no reasonable hope of happiness beyond it. It is then that we perceive hings are often brought to my mind, that every act of praise, which we may have pretended to before, has been done in blindness of heart.

> I hope I may be allowed thus to write, without being charged with endeavoring to exalt my own attainments. I am often rendered sensible, under the operation of the humbling power of the Most High, that I have nothing to depend upon but that grace which alone bringeth salvation; that I am exceedingly frail; and that if any thing at all, it is wholly by the grace of God.

There is nothing worthy of exaltation in this world, but the wonderful goodness, mercy, forbearance, and condescension of the Most High; and if the condition David was in when he says, 'I am a worm and no man' could be more generally felt, it would more comport with our real condition, than many of the high sounding titles which men arrogate to themselves.'

To the same.

" Did I apprehend that the chain of friendship which links us together needed frequent e importance of these great and glori- brightening, I might be induced to assume pearl of great price, come to see, feel, least measurably, inactive, rather than to be but being great are humble and do good.—te that the Lord is good to all them the trumpeter of my manifold weaknesses. W. Penn.

that love and fear Him. Human observation Indeed, in the present day, surrounded as I eannot fathom the depth of religion. It is often feel myself with very discouraging and so placed, no doubt in wisdom, out of the many deeply trying considerations, my mind reach of man in his unregenerate state; and seldom feels at liberty to undertake a task, so hidden from his view, that he may not at which used often to be my delight. Not that his own pleasure and in the darkness of his I have felt an objection to this mode of comnatural state, trample upon holy things. But munication between friend and friend, but when they are revealed to him, when man when the mind is borne down with a sense of comes to feel himself introduced into the pre-sence, as of the Almighty, how different are the consideration of the desolations which his sensations from those of the mere specu-prevail, it is difficult so to rise above it, as to lative theorist in plety! His ideas are more find much satisfaction either in verbal comelevated, his soul is more enlightened; and munication or otherwise, even with those we although looked upon by others as one who may dearly and tenderly love. The silent of which others are ineapable, being as su-with these deeply afflictive dispensations than perior to the imaginary devotion of an enthu- many words; and earnestly do I desire, that siastic and romantic mind, as calm reason is by a steady attention to that Monitor within which speaks in stillness, some may be qualified to stand forth as the champions of Israel There are many, whose hearts, though sin-fied to stand forth as the champions of Israel cere in their admiration of nature, and who of old did, to deliver us from that potent times all the pleasures and enjoy-cere in their admiration of nature, and who of old did, to deliver us from that potent which are afforded us in this life, even can with uplifted hands adore the Power who enemy who now seems to compass us around, and I believe is often like the noise of archers The words of Cowper are applicable to these, in the place of drawing water. where he says:—

Well, I seem to wander into a recital of what may just now not be very desirable to hear! You being so quietly retired at you scarcely hear the sound of the commotion in which we live. But though that sound may have lost its terror ere it reaches you, perhaps, nevertheless, there are those thereaway who secretly feel an earnest desire that Zion may arise and shine; and who do as truly mourn over the defections which are so abundantly manifest, as some whose lot it is to be more immediately engaged in connexion with these who are the sad causes of them.

I cannot convey to thee much that is new; for in the present day almost every public transaction is sounded far and wide as soon as past; and my own life is so void of eventful circumstances, and so closely confined within a small space, that I might almost be considered a blank in the busy multitude which surrounds me. However, I still feel as if there was one important event, in which I am with others deeply concerned; and in looking towards it sometimes, I am willing to think that if in the day of final retribution all is found to be well, no matter what may have been the means of its attainment.

* I wish whenever thou feels like writing thou wouldst do it and not wait for me. I really feel so poor and empty of any thing that is good, or at least communicably so, that I might say I cannot write; while at the same time a letter oceasionally from a friend, is calculated to revive the heart and comfort it amid the tumults of life."

(To be continued.)

ths, they are to be known only as they my pen at shorter intervals than has of latter dereineed, felt in the secret of our own time been the case. But felling as I do my their ambitious minds; that have learned to be and none can know or understand inability to say or do much that may be bene-contented with the appointments and bounds out these who, seeking in simplicity ficial to others, it seems best to remain, at of Providence; that are not careful to be great,

The Early Settlers near Camden, New Jersey.

The subjoined account is copied from an old volume of records belonging to Haddonfield Monthly Meeting of Friends. The settlement at Newton was located on the headwaters of the creek of that name, about three miles south of the ferry at Market street, in Camden, and a mile south of the present meeting-house of Friends, in the outskirts of the City of Camden. The old burying ground on Collings Road still marks the spot where the where the first meetings were held, as stated in this narrative, was near the place. Did the "zeal and ferveney of spirit" which T. Sharp says abounded among these poor emi-grants, inducing them "immediately" to set up a meeting for worship, prevail among those who now occupy their place of settlement and its vicinity, there would be a brighter prospect than is now seen for the maintenance of those principles and practices which these godly men strove to plant as a good seed in the then wilderness of New Jersey.

"A book wherein is recorded the births of Friends' children belonging to the three meetings that make up the Monthly Meeting now in the township of Newton, county of Gloucester, and western division of the Province of New Jersey. With the account of burials; were the first concerned in the same."

pose themselves to difficulties which, if they we had cause to praise his name for. could have been easy where they were, in all probability might (not) have been met with; sider that the settlement of this country was dangers that surround the path of the and in order thereunto sent from Dublin, in directed by an impulse upon the spirits of pilgrim. The longer I live, the more freland, to one Thomas Lurtin, a Friend of God's people, not so much for their ease and I feel that the Lord may give me such Loudon, commander of a Pink, who accordingly came, and made an agreement with him should be after, and that the wilderness, being religion, as that I may always be fer to transport them and their families into New planted with a good seed, might grow and in-substituting expression for experien Jersey, viz: Mark Newby and family, Thomas crease, to the satisfaction of the good Hus. that I may be more desirous to feed if Thackara and family, William Bates and bandman. But instead thereof, if for wheat upon the bread of life than to talk about the same than the same transfer of the same transfer family, George Goldsmith, an old man, and it should bring forth tares, the end of the good others. Thomas Sharp, a young man, but no families. Husbandman will be frustrated, and they form the same, so that his mate John Dagger the beginning. undertook it. And upon the nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and eighty-one, we set sail from the place aforesaid. And through the good providence of God towards us, we arrived at Elsinburg, in the county of Salem, of our movements, I shall proceed to notice much conversation or writing on thy s upon the nineteenth day of November following; where we were well entertained at the house of the Thomson's, who came from Ireland about four years before; who by their describest; but I infer from the tenor of the darkness, but shall have the light of life industry were arrived to a very good degree communication altogether, thy mind is at there is no teaching like his teaching. of living; and from thence we went to Salem present in a state of excitement which it is With respect to visiting the sick poo where were several houses that were vacant safest for thee not to foster; for thankful as knowest I have ever encouraged thee t of persons who had left the town to settle in we ought to be, and I trust are, that thy at lofthem, and to attend to their temporal

the country, which served to accommodate tention is seriously turned to the country. them for the winter. And having thus settled tion of those solemn truths which a down their families, and the winter proving finite and eternal importance, and comoderate, we at Wickacoa, among us, purticle hopes of the true Christian del chased a house of the Swanson's, and so went should be sorry to see thee carried; to Burlington, to the commissioners, of whom that current, which, though it may no we obtained a warrant to the Surveyor-Gen-take the same direction, seems in the eral, which then was Daniel Leeds; and after day to endanger the deep, thorough some formidable search in that then called work which must be carried on in e the third, or Irish tenth, we at last pitch generated soul (and which is not the upon the place now called Newton, which a day) before it can be prepared to bri was before the settlement of Philadelphia, and mature, substantial, and good fruit then applied to the surveyor, who came and praise of the Great Husbandman. I then applied to the surveyor, who came am process the form me to give an opinion as to what since been removed. Mark Newby's house, the beginning of the year 1682, we all removed thy future path; the Great Head of the from Salem, together with Robert Zane, that chooses his own instruments as it 1 had been settled there, who came from Ireland Him; but even if it should be his along with the Thomson's, before hinted; and that thou shouldest thus testify thy having an expectation of our coming, only Him, he may show it thee, as He his bought a lot in Salem town, upon the which to many others, for years, before E he seated himself until our coming; whose thee to the public acknowledgment of proprietary right and ours being of the same I believe also that young converts nature, could not then take it up in Fenwick's who are newly awakened to the vatenth. And so began our settlement, and alimportance of religion—are very apt though at times we were pretty hard bestead, ardor of their feelings, to imagine t having all our provisions as far as Salem to called to great things, and in the or fetch by water, yet through the mercy and ings of that love to their Saviour whi kindness of God, we were preserved in health, be raised in their hearts to believe the and from any extreme difficulties. And im-mediately there was a meeting set up, and those around them; but it does appea held at the new meeting-house in Haddonfield, kept at the house of Mark Newby, and in a to be one of the very successful strata short time it grew and increased; unto which our ever-watchful enemy to persua William Cooper and family, that lived at the young, as soon as they begin to wall Point, resorted, and sometimes the meeting right way themselves, that they are was kept at his house, who had been settled upon to teach others rather than t as also some account of the settlement and beginning of Newton, and the Friends that some time before. Zeal and fervency of spirit under that blessed teaching which w was what in some good degree abounded they had patience to endure its seamong Friends, in commemoration of our proofs, and to wait upon its many s "Letit be remembered,—It having wrought prosperous success, and eminent preservation, though silent monitions, in due time upon the minds of some Friends that dwelt both in our coming over the great deep, as them much more capable to do so in Ireland, but such as formerly eame thither also that whereas we were but few at that daily life and conversation. from England; and a pressure having laid time and the Indians many, whereby it put a upon them for some years which they could dread upon our spirits, considering they were thou hast asked it, and because, as o not get from under the weight of, until they a savage people; but the Lord, that hath the has lived longer and has seen somet gave up to leave their friends and relatious hearts of all in his hands, turned them so as the insidious working of the cruel ten there, together with a comfortable subsistence, to be serviceable unto us, and very loving and feel it my duty so to do, being assur to transport themselves and families into the kind: which cannot be otherwise accounted thon wilt accept it as it is intended, wilderness land of America; and thereby ex-|but to be the Lord's doing in our favor, which |discourage thy progress in the way

And while the ship abode in Dublin harbor, themselves will suffer loss. This narrative I streams are the deepest, and that i providing for the voyage, the said Thomas have thought good and requisite to leave be pleases the great Sanctifier, Enlighten Lartin was taken so ill that he could not per | hind, as having had knowledge of things from Comforter of the people of the Lord t THOS. SHARP."

A Letter of Maria Fox. London, 24th of 4th mo. 1837.

some of the contents of thine.

Thou mayst be assured, my dear, we feel and desire to be his sincere, humble for

I write to thee in great freedom, cast up for thee, whatever that way i "And that the rising generation may con- but to show thee, if it may be, some

Let us remember, my dear, that on his work in their souls after a very manner. I would therefore rather end thee to diligence in the duties of the cl private reading of the Scriptures, to ele examination, meditation, and secret concerns. If thou look to the Lord ployment for thee and them; but I need say to thee, it requires great by Lieutenant Corder.] and much religious experience, to y Father, or whom He may be trainl strengthen thine heart."

e Sepulchral Caves of Palestine.

tence of the caverns of which we were handsome stone sarcophagus. h, and persuaded him to be our guide ls to these stone receptacles for the

in the course of thy visits amongst letters "R. E." scratched in red paint on the r this purpose, thou feel inclined to rock, which, under these circumstances, can uitably to persons who are perhaps one to examine, though not nearly so interesting the correcting discipline of our ing. You could walk about it comfortably, but there was no ornamentation. The chammany afflictions, for a better inherit-f To speak a word in season" requires six of them. The stone coffins had in many stance of that Spirit which only can instances been completely destroyed, but the to speak aright, and therefore I would massive stone columns, or rather blocks, of Westtown School a few of the boys who were often safer, especially for young per living rock, which supported the roof, were the subjects of nucle religious concern from a styself, to offer up a secret prayer finer than those in the "Cave of Hell." Per belief that they were rebelling against the behalf, if that is raised in the heart, haps it owed its more dilapidated condition convictions of the good Spirit in their own express ourselves to them under the control of the largeness of the entry, and its proximate and its proximate. At that time Sarah Emlen was living the of present excitement. I hope, my imity to another huge cave which had evilone. The following record of her remarking letter will not discourage thee, dently in crusading times been converted into the control of th on the Lord, be of good courage, and a Christian place of worship. According to female teachers. The writer of this was prea rough measurement obtained by pacing it, sent at the time, and well remembers the the care was 70x30 feet, the apse 18x21, and seene. In justice to the scholars there, it two apse-shaped transcpts about 20x18; but should be stated, that the few who were so these were very much filled with rubbish closely pleaded with are not to be considered ng the high road to Nazareth to the The height of the cave was about thirty feet, as fairly representing the great bulk of the e followed a path for about half an The whole formed a subterranean church, boys. The general tone of that institution, hich took us to the village of Sheik which, in its perfect condition, when entered and increasingly so of latter years, has been It was a miserable collection of mud from the hillside, must have presented a very such as to give evidence that the Divine blessing the muddlest of which dwelt the imposing appearance. On the slope of the ing has rested upon it. After much palaver and promises of hill, not far from this cave, was the carved nt backsheesh, we got him to admit pedestal of a granite column, and near it a age contained three tombs—one across laughed and promised to do so, saying at the ness of your hearts.

mber facing the entrance and one on same time, "They are so very old that they Can you bear wit

le. There do not seem ever to have are not worth anything." hamber above, and this probably led I had arranged to do, but on the day fixed for mercy was still extended towards them. the purpose persistent rain disappointed me. However, it is a treat in store.

The first entrance into one of these old Jew, ish tomb caverns will be an exciting episode them, it is a very useful and profit only mean "Royal Engineers." [and indicated but there is an amount of suspicion and jeal-ployment for thee and them; but I that the sepulcher had already been examined ousy on the part of the natives which will render prudence and circumspection neces-This cave was a much more comfortable sary if any attempt of this sort is to be carried out with success.—Correspondence of the N. Y.

For "The Friend."

Gather up the Fragments.

In the winter of 1843-4, there were at

"On the 29th of the 2nd mo. 1844, after the meeting had been settled some time, Sarah Instead of going back to the Nazareth road Emlen rose, laid her bonnet on the seat, and The first was called by the Arabs after finishing our examination of this inter- walked along the isle for some distance, then use to Hell." Its entrance seemed to esting spot, we made for a hill, on the summit stopping between two benches on the north the ill-omened appellation. It was a of which we saw some large blocks of stone side, put one hand on each and stood for some loping tunnel into the bowels of the betokening ruins. Here we came upon a natime silent. A very solemn covering spread ist large enough to admit the passage tive excavation, evidently very recent. In over the meeting, when she commenced, as n's body. To slide into this after a deed, we heard later that it had only been nearly as we can recollect, in these words:— ain involved a coating of mud from abandoned the week before. The natives occord I believe it is in the authority of my divine oe. After going down a few yards we casionally find an unopened tomb, and dig Master, the Lord Jesus Christ, that I am conchamber in which we could stand into it for treasure. Indeed, it was useless to strained to come and stand thus before you Here we lighted our candle and looked attempt to disabuse their minds of the idea on this side of the house. Oh how has my s. We found that it was the first of a that we were treasure-hunters. On asking spirit been grieved this day with the lightf similar chambers opening one into them what they had found, they said some ness and frivolity of your spirits. Some of Each contained stone coffins hewn red glass bottles, which they had broken to you seem to contemn your Maker, and dishes solid rock. The entrances to these discover what they had contained. They had honor your exercised teachers, and you have ched. The pilasters on each side of also found three jars, one containing ashes, turned into contempt their labors. Some of rances were in some cases ornamented and ecorated with dede sculptures and decorated with dehad also smashed. It was enough to make you and grieved on your account, and the a yellow pigment. These werein the one's mouth water to bear of the destruction Holy Spirit is grieved. I have been made to curves, scrolls, and circles, and were of these curiosities so very recently. I im- fear that the vials of the Almighty are ready over the roof. Each chamber was plored them if they found any more not to be poured out on some of you, for your ene feet long by six feet wide, and on break them, but to bring them to me. They irreverence towards Him, and for the hard-

Can you bear with me; I am a mother myself (here her emotion stopped her utterance Had it not been necessary to push on in for a short time) and from the very bottom order to reach Nazareth before night, I would of my spirit I have felt for you as a mother. bodies were embalmed, wrapped in have lingered longer at these ruins, which are Though you are now young, and your bones as we read in scriptural accounts of called Zebda by the natives. They are worthy are full of marrow and your veins with blood, notably in that of our Saviour. "Each of full examination. The whole rocky sum which is your life, yet in the twinkling of an narrow cell, forever laid," they re-mit of the hill is evidently honeycombed with eye ye may be brought down; and have ye undisturbed until rude hands ages cave tombs, many of which have not yet been not had instances in this very house of the rd "rolled away the stone from the opened. One of these, some miles further on youth being brought down.' She then went of the cave," and rifled the contents. toward Nazareth, especially attracted my at on to say that when cast upon a sick bed, the of the entrances to the chambers had tention. A huge circular stone about two feet inmost recesses of their hearts would be laid mpletely filled up. In such cases the in diameter had been rolled into the carved open by Him whose eyes are as a flaming fire, a wall of rock had been broken stone entrance to the cave, and become tightly and all the sins and transgressions which . Some of the chambers were larger wedged. All the efforts of the natives to re-they have committed against their teachers in bers, and there were two tiers of off move it, and the marks of such efforts were this place will be written as on the wall before need to get from one chamber to visible, had evidently been unavailing. It them; repeating 'I have been made verily to it was often necessary to drag your-needed a very small charge of dynamite to! then that the vials of the Almighty are ready ng at full length upon the ground. In remove the obstacle which had so successfully to be poured out on some of you.' She ene the roof had been broken through resisted the barbarian ingenuity of ages. This treated them to repent, assuring them that

> Near the close she said, 'Honor God, for they that honor God He will honor, and they that dishonor Him shall be lightly esteemed.' She then returned to her seat.

Soon after she knelt, 'We all have need of thy mercy and that our sins and transgressions should be forgiven; but oh Lord, more especially would we intereede with thee for the wayward, the untoward, the disobedient, and may we not say the hardened sons. Spare them, oh! Lord, a little longer, and lengthen out to them the day of grace, that they may not be cut off. Some of us this morning have been made to believe, that for some present not many days, perhaps not many hours, are allotted for the great work of regeneration. Bow thy heavens, oh Lord, and come down; cause their hearts to be melted like wax, that they may receive again the impression of thy image, which has been effaced by iniquity. Meet with them in a narrow place where they can turn neither to the right hand nor to the left. Inspirit them with a desire for thy saving grace. Make them to cry out from the inmost recesses of their hearts, "What shall we do to be saved?" Be pleased to assist them in this work, that the vials of thy wrath may not be poured upon their heads, but that they may return, return, repent and live. We thank thee, oh! Father, that one more opportunity has been granted. * * We pray thee as on the bended knee of both body and mind, that the impressions which have been made this day be fastened as a nail in a sure place, even by the Master of assemblies, that we may yet all unite in worshipping thee in the silence of all flesh.

Though we have not given all that was said, yet it is as nearly correct as we could remember. But the indescribably awful feeling which pervaded the meeting, must alone be felt to be understood. Many of the children were much tendered. When meeting closed and the girls passed to the collecting room, the same awful solemnity continued, though a few commenced talking quietly; yet the sobs of one or two who seemed unable to control their feelings, and the deep, quiet, seriousness of others effectually stopped all conversation. The language arose 'verily there is a God in Israel."

On the next First-day she addressed a state that was tried and tossed and not comforted. Such she recommended to come to the Saviour, to spread their cause before Him in the secret of their hearts. 'Whatsoever ye shall ask believing, ye shall receive.' She had remembered the comforting declaration of our Saviour, 'If ye have but faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree: be thou plucked up by the root and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.' And ye should say to this mountain, 'Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.' Though 'the sin that most easily besets' might be deeply rooted in their hearts. it should be plucked up; and though the mountains of difficulty obstruct, they should be removed. She then sweetly alluded to the love of their compassionate Saviour, who, on the cross, bore the sins of the whole world. She had also thought of Moses, the servant of God. When he descended from the mount and saw his people given to idolatry, he earnestly prayed for them, If they could not be forgiven that his name should be blotted out. 'How typical of the Saviour!'

Sin is of one nature all the world over.

For "The Friend."

A MEMORY.

There broods a stillness in the early gloaming,
A sense of quiet rest,
And busy thoughts that all the day were roaming,
Now settle in my breast.

Now settle in my breast.

With peaceful throbbings beats the pulse of even,

And out from yonder star,
There seems the radiance of the inner heaven
To stream thro' "gates ajar."

The time and feeling bring a sweet remembrance
Of long departed hours,
That to the present only bear the semblance
Of crushed and faded flowers.

But yet the odor of the blossom lingers,
Embalmed from all decay,
And still the heartstrings tonched by loving fingers
Vibrate in song alway.

I see again with clear unshadowed vision,
A form beloved of old,
Whose spirit long in fadeless realms elysian
Hath walked the streets of gold.

This hour to her was dearer than the morning,
And lovelier than deep night,
With all the beauty of its grave adorning
Its clear yet mellowed light.

And now I hold as girlhood's richest blessing
That hour beside her chair,
When bending o'er her, with my touch caressing
The soft brown of her hair,

And listening words of pure and tender meaning,
As thought was linked to thought,
Till to my heart the truths of years of gleaning,
In gathered sheaves were brought.

Oh! mother, mother, that the fruit is sparing,
Is never fault of thine!
Both late and early with a hand untiring Thou sow'dst seed divine.

The years are many since the cold, dark river Hath rolled our lives between,
While Time and change are pressing me forever
On to the great unseen.

Now to my chair the little ones come thronging
As to their earthly goal,
And in each childish face I trace the longing
Of an immortal soul.

Had but thy mantle on thy daughter fallen,— Sweet spirit passed away!— Less weak and helpless for the duties calling, Would my heart stand to-day.

Ah! well, the bread was cast upon the waters,
And after many days,
May it be found to thine eternal honor,
And to our Maker's praise.

RELEASED. Select

BY SUSAN COOLIDGE.

Only a few short weeks ago,
All iey bound and packed with snow,
This rocky cleft, through which to-day
Runs the glad brooklet on its way;
The merry brook which leaps and flows,
Flashing and singing as it goes,
To find and join and make a part Of the great river's urgent heart.
Could it have dreamed so sweet a thing
In all those months of prisoning?
O happy brook! made glad, made free,
Shall you not find at last the sea?

Only a few short months ago,
A harder frost, a deeper snow,
Lay on my soul and held it tight
Away from hope, away from light,
Now God's sweet sun has entered in
And melted all the chains of sin,
And led by his dear hand to-day
My soul goes singling on its way,
To link its little thread of good
With the vast, over-brimming flood!
O happy soul made glad, made free, Shalt thou not find at last thy sea?

—S. S. Times.

THE FIRST FLOWER.

I feel too tired and too old Long rambles in the woods to take,
To seek the cowalip's early gold,
And search for violets in the brake;
Nor can I, as I used to, hend
My little bed of flowers to tend;
Where grew my seented pinks, to-day
The creeping witchgrass has its way.

But when my door I open wide
To breathe the warm, sweet air of spr
The fragrance comes in like a tide,
Great purple plumes before me swing
For looking in, close by the door,
The lilac blossoms as of yore;
The earliest flower my ehidlhood knew
Is to the gray, worn woman true!

Dear common tree that needs no care, Whose root in any soil will live, How many a dreary spot grows fair With the spring-charm thy clusters gi The narrow court-yard in the town Knows thy sweet fragrance, and the bro Low hill-side farm-house hides its cares Beneath the gray-green of thy leaves.

Loosed by the sonth wind's gentle touch In performed showers thy blossoms fal Thou askest little, gives much; Thy lavish bloom is free to all; And even I, shut in, shut out, From all the sunny world about, Find the first flower my childhood knew Is to the gray, worn woman true.

Royal Foot Washing.—The Hofb chief palace of the Austrian soverei been, says the London Standard, the an eeclesiastical ceremony or act of o which is a curious relic of mediæval In accordance with a usage observe time immemorial on Maundy-Thurs ceremony of "Washing the Feet of th was recently performed as usual by jesties at the Imperial residence. In t dle Ages the custom prevailed at mar Catholic Courts, but in the present day a parallel would be impossible, excep Vatican and at the palace of the King of The proceedings opened at nine o'cloc twelve old men, of whom the oldest i ninety-third year, and the youngest seven, and twelve old women, the ninety-six, and the youngest ninety, as usual, in the old German costum sented to them by the Emperor as press, entered the Court Chapel, in o receive the sacrament, and were then l into the Hall of Ceremonies at the H On each side of the hall was a tab twelve covers, the one table for the and the other for the old women. T all citizens of Vienna, and many amon showed by their behavior that the taken part in the ceremony more tha With the appearance of the clergyn eleven, the ceremony began. The Er who was followed by all the archdukes in Vienna, served the old men, and t press, followed by all the archduchess court ladies, served the old women a respective tables. The Corps Diplor was, as usual, in attendance, but this y reasons generally known, the British, I and Turkish embassadors did not appea the Ministers were present, as well as dignitaries and Privy Councilors, the berlains, the Grand Masters, and the l representatives of the army. The table removed, the Emperor and Empress down in front of each of the old people off a shoe and stocking from each, and v with towels moistened from a golden old people had been wiped the archsand archduchesses replaced the shoe teking, and their majesties concluded funeral and mourning ceremonial." emony by hanging round the neck of the old people a purse with thirty sil- from the use of drinks containing alcohol: ad wine .- Chr. Adv.

essness of Oaths .- When James Backisited the penal settlements on Norand, he was much impressed "to see moved hardness with which prisoners path, most solemnly, to the truth of hey state, on both sides, when it is that on one side there must be per-This shocking spectacle led him to hese reflections on the use of oaths: ny, where the moral standard of truth where it is gone, they only add to and where this standard is properly ned, they are useless, yea being yea,

Religious Items, &c.

perance.—The darkness of Germany on perance question may be inferred from that the Moravian brethren carry on eweries to help missions. The dark-Britain has long been shown by the f-denying seet called "Friends," carry nense breweries, and own hundreds, s thousands, of beer-shops in London. ristian Cynosure.

al Character of the Opera .- A Cincinnati ondent of Zion's Herald, Boston, dis-Queen City of the West." He says: le ten operas rendered, five were little netrating voice of song may be eradi |ful influence against intemperance. rom the memory." "Out of every ten pure operas, there are none.'

in such corrupting amusements. pious Awakening.—There appears from ewspaper reports to be an increased of the Lord (which alone can effect a earnestly striving to save them. iritual change) is at work in the hearts

the Koran, for general distribution.

A society has been formed in England eld by a chamberlain. After the feet under the presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury which has for its object "the cas. The old folks were then sent home I. No man who drinks can be at all sure ering gives it increased power of conducting t, each with a well-filled box of provi-that he will not, on some occasion, drink too electrical currents. The copper is deposited much. There are some, perhaps, who drink on the steel by electro-plating batteries, at the all their lives, but never drink enough to visibly interfere with muscular movements or mental operations. Whether there are any such is an open question; but it is certain that Small, farmer in the parish of Shapwick, was the number of those who use alcoholic stimu- recently called by his shepherd to one of the lants at all in this elimate and age, and never sheep, all along the back of which grass was use too much, is very small, and that no user springing up. It is conjectured the animal, of them can be sure that he will not on some having been supplied with hay, had lain down oceasion drink too much.

Total Abstinence.—Reasons for abstaining

> and in the gradual approach of old age, to drink too much. Total abstinence men seldom considerable attention was bestowed on the cessively. Many old men have thus become and for the time had a considerable sale, but sots, and some such in the churches are a now one rarely hears of its existence. In great mortification to their friends, and a per-considering the form of exercise that might plexity to the church.

will be the ruin of many of them.

influence over their children on the side of should be allowed to depress the vital powers, the strongest temptations to which they are and so interfere with the processes of growth exposed.

For " The Friend."

Natural History, Science, &c.
Telephone Talking.—Talking by Telephone Christianizing, simplifying, and cheapening has been done with success between New York and Chicago, a distance of 1050 miles. The wire used is of steel, covered with copper. The steel gives strength, and the copper covrate of 500 lbs. of copper to one mile of wire.

Chrious Result of the Wet Season.—The Dorset Chronicle says that the attention of Martin on some of it, and the seeds, mixing with the II. All users of them are especially liable, wool, germinated through the sheep having oaths are insufficient to secure correct in time of mental trouble or physical debility, been exposed to rain for a very long period.

Exercise for Little Folks.—Some years ago plunge into excessive drinking in time of subject, and several very ingenious devices trouble. Many Christian professors, having were suggested by which infants and very never been total abstainers, on failing in busi-young children might exercise their muscles. ness, or losing wife or child, or meeting a great The "baby jumper" is perhaps the best re-disappointment, have taken to drinking ex-membered of these. It was largely advertised, be employed for very young children, it should III. All who use them at all set an example be borne in mind that at no period in life does at eminent members of the benevolent to youth, which, if they attempt to follow it, the organism exhibit greater developmental ill be the ruin of many of them.

IV. Such persons, if parents, throw their ence. Hence, it is not advisable that fatigue and nutrition. At the same time, it must be V. All users of intoxicating liquors as a remembered that a desire for exercise seems the moral effect of the opera season in beverage have practically no influence in pre- to be inherent in the infant. Sir William venting others from drinking.

VI. Those who do not use them can never compared the spontaneous activity of a Jenner has graphically pointed this out, and an glorifications of licentiousness. How drink too much; will be in little peril of re- healthy child to the quiescence and fear of ect can be other than to familiarize sorting to rum as a remedy for sorrow; set an movement exhibited by a child suffering from era-goer's mind with the arts of the example to youth which all may safely follow, the rickets. This can be seen at a glance, for e and the unchaste it would be diffi-and which will be the means of saving many if a young child be stripped and laid on a bed tell. And there are no means by from drunkenness; by precept and example it will appear how ceaseless are its movements, the mental pictures and suggestions they throw the mightiest safeguards around how each limb is brought into play, and with dly produced by the lifelike acting and their children, and exert a positive and power- what almost continuous action it seems as if endeavoring to turn itself inside out. This VII. But those who use alcohol habitually natural exercise ought to be encouraged, and best operas, five are unspeakably foul. may transmit a constitutional predisposition instead of being kept, as is too frequently the to their children much stronger than they case, for the greater part of the day tightly a strong proof of the deceitful character had in beginning their own lives - a tendency held in its nurse's arms, or confined in its cot who is the father of lies, that persons which, with a father's example and the pre- weighed down with heavy bed-clothes careng the name of Christians can be made sence of the tempter, may prove practically fully tucked in, which prevent its slightest eve that there is no harm in their par-irresistible. So it often comes to pass that movement, it ought for some time each day the worst effects of the habit are seen in the to be allowed to roll freely on a mattress, second generation. lightly and loosely clad, so that it can indulge VIII. The highest form of the Christian freely and unrestrained in the natural and int in vital religion in parts of Great life is self-denial for the good of others. Total stinctive exercise of its limbs. As the infant n, Germany. Russia, Asia Minor and abstinence, if it be a great sacrifice, should be gets older its desire for exercise seems if posed in the work in these places may be danger. If it be not a great sacrifice, what ing about and making premature attempts to on in a mixture of truth and error, ingenuous mind would refuse to make it to walk. Whilst these efforts should be encour-

can rejoice in every evidence that the save the weak, and to help those who are so aged, they should never be unduly prolonged. As the child grows older and becomes firmer For these reasons we practise and recom- on its feet, combined movements seem to bepeople, turning them from darkness to mend total abstinence. May we not hope come its object, and these are best encouraged that by what we have said some will be helped by the use of a "ball." When the limbs are ammedan Movements.—A Mohammedan to persuade others; and that if any read these firmly set, the rocking horse may be introof Publication has been established in reasons who do use these seducing drinks, duced into the nursery, but we should not ntinople for the purpose of publishing, though, as they think, but sparingly, they permit its use till after the fifth year. The cap form, the theological and historical will see that it is neither wise, good, safe, nor seventh year is the earliest at which systemput forth by Mohammedan writers kind to do so, and at once and forever, on atic exercise should be introduced, and then st publication is to be a popular edi-principle, renounce them?—Christian Advo-these ought to be of the simplest kind—as ordinary drilling, extension movements, &c.

have reached us of the use of the trapeze, ones. The blue flowered potato plants sent dumb bells, and the like at so early an age. off their runners from 18 inches to 2 feet. What seems to be of the most importance, and July 12, they were in full bloom. what is generally overlooked, is the necessity don Lancet.

rats means a connection with the rat's place, canon, and some of the plants were 2 feet high. were rats in the basement of his house, he had of unusual size, comparatively speaking. the floor of the room taken up, and found an opening into the sewer where the builder had have been and very likely are the original naomitted to close up the opening to a side drain, tive stock from which all our potatoes now designed, but abandoned before using. Dur used have sprung, deserve a fair trial and which are "stranger than fiction."ing all the years that the house had been or careful propagation to develop them to the Malay Archipelago. cupied, this opening had been in unsuspected size now attained by our best potatoes. By existence, and had given open passage to the the 1st of September the blue flowered plants emanations from the sewer.

paper doors are declared to be more effective thick, with from four to ten unmistakable po-bers, and the inside scooped out with in staying the march of flames than even doors tatoes on each plant. The white flowered I compared it to Yorkshire pudding; of wood lined with tin, which have now super-plants produced white potatoes, nearly round, Allen said it was like mashed pota seded iron doors for this purpose. Glass, in from half an inch to 1 inch in diameter. These milk. It is generally about the size of like manner, is being every day put to a potatoes are unquestionably indigenous. variety of uses for which its fragility would Still another variety was found near the where else smooth and pudding-lik

Wing-Chim too. He said-"The publishing tatoes, comprising the different varieties, be-that it is a fruit of which the seeds of a Chinese Journal is a much more difficult sides some seed balls. piece of work than many imagine. The Chiness language is written by means of 60,000 Lemmon interested in his discovery, has re-The seed-bearing variety is common characters, and so type is an unknown com-cently written him that in digging up the bed the tropics, and though the seeds a modity. The copy is first made by me in of an old pond he has secured a lot of these good eating, resembling chesnuts, the pencil, and by a scribe transferred to the im- potatoes, perfectly white, as large as hen's quite worthless as a vegetable. - F pression paper, from which it is afterwards eggs, which on being cooked tasted well, and Malay Archipelago. taken off on stone. Thus every number of have all the appearance of very fine potatoes. our paper must of necessity be lithographed, Various cultivators have manifested the utadvertisements and all."

discovered in Arizona by Prof. Lemmon vate the specimens he has forwarded them .-They were found in a cleft of one of the Pacific Rural Press.

highest peaks north of the Apache pass, under a tangle of prickly bushes and cacti. Eager ing a day at a village [near Palembang, in to know if the Solanum found was bulb-bear- Sumatra, while a boat was being made water--in a holy dependence upon, and fait ing, he carefully uprooted the little tuber, tight, I had the good fortune to obtain a male, to the guidance and help of the which proved to be an undoubted representa-tive of the true potato family. According to hornbills. I had sent my bunters to shoot, in the way of salvation. This Spi the researches and reasonings of Humboldt, and while I was at breakfast they returned, quick witness against evil, and will I this was the location to look for the home of bringing me a fine large male of the Buceros out of the snares of death those who the species from which our first potatoes bicornis, which one of them assured me he had cerely endeavoring to follow its te sprang. In May last, Prof. Lemmon again shot while feeding the female, which was shut For want of watchfulness and obed set out in search of more specimens, choosing up in a hole in a tree. I had often read of its commands, how often are we led the Hunchuca Mountains as his point for excithis curious habit, and immediately returned into what devious paths have our fe 000 feet high, with sides furrowed into deep we found a large tree leaning over some us canons, those of the northeast being filled with water, and on its lower side, at a height of I trees, among which are maple and ash. In about twenty feet, appeared a small hole, and the heart with a love to God, than to July last he discovered the potato plants he what looked like a quantity of mud, which I His compassion and love are extend was searching for on the southwest side of was assured had been used in stopping up the to those who have been rebellious, is the range, hidden among the rich bottom soil large hole. After awhile we heard the harsh a hope is begotten in the free and lar of a dell in a high valley. A few plants of cry of a bird inside, and could see the white cies of the Shepherd of Israel, who, the white species were found in full bloom, extremity of its beak put out. I offered a Penington says, "Casteth not off hi and further on blue blossoms were found, rupee to any one who would go up and get because of their wanderings, because The white-flowered specimens formed tubers out the bird, with the egg or young one, but backslidings, because of their infirmi

We cannot approve of the suggestions that on shorter subterranean stems than the blue they all declared it was too difficulting of securing for the young child complete free flowered were of a creamy white color, with bird was brought me, together with, dom for all its movements in easy clothing, greenish midribs to its corolla lobes. The suband thus permitting it to engage in spontan-terranean stems were not longer than those eous exercise without let or hindrance. - Lon- of our common potato. The blossoms of the blue flowered are smaller, bright purple, with of it. It was exceedingly plump and Rats in a House.—The rat, says Professor pale white midribs to the corolla, with fifteen with a semi-transparent skin, so that Huxley, has no place in a well built city house. to twenty flowers to a head. They are found more like a bag of jelly, with head The mouse is harmless, but the presence of at an altitude of about 8,000 feet in Tanner's the sewer. Hence, when he knew that there Later in the season they produced potato balls plastering up the female with her g

These native species of potatoes which may formed bluish colored potatoes, oblong, about abundant, and the season for it las Odd uses for Paper and Glass.-Compressed 12 inches long by half as wide, and a third as short time. It is baked entire in the seem to make it little adapted. The latest summit of a peak 10,000 feet high, under the thing in consistence between yeast-du instance of this is glass shingles, now manushade of fir, pine and poplar trees, growing in and batter-pudding. With meat and factured at Pittsburg, and said to be more soil kept moist during the greater part of the it is a vegetable superior to any I known durable, stronger and more impervious to rain year by melting snows. Its nodding balls of in temperate or tropical countries. than slate or any other material.—Phila. Led-ripened seeds were surrounded by golden-rods sugar, milk, butter, or treacle, it is a constant ger.

Their tubers were tinted pudding, having a very slight and deli Chinese Printing.—A strike in the office of with purple, and seed balls were either solitary characteristic flavor, which, like that the Chinese-American led to some explanation or in pairs. Prof. Lemmon brought back bread and potatoes, one never gets of the difficulties of his position by the editor with him over three quarts of these small po. The reason why it is comparatively in the control of the cont

A hermit in these mountains, whom Prof. therefore only be propagated by c most interest in Prof. Lemmon's discovery, Native Potatoes.—Native potatoes have been and are making careful preparations to cultito the place, accompanied by several of the dered, and what multiplied transgres These mountains have two peaks over 10.- natives. After crossing a stream and a bog, the Divine will have been heaped up were afraid to try. I therefore vir antly came away. In about an lar ward, much to my surprise, a tine The blossoms were large, and the white loud hoarse screaming was heard an one which had been found in the he was a most curious object, as large as pi but without a particle of plumage or p stuck on, than like a real bird.

The extraordinary habit of the a feeding her during the whole time co tion, and till the young one is fledge mon to several of the large hornbil one of those strange facts in natura

Bread Fruit .- Though it grows in parts of the Malay Archipelago, it is a little fibrous towards the centre, bu The reason why it is comparatively s tirely aborted by cultivation, and the

THE FRIEND.

FIFTH MONTH 5, 1883,

It is a blessed thing to walk "in the

Perhaps nothing is more calculate rdness; but pursues them with his Fox, Robert Barelay and William Penn. leth them out, visiteth with his corhand according to their need, woundhis sword, and melteth in his fire, hath made them tender and pliable, n He pours in the fresh oil of his and sweetly healeth them.'

an unspeakable merey to feel the ng of his sword and the fire of his its, destroying the corrupt propensihe heart, and bringing us into a con receive the "oil of his salvation." the same deeply experienced writer and embrace it in his arms of recon-, and in the peace of his Spirit."

oo much according to their own wills, se feet have been turned into the way them performed, so that there may has redeemed them from all iniquity God himself. they humbly trust will receive them lasting rest and peace.

J. Leviek, of Philadelphia, has kindly st copy of a recent address entitled,

"Not only does George Fox say, 'I saw that took shovels to throw rubbish on them they Christ died for all men,' but he also says, 'I stood close together, willing to be buried alive saw Christ had enlightened all men and wo- witnessing for the Lord.' men with his divine and saving light.' This, , the Lord "gives brokenness, He which William Penn calls the characteristic death, the late Henry Armitt Brown, quotes, the heart, that He may be tender doctrine of the Friends, now appears in almost in his Burlington address, that wonderful every sermon, epistle and paper put forth by George Fox. That it was thus prominently the darkest bours, their comrades la plan-put forward was doubtless due to the fact that guishing in prison, the Friends marched in ose who in their earlier years have s, there sometimes comes a season and although the acceptance of it was mixed brethren. 'In love to our brethren, say they, the decline of life, they are in mea- up with error, there was, relatively, but little who lie in Prisons, in dungeons and in many ieved from the pressure of business, necessity for especially pressing it upon men's fetters and irons, and have been cruelly beat seenes and incidents of the past come attention at that time. But this, to them, by the cruel jailers * * and many who be w before them. They may recall new doctrine, a living, present Christ, they sick and weak in Prison and on straw vidences of Divine favor,—how the preached everywhere, and, I may add, almost we do offer up our bodies and selves to you s watched over and preserved them everywhere 'the common people heard them great geons, and do stand ready a sacrifice for to go ald have led them—and how He has unrest, there came with this doctrine of direct into their places that they may go forth and their spirits by the fresh visitations access to their Saviour, a sense of rest and not die.' ve, and made them willing at times peace and companionship, for which they had bey bis requirings. The Good Relong earnestly yearned, but to which they had long earnestly yearned, but to which they had been strangers. No wonder that the people heard it gladly! No wonder, too, ert, who was made Governor of East Jersey; to the cheek, and the pang of regret that there soon arose that fierce spirit of per- of the early settlements of Friends in America; peart. They may recall instances of secution against those who held it, taught it, of the visit to this country of George Fox in ness or wilfulness, in childhood; of and, with and by it, drew away so many from 1671, and his perils and hardships in his wil-

len rule of treating others as they came as a natural sequence, all their distinctory he has briefly sketched, he asks the esire to be treated themselves; and of tive doctrines. If He were in every heart,—if question:variety of other matters, which the men had in them the Real Presence, it fold "Have subsequent results compensated for deconscience sees to have been violationed that all mere types and shadows of that this fearful expenditure of all that men deem the Divine law. All this tends to Real Presence were unnecessary. This doe-valuable in life,—health, strength, libertythem, and to bring them into that trine, if accepted, at once did away with all life itself? condition, which enables them to need for the rites and eeremonies of the language of the poor publican, the language of the poor publican, the condition of th ere they had hardly dealt with others, must be learned in a higher school than Ox- hangman.

struggles of nature, and through the gift to their souls, unerring in its guidance, I know that these early Friends did not live sistance to keep the heart fixed on infallible in its teachings,—an emanation from —did not die—in vain."

manner-describing more especially kept in dungeons foul and gloomy, fined, ex-righteous.

their diseases, nay, not because of the history, character and labors of George iled, sold into colonial bondage. Imprisoned in winter, without fire, they perished from the After relating the gradual opening of spirit- cold. Some were victims to the barbarous nal truth to the mind of George Fox, the au-crnelty of the jailers; twice George Fox narthor says, that his message may be epitomized rowly escaped death. They braved every in his own words: "I saw that Christ died danger to continue their assemblies. Haled for all men, and had enlightened all men and out by violence they returned; when their women with his divine and saving light, and meeting-houses were torn down they gathered that no man could be a true believer but who openly on the ruins. They could not be dissolved by armed men, and when their opposers

One whose eloquent voice is now stilled in the great doctrine of the Atonement was gen- procession to Westminster Hall, to offer themerally accepted by the then Christian world, selves to Parliament as hostages for their dulgence of the appetites; of business their old forms and places of worship."

ons in which they have not acted on "Out of this doctrine of an indwelling Christ William Penn. As he looks back over the his-ve felt it safest for them to re-open loved to partake of the communion, but it was cately nurtured women, younger and older, the transactions of the distant past; to them an inward and spiritual feast. They were whipped at the cart-tail from town to rejveness of those whom they had recognized the value of a rightly ordained town, and where Robinson, Stevenson, Leddra treated, and to make restitution in ministry, but they taught that its lessons and Mary Dyer perished by the hand of the bugh the transactions were legal in ford or Cambridge, and that having been a I a I read to-day, on every side, the recogniting day, when "the grasshopper All that was distinctive in their views re-Christ, hear it preached by Episcopalian, ing day, when "the grasshopper All that was distinctive in their views re-Christ, hear it preached by Episcopalian, a burden," has awakened an earnest specting the ministry came of the doctrine we Presbyterian and Baptist, see how it perhat when health and strength fails have been considering, an inward revelation, meates the life of the best men in all our y be nothing left undone to disturb qualifying, guiding, directing for this service; churches, to what results it has already led, but that they may know all their not a natural principle like reason or con- and to what higher ones it is leading; when I ed beforehand, and all the duties re-seience, capable of being cultivated by individence, as I daily do, their views on tithes, on uals themselves, influenced by their surround- oaths, on complete religious toleration, acing remaining, but to bear the last ings, moulded by their education, but a direct cepted as correct by Christians all about me, Here our friend might have added, what "And now there came to George Fox and he no doubt regards as too self-evident to his associates that fierce storm of persecution require distinct enunciation—that even if no which, even though we read the literal ac- visible results could now be traced from the count, we fail, I think, to comprehend the full faithfulness of those witnesses for the truth, extent of it. By it, in the language of the yet there was abundant compensation to them historian I have quoted, 'everywhere and for in the peace of God which was shed abroad arry Friends and their services in long wearisome years, they were exposed to in their hearts, and in the holy confidence perpetual dangers and griefs. They were with which they were embled to look for the state of the perpetual dangers and griefs. They were with which they were embled to look for whipped, erowded into jails among felons, the crown of righteousness reserved for the SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.-The American Land League, representing the Irish race, met in Philadelphia on the 25th ultimo, and continued its sessions three days. A series of resolutions were adopted declaring that the English Government has no moral right whatever to exist in Ireland; that it is the duty of the Irish race throughout the world to sustain the Irish people in the employment of all legitimate means to substitute for it national self-government; that all the societies represented in the Convention, and all that may hereafter comply with the conditions of admission, be organized into the Irish National League of America, for the purpose of supporting the Irish National League of Ireland, of which Charles Stewart Paruell is President; demanding that the farmers allow the laborers a fair day's wages for a fair day's work; counselling their countrymen in Ireland to buy nothing in England which they can produce in Ireland or procure from America or France, and pledging themselves to promote Irish manufactures by encouraging their import into America, and to use their utmost endeavor to persuade American tradesmen from keeping English goods on sale; de-claring that an English Ministry has earned the contempt of fair-minded men throughout the world by imprisoning more than a thousand citizens of Ireland without accusation or trial; that the policy of the English Government in first reducing the Irish peasantry to abject poverty and then sending them penniless to the United States, dependents upon American charity. is unuatural and an outrage upon the American Government and people.

value to $808,726,356, an increase of $17,917,386 on those of the preceding twelve months. Our total imports for the twelve months which ended 3rd mo. 31st, a 53 cts. 1883, were $742,442,259, an increase of $41,599,385 on those for the twelve months which ended 3rd mo. 31st,

The latest advices from the tornado-devastated region of Mississippi say that 83 persons were killed and 300 55 a 65 cts. injured, many dangerously. The loss of property is said to be "unprecedented." Corrected lists of the fraction higher: 2500 head arrived and solid at 5\xi a 7\xi killed and injured at Beauregard and Wesson give the cts. per lb.; the latter rate for extrafollowing figures: Beauregard-killed 31, injured 60; Wesson—killed 22, injured 31. As showing the force of the storm, it is asserted that "a solid iron screw of a cotton press, weighing 675 pounds, was carried by the cyclone 300 yards." Also, that "a piece of scantling, 3 by 4 inches and 10 feet long, was driven through a red oak sapling." Accounts from places in the interior of Georgia, distant from rail and telegraph, which were swept by the tornado, are beginning to come in. In Taliaferro and Lincoln counties, gin houses and cabins on trial. Hallocite Creek on First-day night, and the latter county a man and his son were dangerously injured, and his wife was vention at Philadelphia began with claptrap touy ame his son were dangerously injured, and his wife was vention at Philadelphia began with claptrap touy ame his ballocity. The house of malignity, and closed after the same fashion. The B. J. Roop near Franklin, was swept off by a sudden whole scene, it says, would be painful were it not sufficient to the painful were were demolished, and in the latter county a man and lives are reported lost.

A "water spout" in Lenoir county, Notes county on the 25th, destroyed forests, orchards and dwellings, the face of the country. No in some places changing the face of the country.

are lying at Chicago, awaiting the opening of the Straits they are unfit to have national independence, and they of Mackinaw.

The Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians in Northern Minnesota, are reported to be starving. Deputy Customs Collector McCollum and John F. Malo. member of the Canadian Parliament, have written to Secretary Teller that, unless immediately relieved, few of these Indians will be alive to meet the Indian Commissioner in 6th month, as they now anticipate doing. The Indian Agent at Devil's Lake has been directed to use every effort to provide for these Indians at once. The Indian Agent at Fort Totten, Montana, informs the accounts from the distressed districts in Ireland had the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that he has notified been decidedly more encouraging during the last few the Turtle Mountain Indians to go to his agency and weeks. He said the Government were agreed that receive supplies.

House of Representatives failed to pass on the 26th necessary to force it upon the people. ult. for want of a two-thirds vote. The yeas were 57, ment had received a hopeful offer for the

it impaired existing contracts.

The Mayor of Minneapolis has vetoed the ordinance fixing the rate of saloon licenses at $1500. It failed to since 1st mo. 1st the number of people arriving in that 50,000 persons. section by the two lines of ocean steamers was 19,600. Of the total immigration, 50 per cent. seek homes on Puget Sound, while the rest scatter to the grain districts east of the Cascade mountains,

The deaths in this city last week numbered 378 which was 9 less than during the previous week, and 3 less than during the corresponding period last year. The number of males and females was 189 each: 65

currency 6's 129 to 132.

Cotton.—There was no essential change to notice in price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at 400 to 107. $10\frac{8}{8}$ a $10\frac{6}{9}$ cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans. An expl 10_8^8 a 10_8^8 cts. per pound for upraists and view Oricans. Petroleum.—Standard white, 7_4^3 a 7_8^4 cts. for export, and 8_4^3 a 8_8^4 cts. per gallon for home use. Flour is in fair demand and steady. Sales of 2600

Flour is in lair demand and steady. Sales of 2600 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5.12\dagger a $5.25; western do. at $5.50 a $6.20, and patents at $6.25 a $7.75. Rye flour is quiet but steady at $3.62\frac{1}{2} a $3.75 per barrel. Grain.—Wheat is quiet but a fraction higher. Sales of 4000 bushels red, No. 2 and long berry, in car lots, at The total exports of the United States for the twelve $1.16 a $1.25. Rye is nominal. Coro is in moderate in Chinese waters will proceed to Tonquin months which ended 3rd mo. 31st, 1883, amounted in demand, and steady. Sales of 8500 bushels in car lots, pected that Captain Kergaradec, French En at 62 a 66 cts., and a choice lot at 68 cts. Oats are dull and irregular. Sales of 7500 bushels, in car lots, at 482

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 4th mo 28th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 283; loads of straw, 52. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 90 cts. to $1.00 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 a 95 cts.; straw, Sheep were a fraction lower: 10,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4 a 74 cts. for wool sheep, and 31/4 a 53/4 cts. for clipped, spring lambs sold to notify the Hong Kong authorities that the at $3 a $7 per head.

Hogs were rather lower: 4000 head sold at the different yards at 101 a 111 cts. per lb., as to condition. Foreign.-On the 27th ultimo, Michael Fagan was convicted of the murder of Frederick Burke. Fitzharris, another of the Phœnix Park conspirators, is now England unless they are obliged to. It is a confession of impotence when Irish malice is driven to such a paltry expedient, which, if tried, would only injure its It is believed that little or no damage was done to adopters. The lesson for Great Britain is to ignore the peaches in Delaware and Maryland by the frost of Irishuren and abandon the hope of bringing them to a adopters. The lesson for Great Britain is to ignore better frame of mind by a continuance of unmerited One hundred vessels, with 4,250,000 bushels of grain, favors. They have already convinced the world that must be made to feel the strong hand of the law. The Standard, in a leading article commenting on the proceedings of the Irish Convention at Philadelphia, ays, C. S. Parnell knew that a word from him plainly denouncing the dynamite policy would have produced a deep effect on the Convention; but, it says, he will not speak the word lest he should wound the susceptibilities of some of his friends in America.

On the 24th ultimo, Lord Carlingford, Lord Presi dent of the Council and Minister of Agriculture, said emigration was the best and the inevitable remedy for The Prohibition amendment before the Michigan the distress, but they had neither the right, nor was it The Governult for want of a two-thirds vote. The yeas were 57, the nays 36, with 8 absentees.

In the Senate of Wisconsin, on the 25th, the Prohibition amendment to the Constitution was lost for want. Canadian Pacific Railway Company and Land Comof a two-thirds vote, and a local option measure was panies interested in the opening of the Caoadian North-laid on the table for future consideration. Justice May, in Steubenville, Ohio, on the 30th ult, families, numbering in the aggregate 25,000 persons, decided that the Scott Liquor Law was unconstitutional, on government lands under the Homestead laws, which because the tax imposed by it was unequal, and because give each family 160 acres free. The proscheme would become security for £1,000, vanced, interest free, by Great Britain for be devoted to loans sufficient to start each pass over his veto by one vote.

Statistics collected at Portland, Oregon, show that they would relieve the crowded districts:

> The combined efforts of four policemen w to carry into the House of Commons on 4 the petition in favor of closing public hou day—one of the largest documents of the ki sented to Parliament. It contained 590,33 npon a continuous roll of paper, which was long, and weighed 350 pounds.

The French Chamber of Deputies, by a The inducer of induces and relaines was 159 sent; 55 displayed the first clause of the bit theria; 15 of old age; 11 of convulsions; 9 of scarlet for the conversion of the 5 per cent, rentes feever and 8 of typholid feeve.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103½; 3½'s, 103; 4½'s, 120; substituting for the conversion section the 1 substituting for the conversion section the a annually. The bill was finally adopted b

An explosion occurred on the 25th ult. i Besseges, in the arondissement of Alais. have thus far been recovered. At the roll was had after the explosion, 127 miners fa swer to their names, and it is feared then victims.

The National Expedition to Tonquin has such excitement in China that it is deemed retain several French iron clads near Sha Hong Kong. Therefore, only a portion of th nam, will be appointed Lieutenant Govern quin, when a protectorate is established, that the French Minister to Pekin, who was return home, has been instructed to remain until further orders.

The National Zeitung says the position of S United States Minister, is considered in circles to have been shaken in consequence o to the American Secretary of State on the su importation of pork into Germany.

At a recent meeting of the Hawaiian Cabir tions were adopted "that in view of the influ Chinese, the Minister of Foreign Affairs be . Government protest against the excessive em men alone."

Locusts have appeared in large numbers a Mexico, and it is feared they will invade the Platean

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CH AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the household duties. Apply to

Joseph S. Elkiaton, 325 Pin

John Sharpless, Chester, Pen Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine st

WANTED.

An assistant in housekeeping-a Friend pref Address R. F. EVANS, Marshalton, Chester

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teac Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School Application may be made to

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwo Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ni Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INS Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philo

Physician and Superintendent-John C. H. Applications for the Admission of Patien made to the Superintendent, or to any of t of Managers.

DIED, on the 16th of 2nd month, at her res Philadelphia, ELIZABETH S., wife of Henry beloved member of the Monthly Meeting of F Philadelphia, in the sixtieth year of her age. WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER,

No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FIFTH MONTH 12, 1883.

NO. 40.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail, ticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON.

IOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. gons, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

Separation.

In the earth was a chaos and the darkas upon the face of the deep, and the he darkness. This was the first separa-dlight from darkness.

e is another earth or world full of darkd iniquity, but still the embryo of Light ! This is man in the fall and alienaom God his Maker. In this condition f his heart-there is darkness. The shineth in darkness and the darkness hends it not. But there is a time when itation of the Father of Light cometh, confused chaos," called man, and there light. As God in this outward world through him, wherefore such a minister can which gave them forth. The greatest assailers of God moved upon the face of the say: "Christ, who is in me, does the works, of Christendom have even well studied or searchtof God moved upon the tace of the solution in the least said: My Father who is in me led the Scriptures. The prince of darkness is posted about the Scriptures too.

The truly begotten children of God's incorruptible seed,—the Word, who abideth for and when that founder passed away, his re-ever,—are saints indeed. They are the peoligion continued by following his instructions ple constituting the true church which is in and writings left behind him-for which purthe wilderness, even in our days of so much high profession of Christ. They are few, but expound the traditions. As the founder of d sown in him by the enemy has taken more are formed as in the caves and holes of such a religion did die, so the religion being nd produced a most abundant crop of the mountains, hidden from the world; but traditional is dying, having no spirit and life, and briars—and upon the face of the in the Lord's time they will come forth in To such a religion priestcraft has tried and power, and the morning will come for sleep-endeavored to bring the Christian religion; ing humanity, and the night and its works in vain, for the eternal gospel of Christ is will be discovered and judged. The separa- but all their endeavors have been and will be tion of light from darkness will take place-preached in every creature, and is in Spirit served for it.

ed the light from the darkness, so in in this world, which is to be judged in the Light which enlightens every man that come will separate the light from the dark. Light. There are in the great city of Baby- eth into the world. Most true and precious od the Light will discover the darkness lon often people who, feeling convictions of is the experience of the children of light and s subtle and secret manifestations, and sins, and in a measure secing the corruption morning, that their Lawgiver, Redeemer, kness will be cast out of the redeemed and confusion there, will feel desires to sepa- Light and Life is always present with them, man, and the Light will cover the face rate from the mysterious city of iniquity - and in them. But to those that follow Christ deep of man's heart. And after the and they may do it. Their intention in the after the flesh in the tradition of Him, denye has consumed the thorns and briars first place is good, but coming out mostly in ing his Light as a gift for salvation, the Chris-The has consumed the thorns and primary the constraint of the light and provided the constraint of the light and primary the rown wills, and not being subject to the lian religion is a religion of priesteraft and a per will grow the most fruitful plants. Light and willing to follow it in all its holy dying religion. od's heavenly planting; yes, they will manifestations and purifying judgments, as to Now, in the Light and Spirit of Christ, I and thrive in the rays of the Sun of become perfectly cleansed, and to have the feel a commission laid upon me to touch a coursess with healings on its wings. So an reclaimed by the Lord, and sepa-do works in them and through them; they ing, what I write down in discernment and in rom darkness, will consciously live have never been renewed up to the condition my reader will not impatiently call fault-findfrom darkness, will consciously live been renewed up to the condition my reader will not impatiently call fault-find been and have its being in God, in the first heaven in which Adam was before he fell,—less to the love. For more than two centuries ago a people in white garments were gathered by fell; therefore all their works are as a defield the mighty power of God, and meetings were garment. They may believe that by quotien to the children of the Light of the darkness is found no more, for the Scriptures, and from the saints who wrote. Men had nothing of their own to do with it the first heaven and the first earth the first heaven and the first earth dassed away, and the sain is no more agon, they are bringing back the church—but in the power of Jesus Christ, in and assed daway, and the sain is no more agon to more than two centuries and the first in his Light and control doi. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. It is only the saints in the Snirit received Christ, in his Light and cannot doit. assed away, and the sea is no more | cannot do it. It is only the saints in the Spirit received Christ in his Light, and got the nents of the new heaven and the new re in them. Here is realized the taber the following them. Here is realized the taber the interval of the men. They have got part is tresurrection, and they are blessed esperation seems always to believe that the and washed their robes and made them white y, and over them the second death has Scripture of truth is the only rule of faith in the blood of the Lamb,—a church that had

O, consider how the Light of Christ in said, that the Holy Spirit should quide his disman, when obediently followed, causes man's ciples into all truth, and the prophecy of old heart to be entirely separated and cleansed was, that all should be taught by God. If Christ from darkness and the deeds of darkness, and does not give to men the key of David to to become a fit temple for Christ to work in ; open the Scriptures, they are more likely to or we may say: all man's own wills and desires lead from God than to God—as the case was must be submitted to the fiery baptisms of in the days of the religious Pharisees, and is the great spiritual baptizer, Christ, before He now in outward Christendom, where there is works the works of righteousness in man, no lack of studying and searching the Scripwhich is to set up his kingdom in righteous tures, but men have used them in their own ness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. There- wills, for their own wills and purposes and fore none can be a minister of Christ, and be inventions; and professing Christendom has owned and recognized by Christ, before his been ent up into hundreds of sects and deheart has been cleansed and purified by his nominations as a consequence from using the Spirit; so that Christ himself will work in and Scriptures without first being in the Spirit

Every false and dying religion had a founder, voice is heard: "Let there be light the darkness passing away to the place reand in truth, and is Spirit and is Life; and Christ has not passed away, but is the Word There is another sort of separation visible of God which abideth forever, and the true tents of Kedar, their lives being hid-be safely guided to the Day star. But Christ flood, and many left their habitation in the Christ in God.

Light and holiness. The reason of this plaintive apostasy is evident to those whose spiritual eyes are opened; it was slighting of the Light of Christ, the Light of the world, who gives the Light of life to those that follow Him; therefore without light no life! district of the province of Manitoba, and the usually extends over separate lodgi The Light will plainly show the faithful and most recent immigration has been directed to eattle, although in this respect the obedient ones what to do. When a majority a reservation of seventeen townships adjoinobedient ones what to do. When a majority a reservation of seventeen townships adjoin- growing tendency to have different ten in a place desires to remain in the truth, and ing the frontier, and extending west of Red Each family has a yoke of oxen, tw agknowledge the principles of truth, there is river to Pembina mountain. The settlement and indefinite poultry. The pig is no great need for them to remain there and be on the reservation first mentioned, called Rat ing; and there are five hundred shee faithful to the truth, and follow the Light in river, consists of 650 families, and on the hundred and fifty horses on the Re obedience, and the Light will grow upon them, second reservation, called Dufferin, 450 famiand Christ will establish his kingdom more lies have been settled. In addition, thirty and more in all that have not come to the three families have been settled near Scratchunity in faith, (for in such a company or assembly must be people of different conditions families will go to Dufferin. of light) according to their obedience to the Light of Christ, than anything else. But if arms.* those from whom they came out, will stand ness, that they are true saints, then they will dark spirits.

fallen from the truth, and there are only few ciples. Oh, remain in the Light and grow up rant some fulness of detail. to perfect saints in the unchangeable inheritance in the Light, and the Lord will surely, number-take their homesteads separately, exciting scenes of the card-table. in his day, show forth that He owns his peo- but proceed to throw them together, selecting ple! It is easier to establish a church, so the most desirable situation for a village or called, than to be saints.

CHARLES SHIELDSTREAM.

Nebraska.

greater is He that is for us than he that is and within which each head of a family culti-tender, elevating, or beautiful associ against us; and although many are the trials vates that portion of his allotment—for there the tendency of which is to unduly of faith and patience, the deep baptisms, and is no communism-that he finds convenient the attention from more weighty mat the tribulations which the Lord's children A hay meadow, held also in severalty, is recommend itself to the favor of Chr have to pass through, yet He delivereth out chosen, and the remainder of the consolidated ciples. The presence of culture and of them all; and He will deliver, and that to homesteads is used as a range for cattle and may embellish, but can never dignify in Him. And how doth He mercifully vouch-by a herdsman who is paid by the dorf. The soft unto such in the abanding of his love. safe unto such, in the abounding of his love, a blessed portion of that " peace which passeth all understanding" to sustain them in the way ciples refused to do hospital service or anything else as that they should go.—Memoirs of D. Wheeler. a substitute for bearing arms.—ED.

The Mennonites.

of Winnipeg, is now as well populated as any ing river, and the recent arrival of thirty-five

Estimating five to a family, the Mennonite measure of faith; and children will grow up settlements of Manitoba contain a population a president or elder, selected for five necessity of fatter, and entitled will grow up of 5.865, which will doubtless be increased and who, associated with the mayor and become elders in their respective order, steadily, but by no means with the volume of dorfs, form a court for the final adjust and the Great Head of all will lead them in the past three years. The Mennonites who all disputes and the enactment of all all truth, and his work in them will, in the remain in Southern Russia, though inclined sary ordinances. The president may Lord's time, put down all the unruly and airy to emigrate in consequence of the termination all matters relating to a separate vi spirits. But if the enemy should succeed to of the stipulation exempting them from mili-concurrence with the mayor thereof. sow a seed of impatience, to draw out a part tary services, are not prepared to sacrifice of that people from the Light, so that they their possessions. When they can sell with-from the civil administration. The would think that they would do best to sepa- out disadvantage they emigrate. The exodus elect a clergyman in each dorf, and a rate for sake of doing better, and do it, that is, therefore, likely to be gradual especially to preside over the whole commu would be a very sorrowful and unjust doing, as the Russian government, while insisting periods of five years. They receive nos to leave that part of those that had a true denote the right of conscription, assents readily The teachers of the schools, one held sire to be faithful, to contend alone with the to special assignments of service in deference village, are chosen by the people, but airy spirits. Therefore such a separation to the Mennonite conscience—such as trans- a moderate compensation. would not be of the Light, but of men's importation, forestry and hospital service—very free; no allotment is made as formerly patience, and would not bring forth any good much as the Quakers of the United States the Moravians, and they are usual fruit,—for it would rather seem in the Light during the late civil war were subjected to tracted early, the pair often remaining to be a desertion from the witnesses of the military service, but relieved from bearing the most prosperous of the parents for

The emigrating class of Lutheran Quakers, faithful in the Light, the outcomers must own known as Mennonites, are neither the rich their own offence and return; for if they can nor the poor, but are an intermediate body, elected by the whole community. show by their lives and conversations in good who are, however, by no means destitute, sured are not restricted in amount, - Hespeler estimates that the sum brought tribute pro rata in case of any loss. help their brethren to put down the airy and into the province by the Mennonite immigra-that own the truth; then those few have Western States, but the land system there villager is liable, deducting from t nothing to do among the unfaithful, but are enforced does not admit of special reserva orphan fund whatever contributions to heed the voice: "Come out from her, of tions, and Manitoba has thus been enabled to roller of the few destitute orphans my people." Now there is much required present greater inducements for this class of found necessary.—Winnipeg (British from such out-comers to walk in the Light settlers. Here the community can organize sions) Standard. and become saints indeed, and not to be drawn itself fully according to its traditions, includout from the Light with desire to establish ing the rural village life of the dorf-or dorp, meetings and defend the truth in their own as we believe the word is Anglicised-a custom will, by proclaiming orthodoxy and true prin- which has great merit socially and will war-

A group of families-usually sixteen in pleasure, and suffer the loss of his al dorf, through which a street two chains wide is laid, and the plat divided into half acre lots, open to my observation, and I am ye with assignments for church, school or other to believe that that which is the u public use. A tract most suitable for tillage resort of the starved in soul and i Let none be cast down or discouraged; for is then selected in a block, which is enclosed, which has never in any way linked the very uttermost, all that in sincerity trust other animals, which are invariably attended village lots and other subdivisions tributed by lot.

The Mennonite reservation, east of the Red River, and about twenty-five miles southeast comfortable, heated by central brief warming three or four rooms. The se Reservation.

The municipal government is a sin mocracy. The heads of families a select a mayor or reeve, who is the ch cutive officer, constantly conferring v constituents. Over the whole comm Marria or two.

An admirable system of mutual in against fire prevails under a board of d

The mayor of a dorf, with two ass tion is $500,000, and the recently arrived constitute an orphan court for the On the other hand, when the majority is thirty-five families have not less than $10,000 tion of estates and the custody of the There are Mennonite settlements in the orphans, for which the property of

> Card-Playing at Home.-Playing e pastime" or as an "innocent amu soon becomes a passion, and when on a man will forego home, family, busin

> That accomplished writer, the l Holland, of Springfield, Mass., said: all my days had a card-playing con

> "I have this moment," said Dr. cards. Over them I have murdered lost heaven." Fathers and mothe your sons from cards in the "home

^{*} Those among them who were faithful to their prin-must a good angel think of a mother playing cards for "pastime?"

For "The Friend."

Gather up the Fragments. ract from a letter of our late dear friend, as Evans. May the reading of it prove I in season to those who sow in weaker."-1 Cor. xv. 43.

"Philada., 3rd mo. 11th, 1867.

er much in my thoughts for some time, as desiring to hear about her-having small measure felt much near fellowship bristian sympathy with her. Though ems long detained from her heavenly on, I doubt not it is for some wise and ous purpose to others beside herself, and when her measure of service and of sufis filled up, she will be welcomed to ome above with the gladdening saluta-Come, thou blessed of my Father! inthe kingdom prepared for thee.

T. E."

The Writing on the Wall.

n modern times as in the day's of old, but a message from God. ose who read them.

ting asking prayers for the conversion prominence to the letter of God's command God has to say to him, and not man, and to son whom she allowed to remain at low write the words of the law on their door learning and on their gates; as Christians have God.' We are reminded of these scriptures: unduly exalted the letter of a Divine com- 'Hear, and your soul shall live.' 'If any man mand above its spirit, in many another matter; wills to do the will of my Father, he shall but this error, in either case, cannot change know of the doctrine.' He that heareth my the real force of the commandment. The words and believeth Him that sent me, hath Jews inscribe certain passages of Scripture- everlasting life." such as Deuteronomy vi. 4-9, and Deute-"It is sown in weakness; it is raised ronomy xi. 13-21-on a piece of parchment, which they roll up and superscribe with the Hebrew word Shaddai (Almighty God). This Dear Friend,-It was grateful to me to roll they insert in a tube or case of wood or country town found among her scholars a boy e thy kind letter, and to know of the metal or glass, in which is an opening through about fourteen years old, who cared very little ctory and peaceful termination of your which the superscribed name of the Deity about study, and showed no interest apparlabors among the families of Birming—may be seen; and the case with its enclosure, ently in anything connected with the school. In the Moor post at Day after day he failed in his lesson, and ded to return to your homes rejoicing and the right hand as one enters the door. Each tentions after school hours and notes to his ng your sheaves with you -for the room in the house, whether parlor, reception-widowed mother had no effect. One day the children serve a good and gracious room, bed-room, kitchen, or cellar, has the teacher had sent him to his seat after a vain r, who is a rich rewarder of all who en-" m'zuzah" at its door, in the home of many effort to get from him a correct answer to quest diligently to do his will. Those who a devout Jew; and the rabbinical writers at tions in grammar; and feeling somewhat netst with health and strength act wisely tribute peculiar gain to the keeping of this tled she watched his conduct. Having taken oting them fully to every required ser- one of "the three great precepts of Judaism." his seat, he pushed the book impatiently aside, n the Lord's cause—for even if life is For example, it is said: "Whosoever attends and espying a fly, caught it with a dexterous ened out, the period soon comes when to the m'zuzah, the days of himself and his sweep of the hand, and then betook himself reakuess and infirmities of declining children will be prolonged; and whosoever to a close inspection of the insect. For fifteen disqualify for active service; and bow-does not, they shall be shortened." "By minutes or more the boy was thus occupied, he will to do may be present, how to per-reason of the m'zuzah the destroyer shall have heedless of surroundings, and the expression refinal not. How much more consolatory is admittance in your houses." "The Lord of his face told the teacher that it was more such circumstances to feel that while we did what we could, than to have to right hand; for the m'zuzah is on thy right A thought struck her, which she put into that the love of lawful things, or any band on entering thy bouse." This promier A mough struck ner, which she put into that the love of lawful things, or any band on entering thy bouse. "This promier at the first opportunity that day. cause, hindered us from the full pernence to the mizuzah is a testimony to the "Boys," said she, "what can you tell me about nee of the Lord's will. notice of your visit to that worthy to keep the words of God before us on the by name, she asked them if they could tell provable mother in Israel, dear Hannah walls in our homes; but it can hardly be ac- her something of a fly's constitution and

For " The Friend,"

It is cause of rejoicing to find the longestablished belief of Friends, as to worship and ministry, supported by the testimony of those of other persuasions. The following extract from the teaching of Geo. F. Pente cost, in treating of Acts x, 30-14, added to that of Bishop Stephens, noted in a recent issue of "The Friend," gives us to hope that the spirituality of the religion of Christ is coming to be more and more recognized by religious professors :

" The True Attitude of a Sincere Inquirer .massive ruins of Egypt are covered This is indicated in [Cornelius'] first words long talk with the boy, and found that be was writings which told to the people of long to Peter, after having explained to him how fond of going into the woods and meadows hat men had done in the avowed service he came to send to him: 'We are all here and collecting insects and watching birds, but gods, and of what the gods would have present before God.' God was not visible to that his mother thought he was wasting his do. And so of the ancient ruins of their mortal eyes, but to the eye of faith and it. time. The teacher, however, wisely encourreh and Babylon. It was in accordance sincere piety, He was present. Though they aged bim in this pursuit, and asked him to the eyen then ancient customs of the were to bear the message of God through the bring beetles and butterflies and caterpillars , that the Israelites were told, in the lips of a man like themselves, yet it was the to school and tell what he knew about them. rness, to write the words of their God presence of God (as they believed Him to be) The boy was delighted by this unexpected the posts of their houses, and on their that was the ground of the whole conference, turn of affairs, and in a few days the listless when they should enter into the land If all hearers of sermons would only take dunce was the marked boy of that school. ir promised possession; and, again, that this position, more of them would be con-Books on natural history were procured for a was commanded to set up great stones verted. The trouble with too many of our him, and a world of wonders opened to his laster them with plaster, and write upon congregations is that they are present before appreciative eyes. He read and studied and all the words of the divinely given law, men to hear what man has to say to them, examined. He soon understood the necessity e centre of their new inheritance. In Second, 'To hear all things that are come of knowing something of mathematics, goods, and in Christian, and in Moham manded thee of God.' He recognized that graphy, and gramman, for the successful carry n, and, also, in many Pagan communi- Peter had no message of his own to deliver, ing on of his favorite study; and he made rapid hat speak lessons of warning or counsel received from God, and not his own thoughts; knowledge, to that discerning teacher.and here also we see the true position of the Phrenological Journal.

Reverent Jews have, it is true, given undue hearer of the Gospel, viz., to listen to what Marshallton, Pa.

The Discerning Teacher.

A teacher having charge of a school in a ns, and of her preaching the gospel to cepted as meeting either the spirit or the habits. They had very little to say about the vas peculiarly pleasant to me—I had purpose of that injunction.—S. S. Times. for sport, and did not think it worth while to study so common an insect. Finally she asked the dunce, who had serenely, but with kindling eyes, listened to what his schoolmates hesitatingly said. He burst out with a description of the head, eyes, wings, and feet of the little creature, so full and enthusiastic that the teacher was astonished and the whole school struck with wonder. He told how it walked and how it ate, and many things which were entirely new to his teacher. So that when he had fluished, she said: "Thank you! You have given us a real lecture in natural history, and you have learned it all yourself." After the school that afternoon she had a progress in his classes. In short, twenty alls and gates of temples and dwellings "Here we see the true business of a minis-years later he was eminent as a naturalist, and scribed with words that are held sacred, ter of the Word: To speak the things he has lowed his success, as he never hesitated to ac-cheer a gloomy hour, of which, my dear thy frail friend partakes largely at times.

For "The Friend."

" Philada., 2d mo. 5th, 1825.

dearest to my heart.

prospect of liberty; in others a different disposition prevails. While too anxiously look-ing out for temporal advantages, all will be measurably disappointed. I am often asked ment which exists among us in the city.

Longing desires are felt to see more of young men giving themselves first to the excite-ing the exists among us in the city ing to His will; and then in simple, chil versary should prevail in drawing off from Meeting. the fountain of living waters, the prospect of being brought more and more, as it were, into the vortex of temptation certainly cannot but the period, then near at hand, when Wm. his school, and submit themselves to be ta excite a degree of fear in relation to my get-|Scattergood was to enter, at the age of twenty- by Him. This precious choice also, w ting safely along. Then wilt say, there is a one years, upon the arena and more responsilied us to appropriate the mercies, the blessed refuge. I feel sensible of this; and as ble duties and assailing temptations of life, ings, and the opportunities with which a I have had to experience, in measure, its effi- It is worthy of note, and we would commend ciful Father has favored us in the chann ciency in some sore conflicts, I can still look young men of like age, to whom this may obedience and usefulness designed by to the holy sanetuary; and my hope and con-come, to solidly ponder the ground upon who giveth "to every man his work," stant prayer is, that He who is able to pre-which he, W. S., bases his business prospects; thus would utilize them (if we may so sp serve from falling will condescend to keep my and which moreover, as the sequel will show, to the promotion of bis kingdom and be poor soul. But enough; I believe it is not best proved successful; securing to him a suffinite and of their being buried in the eart to dwell too much on the side of discourage-ciency of the good things of this life, while at wasted upon the desert air of this world. One that is mighty; and I am well assured to have his bosom treasure laid up in heaven; the calls of his grace, the evidences of that as we are faithfully concerned to look to whereupon, as said the Sariour, the bart will love, it is believed are being sweetly an Him, he will be 'strength to them who turn be there also. He writes: that notwithstand the battle to the gate. What an anchor to ing sore conflicts, "I can still look to the generation. And how aptly and truly the soul is this blessed faith, which enables us glorious sanctuary; and my hope and con- poet has conveyed the feelings of many he to hold fast the consolations which are in our stant prayer is, that He who is able to pre-las they hopefully dwell upon those your ever adorable Head. Though the waters may serve us from falling will condescend be Letters and Memoranda of William Scattergood, come upon us, yea, the mighty waves of the my poor soul." The tervent feeling of sea, threatening to overwhelm and altogether of the writer of this for young m to swallow us up, what a consoling thing it launching on the treacherous ocean in is, amid it all, to have our chief interest in ness life is, that they may strive to care Thou art perhaps ready to wonder at the Him, to be able to look with holy confidence the requisitions of our boly religion, all long-continued silence of thy generally officious correspondent, and to suppose it may be deliver to the uttermost all them that truly first the kingdom of God and his riggo occasioned by that forgetfulness which is so trust in Him. There is, notwithstanding, a ness, with humble reliance on the proapt to steal over those whose friendship is not established upon the immutable basis. Thou perhaps more than myself, to mistrust the will be added."

Arm that has been often stretched out for our "This wise course while leading in the course of the stretched out for our "This wise course while leading in the course of the more so than thou may suppose. I always salvation, and to be ready to ask nearly in steps of Christ's companions, would be feel glad to receive thy letters. They often the language of the Psalmist, Will the Lord promotive of that "godliness" which be merciful no longer? Well, we are all poor assured "is profitable unto all things: creatures; and the way to the kingdom is de- the promise of the life that now is, and Encompassed as it is by a cloud of infirmity, clared to be through many tribulations; yet which is to come." And what more my soul still anxiously looks forward to the is not a crown of never fading glory worth any ask or desire, than the necessary consummation in my own experience of that infinitely more than we can suffer? especially of earth while an inhabitant of it, an excellent injunction which was given by the when we consider our own fruilty, and the riches of the eternal kingdom, when apostle Paul to his fellow believers: What marvellous loving kindness of our great and tie here must be forever severed? Abd sever ye do in word or deed, do all in the good Master, who gave himself for us that He how would such humble, filial dependance of the Lord Jesus, giving thinks to the might redeem us from all iniquity? Should secure the approval and the love of Father by Him.' And I have thought that I we not receive his chastenings with thankful-whose are the cattle upon a thousand should rejoice in being assured that my occa-ness, seeing that they, when properly en- whom the heaven of heavens cannot co sional writing in this way was not altogether dured, work for our sanctification; being the whose mercy, duly regarded, will mak inconsistent with that precious anointing to means which He makes use of, in order to sible of the insignificance of every thi follow which in all its leadings, is, I trust, be-fore every other consideration, nearest and precious in the mansions of holiness? I can should be more to us than even our n say for my own part, how trying soever to lives; as it assuredly will be when the In the course now of a few months, should the carnal man it may be, that I desire to be trying hour of nature comes—"that de life be allotted me so long, I shall be thrown made willing to bear the portion which may which all other days were made"-ar upon the world as an independent being. It be allotted to me; and that by patient con-have none to look to, but the sovereign is a period which I have no doubt excites in tinuance in the path of Christian warfare, and saving help of Him, who though L every mind more or less anxiety. In some, and under a sense that the excellency of the all, had not on this earth, "where to k perhaps, pleasure may predominate at the power is of God and not of ourselves, I may head."

latterly what are my prospects in relation to Next Second day will be our Quarterly Meet-dependence upon Him, pursuing wha business? &c. This question brings the sub-ing. Many no doubt of those who have to line of temporal business He may op ject to mind more frequently than it would bear the brunt of the battle, look forward them and direct their foot steps in. The otherwise occur; and it is certainly not un-with painful feelings to it; and however their far from being chimerical or a cunning, worthy of consideration. Every one almost, confidence may be in the everlasting Arm, vised fable, is, on the contrary, in full at in the present state of business in this city, is yet the sorrowful sense of the weakness of a with many such Scriptures as: "Trust is ready to hold up discouragements. To some large proportion of our highly favored So- Lord with all thine heart; and lean not who have questioned me upon this subject, I ciety, must be a source of deep mourning to thine own understanding. In all thy have returned for answer, a portion of our those who desire Zion's welfare. Our friend, acknowledge Him, and He shall direct Saviour's address to his disciples: 'How much I. Stevenson, who arrived here some time paths." It is greatly to be wished that more are ye better than the fowls.' Never back will be likely to attend it. He is a value highly interesting class, should make a theless I have not been altogether void of able and solid Friend. He has held several start in life. And this none can do of the anxiety even at this apparently distant period, public evening meetings this week, and apselves; for, "The way of man is not in I am measurably aware of the bustle and respents to have given general satisfactor. We self; it is not in man that walketh to desponsibility to which such a change of life have heard of the arrival of Wm. Forster at his steps." And again: "The steps of a must necessarily introduce me; and, trembling Charleston, S. C.; whence he will most likely man are ordered by the Lord," &c. By as I do now day by day lest the roaring ad return hither at or before our next Yearly dedication of their hearts and talents to WILLIAM SCATTERGOOD."

Portions of the foregoing letter allude to eternal peace to all who enlist as schola ment. It is declared that help is laid upon the same time and before all, he endeavored

This wise course while leading in the Lord, He will so direct the efforts of the to bring glory to himself, and present

The visitations of the Redeemer's me was Wm. Scattergood when penning eding letter, fully believing that if e but kept pace with knowledge of Saviour's will, He would make such inces of the provinces; yea, fruitful ld of offering and joyful in the house

tue with peculiar charms appears, I with the garland of life's blooming years." (To be continued.)

For " The Friend."

iness Relations and Obligations.

e of the least difficult lessons in the 's course, is to keep the very disprote concerns of time and eternity with inet yet relative importance, in their ces. This seems to have been, with posed effort in measure obtained in of Joseph Gurney Bevan, of whom an instructive account, in Picty d, vol. IV. pp. 68, 71. The following hence extracted:

s dealings in trade, he maintained an hed character for integrity of con-ne fear of violating, in his intercourse world, any of the precepts of the Gosacting contrary to its spirit, either ake of gain, or to procure outward at, early subjected him to much thought-He exceeded most men in carnestly ing to carry into the daily habits of sentiment, that he ought to avoid in contributing to that in another, was not satisfied to perform him-considered that a Christian ought pon principle, and not be deterred ng right, by any apprehension of cons; and he was concerned faithfully these rules." It may also be added being a man of a tender conscience, rtaining elevated ideas of the purity ecomes a real Christian, and of that I sincerity with which he should live men, his own life was often that of vard conflict and self-examination.'

erful Home .- A single bitter word uiet an entire family for a whole day. y glance casts a gloom over the houseile a smile, like a gleam of sunshine, t up the darkest and weariest hours. expected flowers which spring up ir path, full of freshness, fragrance aty, so the kind words, gentle acts et dispositions, make glad the home of sons who come to wear his mantle will .- George Fox. I his place; while, on the other hand, inhappy, misgoverned and disordered wretched and distorted.

HOME.

Selected.

Selected.

Selected.

Fothergill.

Home's not merely four square walls, Though hung with pictures nicely gilded; Home is where affection calls, Filled with shrines the heart bath builded. Home! go watch the faithful dove, Sailing 'neath the heaven above us; Home is where there's one to love Home is where there's one to love us.

Home's not merely roof and room-Home needs something to endear it; Home is where the heart can bloom, Where there's some kind lip to cheer it! What is home with none to meet, None to welcome none to greet us?

Home is sweet, and only sweet, When there's one we love to meet us.

Bear the burden of the present— Let the morrow bear its own; If the morning sky be pleasant, Why the coming night bemoan!

If the darkened beavens lower, Wrap thy closk around thy form; Though the tempest rise in power, God is mightier than the storm.

Steadfast hope and faith unshaken, Animate the trusting breast; Step by step the journey's taken, Nearer to the land of rest.

All unseen the Master walketh By the toiling servant's side; Comfortable words He talketh, While his hands uphold and guide.

Grief, nor pain, nor any sorrow Rends thy heart, to Him unknown; He to-day and He to-morrow, Grace sufficient gives his own.

Holy strivings nerve and strengthen, Long endurance wins the crown; When the evening shadows lengthen, Thou shalt lay the burden down.

THE FARM.

Creamy and pink, upon the apple-trees,
The blossoms show; the violet's purple bell
In sunny nooks flings wide its dew-filled well,
Whose fragrance lures the golden-dusted bees;
The lilac-clusters open by degrees

Their perfumed chambers, that so surely tell The spring is here; and in each woody dell, You meet the white stars of anemones. Where, through the meadow, rich in tender green,

The bright brooks murmur, there like flecks of gold, The cowslips shine; and peeping from the brown

Dead leaves of antumn and gray moss, are seen The sweet arbutus blooms, first to unfold When bonnie May calls for her floral crown.

hrist's peace and blessing dwell. No was a great meeting of professors and people; can be effected by the growth of Christian low humble the abode, if it be thus and I was moved to pray. And the Lord's sentiment, as the nations come more largely d with grace and sweetened with power was so great that the house seemed to under the influence of Christianity as a living and smiles, the beart will turn long-be shaken. And when I had done, some of operative principle. He finds encouragement vard it from all the tumults of the the professors said: It was now, as in the in the rapid spread of those nations which and home, if it be ever so homely, days of the apostles, when the house was profess Christianity, and in the rapidly inhe dearest spot under the circuit of shaken where they were. After I had prayed, creasing number of converts to it, in countries one of the professors would pray, which subject to rulers of other forms of religious brought deadness and a vail over them; and belief. He quotes some statistics from Dr. es. The gentle grace of the mother others of the professors were grieved at him, Dorchester, who estimates that at the end of ser daughters long after her head is and told him: It was a temptation upon him. 1500 years after the introduction of Christiin the dust of death; and fatherly Then he came to me, and desired that I would anity, it had 100,000,000 adherents, meaning finds its echo in the nobility and pray again; but I could not pray in man's thereby nominal Christians. In the next 300

I am of opinion, respecting many of our ness, the contentions, the strifes, the could have seen the beauty of holiness shine tion. which have made their own early in the example of their parents, they would

Oh! you parents of both sexes! an important trust is reposed in you! example your children in the practice of piety; example speaks louder, much louder than precept; its influence is far more extensive. And while, on the one hand, you are excited to a faithful discharge of your duty towards them, by the certain hope of a glorious reward; so, on the other hand, the powerful ties of natural affection, the warm solicitude for the happiness of those you love, must stir up to diligence in the work and service appointed you.—Sam'l

In proportion as the heart becomes sanctified, there is a diminished tendency to enthusiasm and fanaticism; and this is undoubtedly one of the leading tests of sanctification. One of the marks of an enthusiastic and fanatical state of mind, is a fiery and unrestrained impetuosity of feeling; a rushing on, sometimes very blindly, as if the world were in danger, or as if the great Creator were not at the helm. It is not only feeling without a good degree of judgment, but, what is the corrupting and fatal trait, it is feeling without a due degree of confidence in God. True holiness reflects the image of God in this respect as well as in others, that it is calm, thoughtful, deliberate, immutable; and how can it be otherwise, since rejecting its own wisdom and strength, it incorporates itself into the wisdom and strength of the Almighty.

Many children amongst us sustain a grievous loss by not being early and properly made acquainted with the principles we profess. For want of this instruction, they become too easy a prey to the customs of the world and its habitudes; and that which would be as a kind of hedge about them, and preserve them from many temptations, is laid waste, and all the allurements of vice and folly suffered to seduce their affections to their ruin. For when they cease to be distinguished from others by their garb and deportment, they too often cease to be distinguished from the world by their morals, and the rectitude of their conduct .- Dr. John Fothergill.

> For "The Friend." Religious Items, &c.

International Duties of Christendom .- Under this heading Joseph Cook, in the concluding lecture of last winter's course, enumerates After this I went again to Mansfield, where several important reforms which he believes vears it gained 100,000,000 more-but in the last 100 years it has gained 210,000,000.

Communication among nations is becoming oforth persons who shall make other youth, that if they had been properly in so swift and pervasive that it must gradually iserable, and perpetuate the sourness structed, and carefully watched over; if they lead to mutual understanding and co-opera-

Among the reforms desired is the use of not have gone out so widely as they have arbitration in the place of war-the com-

community, who have established themselves in Blackwood, to conceive a more agreeable with a slab of stone; caves walled around near Haifa, under Mount Carmel, and else-climate during the winter months than Haifa rough stones, each layer projecting where in Palestine, and who hold that the offers.—Ch. Advocate. world is to be converted to Christ, and the reign. In consequence of this teaching he hours on First-day. was expelled from the Church. He was followed by a large number of those who shared his opinions, and they were thenceforth known as the "Temple Society." In 1867 it was determined to establish the head-quarters of the they now occupy.

other, called Sharon, about an hour distance interest. from that town, and a fourth in the suburbs An interesting monument has arrived at of Jerusalem, near the Jaffa gate. Hoffman the British Museum. It comes from Jerabius, now resides with the Jernsalem Colony. The on the Euphrates, the supposed site of the an states that the capture of worms f united population of the four colonies is about cient city of Carchemish, and has been some furnishes employment to a considerab 1,000 souls; a few families are also settled at sixteen or eighteen months on the journey, ber of people, who every favorable ni Nazareth and Beyrout. The colony at Haila, It is of basalt, standing nearly six feet high, numbering, as we have said, about 300, combaving a figure sculptured on one side, and wet weather is more abundant than sists mostly of Germans, German Americans, an inscription on the other. The inscription, although some sort of a barvest can ev Russians, and a few Swiss. They possess which is of the class known as Hittite, is be- be obtained by watering the ground over 700 acres, of which 100 are laid out in lieved to be of a religious character, and the wormers are provided with lanterns, as vineyards upon the slopes of Mount Carmel, sculptured figure to be that of a priest in to exercise some agility in catching the They make excellent olive-oil soap, the ex-sacerdotal attire. According to Professor as if disturbed by any noise they po port of which to America is yearly increas-Sayce, a Hittite kingdom or nation extended into their holes. After capture they are ing; they have also a wind grist-mill, and a through Asia Minor to the Egean Sea. The in common moss, where they become factory for carving olive wood. A steam-mill new monument was examined and copied by tough in the course of a few days, is in course of erection. They have their own the late Mr. George Smith on his last journey then in good condition for bait; bu physician, an architect, and an engineer, while to Asia. the British, American, and German Vice-Consulates are all held by members of the points in Asia Minor with vigor. $2,500 4 shillings per thousand, packed in colonies. Their schools are supported by a was recently raised in London to enable W. bags filled with moss. two-thirds donation from the German Gov- M. Ramsay to continue his researches. — The Archer-fish.—This small fish is a ernment, and one-third from the colonists. Dennis has purchased the site of the famous of Java, the inhabitants of which islat Their trim little village running back in two temple of Cybele at Sardis, and great hopes keep it in a vessel of water as a bo streets from the sea to the base of Carmel, are entertained of interesting discoveries pet. When it sees a fly or other insect with its double line of shade trees, its neat among the ruins. According to the Atheneum upon a plant overhanging the water little gardens, and commodious houses, con- a statue of black granite in the temple of Mut, proaches to within three or four fitrasts with the native bazaar, it is said, like at Karnak, has been secured for Prussia by spurts a drop of water from its mon some rare exotic transplanted to a foreign Prince Frederick Charles, and certain large so much force and accuracy, that it soil. Of all the benefits which the German monuments at Luxor have been acquired by fails to bring its prey down. colony has conferred upon the native popula- the French. tion, the construction of roads for wheeled vehicles has exercised the most marked in combs of Rome showing in gilt outlines the iterranean, contains a large propor plete abolition of the slave-trade on the sea— when they first came. Now they are extended one of the most precious historical and the extension of the principles of intersively used by the Arabs, and their number which the Catacombs have so far y national law to the Orient, Africa, and all the is constantly increasing, while between Acre The Esquiline Hill continues to yie weakest nations.

A Unique Christian Community.—In the driven by natives run every hour. There is current number of Blackwood an interesting a good hotel, kept by a German, int ke colony. cut in the rock, with finneral beds on ea description is given of a singular German at the colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on ea description is given of a singular German at the colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on ea description is given of a singular German at the colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on ea description is given of a singular German at the colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on ea description is given of a singular German at the colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, with finneral beds on each colony cut in the rock, which is the rock of the colony cut in the rock of the Church Provision in London.-According to corpse was protected by two inclined advent of the Messiah to be brought near, not R. H. Hadden, of Bishopsgate, there are 61 stone; coffins made of stone slabs, m by preaching Christianity, but by living Chris- parish [meeting houses] in the City of London, coffins, and terra cotta coffins paints tian lives. Some 300 of this sect are engaged whose rectors receive nearly $200,000 per black and red bands on a white ground in cultivating olives at Haifa, dealing largely year, while the worshippers at the services, Etruscan style. "The supellex collect with Nazareth, and living devout lives in a after deducting the officials, and those who these tombs," writes Lauciani, "I clean and comfortable village. Hoffman, their only go for what they can get, number but already several thousand specimens of founder, was a Lutheran elergyman and edu-3,836, and out of that number there are 706 manufacture, from flint arrow-head cator of influence, and at one time a member choristers, all of whom are paid. Many of band-made shapeless pottery to the of the Diet at Frankfort. For some years he conducted a journal, in which he elaborated his peculiar views. The spiritual temple, he clergymen, who live at their ease in rural discleded polychrome glass which are conducted as the conducted a journal, in which he classes which are conducted a journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal, in which he classes which are conducted as journal which he classes which are conducted which has been also as a classes which are conducted which he classes which are conducted which has been as a classes which are condu maintained, had first to be built, and the king-tricts, while their parishes are allowed to take rare and costly, even at Vertu and Tare dom created, before the Lord could come to care of themselves, except for two or three -Chr. Adv.

For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

Recent Archaelogical Researches.—Two stat-tangular, should be placed diagonall society in Palestine, about four fifths of its vettes bearing the name Pithom, and several reference to the cardinal points, or w members, who now numbered over 5,000 per-fragments inscribed Thukat, or Succoth, have corner to the east, and the diagonally of sons, remaining, however, in Europe and in lately been found by the English Exploration corner to the west. So situated, there the United States "to bear a witness for the new and higher life which they were strug-gling to realize." The Turkish Government tify the respective sites with the ancient sun's rays would not be beating direct did its utmost to frustrate the attempt to treasure-city mentioned in Exodus i. 11, and the walls of the building. It would found the colony. It refused to sell Govern-the first stopping place of the Israelites on cellent to plot a new town according ment land, except at exorbitant prices, and it leaving Egypt, Exodus xii. 37. Further same plan, since in the heat of the da was not until after twelve years that they ob- Roman remains which have been discovered would always be a shady side to every tained satisfactory and legal titles to the land indicate that, after the imperial conquest, a also the glare toward sunset on an e Roman town succeeded the Israelite city of west avenue would be avoided, By degrees three other colonies were formed Pithom. The results of a continuation of the one in the immediate vicinity of Jaffa, an- excavations are looked forward to with great view are very great, and the disadvan fluence. Such a thing as a cart was nuknown great Temple of Jerusalem. It is considered soda, potash and other alkalies. It h

two meet at the top; graves in whi

Sunlight on all Sides of the House .is one subject of great importance, from itary point of view, that, so far as my edge goes, has received little attention. building intended for a residence, if it

The advantages of sunlight in a h terest.

An interesting monument has arrived at —I. H. Stearns, in "The Century."

Worms for Fishing-bait .- Chambers' first caught they easily break into Explorations are being pushed at various They are sold at from 3 shillings 6 per Selection by plants .- The ice-plant A glass object has been found in the Cata- grows abundantly on the shores of the in excessive quantities.

new test for waste pipes .- A woman in for two or three years. on noticing an offensive odor in her par-, and then descended to watch the result. his old associates. are extremely fond of the odor of vaimmediately sprang upon a certain shelf, who did the same thing, until all the six cows

A plumber was sent for, and on cutting least touch captures the insect, whose without being disturbed. lightly roasted on the embers and eaten never met with. The super-abundance of t life is therefore turned to some account nese islanders."— Wallace's Malay Archime Mole.—One of these animals had got a garden and was doing much mischief. mimal, in which they partly succeeded. into the open air, was situated under a were dissatisfied. Beast.

rent kinds.

uspected a defect in the waste pipes, and who had charge of the cows, and he kept it Discipline had not been rightly adopted, and ested the agent for the property to send with them until ordered by his master to that no officers appointed under it are officers imber to examine it. The agent was inplace it with the sheep. After much demur, in fact. The Plaintiffs obtained leave to plous and refused. To verify the truth this was done; but for some days the man amend their pleadings so as to sue as individer suspicions, she borrowed two cats from complained that 'Donald' was miserable, that | uals and representing those in sympathy with riends, purchased some oil of valerian, he would not associate with the other sheep, them-and the case was allowed to go over. stationing the animals in the parlor, went and that they beat him. The master at last In the meantime, the court gave directions, tairs and poured the valerian into the gave permission for Donald to be restored to that all parties should have the use of the n, and it was not long before both of them ran up to each in turn; but this was only a move for an order to "restrain the Plaintiffs n to sniff the air, and move towards the beginning. After a few minutes a cow went and others from teaching doctrines and using of a closet through which the waste pipe to Donald and began licking him from head practices in the building at variance with the The door was opened for them, and to tail. He was then passed over to another, trusts contained in the deed of 1835.

e they remained purring with satisfac- had shown their affection.'

the plastering so as to expose the pipe, hibited in a very curious manner. A little Chancellor said that the Yearly Meeting held nt was found completely separated at the kitten strayed, when very young, into the at Pickering, in the Yearly Meeting-House where the cats had indicated.—Scientific house of one of my friends, and was adopted under the Discipline of 1859, under which ican.

by a cat who brought it up together with her Canada Yearly Meeting was opened in 1867, sects as food.—At Lombock, one of the own young. This kitten became a great fre- was the true Yearly Meeting of Friends in ds of the Malay Archipelago, "boys were quenter of the stables, and made two rather Canada; and that the one held at Norwich seen walking along the roads and by the odd friends, namely, a pony and a lame ban-under the New Discipline was the false one, es and ditches, eatching dragon-flies with tam. It was a curions sight to see the kitten and that all business done under it was illegal, lime. They earry a slender stick, with and the bantam curled up asleep on the pony's as it had been irregularly adopted.' v twigs at the end well anointed, so that broad back, where they would spend hours at the time of the rice flowering that the Newfoundland dog, which took a fine y should go back to the old hours and times has sands are soon caught in this way. The to a brood of young ducklings, and constituted himself their protector. They were two bodies being thrown together in their d shrimps, or sometimes alone, and are quite willing to accept him in this capacity, meetings, while their views of the proper dered a great delicacy. In Borneo, Cele- and followed him about just as if he had been manner of conducting Divine worship do not and many other islands, the larve of their mother. It was a specially interesting coincide. As an illustration of this annoy-

THE FRIEND.

FIFTH MONTH 12, 1883.

gardener, being practical and not esthetic the more important and interesting events as these mouth and wisdom, tongue and uts tastes, did his best to kill the mole; that are transpiring in the limits of our So terance; and it will bave that unction from the inhabitants of the house, being æs-ciety, we called attention at the time to the Holy One of Israel, that will carry a witcal rather than practical, tried to tame separation caused in Canada Yearly Meeting ness with it to the hearts of the hearers. It a year or two since, by the adoption of a new will not be in a lifeless form, but will come e aperture by which the mole usually Discipline with which many of the members forth in the power and life; and these need bush, and near the opening a piece of The Friends in the neighborhood of Bloom-meat was laid. The delicate organs of field made an arrangement by which the adnole soon perceived the supply of food, vocates of the New Discipline met in the mornthe animal, after he had finished his meal, ing of First-day, and the adherents to the Old the mind from settling down to the true place to look for some more. This was given Discipline (who are the more conservative of waiting, and turns the mind of man outaccompanied by the sound of his name, part of the meeting) met in the afternoon; ward instead of inward to the true Teacher, rty," an abbreviation of Bartimeus. Some and the two companies convened on different who teacheth as never man taught. s the mole was too far away from the days during the week. This arrangement ture to hear his name, and in these eases continued until near the close of last year, ested that it might be cultivated as a brought up by hand on cow's milk, and for then taken into Court by those who had beas of removing those substances from the convenience of the feeder, was kept in the fore tried locks and bars in vain. The Court which are rendered sterile by their pres-cow-house. It accompanied the cows to and met a few weeks ago, and after hearing testifrom the field, and remained their companion mony, the Chancellor ruled that the Plaintiffs in the case had no cause of action as Trustees. "The animal was quite a pet of the man This was based on his belief, that the New s old associates.

"The cows all rushed to meet him, and he old Discipline, and that the Defendants might

A letter from a Friend in Canada, from which this information, as to the action of the I know of one ease where affection was ex- Court of Chancery, is derived, says:-"The

It is satisfactory to learn that, a check has been given to the effort made to deprive these s are pulled off before it is consigned to all basket. The dragon-flies are so abun-in the house of one of my friends. He had a Yet the ruling of the Chancellor, that they and wasps are eaten. In the Moluecas sight to watch the dog and the ducklings anee, the letter already quoted from mentions grabs of the palm-beetles are regularly taking their siesta. The dog used to lie on that Luke Woodard had been there, and had got to market in bamboos, and sold for his side, and the ducklings would nestle all "read in the Bible every meeting, although and many of the great horned beetles about him. of Bible-reading in our meetings, the writer makes these judicious remarks:

"The truly baptized minister has to follow the leadings of the Holy Spirit, well knowing that He who is the great Head of the Church is the Leader of his own people; and if they In order to keep our readers informed of speak from inspiration, He will be unto such not the open Bible before them to expound from. It may be well in some places and some cases, but I fail to see the need of it in a Friends' meeting. To me, it seems to keep

There is one caution which Friends, situated as those in Canada now are, have need to obasured stamp upon the ground was sure when those who met in the afternoon were serve; and that is, to keep a watch over their ing him to his meal. J. G. Wood's Man notified that the house would be locked own spirits; so that while contending for their against them. On going to meeting on First-rights and property, and testifying against tendship Between Animals.—J. G. Wood day, 12th mo. 24th, they found the threat had errors in doctrine and practice, they may redsthe following illustrations of the friend-been carried out; but they obtained entrance keep in the pure and peaceable spirit of Jesus. sthat often spring up between animals of by lifting the door off its hinges. A subse-This remark is made, not to reflect upon the quent attempt to prevent their occupancy of steps which have thus far been taken; but Some years ago we had a lamb whose the house was battled by the use of sufficient from a belief that, as it is the Lord's works per died soon after its birth. It was force to obtain admission. The matter was alone that can praise Him, so it is only as we

We have received a copy of "The Biographer" a periodical containing 35 short sketches is excited. Published at 23 Park Row, N. Y.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

month shows a decrease of $2,851,492. The coinage of Railroad's new lines in the Schuylkill valley have been month shows a decrease of $2,501,492. In econoge of the United States mints during 4th month amounted to combined. Its capital is $4,500,000.

7.811.000 pieces, valued at $4,645,600. Of the standard

The deaths in this city last week numbered 388, 7,811,000 pieces, valued at $4,645,600. Of the standard silver dollars 2,350,000 were turned out, and of the five cent nickels, 2,666,000.

Information is received from Fort Apache that 1200 San Carlos Indians have left the agencies and are set-ting in the mountains around that post, and demand corn and small seed. The commanding officer has issued 6000 pounds of corn and asked the Secretary of reported at 10\(^1\) a 11 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

The great strike of the railroad coal miners in the Pittsburg district began on the lst inst. The reports and 8\hat{s} a8\hat{s} ets, per gallon for home use, received show that the strike is general, all the mines [Flour and Meal.—Flour is quiet but steady, except one or two being idle; and there is a possibility of 2800 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $\hat{s}$ that the river pits may yet be affected by the move $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.25; wester that the river pits may yet be affected by the move: $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.25; western do, reporting that that city has been visited by ment. The strike is against a reduction of ½ cent per at $5.50 a $6.25, and patents at $6 a $7.75, by flour pike, which destroyed a great many housesal pared to hold out; "while the operators declare that "Grain.—Wheat is dull and unsettled. Sales of $400 the dest of a large number of persons, take they "will see their mines idle until next fall" rather than forego the reduction.

Thomas A. Edison and others, representing $2,000, lower. Sales of 10,000 bushels in car lots, at $8.17 a $2.57. Rye is nominal at $25,000,000, and is still spreading. $25,000,000, and is still spreading.

bony, of the Electric Railway Company of the United car lots, at 51½ a 55½ cts.

States. The object is "to develope electricity as a motor for the propulsion of railroad trains."

Eight rains in California have increased the favorable yards at 5½ a 7½ cts. per prospects of the wheat crop. It is believed the State choice, will have 1,000,000 tons of wheat for export next year. Shee

A tow-boat left Helena, Arkansas, on the 2d instant, and sold at the different yards at 4 a 7½ cts. for wood for St. Louis, with three barges laden with 1,000,000 sheep, and 3 a 5¾ cts. for clipped, and $3 a $7.25 per feet of ash lumber from the Helena mills. The timber head for spring lambs. will be distributed by rail throughout the Northwest, and similar shipments will follow once a month during sold at the different yards at 10 a 111 cts. per lb., as to the summer.

Statistics of the winter's trade of the State of Indiana

The past season in Jacksonville, Fla., though rather lost New Guinea to Queensland. In the House of Commonst tory. A careful investigation shows that 4,167 tonrists refused a special reading by a vice of the common tory.

saloon licenses from $400 to $600. There are sixty ally tender his resignation as their elected representasaloons in Danville.

At a conference of the Executive Committee of the State Temperance Alliance at Des Moines, Iowa, reso-license to $1000.

license to $1000.

The proposed Broadway underground railroad in New York is one of the greatest engineering projects yet announced. The plan is to excavate the entire width of Broadway to the depth of twenty feet, and make a new Broadway under the present one, with ample sidewalks, with four tracks for passenger and freight business (the trains to run at night,) and with for the relief of the families of persons who have fled an accessible conduit for all the iron pipes, water, gas, the country or have been arrested in connection with &c., now under the street. The upper (or present) road-bed is to rest on iron girders, sustained by brick arches | Crimes act. It is computed that 600 families have been covered with concrete, asphalt and sand, on which the rendered destitute by the flight or incarceration of their pavement is to be laid, thus making a roadbed which bread-winners. An address will be issued to the Irish move in his counsel and act in his power, that are concerned, to any modern pavement. The plan delegates will be sent thither to set forth the we can truly promote his blessed cause among men.

provides for quick transit from the Battery to Harlem river, with two branches from Madison Square to ac-commodate both sides of the city and connect with the commonance four studes of the city and connect wire. Two p one of the instant, of Quebec and Montrea regular lines north and east from Harlean tiver. Two part of her burden 500 engigrants, who came for of the tracks during the day will be for through trains, thana, Hamburg, Gottenburg, Copenhagen, which will run from the Battery to Harlean river in various parts of England. twenty minutes, while the other two tracks are for way of persons in whom a present public interest trains, and their time will be as fast as those of the elevated roads. If built as proposed the expense will be greater per mile than any road ever constructed in Government's position in regard to the triple

UNITED STATES.—The public debt statement for 4th name of the new company into which the Pennsylvania

2 more than during the corresponding period of last and which is condemned to maintain a large year. Of the above 190 were males, and 198 females; force, must not be surprised to find itself e: A letter received in El Paso, Texas, from General van. Of the above 190 were males, and 195 females; force, must not be sur. Crook's office, confirms the report that he crossed the 66 died of consumption; 43 of preumonia; 28 of diph. Jealousies and distrust. Mexican border on the 2d inst., the Indian trail being theria; 18 of convulsions; 15 of old age, and 15 of II is believed that scarlet fever.

Petroleum.—Standard white, 75 a 73 cts. for export, of 2600 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5,25; western do.

Beef cattle were a fraction lower owing to the large receipts: 2700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 51 a 71 cts. per lb.; the latter rate for a few

Sheep were dull and unsettled: 12,000 head arrived

Hogs were a fraction lower: 4500 head arrived and quality. FOREIGN.—In the House of Commons on the 3rd, in domestic furs, shows an aggregate of 173,000 pelts, Evelyn Ashley, Under-Colonial Secretary, stated that of which 34,000 were muskrats, 32,000 coons, 12,000 the Governments of New South Wales, Victoria and mink, 12,000 possum and 10,000 skunk. Evelyn Ashley, Under-Colonial Secretary, stated that the Governments of New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia, approved the amexation of the Island of New Guinea to Queensland.

In the House of Commons the Affirmation bill was refused a special reading by a vote of 292 to 289. The tory. A careful investigation snows that 44,101 tourists retined a special resuming by a voice of 222 to 202. The have visited the city during the past winter. At a recent meeting of the Boston Society for the bill was defeated, says the authority and power of the Suppression of Vice, Authony Constock said that Government have received a shock. This, without "during the past ten years such societies had destroyed doubt, the Ministers will recognize themselves. The over twenty-five tons of villainous literature, and over seven tons of gaming instruments."

spell of their success is broken. As a consequence of this action of the House of Commons, Charles Brad-The City Council of Danville, Illinois, has raised the laugh has decided to visit his constituents and to form-tive. The cab-driver Fitzharris, who was placed on trial on the charge of being one of the principals in the lutions were adopted declaring that the ratification of Phoenix Park murders, has been acquitted. A few days lutions were adopted declaring that the rathreation of Phoenix Fark mirders, has been acquitted. A few days the prohibitory amendment rests as a moral obligation il later, the Grand Jury returned true bills against Tynan, on the Legislature, regardless of the technical objection is the Supreme Court, and that the next General As-is an accessory after the fact. It is understood that sembly should re-enact a prohibitory law in harmony thin the expressed wish of the people.

The saloons in Des Moines, Iowa, have been closed.

Patrick Delaney and Thomas Caffrey, two more of because of the action of the City Council raising the license to $1000. of the 6th of 5th mo. last, have also been arraigned for trial. They created a sensation in the court-room by pleading guilty to the charge against them. They were both sentenced by Judge O'Brien to be executed.

At a conference of members of the Irish Nationalist arty beld in London, it was resolved to organize a fund will never need to be torn up until worn out, and will Nationalists in America and the British colonies, ap-will never need to be torn up until worn out, and will Nationalists in America and the British colonies, ap-be greatly superior, so far as drainage, durability, &c., pealing for contributions to the proposed fund, and speedy assistance.

The steamer Oregon, which sailed from on the 4th instant, for Quebec and Montrea

Challemel-Lacour, French Minister of Fo fairs, in his remarks in the Senate on the 1st i answer to the question of the Duc de Broglie be greater per mile than any road ever constructed in [Government's position in regard to the triple America.

The Pennsylvania Schuylkill Valley Railroad is the Hendrich of the second force, must not be surprised to find itself e.

It is believed that the authorities at Mos been invested with power to arrest a number of who have been acting suspiciously in that ci detain them until after the coronation of the regiments of the army owing to the fact that are being offered to the men to induce them to any of their comrades who are known to be I

A document which urges a speedy rising a oppression of Russia, is being circulated the Bulgaria.

A dispatch has been received from Tahree reporting that that city has been visited by gration is the absorbing question. At the Chinese are now arriving they will soon outnu natives. Meetings of protest are constantly be The sugar crop of Cuba this year will pr deficient, as will also that of San Domingo, w fall considerably short as compared with the year, but the quality will be superior. The r Havana thus far have been 92,000 tons, and bable receipts during the balance of the sea mated upon the receipts of last year for the co ing period, will be 48,000, thus making a tot 140,000 tons at Havana. At other points of t based on the same estimates as above, 280,000

According to a telegram from Ottawa, Macune, of the Geological Survey, "has declar the Committee of Immigration that the who from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the Macken might with draining be made productive for

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHI AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the M household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine John Sharpless, Chester, Pent Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine str

WANTED.

An assistant in housekeeping-a Friend prefe Address R. F. EVANS, Marshalton, Chester

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School Application may be made to

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwoo Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Nin Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INS. Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Phila Physician and Superintendent-JOHN C. HA Applications for the Admission of Patient made to the Superintendent, or to any of the

THR FRIEND.

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

OL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FIFTH MONTH 19, 1883,

NO. 41.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

if paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOGRESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

ptions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES.

O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

s and Memoranda of William Scattergood. (Continued from page 317.)

To M. T.

"Philada., 5th mo. 22d, 1825. ere are perhaps few things which so erly claim our admiration and respect in world of depravity and indifference, as to ome endeavoring to fill up their allots in life, and to fulfil the design and obfor which man was certainly created,

d, or bring condemnation upon myself. no light matter, I can assure thee, for o young and so boyish in every respect though far behind, it can look forward with may be not only hearers of the word but it should be through deep tribulation.

of youth. I confess it was not without tremseasoning of salt.

To the same.

" Philada., 2d mo. 10th, 1826.

am, so to maintain the holy watch as to to remembrance this evening in looking over consideration the multitude of snares, which the un-thy last letter, that perhaps I may be justified when I look at the state of things among led adversary is continually laying for in endeavoring to convey once more the re-us, I am almost ready to fear that the walls nexperienced and childish steps of such pewal of the assurance of my continued re- of the Holy City will never be rebuilt! But the as I feel myself to be. But notwith gard and affectionate remembrance of thee, still there is encouragement in the belief, that ling the frailty of human nature, I do and the earnest solicitude which I have often there will be some raised up among those who we it possible to be brought to a state of felt and continue to feel, that both thou and are in the younger walks of life. Well, I have watchful and constant dependence upon myself may be more and more diligent in our desired that we may be found among those trong arm of Him who is mighty to save, endeavors to obtain an establishment upon the who are rightly espousing the cause of our hich even sinful thoughts can have no unchangeable foundation, and to become as Lord and Master; and let us endeavor to be ng place. This is the attainment to lively stones incorporated with the building strong in Him and in the power of his night, h my soul I humbly trust is aiming; and which is termed 'a spiritual house;' that we learning first to be valiant against the ene-

confidence and hope, that He who has begun doers, and faithful laborers and burthen-beara good work in me will perfect it even though ers in the great work appointed for the present day. * * * Poor as I am, yea the There is nothing, perhaps, in which I am poorest of the poor, my heart is at times, so likely to err as in excessive conversation, through mercy, enlarged in that pure feeling Well might the apostle say, 'The tongue is a of universal love, which comprehends within fire, a world of iniquity.' For I think it may its wide embrace every member of the buman be acknowledged that 'II' any man offend not [amily. Sensible as I am at such seasons, of in word, the same is a perfect man, and able my own unworthiness, and how much I stand also to bridle the whole body.' This circum- in need of the mercy and infinite condescenstance is one that renders me fearful of ventur-sion of our great Creator and Redcemer, living ing into much company where there are none, desires are, I trust, begotten, that all my whose establishment in the Truth renders fellow-creatures might be gathered into the them capable of restraining the impetuosity quiet fold of the great Shepherd of the sheep * * * Prone as we are to the earth and bling and fear on this account, that I set out to the pursuit of carnal enjoyments, if our on my visit to the country; and although, for hearts are ever raised to heavenly things, it my own part. I believe I have seen little that must be through the lively operation of Him was absolutely sinful in itself, yet there is an who led captivity captive and gave gifts unto apprehension that amid so much conversation men; it must be under the sanctifying inthere must have been wanting grace and the fluence of his blessed Spirit, which being sent forth into the hearts of all his truly devoted Wm. Forster attended Arch St. Meeting children, crieth, 'Abba, Father.' of glorifying his adorable Creator and on Fifth-day; and, I hear, held forth encourt to me at seasons a source of unutterable conemer. However, there is most assuredly aging prospects in relation to the future; solation to reflect upon the declaration of und to this admiration; and it ought to saying that he believed there would be those Holy Scripture that, God so loved the world collected, too, that the creature has nother a seed up, who should be qualified to support that He gave his only begotten Son, that we boast of, as those who are brought to the blessed testimonies of Truth; and as it might live through Him.' And now when rience the work of sanctification in their was in former days when Moses was com-this grand and fundamental doctrine of the s, will and always do acknowledge that manded to strip Aaron of his garments and Christian faith is so often called in question, xeellency is not of themselves, but must put them on Eleazar his son, so in the present, it is at seasons made very dear to the hearts be attributed to Him who worketh in the garments of the elders and the fathers of those, who find that of themselves, they both to will and to do of his own good would be given to the children, and that the cannot think a good thought; and who reure. I wish then for myself, when there holy cause should not fall to the ground. * * joice in that there is a High Priest who, havy disposition to exalt the creature, and I | We are not yet, my dear — a forsaken ing himself partaken thereof, is touched with to for thee and for others, that we may people. The promise given of old time, still the feeling of all our infirmities. Oh, my dear to the only Fountain from whence flows stands sure to a remnant in Israel: '1 will not —! it is a precious and glorious attainment ood; and while we respect virtue, not leave thee nor forsake thee.' There are those to feel that we have an interest in so great ook its source; but rather be stimulated that can firmly and reverently confide in the and powerful a Redeemer, and to feel our by to seek for a closer union and come care and protection of Israel's unslumbering hearts bound with the cords of his love. And on with that holy Power, which we persto produce in others such astonishing sands fall at their side, and ten-thousands at the Israel of the body, the ts. Is not this the effect which ought their right hand, yet can they say, the Lord to the living head do find it a source of sweet. produced by bright examples of virtue is our banner and our shield; and though the enjoyment to feel the influence of the holy oil works what other effect should it prospect beforens may be deeply discouraging, of unity and fellowship one with another. these can still look to Him who in his own This is a pieture I love to dwell upon; and regards the circumstance of my visit to good time will command deliverance for could I but view it to its full extent in our -, with that of my own advantage or Jacob; who is indeed glorious in holiness, religious Society, professing as we do to make an ill savor in the mind of any indithe extent of the desolating spirit which is now laying waste all our beautiful and plea-My dear - has been so feelingly brought sant prospects, how sad, how moving is the

I have got settled in business at the place I Bentham in early life, made him a great po- word through life,—"If anybody ever proposed when thou wast in town; and hav-litical economist, seeking to work out this I can do it. ing thus commenced the cares and difficulties motto in society. Similar illustrations of the of the world, have need closely to keep my power of proverbs are given in the replies I passing comment, some of the other meyer upon the Leader and sure Director of have received from hundreds of prominent which I have gathered out of the r those who so feel themselves unqualified to men to the question, "What maxims or watch- One who has been a faithful govern direct their own steps. I may here say, that words, if any, have had a powerful influence general, and is now a college presider in the course taken I have found, and it is an on your life, and helped to your success?"
Innspeakable favor to find and feel myself under the care and protection of a Friend and Father in heaven. I think I can with grati-worthy of being called a special influence in the bas also two other me especially may be allowed to eat but little mightier than magistrates. pleasant bread, yet the promise does remain At the Jewish feast of Pentecost, when the of one of the leading Chicago papers l true: 'Though the Lord give the bread of young people are received into full religious motto, "Industrious perseverance and adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall membership, they are each given a confirmarity insure success." Another editor's not thy teachers be removed into a corner tion certificate, inscribed, with an appropriate is, "Honest industry and hard work wil any more, but thine eye shall see thy teachers, Scripture motto, which they are to cherish Those who "dash off" articles for the in the day of necessity. Let us then press and follow through life,—a good custom. forward unto a nearer acquaintance with this One of our Brooklyn doctors says: "When toes, and save, by adopting them, their a blessed Teacher. Let us learn to bow our I was quite a lad, I heard a speech where the from being "dashed off" into the was necks to his yoke, not only as individuals, but speaker took for his text, 'Aim high. If you ket. also as concerned members of the deeply de-don't hit the mark, you may come somewhere The mottoes of one of Brooklyn's d pressed church militant in the earth.

guardianship of One, who does wonders for proverbs of Solomon and of Franklin, which and defends, which is, indeed, the oth his people, and will assuredly redeem them his father frequently quoted to bis children.

In one of the replies to my inquiries about well." We are not to put as much pair arm; who does bless with the best of his bless-mottoes, a prosperous Brooklyn manufacturer making a box as into the statue whit ings all those that trust in Him. May we tells how a single watchword made him to contain. He believes that many men establish our goings."

(To be continued.)

Business Maxims, Bad and Good.

BY W. F. CRAFTS.

sion, for good or ill, upon him; but there are fellow-passengers. The counsel he got was: to work than to do ten men's work." A some authors that enter into his very soul "If you undertake to do a thing, do it." He varied calls upon our time, we are with destiny-shaping power. Thus came Cot-took the advice, and the motto also. In Aus-do things of even secondary importa ton Mather's Essays To Do Good into the tralia, he soon acquired twenty-five thousand the exclusion of more important ones. early life of Franklin, and made it his highest dollars, which he brought to this country, Other mottoes, given by profession ambition to be "a doer of good." Emerson's and greatly increased by fidelity to the same business men, are as follows: "One the book on Nature came into Tyndall's life "like" ever-present watchword. The motto has also a time." "Business before pleasure." an influence," and made him a naturalist, helped him as a Christian in bolding on and economize, persevere." "A purpose Thus came Ruskin's works to Henry Ward holding out. Edmund Driggs of Brooklyn, fixed, and then victory or death." This came tasks works to ftelly ward about the same to teach bin the secret of seeing gives, in his reply, a motto that came into his be idle." "Never give up one job up. Thus the book of Proverbs, used as a first life like an influence, and greatly helped him get another."

The public schools of Scotland, has [toward success. At the age of fifteen, he left]. reader in the public schools of Scotland, has toward success. At the age of fifteen, he left. The man who flies that last motto made its people terse in speech and "eanny" home to engage with an older brother in the life as a schoolhouse sexton. When app show that sensational stories of vice have was to go aloft to reeve the pennant balliards now the superintendent of schools in come into many lives as a destiny-shaping in-through the truck on the top of the topmast, our largest cities.

fluence from hell. Such reading stands only which was forty feet above the top of the Yet other mottoes of business men a second to rum among the devil's recruiting mainmast, without any rigging attached following: "Never make a promise who officers. Shop-windows filled with tempting thereto. The sailing master arranged the cannot perform." "Incur no respons pictures that poison the mind ought to be pro-hibited, as surely as those filled with bottles of alcholic poison for the body.

mies of our own houses, whereby we shall be- to turn a life into the right or wrong track. "Yes, you fool!" was the answer; "d come qualified for waging a righteous warfare A maxim or motto has come into many a life like suppose I would order you to do a thin with those who unmistakably manifest that an influence. That watchword of Christian was never done before?" The young they are the enemies of the cross of Christ. society, "The greatest good of the greatest replied, "If anybody ever did it I can Thou hast, perhaps, before this heard that number," which caught the eye of Jeremy He did it. That maxim has been his tude acknowledge, that He has been gracious-their lives; but from the others a very inter- "Always be on the side of right, a ly near in the needful time; and I would, with esting list of such mottoes has been collected, against the wrong;" "No man has a rearnest solicitude, invite others to taste and mostly the old ones which have been so long do anything that, if the world should see that the Lord is good. Although in the the true "common law" of the respectable elecourse of our Christian journey we may often ments of society,-proverbs that are more good." be brought very low, and in the present day powerful than parties; maxims that are near it.' The speech from that text has, I are: "Cautious, but thorough:" "Do Farewell, my dear —. Thou canst und think, had a strong influence upon my whole best every time, even in small matters, derstand me in what I have written, not as life." A New York publisher says: "When eral business men have similar mottoes supposing myself to have attained any thing; a boy of nine years of age, my teacher gave everything well;" "Whatever is worth but as a poor pilgrim and stranger in the me a book entitled No Such Word as Fail. I at all, is worth doing well." earth, calling to those whom I feel to be near have felt the effect of it ever since." A West- But a thoughtful professor puts besid and dear to me, to place themselves under the ern ex-governor ascribes similar power to the mottoes of well-doing one which be b commit our ways unto Him, that He may wealthy, besides belping him in his character, their lives in doing trifles too well. It When a young man, he started for Australia, worth while to butter your cow's h in a sailing vessel, intending to go into busi-throw pearls to swine with their corn. " ness there; but he became very weary of the can be done with little, need not be don slow and stormy voyage, and half determined much." And then that kindred motto to leave the ship at a South American port, ness men, "If you want to have anythin and return home. He asked advice in this done, do it yourself," is to be limited b Everything one reads makes some impres-|matter from an old man, who was one of his other watchword, "It is better to set to freighting business on the Hudson River The a teacher, he kept the old job until On the other hand, the records of crime first duty he performed on board the vessel success in the new one; and so on, unt

Let me now give, with nothing mor

A distinguished professor flies the "Wisdom is the principal thing." An would do well to ponder these editoris

Not only books and papers, but even single at the sailing-master, and then aloft, and asked you say you will do a thing do it" (a sentences, often serve, like a railroad switch, the question, "Did anybody ever do that?" implying perseverance as well as fice

t-day.]

t other business mottoes, of value for a highly favored eity. How many Chrisare in this Quaker settlement of brothove!-the more than "ten righteous"nough to have saved a far guiltier city

For " The Friend."

These are the preserving salt. These aintaining the daily sacrifice* will help ay the wide-spread "abomination that th desolate;" and help, too, to keep back ears like those which a Saviour shed over poor to help pay? nfaithful, but beloved Jerusalem. Mores there are in thee, seeking to ameliorate ondition of their kind, is proved by the rous benevolent institutions for soothnd relieving the sorrows, the sieknesses, alamities of others, as well as sending o distant suffering districts! Such almsand other things which seem much 'doing evil that good may come" so re-nded by the apostle; and when perd from a sincere love to Jesus our Sawho has said, "Inasmuch as ye have it unto one of the least of these, ye have it unto me;" are no doubt, as in the case rnelius of old, "had in remembrance e sight of God" by whom actions are notwithstanding all these humanitarian ses and sympathies, so worthy of comation, how much to an observer this city, on the other hand, seems given up greed for gain; the pursuit of amuseand pleasure; the love of worldliness; esire to make a display-in personal ment, in equipage, in expensive dwell-ned, as well as motives scrutinized.

." "Every tub must stand on its own glittering vanities. These tend to draw away example and walk consistent with their rem." "Paddle your own canoe." "Every the heart and affections from Him who gave ligious profession—doing nothing hurtful to slife a plan of God." "Buy nothing un-himself for us, and is jealous of his honor, others, prejudicial to their own peace, or n much." "Make your employers' in-wealth, too oft, begets an increase of desire literature of the day. While to do this with your own." "Make yourself indis- for the world's luxuries? While as these ob- Christian fidelity may call for some holy resoble," "Be sure you are right and then tain a hold upon us, indifferency and luke-lution and self-denial, and an indifferency to ead." (A new version of that proverb is, warmness respecting the soul's welfare in the the opinions of our fellow worms, such will o keep it holy," as a business motto. It around us, tends to keep the mind in proper such it may be said: ood one; for the successful men of our ballast, while it no less stamps vanity on for "The world o'erlooks him in her busy search are mostly those who have rested in tune, power, talents, popularity, and all beand mind, every week, by observing the side, which have not God and a happy eternity for their principal and ultimate aim.

The great number of liquor saloons in this worlds, are; "Be a whole man." "Not far-famed City of Brotherly Love, is one of ul in business, fervent in spirit, serving the very painful and dreadful evils which ord." "Commit thy way unto the Lord, strikes the eye and arrests the mind of every as shall direct thy paths." "Trust in lord and do good." "Do justly, love sign-boards inviting to "the cheerful glass," and walk humbly with thy God."—S. to intoxication, to revelry, to profanity, obseenity, debauch, and sometimes murder itself. In view of such dreadful results, and in view, too, of the immense breweries especially for de Through the Streets of Philadelphia, the milder drinks—but which are but stepiladelphia has not only long been, but ping stones to those which more notoriously intoxicate-who can help the query, Can nothhumble, self-denying, men and women ing be done to stay this desolating plague, this hydra-evil which lies, perhaps, at the root of seven-eighths of the mischief and misery, the sorrow and crime, which blacken the city's records, and so largely help to fill its hearted and thorough turning to the Lord, prisons, its almshouses, its hospitals and asy- with repentance and deep humility, as in the lums; which also so greatly multiplies the case of the people of Nineveh, might be witenormous taxes for the sober and industrious nessed to the praise and glory of Him, the how many compassionate charitable righteonsness, is the licentious literature, the dissipation, the lewdness, the iniquities, and undraped paintings and statuary, the obscene the sin, which so separate from that loving and licentious pictorial representations, with Saviour who came to save us from them the whole multiplied round of indelicate, through a godly sorrow and sincere repentwanton, dissolute, morals-corrupting exhibi- ance, be turned from and washed away through tions, which make modesty blush, and exert his precious atoning sacrifice, and by filial , when unassociated with r Charity an evil influence on the observers, especially obedience to his reproving light and all-suffithe young; and, like the "race obseene, cient grace. Hereby we might entertain the spawned in the muddy beds of Nile, came, hope that the feet of the many now travers-

> " Nor palaces, nor even chambers scap'd; And the land stank, so numerous was the fry."

Next to these, it may be, as promotive to evil in this professed Christian eity, come the circuses, the theatres, the dance-houses, the to drown thought, beguile time, waste money, and greatly to lead away from thoughts of is, and whose are all our ways.

cities though fair may yet be foul?" and that Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his in rich and costly furniture! These are it behooves all duly to consider and appra-and blemishes more likely, without great ciate the Scriptures: "Righteousness exalteth a nation:" and not the influx of wealth, or grandeur, or pleasure. One thing, the writer erown. - W. Penn.

rays pay one hundred cents on a dollar." watchfulness, to increase than to diminish dares to presume, is greatly needed by the part tell what you are going to do until with years. These show an undue attachmore respectable classes, both on their own lave done it." "Make every article rement to the perishable things of earth and its account and that of others, and that of sary, however cheep." "Spend less than These like "the cares of this life, the deceit, derogatory to the Saviour's honor. Decision earn every year." "Save a portion of lithies of riches, and the love of other things," of the Tanacter—not being afraid nor ashamed dollar carned." "Be honest whether prepresented in the parable of our Lord, choke, to do right, neither to manifest a true-hearted ueats come or go." "A man gets only in the hearts of their votaries, the good seed allegrance to Christ our Master upon all oche earns." "Eternal vigilance is the and render it unfruitful. Does not experience casions—is greatly to be desired; and this is of success." "Faithful in least, faithful prove, that an accumulation of the world's especially important in those who control the ure you have a loaf and not a stone beinfinite beyond, proportionably prevail? Due sceure a reward in the approbation of Him ton bite.") "Pay as you go." "Never thoughtfulness for our eternal salvation, with in whose "favor is life," which far surpasseth a sense of our accountability, amid all the the commendations of men, and which the other gives, "Remember the Sabbath temporal blessings a kind Providence strews world can neither give nor take away. Of

Of objects more illustrious in her view; And occupied as earnestly as she, Though more sublimely, he o'erlooks the world. She scorns his pleasures, for she knows them not, He seeks not hers, for he has proved them vain."

Perhaps the self-approving, haughty world, That as she sweeps him with her whistling silks Scarce deigns to notice him, or if she see, Deems him a cypher in the works of God Receives advantage from his noiseless hours, Of which she little dreams. Perhaps she owes Her sunshine and her rain, her blooming spring And plenteous harvest, to the pray'r he makes, When Isaac-like, the solitary saint Walks forth to meditate at eventide, And think on her who thinks not for herself,"

Would that those in more elevated positions might see to it, that their talent of influence, both by example and by precept, is what it should be; and that with all, a more whole-God and adorable Author of all our sure mer-Second to this, perhaps, the most demoral cies, the beneficent Giver of every good and izing agency in the hand of the enemy of all perfect gift. Thus would the wide-spread ing the broad way to destruction, would be arrested in their prodigal course, turned from the wages of sin which is death, and brought to exclaim with the jailor and Publican formerly: "What shall I do to be saved?" "God be merciful to me a sinner." So that the balls and concerts; with the lesser herd of Lord, from whom all blessings flow, may conways and places for dissipation, designed or tinue to favor this city with spiritual and with calculated to catch the unwary of every age, temporal increase; and that the language addressed to Ephraim of old-the Lord's "pleasant child"-may never become applicable to Him, and accountability to his laws, who Philadelphia:—"How shall I give thee up, governs the world, in whose hand our breath Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall It it not clear, then, that "this Queen of I set thee as Zeboim?"-"Cities which the

Christ's cross is Christ's way to Christ's

Iniel xii, 11.

For "The Friend." Gather up the Fragments.

Friend, who, though about 90 years of age, retains her love of the Truth, and her memory of the events of former days, she related an tion to her of the trnth of the enemy's in anecdote of Rachel Wilson, of England, who sinuations; and she thought they were coming paid a religious visit to this country, more than one hundred years ago. The anecdote was told her by Jane Peirce, of Philadelphia, and referred to a ministering friend of Robeson meeting, a woman of the name of Dickin-she might be under discouragement on acson, of whom Jane was a relative.

When Rachel Wilson was in that section of the country, this minister was spoken of not know whether it was in testimony or to her as one possessing a valuable gift; but supplication-and when the nature of the it was thought her usefulness in the church offering was apparent, the solemnity over the and the world was marred by some of the meeting was such that they feared to dissiweaknesses of human nature,—probably by pate it by rising. the want of more mildness and snavity of manners in her intercourse with others. Rachel's informants thought that she might exert a good influence over the friend by suitable advice, and thus be helpful to her and to the good cause in which all concerned were laboring. These views had an effect on the mind of the visitor, who retired for the night with the intention of having a conversation with the minister, when a suitable opportunity presented.

But in the visions of the night, she seemed to be walking in a beautiful garden, where was a tree laden with golden fruit, greatly to be admired. As she gazed upon it, she observed some unsightly snags, or crooked limbs, which marred the comeliness of the tree; and she determined to remove these so as to make it more perfect. With this intent, she took a knife from her pocket, and went towards it. Just then the gardener approached, and asked what she was about doing. She replied, that she intended to remove those things which were a blemish on the beauty of the tree. He then told her, that tree was one of his own right hand planting, and that when it re quired pruning, he would attend to it himself

When she awoke in the morning, the instruction conveyed by her dream was freshly in her mind; and she declined interfering, under a conviction that she was not commis sioned to use the pruning knife in that case.

It is no doubt often a duty to extend counsel and even reproof to others; but as all good comes from the one Eternal Source, this will only be effectual as it is done under his authority and with his help. So that there is need of care on both hands-neither to withhold more than is meet, nor to run into services unbidden.

On one occasion, Mary Wright, of England, was at a meeting where a very large number of Friends were assembled. She felt a strong impression of duty to appear in supplication, but so great was her fear of disturbing the solemnity which prevailed, that she forbore for some time. As the command to yield obedience was still extended to her, she finally knelt, after offering a silent petition to her Heavenly Father, that the company there collected might be prevented from rising to their feet, as is customary on such occasions, in our meetings for worship.

Her request was granted, and not a person rose from their seat.

When her supplication was ended, the accuser of the brethren began to fill her with fears lest she had done foolishly, and nrged upon her mind the fact that all bad remained in their seats, as an evidence that unity had not been felt with her offering. When the In a recent conversation with an aged meeting broke, she hastened to her home in much distress. Soon she saw some of the elders approaching, which seemed a confirmato eensure her for what she had done.

When they reached her house, one of them, who sat at the head of the meeting, said, that they had come to see her because they feared count of what had occurred—that when they first heard the sound of her voice, they did

For "The Friend,"

PANSIES. I stood beside a bed of bloom, In spring-time's early morn The song of bird, and breath of flower, On balmy air was borne; While "face of earth" again renewed Told not of cold and storm.

My thoughtful gaze met smiling eyes, Of varied shade and hue; They took me back to early days, To pleasant paths and true; And faces lifted to the skies Woke joys and sorrows too.

Oh! beanteous flower,---whose language tells More than the pen can say; What depth of thought thy presence sheds, To cheer life's toilsome way! Though weak of heart, we still shall know Strength needful for the day.

Some lovely faces, drooping low, Are raised with careful touch; They sweetly, humbly say to me-That, when we feel so much The head is bowed in silent prayer, "Our Father" heareth such.

Dear eyes of loving gratitude, So tender, true and dcep Your constancy will help the heart, Its earthly faith to keep; From us, you never are estranged; And death is only sleep,

And while you live, you "sing his praise," Whose glory shines for aye "The Lord rejoices in his works' That praise Him day by day. Oh! happy hearts who yield Him all, And with the Psalmist say—

" My meditation shall be sweet, I will be glad in Thee, The Heavens are thine, the earth is thine, Thy way is in the sea. Bless, oh! my soul, the Lord of life, Praise Him continually.

He holds within His sovereign hand The blessing and the blight And close upon the shadow fall The beams of Heavenly light; Some messenger of mercy To make our pathway bright.

To Him all aching hearts may come, Mid trial, grief and care; And when life's choicest gifts are ours, He hears the grateful prayer, That rises to his throne, to find Celestial Heartsease there.

"There is no grove on earth's broad chart,

But hath some bird to cheer it— So hope sings on in every heart, Although we may not hear it, And if to day, the heavy wing Of sorrow is oppressing, Perchance, to-morrow's sun will bring The weary heart a blessing.'

Out upon the restless ocean There is one we dearly love; Fold him in thine arms of pity Spread thy guardian wings above.

When the winds are howling round hi When the angry waves are high, When black, heavy, midnight shadows On his trackless pathway lie, Guide and guard him, blessed Saviour, Bid the hurrying tempests stay; Plant thy foot upon the waters, Send thy smile to light his way.

If it please thee, Heavenly Father, We would see him come once more, With his olden step of vigor, With the love-lit smile he wore,

*TO AN EARLY PRIMROSE.

Mild offspring of a dark and sullen sire; Whose modest form, so delicately fine, Was nursed in whirling storms, And cradled in the winds.

Thee, when young Spring first questioned, And dared the sturdy blusterer to the fight Thee on this bank he threw To mark his victory.

In this lone vale the primrose of the year, Serene thon openest to the nipping gale, Unnoticed and alone, Thy tender elegance.

So virtue blooms, brought forth amid the st Of chill adversity, in some lone walk Of life, she rears her head, Obscure and unobserved.

While every bleaching breeze that on her b Chastens her spotless purity of breast, And hardens her to bear Serene the ills of life.

H. K. For "The

Convincement.

In the valuable journal left by John (man, there are mentioned in close con the cases of two persons who had members of the Society of Friends, bu different feelings.

When visiting meetings on the Shore of Maryland, he took for a guid Browning, "who," he says, "some ti fore had been convinced of the blessed by the inward operation of the Holy without any instrumental means. been a member of the Church of E and for his sobriety was chosen a vest but after a time felt a scruple in hi about taking off his hat, when he ente ehurch-yard, so-called, fearing it was a stitious adoration of the ground, from posed holiness; but would take it off w entered the worship-house, and walk ered to his pew. But after a time h not uncover his bead, until what th divine service began; which, as he kep tive to the scruple in his mind, becam lifeless to him, who was inwardly seek substance and life. He therefore with from it, and after some time went to our meetings, rather out of curiosity th pecting any good, but felt himself own had a taste of the peace which the wor not give, and from that time became stant attender of our meetings.

We had a meeting at Queen Ann's, ar a people who for want of keeping to t of religion, had almost lost the form. I versation at a house in the evening, I a Friend whether she was a Friend's cl onvinced of our principles. Her reply other incident in connection with the battle. subject is related in John Churchman's nost of the arguments in them I can ansspilling the blood of any of my fellow-creasatisfactorily to my own mind. But tures. nange I have seen in the life of my little "As we had to march directly under the

"After several days hard labor, we became trial I experienced heavenly Goodness to be that when she was young, she lived at a so drowsy that nearly all the men except the near, and again all fear of death was taken d's house, and took a notion of going to sentinels fell asleep. General Washington away.

"They took me to the Hessian general,

"General orders were given for every comnt of his travels in England. He says: pany to maintain its ranks, and each man to at this time was about nine hundred. During rode to Cornwood, in Northumberland, keep his place. An awful pause preceded the the first five days of our confinement, most of odged at the house of a man who had engagement, and some of us stood in solemn us had nothing to eat, and many died from for several years of a disorderly conduct, silence. I then remembered what I had seen want. One poor fellow who had been, as far nuch given to the excessive use of strong and felt of the mercies of God, and was afresh as I can remember, five days without food, until he had very much impaired his convinced that it was contrary to the Divine got at last a little piece of dry bread, which he interest in the Lord to open Will, for a Christian to fight. I was sensible, devoured greedily, and then leaning his head iderstanding, and make him acquainted in my own heart that I had done wrong in back, immediately expired! his blessed truth, whereby he was made taking up arms, and the terrors of the Lord "I had been three days without a monthful rom that evil, and received strength to fell upon me. I then secretly supplicated the to cat, when an aunt of mine got leave to see te his old companions. His joining with Almighty for preservation, covenanting that me. She gave me a small quantity of food ds was a great grief to his wife, who in-lif He would be pleased to deliver me from and then left me, and in a day or two after d me, that through prejudice for a time, shedding the blood of my fellow-creatures she sent her son with some more; and thus, ould rather he had continued his former that day, I would never fight again. Then e of living, than to become a Quaker, the love of God was shed abroad in my heart, I have seen the tables of Friends in Philadelobserving the sweetness of his temper and all fear of man was entirely taken away; phia loaded with all the luxuries of wealth, ae recovery of his health in some degree, and throughout the engagement I remained it seemed as if I could weep over them, rea solid and sober conduct, she was made perfectly calm, though the bombshells and shot membering the days of my timine, and fearlieve in the power by which he had fell round me like hail, cutting down my com-ing that the day of plenty was not enough n such a victory, and joined herself in rades on every side, and tearing off the limbs valued. une religious profession; they appeared of the trees like a whirlwind; the very rocks "While I was thus suffering under this steady Friends. I would to God that quaked, and the hills that surrounded us cruel imprisonment, I remembered the im-ty Him be cleansed from that leprosy call this cation before the militia, of which worm of the dust, I used to go out every the brigade that I belonged to was partly exeming after dark, into the jail yard, and composed. Towards evening, (for the battle throw myself prostrate with my face upon and sober conduct" of this man that lasted from sunrise to sunset,) our battalion the ground, in deep abasedness of soul, and t and some conduct of this man that lasted from surfixe to sushed, our natuation the ground, in deep abasedness of soul, and be means of convincing his wife of the was ordered to march forward to the charge supplicate the Lord for mercy.

*This sense of my undone condition lasted segments of effective in spreading the return agency so effective in spreading the return age of those who are truly under its infinesmall arms, and thus I was enabled to rejoice, that I should experience deliverance from my A man of more than average mental that though I was provided with sixty car-troubles. I arose from the ground with glad-y, and who was sceptical as to the truths tridges, I did not discharge my musket once ness of heart." ristianity, said: "I have read a great that day. Forever magnified be the God of J. R. was soon after released from prison, books on the evidences of Christianity, my life that I was mercifully delivered from and returned to his father's house in safety.

condition and of the truths of his gos- night, and we retreated as well as we could. Jacob Ritter thus relates how he was I took shelter in the woods, and having found the militia when about 20 years of age tion covered my mind. I knew I had sinned gh the influence of a clergyman of the in entering into the war, and no man going ran denomination to which he belonged, to execution could have felt more remorse. nan preached the propriety and neces- I went along till I came to a little cottage f standing in defence of our country where dwelt a Dutch woman. I entered at a portion of the insects limb. By the aid of at the renemies; "so," he says, "I was wenture and begged her to give me a little (but wonderful instrument, the microscope, deed against my better judgment, to broth, for I had not tasted a mouthful of food was to guess, as in olden times. The microscope dutch the microscope of the same of the microscope of the microsco and taking up may masket I for two days. She took pity on me and gave to great the company and taking up may make I for two days. She took pity on me and gave to great the company and taking up may make I for two days. She took pity on me and gave to great the company and taking up may me some, but I had searcely down to a party of Hessians came in and took great the great take take the great take the great take the great take the great take take the great take the great take the great take the great take take the great take rders to work day and night to erect guns, and occasionally placing their bayonets indeed formed the fly's foot as a sucker, furties, &c., in order to resist the progress at my breast; they swore they would kill no on the spot because I was a rebel. In this ened it with a viseid fluid.—Selected.

Alas! when notion changes the will, to us with a loud voice: 'Boys, get up-but Count Donop, who, after much rough lanthat faith which works by love to the besilent, the enemy is nearly upon us. About guage, ordered me to be put under the proping of the heart, the religion is without daylight the alarm guan was fired by the vost-capatin; and, with a number of other mation, empty and dead."

British; then all our army made ready for prisoners of war, I was marched to Philadelphia and lodged in prison.

"The number of American prisoners in jail

plers and drunkards would turn to that seemed to tremble with the roar of the cannon, pressions of my mind on the day of the battle

Prophet who is in Israel, that they "It happened that the standing troops were at Brandywine, and feeling myself as a poor

How a Fly Walks on the Ceiling.—To walk was we nad to march directly under the term in the or my number of the plant and to march directly under the term in the year or two past, I cannot English cannon which kept up a continual shed downward an a floor turned topsy-turry up in her which I cannot understand." great, and Washington called out to us: "Men, to work while the was and means which the retreat; it is not worth while to sacrifices where the term is the continual to sacrifices and the waste of the waste of the continual to the colling. The waste of th formed to act like a sucker, which by exhausting the air would enable the insect to attach a thick grape vine, crept under it, and worn itself firmly to the ceiling. Others fancied battle of Brandywine, during the revolut with hunger and fatigue, fell sound asleep, that this foot might be furnished with little arry war. Though he had before had before he next morning I crawbed out of my books to grasp the inequalities of mortar. A sense of the horrors of war, yet he had biding place, and a sense of my forlorn conditions the sense of itself firmly to the ceiling. Others fancied of gumbottle, provided with a sticky fluid, and by help of which the fly was kept from falling.

But the best idea of all was to examine this

For "The Friend." Religious Items, &c.

German name for Heretic.—It is thought by some scholars that the teutonic use of Katze Ketzer) for heretic has its ground in the as sociation of eats with witches. A witch and a black cat were invariably thought of together. The early Protestants (like the early Christians) were believed to be bewitched, and to practise witchcraft. In popular German imagination the Waldenses, the Albigenses, and even the Templar Knights were credited with worshipping a large black cat, and this association of ideas resulted in the word Katzer or Ketzer for a heretic. It was once the custom in France every "St. John's Day," with bymns and anthems and processions of priests, to throw twenty-four live eats into a fire, kindled by the bishops and clergy in the public square; the practice was strictly in keeping with the ceremony of burning heretics. It is a good illustration of the bewildering cruckty of ignorance.

Wealth and Aristocracy in the Church.— John Wesley said once: "Beware how you invite rich men into your churches until you are sure they are Christians. Beware how you manage your churches in such a way that rich men will become a necessity to you. If your church buildings are so luxurious that you need an enormous income, wealthy men will be necessary to you, and they will rule yon, and then you must soon bid farewell to Methodist discipline, and, perhaps, to Methodist doctrine." A wiser thing was never said. A more unpopular thing, perhaps, could hardly be repeated at this hour; but the truth is, that even in Republican America and especially in the wealthy and fashionable society of cities, there are a great many lux-urious churches, that do not want poor men some men are too poor or too corrupt in their past connections and too low in their present social standing to be attractive persons in a luxurious [church.] I call a luxurious church that is not ready to receive membership from any quarter of the population a social reserve, and not a church.

The two worst evils of our time inside the domain of Christendom are probably lux-urious living among Church members and when the two go together, and we have a religious club instead of a church, a club in which, of course, it would be uncourteous to between the living and the dead .- Jos. Cook.

our Lord Jesus Christ," and defended the use of the crucifix as an aid to devotion. The Bishop of the diocese was present, and before the audience was dismissed rose and made a public and earnest protest against the bold perversion of the text.

> For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

at Pultowa.

the entranced eye of the observer. The most Young. The second and fourth of thes wonderful nebula the northern sky reveals made by the Clarks, who have now nearl lies before us, filling the whole field of view. Pletted a 26-inch glass for the Univer Thedelicacy of the celestial glow that pervades lytiginia, and have also a contract for the scene is beautiful beyond comparison. The will be the manmoth lens of the wo central point of interest is the famous tra- inches in diameter, for the Lick Observ pezium, consisting of four bright stars and two on Mount Hamilton, California. smaller ones. Around this sextuple group radiate what seem to be the head and branch- one firm has had in the manufacture ing horns of some huge animal, the trapezium large telescopes. Alvan Clark, now at occupying the open mouth, and surrounding genarian, recently told the writer the h a space of sky, within which reigns the black- of his start in telescope making. He had ness of darkness. Spiral curves of nebulous a portrait painter, but photography h haze fill in the field of view, the radiating prived him of a large part of his remuner mass being of a delicate green tint, while To assist his son, whom he detected m dotted over the shadowy haze are many a concave mirror, for a reflecting tele brilliant stars, throwing an element of life he made a study of the problems inv into the formless void and helping to light up and soon created a number of lenses. A this scene of loveliness and grandeur which these was a 7-inch, and with it he disco such an exhibition of majesty, vastness, and Wilhelm Struve and other great astrono celestial grace as is symbolized in the great These discoveries he sent abroad, and Nebula of Orion, beaming with suns, peopled soon he had an order from the Engli with ghostly shadows, and glowing with light server Dawes for several telescopes for h that is hundreds of years in reaching us!"-

Scientific American.

The Great Russian Telescope.—The Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, publishes the follow-continue it. And now the son of W ing account of the manufacture of the lens Struve, himself one of the first astronon used in the instrument referred to in the the world, sends on from Russia for the above description of the Nebula in Orion.

month has been the completion, by Alvan country testing the completed lens, and Clark & Sons, of the great 30 inch object glass is actory, takes it home with him. of the telescope for the Russian Observatory Rapid Formation of Mineral Veins

at Pultowa

and its successful completion may be justly the length of time generally supposed regarded as a triumph of American skill and necessary. About two years ago he fil as members. An unexpressed feeling that patience. The lens consists of two pieces, a trench with common clay containing one a double convex, and the other a plano and having occasion to again clear this concave lens, fitted in a cell and separated a he found, to his great surprise, that th few inches from each other. This separation had entirely changed its character an is for the purpose of allowing a circulation of become white; while at the same time air, by which, after a hot day, the lenses are traversed in several directions by parre made more quickly to partake of the sur-sures which were filled with compac rounding cooler temperature of night. The surfaces are so ground as to destroy the tendency to create blurred images, or phorbiaceous plant found in Sonora pos images surrounded by fringes of color. This the remarkable property of jumping. loose thinking among religious teachers. And grinding has to be done with great care, and, due to the larvæ of a small species of during the latter part of the time, is entirely accomplished by rubbing the glass with the finding in it both food and home. The finger, covered with a fine polishing dust ments of the larvæ when disturbed cau suppose that there are any sinners, a club that has forgotten that all men are brethren, and the effect is tested by allowing light to be that the business of the Church is to stand passed through and noticing the clearness of kept as pets in China. Benecke state the image. These fine touches take an im- having received a pair he placed them A Literal Cross.—An English clergyman preached a sermon lately from the text, "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of glass. To apply them with judgment and he would come up to the surface of the success requires an amount of tact and skill take his mouth full of air, thrust it und rarely possessed. There are probably not water, forming small bubbles of film-lik twenty men in the world who can make a tle; and continue thus to build a layer of first-class object glass.

world. The next in size are (1) the 27-inch or three days after spawning, the your glass of the Vienna Observatory, made by escapes from the egg. So long as it Grabb, of Dublin, about two years ago, and parental care the male devotes himself now lying unused for want of a dome of suf- As soon as a young fish starts away, b ficient size in which to mount it; (2) the 26 tens after it, seizes it with his mouth Nebula in Orion as seen through the new inch of our Washington Observatory, in suc-spits it out into the nest of foam. The telescope made for the Russian Observatory | cessful operation; (3) a 25-inch glass belonging | subsist at first upon the foam of the nes Pultowa.

"The little wisp of cloud haze visible to far as is known, not of much value for scientific The following aneedotes have been s the naked eye is transferred into one of the purposes; (4) the 23-inch of the Princeton ne by a London physician, and forcibly most glorions visions that ever breaks upon Observatory, now in constant use by

It will thus be seen how large a pa no pencil may paint nor pen describe. the duplicity of certain stars, which he where but in the heavens shall we find caped the keen eyes and large telesco and friends. From this beginning his grew on his hands, and when too old for ual labor himself he found his sons rea delicate and important part of the gr "One of the interesting events of the past telescope of the world. He is now i

Fleitmann has lately remarked that t This is the largest lens ever manufactured, mation of mineral veins is far from req

pyrites.—Scientific American Mexican Jumping Seed .- The seed of which occupy the central portions of the motion in the seed.

The Paradise Fish .- This is a small s bubbles hanging quite firmly together, a This 30-inch glass is the largest in the new layers until it was completed. I ating ideas to each other.

, a most interesting incident was ob-in the history of the dog.

special attachment to, and an under- case, which has been satisfactorily performed ng with, each other. The one was a in the present volume. terrier, gentle and ready to fraternize and savage-looking exterior.

relation of mine in Dumfriesshire had ing, but sadly-blinded people.
and a cat which were attached to each The barbarous treatment which these mesthe cat by his side.

J. G. Wood.

THE FRIEND.

FIFTH MONTH 19, 1883.

have received a copy of the above fanaticism. from the publishers, through the hands time to time by historians and essayists who tion" was very largely and fully proclaimed hile I was living in the country with a are either carcless writers, or who are not by these ministers, and for the reason that it willing to fairly look at unpleasant truths.

y friend had several dogs, two of which to call for a fresh statement of the facts of the divinity and atonement of Christ.

The truth is, that the officers of the Massaall honest comers. The other was as chusetts colony made no pretence to toleraas a mastiff. He was fierce, and required tion, and were quite prepared to exclude by acquaintance before you knew what force all whose views of doctrine differed from freed from the necessity of maintaining the alness and kindness lay beneath his their own; and in effecting this object were holy watch, and constantly resorting to the not restrained by the principles of either jushese two dogs were often observed to tice or humanity. When Ann Austin and ment for themselves, and for preservation from a certain point together, when the small Mary Fisher arrived at Boston in 1656, there the snares that beset their path. It is very emained behind at a corner of a large was no law in the colony which referred to possible for such to become so much absorbed while the mastiff took a round by the Quakers, and they had a perfectly legal and in the work before them as to neglect the the field, which ran up-hill for nearly moral right to land there, and attend to the daily seeking for spiritual food in humble de-, and led to a wood on the left. Game business on which they had come. Yet these pendence on the all-bountiful Giver. Where ded in those districts, and the object of inoffensive women were seized, shamefully this neglect continues, there will gradually ogs' arrangement was soon seen. The entreated, put in prison where they were grow up a dependence on their own abilities would start a hare, and chase it up the harshly used for a number of weeks, and then and efforts, spiritual pride in some of its multiwards the large wood at the summit, shipped to Barbadoes. To those who know form ramifications will be allowed an entrance, they arrived somewhat tired. At this the self-sacrificing spirit of our early Friends; and the Divine blessing will be withdrawn, the large dog, who was fresh and had and the manner in which they were made in-while the poor deluded instrument may still after his walk, darted after the animal, struments in extending political and religious think he is doing service for the Lord. he usually captured. They then ate liberty, by faithful protest and patient endur-tre between them, and returned home. ance of injustice, it will not seem surprising course had been systematically carried that these women were followed by many some time before it was fully under-other messengers whom the Lord sent to proclaim the gospel among that highly-profess-in an extraordinary manner, and both sengers received, - imprisoned, beaten and great favorites in the household. The hanged, even women being stripped to the nowever, was not intended to sleep in waist, tied to the tail of a cart and cruelly keep them. For it is the greatest danger to ouse, and was carefully put out every scourged through the streets—could not fail go abroad, except a man be moved of the to sur, strange to say, he was always to deeply affect the minds of those beholders. Lord, and go in the power of the Lord." in the morning lying before the fire, who sympathized with them; and in a very

"And every one feeling the danger the fire, who sympathized with them; and in a very to a constant of the lord." ne evening the master of the dog heard that they led to mental unsettlement and to pure fear of the Lord will be kept in. For t of rap at a back door leading to the an imitation of the ancient prophets who often though they that travel may have openings on, and saw the sagacious cat spring up symbolized the condition of the people in a when they are abroad, to minister to others; trike the latch, while the dog pushed manner which would not accord with our yet as for their own particular growth, they must the door and entered in triumph. This ideas of the proprieties of life. It is not im-dwell in the life which doth open; and that n must have long been carried on, and portant at this day to determine whether will keep down that which would boast. it was discovered, I need not say how those who so acted were rightly led, or sted were the members of the household whether they were influenced by an excited se intelligent and really wonderful crea- imagination; but their acts can furnish no palliation of the cruelties practised by the ruling powers of the Massachusetts colony, because they did not precede but followed after

One of the interesting points brought out in this work is the fact, that a considerable portion of the settlers in Massachusetts and Quaker Invasion of Massachusetts, by the adjacent colonies did not approve of the rd P. Hallowell. Boston: Houghton, course of their rulers, and that their natural humanity was not overpowered by religious

In the introductory chapter, which treats B. Lippincott & Co., of this city. The of the rise of Quakerism, we find the asserof the volume is "to correct popular tion, that the "doctrine of the Inner Light es and to assign to the Quakers their was the corner-stone upon which Fox builded, place in the early history of Massachu- and upon which Quakerism rests." It would In the Appendix are placed a num- have presented a fuller view of his doctrinal the colonial laws and other documents system, to have stated, that he and our early afford valuable confirmation of the cor- members relied for salvation on what Christ ss of the statements and views advanced had done without them in the prepared body, body of the book.

c charges brought against the early their hearts. John Banks, speaking for hiers of our Society in New England self and his brethren, says, "We as truly bebeen refuted in the pages of this Journal lieve in that same Christ, who laid down his sewhere; but they furnish so convenient body and took it up again, as in his Light er for the inexcusable intolerance and within; and we have benefit to salvation by y of the magistrates and clergy of Mas. the one as well as the other; and of both, saving by the presetts colony, that perhaps it is scarcely they being one." Yet it is true that "the be an advantage.

the faculty possessed by animals of com- to be wondered at that they are revived from Light of Christ, as God's gift for man's salvahad been too much lost sight of by the pro-The recent re-issuing of old calumnies seems fessors of Christianity, who still owned the

> There are temptations adapted to every position in which we may be placed, and even those who are actively engaged in promoting the Lord's cause by pen or tongue, are not inexhaustible fountain for spiritual nourish-

George Fox relates in his journal that at a meeting at John Crook's in 1658, he was moved to declare and open divers things to those Friends who had received a part of the ministry. Among the cautions then delivered was the following:-

"There is great danger too in travelling abroad in the world. The same power that moves any to go forth, is that which must

"And every one feeling the danger to his few cases there is some reason to suppose own particular in travelling abroad then the

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- The total number of immigrants who arrived in the principal customs districts of the United States during the ten months which ended 4th mo. 30th, 1883, was 417,689 against 544,601 during the corresponding period of the previous year. Sitting Bull and his band arrived at Standing Rock Agency, Dakota, last week from Fort Randall, They see to again in furnish peoples. On the internal control of the property of the pro are to engage in farming hereafter. On the journey to Standing Rock four deaths occurred.

The Standard Oil Company's Works, in Jersey City, were struck by lightning early on the morning of the 10th, and the larger portion destroyed by fire. Six men perished in the flames. The loss on property is estimated at $1,500,000.

The great bridge, connecting New York City and Brooklyn, is to be opened to the public on the 24th instant. The trustees have fixed the toll for foot passengers at one cent, the fare on the cars at five cents, for one horse and man at five cents, one horse and vehicle one norse and man at the cents, one norse and ventice to cents, two horses and vehicle 20 cents, each additional horse five cents, and sheep and cattle five cents. The idea broached at the New York Chamber of Cosmerce, of placing New York and Brooklyn under one and the same government is one that is likely to grow. As a mere matter of economy, people are beginning to see there is no reason in having two civic administrations for communities that, with the completion of the East River bridge, are substantially one. There are many considerations in favor of the step and scarcely any against it. It costs New York nearly ten million dollars per annum for official salaries alone, and Brooklyn pays in about the same proportion; the saving by the proposed combination, therefore, would $1,105,000.

The New England Homestead, of Springfield, Massachusetts, publishes reports of the crops from all sections of New England, which indicate a large yield of hay

The Ohio Board of Agriculture has received official despatches from other States, giving the following pro-babilities for acreage and condition combined, of winter and spring wheat in the States named: Kansas, 93; Minnesota, 76; Indiana, 90; Iowa, about 80; California, 87; Michigan, 64; Ohio, 56; Kentucky, about 66. From these and other data, Secretary Chamberlain, of Ohio, estimates a probable total shortage of 100,000,000 bushels from the last crop of 500,000,000 bushels.

The Agricultural Department of Illinois has completed a report of the crops covering 1500 townships of the State. The winter wheat crop will not exceed 40 per cent. of that of 1882,

Maryland. ult., about fourteen days later than usual, and the lateness of the blooms prevented damage by frosts. For other fruits the prospect is unusually good.

The receipts of cotton at Galveston this season have reached 800,000 bales. This makes it the second cotton port in the United States,

Our exports of petroleum for the nine months which ended 3rd mo. 31st, 1883, amounted in value to $32,-023,373, against $38,207,257 for the corresponding period of the previous year.

The "Lake Superior and Northwest Railroad Comhave several branches.

The Cleveland, Akron and Columbus Railway is experimenting with a novel system of storm signals, to be used on the running trains. The purpose is to notify farmers of the probable condition of the weather.

A trestle work now being constructed for a railroad across Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana, is to be 21½ miles the lake, and 2 4-10 miles from the north shore. All of the piling along the southern shore, with the exception of about one mile, has been driven, and this division will be completed by the 1st of 7th month. Of the piling in the lake, two and a quarter miles have heen driven, and one mile of the work is completed. The trestle on the north shore has been finished some time, and the rails are laid nine miles. The piles aver-

Liberty, Joplin, and elsewhere. At Kansas City three persons were killed and twelve or thirteen injured. At Oronozo six were killed and over thirty injured.

The loss of property is very great.

The damage at Denver, Colorado, by last week's hail storm, will probably amount to $75,000. Scarcely a building in the city escaped injury. The fruit trees were greatly damaged. The loss to ranchmen around

An epidemic of measles, including many cases of the "black" or malignant type, prevails in Wheatland, about ten miles from Lockport, New York. There are now 40 cases under treatment, and five deaths have occurred. The disease was introduced by an immigrant from Germany.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 354. which was 34 less than during the previous week, and 4th, and 14 deaths last week. 2 less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the foregoing 193 were males, and 161 females: 48 2 less than during the corresponding period has years.

Of the foregoing 193 were males, and 161 females: 48 died of consumption; 25 of pneumonia; 18 of old age; minutes of our late Yearly Meeting, on page 9, 6th 12 of scarlet fever; 12 of dipthetra; 12 of bronchitis; line from bottom, for fully read freely, and on page 16, 10 of croup, and 10 of convulsions.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103\(\frac{1}{2}\); 3\(\frac{1}{2}\)s, 102\(\frac{1}{2}\); 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, registered, 112\(\frac{1}{4}\); coupon, 113\(\frac{3}{2}\); 4's, 119\(\frac{3}{2}\); currency 6's 129

Cotton,-There was no essential change to notice in price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at $\frac{1}{8}$ a $11\frac{2}{8}$ cts, for uplands and New Orleans. Petroleum.—Standard white, $7\frac{1}{4}$ a $7\frac{2}{8}$ cts, for export and 81 a 82 cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour continues dull, but prices were without essen-

The Treasurer of Boston, in his annual statement, relation that change. Sales of 2000 barrels, including Minnesota BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHAPPER (BARNAL) and the debt of that city on the 30th of 4th month, extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Pennsylvania faulty at $5.5 a ATTUNESASSA. $4.18,4358, an increase during the year of $5.25; western do. at $5.50 b $6.20; and patents at $6.18 and Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the attention of the same of the a $7.50. Rye flour is steady at $3.621 a $3.75.

Grain.-Wheat is in moderate request and a fraction higher. Sales of 5300 bushels red, in car lots, at $1.16 a $1.26. Rye is nominal at 70 a 72 cts. Corn is quiet Sales of 10,000 bushels in car lots, at 55 but firmer. a 65 cts. Oats are steady. Sales of I1,000 bushels, in car lots, at 49 a 54 ets.

Beef cattle were in fair demand, but prices were fraction lower: 2700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 51 a 71 cts. per lb.; the latter rate for

Sheep were a fraction lower: 10,000 head arrived and sold at the different vards at 5 a 7 cts, for wool sheep, and 3 a 6 cts. for clipped. Spring lambs sell at $3 a $7 per head.

Hogs were a fraction lower: 5000 head sold at the different yards at 10 a II cts. per lb., as to quality.

Foreign.-On the morning of the 12th instant, al-Official reports promise a full average peach crop in though the sky was lowering and there were dashes of laryland. The trees were in full bloom on the 26th rain during the day there was a very large attendance at the opening of the International Fisheries Exhibi-tion, at South Kensington, London. The approaches to the temporary buildings were packed with carriages and foot passengers at an early hour of the morning, and long before noon the 23 acres of buildings were filled with spectators from all parts of the world.

The third trial of Timothy Kelly, who was charged pany," with a capital of $5,000,000, has been organized of the pain a part of the pain a that the Count De Chambord, the Bourbon representative to the French throne, is dangerously ill.

and, we trust, into that rest prepared for the residence in Haddonfield, New

The imports into France during the first four months of the present year show an increase of 34,000,000 francs elder of that Monthly Meeting, in the 70th yes in length. This distance comprises 133 miles from as compared with the same months in 1882. The example's Avenue Canal to the Point, 54 miles across ports during those months decreased 4,500,000 francs may the remaining years of my life be more decreased 4,500,000 francs. s compared with the corresponding period last year.

age 60 feet in length, and are driven about 40 feet. It the budget will have convinced the Emperor of the imwill, when completed, be the longest bridge of the kind possibility of carrying out social reforms with the prewill, when completed, be the longest bringe of the kind positivity or currying our social returns and me price in the U. States. More than 15,000,000 feet of humber, seen Heichstag, Frince Bismarck is becoming daily in control of the piles, will be used in its construction. In the 18th the worst war by happen if he does not abandon all the me go, do not hold me." On beling asket A tornado, in southwestern Missouri, on the 13th that the worst may happen if he does not abandon all instant, caused great havoc in Kansas City, Oronozo, State work for the present.

State work for the present.

On the 6th inst, in the Reichstag, Johannsen, at Danish deputy, gave notice that he would question the Government in regard to the accession of the actions. Government in regard to the execution of the ordinance Government in regard to the execution of the originates for have the consoling assurance than a secretary and the people of North Schlewing to choose be-tween German and Danish nationality. The debate on bilss, and is with them praising Him who low the abbject was fixed for the 221 inst. The boose adtween German and Danish nationality. The debate on the subject was fixed for the 22d inst. The house adjourned until that date.

The treaty between Germany and Madagascar is Denver is very licavy.

A telegram from Lockport, New York, says the aphis nation principle. Germany has done or said nothing has been discovered in nearly every apple orchard in Nispara county. based on the mutual recognition of the most favored based on the mutual recognition of the most favored bation principle. Germany has done or said nothing offensive to the sensibilities of France, but the Malagassy envoys consider that their mission has been a in the 67th year of her age, a member of I complete success.

The net immigration into Canada from 1st mo, I to 4th mo. 30, 1883, was 22,255, against 15,373 during the corresponding period of 1862. During last month there were 38 deaths from vellow fever in Havana. Seven deaths from the disease were reported in that city during the week ending 5th month 12th line from top, for sight, read Light.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS. Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach French, Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School.

Application may be made to Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwood St Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ninth St. Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh St.

household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pin to John Sharpless, Chester, Per Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine s

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INS Near Frankford, (Twenty-third Ward,) Phil !

Physician and Superintendent-John C. H Applications for the Admission of Patier made to the Superintendent, or to any of of Managers.

DIED, at his residence in Moncton, Vermon 2nd of 3d mo. ISS3, DAVID F. KNOWLES, a and minister of Starksboro Monthly Meet eighty-nine years, eight months and nine days year 1813 he was married to Jemima Hoag, of Joseph and Huldah Hoag, with whom seventy years, lacking eight days. He stood unwavering to the principles of early Friends the divisions which occurred in his day. In sickness, when suffering with severe pain, I frequently break out in praising the Lord for dent mercies toward him. His friends and r calling in to see him, he often told them that with participation in the murder of Cavendish and Burke, was concluded on the 9th. The jury found a willing to suffer until the Lord should seef tended to be executed. penal servitude for life.

It is stated that telegrams have been sent to the Duc D'Annade and the Duc De Chartres informing them sufferings, and passed away like one going t a preparation for the end, and my daily prayer La France says that Brun, Minister of Marine, has a guard on the door of my lips that I may not received a despatch from de Brazza stating that he has my tongue; so help me, Ol blessed Saviour taken possession of the village of Longo and the ad-mercy's sake." For many years she had given jacent territory in the name of the French Government. of her love to God in humble obedience to his the control of the first properties of the first prope

her have the consoling assurance that she is n

—, at Woodbury, N. J., on the 22d of 4th SARAH L. MICKLE, in the 78th year of her age

Monthly Meeting of Friends.

—, at his residence, near Haddonfield, I the 28th of Fourth month, NATHANIEL B. H.

in the 66th year of his age, a member of Had Monthly Meeting of Friends.

, at her residence in Ercildoun, Chester on the 27th of 4th month, Deborah Hunt, in year of her age, a member of London Grove. Meeting of Friends.

-, at her residence in Chester Co., Pa., on of 4th month, MARGARET, widow of Benjamin aged 77 years, a member and elder of Londo Monthly Meeting of Friends. She was greatly by many to whom the cause of Christ is precio a sense that the love of her Redeemer so fi heart as to flow out to others. Of her funera be said, as was testified of a faithful servant of t formerly, that "the powerful, living presence Lord, in an eminent manner, overshadowed the bly," and that the praise and glory of all was at to "that divine grace and holy Spirit of God, through which, she was what she was."

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, FIFTH MONTH 26, 1883.

NO. 42.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON.

MOGRESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. ons, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES.

. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend." o S. Hillman.* "4th mo. 30th, 1826.

* Oh Sarah! I feel so strangely to and fro, I can scarcely believe somethat I have any part or lot in the king-f Christ and of God; none of the staand steady watchful walking which has ed to me to be the beauty of the Chris-* * I seldom come to thee but omplaints of my own frailty; but thou emember what a poor, worthless, helpeature I am; and perhaps I shall not t a trespass upon thy ability, if I say, aust be willing to keep me along, though rayest find me a heavy, dragging load. eally feel so empty, so utterly devoid of ed me consolation; and that is, that I hose who love the Lord Jesus in sin-

Tottering and faltering as are my ps, I think I can say, that I do feel my very closely united to some of these. or me, my dear friend, that I may be and more diligently concerned to act rt; to look unto Him who is promised salvation of the ends of the earth; and a steadily looking to Him, I may exce preservation from the follies, fascion One that is mighty, may I not hope erience an establishment in Christian ss in this state of existence, and a well led hope of immortal and unchangeable

W. SCATTERGOOD."

To the same.

No date. not already done so) passed upon the slothful a state of destitution and death. servant: 'Take from him the talent, and give it to him that hath ten talents.' Indeed the and Memoranda of William Scattergood. hope which I once had, seems to be gradually destitute and forlorn condition.

charge it to one act of my life, or rather one omission of duty? or shall I charge it to the the pangs of the new birth—all who enter weakness of human nature, and the deep de- the kingdom of God must in greater or lesser ceitfulness of the heart of man? I am not measure, realize for the dear Master's sake yet, I humbly trust, hardened against conviction, nor yet given up of a long-suffering and our tender High Priest is by no means ungracious God. My tears are often shed in mindful of what his faithful children are passsecret places, but alas! my prayers pass not ing through; but sitteth by the furnace in through the cloud and thick darkness, which order that the heat may not be too great, any icer so empty, so unterly devoid of the condition of shrink back from and say, I am not fit for come the world"-and the crowning consolathis-my heart is defiled and I am a back-tory assurance, "Lo, I am with you alway, slider-my shame is apparent, and I shall be even unto the end of the world.' counted but an intruder into that which now | Part of this chastening, purifying discipline manifestly does not belong to me, whatever was, no doubt, a portion of the preparation I may have heretofore known. I sometimes for the great work of becoming an ambassador I may have necetoric known. I sometimes for the great work on becoming an antassasaud look at it and think, that if under right feel ing I could publicly bow my knees in the assemblies of the Lord's people, that I should lifting up the voice also in ministerial sacrifeel healing virtue to flow into my wounded, free which service afterwards, as the sequel captive, and sometimes sorrowful spirit. But I fear this is an experience which I shall

While it would rejoice the heart of very

from me, ye that work iniquity.'

which thou hast had for me, not be suffered are meted to the heaven-bound pilgrim, and be any thing which the unsearchable and Fountain of mercies, in infinite n, may appoint.

W. Scattergood."

W. Scattergood."

W. Scattergood." I do—for I sincerely desire that thou mayest which, a valued minister of this Society has a Hillman, a valued member and minister of hold on thy way—like a spot, and a blemish, left the record: "I have never had unity with a remarkable manner to comfort, strengthen, and exhort; but to whom now I must be a "Alas! my dear S., thou hast no idea of the stumbling-block and a mere empty professor. situation thy poor friend W. S. has brought If thou feelest at any time any thing which himself into. Whilst thou art affectionately may tend to revive me, or which may be the boping for the day of deliverance and change means of drawing me to faithfulness and huto come, I fear that the unwillingness which miliation, do not spare it. I am not yet untoo much prevails to take up the cross and willing to bear the rod, and sometimes am follow Him who was meek and low of heart, ready to beg for it, if it might be the means will finally procure that sentence (if it has of redeeming me from what I now know to be

Thy affectionate

Some expressions in this and the previous wasting away; and although I sometimes letter evidencing deep exercise of soul, seem think not yet quite gone, yet when revived like the pouring out of a chastened and full appears only to arise to throw light upon my heart, as was that of W. S. at the age of about twenty-three years, into the sympathizing What can I say to thee, my dear friend? bosom of a similarly exercised, though more What account can I give of the cause of this advanced sister, in like religious training in defection from the King of kings? Shall I the school of deep proving and baptism.

These humiliating experiences-in a word s, pleasures, and deceitful temptations, at this is an experience which I shall while it would rejoice the heart of the stransitory world. I do feel myself efficient, but inasmuch as there is help their ent off from the Divine favor, and made ivears and gifted for service, passively yielding when I look at the prospect before me of of the day, to see more of those young in being cut off from the Divine favor, and made years and gifted for service, passively yielding to feel the force of that sentence. Depart themselves to that discipline of the cross of their dear Saviour, which would fit them, If thou canst yet pray for me, still bear me through a partaking of His cup and baptism, the mansions of eternal rest and peace in the remembrance; and may that which for this or any other service in the Church, tit is my first desire; may it always the control of the contro erished; and may I be willing to do or rather, I should say, may that feeling monies to such afflictions and tribulations as thern District Monthly Meeting, Philadelphia, and a high was of good in others, and am a certain species of fleshly wisdom, which in the lith of Ninth mo. 1855, aged 61 years, demoirs and Letters" of this dear friend, see the sight of those to whom (may I speak it banner, adopts a mode very similar to those with humility) I seem to have been anointed in who keep out of view the bardness which must be endured, and seeks to allure by tem- sea. These wadies wind and wind, turning shadows of the clouds that were at the porary gratification.'

(To be continued.)

On the Desert.

THE PENINSULA OF SINAL

This is the title of a work by Henry M. Field, describing his journey in the wilderness of Sinai, in the track of Moses and the awful forms as produced an impression of in-Israelites of old. Numerous as have been the describable grandeur. All round us the hori-the burnt-out crater of a volcano, w descriptions of the country and its inhabitants zon was piled with mountains." by successive travellers, the subject is one which seems to continue fresh in its interest. The present volume is pleasantly written, instructive, and entertaining.

H. M. Field had an agreeable fellow-travel-ler in Dr. George E. Post, Professor of Surgery and Botany in the Protestant College at northward the eye rested on a long line of Turning to points still farther away Beirut, who was desirous of studying the white cliffs—the escarpment of a table-land very ends of the wadies, one could st flora of Sinai and the Desert, and who had which was the Great and Terrible Wilderness black patches in the yellow sand, w long been acquainted with Arabian language in which the Israelites wandered forty years had learned to recognize as Arab v and enstoms. On him devolved the prepara- Thus a wonderful nature was chosen for a Strictly speaking, the Arab has no like columns than pyramids.

bither and thither in endless confusion.

is thus described: "We saw beneath us a tains and valleys, to extirpate not inde panorama as extensive as that seen from the a race, but such a religion. The descr Righi; only, instead of the smiling cantons of of the Baal-worshippers are here si Switzerland, with green fields and waving their worship, like the worship of Mole forests and crystal lakes, we saw only the perished forever.' barrenness of utter desolation, yet in such the events which had occurred there in ages glass, one could detect the signs of past; and of these H. M. Field remarks:

Moses led the Israelites; on the Gulf of Akaba and sprinkled here and there among the sailed the fleets of Solomon; while turning of the Wady Feiran were the tents of tion for the expedition—which involved no wonderful history. It is this mingling of the he is a nomad, whose only house is little care and labor. Our author says: moral sublime with the sublime in nature who camps wherever he can find a st "One must choose his dragoman, and draw which makes the great interest of the Penin-water, or a little pasturage for his cam up a formal contract, which has to be signed sula of Sinai. Beyond all the stupendous alti-when that is gone, 'folds his tent and and scaled before the consul, in which every tudes of the mountains, beyond the Alpine steals away.' How can human being item is specified—the number of camels and heights and fathomless abyses, in power to such frightful solitudes? 'Why do tents, the days of marching, and the provisions stir the soul with awe, is the human history leave this desolate region, said Dr. of every kind, even to what we should have that has been enacted amid these great forms one of our guides, and go to Sucz or for breakfast, for luncheon and dinner, and to of nature. Serbal is clothed with such assowhere you can find the companion the number of our sheets and towels. Travel-ciations as with a garment. Long before the men? 'Oh, no,' said the Arab, 'we the finite of the fast may be pardoned if they are sometimes lifted up with vanity when they see that it takes almost as much to set them Serbal was an object of patriotic and super- with all the ferror of a Swiss mountain. in motion as to get a ship under weigh. stitious veneration, the centre of a nation and exile, sighing for the cowbells of the R Though there were but two of us, it required the centre of a religion. Here were lighted Vaches. The doctor was standing a considerable outfit for a month in camp. fires to give warning to the tribes of the Penin-topmost rock of Serbal, with his spy-Everything had to be carried on the backs of sula, as fires were lighted on Monte Cavo near band, following the winding wadies camels—our tents, iron bedsteads, mattresses, Rome, as signals to the tribes of Latium. The swept round and round the base of the table, and camp-chairs—a stock of household Peninsula then was doubtless far more populations. The guide was watching his furniture sufficient to begin housekeeping; to bous than now, many tribes dwelling in yonder liments, and observing the instrument which must be added stores of canned meat valleys, within full view of this mountain in a certain direction, he followed and fruits, boxes of eggs, and even a hencoop height, so that when the beacon-fire was eager curiosity. Noticing the expre full of chickens! Even when thus provided, lighted here in the darkness of night, it shone his countenance, the doctor put the we could not have a single meal except as we in thousands of eyes which glared fiercely at his eyes, pointing it to the valley. At carried sacks of charcoal to cook our food, the sign of battle. Nor was it patriotism passed, and a smile stole over the standard than what we were to alone which fired those warriors of the desert, the cost of the Bedawee—an expression of eat, was what we were to drink, of which we Serbal, as its name imports—the palm-grove and surprise and pleasure. He had must have a large supply: for though the of Baal-was a mountain devoted to that nized the village of his people. The camels could go four days without water, we idolatrons service; it was the highest of all the little flocks of black goats dotting could not. This had to be carried in casks, the 'high-places' set apart for that cruel and side. He saw the tents of his tribe, which were slung on the backs of camels, bloody worship. Here the priests of Baal children sporting in the sand:

Altogether an Arub sheik, with his patriarchal erected their altars. On the top is still a rude 'There were his young barbarians all at Altogener in Arab siets, with inspatial representations of the remotest times. This may have stood here and wretched as it was, it was his bot caravan." Going by railway from Cairo to Suez, the been one of their altars, which smoked with he would not part from it for all the travellers there joined the camels and men human sacrifices. Who could believe, when of civilization. who had gone on before, and commenced their standing on such a spot, amid such scenes, so "But it is not only the feeling of ho desert journey. The lower part of the peninger and and yet so still and peaceful, that man the feeling of liberty, that attaches the sula between the gulfs of Suez and Akaba, could thus defile the noblest works of God; to his mountains and deserts. He lower part of the peninger and peaceful, that man the feeling of liberty, that attaches the sula between the gulfs of Suez and Akaba, could thus defile the noblest works of God; to his mountains and deserts. He lower part of the peninger and peaceful, that man the feeling of liberty, that attaches the sula between the gulfs of Suez and Akaba, could thus defile the noblest works of God; to his mountains and deserts. (the two northern arms of the Red Sea) is a how, unawed by such grandeur, he was capa-freedom of the wilderness, which is wilderness of granite mountains. There is ble of deeds that thrill us with horror—deeds him than soft raiment and kings' not one long chain like the Pyrenees or the Appennines, of a general average height and the top, I threw myself down upon a shelf of in his very blood which cannot be forms, but innumerable peaks, sharp and rock, in which there was a slight indentation, Every kind of beasts is tamed, and ha pointed, as if piercing the sky, while other a hollow such as is sometimes worn by the tamed, of mankind? man himself al summits are broad and dome-like. They are action of water, which seemed as if made on mains untamable. One might as we unlike the mountains of other countries in purpose to receive the head of a poor pilgrim of taming the wildest Comanches as the being more barren and desolate; and they This I took for a pillow, and here, stretched ween. They are an untamable race. rise abruptly from the plain, looking more at full length, gave one long, steady gaze up children of Ishmael, they have roame into the blue sky. Hard indeed was it to deserts three thousand years untouc Between these mountains, and winding realize that this very rock had borne up the civilization.' round among them in countless turnings are bloody altars of Baal, and that these tranquil the wadies-river beds, through which, in the heavens had heard the shricks of human victime of rains and storms, there pour furious tims. The very memory of such things still torrents, which as quickly pass away to the brings a shadow over the scene, like the power.

ment sailing across the beavens ab The view from the summit of Mt. Serbal Well was it that Moses invaded these

"When we first looked down from animate existence was extinguished. The seene naturally brought to the mind, was not utterly destitute of life. With habitation. In the foreground was th "That Gulf of Suez was the sea across which which we had left at daylight in the m

(To be continued,)

Kindness is an invisible force of unme

For "The Friend."

Gather the Fragments.

s hearers. About 35 years ago I heard really of Divine appointment. describe a scene, the account of which at people who jumped up to speak nity on that occasion. Nicholas may have repeating the verse: rightly commissioned to deliver his mes-; and if so, there is reason to believe that ame power which inspired it would seal action by it on the minds of some of for whom it was intended. Or he may spoken in his own will, influenced by a ous witnessing of the evil he was testifyigainst; and in this case he would be nitting the very fault he was warning s against. Even those who have long thee at all."

him to return home, which he did. e city, and calling upon Nicholas, said: the same, bamoh.

has," interrupted Nicholas, "Thee may go on with the characteristics of structures, and are thy way, James."

The lesson which it seems to me may be e late David Cope was remarkable for learned from this incident, is the danger of down (2 Kings 23: 8,) and burned (2 Kings tore of anecdotes relating to incidents rash judgment as to the concerns of others, had occurred in our Society. These he and the need of having so much faith in the ed in a very original and graphic manner, Lord's care over his servants as to be willing h rendered them exceedingly interesting to trust them in every engagement which is

It is related of Richard Jordan that having d received many years before. It was business in Philadelphia, he came to the city from his farm in his working clothes. Seeing the commencement of a Yearly Meeting, some persons going to Pine St. Meeting-house, olas Waln arose and made quite a long he felt drawn to go also. When he entered h discouraging young persons from tak-the house, Nicholas Waln came down from the time of the meeting by unneces-the gallery and met him with the salutation, and uncalled-for remarks. When he sat "I have been praying since 12 o'clock last , that eccentric man, though able minis night, for thee to come and preach a wedding ames Simpson, who sat just below him, sermon." Richard was led to speak, and so d round, and said in a voice loud enough impressively, that the company assembled licholas and those in the immediate vi were greatly affected. At the close of the to hear: "And after all thy long har- meeting he was urged to go and dine with e, thou has offered an unclean beast, the newly-married couple; and his objection, ead that neither a lion nor a dog were that he had "no wedding-garment," was overoffered in sacrifice. I have no unity ruled, and he went. Here also he found a thee." After the meeting was over, service for his Master, and the company were s told Nicholas that he had aimed his favored with a baptizing religious opportu-

out any right authority for doing so. When Elizabeth Coggeshall was in Eng-thy dart did not touch them. Now land, she was at one time eight months withare here many tender young Friends, out hearing from home, and, as she had left feel an honest concern, and perhaps are an infant behind her, she became very uneasy. e burthened. Thou hast prohibited these In meetings she was able to enter into reunburthening their minds; but the for-ligious exercise, but as soon as she came out ones, at whom thou aimed, will not of them, she would be plunged again into anxiety and distress. One day she went to is not important at this day to determine a Friend's house, and as she entered the door, h of the two good Friends was in the a little child was trotting around the room,

"Patience is a very good thing For old and for young: It makes the mind easy And bridles the tongue."

The lesson thus taught was heeded, and her mind was relieved of her anxious feelings. J. W.

The High Places of the Bible.

warriors in the Lord's army, need to frequently in the Old Testament, and is the order to satisfy his foreign wives, Solomon and watch for the word of command usual translation of the Hebrew word bamoh built a high place for "Ashtoreth, the abomitheir Leader, or they may mar the work [plural, bamoth.) It was originally a designal nation of the Zidonians; for Chemosh, the would fain promote.

tion of any eminence, and is in one case used abomination of the Moabites; and for Mileom, one time James Simpson received a of the "heights of the clouds" (1sa. 14: 14.) the abomination of the children of Ammon" te for religious service, and left home to and in nother of the "waves of the sea," or (1 Kings 11: 7, &c.) Gibcon and Bethel were rm the duty required of him. Coming to as it is given in the margin, in the latter pas amongst the principal of these sanctuaries, delphia, he met with his friend Nicholas sage, heights of the sea (Job 9: 8,) but it is and it was accounted one of Solomon's great , and told him of the prospect before specially employed to designate high ground, sins that he burned sacrifices on high places Nicholas discouraged James and ad-hills, or mountains. Saul was slain upon the (1 Kings 3: 3.) In spite of the construction me time clapsed, and James again came In these three passages, the Hebrew word is duced from foreign nations, and the worship bre was once a king who gave one of his In time the term came to be applied in a under Rehoboam. Under some of his suctors a message, and ordered him to detechnical and limited sense to eminences on cessors, some of these shrines were removed, it at a certain place. The servant left, which worship and sacrifices were offered those that were allowed to remain presumably to do so; but on his way he met with either to false gods (Num. 22: 41) or to Jeho-being the ones on which sacrifices were offered were servant who told him he was mis-vah. There was still another step in the pro-to Jehovah. At a later period, they greatly and so be turned back. The king gress of the meaning of the word. It became increased in "every city" (2 Kings 17:9, 11, wards met him and asked him if he had the designation of a sanctuary, or any place &c.) It is difficult to determine how far this ered his message. He said, no, be had where sacrifice was offered. The idea of ele-The king wanted to know why he had vation was still retained, but attached to the offered to Jehovah; but it is evident that the The servant replied, that he had met altar rather than to the ground. Altars in writers of the Kings and Chronicles regarded one of his fellow-servants who told him the valley, as those in the valley of Hinnom, it as illegitimate, and we constantly read the as mistaken and so he had turned back were called high places (Jer. 7: 31, &c.,) as depreciating criticism, "But the high places (Jer. 7: 31, &c.,) as depreciating criticism, "But the high places (Jer. 7: 31, &c.,) as depreciating criticism." king then told him to go and deliver also altars in cities (2 Kings 17: 9.) That were not taken away." (2 Kings 12: 3, &c. nessage. But what, said he, if I should the term thus became a current expression With Hezekiah begins the third period in said to have been built, removed (2 Kings 18: 4,) thrown down (2 Chron, 31: 1,) broken 23: 15.) From the isolated notice in Ezckiel 16: 16, it is to be inferred that in some cases these shrines, or "houses," as they were sometimes called, were richly furnished.

The Trojans sacrificed on Mount Ida. The Greeks placed the habitation of their divinities on Mount Olympus, and the Persians on Albordsch. This custom of worshiping on high places prevailed to a large extent among the neighbors of Israel, the Moabites (Isa. 16: 12, &c.) and the Canaanites (Deut. 12: 2, &c.) It was to the high places of Baal of the Moabites that Balak conducted Balaam, and Baal-Peor was one of the mountains sacred to him (Num. 23: 28.

In studying the history of worship on high places among the Hebrews, there are clearly three periods. The first period extends from Abraham to Solomon, and is marked by a very infrequent mention of high places. patriarchs built altars wherever they pitched their tents (Gen. 26: 25, &c.,) but they also had resort to eminences. The Israelites found the Moabites practising their idolatrous worship on high places, and were commanded to "pluck them down" (Num. 33: 52.) In the times of the Judges, high places are not once mentioned, although in that period of anarchy and transition the offering up of sacrifices was not confined to the tabernacle (Judges 2: 5, &c.) In the time of Samuel, one high place is made prominent as a place of sacrifice (1 Sam. 9: 12;) and it is to be noticed that the prophets, as it would seem, had their dwelling-place there.

During this period of Jewish history before the construction of the temple, the notices of high places are remarkably few when we take into consideration the use of them by the surrounding nations.

The second period in the history of high places in the Old Testament dates from Solomon to Hezekiah. Here we are confronted with a sudden and unusual development of The expression "high places" occurs very this particular form of local worship. In high places; that is, the hills (2 Sam. 1: 19.) of the temple, the idolatrous worship introof Jehovah on high places, went on increasing with my fellow-servant again. I will for a shrine is further apparent from the fact the history of the high places. This king, in to him, said the king." "He has, He that the high places are distinctly described his endeavor to centralize the sacrifices of wound.'

shrines on high places (2 Kings 15: 4, &c.) of those lovely and kind-hearted beings. The He was only partially successful. His suc-mother of one of them inquired, for she had cessor, Manasseh, overthrew his policy; but not heard of the existence of such a society, Josiah, under the pious impulse which the "What is the reason that C. never joins when discovery of the Book of the Law had inspired, any one is blamed, but tries so constantly to completed the work of his great predecessor (2 Kings 23: 8.) After the exile, they were nothing?" A sweet comment upon their in-not revived; and the need of local places of stitution. It so happened that it was organworship, in addition to the temple, was sup-plied by the synagogues.—D. S. Schaff in S. effects on all its members were as happy as out exaggeration. So little do human beings testify too much complacency in the condemunderstand the motives of others, that actions nation even of those who deserve it. You angel exalts, as he writes in the pure record tions, or be positive that you would have of Heaven. Yet if we are sure that those offered a firmer resistance. Be tender of the whom we hear censured are quite as guilty reputation of your companions. Do not supas they are represented, is not the call on us rather for pity than for punishment?

Evil-Speaking and Harsh Judgment.

quences. "Consider," says the excellent Caroline Fry, "the dangers, the sorrows, that lie in the path of all, to their eternal home-the infirmity." secret pangs, the untold agonies, the hidden Saurin, "is a vice which strikes a double blow.

for you, my dear young friends, many sources gourney. of protection. Education has provided you with a shield against this danger. The wide circle of the sciences, the whole range of litera"For now is your salvation nearer than when ye ture, the boundless world of books, open for you sources of conversation as innumerable as they are sublime. Subjects to which your mothers were strangers, are as familiar to "your lips as household words." You have no need to dissect character. You have no excuse for confining your attention to the frailties of your associates. * * * What a paucity of judgment, what a perversion of intellect does it discover, to cast away the treasures of education, and place yourself on a level with the neediest mind. It is like parting with your birthright, and not receiving even the poor payment of a " mess of pottage." If there has ever been just cause for this serious charge of a love of calumny upon our whole sex, it behooves the young females of the present generation to arise and wipe it away. In those places where danger has been discovered to exist, apply the remedy. Avoid, as far as possible, all personal conversation. But when character is necessarily the subject of discussion, show yourselves the gentle excusers of error, and the advocates of all who need defence. It was once my happiness to associate with some young people who were in love with goodness and in fear lest the habit of evil-speaking might unawares gain victory over them. They said: "We will form ourselves into a society against detraction. If we asperse any person, or if we neglect to defend the absent when they are defamed, we will pay a fine, to be appropriated to the relief of the poor." Truly, the purse

Israel at one altar, declared war upon the for the poor flourished, and so did the virtues on this individual, they will have cause to remember it with gratitude to the longest day of their lives. It is not proposed that you It is very difficult for us to ascertain whether should surrender a correct judgment, or at-the faults of others are presented to us with tempt to applaud the vicious. Yet do not may be blamed by men, which the recording cannot compute the strength of their temptapose that by detracting from their merits you establish your own. Join cheerfully in their Surely no class of our fellow-creatures are praises, even should they be called forth by more in need of pity, than those who have qualities or accomplishments in which you fallen into error, and are suffering its conse- are deficient. Speak with severity of none. The office of censor is hardly safe for those who are themselves "compassed about with "Slander," says the excellent wrongs. Thus the heart will grow soft with wounding both him who commits, and him pity towards our kind. How can I toll what against whom it is committed." Those who that consured person suffers? That fault will possess the deepest knowledge of human nacost dear enough, without my aid. So you ture, are the least violent in blaming its will fear, by a harsh word, to add to that frailties. Be assured that you testify your which is too much already, as you would discrimination more by discovering the good shrink from putting your finger into a fresh than the evil among your fellow-creatures, so imperfect are even the best, so much alloy From the dangers of evil-speaking there is mingles with carth's finest gold.—L. H. Si-

DRAWING NEARER.

Nearer? Yet we felt it not Mid the rushing of the strife As we mourned our changeful lot, Toiled beneath our shadowed life,-By each step our worn feet trod, We were drawing near to God.

When the day was all withdrawn, And we walked in tenfold night; When we panted for the dawn Of the ever-blessed Light; In these hours of darkness dim, We were drawing near to Him

When beneath the sudden stroke All our joys in life went down; When our best-beloved broke Earthly bounds to take their crown; By the upward path they trod, Nearer drew we to our God.

In those days of bitter woe, When we saw their smile no more; When our hearts were bleeding slow, Stricken-stricken-oh, how sore! While we lay beneath the rod, We were nearer to our God.

When upon our lifted eye Gleamed a vision of our home; When we saw the glory high, Flooding all that spotless dome, In that bour of raptured sight, Pressed we nearer our delight.

Through the long and vanished years Doubting, struggling, and depressed, Shrouded with the mists of tears, We were passing to our rest, Tempest-tossed and current-driven, Ever drawing nearer Heaven.

THREE PAIRS AND ONE. Ears thou hast two and mouth but one:

The intent dost seek Thou art to listen much, it means, And little speak, Eyes thou hast two and mouth but one: Is the mystery deep? Much thou shalt see, it means, or much Thy silence keep.

Hands thou hast two and mouth but one "Why?" dost repeat? The two are there to labor with, The one to eat.

-From the Gen

DISCIPLINE.

A block of marble caught the glance Of Buonarotti's eye Which brightened in their solemn deeps

Like meteor-lighted skies. And one who stood beside him listened,

Smiling as he heard, For "I will make an angel of it,"
Was the sculptor's word.

And soon his mallet and chisel sharp The stubborn block assailed, And blow by blow, and pang by pang, The prisoner unveiled.

A brow was lifted high and pure, The wak'ning eyes outshone, And as the master sharply wrought, A smile broke through the stone,

Beneath the chisel's edge the bair Escaped in floating rings; And plume by plume was slowly freed The sweep of half-furled wings.

The stately bust and graceful limbs Their marble-fetters shed And where the shapeless block had been An angel stood instead. O blows that smite? O hurts that pierce This shrinking heart of mine!

What are ye but the Master's tools Forming a work divine? O hope that crumbles to my feet, O joy that mocks and flies,

What are ye but the clogs that bind My spirit from the skies? Sculptor of souls! I lift to thee

Encumbered hearts and hands; Spare not the chisel, set me free, However dear the bands. How blest, if all these seeming ills

Which draw my thoughts to thee, Should only prove that thou wilt make An angel out of me! -Catholic V

For " The F

George Fox in Prayer.

The following testimony of William concerning George Fox in prayer, esp "the fewness and fulness of his words," thus engaged in prostrate vocal offering a heart-seeing God "with reverence and is commended to the close attention who may feel that access is granted the plead as at his holy footstool:

"But above all he excelled in prayer inwardness and weight of his spirit, the ence and solemnity of his address a havior, and the fewness and fulness words, have often struck even stranger admiration, as they used to reach other consolation. The most awful, living, r frame I ever felt or beheld, I must say, in prayer. And truly it was a testime knew, and lived nearer to the Lord than men; for they who know Him most w most reason to approach Him with rev and fear."

Incidents and Reflections. D MAN'S STEPS ARE ALL ORDERED OF THE

ere are many evidences that the Aly does condescend to influence the of his children so as to guide them even therein I understood He was leading the needed deliverance. I came to my store lards, related the following incident as an only in sanctification and justification than you came in and volunterced to lend me yown salvation, but also in a public the exact sum I needed. Why, to my mind, and periwinkles and whatever was in season, ry of that holy and powerful Word of this is an absolute demonstration that God and periwinkles and whatever was in season, which the Lord of his own free will not only hears, but answers, prayer. To his trace had called me; and to that end, I mame be all the glory." was working in me qualifications suits own purpose thereby : And therefore was related :cret concern was how to get rid of that e business of that kind any more." mas Story's subsequent experience jusear to have supplied his needs.

re are many testimonies to the watch-went in and met him in his front store, and lously so, where no way appeared. Surely he outward business in which they shall have something to say to you? We went in proceed on the visit. e. Thomas Story relates that he was there, and my friend continued: Yesterday.

The Christian must be prepared to sacrifice ted for the practice of law, but after he in looking over my bills payable, I found I all his worldly prospects for the sake of peace een divinely visited, and taken up a had a note coming due to-day for one hundred of mind and the favor of his Creator; and be resolution to seek first the kingdom of and fifty dollars. I went home and told my willing to give up even life itself if the sacrion and the righteousness thereof, he wife that I could not raise that sum, and be fice is called for; knowing assuredly that the "I clearly perceived the practice of tween us we raised one hundred and ten dol-ljoys of Heaven will abundantly compensate w, and to be frequently in the suits and lars, but where to get another dollar we did for all the trials he unay meet with here. Yet us of the world, would be inconsistent not know. So we both knelt down and the Lord is often pleased to open the way belivine peace iu my own mind, expose carnestly prayed that God would in his own fore his faithful children even in worldly matmany temptations, and confine me so way send help to avert the impending calam-ters, to their comfort and rejoicing. At a t I could not follow the Lord in that ity; and we prayed again this morning for meeting in England, a physician named Ber-would very much oppose my father's own case. Said he: 'I had certain bills to I thought it over, and said to him, 'Put up meet, and tried every resource I had, but this card: "I have got religion, and I give uty to the Almighty, and the will and could not get the money. As the time ap- honest measure; but I charge more for it." e views of my natural parent becoming proached, and my ability to meet my obligated. So he did. For a few days, it went very te, I remained not long in suspense tions seemed out of the question, I went to hard; but presently the women found out to do; for, as through grace I had been God with my troubles, and ponred out my soul that it was better to buy of him and get ed to take up the cross of Christin con- in earnest prayer to Him to send me help. honest measure; and now he has a eart and ; his holy name, in the dispensation of The morning of the day when my obligation a little shop of his own, and is doing very his people at that time; so, by the became due arrived, but the help had not well. grace, I was likewise enabled, to under-come, I went to my store, and soon after a displeasure of my father, to close my gentleman came in whom I had known for work on the First-day of the week, was told rom all worldly views, and to stop my some years, but not intimately. He greeted by his employer on a Seventh-day evening, rom all worldly views, and to stop my some years, but not intimately. He greeted by use employer on a sevential evening, rover, from hearkening to any prefer me kindly, and then asked after my business, when he received his week's wages, that he there; and being furnished with a full and if I had plenty of funds, &c. I frankly must be on hand the next morning to push tion in my mind to decline the practice told him the truth, and that I was quite short; forward some machinery that was to be sent law, though the only thing designed as of funds for that day. He asked me how to South America by a given time. He rense of life, accordingly the next persons much I needed, and I told him. Without an plied that he could not conscientiously work ame to employ me in business of that other word he drew a blank check from his on that day. What followed is narrated in I refused in my father's presence; and pocket and filled it out for the sum I had his own language, as published in the Christem in his hearing, that I should not unded, and handed it to me, saying I could tian Advocate of New York:—

ais trust in his Heavenly Father; for in belonging to Wilmington Monthly Meeting, work must be done, and if you cannot do it ervals between the journeys which he Delaware, was appointed on a committee set I do not need your services any longer." med in spreading the gospel tidings of apart to pay a religious visit to its families. on, he found such openings for business In reference to this he has left the following before? and have not I done your work well?"

memorandum:

"I believe it right to mention a circume of our Heavenly Father, and many stance that occurred some days before we set that his ear is open to the cries and out on this family visit, and which brought season of the year, and my wife and children s of his people who look to Him in the me into deep concern, so that I thought I were sick; the shops were everywhere dis-distress even as to outward things, could not go. Being called upon for a sum of charging their men. But I went out, and for cient declaration, "This poor man cried money very unexpectedly, I knew not where eleven days diligently sought for work. On e Lord heard him, and saved him out of troubles," is applicable to many in the to obtain it, (although I made many efforts.) the evening of the last day, while crossing the troubles," is applicable to many in the to day. Not long since, at a meeting in fork, a man arose and said:—

"The last day, while crossing the touch of the last day, while crossing the last day while crossing the last day, while crossing the last day while cross sterday forenoon a man came to my concern and anxiety about it, a stranger who to me, and that my water should be sure." I and paid me forty dollars in bills, which was not a member, spoke to me at the close went home and told my wife. The next and put in my pocket instead of in the of our meeting on this wise; 'I want you to morning came. After working-hours began When I was making up my account come to my house in the morning about ten who should enter my home but my old emost in the bank in the afternoon, I put o'clock. I accordingly went, when he said ployer, asking if I had any work yet. I and into my pocket to take those bils to to me, I have a sum of money which I have swered, "No. But I do not suppose you want the other deposits, but something a mind you should have on loan, and that with- me?" "Well," said he, "I think you were ted to my mind to leave those bills in out interest.' I was filled with admiration very stiff in your opinions, but I want you to eket, and I did so, without thinking of and gratitude, and could but look upon this take up that job where you left it."

the store of a friend, and an impulse seized his continued care and kindness toward me me on the instant to go in and see him. I are great. He easts up a way, even marvelwithout any knowledge on my part that he there is no occasion to distrust his all-sufwanted money, I said to him, 'George, would ficiency; for He will not leave nor forsake you like to borrow forty dollars this morning? those that put their trust in Him. My mind Said he, 'Come into the counting room, I being thus relieved, I felt perfect liberty to

On another occasion the following incident had a false bottom, so as not to hold more than half a measure. He said: 'I don't know "A friend in business in this city told me a what to do. I can't use these; and I can't and dangerous obstruction; well know- few days ago of an answer to prayer in his make a living by giving honest measure.

repay it when I became easy again."

In the latter part of last century a Friend "You may stick to your principles, but my "But, Mr. ---, have I ever disobliged you "That is nothing here nor there," he replied,

"you need not come back again."

This blow came upon me in the dullest od reason why I should do so. This as a providential act of favor to me. Surely you know I cannot work on Sandays. I will g, on my way to my store, I came past I have cause reverently to bow before God; work until mid-night on Saturdays, but then

I must stop." "Well," he replied, "say nothcovered that he had placed a man in my po- for all those of the class alluded to. sition who had damaged the work, and set it back two full weeks. He was a drunkard young people who, having tasted for themand wholly unreliable. Five years have selves the preciousness of the truth, seem willpassed since then, but I have not been ealled ing to trust it, and to hold on to it amid all upon to work on Sundays, and have had con- our shakings, not stumbling at the stumbling stant employment.

For "The Friend,"

Fear Not.

"The Lord our God is a Sun and Shield." Therefore "no weapon formed against us can prosper." The men of this world may "frame mischief against us by law; and Satan and all his hosts may exult:" "yet is God with usand the weakest saint with God is mightier than they all.'

opened the door of his heart to the Master's knock, and admitted Him as his friend and abiding companion. Love with its heavenly fervor will cheer him—while a God-given faith, as a flaming torch, will enlighten his pathway. The angels themselves will become thee from thy sinful lusts? thy worldly af-his companions—"all heaven is truly with fections, and vain conversations? If not, him"-because God himself is with him.

fond of saying, "I was going to." going to fill up the hole with glass, and to set from .- Wm. Penn. traps for the rats; but he did not do it in time, and the chickens were eaten. He consoles himself for the loss and exenses his careless-company of the worthy and the good: it is a ness by saying, "I was going to attend to sign that the dispositions and inclinations of that." A horse falls through a broken plank the inward man are rightly modelled and in the stable and breaks his leg, and is killed turned! Such intimacies add strength to to put him out of his suffering. The owner strength, they are safe, they are salutary, they was going to fix that weak plank, and so ex- are honorable; but a confederacy with the raw cuses himself. A boy wets his feet and sits the irreligious, those who are in the spirit of for hours without changing his shoes, eatenes the world, and enemies to the cross of Christ, a severe cold, and is obliged to have the doc manifests unsoundness in the spiritual constitor for a week. His mother told him to tution, by the vitiated taste of desiring and thange his wet shoes when he came in, and he was going to do it, but did not. A girl wholesome! Tis dangerous, and destructive tears her new dress so badly that all her to the tender precious life.—Richard Shacklemending can not make it look well again. ton. There was a little rent before, and she was to mend it, but she forgot. And so we might go on giving instance after instance, such as happens in every home with almost every man and woman, boy and girl. "Procrastination is" not only "the thief of time," but it is the worker of vast mischiefs. If "I-was-goingto" lives in your house, just give him warning to leave. He is a lonnger and a nuisance. He never did any good. He has wrought nn-numbered mischiefs. The girl or boy who begins to live with him will have a very unhappy time of it, and life will not be successful. Put "I-was-going-to" out of your house, and keep him out. Always do things which you are going to do .- Youth's World.

Wm. Penn.

Extracts from a letter of our late dear friend, and into careful consideration, with a ing about that." I went to work, and dis James Emlen:—may it be a word in season such prudent and timely action as to

> "It is very cheering to find some among the blocks that are in the way, nor disposed to the subject up to the Synod. risk the loss of what they have and have known, for any new, untried and uncertain report of one of these Missionaries for path. How often do we feel sensible that the truth changeth not, but is still the same that 'was and is and is to come.'-may nothing be permitted to shake our steadfastness.

3rd mo, 2nd, 1859."

Can Christ be thy Lord and thou not obey Oh! how secure is that one who hath Him? Canst thou be his servant, and never serve Him? Be not deceived, such as thou sowest, shalt thon reap. He is none of thy Saviour whilst thou rejectest his grace in thy heart, by which He should save thee. Come, what has He saved thee from? Has He saved then He is none of thy Saviour. For though He be offered a Saviour to all, yet He is actually a Saviour to those only, that are saved "I Was Going To."-Children are very by Him; and none are saved by Him, that The boy live in those evils, by which they are lost lets the rats catch his chickens. He was from God, and which He came to save them

I rejoice to see my children delight in the

For " The Friend," Religious Items, &c.

Presbyterian Confession of Faith.—This ancient document, it is now proposed by some of the Presbyterians to revise. If this is done. it is probable the strong expression of Calvin-blood, and you shall have it, but do n istic doctrine will be somewhat softened. It me to deny my Saviour, in offering to is said that the majority of the younger men tures the worship that belongs only to now being introduced into the Presbyterian ministry do not fully hold the views designed to be set forth in it. At a late meeting of the London Presbytery, Oswald Dykes stated Him who could deliver him from this that he did not believe it. The Presbytery Toward evening he felt impelled to ret adopted the following overture:

Faith, while held in high and deserved honor her hand to him saying: That common apprehension,-that they in this Church as setting forth the system of may be children of God while in a state of dis-doctrine which this Church with unabated and you will respect mine, and stay wi obedience to his holy commandments; and firmness teaches and maintains, is found to be and close my eyes." - Chr. Adv. disciples of Jesus, though they revolt from his no longer so well suited in form and exprescross; and members of his true Church, which sion as it was in former times to the actual a suburb of Chicago, of ten thousand i is without spot or wrinkle, notwithstanding conditions and wants of the Church, it is tants, built and owned by the Pullman C their lives are full of spots and wrinkles; is, hereby humbly overtured by the Presbytery har no saloons. An anti-prohibition prof all other deceptions upon themselves, the of London to the Synod indicted to meet on Chiengo thus describes this abode of wo most pernicious to their eternal condition.—the 30th of the present month, to take the relation of the Church to this subordinate Stand-clean; their furniture and carpets ne dom may seem meet.'

Dr. Chambers, Principal of the Colle Monro Gibson, and other members Presbytery supported this overture, was finally carried, though twenty-one bers voted against sending any overt

Waldensian Missionary in Italy -Fr mo. last, the following incident is take

"Giovanni Besso embraced the Gosp years ago. His friends did all in their to induce him to give up his new religio victions, and at last drove him from his Giovanni went to Cantoncello, in the Brosso, and supported himself by his He married, and led his wife and her re to abandon their Romish superstition his influence is so much felt in the nei hood that when the evangelist from Tr. visits the locality he is sure to find a ous and attentive audience. At the ning of the year Besso heard that his r was seriously ill; he immediately set visit her, not without anxiety as to the tion he might meet with. To his gresolation, his mother welcomed him with tion, without referring to the past. On ing, when they were together, she to hand and said:

'You love your mother, do you not?

'More than I can tell.

'I am dying; promise me that you what I ask; and before you answer me of it as the last request of your dying m Mother, I will do all that is in my for you; what is it?

'No, I do not want a conditional pr assure me that you will do what I ask 'I can only repeat that I will do all power.

'Very well; to-morrow morning I w you what I expect from you.

The next morning the mother renew conversation in these terms:

'The priest is coming in an bour t me the communion; I ask you, as a last to recite the prayers with me

Poor Besso was cut to the heart.

'O, my mother you know that I can

'Then go away, and do not appea again,' and she turned her face to the 'Mother, mother!' exclaimed the son anguish, 'ask for all that I have; ask!

'Go; you are no longer my son. Full of grief, Besso left the hous wandered about, finding comfort only the house; and venturing with much "Whereas, The Westminster Confession of tion to enter the room, his mother be

'Be my son; I will respect your convi-

A Temperance Town .- The town of Pu and physical standpoints; there is about Scientific American.

y no drunkenness; their children are Foot Disease of Indu

o Rome the bones and ashes of saints can save the sufferer's life. artyrs purporting to have been taken ticate their gennineness.

For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

cely ahead, I observed a family of loons defined conical summits were selected.

arprise, paterfamilias rose to the sur- ment. his former position, and there awaited the impulse of the moment, I sent a few

he had disappeared, and in a moment s up again uninjured. Instead of reat this signal, as might have been ex-, he rather assumed the offensive, and red to challenge assault by coming nearer casionally giving an ironical laugh.

continued about our boat, sometimes oar's reach, for several minutes, diving known, if his ruse worked, it would be politan area.

ceme personal risks.

d, and probably also at her direction. "eannot lay a whole city in ruins—not even furnished in the way of a fixed salary or a somewhat singular, we did not get a a street. They may injure special buildings, stipulated sum, as in any other way." se of them after they first disappeared, but that is the most they can do."

In the former history of our Society there hey were well over to the opposite side. well out of harm's way there was a lates the following anecdote: n, and loud and long was the laughter whole family.

1: the air they breathe is pure, from itself, is always admirable.—F. H. Hendrick, in sight. It started again (for it had stopped

d, well elothed and healthy; the men India is now well known to be due to attacks lows, who were following it up like a pack of eir wives are well dressed and seem- of a fungus much like the common bread hounds; now one and now another skimming contented. They have no police, jail mould. The spores of this fungus, which is past the hare's ears along the ground, while lewell, and no saloon-keeper to cheat very common in India, find a resting place on the poor timid creature was putting its best Idren of their food, clothing and educa- the skin of the human foot. They there leg foremost; but all to no purpose, for its re-Can this be said of the homes of the grow deep into the flesh until this and the lentless tormenters seemed to take pleasure bones become a diseased mass, full of canals and round cavities. Even the bone is filled it." ts' Relics.—The Pope has ordered all in with round holes where the fungus flourishes ity in the Roman Catholic Church to until nothing but amputation above the ankle related by Philip Skelton, as having come

An Artificial Aurora Borealis.—Laboratory ncient tombs, especially such as have experiments have frequently been resorted to some degree of esteem for swallows, ever since eccived since 1874. The records, bills to produce the aurora in miniature, and the I saw a remarkable instance of their sense and and other particulars are to be sent to resemblance to the original has been ex-humor played off upon a cat which had, upon tremely close, but an artificial aurora on a a very fine day, rested itself upon the top of large scale and with no electrical machinery a gate-post, as if in contemplation; when ten has lately been effected by Prof. Lemstroem. or a dozen swallows, knowing her to be an Natural History, Science, &c. He selected a station just within the Arctic lenemy, took it into their heads to tantalize Loon, or Great Northern Diver.—While circle, in North Finland, where there were her. One of these birds coming from behind to George last summer, I observed an two mountains close together and having her, flew close by her ear, and she made a altitudes of 2,600 and 3,600 feet. In accord-snap at it with her paw, but it was too late. urning one evening to our camp, we aree with the well known fact that electricity Another swallow, in five or six seconds, did ly reached an open space, where im gathers upon points, two bills having clearly the same, and she made the same unsuccess-

red to be discussing the situation, but establish an equilibrium, and assumed that another at the distance of about three yards, esolve was quickly made and speedily electricity was passing from one hill top to formed a regular circle in the air, and played ed. My companion had followed a the other. Reasoning that if by any means it off like a wheel at her ears for near an hour, tion to measure our paddles with theirs, this interchange could be hastened the effect not seemingly at all alarmed at me, who stood gh we knew that to pursue them in a would become visible, the summits were con- within six or seven yards of the post. I cnas hopeless, and expected they would nected with their bases by a network of cop-lipyed this sport as well as the pretty birds, d make off in the usual manner. Their per to serve as a conductor. Immediately an till the cat, tired out with disappointment, were, however, somewhat different on arch of the aurora appeared, estimated to be quitted the gate post. casion, as they had their young to look at least 360 feet above the top. An examination of the currents produced in the wires on we were well on their track all dis-showed them to be positive. The spectroscope red simultaneously, and shortly after clearly revealed the well known lines of the other loon came up with her young in aurora. Although the display was only of iddle of the lake, and began sculling short duration, there could be no doubt of its y to the opposite shore; but wholly to genuineness or of the success of the experi-

Dynamite Explosions.—A very reassuring letter on the subject of nitro-glycerine and as a minister at a stated salary;" and makes dynamite appears in the London Times from the following statement: "We never, so far fter him when about a dozen rods off, the manager of Nöbel's Explosives Company, as we know, have received a single dollar as rtunately they only ruffled the water The writer points out that the popular belief a compensation for preaching the gospel. We as to the destructive qualities of these explo-sives is a great delusion. The effect of explo-of money, at different times, which we should sions of nitro-glycerine is intensely local— not have received if we had not been a min-"the power exerted on surrounding objects ister. We are, at this time, receiving, not by is in the inverse ratio of the cube of the dis- a fixed contract, but by mutual understandtance from the point of the explosion." Hence, ing, from Friends in Cleveland, a little—and if a ton of nitro-glycerine were fired in the but little more than our necessary expenses middle of the Strand, it would wreck the and this, not as pay for preaching-but to odically and immediately returning to houses immediately opposite, but its effect keep soul rface. Whenever he balked us success-would be strictly confined to a very small area. preaching: houses immediately opposite, but its effect keep soul and body together while we are ne celebrated the event by uttering a At a distance of 60 yards bystanders would ar sort of howl.

not be injured, except by falling glass, and the subject, in connection with some further was evidently sacrificing himself for the the explosion, instead of destroying all Lon-remarks: "When an individual who is called of his young and mate, as he must don, would hardly be heard over the metro- of the Lord to the ministry, feels it right to possibility of blowing up any of our great not the least objection to his receiving from eities is entirely baseless. Dynamitards, even those among whom he labors, a sufficient two young presented an interesting cities is entirely baseless. Dynamitards, even those among whom he labors, a summent swimming side by side in front of the with tons of nitro-glycerine at their disposal, support; and this may be just as properly by the wayside, and was looking about to see in a neighborhood towards which their minds s strong instinct, which prompts a bird what had started it, but could not imagine were drawn. But in such instances they serve its offspring at all hazards to what it could be, as neither man nor dog was were expected to enter into business for their and sat in a listening attitude), and then I Foot Disease of India.—The foot disease of saw that the disturbers were a flight of swal-

> "I will close my epistle with an anecdote under his own observation.

"I have entertained a great affection and ful attempt to catch it; this was followed by ting themselves in the water; they had He believed that anrora was the result of a third, and so on to the number just mently sighted us first, and for a short time an endeavor on the part of certain forces to tioned. The whole number, following one

THE FRIEND.

FIFTH MONTH 26, 1883.

In The Gospel Expositor for "May 11th," the Editor, Dougan Clark, refers to a report which had been circulated, "that he was bired

He adds, as an expression of his views on The scare, therefore, as to the abide for a length of time at one place, we see

Swallows .- A writer in Science Gossip re- are many eases recorded in which ministers among us felt it a duty to move their place of "I saw a hare running across a large park abode and reside for a longer or shorter time spend the intervening time in preparing themselves for meetings, by studying out sermons which were to be delivered on those occasions; but went to the place of worship willing to speak or be silent, as the Lord might direct.

The "mutual understanding" between Dougan Clark and the "Friends in Cleveland," by which his necessary expenses are to be paid, "while we are preaching," seems to us to involve in both parties a rejection or want of appreciation of the principles of Friends as . to worship and ministry. It implies, that the members of the meeting feel they must have regular vocal services, and are unwilling have regular vocal services, and are unwilling path. It is the first storm of the kind in the history of curb the excited feelings of the people, at to undergo the spiritual exercise of restrain-Racine. Despatches from various portions of Illinois justice and moderation. The clergy are no ing the wandering thoughts and drawing visited by the tornado of Sixth-day night, estimate the to depart from these rules and join and prot near to the Lord in a silent travail of soul; and it also implies, that the preacher will so to 63. and the association in the structure of the people, and speak when they are asthe Rio Sisquo. Also a magnificent waterful, where dissension are condemned. The clergy must of the people, and speak when they are asthe Rio Sisquo. Also a magnificent waterful, where dissension are aroused or distinguished perso sembled

Protestant denominations; and the payment of the preacher is almost a necessary consequence. Our objection is primarily to the of three men whose terms are about to expire departure from the views of Friends, as to the spiritual nature of true worship, which is involved in this arrangement. Nor do we see any difference, except in matters of detail, between this "mutual understanding," and that "hireling ministry" against which our and 10 of bronchitis. Society has testified for many generations.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES. - The President has appointed UNITED STATES.—The President has appointed price or demand. Sales or minorings are reported at Water Evans, of Louisville, to be Commissioner of II hatral Revenue. He is a lawyer by profession, and well-known in the politics of Kentucky. In 1879 he was the Republican candidate for Governor of that such that the properties of the prope was the Republican candidate for Governor of that State, and in 1880 was a delegate to the Chicago Convention.

By order of Sceretary Teller, twenty-seven Ute Inside a dian children from the Southern Ute Reservation, in $61, Pennsylvania family at $51, western do, at $5,250 a | Carc. Colorado, have been sent to the Indian School at Albhoquerque, New Mexico. This is looked upon as an important step towards Indian civilization, as hereto-force the Ute Indians have protested against sending the Carlon Company of the Carlon Ca their children to school.

The steamer Silesia arrived at New York last week at 47 a 54 cts from Naples, with 1118 Italian passengers.

On the 15th instant, a dead-lock was caused in the

The Prohibition Amendment to the State Constitution was defeated in the Senate at Harrisburg on the 18th, for want of a constitutional majority.

The first week of free canals in New York—5th mo. for elipped 7th to 14th—shows a clearance of 216,109 tons, against to quality. 147,104 tons for the corresponding week of last year.

The Tennessee Legislature recently created a railway commission. The act by which the office was instituted own support, as their circumstances might of the 14th inst., doing much damage to property. At criminal charge against McCaffrey of navigure; and not to regard their position as ministers as exempting them from their proper share of the ordinary duties and struggles of life. The ministry which they had received a Divine gift from the Head of the Church, as Holling and much glass was smashed. Some of the stones will be made to construct a cand parallel measured 9 inches in circumference and weighed 04 existing one, at a cost of 123,000,000 from concess. A terrific thunder storm visited Jamaies, Long 1890 publishes a letter from Count de Less and the storm of the stone of the stone was a storm of the stone of the Island, and its vicinity, the same night. A house was almost entirely demolished by lightning, which split it in two and tore the roof to pieces, some of which were afterwards found at a distance of five hundred vards, The owner and her daughter were in bed, but escaped with a severe shock, from which they were recovering at last accounts. Heavy hall storms prevalled the next was totally destroyed by fire to-day. Eve day in Prince Edward county, Virginia, and also at Nottoway Court House and other points along the Norifolk and Western Railroad in that State. Vegetation was damaged and telegrand pales was changed and telegrand pales was considered homeless. was damaged and telegraph poles were levelled.

A special despatch from Ferrell, Texas, says a terrific hail storm occurred there on the 14th. "Some of the stones penetrated roofs. One of the stones was brought to town two hours after the storm, and it weighed half

The tornado in Racine, Wisconsin, at one o'clock on the morning of the 19th, is now known to have destroyed 150 houses and caused a loss of about 16 lives. Brick as well as frame buildings were levelled in its number of persons killed in fourteen counties at 61 ments inconsistent with them. Collections to mbled.

This is the position taken by most other seven hundred feet in height.

Many prominent citizens of Auburn, N. Y., have the people are thereby intimidated. The signed a petition in favor of the nomination of three Parnell fund is disapproved, and no clergy women to the office of Commissioner of Schools in place recommend subscriptions thereto or promote of three men whose terms are about to expire.

The emperor and empress of Russia have

The deaths in this city last week numbered 344, which was 10 less than during the previous week, and which was 10 less than during the previous week, and at Aloscow to attend the coronation. The will less than during the corresponding period last year, fine. The city presents a Brilliant and 10f the above 190 were males, and 154 females: 43 cleen. Many delegates have arrived from edied of consumption; 35 of pneumonia; 18 of convul. Asia. The windows from which a view may sions; 13 of dipitheria; 12 of marasmus; 10 of old age, the principal ceremony on the day of the a 132 Cotton.—There was no material change to notice in orice or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at are dull but steady. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car lots.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 5th mo.

fraction higher: 2000 head arrived and sold at the dif-ferent yards at 5\(\frac{3}{2}\) at 7\(\frac{3}{2}\) cts. per lb., as to condition. Sheep were in demand at an advance: 10,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4 a 6\(\frac{3}{2}\) cts. for clipped, and spring lambs at 61 a 11 cts. per lb., as

Hogs were dull and rather lower: 5000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 10 a 10% cts. per lb., as to condition commission. The act by which the office was instituted as to condition.

Foreign.—The trial of Fitzharris, the cab-driver, as a provides that all of the railways in that State shall furnish free transportation to the commissioners. As a personal courtesty the several railroads have given an nual passes to the three commissioners, but the officers of the various companies decline to acknowledge the right of the Legislature to dictate as to who shall ride free over their lines.

The Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of whom had pleaded guily to the State Board of Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of whom had pleaded guily to the Eaglist and the Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of whom had pleaded guily to the Eaglist and the Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of whom had pleaded guily to the Eaglist and the Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of whom had pleaded guily to the Eaglist and the Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of the Control of the Control of the State Board of Agriculture of Thomas Doyle, all of the Control of the Cont Kansas reports that the farmers of that State hold over charge of conspiracy to murder, were arraigned in court 5,000,000 hushels of old wheat and over 37,000,000 of for sentence. The first five mentioned were each send corn.

tenced to ten years' penal servitude, and Doyle to five
A tornado passed south of Indianapolis on the night | years' penal servitude. The crown decided to drop the

Novo, on the African coast, and taken posses

The Pope, in his circular to the Irish Bis Whatever Parnell's object may be, his foll often adopted a course openly against the propers letter to Cardinal McCabe and the sent to the bishops, which were accepted at t meeting in Dublin. While it is lawful for seek redress for their grievances and to strirights, they should, at the same time, seek G and remember the wickedness of illegal me thering even a just cause. It is the duty of t tress are permitted, but subscriptions to infla and when crimes and murders go uncensured patriotism is measured by the amount sub ception to the foreign embassies which ha at Moscow to attend the coronation. The w sions; 13 of diphtheria; 12 of marasmus; 10 of old age, the principal ceremony on the day of the and 10 of bronchitis.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3°s, 103\frac{3}{3}'s, 103\frac{3}{2}; 4\frac{3}{5}, 119\frac{1}{2}; currency 0°s, 129 them to give satisfactory evidence as to their angles of the state of the sta and will permit no one to occupy a window of the coronation until proof has been furnish has no suspicious articles on his person. even forbid the carrying of oranges into buil which a view may be obtained, as they articles containing dynamite and intended bombs may get into the houses and be used :

> It is announced that the Peking Governmedided to establish a Chinese Consulate in C the protection of its subjects in that city, at Sales of 4200 number. The consulate will consist of two one Chinese, the other American.

Twenty-two deaths from yellow fever wer

A Temperance meeting will be held by th ance Association of Friends, in the Meeting Coulter St., Germantown, on Fifth-day, 5th n at 8 P. M.

Friends are cordially invited.

WM. C. ALLEN, &

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to tead Latin, and other branches in the Girls' Scho

Application may be made to Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwo Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ni

John Sharpless, Chester, Pen Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine st

WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SIXTH MONTH 2, 1883.

NO. 43.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

f paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

JOHN S. STOKES.

O. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

" Philada., 12th mo. 4th, 1826.

aind more and more impressed with the n responsibility, which attaches to the but little to say, yet I have sometimes blood. ht I could feel somewhat of the weight

Far more the treacherous calm I dread, Than tempests bursting on my head.

the Lord knows best what is good for ad if we can but feel more and more like on the hands of the heavenly Potter, mly resigned to be any thing or nothing tnay be his will, we shall feel the reward ce flowing as a river, and our righteouss the waves of the sea.

ppy for thy perusal the following from period here alluded to, little before thou left us. There is something the ends of the earth. so simple and so excellent in it, that I think it must warm the heart and excite the admiration of all those who love the Lord Jesus love which knows no limit; and in the feeling 'Good Peter;' and who with a truly apostolic them that are sanctified.' Farewell, spirit, used to preach the gospel to his poor, benighted brethren. He one day addressed them in language to this effect: 'My brothers, the Great Spirit loves all his creatures. He loved them so much, that He sent his own s and Memoranda of William Scattergood. Son to bring them home to Him. But his Son was so bright—brighter my brothers than yonder sun-we could not look at him. Therefore He wrapped himself in a mantle dear friend. * * * * I rejoice to find of flesh (wrapping his blanket around him) that He might live with us, and that we might see Him. The good Saviour has showed us the way to his Father, and lest we should n of a minister of the gospel; and alus the way to his Father, and lest we should has regards myself, I can of course lose the path, He has marked it with his

My friend asks what interests me? and igation which rests upon those who are judges rightly when he supposes that the one upon to speak in the name of the Lord; great and good cause lies very near my heart. s thou hast mentioned the perplexity, And although I at times feel unworthy to be oubts, and fears, into which thou hast counted among those who can feel rightly for the defections that exist among us as a reprince many past seasons of deep excell tiglous Society, yet the consideration of the fining wherein I have had to exclaim darkness, and wickedness, and infidelity, long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for which surround us, often presses upon me with How long wilt thou hide thy face a sense of the awfulness of Divine retribution; ne? And I remember, too, in the days for the Lord will visit for these things. When by visitation, some feelings which are I look around among those who are young, my mind in regard to the proper quali-my companions in age, and consider the exon for the office of a minister of Christ. ample they have before them, the prospect is occurred was, that as it was necessary truly moving, and the complaint of the protection of the Mosaical dispensation that the min-of the sanctuary should be purified, child cleaves to the roof of its mouth for before entering upon the exercise of thirst. But I sometimes, nevertheless, feel functions, so it is abundantly necessary animated with hopes of better days; and that under the present higher or more glori- Zion will arise and put on her beautiful garpiritual dispensation, the ministers of ments, and that there may not be occasion for ord should be sunctified, inwardly, by others any more to say, that that Society ashing of regeneration, and by being which has always so dwelt in peace, should ed time after time into deep and heart now be in the midst of contention and strife. ing baptism. Let us then consider times But in the midst of all, I believe that a remkness and desertion as the chastisements hant has been preserved; and that, although thind father, who would try and purify a poor and afflicted people, yet having placed tith, and qualify us to partake of the joys their 'trust in the name of the Lord,' they love; and let us remember, too, that if can still look up to Him with confidence and ther not his chastenings, then are we faith, in the full persuasion that in his own that it may win Christ and be found in sards and not sons. For my own part, good time He will command deliverance for Him, &c. * * *

As often had occasion of latter time, to his oppressed seed. Truly, may it be said. It is through unspeakable mercy, my dear of the two lines in thy favorite hymn: Except the Lord of hosts had left us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. But my prayer is, that the Lord would raise up instruments to proclaim his great and excellent name; and that by the powerful operations of his love, he would gather children to an Indian sermon, of which I was speaking a bimself—sons from afar and daughters from

* "Foster's Reports" in two vols., published in 1831

* * * My heart seems to flow towards Christ in sincerity. Among the converts to of it, 'I commend thee to God and to the the Christian faith in one of our Indian tribes word of his grace, which is able to build thee was one whom they distinguished by the title of up, and to give thee an inheritance among all

From thy friend and brother, WM. SCATTERGOOD.

 $To\ M.\ T.$

"Philada., 2d mo. 16th, 1827.

I am well aware, as thou hast remarked, that there is no standing still in the exercise of Christian duty; and it abundantly bespeaks the necessity there is for a steady, persevering endeavor by constant prayer and diligent watchfulness to be found advancing forward. Although there may be seasons in which we may seem to stand still, or even to be losing ground, yet it is not for us to cease our earnest intercession, with our close examinations, that we may fully ascertain what the cause may be; for these are the times when the blessed Head of the Church communicates instruction of the most useful kind. Well for us if, upon such occasions, we are found humbly endeavoring in patience and faith steadily to keep our eyes fixed on the Rock of everlasting salvation; for ofttimes when we may least expect it, streams of heavenly consolation are found flowing from the Saviour's bosom. In connexion herewith, I have often thought there was a state of lowliness, of deep humility and simplicity, in which the glorious Lord would condescend to dwell more eminently with the soul, and in which there might be far more of heavenly enjoyment than is experienced by most in the present day. It is a state, I can truly say, that I long for; and when looking towards it, and considering my great distance from it, earnest petitions often arise that I may be enabled to press after it with redoubled vigor. But in consideration of what deep probation and entire renunciation of all self-pleasing, it calls for, I often fear it is an attainment to which I shall never arrive; nevertheless, having through unmerited mercy, been favored to see that The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death,' I am made willing, I trust, to count all things as dross

, that any of us have been preserved from joining in with the deceiver; let us then prize our privilege, and show by a consistent life and conversation, that we are truly and not merely nominally the followers of a crucified Redeemer. * * * We are advancing in life; and as in temporals so in spirituals, greater strength is gained by unity of heart and design; especially is this the case in the latter will perhaps open up to the enquiring reader, as clearly sign; especially is this the ease in the latter as any other work on the subject, the difficulties of the by a constant desire to provoke one another to love and to good works. Let us then continue to love one another with a pure heart thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou where they are to-day; and in them strumental in building one another up in the thee. blessed faith of the Gospel.

It is certainly a very glorious privilege to which poor frail man is admitted, to have intercourse with the high and lofty One who by the Jews and Gentiles, as Israel was far inhabiteth eternity, and whose name is Holy; removed at that time into other countries. which condescension claims from our hearts And a mark was set on Judah which was not record of an incident related more than the utmost gratitude. But it is with those only He condescends to dwell, who are poor and of a contrite spirit, and who tremble at his word; for the proud He knoweth afar that in Israel's seed to-day all nations are in that section of country. One of thes childlike simplicity from the mighty Helper, proofs they give us history and traditions. strength for the battle, and yield our hearts in the day of visitation a willing sacrifice at the footstool of mercy; for if we do this, He of the Philistines; and Moses in directing the than he thought fell to the lot of his f has promised to blot out as a cloud our transgressions, and as a thick cloud our sins.

(To be continued.)

For " The Friend,"

The Ten Tribes.

The following notice of some theories respecting the descendants of the Ten Tribes of Israel, have been sent to us by a correspondent, these Philistines or Phenicians were a seawho judiciously applies to them the advice of faring people; as also was Dan, or that part Paul to Timothy, "Lay hands suddenly on of the tribe that had its possessions in the will; a step from which human nature a no man;" and who thinks, it is the safest way to heed another admonition of the apostle, " Prove all things and hold fast to that which which the readers of "The Friend" can form their own conclusions-but we feel like withholding our assent, until stronger evidence of the truth of the theories propounded is produced, than we have yet seen.—Ed.]

Ever since the commencement of the Christian era, or about that time, the ten tribes of peopled. Israel have been thought to be a lost people, mixed up with the rest of mankind; although the Bible repeatedly mentions them as a distinct people who are to be known as such in the latter days, and are again to possess the land of their fathers (not as a whole but as land of their fathers (not as a whole but as (See Judges xviii.) Now these investigators any false peace; but if, after striving representatives,—one of a city and two of a tell us that these Danites had emigrated what was right from her youth up, she family,) (Jer. iii. 14), and repeatedly spoken of by the prophets as the house of Israel, and specially mentioned in many passages as a these northern Danites were never subjected desirous to be plainly dealt with; for distinct people from the house of Judah, (Jer. to any other power. It was they who after might be a means of helping ber out of iii. 18.) And now in these days of scarching long journeyings, eventually settled in Den a declining state.

and researching, it is rather remarkable that mark and its boundaries, and became the When Mary Kite did come, she has the company to the company of the kind to deliver, but here so many of our learned men, both in England dreaded mighty Norsemen. They appear to message of that kind to deliver; but her and America, have come to the conclusion that the lost ten tribes are now found in the kept his name in honorable remembrance by aged saint. Anglo-Saxon race, and try to prove it from the Bible-history and tradition.

Some tell us that the original of the word Saxon means Isaac's sons, and thus fulfils the saying of the Lord to Abraham (Gen. xxi. 12) for in Isaac shall thy seed be called; and river Danube, and lastly Danmark in like ness and fresh supplies of spiritual food. also the blessings given to both of Joseph's manner named after their father, Dan; and sons by his inspired blind father was never in like manner these investigators have traced in its line, is a memorandum bearing the realized by them in the land of Canaan, but the other tribes who were carried by the king date as the preceding, respecting a yare being realized to-day by the Anglo-Saxon of Assyria into Media (2 Kings xvii. 6), until race, and is especially noticeable in England they conquered England for a possession, deceased in that vicinity not long before and the United States. Putting the first for Ephraim, who has branched out in a multi-tude of nations: (See Gen. xlviii, 19; also xlix, 22;) and the second for Manasseh, who was shall all families of the earth be blessel?—there can be complete two weeks. She believed from also to be great: (Gen. xlviii, 19; Deut, xxxiii, no doubt that the prediction referred primarily to our lift;) and also they take this verse to apply to Holy Redeemer, who as to the flesh was descended from Arbaham. This is distinctly stated by Panl in his global that the complete two was brought into deep exercise on her account. She said that she was unpred God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and Christ is the seed of Abraham.—Ed.]

fervently; and possibly under the blessing of shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over being fully fulfilled all the promises m our common Redeemer, we may be made in many nations, but they shall not reign over Joseph's son, even to Ephraim.

And, again, they make it appear that the Israelites had neither voice nor hand in crucifying the Lord Jesus. This was done entirely put on Israel. (Isaiah iii. 9.) And now in years ago, by that worthy elder, W these last days the light of the Gospel shines Walter, of Chester Co., Pa. When he out in a brightness from the Saxon race, so young man there were two ministers May we then, my dear -, ask in being blessed.* And with these Scripture a man of active and lively disposition south-west of Canaan was joined the country people before his death said, in Num. xxxiii. minister. As they were sitting together habitants of the land from before thee; then would be much smoother and easier if he it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you then asked the significant question: in the land wherein ye dwell,"

And now these antiquarians tell us that south of Canaan (Judges v. 17); and that both shrinks, whatever may be our peculiar these peoples traded with Tarshish, in Spain, acteristics. (said to be) and as tin is mentioned as some of the merchandise, and it was not known to ligion is well illustrated by a memoral the subject is one of some interest, on have been found any where at that time made in the fall of 1852, respecting Many where the fall of 1852, respecting Many where the fall of 1852 is the fall of 1852 in the fall of 185 but in England, they conclude that they also Jefferis, who then resided at West Ch went there. As also the history of Ireland and was drawing towards the close (aided by tradition) shows that it was settled lengthened life, which had been spent by these two races—the Phenicians in the her youth in the fear of the Lord, and d South and the Danites in the North-as they which she had been spiritually helpf are yet to this day; whilst by the Danites, many. At that time a visit had been ree

But there was a part of the tribe of Dan portion originally allotted them by Joshua, felt a desire that Mary might be faith who emigrated to the north of Canaan, and speak plainly what was given her to con conquered a new possession for themselves; nicate. She did not wish to be delude westward long before the other tribes were lost ground, and was going backward in carried captive into Media; and they find that old age as to her spiritual condition, she have always venerated their father, Dan, and munication was one of encouragement to naming many places after him, from their first movement from the south of Palestine, to this dear friend, green in old age, thus le the north where they built a city and called try the foundation on which she stood it Dan, after the name of Dan their father: prevented from relying on a long life of (See Judges xviii. 29.) After this we find the cation as a substitute for continued water

Gather the Fragments.

In looking over an old note book, I sometimes neglected to keep a suffic It is shown from Bible-history that to the strict guard over the tendencies of his n and thus occasioned himself more to "But if ye will not drive out the in-day, he remarked, that his spiritual jo had the even, sober temper of his compa His friend reflected for a minute or two thou not think it is as hard for a calf t as a lion?" Thus calling attention to t dispensable necessity of knowing our wills brought into subjection to the I

The humility which accompanies tre too, was the South and West of Scotland also paid to the families of West Chester Pre tive Meeting by Mary Kite.

Martha said, that in the morning b who were somewhat dissatisfied with their the visit was to be paid to her own house

It was interesting and instructive to Quite in contrast with this, but instru-

Though pleasant in her social relations elieve that her end was peace.

hat a sad mistake it is to defer a prepara-· is under suffering and the mind dis-

ted by pain! nong those who attended the meetings riends at Fourth and Arch Sts., Philada., who was subsequently received into memhip in our Society, was a very worthy, ly man named George Stites. Under that he is face to face with his Maker. of 11th mo. 4th, 1852, I find a memor-

"Gladly we catch the tender sound, Which bids us come and rest awhile; Come, breathe with me the desert air ! Come, breathe to God the secret prayer!

We come! we come!-the harass'd soul Longs to escape this war of words The clouds of care which round us roll, And rest with thee, thou Lord of lords!

And once again, the bark refit, Ere we the quiet haven quit!"

J. W.

For "The Friend,"

On the Desert.

THE PENINSULA OF SINAL (Continued from page 330.)

a sick man, till after two or three hours were wrapped in the volume of dense, rolling tribes across the Jordan.

men.

sent the guides away to a little distance, for Lord descended upon Sinai.' there are moments when one must be alone to get the full force of sacred associations, and passing over a plain which bounds the mounhere where Moses talked with God, one feels tain region of Sinai, and scaled a mountain

m respecting him, which says that he feels as if he had come to a point in his own of a walled city. This was the southern formerly an active member among the life, and a personal feeling mingles with that boundary of a "vast plateau or table-land, in nodists. His residence was in the District inspired by the scene, so that one flows into outline not unlike one of the steppes of Asia. Censington. Like many others of that the other. As I looked down from the top of It is not however an unbroken plain, but ession, his time was much absorbed in Sinai, I saw not only the deep passes winding crossed by mountain ranges, not so grand as ing preaching, attending class-meetings, away into the mountains, I saw the winding those of the lower part of the Peninsula, but er meetings. First-day schools, &c. But course of a lifetime that had at last brought still of considerable height, between which a time, he became sensible that he was me to this spot; and how could one who felt are broad spaces of desert furrowed by waterining a loss for want of more inward re-that he was but a pilgrim, tarrying not even courses. Scarcely had we left the edge of the nent, for which his various engagements for a night, but only for an hour, help breath-lot give a suitable opportunity—his own ing a prayer to Him who of old led His peo-lacked spiritual nourishment. He he-ple across these deserts and through these scarred, and kept moving on from one to aned it right for him to cease from that ac-mountains, that He would guide his wander-other, as we had traversed a succession of which he had before practised, and to ing steps aright! And then somehow there wadies in going to Sinai. Sometimes we rose d more time in waiting on the Lord in came into my heart and to my lips the words on an elevation, from which we took in a ee.

of the Twenty-third Psalm, and standing more extensive view, and saw mountains in the real alone with uncovered head, I found my, the distance. These smaller hollows worn by b, often retired alone for quiet meditation self repeating the blessed assurance, in the streams, like the affluents of a river, finally communion with God; and on one occa-strength of which I shall go all my days: merge into the Wady el Arish (which we cohe told bis disciples, "Come ye your The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want, tered in the afternoon,) which is to the Desert es apart into a desert place and rest He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; of the Wandering what the Wady es Scheikh though I walk through the valley of the stone, and which bears the great name of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou River of Egypt—a term which, as used in the mountain, and presently Dr. Post appeared boundary between Egypt and Palestine. with the other American party, and all together we studied the features of the mountain and the plain as related to each other. 1 rocks that it is quite impassable for cended, as it answers more exactly to the de-the country.

had ever done. At one time she asked we rose to the summit of the pass, when I cloud. Those who have witnessed an empparents, if they really thought her as heard behind me the voice of the dragomartition of Vesuvius from the Bay of Naples, reced as she felt herself to be. To a min-shouting 'Jebel Mousa!' That cry cured me member that at times great masses of smoke ing friend, P. R., who visited her in her in an instant. If it did not drive away the roll down the mountain side, and then clear tion, she said that the pain of body she fever, it made me forget it. Instantly the away, and flames shoot up to a vast height, ared was great, but her mental suffering tears rushed into my eyes, and all personal reddening the sky, while at the same time far greater. Towards the close of her feeling was lost in one overpowering thought: they are reflected in the faces of a multitude as her mind became more quiet and com-There was the Mount of Moses, the Mount of of spectators white with terror, as if the Dies ble; and having experienced her sins to God! On that domed summit the Almighty Ira had come and the very heavens were on eforehand to judgment, there is reason had descended in fire to give His law to fire. If amid this scene, the grandest and most awful that Nature ever presents, a voice The party found shelter in the convent of were heard issuing out of the cloud and rolling for eternity to a bed of death, when the St. Catharine, situated at the base of the down the breast of the mountain, we might mountain-and afterwards ascended to the form some faint conception of the mingled summit of Sinai. Here H. M. Field says, "I majesty and terror of the sight when the

From Sinai they journeyed northward, range of a thousand feet in height, and so "Coming to such a height of vision, one steep that the cliffs look like the battlements He leadeth me beside the still waters. Yea, is among the mountains of granite and sandart with me; thy rod and thy staff, they com- Bible, does not designate the Nile, but this mighty wady, which keeps its course to the "The spell was broken by shouts down the sea, coming out near Gaza, and forming the

Of course the chief interest of this desolate region is that it is none other than the Great and Terrible Wilderness, in which the Israel-Looking over the edge of the cliff, we could ites passed all but three of their forty years see how perfectly it answered to the descrip- of wandering. It has always been the tradition of 'the mount that might be touched,' tion, that the march from Egypt to Sinai took for the plain came up to its very base, and at about fifty days; and scholars reekon the the same time there were low-lying mounds time of the encampment in the region of Sinai f the approach to Mt. Sinai, our traveller at the foot, which seemed to mark where at one year, lacking a few days; when the We were now to cross a rugged pass, proach. As to the extent of open space, wide the sandy belt which we passed over yesterch leads over into the broad valley or plain as it was, Dr. Post reported that the other day, climbed into this great upland. When slopes to the foot of Mount Sinai. It is peak which he had climbed commanded a view they entered it, they could not have intended called the Pass of the Winds, since it still wider; that, while it was in the very axis to remain there, for Moses would not have as as if all the elements—not only winds, of the plain of Er Rahab, it took in also a chosen such a desolate region for a long en-floods and storms, and tempest in every wady on the other side, which furnished campment. They took it on the march to ose to work the wildest rain and conmore. Hence he inclines to the opinion that vanced nearly through it, when they were on. It is narrow and steep, and so piled this was the peak which Dr. Robinson as driven back by the fierce tribes that inhabited gage-camels, which have to be sent round scription be has given. But after all, the and pitched their tents in the wilderness, movther way, that is longer by some hours question whether it was this or that, does not long from place to place, but never crossing its seem very important, for the whole group, is boundary for more than thirty-seven years, arry us. Slowly and wearily did they comprised under the general name of Sinai, when they turned south to the head of the ggle upward. As it was impossible for and the Divine manifestation may have in-to keep side by side, we straggled on one cluded them all. 'The mountain was alto-tar the other, separate and silent. My gither on a smoke,' and to the multitude that of the Dead Sea, to Nebo, where Moses died, its were such as might have been expected looked upward it may have seemed as if all and from which Joshua, shortly after, led the raises the question, often suggested before, but never so pressing as now, as to the means of desolate wilderness behind them; in constant their subsistence. How could two millions danger, if left to themselves, of perishing by and a half of people find bread in the wilder- famine or by pestilence-was not a country ness to keep them alive for thirty-seven years? Leaving for the moment the question of the miraculous supply of food, the problem may perhaps be solved in part by considering both desert the more the miracle of the Exodus the mode of life of the Israelites and the grows upon me. How the Israelites lived greater fertility of the country at the time of through it, is a mystery which no resources the Exodus in comparison with what it is to- of their own can explain, without the help of day. The children of Israel were not unac- Him who was their Guide and Protector. customed to the descrt. The patriarchs lived on it before they went down into Egypt. Abraham, Isaae, and Jacob were 'dwellers in tabernacles,' that is, in tents. They were nomads as truly as the Bedaween of the present day. They lived by their flocks and herds, moving from place to place, wherever they could find pasturage. When Joseph's brethren stood before Pharaoh, and he asked them of their occupation, they said 'Thy servants are shepherds.' For that reason he appointed them their place of abode not in Memphis, the capital, nor in the other cities of Egypt, but in the land of Goshen, where they could follow their accustomed occupation. They lived in Goshen, as they had lived on the desert, with their flocks of sheep and herds of cattle; and so when they came to go up out of Egypt, it was the dictate of selfpreservation to take their flocks and herds with them as their means of subsistence. For them to go out into the wilderness did not involve the same hardship as it would have been for the Egyptians, for they only went back to "In the light of the Lord, a flame we see the mode of life of their fathers. They pitched their tents on the desert, and once more dwelt in tabernacles, as the patriarchs more dwell in duct matter. The Exodus for them was simply going back to their old, wander-ling life.

"Smite, Good-man, Hate-Evil!—harder still!" The magistrate cried, "lay on with a will! Drive out of their bodies the Father of Lies, ing life. "But how was subsistence found for their flocks and herds? This can only be explained by supposing that the vegetation was much more abundant then than now, of which there is ample proof. In the wadies which we passed through in going to Sinai, there were signs that at one period the mountains, if not covered with forests, yet had by no means the bare look which they now have; while the wadies, which are burnt and dry, may have been as green as the deep valleys that one finds nestled in the recesses of the Alps. All writers bear witness to the constant and suicidal practice which has been going on for centuries among the Arabs, of denuding the mountains, not only of trees but of brushwood, You, and every one of you, are required, in King's for their camp fires and to burn for charcoal. Majesty's name, to take these vagabond Quakers, Anne This of course has cansed the little mountain Colman, Mary Tomkins, and Alice Aubrose, and make springs to dry up, and the vegetation to become more scanty. But still with all that backs not exceeding ten stripes a piece on each of them, man has done to destroy vegetation, there is enough in the waldes and on the hillsides to esupport flocks of goats; and as we advanced will answer it at your peril; and this shall be your weathward, we found large hords of camels warrant. northward, we found large herds of camels spread over the hills. In the wilderness it is not probable that the Israelites were all in But with all these alleviations of their lot, we are now passing, a Great and Terrible to the cour Wilderness. A country in which they could † Many find no abiding place-where they were kept the Indians.

"This long desert life of the Israelites moving from one pasture ground to another, eating up the land before them, and leaving a through which millions of people could make their way unguided and alone. I repeat what I have said before, that the more I see of the

(To be continued.)

HOW THE WOMEN WENT FROM DOVER.*

The tossing spray of Cocheco's fall Hardened to ice on its rocky wall As through Dover town, in the chill, gray dawn, Three women passed, at the cart-tail drawn!

Bared to the waist, for the north wind's grip And keener sting of the constable's whip The blood that followed each hissing blow Froze as it sprinkled the winter snow.

Priest and ruler, boy and maid Followed the dismal cavalcade; And from door and window, open thrown, Looked and wondered gaffer and crone.

- "God is our witness," the victims cried "We suffer for Him, who for all men died; The wrong ye do has been done before, We bear the stripes that the Master bore!
- "And thou, O Richard Waldron, for whom We hear the feet of a coming doom, On thy cruel heart and thy hand of wrong Vengeance is sure, though it tarry long.
- Climb and kindle a proud roof-tree; And beneath it an old man lying dead With stains of blood on his hoary head.";
- Who through them preaches and prophesies!"

So into the forest they held their way, By winding river and frost-rimmed bay, Over wind-swept hills that felt the beat Of the winter sea at their icy feet,

The Indian hunter, searching his traps, Peered stealthily through the forest gaps; And the ontlying settler shook his head, "They're witches going to jail," he said.

* The following is a copy of the warrant issued by Major Waldron, of Dover, in 1662,

To the constables of Dover, Hampton, Salisbury, New-bury, Rowley, Ipswich, Wenham, Lynn, Boston, Rozbury, Dedham, and until these vagabond Quakers are carried out of this jurisdiction.

them fast to the cart's tail, and driving the cart through your several towns, to whip them upon their naked

Dated at Dover, December 22, 1662.

This warrant was executed only in Dover and Hampone camp. They may have been spread over tou. At Salisbury the constable refused to obey it. He one camp. They may have been spread over the influence of Major Robert Pike, the leading man in the lower a hundred spots that could yield a tentucture of Major Robert Pike, the leading man in the lower valley of the Merrimac, who stood far in adporary sustenance for their flocks and herds. vance of his time, as an advocate of religious freedom, and an opponent of ecclesiastical authority. He had still the Israelites found this waste over which the moral courage to address an able and manly letter to the court at Salem, remonstrating against the witch-

† Many years after, Major Waldron was killed by

At last a meeting-house came in view; A blast on his horn the constable blew And the boys of Hampton cried up and dow "The Quakers have come!" to the wonderin

From barn and wood-pile the good-man cam The good-wife quitted her quilting frame, With her child at her breast; and, hobbling The grandam followed to see the show.

Once more the torturing whip was swung, Once more keen lashes the bare flesh stung. "Oh, spare! they are bleeding!" a little mai And covered her face the sight to hide. A murmur ran round the crowd: "Good foll Quoth the constable, busy counting the strok "No pity to wretches like these is due, They have beaten the gospel black and blue! Then a pallid woman, in wild-eyed fear,

With her wooden noggin of milk drew near:
"Drink, poor hearts!" A rude hand smote Her draught away from a parching throat. "Take heed," one whispered, "they'll take yo

For fines, as they took your horse and plow, And the bed from under you." "Even so," She said. "They are cruel as death I know," Then on they passed, in the waning day, Through Seabrook woods, a weariful way; By great salt meadows and sand-hills bare,

And glimpses of blue sea here and there. By the meeting-house in Salisbury town, The sufferers stood, in the red sundown, Bare for the lash! O pitying Night, Drop swift thy curtain and hide the sight!

With shame in his eye and wrath on his lip The Salisbury constable dropped his whip.
"This warrant means murder foul and red; Cursed is he who serves it," he said.

"Show me the order, and meanwhile strike A blow at your peril!" said Justice Pike. Of all the rulers the land possessed, Wisest and boldest was he, and best.

He scoffed at witchcraft; the priest he met As man meets man; his feet he set Beyond his dark age, standing upright, Soul-free, with his face to the morning light,

He read the warrant: " These convey From our precincts; at every town on the way Give each ten lashes." "God judge the brute! I tread his order under my foot!

"Cut loose those poor ones and let them go; Come what will of it, all men shall know No warrant is good, though backed by the Cro For whipping women in Salisbury town!" The hearts of the villagers, half released From ereed of terror and rule of priest, By a primal instinct owned the right

Of human pity in law's despite. For ruth and chivalry only slept, His Saxon manhood the yeoman kept; Quicker or slower, the same blood ran

In the Cavalier and the Puritan. The Quakers sank on their knees in praise And thanks. A last, low sunset blaze Flashed out from under a cloud, and shed A golden glory on each bowed head.

The tale is one of an evil time, When souls were fettered and thought was crit And heresy's whisper above its breath Meant shameful scourging and bonds and deat

What marvel, that hunted and sorely tried, Even women rebuked and prophesied, And soft words rarely answered back The grim persuasion of whip and rack!

If her cry from the whipping-post and jail Pierced sharp as the Kenite's driven nail, O woman, at ease in these happier days, Forbear to judge of thy sister's ways !

How much thy beautiful life may owe To her faith and courage thou canst not know, Nor how from the paths of thy calm retreat She smoothed the thorns with her bleeding fee John Greenleaf Whittier in The Atlantic Mont hands."

For "The Friend." Incidents and Reflections.

he exercise of true Gospel ministry is nys in the ability which is received from esh extension of Divine help; and without sensible evidence of that help, the true ister will not venture to enter upon this ed work, however much he may have favored in his communications at other s. Hence there are many such ministers enabled to minister to the congregation. often pass the time of meetings for worare travelling on the Gospel errand. not speak to the people, lest the reprov. in my own time, being emptied of all. language should be sounded in their

, which he relates to his wife in a letter ten from Philadelphia. In this he menthat he had been out in the country, that at the first eleven meetings after ing the city, he was shut up in profound Hoskyn, of old times, says: ce, except a very few words at the close ner past all human penetration or natural God's grace, I will.' chension; and what is more than all that, oice in it too; yea, I greatly rejoice that so, and that I have thus exercisingly d it so. For, by thus fully learning this of the lesson, I have been led feelingly, ory. The nermit case unit take the bade longer.

to my great admiration, to dip far deeper pitcher and fill it with water. He then bade longer.

"If the children, the dear children, would be more than the control of the children and the control of the children and the c ternal influence of his Divine life to arise passage through. y soul, in majesty and mighty dominion: n the fresh openings of the vision of light, rumpet was prepared to sound; and the ings being indisputably clear, great was confirmation; yea, and consolation also; was like a resurrection from the dead indeed, a good, honest old woman said e after meeting, 'I am glad I was at thy rection to-day.

lany, my dear love, were the kind Friends sympathized with me in my baptism into burned up my bad bushel." i; and how could they but rejoice with n the aboundings of that which was eviy felt to be 'the resurrection and the My way has been opened and good y given in every meeting since, save

e experience of Job Scott as above reoached a house where many persons were connection therewith. cted, in the expectation of hearing him in a silent wrestling for the arising of to his wife in 1789: "I find it is only as I waiting for, and seeking after, the resurrecine life; or, it may be, in the enjoyment know nothing and attempt not to do any-tion of a divine life, inwardly stirring in their sense of the Lord's goodness and mercy. thing, but simply as it is immediately im-own minds. I, above all things, recommend this has often been the case with those pressed and opened, that I find peace, or get my dear children, as the surest way to be on the Lord withholds his command, they I find myself more and more unable to move religious experience.

tual ears, "Who bath required this at to turn the attention of people to the Light of in early life, through convincement of its prin-Christ in their own hearts, the great Teacher, ciples, many years after related his experience hen Job Scott was visiting the churches to guide them in the way of salvation; and as follows:

Companylyania and adiacent parts, in the as the apostle says, "to stir up the pure mind" "When I was a little boy about ten years Consylvania and adjacent parts, in the as the apostle says, "to stir up the pure mind "When I was a little boy about ten years 1786, he passed through such an experi-in them." This purpose may be effected and old. I used to like to go to meetings somesubstantial benefit derived by the hearer who times. One First-day morning I asked my yet may sometimes be unable to retain in his father if I might not go with some of my memory any thing that the preacher has said, comrades, neighboring boys, to Quaker meetor even the subject on which he spoke. Bishop ing. He said, "For what would you go to

"I have heard of one who returning from ing, they just sit still." e first; and he makes the following com- an affecting sermon, highly commended it to But still I wished to go. "Well," said he, ts: "I now know that when [the Lord] some; and being demanded what he remem- "go; but mind and behave yourself." So I s none can open. I read it and believed bered of it, answered: 'Truly, I remember set off, and walked about five miles barend in good degree felt and experienced it nothing of it at all; but only while I heard it, footed. When I came to the meeting, it was re; but now I know it in the deeps, in a it made me resolve to live better; and so, by late; all the people were in. I went in, and ever into a clear experience of the other bim empty it again and wipe it clean, that "If the children, the dear children, would that "when He opens none can shut." nothing should remain in it. This being done, but be still and try to wait on the Lord in

of a later date:

"What a sermon we had last Sunday!" said

What was it about?" asked her friend.

"I dou't remember," she replied.
"What was the text?" she was then asked.

The exercise of soul, which sometimes covers in the meeting under this feeling, many texts good presence of the Lord and to partake of passed before his mind, but he could feel no spiritual refreshment from his heavenly table. spiritual life accompanying any of them. it matters not whether the blessing is imme-Finally, he was enabled to settle down with diately communicated, or through an anointed this conclusion-that if the Lord had any instrument. In either case the hungry soul is service for him to perform in that company, satisfied. That experienced Christian, Richard He would show him what it was; and if He Shackleton, in writing to one of his daughhad nothing for him to do, he would remain ters, says: "I seldom find any opportunities, quiet. After arriving at this state an exercise of a religious kind, more deeply and solidly spread over his mind, under which he was beneficial to my spirit, than those which I abled to minister to the congregation.

Job Scott says of himself, in a letter written ment at home. To this assiduous, diligent at the state of things; and am thankful that preserved, as well as to grow and thrive in

Jacob Ritter, who was brought up as a One of the great objects of true ministry is Lutheran, and joined the Society of Friends their meeting ?-they don't have any preach-sat down behind the door. I looked around; There is a story to the same purpose of one the people seemed so serious and solemn, that who complained to a holy aged man that he it brought good feelings to my mind, though was discouraged from reading the Scriptures there was no preaching. Oh, the good feelbecause he could fasten nothing upon his memings I experienced! So that when meeting blessed be his holy name, after I gave "Now," said be, "though there be nothing of the truth, He would in mercy draw near to p, and, not daring to shrink back, con-the water remaining in it, yet the pitcher is them; for He loves little children, and somed to go on, and be a fool, a spectacle and cleaner than it was before; so, though thy times graciously visits them, I believe at a n, in dumbness and silence, or whatever memory retain nothing of the word thou very early age. When I came home, my leased, I felt the word of his power, and readest, yet thy heart is cleaner for its very father said, 'Well, did the Quakers preach?' I said, 'No, but there are good feelings amongst To the above may be added the following them that are better than preaching; we have no such good feelings in our meetings.

The experience of Jacob Ritter was similar a poor woman, who kept a small shop, to a to that of Robert Barclay, who says: It was not by strength of argument or by a particular disquisition of each doctrine, and convincement of my understanding thereby, I came to receive and bear witness of the truth, "I cannot quite think," she replied; "but but by being secretly reached by this life;

I know that when I got home, I took and for when I came into the silent assemblies of God's people, I felt a secret power among The spiritual benefit to be derived from them, which touched my beart, and as I gave reading the Scriptures, or from hearing the way unto it, I found the evil weakening in gospel preached, depends on the willingness me, and the good raised up, and so I became wrought in the reader or hearer to yield him-thus knit and united unto them, hungering self to the convictions of Divine Grace which more and more after the increase of this may accompany these outward ministrations; power and life, whereby I might feel myself and to co-operate therewith. Without this perfectly redeemed. And indeed this is the , that after he had submitted to appear religious exercise, the mere listening to a surest way to become a Christian, to whom fool, he felt the influence of the Divine sermon or reading a portion of Scripture, will afterwards the knowledge and understanding to arise in his soul, brings to mind the not profit. Yet to the humble, submissive, of principles will not be wanting, but will ion made by another minister. As he seeking soul, a blessing is often extended in grow up so much as is needful, as the natural fruit of this good root.'

It is this "power and life" of the Lord th, when he saw the number who had the mind when seated in silent meetings for which only can turn the sinner from the error nbled, an carnest desire sprang up that Divine worship, is attended with a similar of his ways, and thus effect his conversion; might not be disappointed. As he sat blessing. If the mind is brought to feel the land it is only as any labor in the strength of nally helpful to others. This essential re- age. quisite for successful labor is sometimes overgreat, but the laborers were few. The few, should be up and a doing, up and a doing, idle laborers.

danger of running where we are not sent; of by the sale of it?

The author has often been pained at seeing of gun-powder. Many accidents, inventor in the second of gun-powder. very doing man, and he takes his seythe and the accountability, in measure, attach? cradle, and goes into the field before the Lord Not greatly differing from the subject in simply introduced in suitable cases, and of the harvest has told him to go, and he hand, and to which we would allude in this attached with a small quantity of gun-pc

For "The Friend."

Ride through the Streets of Philadelphia," One woman only is said to have been present. lential marsh diseases of Italy. Out of the allusion made to the two great evils of Would that their gentle refining influence 5000 miles of railway in Italy, it was our day-Intemperance in dram-drinking; was more put forth and more extensive over lated that about 2350 miles were within and intoxication from reading exciting and the other sex; so that such brutal scenes area known as malarious. On these poi licentious novels. It may be added to what is might be left to the by-gone age of gladiet char-impracticable, as the officials have to be cating the brain; the other no less statly core acterized the blindness and ignorance of unveyed at sunset to a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain; the other no less statly core acterized the blindness and ignorance of unveyed at sunset to a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain; the other no less stately core acterized the blindness and ignorance of unveyed at sunset to a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the brain is the official share to be a spot not subject to the state of the cating the cating the state of the cating the state of the cating the state of the cating the cating the cating the state of the cating the cat rupts the heart by undue excitement of the civilized nations and periods. mind and affections. The former is most common to men; the latter affects both sexes, in the earth," so surely will those who per provinces of Italy, 15 are to a great e While the slaves of strong drink are more sistently pursue after these corrupting plea rendered uninhabitable from that cause easily seen by their fellowmen to be in the sures and pass-times-polluting others, par-cording to statements recently published road to destruction; the equally to be pitied, ticularly the young, by their example and are, on an average, 17,000 cases of marsh if more hidden, slave of the dissolute novel or influence—have to mourn deeply because they annually among the soldiers of the I romance is no less in danger of shipwreck in did not mourn sooner. Like Solomon of old, army. the gulf of licentiousness; which Plato de-they may have to look with grief and remorse the guir of membraness, which that a destine may have to rook with given and remove a proposal to the membrane membranes and the guery be put to manufacturers and very with him: "All is vanity and vexation of ways for the reclaiming of the marshes ders as well as consumers of both,—Which is spirit." He continues: "Let us hear the conthet greater evil, to administer poison to the clusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and stances have directed attention to ce head, or poison to the heart? when both will keep his commandments: for this is the whole remarkable delusions to which females sooner or later taint or destroy moral purity daty of man. For God shall bring every and the true life of the soul. We were re-work into judgment, with every secret thing, cently made acquainted with the fact, that a whether it be good, or whether it be evil." conscientiously reclaimed novel-reader, who had in early life indulged this passion till the habit had become deeply rooted, said: that the desire for this stimulating kind of reading had become so inveterate, and she so weak-Breslau, believes that the use of slates by had been struck or stabbed by others, ened by indulgence in it, that upon seeing a school-children tends to injure the eyes; and after having inflicted blows and wounds work of this character, she had to flee from he recommends as a substitute either pen and themselves. In one instance a young we this "power and life," that they can be spirit- did from his tempting and destroying bever-pencil, which has been introduced into

In this relation the writers of many books, looked by persons whose zeal exceeds their and publishers of many newspapers and other mersing cotton in a mixture of nitr experience. On one occasion, such an one periodicals, incur an amount of responsibility sulphuric acids. In the air it burns remarked to Jacob Ritter, that the world of which it is fearful to contemplate. We have flash; when exploded in a confined sp mankind had lapsed into a state of great de-lately been told of a vender of pernicious force is variously estimated as from t generacy, that many thousands were hurled literature, who, on his attention being called eight times that of ordinary gun-powde into the vortex of eternal ruin; that the to a newspaper which he had on sale, with a Lord had a harvest, and the harvest was reference to its deleterious influence, said: and dangerous compounds of this cl "Yes, the publisher of that paper ought to be produced by treating glycerine with a he said, were too idle; it was high time they put in the penitentiary." While we think he ture of strong nitric and sulphuric acid was not out of the way in condemnation of low temperature. It is a heavy, yelle doing, doing! that he saw clearly the blood the author of such corrupting reading matter, oily-looking liquid, freezing at a temper of the ruined would be upon the heads of the must not every one wonder how he could between 50 and 55 degrees of Fahrenh lend his influence to the furtherance of such powerfully explosive on the least frict "Ah!" replied Jacob, "we are in great evil by essaying to gain through lust of luere concussion, and is said to have a destru leaving undone that which we ought to do, in the miscellaneous matter of what are called loss of life and property, have occurred Our salvation depends upon a true and living our best newspapers, advertisements of thealits use. faith in the Son of God, who said, 'Ye are my tres, circuses, horse-races, &c., &c., which are friends if you do what seever things I command practically invitations to go to these sinful Swedish engineer, who found that by m you.' He surely knows best what we should places of amusement. Is it not so? and can nitro-glycerine with some inert matter, do, and when we should do it: this has always such editors wash their hands from such mis-as a porous earth found in Germany, i been the doctrine of Friends. Now suppose leading influence, and complacently assume absorbed by it, and rendered much sather Lord of the harvest calls a man to reap that they are clear? We apprehend the two transportation, without losing those exp in his harvest on a given day; but he who is "great shows," which have recently been on powers which render it so valuable in m thus called thinks it is a weighty matter, and exhibition in our large cities, are of the char-loperations. In blasting with gun-po has a great many things to do first, and, like acter herein alluded to. And yet they are after a hole is bored in a rock, and the po Martha, is cumbered about much serving; so noted by some of the most reputable journals introduced, it is necessary to carefully he lets the right time slip. By and by, he of Philadelphia, a for instance. "Barnum's the hole, that is, to fill it with stones, deshoulders his sickle and goes out into the field Great Show — its Great Attractions;" &c. other material, tighty rammed, so as to after harvest; what is he then to do? He These advertisements captivate the multi-vent the force of the explosion being can only reap stubble. But suppose he is a tude, particularly the young; and where does through the hole. But no such care is n dashes into the wheat before it is ripe, he does running comment, is the degrading exhibition in contact with the compound. When mischief, and the Lord says to him, Where recently witnessed in New York, of two fuse is fired, and the fire reaches the are thy orders? Who bath required this pugilists pounding each other. This insult powder, its explosion causes a concuthing at thy hands?"

by pugilists pounding each other. This insult powder, its explosion causes a concuthing at thy hands?" by 10,000 people at $2 a ticket. Of this number, in one of the front boxes, it is reported, Italian Malaria.—The clearing away ber, in one of the front boxes, it is reported, I was interested in seeing in an essay in a former lawmaker and ex-senator, to his the forests and other causes have tend "The Friend" of 5th mo. 19th, entitled, "A thorough disgrace and shame, had his seat, latter years to extend the area of the the seductive snare, as the reformed inebriate ink, or an artificial white slate with black was found by her husband lying on the German Schools.—Sci. American.

For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

Explosives .- Gun-cotton is prepared

Nitro-glycerine, one of the most por

Dynamite was the discovery of Nol with nitro-glycerine or dynamite, whi fatal exhalations. A recent investigation

A proposition has been laid before the stable nervous equilibrium are subject, o through hysteria or through similar disc of the nervous system. Dr. Legran Saulle, physician to the Salpetrière, Pari scribes in his standard work Les Hyster some remarkable cases of hallucination, v States Bad for Eyes.-Professor Cohn, of females labored under the belief that oom in a fainting fit, her face covered lood. On reviving from her swoon ted that she had been attacked by nen; the Paris newspapers related the nd within three weeks two similar occurred in the French metropolis, all ises were proved to have been fabri-

Perhaps the strangest case of all oc-salvation.

kind.—The British Medical Journal.

Tame Rat. — The following incident istry. how expressive and intelligible is the their safety, they were placed in a with Him.

ge and hung on the wall.

THE FRIEND.

SIXTH MONTH 2, 1883.

When George Fox and his fellow-laborers y the supposed victims. A young went forth into the world to proclaim the glad be far more extensively recognized as being unded herself slightly with a pistol. tidings of the Gospel, and to turn the attenre the police authorities the most min- tion of the people to that Light, Grace and alls about an imaginary assassin who, Spirit of Christ in their own hearts which and as a people we may be still more humbled ng to her account, fired the weapon, would bring them salvation, the marvellons and brought low, yet the cause of vital rewas found to be highly hysterical, success which attended their labors was large-ligion belongs unto the Lord, and He will was proved that she had wilfully by due to the fate that the Lord had been for late for his own cause. If those who were dherself. In a third case, in Dr. du been operating on the bearts of thousands of bidden to his least shall prove themselves unexperience, a young woman was found people in Great Britain, awakening earnest worthy, He will bring in others as from the lway carriage, stabled in the left side. desires for purity and holiness, and for a sense dight caused great excitement, but it of peace and acceptance with God. They ing evidences that such a work is even now oved, contrary to her assertions, that were like a well-tilled field prepared to receive going forward; and it may greatly increase inflicted the wound herself, and was the seed of the kingdom of Heaven, which in the lifetime of some who are now living. erical subject. A house-maid was grew and multiplied in this soil. When the We are reminded of the dying testimony of a ying behind a door, bound, gagged, way of salvation was declared to them, dear aged servant of the Lord not very long reced with druises. She stated that through turning to the Spirit of Christ which ago, who, in looking forward to the greater been brutally attacked by two burgs had showed them their faller to stack and with prevalence of our principles among men, the blackened faces, but she was a highly would give them power to forsake all sin; thought it probable that the future Society cal woman, and there appears to have they were ready to receive the message with of Friends would be largely composed of those rong evidence that she had contrived joy, and to testify: this is that we have long the have long the starks by convincement from er own hands and to gag and bruise waited for, we will be glad and rejoice in this other professions.

y's clothing was injured, and the body the hearts of the people, either immediately tress and her corset were found to be or through his chosen and prepared instruough, but at different levels. She tried ments, that we must rely for all good results, of statesmanship as well as of religion (for it so on that the attempt at strangulation. It was in accordance with his that our bless of statesmanship as well as of religion (for it seed dumbness. M. Tardieu remarked, Redeemer instructed his disciples to pray with experience in this reprobation of an easy bearing, that this infirmity rapidly unto the Lord of the barvest that He would severance of the marriage tie, and the conseared when produced under circum- send forth more laborers into his harvest-a of this kind. She soon managed to petition which often rises up at this day in her speech; and in a short time, ad-the hearts of those who earnestly long to see that the whole narrative had been de- the kingdoms of this world become the kingout of her inner consciousness. The doms of our Lord and of his Christ; and who nt fear of molestation from enemies, mourn over their poor deluded brethren absalem before entering upon their public min-

It was this preparation of heart, that enge of gesture. A gentleman living in abled Cornelius, the Centurion of Casarea, and a fancy for taming animals, and to receive the preaching of Peter; so that the others had some rats, which were on apostle was constrained to bear witness,— ost friendly terms, and used to run "Of a truth I perceive God is no respecter of night, after their master was asleep, day, as regards our own Society, where so awakened by something patting his many are departing from the principles of "The bill seems to proceed upon the theory and found it was one of his tame rats. Truth of which Friends in the beginning were that separations between husbands and wives ed to sleep again, but the animal would convinced, is there not reason to hope that are to be expedited rather than retarded, and low it, and was evidently disturbed the Lord is secretly at work on the hearts of when once taken place are to be made persomething. As soon as he obtained a many hidden ones who know little of us or of petual. It would almost close the door to all the profession we make; and that He is bring-hope of future reconciliation between the parif it expected him to follow. He did ing them under convincement of the same ties by removing every material considera-I it led him down the stairs into his blessed truths by the immediate working of tion that might possibly invite a resumption and took him to the spot where one of his mighty power? By his inward judgments of marriage relations. Under its provisions ung was lying, having fallen from its upon the evil nature, and by the comfort and a husband and wife, unhappily influenced by vield obedience to the convictions of his Spirit, is He not preparing them to accept the Light of Christ as their Leader and Guide into that salvation, which He came in the flesh to purchase for them? And may we not hope that the day is approaching when the fundamental principles of our Society will pure Primitive Christianity revived?

Though many may desert this standard, in M. Tardieu's practice. A young William Dewsbury declares, that after he shed to make herself an object of pub-was convinced of the truth by the openings of the marriage contract may be obtained in est by passing as a victim of a political of the Spirit on his own mind, and his thought's some parts of the United States, has long been acy, which she pretended to have diswere turned towards his countrymen, whose a source of uneasiness to thoughtful lovers of the night she was found in a state cycs had not yet been opened, he was divinely their country. Experience has shown that pretents mental perturbation at the instructed to forbear entering on this work the enjoyments and the restraints of homeher apartment. She could not talk, for some years. It was shown him that the ted in writing, that she had been at harvest was not yet ripe, and that a time and that therefore it is the part of true statesontside her own honse by a man who would come when there would be more of a manship to strengthen rather than weaken tempted to garrote her, at the same preparation to receive his message.

This per twice with a dagger. Only It is on the Spirit of the Lord working on the institution of marriage. Christianity, or the teachings of its founders, which may justly be regarded as the most perfect embodiment of statesmanship as well as of religion (for it quent family unsettlement.

It has been with satisfaction therefore that we have read the remarks of R. E. Pattison, Governor of Pennsylvania, in his veto of a bill which had passed the Legislature:

"I herewith return without my approval House bill No. 147, entitled 'An act authorizlly if based on reasonable grounds, is stricted in temporal pleasures and pursuits. House bill No. 147, entitled 'An act authoriz-larly liable to predispose nervous or It was for the pouring forth of this spirit ling married women and their busbands living be subjects to extraordinary delusions upon them that the apostles waited at Jeru: separate and apart under a deed of separation or mutual agreement, to sell and convey their separate real estate free and clear of rights of dower and courtesy and other interests.' Legislation and judicial interpretation have already gone a long way towards impairing the sacredness and weakening the strength of the marriage relation. If this bill should become a law, marriage in Pennsylvania would nim as he sat in his room. One of his persons, but in every nation he that feareth become a law, marriage in Pennsylvania would dalitter of young, and, in order to Him and worketh righteousness is accepted be little more than a temporary contract, of the most serious rights and solemn duties of Among the discouragements of the present which the parties might relieve themselves at their mutual pleasure.

peace which He administers to those who momentary disagreement and signing articles of separation, are instantly divested of sheathing from a distance of only four feet, neither all legal restraints, and may immediately dis- penetrated nor abraded it. A cotton mill is about to be bound a states as freely as though the marriage tie had never existed, raised in Southern California. It is said sea island They are abandoned by this bill to the full cotton can be successfully grown there. effects of their immediate prejudices, and passion is given full vent to work its most serious evils and destroy all vestige of home or mutual property. The fruit of their union, the same race as the North American Indians, but that the innocent children of wedlock, are exposed they are probably an offshoot from the Japanese or without shield or guardianship from the law Coreans. The missionaries who have been laboring to the worst consequences of the intemperate dispositions of their parents.

The soothing influence of time and the "The soothing influence of time and the paratus was burned in bonfires on the public square in returning reflections of cooler moments and Nashville, Tenn., recently, by order of the Criminal sober thoughts are given no opportunity for Court. It is asserted that at least 500 gamblers will be their healing work. The destruction of home driven out of the city by the enforcement of the new having begun, this bill invites its complete

"That policy should be to conserve and not facilitate the extinction of the marriage re-alike to her and her offspring.

"Instead of advancing, it is doubtful if it would not be better if our law retraced a step and New Orleans, or two in the relaxing of these restraints. A or two in the relaxing of these restraints. A Petroleum.—Standard white, 7\s^2 a 7\s^2 cts, for export, married woman in Pennsylvania enjoys to- and 8\s^2 a 8\s^2 cts, per gallon for home use. day every legal right conducive to her happiness and consistent with her dignity and security. The limitations with which the law still guards her are beneficent and salutary rather than obstructive and burdensome.

"They protect her as well from the amiable weaknesses of her affection as from those less commendable traits of our common humanity to the intemperate exercise of which this bill would expose her. The sacredness and security of its homes are the glory and Average price during the week—Prime timethy, 90 ever, was favorable to sugar making, as the pla strength of a State, 'a fortress at once and a contract of the security of temple.' It is to be devoutly hoped the law may never relinquish its brooding guardian and sold at the different yards at 53 a 74 cts. per lb. ship over them. For these reasons I return the latter rate for extra. the bill without my approval.

ROBERT E. PATTISON."

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES. - General Crook who has been absent several weeks in Mexico, where he went in pursuit of hostile Indians, has not been officially heard from. Rnmors of a massacre of his command are discredited in Washington.

4th mo. 30th last, amounted in value to $733,177,431, an increase of $25,153,004 on the amount imported during the preceding twelve months. Our exports of merchandise during the twelve months which ended 4th mo. 30th last, were valued at $811,641,354, against $777,875.781 for the preceding twelve months, an increase of $33,765,573.

The steamship Strasburg arrived at Baltimore last

The steamship Strasburg arrived at Baltimore last killed while making a sortic from Fort Marine, Seventh-day from Brenen, with 474 emigrants.

The formal opening of the great Brooklyn Bridge role for particular took place on Fifth-day the 24th ult. There were were read at elegram from Tonquin, stating that 14 mea present the President of the United States, Secretaries surrounded by a numerous force of Amarine, Freinghuysen, Chandler and Folger, Postmater General Gresham and Attorney General Brewster; Governors Cleveland, of New York; Ludlow, of New Jersey; Littlefield, of Rhode Island, and Fairbanks, of French detachment landed and carried several military Advices have been received from Madagescar that a French detachment landed and carried several military than the program of the proposed several military than the program of the proposed several military than the program of the program of the proposed several military than the program of the program of the proposed several military than the program of the program of the proposed several military than the program of the program of the proposed several military than the program of the pro Vermont, and a number of other prominent persons. The number of foot passengers increased until on Sixthday at noon those passing each entrance was estimated at about 100 per minute or 6000 per hour. The greatest deflection caused by the crowd on the bridge during Fifth-day's opening ceremonies is stated by Engineer is semi-officially stated that the object of the French Martin to have been only three inches.

Affirm in Lansinghurg. N. York, has nearly finished A firm in Lansinghurg. N. York, has nearly finished the same of the same footing with English subjects.

The first consignment of New Zealand apples has arrived in San Francisco. Apples ripen in New Zealand in the months corresponding to our spring.

among them say that in many respects their conceptions of moral law are better than those of civilized nations. Five thousand dollars worth of seized gambling ap-act of the State Legislature making gambling a felony.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 374, desolation. This onght not to be, and it is which was 30 more than during the previous week, and to be hoped never will become the policy of 49 less than during the corresponding period last year, our law.

Of the above 200 were males, and 174 females: 69 died of consumption; 28 of pneumonia; 14 of searlet fever; 14 of convulsions; 13 of old age; 12 of typhoid

Cotton continues quiet, but prices were steady. Sales of middlings are reported at 11½ a 11½ cts. for uplands

Flour was quiet and steady. Sales of 2000 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.40 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $4.90 a $5; western do, at $5.25 a $6.20, and patents at $5.90 a $7.50. Rye flour is steady at $3.87 a $3.90. Grain.-Wheat was a fraction higher. Sales of 4600

55 a 65 ets. per 100 pounds.

Sheep were also dull: 14,000 head arrived and sold 10½ cts. per lb., as to condition.

Hogs were a fraction lower: 5000 head sold at the different yards at 10 a 10g cts, pet lb, according to quality.

Foreign — one agrarian outrage against the corresponding to the configuration of the configurat

The Suez Canal Company have announced that they propose to begin the cutting of a parallel canal across the 1sthmus forthwith, and have applied to the English The total values of the imports of merchandise into Government for their support in obtaining the necesthe United States during the twelve months which ended sary concessions of land from the Khedive. A second A second meeting of influential ship owners in favor of the con-struction of another canal across the Isthmus of Suez was held in London 5th mo. 21st. The meeting raised £20,000 for preliminary expenses, and resolved to notify the Government of the project.

An official telegram from Tonquin states that the commander of the French forces in Tonquin, has been killed while making a sortic from Fort Hanoi. In the posts which had been erected by the Hovas on Sakaposts which had been erected by the Hovas a last lava territory in defiance of French rights. It is also stated that Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom stated that Admiral Pierre has occupied the road and water-The greatest House at Majunga, thus securing the road and waterway leading to Tananrivo, the capital of the island. expedition to Madagascar is to obtain the payment of

The State Department is informed that a peace has been signed by Chili "and General" for Peru. A despatch from Lima, dated 5th mo. 26th sa

A despatch from Lima, dated oh mo. 20th as gress was convened at Arequipa on 5th mo. 20 5th mo. 22d, Montero sent in a long message the gloomy outlook before the country, prailoyathy of Bolivia to the alliance, arraigning agressive, and declaring unjust the offers which Peru cannot accept. The message close expression that little hope of peace is enter expression that little hope of peace is enter

Intelligence from Senegal states that a Fre umn under Colonel Desbordes has succeeded in the hostile natives back a distance of sixty kil and that tranquillity has been established on bank of the Niger.

Advices have been received in London from bique that Portugal has declared war against M and other chiefs on the Schiree river. A Po gunboat and troops have been despatched from bique to the scene of hostilities. The Cologne Gazette has published an articl attracts much attention, pointing out that G

Austria and Italy can together muster 1318 b. of infantry, 740 squadrons of cavalry and 44 guns, while the forces of France and Russia facilitate the extinction of the marriage re-lation. The restraints upon alienation of the wife are not an impediment but a protection which are not an impediment but a protection. The state of the amount to 1339 battalions of infantry, 620 squa cavalry and 4840 field guns; but, it says, the partite alliance can thus outweigh the whole re of Europe.

The Emperor and Empress of Russia were in the Kremlin at Moscow, on First-day t ultimo, with great pomp and ceremony. Rep tives from Asia and each of the provinces of empire were present; also from foreign gover Great enthusiasın was manifested by the peo no expressed dissent appeared. In the ever Emperor drove through the streets without a to witness the illuminations.

A letter from Havana, dated the 19th of last bushels red, in car lots, at $1.11 a $1.26. Kye is reports an unusally severe drought over a great nominal. Corn is quiet and steady. Sales of $500 of Cuba. At Caibarien, a demijohn of water, for bushels in lots, at 60 a 68 st. Oats are deall and lower, lots, and the sales of 10,000 bushels, in car lots, at 45 a 52 cts. latest estimates of the sugar crop gave a fallir The cattle market was dull. About 2500 head arrived 25 per cent, from the yield of last year.

It is believed that the Mexican Congress wi an extensive revision of the tariff. Among th cial suggestions is one for the funding of the at the different yards at 4 a 64 cts., and lambs at 7 a mate" Mexican debt in $250,000,000 of forty year bonds, making them the basis of a nation: ing system, whose notes should be legal tende

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL Until further notice the Stage will be at W Station on the arrival of the 9.05 A, M, trai Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the school

WANTED,

An efficient person to assist in household dut be companion for an invalid. Address Box 666, West Chester P. O., Ches

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS. Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach ! Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School. Application may be made to

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwood Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ninth Mary D. Ailen, 833 N. Seventh St

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHIL AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Ma

Wanted, a woman Friend of Manted, a woman Friend of Monschold duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine st John Sharpless, Chester, Penna, Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine stree

WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER. No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

LITERARY JOURNAL. A RELIGIOUS AND

LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SIXTH MONTH 9, 1883.

NO. 44

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid dvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

cles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON OORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

ents and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

(Continued from page 338.)

humbling seasons and fiery baptisms portrayed in the following letter, are ed to teach man his own impotency tire dependence upon the one saving, ting Arm of sufficiency, grace and It is by such chastening discipline f Heavenly love-that the inward eye enlarged by Him, who thus bringeth l into filial subjection and closer union mself; who also leadeth captivity caphese inward trials I employ, From self and pride to set thee free, nd break thy schemes of earthly joy, That thou may'st seek thy all in me."

y precious, in this relation, are these of the apostle Paul: "Blessed be God, e Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the of mercies and God of all comfort: mforteth us in all our tribulation, that be able to comfort them which are in ouble, by the comfort wherewith we es are comforted of God. For as the gs of Christ abound in us, so our conalso aboundeth by Christ.

"Philadelphia, 1827.

ery dear friend, * * * Thy letter me just emerged from a season of the heard, declare we unto you.' t darkness and distress, which my acted my part in relation to my Heavenly experience of the approbation of a good and Father! my many backslidings, and my mul-kind Father and Friend. tiplied deficiencies in the prosecution of my necessity, the indispensable necessity of these h anointed to see, and the spiritual things, come home with such unspeakable and convincing energy. I have gone more into this subject than I expected to, but it is one of such infinitely inzed the force of the teaching little feel responsively with myself in relation to it.

Prayer answered by crosses:"

It does appear to me, my dear friend, upon only by a practical and experimental knowla right qualification is found to speak to others of the Divine mysteries of our holy rebest of books, or of the best commentaries affectionate warmth, which breathes 'Peace upon Holy Scripture; vain will be all our conwhich pertain to salvation, and of which we heavenly journey. speak to others. When this is the case we can say, in our measure, with the apostle : That which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the

* * * I have been prepared to see mysping to drown my soul in the depths in the eyes of the world; but I do at times has been sensibly near, and although in repeakable perdition. A circumstance in feel such living consolation in the belief that 'trospect, I may with humility say, that I feared I had not acted as I ought, let this is the path of duty, that hard things are have endeavored, according to my measure, and erooked things straight, also to be found filling up the allotted portion of

to take a review of my past life; how I had that very bitter cups are made sweet in the

Vain would it be for me, on such an occaproper duty; and the retrospect was awful sion as this, to undertake to tell all I feel at indeed. I am persuaded that words are too times in contemplating the ways of "Heaven's feeble to convey the prospect that opened to Eternal King"—his glorious goodness and his my view-eternal misery, with the trembling, free salvation to the sons of fallen Adam; and borror, and anguish that await those who blessed be his name in that He hath called know not the Lord. All these-their inter- me, as I humbly trust He has, poor and unminable extent, and the sureness with which worthy as I am, to be a partaker in the riches they follow the impenitent and ungodly soul, of his unsearchable love. Well, my friend, being brought home to myself-left an im- let us labor more and more to be found watchand Memoranda of William Scattergood, pression which, I trust and hope, may never ing; let us endeavor to walk worthy of the be forgotten: because, too, it has brought vocation wherewith we are called with all home to my soul the value, the inestimable lowliness and meekness; endeavoring to keep value of that mercy and grace which come by the unity of the Spirit, which is the bond of Jesus Christ our Lord. I have always, or at peace. This will afford us true consolation least during my profession of religion, been a amid all the fluctuating scenes of time; and believer in the doctrines of the atonement, though many trying conflicts may be our porthe mediation and intercession of our blessed tion, the Lord who is infinite in goodness will Redeemer; but never did the truth, ah! the maintain and support us through all, to the praise of his own great and excellent name.

Thy remarks upon the subject of waiting upon God, thou mayest well suppose met my warmest approbation. I have known the benefit arising from this in times of great d giveth gifts unto men. Hereby also teresting importance that I trust thou wilt weakness, as well as when the Sun of Righteousness has arisen with healing in his wings. It does appear to me, my dear friend, upon looking seriously into the subject, as if it was who wait upon the Lord, that they shall renew their strength. They shall truly mount edge of the things of God in ourselves, that up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

I know not what thou wilt think of this ligion. Vain will be all reading even of the letter, but my heart has felt full of that on earth, and good will towards all men.' In trivings and suppositions of its meaning, ex- this feeling I must draw towards a conclusion; cept we experience in ourselves those things and once more bid thee God speed on thy

Thy affectionate friend,

W. Scattergood."

"Philada., 8th mo. 17th, 1827. * * I cannot well convey nor present word of life-that which we have seen and to thee, the great variety of solemn, and, to me, deeply interesting feelings which have been and are continually passing in my mind. ver experienced; and though it was self and some of our highly professing people a short season, the terrors of death in a little different point of view than form convey them. * * I know not how these said to have 'compassed me about.' orly. I believe that there are testimonies things may terminate! whether by a right dd convey to thee, my friend, the agony given us to bear; and that in a conscientious abiding under the refining hand of the Most soul at that period, thou wouldst, with conviction of their truth, we are bound to be High a vessel may be prepared for the Master's have trembled at the consideration. faithful in their support. But if while prolast ever known a state of mind in fessing clearer views of Christianity than ready to fear, the work may not be marred every hope, all faith, all vision or reothers, we are found not living up to that prolarge of comfort had departed or was fession of them, greater will be the condenand comfortless, as it were, among the lumber m thy view; if thou hast had the ex-nation of such in the day of final retribution, of the Lord's house, unprofitable and uns sinfulness of sin and the backslidings and greater is the reproach to the Lord's worthy. I feel that I stand upon very awful acuse. I confess I often feel weak and waver-ground; and as though, if ever I needed or ground according in some particulars; and almost wish to dare claim the prayers of the faithful, I might lea of the torrent of feeling that seemed be excused from appearing so much like a fool now do it. Although the all-sustaining Arm strength be.

that in the prosecution of the solemn engage- Italians in that respect -S. S. Times. ment which we have entered upon,* and which involves, as I believe, consequences of the highest importance both to our present and future well being, that we might experience the hand of the Lord to be near, and also a being built upon the everlasting founregard for us.

may be veiled, and our souls plunged into the to the Promised Land.
"We camped in the Very pit of sorrow and conflict." abled at such seasons feelingly to support one a bitter night. The wind blew so that we buy corn. Probably they took the old c another, and strengthen each other in the feared it would blow down our tents, and the route from Syria to Egypt-a journe most holy faith, seems to me, as a very promi. men had to keep a sharp lookout, driving in the need not have taken more time the nent and important feature in our earthly tent-pins to hold them fast. At the same twenty-four days now required for the tempests of time may beat and rage, our The same lime stone surface which reflects the sun by day, radiates the heat rapidly as soon desert travelling, that it brings befor with living virtue from the fountain of all excellency, we shall be prepared to soar above days are very hot, the nights are very cold. For the world does not change on the fore, those sentiments which, from season to under shelter, to keep our blood stiring, the unlike a sheikh who may be seen no whereby we shall be led to trust in Him 'who, thin covering, and such warmth as they snowy beard falling on his breast. He passion is extended to all the workmanship of his hands. It is well remarked by the same and doubt myself, that He continues from and remain thy faithful friend,

(To be continued.)

lessons alond, to an extent that is not seen among the Occidentals, nor enjoyed by an Occidental listener. When there are many together, the babel is astonishing. The idea that it might disturb any one never enters their heads. But the Orientals do many suffering; and feel revived in believing, that things with noise which we of the West pre- when they are placed before us, do no the promise is true to us of the present day for to do with quietness. Our talking seems the exquisite delight of those who e as it was of old: 'As thy day, so shall thy painfully low and still to them, as theirs seems feast beforehand by witnessing its p painfully loud and noisy to us. Yet the Orien- tion. This is one of the things which I have felt very affectionately solicitous, tals are not very much beyond the ordinary keen a zest to gypsy life, and which of the bond of peace. There is nothing short of that their hearts died within them. Forty "As we were getting farther nor this can give any true stability to our love, years! that is more than the lifetime of a gen-country was not so utterly uninh or firmness and comfort in our connexion to eration. In that time old men died, and Now and then we descried in the dist gether. But in this, and under the uniting young men grew old; wives and children party of Bedaween, mounted on their coming towards us at full speed. A literatury Father hath truly joined us to-a trial for the wisdom and the firmness of came up out of the horizon, like ships gether, shall become one flesh; and under this feeling can travel onward through time, with lions of people, who were at times almost come the Midianites! for indeed I s the sweet evidences of His tender care and starving, and often in a state of mutiny! these men of the desert, in race, and corregard for us.

On the Desert. (Continued from page 340.)

THE BEDAWEEN OF THE DESERT.

"In reading the story of their wanderings, ing meal is one prolonged enjoymen dation individually; and so find true unity in we wonder not that they often fainted, and the time the camp-fire is blazing."

Moses himself was sometimes ready to des- as in the beasts they rode, were not very Many and various are the turnings and pair! but he withdrew into the wilderness, like the Midianites who bought Joseph overturnings, the ebbings and flowings, which and alone he knelt upon the rocks or sands, brethren and sold him into Egypt. we have to experience. At seasons we may and cried to Heaven for belp, and then re- also several parties of the Tawarah ti be enabled to partake of the sensible evidences turned, with new courage in his heart, to in-turned turned turned, with new courage in his heart, to in-of our Heavenly Father's love in a remark-spire the faint and strengthen the weak, and able manner; while at others, his presence to lead them on, until at last he brought them bushels. Their appearance was such

Then, although the storms and time the temperature was almost freezing, pace from Sinai to Gaza and back aga time may beat and rage, our The same lime stone surface which reflects the "It is one of the chief pleasures the little trials of mutability, having our We have to wrap ourselves up warmly, pil- and men live now as they lived thouse eyes fixed upon that period when we shall be ing blankets and over-coats upon our camp-years ago. Abraham was a sheikhunited to and centered in the Source from beds, and then are sometimes almost frozen character like the one from whom w whence we sprung. Let us cultivate, there. Yet while it required our utmost efforts, even just parted, but in appearance perha season have been begotten in our hearts, Arabs slept in the open air, with only their then, aged and venerable, with lon our wants attended to, and the camels fed, held his servants is the same which ex of his hands. It is well remarked by the same that the men scatter about, pulling up little day. One of the men that accompane the Almighty Creator for his creatures, far exhibits and brushwood that grow on the from Nukhl was a black who belonged And I believe, however prone to misgiving pile on until the ground is thoroughly careful to explain, but 'a servant bor heated, and they have a glowing bed of coals. house,' and entitled by usage, if not b generation to generation to be the support Meanwhile one of the Arabs pours out of a ten law, to certain privileges, which generation to generation to be the support sack perhaps a peck of meal upon a piece of from the earliest times."

sack perhaps a peck of meal upon a piece of from the earliest times."

coarse cloth, much the worse for wear, and H. M. Field describes the Bedaween With truth and sincerity I again salute adding a little water and salt, kneads it into Sinai Peninsula as a light-hearted, the thee, in a feeling of the most unfeigned love; a dough, which, when of the proper consist-less race, who proved reliable and fait ency, is flattened out like a huge pancake, guides and attendants. looking very much like the chipatties in "The Arab knows the desert as the India. Then the bed of coals is raked open, knows the forest. Indeed he is much The prayer, or praying, of the Orientals is not usually very noisy, but their reading is a continual sound. They study aloud, read going on, observe the faces of the Arabs their sacred books aloud, and rehearse their lessons aloud, to an extent that is not seen their eyes glisten in the firelight. Talk of a sands, or even jagged rocks, is a pair dinner prepared by a French cook; it is nothing dals so thin that I wondered how he to the feast of these children of the desert, to keep them on. Yet thus shod, or ever which they come with appetites sharpened bare feet, he will spring up the rocks by hunger. As I watch them night after goat, or climb to the top of the night, I think how much more they enjoy mountain. It is true he goes in ver their support han we do ours, since they have marching order. His limbs are nake the pleasure of preparing it as well as of eating it. We, who partake of our meals only his bones. In all my acquaintances w folk try to imitate in a poor way by in a picnic. They find that the sam tastes much better when a whole pa sitting on the grass under a tree, the were served on a table. This free o life our Arabs have every day, and thei suppose that of the sons of Jacob t "We camped in the Wady el Arish. It was been when they went down into Eg ^{*} William Scattergood was married to Elizabeth, daughter of John and Ann Comfort, of Solebury, Pennsytvania, on the 13th of Fifth mo. 1828.

"Father, I have been thinking, if I coul dinner table with his family, had these A Wise Choice. A man while sitting

"То give you a better chance," sa good character; second, of good health He made bis choice thoughtfully, fir eaid be "I bave thought of all that," held in general esteem among mankind His father suggested to him that third of a good education.

Presbyterian General Assembly.-At a Religious Items, &c.

Legal Dispute over Masses. A widow

Another thing that startled him w the errors he then believed, was a st corder mentions that O'Connor of the Independent Catholics.-The Episcop

Wasteful Extravagance. — It is said for those who trust in Him.

D. H.

viour, we must, by his assisting grace, carry power, riches and various other thing receive salvation through Him, the only Sa-And if we the will and enabling us to do it. For He works in us, both producing ing out our own salvation with fear and treming the old man with his deeds, and in work- careful, Charley!"

pouring it out to the refreshment of those by, before we can hear the still small voice, that he was entitled to 890 for each m Fountain, how can we be instrumental in quake and the fire, must be witnessed to pass these mastbe celebrant, and received and drunk from the pure and living world, comparable to the whirlwind, the earth-lother priest named Kenny claims that the hungry indititude? And unless we have The Jarring elements of this tempestuous the bands of the Public Administrator can we be availingly instrumental in feeding -the immortal seed-may have a growth, Magnire has since died and his estat unless we ourselves are too me this beavenly the old birth—the sintul nature slain, and hamed Magnire, $16,000 for 160 masses too unselves are too me to the bord, how taken to the condition of her deceased by proceeding from the beareally Fountain. But clay in the bands of the potter. We must have O'Hara, of Brooklyn, gave to a Catholic drinking of the pure river of the water of life heart, so as to soften it and make it as pliable midst of the Paradise of God. And also of and flow over the bardness of his obdurate unsupplied. coming over all the sintul fallen nature, we the Spirit of God. It is beyond the power of 1872 to 1882 there was an average in to overcome also. And as we witness an over- the chings of God knoweth no man but by sors, teachers and foreign missionaries. stead of on man, He will give them strength only to the new-born babes in Christ. For "pastors," even including in the list, Him, and place their dependance there, in-|wise and prudent of this world, and revealed ral hundred more than the whole nun lowers be of good cheer, for as they look to of unregenerate man. They are hid from the that there are 5,744 charches, which is And let, his humble, dependent fol- are placed far beyond the reach of the wisdom the Charch Summary for 1882, which that, we might live to Him. He overcame the saints in light. But these deep things of God ministry." In proof, the speaker refer Lord. He bore the cross for us, and we must into newness of life. Putting on life and im- 5th mo. I'th, in a sermon delivered spore his muster, nor the servant above his glory of the Father, so we also might be raised ing of the delegates to this body, at Sai fect through suffering; and the disciple is not like as He was raised from the dead by the

We may, like Caleb's danghter, have a south read, of bow on one occasion, at the c in the field of offering, and more joytul in the for them, and ever liveth to make interheaven also. That we may be more fruitful that great High Priest who laid down We have need, that as we have respines of water, how can it become fruitful? changed into the body of Chinst, a And whatsoever doth land, where the San of righteousness often tion of a mass, after the water had been pear, so that no flesh shall glory save in the gives us of his power for us to use in crucify- to three wishes; what would they be limbs" are sometimes bealed, and left to ap- are led by Him, we become his sons, and He father, "suppose the allowance be inc Christ Jesus. These "old snags and crooked And as we have a living faith in Him, and are healed it is all of the mercy of God in and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. "old snags and crooked limbs," and if they we witness repentance from dead works, one single wish of mine, what I All bave good qualities, and some of us bave hearts, to the power of God there, unless be as filthy rags, when weighed in the balance, nor of heing turned from darkness to light; dinner table with his family, had these Let us be tender of ministers, and all others, nor from the power that Satan has in our said to him by his son, a had of cleven justify ourselves, or one another, but it will never know of being filled with heavenly food, make manifest is light. and the life in us. that alone which reveals the way, the truth, the salvation of all who receive it. For it is of the kingdom as to make it unfruitful. us, before we can bring others under it—even the deceitfulness of riches, or the lust for for nor up to thinking, and opened his c that gospel which is the power of God unto worldly things, should so choke the good seed set him to thinking, and opened his c and earthy things. We must convertee be conved tures. We have great need to be recently spoke to a large antience are brought nader (no face in the standard of their after proposed, the mandard of their great gespel aronaed and varieties. To be reactioning every mandown. He mentioned, that after while prought in the standard of their first great groups and prayerint, lest the care of this world, been a prices in the Assan Calabate. dency to raise the hearers bigher than earth it was while men slept that the enemy pendent Catholic Church in New Yor earthly fountain; which will have no ten-left. forth that which we receive merely from an to the right hand, and when ye turn to the But we may nader the cloak of religion, hand "this is the may walk ye in it, when ye turn suit to recever the anount. shall have the glorious privilege of eating unregenerate man to stoop so low as to drink in each year of 101 churches; but the a new the was only 70, ear bear the cross for Him. He wore a crown mortality while here below; that we might retiring Moderator, it was stated that the control was threatened, which a famine of the chorns, and why not we? He died for us, he made partakers of the inheritance of the charles raise threatened, which a famine or fainted by the way. Christ was made per-buried with Him in baptism and death, that of the Lamb: not such as sunk under them, in Christ Jesus unto good works. First being their robes and made them white in the blood thus we become new creatures—created anew come out of great tribulation, having washed by the overshadowing power of God. And right place."-Selected. enter the kingdom of heaven. It is those who not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible; and everything else will come along And it is through much tribulation that we witness regeneration. Being born again; all the money that will be of any use was by suffering that his grace was tried as He gives us the power, we must use it until and a good education, I shall be able t cease, on that account, to be a sufferer. It dation of repentance from dead works. But if I have a good conscience, and good nescoth upon you." He was boly; but did not on to perfection; not laying again the foun-"It ye be reproached for the name of Christ, the outward needs of life. But we shall philadelphia, 5th mo. ing life, which the Son of man alone can give. for that meat which endureth unto everlastdaily gathered. We have to receive day by Father in heaven, that He may give us not at the end of the week, and confess the day our daily bread. So let us labor daily, only the nether springs-the blessings of sins over again, with new ones added not fine perspectable. He becought his bearers to come day one for the mean that the upper springs-the blessings of He becought his bearers to some day. the various wiles of the enemy. And this colved "a south land," it should be made more facet, that the persons who came to be active being absolved, would come back in the Lord, and enable him to withstand make bim grow in grace and become strong upper springs and the nether springs." (Jos. inquired, " What had that mouse caten? the heavenly man. Nothing short of that can also springs of water. So be gave her the blood rushed to his face, when the can never satisfy the cravings of an immortal She petitioned to her earthly father, saying, darted ont of a crack in the altar and could. Nothing but heavings of an immortal "thou hast given nea south land, give me it off. He said he could well remembe Earthly pleasures or carnal gratifications, Suidying us avail avail us anything. We may Mustrated Christian Weekly, there is glee, and then turning bis-cyc on the mother, nessed! Our Lord and Saviour is the only was most boisterous in the mirth and festive preserved, and a growth in the truth be wits spe 19A insensible on the floor, and in the group, the one who led the dance and misundorstandings would be settled, the unity grain and the grain and the grain and the grain and the grain all cases, bow many be medicine, be beard a noise as of dissipation. The angel pointed his white hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. If bealth—for, years after, being un-called at her physician's office for excesses, flushed with wine, and presenting a then hast aught against thy brother, go to alled at her physician's office for excesses, flushed with wine, and presenting a then hast aught against thy brother, go to an edicine, and while he was pre-revolting seens of debauchery and worldly him alone and tell him of his fault. If he that she experienced this change to her actonished gaze. There was throng of and it spreads from one to another. This is Well was it swung wide open and revealed the inmates vice will talk about and speak evil of others; her former evil works and to live louched a socret spring. Voiselessly a door ing and detraction. A person given to this s enabled, by the grace of God, to angel paused and with his cibereal fuger How lamentably is this the case in tale bear-Pielded to the heavenly visitation glance behind or saying a word, suddenly the tise it," when the endeavor is an entire failure. ony, and effort to escape, she awaked, closely behind the angel, not knowing whither quiet, and not begin to justify ourselves with, was the effect of the decernie and endeavor to pracon are prepared and to which you and magnificent edifice greeted ber wonder. God. And really, if they are not it is time to unless you change your lies, in grand match which greeted gaze. The door of for us to send sellity in any of the largest species, and see if we are guilty in any of the layest species, and seeged thin cutrance was open. She accended the steps species, and see find an entrance we should be seed to the steps of the steps in the steps of the second of the seed of at was. "The place," said be, " for word of further inquiry. Presently a stately we may see whether they are wrought in She arose and followed her guide without a which brings all our deeds to this light that to the conscience by the Divine healing power "Then follow me," said the heavenly vis-liabors of a truly haptized minister, reaching that unerring evidence that accompanies the "Yes; above all things in the universe, I of instruction and weighing the matter by nesses, instend of resting under the reproof though not to his face, and pick at his weakwith by a minister, they begin to find fault, It is a very trying time to the poor mes-

Philadelphia, 5th mo. 12th 1883.

Religious Views and Tenets. For "The Friend."

In this state of mind, late one night, she duties, remembering their own weaknesses, watch the stepping stones in all their religious mind. No doubt it is necessary for all to of "The Friend," was very consoling to my "Gather up the Fragments" in the 41st No. For " The Friend,"

My heart was relieved of its sorto me it was an apocalypse. I brushed away The dreamer awoke, but awoke from that "There is Martha as she is." voted Christian. She dreamed a man ing and the most constant attention of the pointing to the joyous and happy throng, eam, and who became an exemplary The most assidnous care in the way of nurs-on any face. It was heaven, and the angel, a sense of her condition by a remark- ill, and gradually grew from had to worse, spoulees white, Not a trace of sorrow was te was connected, who had been awak- was verging on womanhood she was taken voices sweetly modulated, and all envobed in ot a member of the congregation with a supreme place in her affections. Just as she beauty, faces radiant with supermel light, e Philadelphia Methodist, within a few tion, gentle in her manners, and withal de- the most resplendent forms she had ever con-m account was published by Joseph votedly attached to her mother, she occupied ceived of in human mold. Brows of lustrous vere repeated twice, and she sunk to though her mother was unconscious of the on golden hinges. Before her enraptured more in the configuration of the confi and my soul is lost for ever! The leen years of age. She was her mother's idol, a secret spring, and the door flew open as if is deneath, the waters, exclaiming in Martha, her eldest child, was a heautiful mind was filled with anxious and painful and despair, the waters, exclaiming in Martha, her eldest child, was a heautiful mind was filled with anxious and painful fam despair, the user of the time referred to, being about four, thought. The angel paused and again to meded She followed with a palpitating heart. Her

"Follow me," said the angel. The door closed.

That is not Martha."

She she would have been." "So you thought," responded the angel in her for God, and for his church, and for heaven. " No, no! that is not Martha! I was raising The mother passionately exclaimed, "There is Martha, behold her."

Instantly she responded, " Would you see Martha?"

to pe walking to and tro, and every light, appeared to ber, and, in a sweet and unfaithful, and when they are plainly dealt nan, wrapped in a large cloak, who beautiful angel, clothed in the habilingents of be acquitted in the Divine sight. Some are yet unconsumed Among them was she related the vision to me, a bright and in which alone the servant of the Lord will who appeared to be in the greatest ber, and sleeping she dreamed. Suddenly, as ness and authority which Truth requires, and She saw several walking amid the while, and then she fell into a profound slum- sengers, to preach the gospel in that plainwhere there was, as it were a sea of shrivelled check. Her sleep was fitful for a rd the most awful groans and lanten-fell asleep, with a few stray tear-drops on her before they go about to heal others.

He then began to descend, she still tears to weep. Her friends exhansted every tracted as before. They went down, device to divert her mind from the painful is though into a deep, dark pit, until subject. It seemed she must waste away said he, "you are not prepared for skeleton. She wept until she had no more She desired him to take her nearer and gradually she wasted away almost to a swered, "The song of the neavenly to take her food, sleep deserted her pillow, and best for her mother." ed ber attendant what the music was broken heart. She lost her apporte, refused lieved, that Martha's death was best for her st enchanting music. She listened, Nothing could allay the bitter anguish of her row, and I now believe, and I have long he The mother was positively inconsolable, my tears.

sofort. They seemed to ascend in the released the wan and wasted sufferer from she said to the writer, "Dream though it was, be began to ascend, and she, as all, the sweet girl was calm, patient and re-dream in unutterable cestasy—she anoke artiracted by a magnet, fool. And in relating this dream artiracted by a magnet, fool. And in relating this dream ne to take her along with bim. Im- came apparent that Martha must die. Amid west white, came to her, and said be The mother was frantic in her grief as it bereable beauty and beavenliness, dress- skilful physician failed to arrest the disease, said, turning his glad eye on the mother, pod watching in breathless agony, I Christian profession by a life of exemplary rope, but it was not long enough; and died at an advanced age, having adorned her or a boat, but no boat was visible. I before she was called away from earth. ions went on, and I saw them all fall of the incident which I now relate. The conderest accents; "but she was your idol. o cliff into the deadly lake. I cried writer received the story from her own the Lond could deny her nothing. That is what well, said, 'Ob, one step more and then '' She was a married woman, and the mother or an back!' She and a group of giddy of four children at the time of the occurrence "She was a married woman, and the mother > and again entreated them to stop as a woman of more than ordinary intellinest entreaty and turned back; others of a very remarkable dream of a woman who is described for a moment and passed on. I wan lived at Petersburg, Va., and who is described al, by John E. Edwards, an accountleaid, minutes she had passed away.

Tighteously and godly. of are, She asked her guide what erson was as though it was a blazing itant. se asked him the cause of his agony, would see her. зи ре сате пеат. When be сате пеат with this man. He told her to ask She asked her guide what was the approached them he gnashed his winning voice, tenderly asked. dew open as they approached, when me to what appeared like a trap door, and die. le distance, she heard in the distance after they had proceeded for a con- the grasp of disease.

the voice of the young ringleader, as picty. the foremost, a young woman whom gence. The writer says:

The phobe bird arouses now Is screaming with discordant note; And pressge longer, warmer days. The blue jay on the sumach bough, The afternoons are warm and still, eee a blue and smoky haze; Along the vale and o'er the hill THE SUGAR MAPLES.

The longing heart with trembling throat,

And greets her train, who wait for her, She casts aside her snowy veil, As, rising from her sepulcher, The bills are peeping through the snow, And buried fences greet the view; On bare, brown knolls, aguaw-berries grow, Or tiny anow-lowers laannt in blue, Or tiny anow-lowers laannt in blue, The fresh, new earth now scents the gale,

And soon the laden buckets tip The steady drip from the wooden lip. To draw the crystal sap away : Xow stands the drowsy team asleep.

White sinks the cruel steel full deep.

That steals the blood of bare brown trees, O transmutation wondrous sweet! Around the kettle's tossing surge; Hale youths attend the sacrifice, And high the flames with fagots urge. Anon the pungent smoke-wreaths rise And waste the nectar rich and rare.

I see again throngh smoky haze The odors rise of early dowers, O vanished youth! O balmy days! Has power those golden grains to seize! And in the crackling flames and heat (Flad faces from the outer gloom, Of boys long silent in the tomb; The fittul camp-fire brings to view I hear again the wild halloo The picture of those fleeting hours;

For "The Fr Or, frozen drifts of earthly life May yield for us a brighter day. Have stored for us some sweets away; It may be that the flames of strife Existence knows not passing hours. Where morning is an endless ring, corever bright with springing flowers, They tell of an eternal spring rushed towards them, crying with a of a broad road which led on to the cl course of people coming up the steep i behind me, I turned and saw a large death lies here. Hearing the sound of heard a voice as it coming up from the While I was admiring its bea of a magnificent clift, overbanging a "I dreamt that I was standing on the strong an effect on her as to make her a week afterwards. She thus described such a dream is related, which produc In the life of Geraldine Hooper of En veying instruction, warning, or comfor them; and have often been a means o impression that a lesson is to be learned in the waking hours which follow, wi in slumber. Such dreams are accom! vision of the night, when the bead is rec that it does please the Almighty Disper tially at rest. Yet there is abundant evi controlling power of reason is wholly o unrestrained operation of the mind who to dreams, which are but the unbalance Some persons pay a superstitious re DREAMS.

Incidents and Reflections,

the lake, death lies there.' Some atten voice, ' Don't go near the lake, don't gr mountain and the garden were witnesses to for whom he would, if necessary, joyfully sufunto God, the Father. The sea shore, the the excellency of the knowledge of that Christ wilderness, passed whole nights in prayer in the beart by the Holy Ghost, and what is ple of our dear Lord who, tempted in the understanding, the love of God shed abroad sider our latter end; to consider the exam-full of glory, the peace of God that passeth eternity. It behoves us to be wise and con-tempts to tell what is the joy unspeakable and occupation, and a continual care arising that mother bursting into tears, replied: "I tried the year led be kept ledse, day after (to kell you my dear, but the words wouldn's day, would pass as ware tolls on ware, till make you understand." Precisely; and so we mere to the createstary and so we we mere borne to the evertacting shores of withat, is it with the Christian when he are adT ""shrift of my own! This being a daily you not tell me it was so beautiful?" The

In for the loss of all things - Baptist Weekly.

this manner should we be prepared to join the his devotion, recorded for our example.

amb, forever and ever. praise, the bonor, and the glory, unto the glass mingled with fire, ascribing all the deemed of Israel, who stand on the sea of hundred and forty-four thousand of the rebrayer I cannot attempt to fully put on paper, work of prayer, thanksgiving and praise. His and my spirit was in unison with his in the My beart was tender, my eyes overflowed, After the sermon he knelt down to pray.

hallelujah! to Thee, and the Lamb for everthy throne; where we may sing hallelujah! rejoice in the assembly of the blessed before demption through Him. Finally, precious and adored Jehovah, give us unitedly to richness, the merey and the magnitude of retop to bottom; and disclose to their view the generation to see thy glory revealed in Christ; show them the veil of the temple rent from Rock for ever. Draw the young and rising grey hairs; but be with them, and be their ed thee for their Lord; leave them not in their who in a long course of life have acknowledg-Strengthen the aged, and those panions. steps be again with the flocks of thy comtrom thy fold of rest and peace; and let their bring home those who are now wandering Father, and to render obedience to thy law; flesh; teach us as little children to call thee these hearts of stone, and give us hearts of tity our hearts more and more; take away rest between the cherubini, redeem and sane-"O, thou celestial Spirit, who of old didst but it was on this wise

'ssauiddra par straight and narrow way that leads to peace for themselves, but to endeavor to keep in the for their portion, and not to seek great things pleaded with all present to choose the Lord There are not many left that beard how be more, amen.

cried out with delight: "Oh, mother, why did ant thing for the eyes to behold the sun," the light is truly sweet, and that it is a pleasindeed, as no words could ever show, "that all the beauty there was around her, realizing them, and for the first time to look out upon was permitted by her kind physician to open when her eyes could bear the light, and she 'nuo siu.r. self, who as yet, had never seen. but more especially to the little patient hersupreme interest and anxiety to all her friends, tially and temporarily removed, was to be re-moved altogether. Ab! what a moment of age, which had from time to time been par-At length the bour arrived when the bandthe wounded parts should be somewhat healed then the eyes were bandaged for awhile, until light from passing through to the retina, and off the integument which had prevented the her to sight. The occulist had skilfully pared gariotser ai betluser that bemyering nothers little blind child who once had a surgreat opof Unspeakable - A good story is told of a

Christ save poor souls at sea! Burn brightly eyery beacon-light Wherever ships may be. —Chambers' Journal.

Ah, me! the wind blows loud to-night,

So still, a woman, heavy-eyed, May wait in hope at home For him whom neither wind nor tide

Went down amid the tempest's roar,

And, as of old, make winds to sleep,

And how she asks that God would keep

Those lines of hers which speak to-day

Some sad-eyed woman dwells remote

These letters, stained and worm— Sad records of some heart that dwells All lonely and forlorn.

For those upon the deep. Kind Saviour Christ, do thou control The waves, and bid them sleep!

Across yon sandy beach,
And close beside a rocky stone,
Out of the billows' reach,
The found, washed up mid weeds and shells,
The cond, washed up mid we week and shells,

Shall help across the foam.

Isol erery soul was lost

Alas! a schooner on our shore,
By stormy billows tossed,

And furious waves be still.

His ressel from all ill,

While on the stormy sea

And how she prays that he May not forget his loving wife

She tells him of her lonely life,

Bore in his faithful breast

An aching heart had she; From the tempestuous sea, And months ago these letters wrote-

week ago, one walked alone

Inos ym nithiw smud yng bus

These comes across the grassy lea

WASHED ASHORE,

Doubt not! joy shall come at last!" If will lead to thy reward.

By thy ills thy faith made stronger,

Mould thy inture by the past—
Hope thou on a little longer!

Moult not! for shall come at last!

His fond eye is watching o'er thee—
His strong arm shall be thy guard—
Duty's path is straight before thee,
I will had to the research

Doubt not! joy shall come at last!

And thy youth be fleeting fast, There'll be time enough for gladness—

Seek not future years to know, But deserve the wished-for blessing, Steadfast still, the right pursuing, Doubt not! joy shall come at last,

When thy steps are faint and weary,
And thy spirit dark with clouds,
Steadfast still in thy well-doing,

- A send forced the page 1 st. 1 st. 1 st.

When the day of life is dreary,
And when gloom thy course enshrouds—

"DOUBT NOT."

Let thy soul forget the past-

Striving still, and onward pressing,

Though each year but bring thee sadness, It will come, though it be slow

Selected.

To-night there is a storm at sea;

The thunder of the shore,

I hear the breakers roar;

Her sailor-husband far away

Of home, and love, and rest.

vbo was blind, and whom he restored times in which men were seeking after truth, lgive me, for I am a poor creature; I have o tought with Richard Cour de Lion; Those times were dark times, yot they were Lord help me for the time to come! for ours a descendant of the great Sain- the truths of the gospel were promilgated And knowing this we should acknowledge, worldly estate. He had had among back their line through generations, his conduct that the answer of peace had lerstand how the consideration of rank worship; and thanked, yea arrogantly thank-

> Beauty scarcely enters into prayer, an aspiration or sigh unto God, was "gard is paid to beauty ?"

be expected from a stranger." ient compensation, where two cantels near friends, a single camel may be name, there am I in the midst. acejtp of bridegroom and the rank of offer an acceptable offering unto the one eter- no room for little bickerings and disputes; no sompensation, which varies according heart was absolutely necessary in order to a sword or a gun. The father ex-it could not; that a previous preparation of pity on me! t man of the tribe applies for the hand less the mind was previously prepared by the gage my mind from them, forced to acknowl.

The concluded that edge that I am a poor creature; Lord, have

d how are these arrangements made?" could be acceptably performed unto God un-thoughts, and, in vain endeavoring to disen-

es not even see the man whom they bings to the authority of her parents. regard to her marriage, being subject abs a maiden has nothing whatever to guoms tadt bentraed be daisde sidt among be a good opportunity to interview with true editorial instinct, that it and was smoking his pipe, it occurred is legs curled under him like a Grand bile he still sat on our outspread rugs se had feasted to his heart's content. to opjection to the quality of our fare lessed with a comfortable appetite, and bim to slight and partake of our re-descent." an invitation which he did not wait to speated. To tell the truth, he seemed

"Jugin yd bilrevee a bng ynight."

(To be continued.) m, "there rode up on his camel an birth. In other cases he had known emirs say. of This only garmients are a cotton eye, and who was yet too poor to buy himself so much so, that, in the strong language of reen, I never saw one that was fat like to sight by removing a cataract from his disposed to try and to question all things;

amongst us, whether in any case worship

, pe peing dead, yet speaketh to us."

The following interesting reminiscence of Gather the Fragments.

For "The Friend."

poor and helpless, occupied with unprofitable neover her face, and see before her ber rested on dis mind since dis silent sitting glass mingled with fre; I feel many times to his tent, and then for the first time opened his discourse with a query, which had I feel, dear friends, that I stand on a sea of pe affair is sectled, when she is carried from, on First-day, 11th mo. 16th, 1823; S. B. safety and strength, I feel my own weakness; bosen for her, or look upon his face Bettle, Sr., in the old Meeting-bouse, at Me- to turn your attention to the alone Rock of The following was delivered by Samuel others, and endeavoring as much as in melies I am engaged in preaching the gospel unto in the presence of his Lord and Master. While followers, denied his knowledge of Him, even may so profit thereby, as to be able to say: ing and instruction, that one of these his to be observed, and I hope some of its readers all, watch." And yet we find for our warnthe practical advice then given is still worthy creatures. "What I say unto you, I say unto Lord's servant, nearly sixty years ago; but them their weakness, as poor, fallen, belpless ing who heard the earnest pleadings of the out devils, was beautifully simple; showing about eighty-free years of age. It is very true, as he states, that there are few remainhad healed the sick, raised the dead, and cast ers, those who in his name had worked miracles, Samuel Bettle, Sr., was sent by a Priend, now language of our Lord to his immediate followmade manifest in the heart of man. уна грв but simple obedience to that light and grace hard doctrinal points were proposed to them, beological reading and controversies; no not necessary that they should be learned in outdone by Oriental nospitality, we his charity on one of such long and proud the light, believe in the Lord Jesus. It was proper respect to such a guest. Not conferred on the giver that he might bestow maketh manifest is light, bring your deeds to ity. Or course we could not be want- of both master and servant, it was an honor lieve in the light, walk in the light, whatever tpese wild tribes an almost unlimited be could not work. To judge from the tone innguige to these was simple; such as -pebronghout the Peninsula, and has the high rank of his master as a reason why fold that they were too superstitious; yet the a red silk tunic, and yet he is held in prefer his request for alms, and who pleaded power was to them unknown; and they were mounced as the Sheikh of all the Beda, mare worth a hundred and fifty pounds! He that there was some Almighty power which the tract come Almighty power which the word sustained the universe, but the our dragoman instandy recognized come around to beg, mounted on a broad known God. They were forced to believe s somewhat commanding appearance, who were regular tramps. One such used to for they had an altar inscribed to the un-Their researches, too, were extensive, their journey, as they were resting royal boase could be more proud of his kingly prompted them to bear what Paul had to blood that flowed in his veins. No scion of a new thing; and it was this curiosity which Mpich sockes the double burbose of a city nor his rags could make him forger the nothing else but hearing or telling some and a sort of overall of coarse hair-a pair of spectacles; and yet neither his poy- Paul, the Athenians passed their time in

He mentioned the simple language in which I was visiting, and drawn into lightness. re proud of their long descent—a been bestowed upon him and received with be, I was at meeting, and my mind very unlike and in the lowest de meekness and humility. -" what was I doing yesterday?" It might This silent introversion might every morning, and thus reviewing the actions ount. The supreme consideration is faccopted as worship; and though many be, subjects upon the minds of all present, more k of her family. The Arabs are very secting temptations bindered us from ap- especially the young and rising generation; How did he press the consideration of these that, when met together, a short mental without distinction. axing the value of a bride, I suppose require great depth in religion to comprehend room for any thing but Divine universal lovo pied when convened together, but it did not give us our trespasses. We should have no Our minds, he said, were variously occu- passes neither will our Heavenly Father formitor be one of the maiden's own relative or three are gathered together in my &c. Our lord has made it a standing conmost the only wealth of the descrit the qualification might be obtained, "Where may it be reverently adopted, "Our frather," money, but in camels, which consti- Redeemer had pointed out the way in which but rather, a prayer for the daily bread; and dition, that if we forgive not men their tresde. The price is generally reckoned, nal and invisible God; and that our blessed room for the lottiness of man's prond heart;

Ab, friends, in such a state as this there is burope. He said the Arab families said he, follow him to his bouse, and see in might occur to the mind, and naturally would stinctions of rank are as marked ness, could only smite on his breast and say, not always be of the most agreeable ki Post assured me that it was so pompous language of pharisated rightcons, confine day. This sheat introversion might stind, attend as marked ness, could only smite on his breast and say, not always be of the most agreeable kind, attended ness, could only smite on his breast and say, not always be of the most agreeable kind, the an aristocracy among beggars, dared to lift up his eyes, and instend of the various temptrations and occurrences of the stand on a common level of poverty, his own weakness and unworthiness, scarcely of rest; and craving his help to meet the nave place among these barelooted of too, that he was not as that poor Publi- of the day which was past; thanking the night hours a of the desert. They all seemed to can, who, standing at a distance, sensible of for his protecting care during the night hours s took me quite by surprise. I could to the Holy and Invisible One, as an act of adopt the practice of drawing near to God Pharisee, who dared to offer his good deeds paring for the last day! He wished all to of their family, and she who can board proaching in the manner we wished, yet the affectionately and tenderly recommending against to the first of her tribe is more. Object of worship regarded the heart—the since good and evrif were set before than she who is only fair to look legify of the desire. He instanced the proud them, to choose the good and thus he pro-ed to the welfare of mankind.

ested in the boldness, independence new inside. igth of editorials, and its enterprise the already fallen to the further on of evil deeds. For " The Friend."

Natural History, Science, &c.

an Earthquakes.—The American Jourcience gives an enumeration of the England, 6 in the Atlantic States. the West Indies and South America. en Paper. - Three factories in the deemer's kingdom. States are said to consume nearly the use of photographers.

olothurians from off the sand or shell ss gelatinous substance were hanging with its principles. tween the meshes. Of course I threw et. Shortly after, I left for Jamaica, the editor of the Expositor has adopted.

Curious Case of Ignition.—One fine morning of news, and not unmindful of ing recently, as two ladies were standing and the disuse of sensational methods in our vingiving currency to matters which together in the drawing-room of a house, terested Christian people, they re-smoke was observed to rise from the dress of great mistake of supposing there was no re-the Press to exclude from their one of them. This was found to be due to ligious activity in our midst. Many of these whether as advertisements or news, ignition by the solar rays focused on her dress would recall to mind the abundant labors in

THE FRIEND.

SIXTH MONTH 9, 1883,

e distributed as follows: 6 in Canada, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting and those indi-Mississippi Valley, 19 on the Pacific or outside of them, who are earnestly laborcation of believers, and the spread of the Re-eggs annually in making albumen statement, by the succeeding editorial of the the Christian religion, and to lead the readers same issue, which speaks of the impression to submit their hearts to the operations of the of the Holothurians.-A writer in made on the editor's mind, while sitting in Spirit of Christ; and other benevolent or reays: These sea-slugs feed by seizing that assembly—"It appeared as if the general ligious movements in which our members are cles of sand, or broken coral or shells, sentiment now is, -that it was well, when employed. ir tentacles and introducing them things were as of old-when there was no month. The shell-sand, gravel and 'silver speech' to break the 'golden silence' bris lying under water within the of Friends' meetings—no singing, no Bibleof the light, are more or less com- reading, no testifying, no Scripture schools, overed with a thin pellicle of micros- no revivals, and very little praying or preach-

"Address" in which it so clearly and strongly and the irritation lasted till bed-time. not that they still claim the name of "Friends," rally melting away; long streams of eyes of others for proceedings at variance spreading among others.

The assumption contained in the sentences y things away, and had a dreadful above quoted,—that those who disapprove of the net clean. I attributed my the revival methods which are now favored the decrease during 5th month $4.890,476, no to the sun, and another day I by many, have no unity with carnest labor. The State Department has been inform a couple comfortably at the bottom "for the conversion of sinners, the sanctificaasket, which is very closely made. tion of believers, and the spread of the Rehour or two I was horrified to find deemer's kingdom,"-is fallacious and incorcamers hanging down from the basket reet. Its truth depends on the false position ame substance. They had literally that there is no other way of laboring effecve I took out a wide-mouthed bottle, ght one home in triumph. Being en our late Yearly Meeting, who were very conat evening I left the Holothurian in scious of the overshadowing presence of the under the treaty of 1866, a portion of the money appro-

New York congregations expended the bottle all night. Next morning the creal Head of the Church, and who went to their ast Easter for flowers. Certainly ture was all there, but he had cleared out the homes refreshed in spirit, and animated with amount of money might have been whole of his inside; his intestinal canal and a renewed zeal to labor in the cause of rerays that would more largely have the beautiful tree-like organ were perfect. ligion. To some who were thus brought into The latter was still alive and waving about feeling, it may seem strange that any who ul Influence of the Press.—At a "minis- in the water in the prettiest way. Altogether were present, and who might reasonably be ting" in Chicago, beld 4th mo. 30th, it was a most interesting sight; but my poor supposed to have had some true religious exton was considered with reference to Holothurian was only a tibe. I did not know perience, should be insensible of that feeling Press. While appreciating ability, at the time that he could grow a complete and influence which were so strikingly apparent to them.

The absence of Bible-reading, and singing, meetings would not cause these to make the ng of an immoral tendency, every-by the lens of a graphoscope which stood on our meetings and families, during the past tean corrupt the minds of youth or the table.—Nature. vious Yearly Meeting; and the evidences that attended of the Lord's power accompanying them-they would remember the labors of our ministers in other quarters; the schools which are conducted, not only for the benefit of our own children, but for the poor of others, In The Gospel Expositor for "May 4th," both white and colored; the Shelter for Colkes felt in America during the year there is a notice of the late Yearly Meeting ored Orphans; the Houses of Industry for mbering 72 in all; of which 13 are of Friends held in Philadelphia, in which the the employment of the industrious poor; the doubtful. These tremors of the editor says: "There can be no unity between sewing societies for the clothing of the needy whether in our midst or in various parts of vidual Friends, either inside of its own borders the South and West; the labors of the Bible Society, of the Tract Association, of the Book 3 in Mexico and Central America, ing for the conversion of sinners, the sanctifi- Committee of the Meeting for Sufferings, and of individual members, in publishing and distributing annually many thousands of tracts Some light is thrown on this extraordinary and books designed to show the doctrines of

It is with some hesitation we refer to these things—we trust in no spirit of self-congratulation; for the servant of the Lord must ever feel that his time, his talents and his earthly possessions belong to his Master, and are to mal and vegetable growths. These ing."

The issuing by the Yearly Meeting of the is a mercy and favor to be employed in the remaining are directed by the stomach. The issuing by the Yearly Meeting of the King immortal, and that the service of the King immortal, and that the they adhere, and form a part of their reaffirmed its adherence to the original print praise does not belong to man. But the oly—the sand itself being voided in ciples of Friends, and bore testimony against charges made against Philadelphia Yearly some modern departures in doctrine and prac- Meeting, seemed to call for some such stateer writer in the same Journal, says tice; as well as the general tone of its proment, lest Friends at a distance might form a sermula two kinds of these animals ceedings, probably satisfied the mind of the mistaken conception of the real condition of med exposed in shallow water. "I editor of the Expositor, that it had not unity things in its midst. It is sailly true that there ment, lest Friends at a distance might form a vade along shore carrying a fishing- with that system of measures with which he are some of its members who are living too nd a landing-net, and one day as my is identified, and by which, we charitably much at ease as respects true religious exeras full, I put a couple into the land hope, he expects to promote the spread of the cise and labor—but there are others who are carry home. As their skins were Redeemer's kingdom. We have no personal laboring for the welfare of Zion, nearly up to rd I thought they would travel well controversy with him or others, and could let the limit of their strength, and to whom nothr bandling, I found my hands smarted them work in their own line of labor, were it ling is more dear than the experience of the Lord's power in their own hearts, and the going home, I found my bolothurians and thus render the Society responsible in the evidence that the Redeemer's kingdom is

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- The national debt, less cash in the Treasury, on 6th mo. 1st was $1,569,189,408, and

The State Department has been informed by tele-raph that the ratification of the treaty between the United States and Corea have been exchanged at the Corean capital

White Wolf, Big Bow and Sun Boy, of the Comanche and Kiowa Indians, have arrived in Washington to confer with the Secretary of the Interior in regard to pieces again, and spoilt everything in tively in the cause of religion than that which of the Chrokees, is in Washington to confer with Section 1. Shortly after, I left for Jamaica, the editor of the Expositor has adopted. retary Teller in regard to the $300,000 appropriated by Congress to pay for lands ceded to the Government in the Indian Territory. The Department holds that, priated should be paid to the Shawnees and Delawares, arrived and sold at the different yards at 9\frac{3}{4} a 10\frac{1}{2} cts. the Imperial colors. It was in consequent and that the colored freedmen living among the In- per lb., as to condition. that illuminations were prohibited in St. I dians are also entitled to a share. The Cherokees con-tend, however, that they have the exclusive right to determine how the money shall be divided, and Bushy head will support their claim.

several others are missing.

On the 29th of last month, the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company took possession of the railroads, leased lines, ferries, real estate, property, plant, traffic and business of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, under a lease and contract.

The members of the Amalgamated Association Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia, with their families, making in all 12,000 persons, celebrated the settlement of the wages question on Seventh-day by a pic-nic, at Beaver, thirty miles west of Pittsburg. There was no speech making.

Rhode Island has adopted a State flag, and it was hoisted on the State House for the first time on Thirdday last at the assembling of the Legislature. It consists of a clear blue ground, on which are a golden anchor and 13 golden stars,

The spread of Mormonism in portions of North Carolina is causing much excitement among the people. In Gaston and Rutherford counties, 17 missionaries are engaged in the work of proselytism, and have made 37 converts within a short time, 15 of whom have gone to Utah.

Water works, with a capacity of 4,000,000 gallons per day, have been completed at Knoxville, Tennessee at a cost of $150,000. On the 30th ult. water was turned into the mains with imposing ceremonies. There are twelve miles of mains. Next night the bottom of one The latter are expected to reach Tonquin about the of the reservoirs dropped out, emptying in five minutes, 10th of Seventh month. four hundred thousand gallons of water into a cave beneath. The existence of the cave was not previously known. The remaining reservoir is not damaged. The Capital Commission of Dakota met in Fargo, on Seventh-day last, and selected Bismarck as the capital of the Territory.

The greatest rain storm ever seen in Western Iowa, visited Conneil Bluffs on Fifth-day night, last week, visited Council Bluis on Fitth-day night, last week, to the zzu of beventu month, an insect exhibition and flooded Indian creek, which flows through part of ganised by the Central Society of Agriculture and Inthe city. Bridges and dwellings were swept away—sectology. It will include (1) useful insects; (2) their the number of buildings wrecked is estimated at 75—products in the raw state and in the first transformathe city. Bridges and dwellings were swept away— the number of buildings wrecked is estimated at 75— but no lives were lost. The loss on property is estimated at $500,000.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 340, which was 34 less than during the previous week, and 13 less than during the same period last year. Of the Cotton.—There was very little movement, but prices a pretext for effecting her immense projects, the last were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at step in which will be the conquest of British India." 11½ a 11½ cts. for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.-Standard white, 74 a 77 cts. for export,

and $8\frac{3}{4}$ a $8\frac{7}{8}$ cts. per gallon for home use.

skeady at $5.79 a $5.59.

Grain.—Wheat is quiet, but firmer. Sales of 4700 bushels red, in car lots, at $1.12 a $1.26. Rye is the last obstacle to the conclusion of a treaty between nominal at 70 a 72 ets. Corn is in fair request and a Spain and Chill has been removed. The Marquis De shade firmer. Sales of 9000 bushels in car lots, at 62 a La Vega de Armijo, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has 663 cts. Oats are quiet but firmer. Sales of 10,000 informed the Senate that he believed the treaty has al-bushels, in car lots, at 47 a 52 cts.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo. 2nd, 1883. — Loads of hay, 383; loads of straw, 42. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 85 Average price during the week—Frime timouny, so to $5 cts, per 100 pounds; mixed, 75 to $5 cts.; straw, 55 a 65 cts, per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were dull and prices were a fraction lower:
3500 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 53

a 7 ets. per lb., as to quality.

Foreign.—Davitt, Healy, M. P., and Quinn, who were sentenced last 2nd month to confinement in Kilmainham Jail for six months for making inflammatory speeches, were released from prison on the 4th instant, speeches, were released from prison on the 4th instant, In a debate on the ensons tariff in A terrible disaster occurred on the afternoon of the 30th ult., at the New York anchorage of the Brooklyn the trials of the Phenix Park murderers, have been duction of the land tax, in order to aid age bridge. The bridge was crowded with people, and a londified that they must indicate the places of the trials of the Phenix Park murderers, have been duction of the land tax, in order to aid age crush occurred at the head of a flight of stairs leading to up to the plank walk of the span between the anchorage and tower. Men, women and children were trampled by the throng and thrown down the steps in a mass. Twelve persons were killed, and 26 injured, while the production of the standard of the production of the tents, which they aid were too greatly of the trials of the Phenix Park murderers, have been duction of the land tax, in order to aid were too greatly the crush to which they wish to be sent. Carey, in reply, I merican competition.

The very persons were killed, and 26 injured, while the production of the standard at Clamber of Deputies, most of the speaker of the trials of the Phenix Park murderers, have been duction of the land tax, in order to aid were too greatly of the trials of the Phenix Park murderers, have been duction of the land tax, in order to aid were too greatly of the trials of the very in reply, I merican competition.

The debate of the custom of the land tax, in order to aid were too greatly of the trials of the trials of the very in reply, I merican competition.

The debate of the units of the peaker of the product of the trials at Clamber and the other interests, which they said were too greatly of the trials at Clamber at Clamber of the trials at Clamber at Clamber of the trials at Clamber at this action that the extradition proceedings in the case of Walsh, Sheridan and Tynan, will be abandoned.

Lord Derby, the British Colonial Secretary, in reply to a deputation, said the Cabinet would defer their decision relative to the annexation of New Guinea to Queensland, until they had received a full report on the matter from the Queensland Government.

The contributions of Peter's Pence have continued to decrease so rapidly during the past few months that an appeal, addressed to all the Bishops, is being prepared by the Pope, urging them to awaken the faithful to the necessity of providing funds for the use of the See.

The Voltaire says that the French commander in Madagascar has been instructed to withdraw his forces from that country only after Queen Ranavalo has recognized the French protectorate specified by the treaties of 1840 and 1841. The Admiral will insist on the right of Frenchmen to own land in Madagascar, and will claim an indemnity of 1,500,000 francs for the cost of the interior provinces. The Government of the expedition.

It is stated that the Hovas have made overtures with in this province alone there are over 2000 a view to coming to an understanding with France.

The Temps estimates the number of troops who are to be sent to Tonquin at once from Cochin China, at 1200. This force, it says, will enable Gen. Bouet, the French Commander, to maintain his position at Hanoi until the arrival of the force to be sent out from France.

The French have bombarded two ports on the northwest coast of Madagascar, causing great destruction of British and other merchandize. The French man-ofwar Forfeit, and the British war sloop Dryad have left war Forieit, and the Dritish was stoop Physical Race and the harbor. The Malagassy authorities are pressing forward their military preparations.

There is to be held in Paris this year, from the 1st to the 22d of Seventh month, an insect exhibition, ortions; (3) apparatus and instruments used in the preparation of these products; (4) injurious insects and the various processes for either counteracting their ravages or for destroying them, and (5) everything that may be died of consumption of the lungs; 18 of senter terms of interest to the sudent of interest to th

At a banquet to Portuguese and Spanish statesmen, given in Madrid on the evening of the 1st instant by the Vice President of the Chamber of Deputies, Castelar Flour is in good demand and firm. Sales of 3000 made a speech in which he advocated a union between barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.50 a $6.50; Spain and Portugal. Viscount Amenginha, a Portu-Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.12; western do. at guese, in reply pointed out the obstacles to a union bestady at $3.75 a $3.85. Rye flour is guese, in reply pointed out the obstacles to a union bestady at $3.75 a $3.85.

ready been signed, and that its conditions are honorable to both countries.

The manifesto issued by the Czar on the day of his coronation has created an unfavorable impression in St. Petersburg. A riot occurred on the evening of the 28th ult., among the crowds of people who had assembled in the streets. The mob assaulted the Director of Police, who was endeavoring to restore order. A detachment of Cossacks was called out and dispersed the rioters, one A detachment Sheep were a fraction lower: 12,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4 a 6‡ ets. per lb., and lambs at 7 a 10½ ets. per lb., as to condition.

Hogs were dull and 4c. per lb. lower: 4300 head within their reach, and tore down and transplered upon the first per lb., as to condition.

Third-day night, last week.

The health of Prince Bismarck has imp he is now able to drive and walk out.

In a debate on the customs tariff in debts of the Empire, those of the Miramon Governments and claims already rejected. mitted by the Mexican and American Mix sion and those for railroad subventions are sion and those for railroad subventions are by the proposed settlement. The Executi-ized to issue bonds bearing three per cent be receivable for Government lands, adju

perty and letters patent, the debt to rema

The details of the settlement involving the cognized are left entirely to the Executive.
In the Argentine Republic there are nov miles of railroads in course of construction. 10,000 navvies, who are nearly all Europea employed on these extensive works, and that in no former period of the history of has there been such feverish activity in the railways. The Roca Government is carryin way policy which will eventually change the country and give immense development of railway in course of construction.

SOCIETY FOR HOME CULTU The Society for Home Culture will ho Annual Public Meeting in Germantown, day, 6th mo. 16th, at 3 P. M., in the Com of the Meeting-house, Main and Coulter str Correspondents, students, and all others i the work of the Society, are invited to atter WATSON W. DEWEES,

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL Until further notice the Stage will be a Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to

WANTED,

An efficient person to assist in household be companion for an invalid. Address Box 666, West Chester P. O., C

Pennsylvania. FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to tes

Latin, and other branches in the Girls' Sch-Application may be made to n may be made to Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonw Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. N Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Sevent

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CH AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pi

John Sharpless, Chester, Pe Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE IN Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Phi Physician and Superintendent-JOHNC. I Applications for the Admission of Patie made to the Superintendent, or to any of of Managers.

DIED, at her residence, near Moorest Jersey, on the 6th of 5th month, MARTHA of William Moore, in the 82nd year of her a ber of Chester Monthly Meeting, (N. J.)

—, at Salem, New Jersey, on the 21st of Lætitia Reeve, in the 85th year of her a ber and elder of Salem Monthly Meeting, N

FRIEND. Γ

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SIXTH MONTH 16, 1883.

NO. 45.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

dvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, JOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend." and Memoranda of William Scattergood. (Continued from page 346.)

E. Comfort.

"Wilmington, Del., 9th mo. 2d, 1827. thfulness in little things, yet it is diffien to persuade others and particularly sion I cial observers, that this can be the case rest." there is some effect produced which is s to our natural senses. I do feel very of laying too great stress upon my own cannot dissipate without doing violence to paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid my best judgment. Well, pray for me, that I may be humbly devoted and wholly dediportant concerns are dependent upon answer those who sincerely ery unto and wait righteousness, which fadeth not away. **

this upon Him from day to day. In this conclusion with the state of the state

To Sarah Hillman.

"10th mo. 20th, 1827.

* * * I think thou wilt understand and , or attributing them to a higher mo-believe me when I say, that in considering in that of my own begetting; yet when the deep conflicts, the humbling baptisms and in myself a constraining influence afflictions, which those who are called upon while it contradicts my own private publicly to proclaim the day of the Lord have of things and my own inclinations, to endure, both on their own account that draws to the performance of any ser-d makes it manifestly my duty, feeling for the wine of the kingdom and fit for the same time those strong consolations Masters use, and also on account of a back-abound to the soul when in the Divine sliding and perverse generation.—I say I lowing in and covering with the spirit think thou wilt believe me if I tell thee that lication and deep humiliation, I cannot I would gladly withdraw from partaking in remain unmoved amid all time, and finally, through and from above. But oh! I write vail and labor and trial which to these abound. said from about 1 where the said responsibility, in view of the awful responsitionally, in view of the awful responsitional trial and motivation and trial which delivering it involves. What solemn professions may own soul, and being made willing at seasors. What prospects open! Indeed, sons, and indeed desirous of promoting the times I have viewed the subject, and cause of my dear Redeemer, who hath defended the subject, and cause of my dear Redeemer, who hath defended the subject, and cause of my dear Redeemer, who hath defended the subject, and the subject and the s oked at the profession I am making, I livered me out of much adversity, I dare not intended to call upon them soon after their een ready to shudder at myself, and to for a moment entertain the thought of fleeing arrival, but I really felt so poor and worth n this be reality? I think there are from these things; but rather to desire that less and unworthy of their notice, that I he can be aware of the state of my I may be purged from the dross and tim of and was afraid to go to their place of tarriance and when looking myself into it, and transgression, and in this way be more and lest I should not be a desirable visitor. But more prepared rightly and with clean hands on Second-day morning, having business down pened before me, and the pressure of the compass and to offer acceptable sacrifices town, I made J. Paul's† in my way; though which seems to lie continually upon upon the altar of the Most High. O, for the I did not know when I had felt so destitute careely know what to say. I am not accomplishment of this, how have my prayers of everything like good as upon that occasion. holy. I do not feel sorrowful, except and tears been poured out of latter time with poor and stripped Society comes in It is not dullness; but it is a feeling How have the secret pollutions of my own tender solicitude on my account, which she llness and solemnity which covers my heart been laid open before me! and how have the other heart been been different between the continues settles in my countenance. I had mournfully to deplore the infirmity and too late. Their tenderness to me affected to which I have found there! Farebeen up (that is as regards selfish attachiesel). Remember me in thy approaches to some conversation, we had a religious opand like a sojourner to remain ready and like a sojourner to remain ready the heavenly vocation.

If what freedom do I speak! but indeed, it friend, what else could I say? These subjects upon which my meditations y and night; and they are such as I

"Philadelphia, 3d mo. 13th, 1828. * * * * I think I shall not be unsafe cated to Him who gave me life and being, in saying, that there remains to be an anchor who has manifested himself to me in the to the soul, both sure and steadfast, in the powerful visitations of his love, and whose hope that does prevail that I shall one day tender mercies are over all the workmanship see the salvation of God. My prayers and of his hands. Pray too that I may be pre- tears are poured out day by day for preservaserved from the delusive manifestations of tion; and that if I am at all favored to come him who is the prince of the power of the air, up out of this sorrowful condition, and to witand who is ever ready to devour and destroy. ness an establishment in that which is eternal, O! I think I have truly desired that in all my it may be with added stones of memorial to steppings along I might be preserved from the everlasting loving-kindness of the great the snares of this father of lies; he is laying Shepherd of the sheep. If these seasons, wait for us every moment, and unless we are wherein faith and patience are tried to the steadily concerned to have our habitation in very uttermost, prove but a preparation for the Rock of ages, great is our danger; great an exceeding and eternal weight of glory, I dear friend,—(After allusion to some is my danger if once the heavenly habitation pray that I may be enabled to hold out to the ng crosses and exercises which seemed its left. Well, my soul is humbled in believing end, so as in the close of life to say: 'I have then of duty, W. S. thus proceeds:) that the everlasting Helper of his people is lought a good fight, I have kept the faith; ever me may be persuaded that high still near them, and that He does hear and beneeforth there is laid up for me a crown of

> And now I may affectionately sion I sometimes find consolation, peace, and bid thee farewell; and although my mind is brought very low at seasons, which I have endeavored to give thee some idea of, even the kind of food I subsist upon, yet at this moment, as well as at some other times, when I remember the days at the right hand of the Most High, I can reverently acknowledge his mercy; and, in the sensible feeling of it, desire to commit and recommend thee with my own soul to his blessed care and keeping. There is surely in the great Creator of all, mercy and forgiveness to be found; and if we can but lay hold by faith on this, I sometimes believe there is no moving the soul thus established from its anchorage; but that it will remain unmoved amid all the tempests of time, and finally, through exceeding mercy, extensive in its influence is Divine love ! Christian. A sad circumstance, of which the when the weather keeps them in t What an inexhaustible fountain! How pure following is a brief abstract, is there related. I observe that they play for small is that which is opened in the blessed and "The parents of an only child, being sinmoney, so very small as not to ms holy Redeemer, who died for us and rose ecrely desirous of keeping him from the congardation of the congruence know more of this beavenly substance which their home the same amusements he might one another's houses, are in the hab nourishes up the soul unto everlasting life, have had outside, and to join with him in fing for 'favors,' trifling articles with and whereby we have good hope through faith them. Card-playing, of all amusements was freely give and take in other social in Him. O, I have panted after Him; my soul his choice, and being fully indulged in this to has and does pant and thirst after God, after the extent that nearly every evening was My children and their young friends the living God; and in many seasons when I given up to it, the Bible was necessarily neling for 'favors' now while I am w have felt my distance from Him, the plaintive gleeted, and, indeed, almost forgotten. The am very anxious about it; they hav language has arisen from my heart in grouns lad became quite expert at all games, and so much wiser than their parents, i that could not be uttered.

of a willingness to go down into the valley of was about fifteen years old, the mother's com- way; and what I say seems to be c Achor, and to pass under the operation of the pany was forsaken for the gambling saloon, Do you think it is right? Will i fire and the sword of the Lord's Spirit, that and her property was taken by him and much to ask you to give your opinion we may become fit for members of the squandered. Finally, straying into a saloon of your letters?" spiritual household, who shall show forth the when he had obtained almost her last dollar, The editor says, in reply, that the praises of Him who hath called us out of he laid the money upon the gaming table with of indulging in games of chance of darkness into his marvellous light; and who the words, 'My money or death.' The game lowing to the forfeit, irrespective if we hold fast to the end will make us par- was played and lost; then, with a look of de- whether it be a "favor" or a forti takers of an inheritance incorruptible and spair he raised his band, struck his opponent that he is convinced that nine instr undefiled and which fadeth not away.

foregoing, is intended for the next No.)

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend," Concerning Household Games and Gambling.

reaching home from my place of business, I distressed mother, who sat by his side supmy part," he says, "but I think ca became spectator—or, rather, auditor—of a ported by some friends, he desired not to use little game of my children, which was one the language of reproach, knowing her thind other device of the Evil One to temp entirely new to me. There was involved in and loving heart, yet, that other fathers and their ruin." If we include Moha it, as the most conspicuous feature, the fre-mothers might take warning, he judged it his and Buddhists in the eategory, I t quent repetition of four words, the use of duty to refer to that mistaken lenity which estimate of the above writer is pro which seemed quite devoid of the element of had fostered the desire to indulge in card-accordance with the truth.

good sense or of any sense, and only calculated playing and other games, which had made There is more of turpitude in the to fill a child's brain with a meaningless and easy the way to the gambling-saloon, and had of him who is a well-dressed patry profitless iteration. My fear as to the in- now brought him to the unenviable place "bucket-shops," or who frequents t juriously-persistent effect of this exercise was where they now saw him. The convicting exchange with speculative intent, quickly and curiously verified; for, as I was and heart-changing power of the Spirit had taches to the ragged penny-pitching dressing the following morning, my little boy worked powerfully with him while in prison of eight, suddenly awaking, sprang quickly and it was believed that, in God's merciful opportunities to follow the right, he out of bed, and began to repeat the four words providence, he died not without hope." of the game as though he had left off saying childish entertainments, we may not be for-cards. Over them I have murdered time and will be checked. The writer has fr getful of the endeavor to aid the little ones to lost heaven." order their conversation aright. It was said An anxious mother, not long ago, wrote exposed class of our great city's poof Elizabeth Fry, I think, that from the time the following letter relating to Gambling in inveterate patronizers of low thea of her seventeenth year, her first waking the Parlor," to Dr. Prime, editor of the New music-halls as so many of them are, a thoughts were invariably directed toward the York Observer: Father of lights,—a beautiful and convincing "While 1 am writing, the children, with of that which simply stimulates to proof, we may say, of the being of a Creator, two or three of their young friends, are at license and crime. Inquiry of the and of the immortality of the soul of the creal play in the parlor. The word play does not Police elicited the statement that the ture. It were not well, therefore, to bind mean what it did when I was in my teens, as this class are frequently arrested—th foolishness in the heart of the child, and to so my children are now. Nor will I undertake or half-a-dozen at a time—for indulg saturate his mind with words without mean-to-say that the plays of my younger days were gaming propensities, but, after a sho ing, as that his first thought of the morning more innocent and less dangerous than those tion in the station-bouse lock-up, will assuredly not be one which shall wing its now enjoyed by young people. I was brought usually dismissed with a sharp re way upward.

tain locality, several summers ago, I was intimately with gambling. If every one play-alive to the need of constant parenta much edified by the remarks of the farmer-ing eards was not actually gambling, it was in our own families and neighborh driver, a Primitive Methodist or Wesleyan supposed to lead to it, and if boys and girls wisely in encouraging the employments.

portunity together alone; which I hope thank-elder, upon the subject of children's games,—became fond of the game, there v fully to remember. The stream of gospel a careful scrutiny or oversight of which, by reason to fear they would fall into love drew her into the expression of near and the parents or care-takers, he believed to be by and by. But now it is comm tender sympathy and unity with me in a way of the utmost importance. His remarks were card-playing among the amusement of which I cannot but think myself utterly afresh brought to mind upon reading an ar-levening in the best families. At unworthy. How precious, how enlivening, and how that excellent family paper, The (Boston) good people, play cards all day long,

at could not be uttered.

soon had a reputation for skill and quickness are sure there is no barm in it. The May both of us experience more and more of thought. His father dying when the boy that the children of ministers play in violently upon the temple, and killed him in- of ten--perhaps nineteen out of tw (The letter of Ann Jones, referred to in the stantly. Being arrested, tried, and condemned wrong doing by clerks, bank-tellers a to death, he requested the privilege of meet- iers, treasurers, speculators, and oth ing the young men of the place and all his be traceable to the first step of a game acquaintances, to whom he earnestly and played for a mere trifle,-perhaps se pathetically spoke upon the peril of learning the barn or up in the attic, hiding amusements that could be turned into tools rents who, they know, would forbid One evening, several months ago, after for the devil's work. To his pale and greatly time. "It may be a total misappreh them but a minute before.

mony of Dr. Holland: "I have this moment lieve or hope that the street Arabs' whe are not to look for old heads on young ringing in my ears the dying injunction of my ventures for a cent or a dime, played shoulders; yet, even in the choice of their father's early friend, 'keep your son from streets night the newspaper publication."

up to regard the game of cards with decided A query has hence often arisen wit When being driven to a station in a moun-laversion, as always associated more or less to whether those of us who are me

Accordant with the foregoing is the testi-disturbed by the law, it would be ve felt a sympathy for this degraded and they are able to read, partaking so g hat it should impose such limitations as om The Annual Monitor we condense the ng account of this dear friend-who, personally unknown, was a valued condent of the Editor. His letters d not only religious feeling, but also a ess of judgment, and a correct apprecia-the condition of things in our Society the character of the influences opero lead away from the original principles nds.—ED.] ged 66 years.

Richard Hall.

etained a lively interest. From this nothing, as He may think meet.' ill a few months before his decease, er date Fifth mo. 3d, 1835, his journal the source from whence they were derived. s: "I am twenty years of age to-day.

days of our lives."

ion of his light and love."

overed from responsible guardianship, as safely say it is the chief concern of my mind, failed her for the last twelve hours, except to see of the newshoy and boot-black. The and my desires are fervent at times to be produced in the confort to me, and an imperative, and the lowly avo-sight, yet the weakness and frailty of human R. and M. Hall were soon called unon to to expect of a State aiming to be Chris-follower of a meek and crucified Redeemer."

He was a diligent attender of all our meet-, place, and manner of carrying on or lings, and reverent in waiting on the Lord with our dear children, but it is our earnest pating in the business, by minors, as therein; and humble as were his views of him desire to submit with quiet resignation to the relieve it from some of the perils which self, he became qualified for service in the will of our Heavenly Father, who, we know, tround it.

J. W. L. | Church in no common degree. He often redoes all things well. We cannot doubt but in London, giving up his time freely to the trials and temptations. And in depriving us service of truth.

as overseer, in reference to which be writes: we, their parents and near connections, should helped to discharge my various duties in the on heavenly treasure, and submit to this as a dwell in his fear."

First month 4th, 1858.—In reference to the teresting meeting, though there is at present the covering of his mind is evinced by the vas an Elder, residing at Wigton, Cum-much to discourage. Our friend - was following entry :d, Eng., and deceased 17th of 10th mo. largely drawn out in the language of earnest was born at Alston, on the 3d of 5th mo. seemed animated with a hopeful feeling that the world, and be perhaps even more than At about the age of nine years he was if faithfulness was abode in, a revival would formerly exposed to its many temptations and wigton School, to which institution by take place amongst us, and a bright day snares, has been cause of no small anxiety to be and mother shortly followed, and succeed. How ardently I desire this. May us, his parents. We feel our inability to contend to the fallen nature in our children, or others from 1826 to 1829. Many have been the be called for at my hands, although I often over whom we wish to exert an influence, onies to their great kindness to those feel so utterly weak as if nothing could be unless the All-powerful One is pleased to work their care, and to the deep concern for expected from me: yet there is no lack of on their hearts by his convincing and con-welfare which they manifested. On strength with Him who ought to rule and verting power, giving them to feel their oblithe institution they settled at Waver- reign in our hearts. May I wait reverently gations to Him as well as to their earthly out a mile from the school, in which for his help, and be willing to be anything, or parents, and enduing them with ability to It is believed that the desire above recorded with our dear -

only the same interest in the school, lively exercise on behalf of his friends and being willing to own Christ before men. o a most active service in various ways the Society of which he was a member, and benefit of the institution, of which he when utterance was given, his communical ance at our Quarterly Meeting was larger reasurer for many years, his Christian tions in the line of the ministry, though brief, than sometimes (for mid-winter), and towards and help being much valued by those were accompanied with much solemnity; their the conclusion I thought we were favored

I have been preserved in great mea-year. "It is with deeply sorrowful feelings guidance. specially for the last six or seven years, I now record the departure of our dearly. In the some portion of divine enjoyment which sufferings with great meekness and patient his health. cise I might have been made partaker resignation which was very teaching to us — In the Third month, 1880, he was appointed ut if it be the will of God that I should all. A sweet feeling always surrounded her a member of a Committee of Holm Monthly tother year, I bumbly desire that I may as a heavenly atmosphere. Her desires were Meeting, to visit its members and attenders. t more watchful, and dependent on his evidently fixed on celestial things, faithfully After entering on the service, he says:leadings and instructions, whether it obeying and yielding her heart to the mould-nquished; yet it ought not to be too and earnest watch, as becomes the humble son dying the following month. In reference to this be writes (Fifth month 20th):-

"It is a very great trial to us thus to part presented his Quarterly Meeting at the Yearly it is in his great mercy that He is gathering Meeting, and in the various conferences held home these dear lambs, secure from all future of those whom we so tenderly love, I reverent-In 1856 he was appointed an elder as well by trust it is the Lord's gracious design that Oh, how I desire and crave that I may be beneeforth place our thoughts and affections wisdom which is of God, and be enabled to refining discipline; believing that it is not in anger that He thus deals with us."

That a deep, earnest wrestling after heaven-Quarterly Meeting, he writes: "It was an in- ly good for his children and others was often

"Tenth month 16th, 1871 .- Our dear son exhortation to individual faithfulness. He thus leaving the parental roof to mingle with serve Him faithfully. May this be the case -, he being preserved from d Hall resided at Waverton, and kept was answered. He was often introduced into evil on the right hand and on the left, and "Twelfth month 21st, 1871.—The attendheart-tendering effect on the hearers evincing with the solemnizing influence of Divine Power. Oh, how precious is this tendering, Fourth month 22nd, 1865.-R. H. records solemnizing influence; and how thankful we may very aptly say, 'few and evil have the decease of his eldest daughter, a young ought to be when favored therewith; and he days of the years of my life.' For woman of great promise, who died in her 24th how careful to walk consistently with its

In the Twelfth month, 1879, having for any of the evils so extensively prevail loved daughter Ann, after a tedious and at more than twelve months been afflicted with ong men in our days, and have endeav-times very painful illness, during the changes shortness of breath, he was advised to try a o keep my conscience clear of offence of which the tendency was greatly towards short residence at a locality at a high eleva-sight of God and man, walking before increased weakness and prostration. * * The tion above the sea. With this view, Richard 1 sincerity and uprightness, yet I find dear creature was, on Fourth-day evening and Mary Hall spent some weeks at Alston. ant cause for sorrow and deep contri-last, about eight o'clock, gently liberated from This visit to the home of his childhood was rafrequent neglect of a close and dili-further trial and suffering, and feel asleep in very interesting and pleasant to him, though watch being kept, thereby, perhaps, Christ her gracious Saviour. She bore her not productive of permanent improvement in "The duty imposed upon us by the meetthrough a state of deep probation and ing, transforming operation of Divine grace, ing feels exceedingly weighty to myself, and, sement, or the more encouraging disso that a comfortable assurance is vouchsafed I think, to some others. May we be preserved us, in great mercy, that an entrance is granted in faithfulness to what we may be entrusted 838 Richard Hall was married to Mary her into the realms of eternal bliss, evermore with as the Divine requiring, and be rightly mson, of Allonby. In reference to this, to be with her Lord and Saviour, and in the restrained from offering anything in our own s, "The earnest prayer of my heart is company of purified spirits, blessing and prais-e may be preserved to walk in his fear ing his ever excellent name. She has been be concerned honestly to examine ourselves, an excellent example in our family, and her and see whether in all things we walk coneference to the opening year, he writes memory will be long cherished with loving sistently with our high profession."

and constant practical support, and he was Trouble would come at once; the troops would much interested in disseminating its prin- be called upon to aid the cause of civilization, ciples amongst his neighbors. The cause and and to save our countrymen from savage foes principles of peace were also dear to him. In war would follow, and after the customary upholding his testimony against all war, he expenditure of money and blood we should felt it right to refuse payment of the addition to the income-tax, made to defray the expenses him and his most bitter warriors to the Dry of the Abyssinian war.

Though thus faithful in practice, no one could be more deeply sensible of his own unling who once owned ore of almost boundless worthiness. He felt that he had been forgiven wealth. Instead of looking upon this last as much, and therefore he loved much. A minute the source of support for the Indians, and a of his Monthy Meeting testifies of him that, prospective means of filling their country "With simplicity and deep humility he strove with everything that would attract them to to serve and honor the Lord, both in the excivilized life, it has hitherto been made to ercise of his office as an elder, and in the illustrate the Scriptural paradox that from discharge of the daily duties of life. He was him that hath not shall be taken away even through Divine grace an example to the flock that which he hath.—N. Y. Sun. of watchfulness in conduct and conversation, and of firm allegiance to the cause of Truth.'

The close of his life came on gradually though his strength failed rapidly towards the last. Feeling his end approaching he gave a message of "love to all Friends far and London and Blitburgh, and returned to the quiet and the control of the though his strength failed rapidly towards near." He frequently advised his children to seclusion of the Scottish moors. live in "the fear of the Lord, which is as a Thou too hast travelled, little fluttering thingfountain of life, preserving from the snares of Hast seen the world, and now thy weary wing death." On being asked if he felt that he death." On being asked if he felt that he was accepted, he said, "Yes; unworthy as I am, by the merey of God through Christ Jesus." He also said, "I have endeavored to love the Lord with all my heart, with all my strength." His voice gradually failed, and off all the varied seens that met thine eye—after bidding his wife and children, separately, of all the spats for building 'neath the sky—"Farewell!" he passed most peacefully away.

To choose the waste. sonl, with all my mind, and with all my

Red Cloud's Gold Mine .- Only the other day Red Cloud, once the terror of the frontier, sent word to Washington that he had found a gold mine on his reservation, and did not Thou knowest it not. Of all God's creatures, man wish to be disturbed for ten years in workin Indian policy were Red Cloud really allowed to work his gold mine in peace. That his tribe holds its reserve by a title as sound as any estate in fee simple in the city of New York can hardly be questioned. But the practice of our country has been that, whenever the land of Indians is found to be specially covetable, by coaxing or coercion it must be transferred to white men. As this has been the experience of the Sionx, no less than of other tribes, Red Cloud feels it to be necessary to formally request to be let alone. Only a year or two ago about a million acres were taken from the Utes, because the land was valuable for agriculture; but when a vein of precious metal is found on a reservation, nobody waits for negotiation to get rid of the Indian owners, but there is a general rush of With little ones all in good time be blest. prospectors and diggers upon territory which the Government has solemnly pledged its word to keep free from invasion. No power has ever been able, under such circumstances, to keep the red men from being driven out. Red men have hitherto had no rights in gold mines which whites felt bound to respect.

The last Sioux war arose out of the intrusion of gold hunters into the Black Hills, and the origin of Chief Joseph's war can be traced back to the removal of the Nez Perces from their homes because gold was found on their lands. The course sanctioned by precedent would therefore be for prospectors to rush upon the Ogallala reservation, in consequence

The temperance movement had his ready of Red Cloud's perilously frank announcement. get Red Cloud's gold mine, and, perhaps, send Tortugas.

As it is now, Indians may be found starv-

TO A SWALLOW BUILDING UNDER OUR EAVES.

But much, my little bird, couldst thou but tell, I'd give to know why here thou lik'st so well To build thy nest.

For thou hast passed fair places in thy flight: A world lay all beneath thee where to light;

Did fortune try thee? was thy little purse Perchance run low, and thou, afraid of worse, Felt here secure?

Alone is poor! ing it.
Yet it would be an extraordinary change What was it, then? some mystic turn of thought, Caught under German caves, and hither brought,

Marring thine eye For the world's loveliness, till thou art grown A sober thing that dost but mope and moan, Not knowing why?

Nay, if thy mind be sound, I need not ask, Since here I see thee working at thy task With wing and beak.

A well-laid scheme doth that small head contain, At which thou workest, brave bird, with might and

Nor more need'st seek,

In trnth, I rather take it thou hast got By instinct wise much sense about thy lot, And hast small care Whether an Eden or a desert be Thy home, so thou remain'st alive, and free To skim the air.

I love thee much; For well thou managest that life of thine, While I! oh, ask not what I do with mine! Would I were such.

"To the sunny soul that is full of hope, And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth The grass is green and the flowers are bright, Though the winter storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,

And to keep the eyes still lifted; For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through When the ominous clouds are rifted.

There was never a night without a day, Or an evening without a morning And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes, Is the hour before the dawning." CALLING THE SPRING FLOWE The sun looked forth one day in sprin

When merry winds were blowing, And shouted, "Winter, haste away! Soft streams, begin your flowing.

"Lift up, lift up, fair flowers, your he Each in your destined order; In forest aisles, in garden beds, In meadow, lane, and border," Beneath the dead leaves of the past,

Under the snows departing, A stir began. O, glad and fast The listening flowers were starting. Anemone and Liverwort Rose in their woody places With soft, white mantles on their hea Veiling their tender faces. Arbutus, "hest beloved of spring,' Shook off her snowy cover, And laughed to hear red robin sing— The brisk, courageous rover!

She spread her waxen garments wide, And touched with fragrant fingers Meek Violet, sleeping near her side, "My dove-eyed sister lingers."

Blood-root, with pallid cheeks, arose, And Star-flower, pure and tender, Shone out from cool, damp shelters, w Soon bloomed Wood-sorrel slender.

Then yellow Cowslip hasted on, With tufts of wholesome bitter: And golden King-cup marched along, Rank after rank a glitter.

But first came laughing Dandelion, Arcturus of the meadow; Till suddenly his golden plumes Changed to a wingéd shadow.

Sweet Violet awoke and smiled, With Innocent beside her; Waiting for Wildrose, fair as wild, For Violet must guide her. -Journal of Co

On the Desert.

(Continued from page 347.) ARAB LAW-CONVENT OF ST. CATH

"I was curious to know about the Government, of which the sheikh cou by authority. It is patriarchal, just been from the earliest times, and pas sire to son through many generation friend who was sitting before us cou his line for hundreds of years. His had come down from former generati from him would pass to his deseenda

"But how about the administra justice in a country where there is no least no written code, no lawyers or men of the jury, and even no prison of execution? Yet there must be so of rude justice, or society could no The sheikh explained that in offences property, one who steals from anoth restore not only the amount, but me If the thief runs away, the man whom robbed need not trouble himself, for only to levy on his nearest relations body belonging to the family will may seize the property of a brother or who in turn must look after his rasea This is better than all the law world against stealing, at least all law could be administered against the A the desert, for it enlists the family which is stronger than the sense of ri wrong, or even the fear of individual ment. A man who commits a theft nore than three thousand years ago; e lex talionis-blood for blood, life for leet of which would be a disgrace. If is in civilized countries.

rderer ran away, then the slaver need ill the murderer's brother, or his most valuable copies of the Bible that is I believe the license of revenge does known to exist. per go than to this degree of relation-ige is satisfied. One life has paid for it. In this confined space the monks have of crime."

tion on his whole household, who must fortunate that they had not cheated us still the fortress. Entrance farther is obtained the escapes, while in any case his act they acted after their kind. They might Cairo, which we had brought with us, and to offences against the person, there is have asked us a hundred pounds too much in sent by an attendant to the Prior of the Con-id and inexorable law—a law older stead of thirty—or five hundred, for that vent. The walls are seven feet thick, quite oman law, for Moses found it on the matter-and we could not have helped our sufficient to resist any attack but that of selves."

ve questioned the sheikh very closely are much more given to robbing, and making harrow that it admits but one person at a rd to the blood feud, of which we had marauding excursions into the territory of time. The door which shuts this entrance is so much. He answered without any other tribes, than the more gentle Bedaweens like the door of a prison, of massive oak, , that by the immemorial laws of the of Sinai. Field and his companions had a barred and spiked with iron. if one of the tribe killed another, the narrow escape from being stripped owing to of the murdered man could take the their imprudence in going too far in advance of o his own hands, and kill the mur- the company. To steal as a thief, would be Not only was he at liberty to do so, disreputable, but robbery is regarded much must do it-it was a point of honor, in the same light that the profession of arms

When at Sinai, the party were entertained in pursuit of him. There is no 'law's at the Convent of St. Catherine, famous as on the desert to prevent his taking his the place where Tischendorf discovered the If he cannot find the murderer, he Sinaitie manuscript—one of the oldest and

"The convent does not stand, as I had ut within this range of consanguinity supposed, high up on the side of Mount Sinai nger may exact life for life. To this (I had imagined it perched on a cliff overindeed he must go. Some life he must looking the valley below), but at its foot, and The blood of his brother cries from not in front, but on one side between two und, and must not go unavenged. But mountains, where indeed it fills up almost the ills the brother or cousin, he cannot whole pass, leaving but a few rods more than me and kill the murderer, for the law room for the camel-path that winds around made a paradise in the wilderness. As we ference, on 5th mo. 18th, adopted a resolution s seems a terrible law-that of blood approached, we were delighted with the binding its members to abstain from the use od; and yet it is perhaps the best law sight of blossoming trees. To be sure, there of intoxicating liquors, and to do all in their desert for the restraint it imposes on were a few funereal-looking cypresses, which power to persuade others to abstain from sions of the people. The Arab knows seemed in harmony with the general desolation be shedding of blood will bring on a tion. But mingled with this dark foliage Fall a mark upon his forchead like that of the earob tree, which yields 'the husks press and by many private individuals:

forchead of Cain, giving license to that the swine did eat,' and which (though "In heaven, we are told, there is more joy on his track, and sooner or later he sight more grateful to the eyes of weary sinners who have kept at it all their lives."

territory they were, which they would rope still hangs outside in token of its former embarrass good men now and then."

render. Taking advantage of the ne- use, and we afterwards amused ourselves by Relative Cost of War and Education.—Dons of the travellers, who must have their putting it round us and taking a seat as in a nat, a Belgian statistician, has collected some and camels, they compelled them to pay swing, while the monks above lifted us from figures, showing the comparative amounts sum beyond the regular price for contact amounts. But this danger has passed expended by European nations upon war and them to Gaza. Our author thus away of later years, since Russia has taken education. Russia presents the greatest conphilosophizes on the transaction.

the convent under its protection; and now it trast. That nation spends $2.50 for war and the same may think we felt great has an arched portal, through which a party three cents per head for education. The undindignation at the sheikh and his mounted on camels can ride into an outer settled state of that country in comparison les who cheated us so roundly. On court. Into this we rode, and dismounted with Switzerland is a powerful argument for modern artillery. The postern is just high The tribes among whom they were going enough for a man's head, and the passage so

(To be concluded.)

Persons can scarcely be said to be in a state of mind to judge rightly upon any important subject, or as to the propriety of any great undertaking, whose minds are so much under the influence of their inclinations as to have no ear to hear any reason or argument which comes from the other side, or any desire to Experience of life teaches that this state of eagerness to earry out any project, however seemingly disinterested we may be, should be passed safely through, as a stage of mental disorder, before we can be in a condition rightly to decide upon any course of action.

For " The Friend,"

Religious Items, &c.

Temperance.—The African M. E. Zion Con-

Falling from Righteousness .- The Boston fend, that will not end till the hands were trees in full bloom—the almond, the Transcript thus sarcastically alludes to the ictim's brother are imbrued in his own cherry, the peach, and the apricot, the olive exultation with which every slip from right that from the instant he sheds blood, and the orange, with a single fine specimen is noted and commented on by the public

r meets him to kill him—a retribution its pods be destined to such an ignoble use) over one sinner that repenteth than over g round him from which he cannot is really quite a majestic tree. Around and ninety-and-nine who have never gone astray. Though he mount the swiftest among these trees were extensive gardens, and flee across the desert, though carredly cultivated, and vitelding fresh veg. is more joy over one righteous man who goes in the mountains, the arenger of ctables in abundance. Was there ever a astray than over ninety-and-nine thousand pay the penalty of his deed. The travellers, after a long journey on the desert? Judicial Oaths.—The bill introduced into dge of this is the most powerful pre- "The convent is a range of buildings the British Parliament to substitute an affirgrouped in a quadrangle of such extent that mation for the oath now required of its memtravellers became quite attached to hundreds of pilgrims could easily be lodged bers on their admission, was defeated by a uides, but on their arrival at Nukhl, within its numerous courts, and which thus majority of three only in a total vote of 581. propelled to part with them in submissing suggests the idea of a huge Eastern carather this indicates the probability that the mean one of the Bedaveen customs. At yansers, and at the same time of a fortress, sure will probably become a law in the future oint they entered the territory of for its very construction tells plainly that it [The London Guardian says: "The vice of tribe, and these claimed the sole was built long ago, in times when it was a the present test is that it is at once useless of levying tribute on travellers who post of danger, to be held against attack and profane—nseless in that it lets Atheists through their country. Their old Its walls are like ramparts, with port-boles in; profane, that it drives them to swear by swere unwilling to part from them, and watch-towers, and a strong gateway like a Deity in whom they do not believe." The ered to divide with the new tribe one that opens into a fort. Indeed not fifty Ledger of this city remarks on the subject of er they might receive. But the Beda- years ago strangers who found shelter here oaths in general, -"It is an old proverb, that f Nukhl were inexorable. To furnish were not admitted by an open gate, but were the man who will deliberately lie, will swear and cannels for travellers was theil grawn up in a basket, and swung into a win-to it." official oaths are of but little value privilege and perquisite of the tribe in dow in the third or fourth story. The great as checks on badly inclined mee, and they do trary, we thought ourselves extremely in front of the heavier and stronger wall of education, for the latter country expends on its army only about the same sum as for cdu- from the Northern hemisphere, and require mitted and focused on a rep curtai cation. For the army, $1.16; and for schools, clear streams containing a certain proportion was smouldering) had been substitu $1 per capita. France spends $4.84 for the of lime. In Saxony the fishing for them has broken one, but through an overs army, and only thirty-four cents for schools, long been under government regulation—and not been ground on the plane su per head. The other figures stand :

		War.	Education.
England,		$4.50	$0.74
Holland,		4.32	76
German Sta			2 44
Denmark,		2.08	1 07
Italy, .		1.80	16
Belgium,			27
Austria,		1 60	30
	 :	J

The comparison is a dismal one in the best figures for education, but in each case the statistics cover only the outlay of the central a large species of muscle. The animal is then survival of old forms and customs. Governments .- Chr. Adv.

classes in Berlin-renting halls and inviting the people by hand-bills to attend his meetings in them. The character of the State their sale to Buddhist pilgrims.—From a £1; three-tenths of an inch a shilling Church and the law probibiting any one from Eccture by W. H. Datt in American Naturalist. smaller one a penny; and a halfper preaching who had not passed a regular theo.—Poison of Mosquito.—D. Diermock says: small round hole. A single cut of preaching who had not passed a regular theological examination, threatened to obstruct "After having experimented a large number stood for half the amount. The stood for half the amount. his course. So much success attended his of times with the living mosquito, I am conthen split in half through the note labors that he was encouraged to purchase vinced that there is use made of a poisonous one-half of it was given to the person for a Christian Association Hall a large dance, saliva. When the insect is allowed to draw the payment, the other being kep hall, which had been a notorious haunt of its fill on the back of my shand, the subsequent Government. A large number of ol vice. The emperor gave $500 towards the swelling lasts from 40 to 48 hours; and the were deposited in the vaults under the Association, and this royal patronage opened amount of poisonous effect upon me, as proved of Commons, and the fire by which

Great Britain have raised a million dollars as these observations are correct, they indicate "Bijon," a thoroughbred Spitzberg a Jubilee Fund.

Wales has just closed its Annual Meetings, and indicates unusual prosperity.

For " The Friend."

Natural History, Science, &c.

minute layers of which the shell consists, present be made out. However, it is certain dog is starving. Bijou at once pl These layers are microscopically wrinkled, that the distance could not be less than 300 the bone of contention, carried it to I and their edges meet the rays of light and or 400 miles."—C. E. Bessey in American ing fellow, laid it before bim, and r decompose them as do the drops of a rain- Naturalist. bow, producing the play of colors. This has valuable could the engraved buttons have designed to reward original investigations. been kept from tarnishing.

composing the shell layers, and are deposited were moored in Port Napoleon, Marseilles, prictors are using much exertion to around some irritating particle which has on a bright summer day. A strong smell of its circulation, and to make it the r found entrance between the valves of the burning was traced to the saloon skylight, tative paper of the Society of Friend shell-fish. Layer after layer is added until On bursting open the door of the saloon it West.

the beds are examined once in about 10 or usual."-B. Gwynne in Nature. 15 years. The valves are pried open and if Tally-sticks.—It is hard to realize the no pearls are found the animal is restored to the year 1824 the English gov uninjured to the water.

times attempted by introducing foreign bodies striking form the changes of this into the animal, so as to stimulate a deposit Sir John Lubbock, writing in the A of shell about them. In China, the monks of Century on the "National Balance one of the Buddhist monasteries insert small says: images of Buddha stamped in tin foil between the mantle and the shell at the front end of one of the most curious illustration placed in an aquarium or tank, and in two or was a willow stick, about five feet l Von Schleumbach's Labors in Berlin.—Von Schleumbach is Alothodist preaches who has deposited over the images, which flastens them an inch. On one side the amount been laboring principally among the poorer to the inside of the shell, while the embossed cated by notches; a noteh one and a features of the image stand out in relief. The wide stood for £1,000; one inch £100 monastery reaps a handsome income from eighths of an inch £10; half of such the way of Von Schleumbach and removed by numerons experiments, is in direct productive the conjugation of the which he had been exposed, portion to the length of time which be the Culex that Congregationalists of has occupied in actually drawing blood." If Charity in a Dog.—We knew a dog.

away these insects when their bite is felt.

Remarkable Fall of Pine Pollen.—"On the length, only separated by a wooden 18th of April of the present year, in gathering lat each house. This verandah was The Congregational Union of England and away these insects when their bite is felt. some water plants from a prairie pond in favorite resort; here he carried his turned out to be pine pollen on the surface of of his neighbors. Pearls.—Pearls are produced by shell-fish, the water. Now there are no native pines in One day, a half-starved dog spie the inner layer of whose shells present the this part of the State, the only pines being his bones lying about, carried it to same irridescent appearance, and is often those planted for ornamental purposes. None at the door of the next house, an called Mother-of-pearl. The shell is composed of these however were in bloom, neither were cagerly to devour it. Bijou saw t of two parts—an epidermis or skin of a horny the pine forests of Minnesota, Wisconsin, from the window, sprang out with a t texture which secretes the shell, and the Michigan and northward. For same days ing growl, carried off the bone and shelly part proper, which is composed of carriprior to the finding of the pollen, strong southbonate of line with more or less animal maticasterly, south-westerly and westerly winds ter which binds it together. The pearly had prevailed. Doubtless these brought the lustre is caused by the action of light on the pollen, but how far it was carried caunot at dog! You can eat no more, and the Research in Sanitary Science.—The Grocers' contemplated, with a benign aspect bow, producing the play of colors. This has Research in Sandary Science.—The Grocers' contemplated, with a benign aspect been proved in two ways; first, by digosting Company of London, one of the oldest of the appearance of the bone."—J. G. Woo mother-of-pearl in acid until all the lime is city guilds, has created an endowment to prodissolved. A pellucid membrane, represent- mote "original research in sanitary science." ing the animal matter, still remains, and if This includes three scholarships of £250 a undisturbed still shows the irridescence. But vear each, to maintain persons while engaged it rescaled that so as to remove the winkles, in work in endeavoring to ascertain the causes it also loses its pearliness. Again, similar corporation diseases and the means by which rngations have been engraved on the polished the diseases may be prevented. Candidates surface of a steel button, with the result of for these are expected to state the researches producing the pearly play of colors; a process which would have proved commercially of £1000 is also to be given once in four years,

Pearls consist of the same material as that in H. M. despatch vessel Psyche, 1862-66, we new editorial management. The pres sometimes they become of considerable size. | was found that a scuttle glass (a plano-convex | It is with much regret that we obtained | Fresh-water | pearls | are mostly obtained | lens) through which the solar rays were additional the numbers issued since this change ninjured to the water.

The artificial production of pearls is some-ceipt. It is one of the facts that see

The old Exchange tallies, for instar

the wisdom of the natural impulse to drive house in which he lived was one of a Central Iowa, I noticed an abundance of what bones, and here contemplated the pro his own house, from the window of v

FRIEND THE

SIXTH MONTH 16, 1883.

The Christian Worker, formerly p at New Vienna, Ohio, has passed hands of a stock company called the " ing Association of Friends," and is no A Curious Case of Ignition .- "When serving from Chicago, in an enlarged form, at realling at the Book Store, No. 304 you; but as the same anothing some first but the same and the standard stores.

4. Philadelphia, or by addressing a of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and tion:

4. The same structure of the same s ard to the Agent, Jacob Smedley, at even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ee. The object of the pamphlet is to renewed testimony to the principles

ded of him, that he was "very watch-r himself, lest at any time he should be This testimony as to the superficial and the open and unreserved support of also attended, "the time is not yet come, the than before the revival measures were intro-casures which have been for years vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the duced, notwithstanding the numbers that had consures when now ocen for yearsy islon is yet for an appointed time; but at the duced, notwithstanding the numbers that had turbing the harmony of our Society, end it shall speak, and not lie; though it tarry, but at the proval to the use of "singing" in our segmentation of the Lord, and relying on his segmentary with zeal and proval to the use of "singing" in our segmentation of the Lord, and relying on his dearmestness, and no sympathy with that cases the proval of the province of the Lord, and relying on his carmestness, and no sympathy with that cases the province of the Lord, and relying on his carmestness, and no sympathy with that cases the province of the Lord, and relying on his carmestness, and no sympathy with that cases the latest of the latest of the Lord, and relying on his final carmestness, and no sympathy with that cases the latest of the l proclaim the glad tidings of salvation. worship. The converts who were trained up tend to scatter it. tese points, it confirms the correctness under this teaching and discipline, having A recent article in one of our exchanges marks on Periodicals, on p. 33 of the learned to look within to the great Teacher says: "There are few wrong methods in ren his Church, as to believe that they is turned to the Light of Christ, and the in- in our hearts we condemn.

s held by Friends, and a gift of true thought that was the way to start, but he sults" should prove to be greatly overestiministry was conferred upon him. It was so bemuddled, that he believed infidelity mated, and what are deemed the good fruits, ward, and by that means insensibly unreliable character of the good results which ain into what he had formerly been are elaimed to flow from this kind of work, for, viz: Preaching and praying in his accords with the information we received a d and wisdom. Though the word came few years since, when visiting in a neighbor- 19th inst. with great power, "I have made thee hood which may be regarded as one of the ster and a witness of the things which head-quarters of this system. It was the ast seen, and of those things wherein concurrent testimony of several friends that appear unto thee; yet the impression their usual meetings for worship were smaller had not succeeded in finding any signs of Indians.

rwise give a test of their personal sage was to turn the attention of their hearers of new converts from the world. It would in reference to salvation," the hold to the Light of Christ in their own souls, be cause of unfeigned rejoicing to see many pecial meetings for revival services, convicting them for sin, and leading them anointed laborers sent forth into his harvestsee things, it says, "have the almost (as they submitted to it) to repentance and field by the Lord of the harvest—and it would bus sanction of our Western Friends, amendment of life, so that they might experibe most pleasing to be able to record the fruits a large extent of our Eastern and ence forgiveness through the atoning blood of rightnessness which the great Husbanda; and every minister who has any of Christ, and receive power to walk in the man night be pleased to cause to spring up in revival work uses them." It reis modern revival movement as similar to dwarfing upon God as He reveals Himself dence in merely human efforts, which are unteresting the wonderful convincement that attempts to them by his Light, was carnestly pressed, dertaken without Divine direction; nor do we he labors of our early Friends, when and practised, not only in their seasons of believe that they will be successful in buildministers were raised up and sent solitary retirement, but when met for Divine ing up the Society of Friends, but will rather lately issued by Philadelphia Yearly of teachers, became firmly established on ligious work which cannot be seemingly justice. "The zeal and activity shown in Christ, the alone sure foundation, and were fied by a skilful parade of the things that are not dependent for the maintenance of their commonly seen;" in illustration of which it ey seem blinded to ulterior conserveligious zeal on the exciting ministry of re-refers to the practice of auricular confession vival preachers-for they had come to the as defended by the Roman Catholics. We ddress referred to is being widely cir-experience of the blessed condition of which think the revival methods favored by the throughout the Society of Friends, the Apostle John testifies: "The anointing Christian Worker, furnishes an additional illus-who desire copies for themselves, or which ye have received of Him, abideth in tration of the truth of the same remark. ibution to others, will be freely sup- you; and ye need not that any man teach From the article referred to we quote the realling at the Book Store, No. 304 you; but as the same anointing teacheth you following (condensed) statement of the ques-

some grand scheme for the evangelization of The effect of the sensational methods of a particular class. The plan is explained to our Early Friends, and to show the awakening sinners, which have been adopted us; from some of the methods we feel bound cour many rriends, and to show the awakening sinners, which have been adopted the specified and in the specified a principles and in the government of it can scarcely help being so, unless the mind become uneasy supporters of a policy which st effectually promote the spread of dividual learns to look within for the teach-course of action always justifiable? Have we dom, by following in the path which ing and help of the Saviour.

As an evidence of the correctness of this the place of reason and conscience? So many It was a marked characteristic of view, we quote from a letter received within halls in which the gospel is preached, so many ly members, that they were jealous a few days from a friend in one of the Western religious services held, so many tracts given enselves, lest they should enter un-no the Lord's work. They were fully ed, that unless the Lord's blessing at lements, and was of these so-called revival right,—these are the things that are seen; and movements, and was for a time laboring in but what may be the things that are useen? their labors would be useless, it not harmony therewith. He mentions that two What if the devil has been silently using the is. Hence they waited for the feeling of the "Evangelists" spent a month at the improper or questionable measures of these Divine requiring, and even when out place where he resides; and that a statement mistaken zealots, as an argument whereby to close service, felt the need of a fresh was published in the Christian Worker, that confirm in skepticism many honest souls in an argument whereby to confirm for every exercise "549 souls were converted and reclaimed." whose eyes religion is compromised by the tit intrusted to them. It may be suffi- He adds, "The 549 conversions, &c., referred methods used in its support?" What if those this point to refer to the experience of to is just about the population of our village. Who have been turned away from seeking I Claridge alone—though many other In three weeks after the manipulators left, Christ be a great army in comparison with sessional be cited. After having been not a vestige of their work could be relied those who have found Him through, or in ne time a minister among the Bap-upon. One young man said afterwards, that spite of, the peculiar methods in question?" e was convinced of the principles of he honestly wanted to do right, and honestly To this we add,—What if these "claimed re-

> SUMMARY OF EVENTS. UNITED STATES.—The Pennsylvania Legislature met on the 7th in extra session, at Harrisburg, to consider the apportionment bills, and adjourned until the

A courier from Mexico has arrived in Tombstone Arizona, and reports that General Crook is encamped thirty miles northeast of Vacori, and sending scouts out in all directions. Up to the time the courier left he such as quickly decay?

Advices from Port an Prince to 5th mo. 24th, report that the people of three villages in Hayti had rebelled, and it was believed other uprisings would follow.

At a meeting of the Chinese firms of Victoria, British Columbia, on Fifth-day of last week, it was resolved to advise the Chinese Government to allow no more Chinamen to emigrate to that province at present. It was said at the meeting that 2000 Chinese laborers had died during the last year from the effects of exposure, accidents and the sudden change in their diet.

The Joint Special Committee of Councils has decided report with a invorable recommendation the ordi-nance providing that "all the Almshouse property in twest Philadelphia, bounded by South street, Spruce street, Thirty-fourth street, Vintage avenue, on the southern boundary of the city property, and thence to the Schuylkill river, be and is hereby set apart for the purposes of a public park."

"Metallic red" has been selected by the Postmaster-

General as the color for the new two-cent postage stamps. The vignette used on the stamp is copied from the life east for Houdin's statue of Washington.

The first competitive examinations in Washington. under the new Civil Service law, will be held about the

The Interior Department is informed that "a large area of coal is now on fire near Crow Peak, in the Black The representative of the General Land Office at Deadwood, has been directed to examine into the condition of the mines,

It is reported that the wheat crop in Berks county, Penna., will be reduced one-third by the rayages of the Hessian fly.

In boring a well for a brewery at Troy, New York, a mineral spring was struck, at a depth of 250 feet. The water, it is said, "very much resembles that of the thereof. Saratoga springs."

The steamer Austrian arrived at Boston on the 7th inst. with 842 steerage passengers from Ireland, many of whom will go to work in New Hampshire mills. The number of pedestrians entering Fairmount Park during last month was 370,102, A company has been organized in New York to lay two new cables between this country and Europe. is said the enterprise is in strong hands, and that there

The remains of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," were re-interred on Seventh-day last, with much ceremony, in Oak Hill Cemetery, near Washington

It is stated that the number of cars loaded with strawberries shipped over the Delaware railroads on Secondday of last week, was the largest ever made in one day in the history of the roads, being a total of 127. Last year the largest shipment in any one day was 103, and the year before 96.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 338, which was 2 less than during the previous week, and 7 less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the whole number, 158 were males, and 180 females : 33 died of consumption of the lungs; 19 of pneumonia; 25 of diphtheria; 10 of searlet fever; 10 of typhoid fever, and 3 of small pox.

Markets, &c. — U.S. 3's, 1032; 31's, 1032; 41's, 1132; 45's registered, 119; coupon, 120; currency 6's, 128 a

Cotton,-There was no essential change to notice in price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at 11 a 111 cts. for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.-Standard white, 71 a 75 cts. for export, and 8½ a 8½ cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour.—There was very little movement, but prices were steady. Sales of 2000 barrels, including Minnewere steady. Sales of 2000 waters, including articles sota extras, at $5.25 a $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.50; western do. at $5.25 a $6.25, and patents at $6 a $7.50. Rye flour is steady at $3.75 a $3.80. Grain.—Wheat was dull and prices a fraction lower.

Sales of 3900 bushels red, in car lots, at $1.12 a $1.25. Reye is nominal at 70 a 72 ets, per bushel. Corn is in lawe yet been taken moderate demand. Sales of 10,000 bushels in ear lots, at 45 a 64 ets. Outs are dull. Sales of 9000 bushels, in ear lots, at 40 a 3 ct est. The corn of Albar Turkish convoy. I have been sent to che when the convolution of the moderate of the convolution of the c a 63 cts. per lb., the latter rate for extra.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo. 9th, 1883. – Loads of hay, 315; loads of straw, 45. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 85 to 95 ets. per 100 pounds. mixed, 75 to 85 ets.; straw, 55 a 65 ets. per 100 pounds. Beef cattle were dull, unsettled and a fraction lower: 3600 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 54 to 185 ets.

sold at the different yards at 4 a 53 cts. per Ib., and in the Pacificlambs at 5 a 9 cts. per lb., as to condition.

Hogs were dull and lower: 3600 head sold at the different yards at 9 a 10\frac{1}{2} cts. per lb., as to quality.

Foreign.—The health of the Queen has been rather poor during the past week, but is now thought to be improving.

A despatch to the Standard from Sierra Leone, states that King Koffee Kalkall, the author of the late war in Ashantee, has been forcibly restored to his throne. A during the 5th month British imports increased, compared with that month in last year, by £321,000, and that the exports during the same period decreased £548,000.

In the House of Lords on Second-day last, the bill legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister passed its second reading by a vote of 145 to 88.

Great preparations were made for the John Bright celebration at Birmingham, which began on Second-Under 7th month in the rooms of the Civil Service commemorate the services of John Bright as representative for Birmingham in Parliament for over a quarter of a century.

Friends residing in Ireland have lately distributed, in County Donegal, 270 tons of seed potatoes, thus re-lieving the distress of three thousand families in that county.

Timothy Kelly, who was convicted of participation in the Phoenix Park murders, was hanged in Kilmainham Jail on the 9th inst. He was the fifth man hanged for those murders, and was the last one convicted from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to

The Emperor Francis Joseph opened a new observa-tory at Vienna on the 6th inst. It contains a refractor an inch larger than the one in the observatory at Washington.

The agent of the Liberian Republic has just nego tiated with Spain a convention providing for the repeal ay of the law prohibiting the introduction of free black It laborers into Cuba. Two hundred thousand slaves in Cuba will become free in 1888. The labor question then will become a serious one. Spanish statesmen is no doubt of its success.

The canker worms have appeared in large numbers and Cuban planters are already examining possor. The canker worms have appeared in large numbers and the the introduction into Cuba of free African negroes or in the vicinity of Concord, New Hampshire, and the the introduction into Cuba of free African negroes or in the vicinity of Concord, New Hampshire, and the results of Cuba.

Chinese or Indian Courts. The ramy season has set in in the greater part of the Island of Cuba. There have been several post-coronation ceremonies in Russia. Last Seventh-day an extensive review took place on Petroffsky Plain. On this, as on other similar occasions, the emperor and empress were both present. Wherever they go they are received with much enthusiasm. On the evening of the 9th inst, they left for the imperial palace at Peterhof. It is supposed that the riots which occurred during the coronation were merely the drunken excesses of the lower classes The collection of the poll-tax from the poorest portion of the peasantry will entirely cease from 1st mo. next, and the tax to be collected from the remainder of the people will be reduced by one-half.

Tonquin has remained in a threatening condition during the past week. Both China and France claim a right to interfere in its affairs, and it is feared that these two powers may be led to resort to hostile meathese two powers may be red to reserve mostice hear sures, although their policy is not yet matured. The Marquis Tseng, the Chinese representative at Paris, London and St. Petersburg, recently stated that diplo-matic relations between France and China would cermatic relations occured refunce and china wounder tainly cease if the former operated in Tonquin without having previously arranged with China. A desputch from Toulon, France, dated the 8th inst., states that compared to the compared to t their services should be needed.

The Porte of Constantinople recently informed General Wallace, the United States Minister, that the comeral Wallace, the United States Minister, that the com-imercial treaty between Turkey and America would, terminate on 3rd mo. 13th, 1884. The Turkish tariff terminate on 3rd mo. 13th, 1884. The Turkish tariff the same date of the present year. No steeps I lewas charitable to the youth, and when have yet been taken by the United States toward a re-

A force of Albanians has captured near Scutari a Turkish convoy. Nine battalions of Turkish troops have been sent to chastise the Albanians.

Several fights have taken place in the mountains be-tween the Albanians and Turks, resulting in heavy losses on both sides. Sanguinary fighting has also the pure in heart for they shall see God."

Laken place in Albania between the Turkish troops and at his residence, Pine Iron Washa a body of Castratis.

Victoria and the other Colonies are taking steps to urge the Imperial Government to annex the New He-Meeting, Penna.

Sheep were dull and lower: 13,000 head arrived and brides, the Solomon Islands and other grou

Work on the Buenos Ayres and Pacit under the superintendence of the contra Brothers, is being actively proceeded with

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCH A Stated Meeting of the General Comm held at the school on Fourth-day, the 20

The Committee on Instruction and Adm at the school the preceding evening, at 7 o The Visiting Committee, meet at the Seventh-day, the 16th inst. For the accommodation of the commit nces will be at Street Road Station, on Third-days, the 16th and 19th inst., to me Third-days, the 16th and 18th 1859, that leave the city at 2.49 and 4.55 P. M. WM.

Philada., 6th mo. 1883.

SOCIETY FOR HOME CULTU The Society for Home Culture will he Annual Public Meeting in Germantown, day, 6th mo. 16th, at 3 p. m., in the Com of the Meeting-house, Main and Coulter st Correspondents, students, and all others i the work of the Society, are invited to atter WATSON W. DEWEES,

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCH Until further notice the Stage will be a

WANTED,

An efficient person to assist in household be companion for an invalid. Address Box 666, West Chester P. O., Pennsylvania.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOL Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to ter Latin, and other branches in the Girls' Sch

Application may be made to Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonw Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. N Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Sevent

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CH AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pi

John Sharpless, Chester, Pe Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine

DIED, at his residence in Chambersburg the 10th of 3d mo. 1883, JOSEPH D. SATTE in the 83d year of his age, a member of Up 18 the 83d year of his age, a member of Up field Monthly Aleeting of Friends.

—, suddenly, on the 12th of 4th mon the residence of her son-in-law, Hamilte SUSANNA KAIGEN, widow of the late Jose in the 76th year of her age, a member and Haddonfield Monthly Meeting of Friends. are the pure in heart for they shall see God. short time before his close he remarked to a friend, that he believed his end was near, and "Oh the mercies of my Redeemer." This d their way, he labored to restore in a spirit of bore a lingering and protracted illness with patience and resignation; often expressin favor that he did not suffer more. He rema

, at his residence, Pine Iron Works, the 28th of 5th mo. 1883, JOSEPH BAILEY, i ble to the last-supplicating fervently near Thus evincing to his many friends and re

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SIXTH MONTH 23, 1883.

NO. 46.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid dvance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON,

MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. ons, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES. . 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS,

PHILADELPHIA.

" Philada., 4th mo, 13th, 1828, lear friend, W. S.,-I have many times ed the want of leisure whilst in New to acknowledge the receipt of thy truly ne lines, and can assure thee it would een quite a gratification to us to have ee there; we were disappointed by thy secuting the journey.

d pleased myself with the hope of see-ee soon after our arrival here; and I sure thee that I do wish to have an alth is not in a state to allow of my out whilst it is so damp, or I should nade an attempt to sec thee and thy

's family collectively.

reperusal of thy very touching letter, ers, that Satan, the enemy of all right-dust. ss, whilst permitted to sift and to bufe, may not tempt thee to cast away and as they are accepted in submission to the to the human understanding, but O! my dear Divine will, a blessing will attend them.

thon alludes to the wickedness of the human opened, the design of the great Head of the and the difficulty of reconciling the state. Church has been to instruct me and to make of things with the different concurrent testime sensible of my own nothingness and entire monies of Scripture, a few words occurred dependence upon Hun. I have been made to which in Infinite Kindness were spoken to see in my experience that the time has indeed Isaac Penington when beset with similar come when judgment must begin at the house reasonings: 'Leave those things to Me;' and of God; and I humbly trust that a desire has thus, I believe, we poor, frail, short-sighted prevailed in my heart patiently to endure the mortals must do. And what an unspeakable turnings and overturnings of his holy hand, consolation it is to reflect, that as we endeavor; that so I may be counted worthy of occupyto be faithful in that which is committed to ing a place in that spiritual building which and Memoranda of William Scattergood.

Our trust, we shall be accepted of Him who is to show forth the praises of Him who hath seeth not as man seeth. We are called to called us out of darkness into his marvellous walk by faith not by sight. Oh then, let us light. And oh! that the precious testimony, endeavor to east all our care upon Him, for Though He was rich, yet for our sakes He He careth for us,- 'to be careful for nothing, became poor, that we through his poverty but in every thing by prayer and supplica- might be made rich,' may be often brought tion, making our requests known unto God.' Thy letter reminds me of thy honored upon the mind.

grandfather; and I do not apprehend that thy provings and conflicts are greater than what things. Indeed, who has had such abundant he had to endure. Then be of good cheer; cause for grateful acknowledgment to the and when thou gets a good wife, I shall hope to visit you, and to see you enjoy each other. Accept my tender sympathy and affectionate unity of conversing a little with thee. solicitude for thy well-doing every way, in the Lord of mercies hath dealt with my soul? which I am thy friend, ANN JONES.

To E. C.

"4th mo. 19th, 1828.

(After alluding to the foregoing communirieved at myself that I did not earlier eation of Ann Jones, he proceeds): It of in effort to tell thee that nothing new course helped me, and although it must be-fallen thee, dear W., in all thy sore come and be to me as the manna of yesterts. I can well understand the landay, yet I cannot but think that the sympa-of thy heart and pen; and much do I thetic, feeling communication which passed that whilst these sore afflictions and on Second-day may be remembered with ms are passing over thee, in order I blieve to prepare thee in the fulfilment Giver of every good gift in that He takes gospel mission to enter into the states notice of me, a poor unworthy worm of the up, to remember these dark and desolate feel-

Well, my beloved friend, let us press forward toward the mark, for to him that overeld, as though it had not been anointed cometh the promise remains to be sure, that il, or in any way to remove thee from the Lord Jesus himself will make such an one bility of the Truth—the steadfastness a pillar in his temple which shall go no more gospel. Thou art not the first that he out. He will write upon him the name of his strive to keep close in the spirit of thy there is a fight of afflictions to endure; there always thine from thy faithful friend, anto Him who said to Peter, 'I have are baptisms many, and deaths oft. We must for thee, that thy faith fail not; and know a being dead with Christ from the thou art converted, strengthen thy rudiments of the world, from all its maxims, en.' Peter was made an instrument of and all its policy, and come into entire demany, after he had denied his Lord, pendence upon Him who is all in all to those tains to life and godliness: for surely I have believe that dear Elizabeth is designed seen that He is the alone Mediator between

-, I have seen how in this as upon other In reading that part of thy letter in which occasions when my mind has been divinely into remembrance and sealed with sweetness

> I could enlarge much in relation to these Source of all our sure mereies and living eonsolations, for the long forbearance and tender compassion wherewith, as a tender Father, but as the experienced apostle testifies in relation to himself, so I feel a concern 'to leave the things which are behind, and to press forward to the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.'

My dear friend will rejoice with me if I say, that through infinite mercy it has been my lot to know a little of quiet settlement upon some occasions of late; but as dear G. Jones recommended to me this day week, that in seasons of deep affliction and destitution I should remember seasons of consolation and light, and that when I felt somewhat lifted ings, that so preservation might be experienced from too much depression or too great exaltation; therefore I have desired that I might be preserved in my proper allotment, and be brought into a sense of my own nothingness in the sight of Him who is glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders. sired to have in his power to sift as God, and the name of the city of his God, and Farewell: the assurance of the most tender; but oh! remember the Divine Inter he will write upon him His own name. But

As before stated, on the 13th of 5th mo. 1828, William Scattergood was married to Elizabeth, daughter of John and Ann Comfort, of Solebury, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania.

To E. C. Scattergood.

"6th mo. 21st, 1829.

My precious and beloved wife .-- (From a o thee a helper and a stay. I have no God and our souls, that it is only and alone letter to his wife of the above date, the followation that you will get along without through Him that we partake of the Divine ing is extracted):—As I feel lonely, solitary ties and trials of various kinds; these mercy, and that it is through Him alone we and sad, this afternoon, I have taken the pen od for us; something like wholesome have access again unto the throne of grace, to communicate a little with thee, in the bope ne designed to prove and to strengthen. This is indeed an incomprehensible mystery that when made sensible of the desolations which surround my poor soul, thou art ready to drop the tear of sympathy and to partake with thy poor and afflicted companion the sorrows of this mournful pilgrimage.

past and present failings! and how does my be drawn forth into many unnecessary words." soul long for the bread which nourishes up And in a letter to Samuel Neale, this sentence for this purpose, in the latter part o unto eternal life! How I crave a little true occurs: "I have been greatly pleased formerly, he kept a one-horse chair, in which faith in the Divine Redcemer, whereby I when favored with thy company, to observe about doing good; in allusion to wh might be shielded and supported against the the watchful care that clothed thee, even in tice, he sometimes said, he 'earned l darts of the cruel enemy! I am often led to the times of enlargement and liberty of spirit, by jobbing: wonder, and to enquire within myself, whether lest any word or unguarded expression should "Ah, these this dispensation, so grievous and afflicting, inadvertently pass, to wound or administer is for edification or destruction? Whether I offence in any wise, to the least babe in am utterly east off as an unprofitable and Christ.' withered branch, or whether the Lord, whose spirit, earnestly contending for the prize and Gardiner, a worthy Friend of the Island of for the victory, we should more often experi- Nantucket. His father, Prince Gardiner, who ence the presence of Him who is the chiefest had died a number of years before, was subof ten thousand. Thy truly loving busband, ject to attacks, in which, while not actually WM. SCATTERGOOD.

Under date of 8th mo. 20th, 1829, W. S. hake the following back that I have not the evening. Prince quietly pointed to a both Robson. Soon after, Thomas K been so attentive to the day of small things chair on the opposite side of the fire, which as I ought to have been; and when I reflect Hezekiah as quietly occupied. They sat thus with him. They did so, and he took main a halting, hesitating one. O Lord my Redeemer, whom I have desired to serve, and who art the helper of thy believing ehildren, excite in me, I pray thee, a lively thirst for the waters of life; and O! suffer me not to be numbered among the unbelievers. Thou knowest all my secret backslidings. Thou knowest my heart as it really is. Make known, O Lord, thy power in me, and show me clearly my duty to thee, that I may not be as the heath of the desert not knowing when good cometh.

"Ninth mo. 27th .- I am inclined to think that if I would sometimes bring my scattered thoughts, poor as they are, together in this way, that perhaps it would tend to profit, and might possibly have a good effect in stimulating in future to more diligence to make my calling and election sure.

(To be continued.)

tably has the teaching of the Holy Spirit been tralia. After a time he managed to make was going to be spoiled for the w neglected by professing Christians, notwithstanding the promise respecting this Spirit as the Comforter, that He should take of the things of Christ and show them unto his disciples. From this neglect arose the apostacy of the Christian Church in early days, both in reasoned with him in a kind way-and the sidering the imperfect carrying con faith and practice; and from the same source arises in the present day, the unscriptural treated had such an effect upon him, that he rejoined Grainger, "we must have the provision of most churches in regard to min-immediately conformed to the rules of the John Brown considered a moment, people are drawn to lean unduly upon man. He afterwards remarked to the warden that forthwith to Berwick, took the people are drawn to lean unduly upon man, instead of being instructed to seek to know the Lord to be their teacher, and to trust in spoken to him for many years. He had con- which he reached 11 P. M. on First-da Him alone. The professors of Christianity tinued to be a satisfactory prisoner, and mani- be went straight to his foreman, and are consequently very generally kept in great fested a tenderness of spirit. Like begets its to have the men there the first thir weakness, and in great shallowness of Chris-like: rough, brutal treatment hardens and morning, and gave positive orders tian experience.-Jas. Backhouse.

For "The Friend." Gather the Fragments.

In one of the letters of Abraham Shaekleton How often are my tears shed in secret over to his son, he gives him a caution, "never to in 1799, that "be felt concerned ofte

We sometimes go into company where heart-tendering visitations were extended in these cautions might be very useful-where the days of my youth, still designs, through multitudes of words are uttered on subjects latter years, was the late Thomas he these hidings of his face and deep and manifold but trifling importance, and where no deceased in 1845. Of him, the sate of the sate fold tribulations, to prepare a vessel for His thoughts or information of value is received. says: Quite in contrast with such occasions, was a I believe that if we were more fervent in visit described to me in 1854, by Benjamin sick, he was rather despondent and disinelined to converse. As he was sitting by his fireside Ohio, who said that when in Phil one winter's evening, in such a mood, his some time before, he and Jacob (makes the following memorandum: -"I often neighbor Hezekiah Barnard came in to spend Ireland, went to eall on Thomas are upon my present condition, I am ready to in silence for a considerable time; and then four places, at all of which they had conclude that I am an utter castaway; and Prince went to the cellar, drew a mug of cider religious opportunities. that I shall never experience a coming up in and placed it on the hearth before the fire. my proper allotment either in the church or Another silent sitting followed, and Prince in try, with this devoted laborer in the in filling up my station as a private individual; the same manner brought in some pie or bread vineyard. We made six calls, include but, on the contrary, as is feared, always re- and cheese, and, setting it down, pointed his at the house of the friend where w friend Hezekiah to it and to the mug of eider. At two of these, we were drawn into They both ate and drank-and when the time and T. Kite's mouth was opened in had arrived for going home, Hezekiah shook service. At a third, the sitting wa hands with Prince and departed. The even-chamber of a sick woman where I ing was passed without a word being uttered, present. At the other three places, and yet it was a satisfactory opportunity. In advice was administered in a conve speaking of it afterwards, Hezekiah said he way had a good comfortable visit, was kindly reeeived and treated to eider and refreshments, remember with interest the faithful and neither of them said a word to the disad- this diligent servant. vantage of any body else.

Under the date of 5th mo. 1847, I find a memorandum in my note book of an incident of John Brown, of Sheffield, he happe related a short time before by the Warden of in Edinburgh when the Edinburg the Penitentiary at Philadelphia, to a minis- and Dundee Railroad was about to be tering Friend who paid a religious visit to the and chanced to call on Grainger, the inmates of the institution.

crime had been sentenced to be transported impossible to get the articles require Teaching of the Holy Spirit. How lamen for life, I believe to a penal settlement in Aus. short a time, it looked as though " his escape in a boat, and was picked up by a penny-worth of tar." Grainger m French whaling vessel: but continuing in his the matter to his visitor and in she evil course, he finally found himself in the ration asked him if he could supply th prison at Philadelphia. Here he refused to by the following Fifth-day. This wengage in any work. The officer in charge Seventh-day, and J. Brown replied, sympathy and kindness with which he was tion, he feared the time was too short. those were the first kind words that had been coach for Newcastle, and thence to degrades; but gentleness, combined with firm- springs were to be ready by Second-d ness, acts on the better principles of ture.

In The Arm-Chair, it is related of Emlen, a minister of Philadelphia, up the sick, weak and halt of the fle

"Ah, these were luscious morsels, ate wit A heavenly relish free from all alloy; Some of that bread of which the righted That others know not of,-sustaining m-

Perhaps the most diligent of lat this "jobbing" line, whom we have l

Where the lone widow wept her early lov Where the 'reft husband for submission st Where the sad mother wailed her darling Where the fond father's heart in sorrow bi Thy feet were turned the blessed balm to I Woe to assuage, or in the woe to share."

In a memorandum made in 1847, t mention of meeting with Benjamin I

I remember a morning's walk in t

There are, I doubt not, many yet liv

Punctuality.-In the early part of the of the line. Everything was in read One of the prisoners had been brought up cept a few sets of springs, which to the profession of thieving, and for some tractor was unable to supply; and as ne maker hurried off with them to Man-missions at home and abroad." er. Here he had arranged to have a os and anxions moments, the traveller it to the notice of most of the railway ors present at the opening ceremony; mberland, England, led the writer to spirit.

For "The Friend." Letters of Richard Hall.

at danger if such an establishment Trnth, l, by degrees or at once, become what

e when the one at Manchester was es- which was raised by our worthy predecessors." less and unbaptized ministry. ned a good many years ago, it might, sorbing pursuit of a large portion of the pared to the laity." members of our Society, coupled with oods were packed at the appointed time, a popular philanthropic movement evinced in doubt, deeply tried, with the same degeneracy lty met him in the refusal of the officials monies of truth in prosecuting it; and very d such goods in the mail. J. Brown little attachment is manifested to the princistraightway to the manager, told him ples and practices which our predecessors se, and got a horse-box put on to con- were led to adopt in obedience to the dis-

ed Glasgow, via Ardrossan, at 5 o'clock that the practice of reading the scriptures in difficult in these perplexing times; and our ourth-day afternoon, to the amazement meetings for worship as well as congregal strength seems to consist in standing still, related to the consist in standing still, and the consist in standing still, as the consist in the Lord is pleased to work for us. Instead the enterprising manufacturer of prominent standing. This degeneracy has, May the true patience be abode in and allowed outlay and pains, but also introduced not sprung up all at once, but has been de- to have its perfect work, then will the true veloped gradually, yet it seems now to be fellowship be strengthened with our Holy approaching a climax, when those who sin- Head and with one another.' e gallant effort threw into John Brown's cerely love the Truth must experience very for a considerable time the bulk of the deep and painful suffering; and what may be easy to decline an appointment to attend our trade in railway material.

deep and painful suffering; and what may be easy to decline an appointment to attend our the result we cannot foresee. We seem so last Yearly Meeting, I gave up to be there. fast losing our distinctive character and are It is three years since I was last present. publication in the last number of "The ered, that in all human probability, we shall tainly much moderation and mutual deference 1" of a notice of the late Richard Hall, soon amalgamate with the world and its in the discussions which arose—but, as for hem contain sufficient, it is believed, of that our present organized body will be the absence as felt to me very remarkable, and al interest to justify their insertion here, chosen people to show forth the praise of the which I briefly ventured to express. Though

y for the use of Friends from a distance of my own weakness and the very small pro- never so rife; and the desire to have these ing thither. No doubt this might prove gress I have made in the Christian course, works, even more than they have been, recogfortable convenience to such, where as well as my natural tendency to dwell on nized by the Yearly Meeting, was very strong ps more of a home feeling might be the gloomy side of our position and prospects, enced than at an ordinary boarding has disconraged me from taking up the pen— 'Christian work' as it is called, or by others particularly if a library could be at lest I might weaken thy hands in the faithful ('the Lord's work,' is the all-absorbing theme, I have, however, been thinking there discharge of thy duty in the support of the and is extelled and commended along with "The general tendency now seems to be in coming a debating club, where subjects exactly the opposite direction to what George views prevailing, it cannot be expected that eligious character might be freely com-Fox esteemed it his privilege to advocate, our true condition, as a Church, can be realized don and discussed, lead away the minds viz: to turn people's attention and dependence —for all is congratulation and self-complace from the simplicity of Truth. I have from the teaching of men, and to seek after cency, and thanks are repeatedly offered up thought their apprehensions have been and obey Christ the living Teacher—by his for our hopeful and favored condition. It is nore than realized; for, I believe, if one Light in their hearts. We seem to vie with freely admitted that we are passing through more than another has been the means other professing bodies in literal religious a state of transition, but this is understood as raying into rationalism it has been the teaching, and are making provision to extend a redemption from a state of deadness, ines and discussions in the institute there, this to the inhabitants of far distant and activity and formalism, to invigorating lifeto what an extent this has gone and the heathen countries. And there is a gradual and we are called to rejoice in the evidence s attending it, no doubt, thou art aware. development of a disposition on the part of of zeal in the service of the Head of the ad the opportunity of observing the members of the select body (ministers and of this system on one interesting and elders) to assume an activity and responsibility. There are, however, a few, here and there, gent young man, and I could see the regarding the particular meetings they belong often secluded and hidden ones, who are ings pertaining to salvation seems to be bility on the part of those who may be com-ness, yet there is a reverent trust, that He

"That you, too, are tried, and I have no but that, in his own time, He will arise in his which prevails to such a large extent here, "The minds of many seem so entirely ab- there is no doubt; but it is evident there is ready to convey the springs to the sorbed in prosecuting self-imposed labors of yet a considerable body of united and sincere n from which the mail for the North this description, and so thoroughly pleased hearted Friends among you who yet prefer d. He was in time for the train, but with their own work, that they have very Jerusalem above their chiefest joy, and are he presented his consignment a new little scruple in violating the known testi- conscientiously concerned to uphold the Truth in its fulness, according to that standard renewedly raised up by our worthy predecessors. I feel to unite with these in tender and loving sympathy, although but a weak one and a he springs. After a devious journey, coveries of the Spirit of Truth and in accord-otwithstanding many threatening con-lance with the testimony of Holy Scripture. thy to suffer for the noble and excellent cause. So rampant was the spirit of innovation, The way, at times, feels strait and very

"6th mo. 14th, 1875. Not feeling clear or relapsing into the mixture from which our In its conducting and conclusions there the consistent maintenance and support of mine some of the letters received from That the pure Truth will ultimately triumph our principles, or commending them to our towns and the pure years. The following extracts we cannot doubt, but there is little prospect members generally, there was such an entire living God; seeing that we are denying Him this is the ease, the efforts put forth to evanth mo. 28th, 1872. I observed in the leb be our King and Ruler, and are seeking to gelize and to establish religious teaching and lelphia. 'Friend' a short time ago a be governed like the people round about us." instruction through the medium of Bibic sition to establish a boarding house in "8th mo. 17th, 1873. The consciousness classes, missions, First-day schools, &c., was those engaged in it, to the exclusion of what I often greatly covet, that, not being gifted should have been the legitimate exercise and ed here an 'institute;' where young for active service in the Church myself, I might, business of the Yearly Meeting, at the same resort for the purpose of discussion, at least, be thought worthy to strengthen the time exonorating, in a great measure, the ing and producing written essays on bands of such as are so gifted—if not by visi-active operators from all allegiance to what us as well as secular subjects. It is easy to see the tendency of these among Friends sympathetic breathing of spirit to our gracious as professed by Friends. It is easy to see the as been exceedingly prejudicial to the Heavenly Father that He would be pleased encouragement given to vocal expression in nterests of individuals and the Society to strengthen and qualify his servants, power-religious engagements is gradually and surely fully to advocate his boly cause, and maintain introducing serious innovations into our meeteral experienced Friends were appre-that standard of truth and righteousness ings for worship, besides engendering a life-

With these preponderating and prominent ace it gradually gained over him, till, to, which savors much of elerical distinction brought under sufferings for the cause of grees, he became an entire skeptie."

and oversight, and as it increases, will natu- (Christ; and though it may be said with truth grees, he became an entire skeptic." and oversight, and as it increases, will nath- Christ; and though it may be said with truth be diffusion of intellectual knowledge in rally lessen the feeling of individual responsi- that his true Church is driven into the wilderwill not suffer his blessed cause to fall utterly, power to exalt his name and cause, whether scene, may be so in the preserving fear of the

May it not be said of this beloved Friend-"He, being dead, yet speaketh?"

For "The Friend."

Let Your Light Shine.

yet powerful influence in little things (so called) and in greater things over those around us. This power, operating on the mind of others for good or evil-who are oftentimes wide awake to inconsistencies-may be fully known, if ever, only by its effects; but, nevertheless, it greatly tends to leaven with the leaven of righteousness unto righteousness, or that of iniquity unto iniquity, all who come within the sphere of its attracting or repelling power. While how fearfully, at the same time, it rolls up the measure of our responsibility to Him by whom actions are weighed, and who hath enjoined, Let your light shine.

In this view, the increase of means whereby we can gratify the desires of the natural heart and mind, may become a snare to us by tempting to the indulgence of vanity and excess in the adorument of our persons, in the superfluities of our tables, in the sumptuousness of our houses, and in the costliness and elegance of our furniture. But no amount of means can justify a disregard of Christian simplicity; allow of unsafe examples for others to follow; or warrant the stumbling of a High o'er the black-backed Skerries, and far weak brother who cannot reconcile sumptuousness with being a follower of Christ, nor stewards of all which a beneficent Father in heaven has so richly given us to enjoy, and There is war at my feet where the black rocks break for the promotion of his honor. As this honor is filially and with due deference sought, it There is peace above when the stars are awake, will make us watchful and careful in the earnest desire to appropriate these temporal accommodations and blessings unto the purposes for which they were intended by the great Donor. Thus should we "occupy" with the all committed, as a sacred trust, until the Lord come, being examples to all of Christian moderation, simplicity and liberality.

The following testimony concerning Rebecca Reynolds, is well worthy of our consideration and emulation also, viz.: "She was a woman of sincere and unaffected piety: and, though living in affluence, she was steadily concerned that her life might be one of simplicity and The seaman leaps on the swaying shroud; self-denial; and that these Christian graces might increase and prevail amongst her fellow professors and in the world at large. These | " qualities, combined with her charity and benevolence, united to a good understand-ing, rendered her a valuable companion and friend.'

The more we are brought under the humbling, baptizing power of Truth, which induces love to God and love to man, the more The duty done by this lamp of mine; we shall desire that our ever short and very uncertain journey through this probationary it may be among us as an organized body or Lord, as to enable us to serve our generation both by godly example and by loving precept, by life and conversation, according to his blessed will, which is our sanctification. This can no otherwise be done, than by setting the light of our influence, be the circumference thereof larger or smaller, upon the candlestick, that so through and over all, praise In proportion as the influence of any beand glory may redound to our Father who is comes operative over their fellow men, so far in heaven. Thus being engaged to follow do they become increasingly and relatively the Captain of salvation in "low self-denial" accountable for the talent or talents com- and watchful restraint," He will cause us inmitted by Him who has said: "Let your light creasingly to become as "living epistles" so shine before men, that they may see your known and read of all men; and our path to good works, and glorify your Father which be like that of the just, which "shineth more We all exert an inappreciable, and more unto the perfect day."

5th mo. 21st, 1883.

Selected. ANSWERED.

I thought to find some healing clime For her I loved; she found that shore, That city whose inhabitants Are sick and sorrowful no more.

I asked for human love for her; The loving knew how best to still The infinite yearning of a heart, Which but infinity could fill.

Such sweet communion had been ours. I prayed that it might never end; My prayer is more than answered; now I have an angel for my friend.

I wished for perfect peace to soothe The troubled anguish of her breast; And numbered with the loved and called, She entered on untroubled rest.

Life was so fair a thing to her, I wept and pleaded for its stay; My wish was granted me, for lo! She bath eternal life to-day.

-Phabe Cary.

THE LIGHT-HOUSE.

I shift my light like a twinkling star, With ever a star's sweet constancy. with a due regard of liberality towards the They wait for me when the night comes down, And the slow sun falls in his death divine, It is a great thing to be good and faithful Then braving the black night's gathering frown, evyands of all which a baneficont Eather in With ruby and diamond blaze—I shine!

> The thunderous snows of the rising sea; Keeping their night-long watch with me. care not a jot for the roar of the surge The wrath is the sea's-the victory mine ! As over its breadth to the furthest verge, Unwavering and untired-I shine!

First on my brow comes the pearly light, Dimming my lamp in the new-born day, One long, last look to left and right, And I rest from my toil—for the broad sea-way Grows bright with the smile and blush of the sky, All incandescent and opaline I rest-but the loveliest day will die-Again in its last wan shadows-I shine!

When the night is black, and the wind is loud, His eye is on me, and his hope in God! Alone, in the darkness, my blood-red eve Meets his, and he hauls his groping line. "A point to nor'ard?" I hear him cry, Ile goes with a blessing, and still—I shine!

While standing alone in the summer sun Sometimes I have visions and dreams of my own. Of long-life voyages just begun,

And rocks unnoticed, and shoals unknown; The duty done by this lamp of mine; For many a life is lost in the dark,

And few on earth arc the lights that shine! -Good Words. I saw a little streamlet flow Along a peaceful vale; A thread of silver, soft and slow, It wandered down the dale. Just to do good it seemed to move, Directed by the hand of Love.

THE STREAMLET,

The valley smiled in living green; A tree which near it gave From poontide heat a friendly screen. Drank from its limpid wave The swallow brushed it with her wing, And followed its meandering.

But not alone to plant and bird, That little stream was known Its gentle murmur far was heard; A friend's familiar tone It glided by the cotter's door, It blessed the labors of the poor,

And would that I could thus be found, While travelling life's brief way, humble friend to all around, Where'er my footsteps stray: Like that pure stream, with tranquil br Like it, still blessing, and still blest.

On the Desert.

CONVENT OF ST. CATHERINE. (Concluded from page 357.)

"It gives one an idea of the age of t vent, to remember that it is older the homet: it was founded by the Emper tinian in the year 555, so that it ha standing more than thirteen centuries early monks felt the need of making with the new power which had just I Arabia, and was attacking and destroy every side, and so sought and receive Mahomet a pledge of his protection could not write, but dipping his broad in ink (it might have been in blood, : color is red), gave the imprint of hi palm. That was a signature which co be mistaken. A copy of this bloody l hung up in the room in which I ar writing; the original is said to be in Co tinople, though I can hear of no one w seen it; but tradition supports the fact existence; and to this pledge of the P the monks have often appealed, and it to it that the Convent has not been long destroyed.'

"The Convent has always been a p danger, as it was on the border line be two religions-Islam and Christianit rather, in the territory of the enemy, it stood as a solitary citadel of the fait has often had to stand a siege, when no but its walls and towers kept it from truction. But if those were days of without, they were days of prosperity in. Looking around the interior of the vent, I observed that it was surrounded a corridor on each story, upon which th of the monks opened, and in those days were hundreds within its walls.'

"There are now twenty-four members form a community entirely among them: being quite apart from the rest of the Some of them have been here thirty or years, perhaps not once in all that time ing these mountains. Indeed, I was tol several of them had not been outside the vent in twenty years. All the affairs household are managed by themselves. of the menial offices are performed by servants, but every species of handier wrought by the monks. Dr. Post, wh the case for his plants broken, found h They tinker a little and cobble a same old codgers standing in their places in eyes have seen thy salvation. It they pray a great deal. Their the church, intoning their prayers!

It is not expected that this e spent in prayer. Seven bours out stendom. Nor are these hours of de-confined to the day-time: fully one "If I had any secret fondness for the m summate flower of piety; that these necessity, or by superstitious fear." ho are so holy that they cannot live eir fellows, but dwell apart, must be han others; that all their conversaist be of heaven, and their lives be deeds of charity

ht. Was there in this any spiritual not been altogether forgotten.

to the pretensions of superior sancy such impression is quickly dispelled.

a man may be very ignorant, and perstitious, and yet from daily comuntenance. Not a trace of this does States of America.' here. There is no such process of gar is vnlgar still, and be that was vention of the other.

filthy still.

twenty-four are given to devotion. bring against the monks, is their utter indif-bodies, which is not deemed necessary nor times in the day we hear a stroke, as ference to the poor Bedaween by whom they desirable by either branch.

nammer, on a nakus [a bent iron bar] are surrounded.

The reception room is near the in a Convent, is not the way to serve God, or tion; but this was rejected. so that the voices of the monks come do good to men. A life more vacant of all Upon the question of marriage with a destinctly through the open windows; high purpose, or of practical usefulness, I ceased wife's sister, the Assembly decided, by s, and of prayers which in different bones of whole generations, with a ghastly not include that degree of relationship. are repeated in all the communions array of skulls, I felt that I saw before me the taken from the night. At three nastic life, a few days in a monastery would their fancy, and a walking arsenal without, in the morning the bell of the church in the morning the bell of the church in the morning the bell of the church is quite making arsenal without, and the properties of the convent."

In the morning the bell of the church is quite many in the convent of the convent. The convent is exercises has any very important in the convent is eight making men spirtually better, at the convent is eight making men spirtually better, at the convent is eight making men spirtually better, at the convent is exercised by the convent in the conv uch vigils and prayers must spring could be driven to this life only by the direct Cleveland the managers of the public library

J. W.

For " The Friend," Religious Items, &c.

Southern Presbyterians .- About the comthat there was a strange silence in Presbyterians of the South withdrew from elevation. There is neither natural Assembly then in session at Springfield, which simply because it is right.' ent nor that spirituality which comes sent a reply couched in the same language; nverse with sacred things. Let a and delegates were appointed by each of the Council of this body has recently been held emain here forty years, and he that Assemblies to attend at the next annual con- in Baltimore.

hey submit to the prescribed fasts of now being taken, we disclaim any reference should be rotation in office. rch. It is now Lent, when the fasts, as the vigils, are kept rigorously, ing loyalty and rebellion, but we refer only ill not tone ha particle of animal food, to those concerning schism, heresy and blasy will drink to excess. Almost the phemy." This resolution has been somewhat justry which is pursued here, is mak- of an apple of discord, and some uneasiness nd of a brandy out of the dates of the was felt as to the reception of the Northern e; and this not being prohibited, they delegates and the effects of their visit to their among the crumbling arches of Caracalla's by. We often see them the worse for Southern brethren. This reception has now baths in Rome, in 1882, when near the walls, Several of them who have been taken place and was in a high degree cordial. a stone nearly as large as my fist fell at my he mountains with us as guides, be. The Moderator in his words of welcome said feet. Fearing a recurrence of what I sup-nod tinsmith. Any one whose gar fore the day was over have been in a state of that as he stood there and witnessed the specre torn, or whose shoes are worn out intoxication. It takes away from the merit tacle of brethren long alienated and separated abling over the rocks, may find a of fasts when it leads to this. If they took from each other, again meeting in fraternal d a cobbler to patch them up again. a little more of simple, nourishing food, they bonds of union, he felt almost ready to say, all this is apart from, and subordi-would not drink so much brandy. Of course with good old Simcon, "Now, Lord, lettest their own great vocation, which is I am not particularly edified when I see these thou thy servant depart in peace; for mine

> It is not expected that this movement will "But the gravest charge which I have to lead to an organic union between the two

A proposition was made to permit persons d which, like the voice of the mucz "The moral of all this is that a life of ent to be ordained as ministers in the Presbyterian n the minaret, calls the faithful to tire separation from the world, and seclusion Church, who have not had a classical educa-

Upon the question of marriage with a deshould be dull indeed if we could sit cannot conceive of; and when I went into a large vote, that it was not unscriptural, as d at the chanting of the songs of the charnel-house, where are piled up the the cases forbidden in the law of Moses do

Sensational Literature.-The papers have told us of frequent arrests of young boys on "If I had any secret fondness for the mo- their way West, bold and bloody deeds in have banished the novels of Evans, Southworth and Holmes; and it will be a reason of rejoicing when similar institutions throughout the country follow this lead, and clean their shelves of all such sensational stuff, which is ruin to mind and soul of every young let us sec. I observed the next mencement of the Southern Rebellion the person who becomes absorbed in them. Cynosure.

vert. Having taken the night to connexion with the General Assembly and First-day Trains.—The President of the hey took the day to sleep. These organized as a separate body. The unpleasant Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railway, prayer were not then so much added feelings caused by this action have since in Bennett II. Young, has issued an order, that sual times for devotion, but only night large measure died away—though the charges so far as possible, no trains shall be run or into day that day might be turned of being "schismatics," "heretics," &c., have work done on the First day of the week. He regards the running of all but mail trains as From time to time efforts have been made unnecessary, and has ordered that if any emto heal the breach, but not with entire suc- ployé has conscientious scruples against workcess. At the General Assembly (South) held ing on that day, he is to be relieved absolutely. ough to look in the faces of these men at Atlanta, Georgia, in the spring of 1882, the The Christian Advocate remarks: "Aside from hat they are, with scarce an excep-subject was again considered, and the follow- the advantages of such an order to the ina low stamp. They are very igno-ing minute adopted: "While receding from terests of the Christian religion and of public no principle, we do hereby declare our regret morals, it has proved extremely grateful to for and withdrawal of all expressions of our one of the most industrious and over-worked Assembly which can be regarded as reflecting classes of the community—the railroad emwith spiritual things, may grow into upon, or offensive to, the General Assembly ployes-who greatly need the weekly rest r life, which shall show itself in his of the Presbyterian Church in the United thus secured to them. Not the least gratifying feature of the case is the statement of the This was sent by telegraph to the Northern gentleman who issued the order-'I did it

Reformed Episcopalians.—The 9th General

Bishop Nicholson, the former President, An explanatory resolution was added by was nominated for re-election, but declined is their life one of self-denial. Of the Northern Assembly - "That in the action on the ground that he thought it best there

The Reports showed an increase in the

For " The Friend,"

Natural History, Science, &c. Intelligence of the Crows .- As I was walking and, looking up, I saw some crows circling galena, &c .- Science. above our heads, one of which dropped a fourth from his claws. It seems we had been sudden fury of the Southern eyelone is con-reach otherwise inaccessible places fre strolling too near their nests; and they took veyed by this brief statement of B. F. Jones, this method to drive us away—a very effectual of Beauregard, Miss., who, the moment he displace any existing apparatus used for one, as a stone of that size, falling from the saw the danger coming, called his wife and ing life or extinguishing fires, but is height of sixty feet, was an exceedingly dan-little boy into the yard and made them lie useful addition to the tools of a fire gerous missile, and perhaps only prevented flat on the ground and grasp some small ment.—Public Ledger. from being fatal by the failure of the bird to shrubs which stood within reach: "I put one make allowance for the impetus given by its arm about my wife, while with the other I own motion. The aim was accurate, and the clasped a small tree, and made my son lie discharge right overhead; but, as both we close up to me, and then I said to them, 'Hold and the bird were moving, it fortunately on, hold on, for God's sake! It is for life!

is sometimes observed, is caused by the action crash of my falling house. An instant and Worker, of 5th mo. 10th, headed, "Som of a microscopic organism upon the milk it was over. I still held my wife in my arms, ciples that will guide us;" sanctifica sugar. The same organism acts similarly on but she was insensible, and my boy was still spoken of as a work subsequent to ju large pearls have been obtained during the Chr. Adv. last fishing season at La Paz in the Gulf of them in an ingenious manner. Birch bush of them bear the date of the fourth century or they are calculated to edify, or to pi

"clams" are picked off.

years on the fruitfulness of red clover, Tri- terior of the island. folium pratense, when visited by humble bees, and when protected from their visits by gauze and New York have adopted the German the striking language,—"So far as a or netting. In some years there were scarcely system of "pompier" companies for fire ser-sanctified, so far is be justified, and no fa any seeds perfected in those plants from which vice. The pompiers are firemen specially Very similar to this, are the words of the bees were excluded; and the average for drilled in the use of simple appliances for Penington: "There is no man justified the six years was only one in four compared saving life, such as scaling ladders, ropes, &c. Lord till he be changed, translated int with the plants to which the bees had access Each man is equipped with a waist belt and in whom God justifieth, out of the p —thus showing the importance of this insect spring clasp-hook, a long rope (light but condemnation into the place of justifi agency in the distribution of the pollen and strong), a hatchet and a helmet, and each For till men are changed by the Spi the fertilization of the plant.

In an ancient grave in North Carolina were poses. Each ladder is a single hickory pole, It is the believing, the obedient, the cloud ten skeletons, the principal one with with rounds sticking out a few inches on of Light, that are justified by the Let face downward. Under his head was a jeither side. On the top is a long iron book | Works, 4th ed., vol. 3, p. 215. large engraved shell; around his neck, the for fastening the ladder to the window sill. It In another place, the same deeply remains of a necklace of large-sized beads; is better that there should be one man to each enced writer says: "Justification and at each ear, pieces of copper; around each ladder, and one ladder to each story of the fication go hand in hand together. T at each ear, pieces of copper; around shell-house to be scaled; but, if necessary, two none justified, but he that is in measur beads; on his breast a piece of copper; at his men, or even one man, with a single ladder, right hand, two implements of hammered can quickly ascend to the top of the highest into it inder hand, an engraved shell building. The method is very simple, and 3, p. 332. In reference to this subject filled with beads of various kinds. The other does not require much skill. The ladder is crook has some weighty remarks to the content of t nine skeletons were arranged around this driven through the glass of the window in effect.
one, extending in all directions. Scattered the second story, and the first pompier asover the area were found a number of stone cends. If he is alone, he must straddle the of repentance and faith as preceding axes, polished celts, discoidal and rubbing window sill, and raising the ladder above him of forgiveness of sins. But this repel stones, a number of steatite pipes highly drive its book through the window above and and this faith, if of a godly sort, inc polished, with bowl and stem of one piece; again ascend, but if he has a comrade he sight of our sinful condition through also copper arrow-heads, plates of mica, gra-books himself to the first ladder and then has shining into our hearts of the Light of Bureau of Ethnology. The same parties have If necessary to avoid flames the pompier can away from them, and a looking unto the since opened another mound, in which were swing himself over obliquely from window to for mercy and help. All these are a posed was an accident of perishing masonry, shells, copper beads, a piece of hammered the means of either helping people to our party went farther toward the centre of iron, pots, cups, one tomahawk, a number of or of assisting to raise fixed ladders c the area. A second and a third fell near us; stone implements, about a dozen pipes, mica, to his position on the roof. The ch missed its mark, - Samuel Kneeland in Science. and then the wind came. There was a whirl Ropy Milk.—The ropiness in milk, which and a roar. I was shaken, and heard the cane and grape sugar, converting them into a nestling close up to me, but bruised and bleed-tion from past sins. And in its issued substance resembling vegetable mucilage in ing." All three escaped without serious in-mo. 24th, in a criticism on an article w jury, thanks to his presence of mind and the by William Nicholson, of Kansas, it is Large American Pearls.—Some remarkably prompt obedience of his wife and child.— that the work of God in saving a

Old Coins.—Near Rochester, in England, on for a long time resist the convictions California. One of these-the largest on the estate of the Earl of Darnley, an important Holy Spirit and thus delay his recep record from this region—weighing 75 carats, discovery has been made of Roman coins, the offers of mercy. Some workmen were digging up the roots of a Neither of these positions, we believ much more. Another very perfect one of 47 tree a short distance from Cobham Hall, when accordance with the teaching of the carats, is valued at $5000 and a third at $3000. they came upon a large carthenware jar, in members of the Society of Friends, to Fresh-water Mollusks.—The lumbermen on which were these coins, which are of bronze, body, we suppose, the editor of the Chaudière eat these mollusks and obtain and number between 800 and 900. The most Worker professes to belong; nor do we wood is attached to the raft so as to drag about 100 years before the Romans left Britain, the cause of religion. gently over the bottom when in the shallows. and are chiefly of the reign of Constantine, "Without holiness no man shall seles the valves on them and hold fast. At hear the labarum, the first emblems of their chiefly was that man might be redeeme intervals the brush is lifted, and the adhering that the labarum is the first emblems of their earth was that man might be redeeme than the valves on the same of the control of th where the coins turned up is near the old consequences; and this blessed effect is Fertilization of Red Clover.—Prof. Beal, of Roman Watling-street, which ran through plished in those only who are washed, Michigan, has been experimenting for six Cobham wood toward London and the in-field and justified in the name of the company of half a dozen or more men has power of the Lord, they are but day Pre-historic Remains in North Carolina. | several light ladders, made for scaling pur- and in the darkness, where no justifica both hands free with which to put his com- a submission of the heart to the work of These articles have all been received by the rade's ladder to the third story, and so on thus begun, a sorrow for sins past, a t

vantage of the new system seems to Force of Wind.—A vivid impression of the speed with which the firemen are enal outside of a burning building. It do

FRIEND. THE

SIXTH MONTH 23, 1883.

In an editorial article in the Ch "always instantaneous," although man

Jesus, and by the Spirit of our Go

The editor of the Christian Worker found 55 skeletons, four or five engraved window. When he reaches the roof he has that work of sanctification which is comes one of the subjects of the Son of cause experimental.

ience and revolt; and the Divine favor me. ected in him.

view of the way of salvation, the sight of Him. effects of faith, so highly extolled in written in 1708, which gives his own fit me for communion with Himself." nce,-which may suitably conclude emarks;

Truth as it is in Jesus, or Christ, who Cruth itself, is only savingly and effect-testimony of Scripture is clear, that experience in my measure of the work of it the country.

e of God reaches to man, even in his in my heart, I was a great stranger to Christ,

The whole a apostle commends the greatness of ascension, intercession and coming to judge ine love, by the statement, "while we the quick and the dead; as I do now; but I Much care and personal supervision is exect sinners, Christ died for us." The did not know Him then as to his inward apelercised by the directors of this association displeasure ever rests on a state of pearance, as it hath been since manifested to over the children sent to country homes, to extended to a state of obedience to his "For till I knew Him come like a refiner's with sufficient clothing. hds, and of unity with his Spirit. The fire, and like fuller's soap, and sit as a refiner The Managers expres and sufferings of our Saviour, and his and purifier of silver in my soul, and to purify invitations for the children under their care atinning work in the hearts of his chil-re designed to bring man out of the and tin which were in me obstructed that condition, and to place him in the saving and spiritual knowledge of Him, which cations should be sent to "The Children's and whether he is eventually saved or through the riches of his grace, I have in pends on whether or not this work has measure attained to. For they veiled and St., Philada. darkened my understanding, and, till they ay be thought by some, that in the were removed, they intercepted the spiritual

"Now to remove this darkness there was iptures, are too much left out of sight. first light; not natural but divine; and that s is not so. Faith may be defined to showed me my sin; the guilt, filth, and penonfidence in the truth of the impressalty due to it -eternal death; and directed ade on the mind by the Holy Spirit. me to Christ, the alone Saviour, for salvation divine gift, for the conviction felt of from sin, and for deliverance from the penalty ortance and truth of those impressions due thereunto-eternal death. And as I was rom God, and is not an exercise of any enabled by the Grace of God, for without that power of our own. Those who are I could do nothing of myself, to believe in to receive it with humble submission, Christ and repent of my sin, which in low and hfully to follow the path thus pointed silent waiting, was mercifully bestowed upon those who "walk in the Light." But me; so I came by the powerful and effectual the reject the offered gift, and are unworking of the same Grace, to pass through their children should be taken from them and sent to to submit themselves to its leading, the ministration of condemnation, and to witschool to submit themselves to its leading, the ministration of condemnation, and to witschool to submit the service has reide (Chief Porker). ose who love darkness rather than ness gradually and measurably the ministrane Divine will. These views are well but I speak of the experience I have had of ed in the following passage from Isaac bis gracious dealings with me, who bore the look works—4th ed., vol. 3, p. 333: the look indignation of the Lord for many mounts, was recently thrown open to settlement. The lodge Burst of the same nabecause I had sinned against Him. Many a It lending Burstan has received from the War Denee flows from faith and cannot be my afflictions, had not the Lord, by his secret tit; for the very nature and virtue of power, sustained me. In the midst of this in it. And faith is obedience. For distress of soul, I had now and then a word he command of God, that the soul be- of comfort given me from the Lord, whereby Him (and in his appearances) whom my faith was strengthened, my hope encourh sent to save; and this believing, is aged, and my love to God excited and revived. see unto Him that commands it. And For, though the terrors of the Lord were th, and this obedience, is holy and just upon me, yet I was made sensible of his love s sight; and through it (but not with- in this terrible dispensation, and that He cast the soul is both justified and sancti- me into the furnace in order to purify and refine me. And as this purging work went santification and justification are in- forward, so I became in love with it, and earnbly connected, and the work of the estly cried unto the Lord that He would take in the cleansing of the heart is often away all iniquity, and cleanse me from all ntinued before the effect is fully pro- filthiness of flesh and spirit; that He would we see no benefit to be derived from not suffer one Canaanite to dwell in the land, ng the doctrine of instantaneous sal- but put all to the sword that was for the slaughter, that He would thoroughly purge be life of Richard Claridge, there is a his floor, make my inside perfectly clean, and

We have received the Report of The Chil-

Truth itself, is only savingly and effectnown by his internal illumination, and minister in the Established Church of England.

an; which may be summed up in the those blessed operations and effects which He dren's Country Week Association, detailing the rd "regeneration," by which a person produces in the soul. All other knowledge operations for 1882, and suggesting to the med from the kingdom of the Evil One of Him is but notional, this alone is real be benevolent the need of assistance to enable the poor children of our city to enjoy the "Before my convincement of truth, and change of spending a part of the hot season in

The whole number of persons assisted in and sinful condition: for "God so in his inward and spiritual appearance." I this way during the last year, was over e world, that He gave his only begot-knew Him before as to his outward appear- 14,000: of whom 1802 persons were sent to n, that whosoever believeth in Him, ance, for I believed the whole history of his the country for an average visit of nine days not perish, but have everlasting life." birth, life, and sufferings, death, resurrection, each, and the others on excursions. The expenses incurred were a little less than $6500.

see that they are clean and neat and provided

The Managers express a desire for more from those living in the country.

All subscriptions, donations and communi-Country Week Association," No. 1112 Girard

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES .- General Crook has returned after an absence of six weeks among the Mexican Cordilleras an assence or six weeks among the Alexican Cordillers, where he captured between three and four hundred hostile Indians, including women and children. These Indians will be held as prisoners of war until the Interior Department is prepared to take charge of them. "Two considerations will have weight in determining where to put them. First, the importance of locating them at such a distance from the Mexican border that." they will be unable to repeat their periodical raids; and second, to avoid bringing them in contact with other tribes who are now well disposed and peaceable, but upon whom they might exert an evil influence." Sec-retary Teller has written a letter to Secretary Lincoln suggesting that the captured Indians "should be held as prisoners and punished for their crimes," and that

The Secretary of the Interior has paid to Chief Bushyhead, of the Cherokees, the $300,000 appropriated by because they are not willing to forsake to for substitution of life and peace. I say, gradually; for close sins. The proof of faith, is the so it was with me. The work was not in gradually; for the substitution of life and peace. I say, gradually; for the substitution of faith, is the so it was with me. The work was not in the substitution of the substitution to the substitution of the substitution of the substitution to the substitution to the substitution of the substitution to t Chiefs and an interpreter, is on the way to Washington to confer with the Secretary of the Interior regarding

Id always go together. So that where re is faith, there is obedience likewise; was a time of great distress, anguish and percentage is obedience, there is faith, there is obedience, there is faith, there is obedience, there is faith is ploxity of soul, and I had utterly fainted in each of the depatches from Colonel Roger and Lieutenant-Colonel Roger and Lieutena Ilges says the situation is serious, and he suggests that measures be at once taken to prevent bloodshed and loss of property.

The corporators of the Lincoln Institution in Philadelphia, have made the necessary amendments to their charter for converting the institution into a training school for Indian girls. The girls will be brought from the West and trained and educated as at the Carlisle

The plan for the consolidation of the Internal Revenue Collection Districts in accordance with the act passed at the last session of Congress, has been virtually agreed upon by the President and Secretary of the Treasury. In all except two of the States, the reorganization of the service has been blocked out, and the matter will probably be finally settled soon. Ohio is understood to be one of the States whose service is still under consideration.

The State Department has been advised by our Minister at Tokio, of the delivery to the Japanese Govern-ment of the Treasury draft for $785,000, the amount of the Simonoseki indemnity fund returned to Japan in pursuance of the act of Congress of 22d of 2d mo. last, In accepting the sum the Japanese Foreign Minister expressed "the appreciation of his Government at the equity and justice constantly manifested by the United States toward Japan," and he "alluded with much satisfaction to the present happy relations existing between the people of both countries."

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular to customs officers containing regulations for the treatment and quarantining of imported cattle. The circular provides that "All cattle arriving in the United States from Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia or New Zealand, shall be subject to a quarantine of ninety days, counting from the date of shipment. It shall be the duty of the veterinary inspector at each port to see that the cattle imported shall be securely guarded against the risk of importes sauto executive guarteet against tit they shall year. Of the foregoing, 181 were male, and 210 have entered the quarantine grounds, and all imported [cantle shall be under his control from the time of land-of marsmans; 23 died of consumption; 24 of diplitheria; 24 cattle shall be under his control from the time of land-of marsmans; 25 of meningities; 21 of convisions; 22 ing until they reach the quarantine grounds. He shall also he superintendent of the quarantine, and shall have of typhoid fever. charge of the grounds, buildings, yards, and all pro-perty thereto belonging." Specific instructions are given in regard to the care of the animals, and disinfection of the stations.

The Star Route trial ended on the 14th instant with a verdict of "not gnilty" in all the cases, and the jury and the defendants were discharged.

The first train on the Northern Pacific Railroad to Helena, Montana, reached there on the 12th inst. The track is being laid at the rate of three miles per day, with about 140 miles to be laid to the Oregon connection.

A car has arrived at New Orleans with 1,600,000 young shad, sent by Professor Baird for distribution in Louisiana waters: 1,000,000 of them were soon afterwards distributed in Pass Manchae, Bayou Lafourche $1.12 a $1.24. Rye is nominal. Corn is fairly active and Bayou Vermillion. On the afternoon of the 14th, sixteen car loads of bituminous coal from the Southwestern Virginia Improvement Company's mines arrived at Petersburg, Virginia, consigned to the agent of the Allen Line steamers at Norfolk. It is the first shipment of coal from these

The "High License bill" has passed the Senate of So a 65 cts. per 100 pounds. Illinois by a vote of 30 to 20, and been signed by the Governor.

The San Francisco Journal of Commerce says that two months ago the harvest seemed dead, but now the wheat yield is enormous compared with all previous experience. It says: "It must be remembered that only a few years have elapsed since thirty million bashels would have seemed a mighty yield, now we confidently look forward to more than double that figure. after year more of our fertile acres have been subjected to the yoke of the plow, until this year we have as much under wheat as has Great Britain and Ireland with thirty-two fold our population. This is something to be proud of. Our wheat will sell for a hundred million doftars this year; our barley for fifteen million dollars; our hops for a hundred and fifty thousand; our wine for four millions; our wool clip for nine millions; our of nearly one hundred and fifty millions of dollars from and fifty millions to spend, or about a thousand dollars for every man, woman and child of our farming population, our trade in the year, so auspiciously begun, will be in a measure marvellous."

The President of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce estimates the wheat crop of Minnesota at 40,-000,000 bushels, and that of Dakota at 20,000,000.

A violent storm and whirlwind visited Muncy, Pa. last First-day evening, destroying the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad station and half a mile of track, and killing a boy. For an hour rain fell in torrents, accompanied by hallstones as large as hickory nuts. Hamilton and supported by the Conservatives and the Bridges over small streams were washed away, barns were unroofed, a number of other buildings were damaged, fruit trees were levelled and a quantity of grain was destroyed. The storm passed into Northumberland county, doing great damage there

One of the severest storms ever known in Pittsburg, visited that city on Second-day evening. Hailstones fell as large as hen's eggs, smashing glass throughout cause some anxiety, owing to its influence on her the city. In the surrounding country trees were uprooted and cattle killed.

News has been received at Cairo of a terrible storm in Williamson county, Illinois, in which 20 lives were lost. Lightning as well as wind caused destruction, a lost. Lightning as well as wind caused whole family in one place being struck by an electric acquitted.

The Times, in an editorial, says the sentences are Chillicothe, Missouri, and its vicinity, on the 12th, unroofing and wrecking buildings. The house of Dennis Wolfe, five miles south of Chillicothe, was demolished, Wolfe, five miles south of Chillicothe, was demolished, deserts. All the London journals express approval of "the family carried through the air about five hundred" the sentences. The Daily News says the convicted men feet," Wolfe killed, and his wife seriously injured. At deliberately declared war against society, and they have Sunner City, 18 miles southwest, eleven buildings no right to complain of the consequences. The Dublin were destroyed. Thousands of trees in the path of the Freeman's Journal also expresses its approbation of the tornado were uprooted.

In the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church of America, at Albany, on the 12th instant, resolutions ures against Annam, as he does not wish to alie were adopted denouncing the Masonic and other oath-sympathy of England and America. Prime 1 bound secret orders, and cautioning all churches of the Ferry, on the contrary, is in favor of an energetic Synod to "discourage their members from joining secret societies.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 391 which was 53 more than during the previous week, and 58 more than during the corresponding period last of scarlet fever; 12 of old age; 12 of casualties, and 9 of typhota lever.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103\frac{1}{3}; 3\frac{1}{2}'s, 103\frac{1}{3}; 4\frac{1}{2}'s, 113; 4's' registered, 119; coupon, 120; currency 6's, 128 a 132.

Cotton continues dull, but prices were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at 10% a 11% cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.—Standard white, 7½ a 7½ cts. for export, and 8½ a 85 cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour is in moderate request and firm. Sales of 2000 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5.25 a amendment to the Constitution submitted to the $6.50; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.12\frac{1}{2}; western do. at $5.75 a $6.25, and patents at $6.50 a $7.50. Rye flour is quiet but steady at $3.70 a $3.75 per barrel.

Grain.-Wheat was unsettled and prices were a fraction lower. Sales of 4000 bushels red, in car lots, at and easier. Sales of 8000 bushels in car lots, at 56 a 16th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 413; loads of straw, 52. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 80 to 90 cts. per 100 pounds; mixed, 70 to 80 cts.; straw,

Beef cattle were in fair demand last week, but prices were without material change: 3500 head arrived and the river Camarones to Chili; the occupation t sold at the different yards at 5\frac{3}{2} at 6\frac{3}{2} cts, per lb., as to of Tacna and Arica for ten years, after which

Sheep were active and prices were a fraction higher: 10,000 head arrived and sold at 33 a 65 cts., and lambs at 6 a 81 cts. per lb., as to quality. Hogs were a fraction lower: 3300 head arrived and sold at 9 a 10 cts. per lb., as to condition.

Foreign.-A terrible calamity occurred in the town of Sunderland, in the county of Durham, on the evening route to General Iglesias: of the 16th. From the details thus far received it ap ears that an entertainment had been given in Victoria Hall by a conjuror, which was attended almost altogether by children, several thousand being in attendance. The accident occurred at the close of the performance. The body of the hall had been entirely to four millions; our woot cup for nine millions; our jurnature. The body of the half had been extended by the fruit crop will pour into the lap of the grower five mil-cleared of its occupants, when some 1200 of the little territories belong exclusively to Chili, who can blooms: our dairy produce will bring nine millions; ones came rushing down stairs from the gallery. Some of such newly discovered mines at will. Chililions; our dairy produce will bring nine millions; ones came rushing down stairs from the gallery. Some of such newly discovered mines at will. Chili minor cereals five or six million dollars—a grand total of the children who escaped say that a report spread hold herself responsible for any indebtedness of through the gallery at the close of the performance a portion of our farm produce alone. With a hundred that the child first out of the hall would get a prize, and there was consequently an eager rush for the doors. At the top of the first flight of stairs there was a door Peru 50 per cent of the net proceeds from the which opened only 20 inches, and thus only one child Islands. Lastly, the commercial relations and was permitted to pass through at a time. At this point, while the mass of children were pushing forward, some of them fell and were unable to rise, owing to the others crowding on. The result was that a great number were pushed down, trampled on, and about 200 suffocated or otherwise fatally injured.

In the House of Commons on the evening of the 12th, Gladstone accepted a resolution proposed by Lord Claud Parnellites, in favor of an early revision of the purchase clauses of the Land Act for the purpose of giving fuller effect to the intentions of Parliament.

Truth asserts that Queen Victoria has quite recovered from the injury to her knee sustained some time ago by falling down the steps at Windsor Palace. The depression of her spirits is, however, said by Truth to general health.

On the 14th instant the dynamite conspirators, Dr. Gallagher, Wilson, Whitehead and Curtin, were found guilty of treason-felony, and sentenced to penal servitude for life. Ausburgh and Beroard Gallagher were severe, but, considering the heinousness of the offence, the convicted men have not received more than their sentences.

President Grévy is opposed to taking extrem

Admiral Pierre, commander of the French Madagascan waters, in his report of the bombs of Majunga, in 5th mo., 16, says he demanded render of the place, but received an evasive repl vessels then opened fire on the town, the three which, mounting thirty guns, replied. The town was destroyed, but the French factory ar of the American houses escaped injury. The g composed of two thousand men, retreated. The The sustained no loss of men. They occupied the to are collecting the customs.

A land-slip has occurred in Kuezurmare, duchy of Bukowina, Austria, by which 112 hous destroyed. The Mexican Congress adjourned on Second-The most important acts passed by it was the au tion to the President to settle the national d giving the control of mining and commercial the Federal Congress, and several railroad gra most important of which gives a charter, with vention to the State of Michoacan over the r which the Mexican National Railroad forfe charter after spending large sums in construction Advices from Ecuador to the 19th ultimo, st 66 cts. Oats are quiet and weaker. Sales of 9500 severe earthquakes had shaken Quito and LaT hushels, in car lots, at 47 a 54 cts.

In the latter place several houses were overthrom. Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo. volcano of Cotopaxi was in active eruption, and tition of the catastrophe of 1877 was feared

The basis of peace between Peru and Chili by Novoa and Lavalle, on behalf of General I stipulates for the cession of all the territory s of Tacna and Arica for ten years, after which scite is to decide to whom they shall belong, country getting them is to pay an indemnity 000,000 to the other.

Lima, 6th mo. 15, via Galveston.-The fo particulars relative to the terms of peace has published in the papers here and were taken fr ters stolen on the 24th ult. from a special cou

"Chili will not forfeit the decrees about gus saltpetre issued 2nd mo. 9 and 3rd mo. 20, 18

the net profits of 1,000,000 tons, deducting all en be equally divided between the Chilian and Po bondholders. These profits only come out islands now worked, as future mines found in a Chili holds the sovereignty of the Lobos Islam sufficient guano is extracted to fulfil the sale of I, When the treaty is ratified Chili turns tons. nities to Chilian citizens will be discussed after

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL Until further notice the Stage will be at We Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the

WANTED,

An efficient person to assist in household duti be companion for an invalid. Address Box 666, West Chester P. O., Ches

Pennsylvania,

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

Wanted, a woman Friend, qualified to teach I Latin, and other branches in the Girls' School. Application may be made to

Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine St. John W. Biddle, 726 Buttonwood Rebecca S. Elkinton, 400 S. Ninth Mary D. Allen, 833 N. Seventh St

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHIL AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Ma household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine 8

John Sharpless, Chester, Penna. Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine stree

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SIXTH MONTH 30, 1883.

NO. 47.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

lyance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. icles designed for insertion to be addressed to

JOSEPH WALTON. OORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. is, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

(Continued from page 362.)

"Philada,, Ist mo. 4th, 1830. ear -: My mind has been so much ee and your family for the last few hat I have thought much of endeavoray you a visit. But as it seems doubt- affectionate friend and cousin, ther I shall be able to accomplish this, ling my mind a little quieted this , and somewhat sensible of a degree sympathy springing up, I thought I should not do amiss in conveying by way of letter the feelings that have e friendship of our earlier years based, light before his own, and crooked things we always trusted it was, on the im- straight.

pear many times, this seems our only near affection, and if we can but hold fast a little ad confidence in the eternal Arm, humking for a qualification to pray before and for ability to 'behave ourselves in a perfect way,' we shall be strengthle that our Lord is indeed God.

onviction that it will be the case, that aid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid his name in a late, less bitter, bereavement ressel as may be consistent with his holy will. which came by Jesus Christ our Lord? I have wished to convey to thee before, the feeling which accompanied my mind at the time we followed him to the silent grave. When I think I was made sensible, that the end of all things to him was peace. * *

Well, my dear cousin, I do not seem to have much more at present to communicate, beyond the hope that thou mayest be strengthnd Memoranda of William Scattergood, ened to seek for true support, and that thou mayest be enabled to draw nearer and nearer to the Fountain of everlasting life. Farewell affectionately. My love is to all your family without exception; which thou mayest mention if worth accepting; and to thyself, I think I may say very largely. From thy truly

WILLIAM SCATTERGOOD."

From Sarah Hillman to W. S.

No date; but probably about this time. "My dear friend, why wilt thou flee? is not spiritual death painfully felt in many places, d the mind. I am aware that feeling where the enemy has not spread the net, stripped, as it appears to me, of almost which causes to fall into unbelief. Ah mee of good, and reduced to the lowest thinks, 'woe is me,' may be very properly the on to which perhaps a soul that feels language of our spirits, 'because I dwell in agering for the bread of immortal life Mesech, and sojourn in the tents of Kedar. sibly be reduced to, it would be pre- May our attention be directed unto Him who on to offer much by way of consolation died for us, who has, in some measure, brought rs, yet as I trust (however the mani-us unto himself, and made us willing to enter n of it of latter time may have been into covenant with Him; and oh, let us steadid) that there is still alive between us by follow his leadings, even though we may be wards one another, the sensible evibrought into paths we have not seen. He f continued affection and regard, and leadeth the blind; and He will make darkness

e foundation, still continues, I feel a I am sometimes ready to fear (while I thus to offer to thee in thy present afflic-speak) for myself, lest I shall never be able to e language of sincere sympathy, and overcome the enemies of my own house, so as re thee of my brotherly remembrance, to come up in the line which has been marked pelief that however the blow may have in my view as the only way for me into the ong warded off, the reality is not the kingdom of rest and peace. Pray for thy nful for being long delayed. * * * feeble friend, that nothing may operate to ny dear cousin, there is a never failing hinder her from being given up in body, soul, ; and in the afflictions which are per- and spirit to the guidance and leadings of the to befal us in our solitary travel, as it blessed Head of the Church. Farewell in S. II."

From E. Allinson* to W. S.

"Burlington, 7th mo. 4th, 1830. Dear Cousin, * * * My mind has of in a perfect way,' we shall be strength-late been particularly turned towards thee, om season to season to show by our in affectionate nearness; desiring that thou mayest, dear cousin, be favored to experience an affectionate solicitude, accompanied a disposition to yield thyself, as the passive

*Elizabeth Allinson, an elder in Burlington Monthly will not be in any wise from the faith of the Gospel, but that

*Elizabeth Allinson, an elder in Burlington Monthly detening. New Jersey, deceased the 11th of 5th month, 1856, in the 82d year of herage. For a lengthy oblitany the Monthly Meeting, Philadelphia, deceased 3d mo. 24th, with the exception of a faint glimmer of light in one for our justification. Surely marvellous

*Elizabeth Allinson, an elder in Burlington Monthly heral; but thou art still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the month of the case, the still able to graft me in eleging the still able to and wonderful are his works! and hast thou clay, into the hands of the Heavenly Potter; not had special cause, my dear M., to magnify that so thou mayest be formed into such a may I not say, when thy dear brother was Thus wilt thou be enabled to honor Him in made to feel the power of that redemption thy generation, and to attain his blessing both in spiritual and temporal things. That thou and thy beloved companion, who I believe is not a stranger to mental exercise and concern for the prosperity of the cause of Truth, may be coming up in your proper allotments, is the fervent desire of thy affectionate cousin, E. Allinson,"

> The following is extracted from a letter written by Ann Jones to Hannah Paul,* 10th mo. 4th, 1831 .- "Does William Scattergood appear (in the ministry) in your meetings? I often think of him, and greatly desire for his own and the Church's sake, that he may be faithful unto death, even the death of the cross. And that by dwelling with the life that lives through death, he may be made more than conqueror through Him who loved him; and who, through death, bath conquered him who had the power of death. Our united love to Ann Scattergood and her children; especially William and Elizabeth."

> From the Memoranda.—"1833. Alas, to whom now shall I look? I have lost all faith, all hope, all that can give me any claim to eternal life. What shall I say? O that it were with me as in days that are past, as in the months when God preserved me! O Lord! hast thou utterly cast me off forever? I acknowledge my backsliding; I acknowledge my utter worthlessness and vileness in thy sight. I have returned as the dog to his vomit, and as the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. But thou, O most holy and powerful Redeemer, art still able to raise from the dead those who believe in thee. Be graciously pleased to touch my heart with a little of the quickening virtue of thine own Spirit; and in thy mercy, which is infinite, cast me not off utterly. O! remember that I am dust, and restrain my mind from wandering from thee. Thou seest the secret defection of my heart; thou knowest how I have departed, and the secret causes which have led into my present condition of barrenness, desolation, and death. O! be graciously pleased to renew me again; create a clean heart, and renew a right spirit within me. I have seen thee, that thou art a boly and just God who alloweth not iniquity; but wilt be justified when thou speakest, and clear when thou judgest. Blot out, O Lord! if it is not vet too late, my transgressions which are as mountains before me; which prevent my having access to thee, and disqualify for service in thy church and among thy people. O! I am defiled, and cast forth as an unprofitable brand; but thou art still able to graft me in iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin."

formity to what I know to be right; but alas, 'without faith it is impossible to please God.' truth, that I believe that He is; but is it alone and company, when it is of the right kind." available to salvation? O Lord! I see myself account? My stewardship unfulfilled, my ac-declined from thy law," and, further, as ex-very expensive collection of appliance counts not ready? Where shall I look for pressive of thankfulness that their lot has natural history study intended for his help if thou forsakest? May I ask again for been cast with the seekers of God, may they dren, I reflected that, morally speakin the light of thy countenance to enlighten my quote the language of the same excellent investment represented probably some dark and hard heart! I feel my want; I feel psalm which so exclos the Lord's statutes and best-paying stock that he possessed; where the same excellent investment represented probably some that I have been negligent and idle; and that testimonies, "I am a companion of all them addition to that, the actual money co the beggary to which I am now brought is that fear thee, and of them that keep thy been but a tithe of the outlay, which through idleness and fear. Be pleased to re- precepts." store unto me the tenderness and visitations of thy love as in earlier years; that, if not too parental letter, but as speaking the same lanlate, I may again know the strengthening guage, and inciting to the same thing, is the Athletic Sports, I am aware that I go virtue of thy arm, which is able to save to the subjoined expression on worldly conformity ground where I am likely to be, by uttermost all them that call upon thee.

"12th mo. 24th.—'Like as a father pitieth ander his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear bim.' "

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend,"

The Quest for Entertainments and Sports.

lieve that Christ's followers are enjoined to the par of the religious world around us." be a peculiar people,-to be "peculiar" in a spirit of the world.

"Many templations will occur to making any or a specific or much care lest we drift into dents of different colleges, with professibles the very reverse of those which you the accompanying peril of a scolding habit, players occasionally brought in. The ciples, the very reverse of those which you the accompanying peril of a scolding habit, players occasionally brought in hear me supporting both in the pulpit and There is, perhaps, no agency better calculated of these matches being reported in a parlor. Be not ashamed of firmly, though to temper this over-severity or mere censority or mere censority in such cases, resisting them. State ousness which an unwatchful state or a for that they are men indeed. As proofs of the control of what mine and your principles are, and heed getfulness of "the hole of the pit whence [we] manliness, betting on races, a liking for not the momentary unpleasantness of appear-lare digged," may induce, than may be found ingpapers, smoking, liquor drinking, and ing singular, when conscience and duty re in a frequent application of those evidences vices or indulgences gain headway, quire it. You may easily say, 'my father of disingenuousness, disobedience, or ingrati- party or class feeling grows more inter does not approve of such and such things, tude which we see in our children, to our own neither can I novels, popular amorous poems, plays, songs, sionate Father in heaven. And when we're of them will naturally be ambitious to vanities and finery, and all the sad tribe of flect that, in alliance with this loving and in their studies as well as in their public poisonous and dangerous pursuits, should be forgiving spirit of the Lord, we owe so much nastics, and will graduate well-up in simplicity and love to Christ, may never give tions as the inspeaking Director of our paths, willing to sacrifice excellence in their paths, willing to sacrifice excellence in their paths.

my Saviour! graciously condescend to extend are often more dangerous than those who are (but never in sarcasm)—toward the often concernore the sweet visitations of thy love, less so; because we are more on our guard in with whom Providence may have ent that I may be enabled yet to triumph over the latter case than the former. The great us death, bell, and the grave. I am persuaded number of instances in which I have seen the that without thee I have neither power nor young people of religious families deeply inability to raise one sigh or prayer which shall jured in their spirits and habits, by much reach thy Divine car. O! bow down thine visiting with persons of different views and dant means, and who are not debarred car unto me; 'wash me thoroughly from mine customs from those of their own household, spending their summers where they m has made me, I confess, from pure motives of cline—as at the fashionable watering-plants and the fashionable watering-plants. "1834.—What shall be said of my present conscience and prudence, very averse to much there are associations, frequently far free condition? I feel desirous to walk in con- of that sort of visiting in my own childrens best, and not helpful to the children of Fr case, which I know to have been productive in the hotel's dancing hall, music parlor of bad consequences in others. And the diffi- table and ten-pin alley, and, generally, This is obvious; for how can we be sincerely culty of drawing the line has always appeared companionship of those who may have desirous of serving Him, if we do not livingly very great with my numerous friends and ac-relish for that simplicity of address and believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder quaintance. Still, I wish to make you happy which we have been taught to esteem of them that diligently seek Him? It is easy in every reasonable way; and I am glad when may hence, with profit, observe the to say, we believe. I can say I think with I can give you the advantage of new scenes Legh Richmond's to seek the happing

The enunciation of correct Christian sentiling them the advantage of new scene poor and naked and miserable, and often look ments such as these of Legh Richmond, has with the qualification that the compa toward thy holy habitation with desires for ever caused their promulgators to be con-the associations shall be "of the right help; but alas, utterly unable as I am to do temned as over-scrupulous and illiberal by any thing of myself or to ask any thing, my those parents to whom the way of the cross pursuits, and similar beneficial employ soul falls back again, without rising in living is an offence. Yet the sincere-hearted may the young may often be assisted to est sapirations to thy holy flootstool. here say with the Psalmist, as provoking to merely frivolous and time-wasting of Oh! how shall I look Thee, my gracious steadfastness of purpose, "The proud have thou at their true value. When beings Redeemer, in the face, in the day of awfull had me greatly in derison; yet have I not not long ago, by a Friend of means, which countervail parental instruction and of the body, I have naught to object to su example, I am persuaded, is yielding to the ployment, within reasonable limits, w ways of good society. By dress, books, and it be in the way of running, leaping amusements, an atmosphere is formed which playing, rowing, or similar bodily exe is not that of Christianity. More than ever It is simply to that abuse of skilled a The following letter, addressed by the audo I feel that our families must stand in a practice, which has led to those compe ther of "The Dairyman's Daughter" to his kind but determined opposition to the fashions inter-collegiate and other matches—no children, gives apt expression to those con- of the world. And I have found nothing yet come an acknowledged evil—that exc siderations of tender solicitude which should which requires more courage and independ- is taken. Previous to the late war, tr animate all, in the parental relation, who begence than to rise a little, but decidedly, above skill in boat-rowing and ball-playing we conscientious separation from the deadening the desire to escape the Divine condemnation same institution. But the ambition is and the self-reproach which laxity of parental we well know, is to participate in for "Many temptations will occur to induce control, like that of Eli, may bring with it, arranged public matches between picks states as careless, disobedient, or otherwise the lads are markedly neglected by rea "All description of public amusements, sinful sons and daughters of a very compastible excessive participation in sports. regulated by this principle; and O, that your to his gentle and continually-repeated moni-classes. A greater number, however, v way to one sad influence of false sentiment, we should thouce be led to an apprehension scholastic pursuits to a determination to even among those whom, on other accounts, of our duty not to be negligent—whether in themselves; whilst all will suffer in the and through thy mercy and grace. O Lord, we may esteem and regard. The half religious helpful counsel, in commendation or r

Of more recent date than the foregoing piano" would have entailed.

The several seasons of the year offer, the children in every reasonable way,

By instilling a fondness for natural h different and gayer tastes to indulge, a "

In alluding, in conclusion, to the sub by a thoughtful writer, Dr. James W. Alex-unwelcome. As there is an undoubte priety in the student devoting a certai "The door at which those influences enter tion of his time to the healthful develo the most part, confined to imprompts It need searcely be said that, along with tests between companies of students

It may not always be that the stud plation and worldliness which has so alive. to the life of many churches, will yet, rom these sporting customs, and from J. W. L. their train.

For "The Friend." Religious Views and Tenets.

ighteneth not only the converted ones, ne converting power of God. But the altar of the heart? s of itself does not comprehend the For David says, "In thy light shall light;" and life and immortality are ought to light through the inshining gospel light which Paul says has ap-ly spirit we have not the heavenly life unchangeable Sun of righteousness. ht; and without this, how can we before we can hand it out to others. ers of the gospel? We may be ministhe letter by the spirit of man that is kingdom. out we cannot be ministers of the Spirit nese students become business men, negligence or unwatchfulness had suffered before we can relish heavenly food; and we ir vitality more and more. Great the fire that had been divinely kindled upon must have the carnal mind, which is enmity or gratitude is it that the students the altar to go out; but they continued to with God, silenced in us before we can hear our borders have been largely preshow their activity in offerings to the Lord, the still small voice; and we must have the awry and virtual infidelity, which, as in them that come nigh to me; and before enly things. One of the many wonderful ollege presidents can tell us, have fol- all the people I will be glorified;" yet they things our Saviour did while ontwardly among life which is the spiritual light of every of life in Christ Jesus, is not spiritual death the true ministers who are sent out by Him. be only true light. And it is the light penalty for spiritual disobedience? Spiritual And they are to do it in the ability that God ry man that comes into the world; altar of the heart, which the Lord has not not man, by this light shining and operating kindled nor commanded. How can He be Dublin, I larkness of our sinful hearts, that we sanctified in us unless his pure Spirit prevails verted and turned from darkness to in the soul, quickening it by his Divine energy od from the power that Satan has over and causing the heavenly fire to burn on the

"O for a closer walk with God! A calm and heavenly frame, A light to shine upon the road That leads us to the Lamb."

to all; and which teaches the ways of light of the Spirit of life to shine upon the road signed, expects to enjoy the full benefit of his on to all who will be taught by it. So that leads from earth to heaven; and he labors on the first day of the Fourth month, to have the light, let us believe in the often finds it to be a marvellous light. Though in the year of our Lord one thousand seven nat we may become the children of clouds of darkness may at times be permitted hundred and sixty-five: And Dido, a negro on the weight of is fulness. For it is written: "Cursed ing of the Sun of Righteonsness with that tion to join in marriage with each other, and man that trusteth in man, and maketh healing and restoring virtue which spreads on enquiry no difficulty appearing in respects is arm; and whose heart departeth over and heals all who patiently wait the to marriage engagements with any others. e Lord." But the man of "They, the said William Boin and Dido, on rist is indeed our Lord, as many of the the world, who believes not in the light of the third of the Fifth month, in the year of ors of religion in their mouth-worship spiritual life, is striving to content bimself our Lord one thousand seven hundred and im to be; why are they not more will, with a worldly light—the light of reason—sixty-three, at a little meeting held in a dwellt the preparation of the heart and the the light of a cultivated intellect—a light com- ing house, on that occasion did publicly inof the tongue should be of Him? If God parable to the changeable moon that rules in form us, the witnesses to this instrument, that irit, why should not the worshipping the darkness of this changeable world, but they took each other as husband and wife, be in spirit and in truth, without the shines no higher; neither has it the crown of and mutually proposed to use their best enshment or ostentatious show, or musi- twelve stars upon it; but is kept under foot deavors, through Divine assistance, to be play of poor finite man? Without the by the true church, which is clothed with the faithful and true to each other until death As the outward visible world could not sub- thereof have bereunto

r speak of heavenly things to the profit sist without the ontward visible sun to warm hearers? We must first receive the and enlighten it; so the spiritual or invisible have it not ourselves, how can we be cousness shines upon it to warm and enlighten it, and to make it fruitful in the heavenly

If under the old dispensation, the ministers e receive it from Him who is a Spirit, of the outward sanctuary had to be cleansed to must be worshipped in spirit and in from the filthiness of the flesh before they that is, without mockery or hypocrisy. could minister of holy things; how much more ust receive before we can give: because now under the ministry of the sanctuary and anot give that which we have not of the true tabernacle which the Lord has here is a spirit in man; and the inspira- pitched, and not man, should the ministers be the Almighty giveth them understand- purged from the filthiness of the spirit, by the and how can we understand the deep washing of regeneration, before ministering of God but by the inspiration from of the law of the Spirit of life? The old min-Christ says, without me ye can do istry was under that law which made nothing

ife. As has been shown by dear ex- nothing—nothing that will advance his cause, perfect; and which was only figurative of the in very many of the 360 colleges of without his assisting and enlightening grace. new, which is established upon better prom-l (and increasingly so of latter years) So there is a spiritual ministry, coming from lies. But now Christ is head over all things lents will be more ready of provoca-the Spirit of the Lord, which tends to lead unto his church; and has become the minister s tractable, less willing to come under the hearers from earth to heaven; and there of ministers; and is willing and able to furnish ne even where it is judicious and whole. is an intellectual ministry, proceeding from all, who in faith humbly rely on Him, with Necessarily, the Bible and other return the spirit of man, which, with all its eloquence, that ability which God alone through Him tends to lead the hearers no higher than carth, can give. He is able to bless and hand forth the first of the bread and water of life to all the hungerwill be unsought. Under such a pre-other is from heaven, and is heavenly in its ing and thirsting ones, who patiently wait in for the active duties of life, the spirit nature. The one kills, while the other makes the silence of all flesh for that refreshment which comes alone through Ilim. But we We read that the sons of Aaron through have to hunger and thirst after rightcousness Although He had said, "I will be sanctified spiritual eye opened before we can see heav-"offered strange fire before the Lord, which men, was to open the eyes of the blind. And He commanded them not;" and so they suffered the penalty of death. This was under among the Gentiles, was to open the eyes of the outward law, and for outward transgres the spiritually blind, and to turn them from sions. But now, under the law of the Spirit darkness to light, &c. And so it is with all death to those who offer a strange fire on the giveth, that He alone may be glorified and

Dublin, Ind., 6th mo. 5th, 1883.

A curious Marriage Certificate, which has been preserved in John Woolman's handwriting.

Whereas, William Boin, a negro man now employed in the affairs of Moses Haines, of Springfield, who by an agreement with the The heavenly-minded man longs for the said Moses Haines, set forth in writing and > should separate them. And in confirmation their hands,

WILLIAM BOIN, Dido Boin.

world cannot subsist without the Sun of Right Joseph Burr, for negro Catharine, mother of Dido.

Patience Haines, by her order, for negro London, her father-in-law. John Woolman, Hager, Dapha, Josiah White, George Juleter. Benjamin Jones. Thomas Antrim, Cesar Morry, Simus Bustill, David Ridgway, Elizabeth Merton, Amey Strattan, Ann Brooks, Primas, Hager Ridgway, Sarah Fennimore, Sarah Woolman, Susanna Fennimore, Catron Fennimore, David Haines,

James Hage. Amey Antram,

The Opening of the Congo.

influence or is to be free to the world involves portance; but with these interests are bound up very closely the higher interests of civilization and Christianity. The grandest civilization attainable is Christian civilization, until the present generation, as an inaccessithe most wonderful water-courses in the world. pressed, or be greatly hindered. When Stanley descended the great Congo, the cataracts around which Stanley has built slaver's flag. - Chr. Adv. good roads, below Stanley Pool, which is about 350 miles from the eoast; and one is for the navigation of the stream above the being open to it. From Stanley Pool to the the Canterbury Revision, or the Greek Testahave been established, and colonies are grow- and interpret the [Bible] very largely in the ing up around them; and the journey to the light of our own character. He who is most danger and difficulty, will soon become as the words of our Lord: "One thing is need of Connecticut which he had sought in Cataract.

Stanley's mission is an international one. assisted the enterprise from his own private of intellectual conviction from Judaism to a is a noble, a humane, a generous undertaking, designed to develop trade, introduce civiliza- transition. tion, advance science, let Christianity into human oppression and degradation. the Republic a vast amount of territory. sions, that the tricolor will not triumph.

asks England's support, on the ground of ing enthusiasm .- Nat. Baptist.

oecupation of the whole territory in the seventeenth century. Portugal still holds the The question whether the great Congo river Congo and Angola districts to the south of is to be dominated by French or Portuguese the river, and would be glad to annex Loango to the North. France proposes to seize all political and business interests of great im- the territory it can lay hands on south of the equator, and French gun boats and Portuguese have aroused the natives to a high worthy friend to learn the trade of pitch of excitement. England at first seemed inclined to listen to Portugal, on the ground and Christianity prepares the way more that a more stable government was needed thoroughly for the commerce and other ele- along the coast than the native chiefs could to join in membership with the Soc ments of civilization, as even a distinguished provide; but public sentiment in England Friends. He was a sedate and quie French atheist has recently admitted, than sets strongly against this policy, and the and I think I may say, that he was of any other agency. Africa has been regarded, Government must heed it. Portugal's colonial policy is selfish, if not rapacious. So little of ing as a father, was, that be let his cl ble continent. Along its wonderful extent of beneficence has there been in its rule in Congo do pretty much as they pleased, and le coast-line, trading stations, towns, even colo-and Angola that improvement cannot be found nies might be formed to gather up important anywhere. Even the Catholie religion has there was no great choice of meetings to articles of trade from the interior; but no well-nigh died out. France's designs are we could go, in my young years, as they thought, until in recent years, of even com- quite as nagenerous. At home the Republic few except Presbyterians and Baptists munication with the vast unreached interior is tolerant of all religions; in its colonies it is was entertained. And yet the great unex- generally rigidly intolerant. If it obtains plored regions lying immediately to the west control of the Congo the great Protestant of the great lakes can be reached by one of missionary enterprises will probably be sup-

Because, therefore, of the grand possibiliwhich he rechristened the Livingstone, a tew ties which the Congo opens to Christianity, years ago, it was considered the greatest feat civilization, and commerce; because it is the The colonel of the local militia and ever accomplished by an African traveller, key to the great interior regions and popula-Now, after some months' work and a contition of the continent, we do not want to see siderable outlay, a pathway extending nearly it under the control of France or Portugal. fifteen hundred miles across the continent is Its importance to Europe is such as would open to travel and trade. Four steamers, justify its being internationalized, as the he would not fight. To such an exter under the auspices of the African International Danube is, in Europe. Let no national flag this prejudice carried, that they wou Association of Belgium, ply on the river predominate on it. Let it be free as the ocean Three occupy the navigable waters between is, and let no flag be excluded except the Character as a Commentator .- Whether we Pool, a magnificent stretch of 1,000 miles use the old Version, or the Bible Union, or coast many trading and missionary stations ment, it is well to hear in mind that we read ing up around them; and the journey to the light of our own character. He who is most tain protection from some higher pool, which the English Baptist missionaries spiritual, finds the New Testament spiritual. Upon solidly weighing the subject the greatest He who is material, finds it material. Thus made a year or two ago with the greatest He who is material, finds it material. Thus most easy to seek that relief from the Go common as the trip up the Nile to the Second ful," a German scholar has interpreted as from lower officers of government. As meaning: "one dish is sufficient for supper." A man of Christian experience sees in the He is opening the way to the interior, not words something far different. One man sees for Belgium, whose sovereign has generously in the conversion of Paul nothing but a change the council assembled, but the governo purse to the extent of $100,000; not for Ger-logical belief in the divine mission of Christ. dressed, for he was a poor man, and d many, not for England, but for the world. It Another man realizes that the change was something vastly beyond a mere intellectual in their best order-for both he and hi

It is true of all moral and spiritual, æsthetic the heart of savage heathendom, and relieve and affectional truth, that we know only what When he entered the council chambe The we have experienced. He who has never flags which Stanley has raised over his sta- held in his arms a child of his own, does not tions are non-national. On the other hand know, cannot know, what it is to love his thought it would never do to give out de Brazza, as the envoy of France, is on the child, or what it is to lose his child. Napoleon Congo to make French territory. He has might receive the intellectual proposition that raised the French tricolor at Stanley Pool, it is wrong to be ambitious and selfish; but rustic before them with considerable ha and in many other places, and claimed for he could not know the excellence of unselfish A devotion to the good of humanity. "The him what the nature of his business wi conflict with Stanley seems more than proba- natural man receiveth not the things of the ble ; but we hope, for the sake of Africa, and Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto humanity and civilization, and Christian mis- him; neither can be know them; because they many and crimation, and in the trinoph.

The great struggle, however, will be for the Bible is no broader, no deeper than our see if the Lord will not dispose the he the mouth of the river. Whoever controls experience of the Bible. What to one is the the governor to grant me succor in a the outlet controls, as a matter of course, the most exalted spirituality and wisdom, to anwhole stream. Portugal lays claim to it, and other is merely the expression of an unreason-lose my life, and leave my family w

For "The Gather the Fragments.

CHRISTOPHER HEALY'S FATHER'S TEST AGAINST BEARING ARMS AND WA Christopher Healy said that his father died when quite young, and t father was placed as an apprentice maker. I have no doubt that it was some of the Seed of life, which was the in his heart, that he was led in matu peaceable spirit; and perhaps his wor go to meeting where they pleased. It few except Presbyterians and Baptists neighborhood. During the earlier par war of the revolution, he suffered mi account of his refusal to bear arms; as a little remarkable that he was streng to bear a consistent and faithful test against war-though too weak to live the doctrines of the gospel in other re subordinates were very much prejudice exasperated against him; and it seen be the pretty unanimous judgment neighborhood, that he ought to be han employ him, so that it was likely to ge with his family. On a particular out there came an order from the governo council, to organize a party to guar neighboring coast against the English. colonel called upon my father, and tol that he should go with his party, do alive. My father knew very well from officer's determination of character t would go hard with him, if he could n as night set in he started for Lebanon, the governor, Jonathan Trumbull, live arrived pretty early in the morning, and not then with them. My father was but as became one-and his clothes were no ments were travel-worn and travel-soil his long walk of thirty miles of a dark saw so many men in big wigs, and ec with powder, he felt considerably trie So he told them he wished to speak wi governor. The councillors looked at th ness for some time; at last, one of them governor was. My father said, I have plied to all the subordinate officers of gr ment in my neighborhood for protectio tremity, for unless I receive it, I am lik any protection or means of support.

he day before that he should go with dead or alive, and added, that he knew ong his conscience by bearing arms.

speaker requested him to explain him-governor's letter, and though at first he seemed proved it and ordered it issued .— The Council hore fully, saying that whatever the displeased, and asked him how he dare go to Fire. e of his distress might be, the considera Lebanon without his permission? yet when fit would necessarily claim the attention be had read the letter, his countenance recouncil, and it might expedite the busi-laxed, and he said pleasantly, the governor f he would give them a history of his shall be obeyed, and I will take care that you chile they were waiting for the governor, shall not be molested any more on account of ing him that he would lose nothing by your conscientions seruples. And he laughing effects of the gracious visitations of them bear it at once. Being thus in- ingly added, I hope, Mr. Healy, you have no Lord, have been felt by many; and their inalthough he was not a member of the ing neighbors. To which father replied, I perceptible to others. ous Society of Friends, yet that he had am willing to work for any body and every ioning, that the colonel had threatened faithful to further manifestations of duty.

sunrise the next morning my father had an executive order, which corrects the mis-lali mercies, I left them.

For "The Friend," Incidents and Reflections.

SOFTENING EFFECTS OF DIVINE LOVE.

Lord, have been felt by many; and their inand encouraged to proceed, he told them, seruple against making shoes for your fight fluence on the recipient has often been very

John Churchman relates, that when travelpeen convinced that war was inconsistent body, according to my ability. Well then, ling in Massachusetts, he had a meeting at the religion of Christ, and that in conse-said the colonel, come and make my family Ipswich, in the house of Benjamin Hoeg, so of this belief, he had found himself some shoes, and I will take care that no one "none professing with us," he says, "living uned from bearing arms, and that he shall molest either you or your family. And in that town but himself and family; though een subjected to much persecution and Christopher added, he was as good as his a friendly man, as I came late to the town the yon account of his conscientious scruples word, and we can plainly see the Lord's hand evening before, invited me to lodge at his ation to this subject. He told them that in it, who made way for him to escape, be-house, which I accepted, and being weary, ifferings had been much increased since cause he was faithful in that which was re-slept well. In the morning I heard a noise rder came down to guard the coast; quired of him then, as he was afterwards of high words in the street, and getting up I opened the door of the parlor where I lodged, and through a passage into the kitchen, saw Zuni Indians' Land .- In 1877, President a woman whom I took to be the mistress of an well enough to be assured that he Hayes issued an executive order, setting apart the house, and went toward her; but with a I fulfil his threat, if the governor did not and confirming to the Zuni Pueblo Indians look of exceeding displeasure she immediately him his protection. He finished his of New Mexico the lands which they have shut the door. I turned into my room again; narrative by detailing the sad condition owned, occupied and cultivated from the time and after a while my landlord came to me, sich his wife and children were already of the Spanish invasion of Mexico, 350 years and told me he had been with the Burgess, ed by the prejudices of their warlike ago, and they claim many centuries before, who had given leave that a meeting might be bors, and depicted the still more deplor- and to which they hold a legal title from the beld in the town-hall; but the priest and his ircumstances under which they would Mexican Covernment. A surveyor was sent two sons had since been with the Burgess and if be was taken from them, withal as- to run a line around the Zuni reservation, forbade him, and that rather than displease the council that whether life or death and make a map of it for the U.S. Land Office them, he had withdrawn the leave. The to be his portion, he could not consent solely for the protection of the Indians, priest asserted that the Quakers were hereties, Either purposely or through a mistake, the and had gone about the town to forewarn his e simple carnestness of his appeal had a surveyor's map leaves all the best portions of hearers against going to the meeting, which reaching effect upon my father's hearers, the lands of the Zunis, including their prin-was the meaning of the noise I had beard in when the governor came in, he who cipal farms, and the springs from whence the street. I felt very easy, and desired he efore spoken, introduced my father to they got their supply of writers than the country in the country of the coun officer, giving him also a short account and to irrigate their fields, outside the resert to inform them, that the meeting would be e nature of his business, but leaving it vation. This fact seems not to have been held at the house of Benjamin Hoeg; for I did my father to give it more in detail. The discovered until last summer. It also appears believe the railing of the priest would raise our listened very attentively to his nar- that Senator Logan, of Illinois, first distinctively to his nar- that Senator Logan, of Illinois, first distinctively to his nar- that Senator Logan, of Illinois, first distinctively to his nar- that Senator did not covered it. This honorable Senator did not proved. I asked him to show me the way to ligious principles, views of government, go to the President and ask him to issue an the house, that I might assist in making proy, &c., and then requested him to go executive order, supplementing that of Presi-vision for scats if occasion required. He said to a tavern, which stood on the other dent Hayes, and correcting the blunders of I must take breakfast with him, which was If the street, and get refreshment, and the surveyor. But instead he hurried off to soon brought in by the woman who bad shut till they had finished some important New Mexico, visited the Zuni village, spied the door as before mentioned. I asked him ess, which must first be attended to out the land, and through his son in law, if she was his wife; he told me she was on er declined going to the tavern, but said Paymaster Tucker, of the army, entered this which I arose from my seat and offered her buld wait outside until they were ready land under the desert land act and the home-im. The governor asked him, if he had stead law. This statement is made on the displeasure refused, and saying not a word, cruple about going to a tavern? and when authority of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a Re-directly left the room. After breakfast we ned that he had not, he further queried publican journal of influence. The Inter- went to the house where the meeting was to be declined going? So father frankly Ocean says, that a few weeks ago, one Collins, be held, and there soon came a great number im it was because he had no money to formerly a soldier under General Logan, and of the people, and the priest also very near the or refreshments. Upon which the gov- now associated with him, recently came to door, where he stood cautioning his hearers; nodded to one of the conneil, who went Fort Wingate, and announced that he had but several came by an alley to the back door, to the tavern with him, and directed come on to take charge of the ranche which and others seemed little to regard him. After o be furnished with whatever he stood General Logan had located in the Nutias a time he went away, and through the good-Valley, with instructions to build a house and ness of the Lord we had a solid profitable about two hours my father was sent for, corral, and that in a few weeks he should meeting. I believe many were there whose he governor handed him a letter, say-drive in a large head of eattle and take pos-hearts were reached and tendered by the love et this to the colonel before he goes to session. The officers at Fort Wingate were and power of the Gospel of Christ, and among o-night, as it is very important for you astonished, as was also Indian Agent Thomas, them I saw my scornful landlady; a woman e gets it early. Father said, I cannot and the Zunis were almost paralyzed at the whom she valued having persuaded her thirty miles between now and bed time, threatened robbery, which if consummated come with her. Before the meeting ended, it will engage, if my health permits, to would utterly ruin them. The officers of the perceived her countenance was changed and to him before he is up in the morn-Fort, Agent Thomas and Professor Cushing, her stout heart tendered, and after it she My father thanked him for his kind- of the Smithsonian Institution, who resides came to me with her husband, and kindly in-and then hid them farewell. They all with the Zunis, engaged in studying their vited me to dine with them. I owned their hands with him at parting, wishing manners and customs, wrote to Secretary love, and desired them to mind the truth by safe journey, and a joyful return to his Teller on the subject, and the Secretary in- which they had been reached. So, in humble quired into the matter at once, and prepared thankfulness of heart to the great Author of plovel called from his hed to receive the take, and laid it before the President who ap. | One of the most marvellous instances of the assembled. Among the audience was one of and loving God as I have found in Jesus. the most desperate characters known to the J. B. Gough made inquiry from others how enfranchisement [full citizenship], and city authorities. She had served fifty-four she got along and spent her time. He found worm by the Norman nobility in the pre-terms in prison. Not one of the police force that she hired a little shop and sold catables, of the king as a proclamation that they would flee from her.

of her voice, and demanded to know who and move that they would make. She would wait where he was that had so said. Her excite-on them, wash their feet, comb their hair, would take her word to keep it as quick as the assurance that she was successfully woo-sponges and other forms of life, such a he would the word of any woman in Edin-ling them for Christ. She was never idle in found on the surrounding stones, &c. I burgh. Touched by his confidence, she stood her new Master's work. Many were lifted been supposed that these parasitical gro quiet and thoughtful for a minute, and yield-up from the lowest depths of sin through her found their way to the shell of the craing to the visitation of Divine love to her instrumentality. soul, afresh extended at that critical moment, meeting in Edinburgh. Two women sat in to save to the attermost all that come to Him ing itself from the gaze of its enemies. front of the platform, listening attentively, through Jesus Christ, the only mediator be selection for the covering, moreover, co The tears and emotion of one of them touched his heart deeply. When the meeting closed, The mayor of Edinburgh, with the city coloring with the colors of the surrounce. one of the women came up to the platform officers, and ministers of the gospel, and objects, and consequently of such as w and asked him if he knew the woman that Christians of every denomination, together least likely to attract attention. The sp sat sobbing in front of him. He said no, with thousands of the citizens, mourned with of crab thus disguising themselves are "Well," she said, "that is my mother. And a heartfelt grief as her remains were lowered vided on the back with a peculiar grow oh, how proud I am of her. But the fire and into the grave. rum is all taken out of her now, wherein the neighbors were all afraid of her when she drank. Now, when they have trouble or sick- early Friends much trouble and, indirectly at to the mass. ness, the worst of them will say, bring me the least, sent many of them to prison, was their good angel, for she has got the comfort that refusal to take off their hat in deference to serves all." right mind. She that was as ferocious as a they then were. Doubtless it has often sugtiger sits with streams of joyful tears, rubbing gested itself to you, as it often has to me, the preceding five years. The greatest her cheeks, so subdued and humbled that she that as the hat was made to protect the head tality is in the warmer months of the shrinks from making herself known even to from the heat or the cold, it was very un-when the snakes are probably the most a the man that dare trust her word when no necessary for them to seem to court punishlying creature would believe her. Gough ment by wearing it in the house. William living creature would believe her. Gough ment by wearing it in the house. asked her how she got along. "Oh, sir, the struggle was hard, hard, hard, very hard, ous, uncivil or unkind." Often I have dreamed that I had gone back to drink, and that I was fighting with the neighbors with a worse nature than ever beforc. The dreams have been so real to me the taking off the hat to their fellows as in-Corrizo, on the Little Colorado River that I have often awakened out of sleep and consistent with this great principle. But been recently visited by scientific expl rolled out of bed unto my knees, crying at the during all rightly authorized prayer in their and a graphic description of its appeara me to consciousness, in times of such despair, could not in conscience, they thought, pay being nearly a semicircle, and this inc She would cry, 'Mother, mother—you are the same mark of respect to man that they by high banks of shale and white fine safe; it is only a dream you had.' As I passed did to God. For the wearing of the hat had III alf an hour's good driving from this transforming power of Divine Grace is that from that anguish, at the thought of falling, an especial significance in those days. related by John B. Gough, of a woman whom I had some idea of the miscry of a lost soul. historian Baucroft, whose associations he encountered in Edinburgh, Scotland, where And when I threw myself on the floor of my tainly were not such as to prepossess hi he had gone to labor in the interests of tem-little quiet, clean room, with my saved daugh-favor of any of the peculiar practices of perance. He attended a meeting in the wick-ter by my side, Oh how the joy of a heaven learly Friends, thus writes on this sub-edest part of that city. He had never before on earth flooded through my soul. Praise "The Quaker bows to God and not to witnessed such degradation, misery and filth, [God, I am not only saved, from drink, but fellow-man. The feudal nobility [in the as were visible among the outcasts there saved from sinning against such a merciful Century] still nourished its pride. The would attempt to arrest her without help, and such as the poor around her used, at a lower peers of the realm, equal with their sover when she was excited by rum or passion, the price than they could buy at other places. When Cromwell assumed the power thieves and outlaws among whom she lived Her daughter and she made common sacks. prince he covered his head, all the other They lived on thirty cents a day, and were maining uncovered." Some one on the platform pointed her out able to help scores of poor families. As soon to J. B. Gough, and was telling him her as the drink got out of her own system, she when in the first great scene of the Fi character, when she noticed that they were began to labor with others like herself. Her revolution, at the opening of the State looking at her. She immediately arose, went first effort was with a woman that was count-ral, the elergy and the nobility, according on to the platform, and in a defiant manner ed the next hardest case in Edinburgh. She established privilege, had, like the king asked Gough whether he would give the tem- never left her until she was reclaimed. When on their square caps and plumed bor perance pledge to such an one as she. His she went after such ones, she was never the representatives of the commons init companion greatly feared a scene of fighting known to fail. She believed when she felt the Quaker precedent, covered their and confusion, and whispered to Gough not for them, God felt for them, and had lathe lalso with their hats, that had neither pl to notice her—that she would never keep a burden on her for them. There was no sacri-nor ribands; thus explaining to the Bour pledge to abstain from liquor. She demanded fice too great for her to make, in view of the meaning of the Delaction in a threatening way, Is he ready to give me the pledge? If he replied, yes; but there is a ally brought them to her bouse, and kept man here that says you will not keep it. Ter-them there, until she broke up their hardened ribly excited at this, she screamed at the top hearts with her love. She would watch every ment was calmed by Gough who again said pat their cheeks, and kiss them as but few he would give her the pledge, and that he mothers can. She knew her work, and had lives with a superficial growth of sea-

she promised to give up her drinking habits. Jesus Christ, over twenty-seven years. She of the crab, who intentionally places the Four years after, J. B. Gough held another died in great joy, praising God for his power position with its feet, for the purpose of col

There she sat clothed, and in her the presence of others, or to the place where deaths from snake-bite in Bombay to be Penn says "religion makes no man discourte-

The early Friends, however, were among probably lead to beneficial results or the first to proclaim the equality of men, and public health .- Nature. they regarded the bowing of the body and top of my voice for God to save me, and I religious meetings, in which each member is given in the Albuquerque (N. M.) Jo would never drink or fight again.

The voice of my daughter has often called off the hat, and remained uncovered. They Corizzo enters an immense basin, the

kers knew that the hat was the symb

"After more than a century and a qua

Natural History, Science, &c.

Masking of Crabs.-Certain species of coast crabs are covered during much of She lived to the honor of her Redeemer, presence is due solely to the intelligent a hooked bristles, which tends to secure objects placed there, and to retain them Hat Honor .- A testimony which gave the they shall have become firmly united orr Report of Sanitary Commissioner of Bo

-The report for 1881 shows the number which is about 100 more than the avera and aggressive. The deaths from fev 1881 were 272,403-probably much o mortality being due to miasmatic causes. efforts of the sanitary authorities in Indi

A Forest of Stone .- A petrified forest

on the ground so that one instinctively thrown down and some people killed. hem up as he would in the log camps At intervals of ten minutes to half an hour, nigan and Pennsylvania. Many of the slight shocks and tremors were felt, some-

ed stumps, limbs, and, in fact, whole turned round and round, and was almost sea-elements produces. There is a mystery and e about on all sides, the action of the sick. Going into the house again, I found a an uncertainty as to the amount of danger e about on an suices, the action of the sick. Going into the house again, I found a lat uncertainty as to the amount of danger for hundreds of years has gradually lamp and a bottle of arrack upset. The we incur, which gives greater play to the tumbler which formed the lamp had been imagination, and to the influences of hope and the state once covered the high table thrown out of the saucer in which it had fear. These remarks apply only to a moderate own lie in the valley beneath. Immens stood. The shock appeared to be nearly carthquake. A severe one is the most destruction, some of which measure over five feet. neter, are broken and scattered over a was sufficient, I have no doubt, to have thrown human beings can be exposed. - Wallace's of 300 acres. Limbs and twigs cover down brick chimneys and walls and church id in every direction, and the visitor is towers; but as the houses here are all low as to where he shall begin to gather and strongly framed of timber, it is impossible untiful specimens that lie within easy for them to be much injured, except by a There are numerous blocks or trunks shock that would utterly destroy a European petrified wood which have the appear—city. The people told me it was ten years f having been just cut down by the since they had had a stronger shock than an's axe, and the chips are thrown this, at which time many houses had been particles, and even the whole heart, of times strong enough to send us all out again. ees have now become thoroughly crys. There was a strange mixture of the terrible and the beautiful colored cubes sparkle and ludicrous in our situation. We might at unshine like so many diamonds. Every any moment have a much stronger shock, f the rainbow is duplicated in these which would bring down the house over us, s. The grain of the wood is plainly or-what I feared more-cause a landslip in nearly every specimen.—Chr. Adv. and send us down into the deep ravine on ts as Food for Man .- Max Buchner's the very edge of which the village is built; ribution to the Ethnography of the yet I could not help laughing each time we," contains the following interesting ran out at a slight shock, and then in a few which show that insects are by no moments ran in again. The sublime and the despised as food by this tribe of negroes, ridiculous were here but a step apart. On sitting through a silent meeting, in those who inhabit a large portion of South-eastern the one hand, the most terrible and distance not under religious concern either for "Toward the end of the rainy season, tructive of natural phenomena was in action themselves or others. There are times, when it, when the white ants are swarming, around us—the rocks, the mountains, the a solemn covering spreads over an assembly ical buildings of the insects are covered solid earth were trembling and convulsed, almost from their entering the place of gathdense matting of banana leaves, while, and we were utterly impotent to guard against ering, in which the soul is nourished; but this cover, vessels are placed with the danger that might at any moment over-there are other seasons when a painful strug-shaped entrances. In these vessels a whelm us. On the other hand was the spec-gle has to be maintained against intruding umber of white ants, males and females, tacle of a number of men, women and children thoughts of a worldly nature, drowsiness or ight and roasted on the spot. They running in and out of their houses, on what restlessness; and the seeking after spiritual nsidered a great delicacy, even M. each time proved a very unnecessary alarm, food seems for a long time almost like the er finding them palatable. A large, as each shock ceased just as it became strong labor of the apostles who toiled all night and terranean cricket, as well as a large enough to frighten us. It seemed really very caught nothing. It is not therefore surpris-terous larvæ, living in hollow trees, are much like "playing at carthquakes," and ing that some, who feel no especial anxiety sought for and roasted over fire. But made many of the people join me in a hearty about their spiritual condition, are induced ecially a large caterpillar called 'ugoun-laugh, even while reminding each other that to leave these meetings, where there is so hich is harvested by the natives like a it might really be no laughing matter.

nd belongs perhaps, to the butterfly in, leaving orders to my boys, who slept nearer for themselves, and where they hope to be fed Whenever it appears in large number the door, to wake me in ease the house was by the efforts of another, the negroes march out in full force from in danger of falling. But I miscalculated my We do not doubt that the illages, camping out for weeks in the apathy, for I could not sleep much. The tians in all the different denominations; but ness to gather and cure the crop. After shocks continued at intervals of half an hour those who are such have been made so by testines have been pressed out, the or an hour all night, just strong enough to the very same process by which any of our allars are dried before the fire, and rolled wake me thoroughly each time and keep me own people are brought into the Heavenly backages of fresh leaves."

wake me thoroughly each time and keep me own people are brought into the Heavenly on the alert ready to jump up in ease of dan-fold. Christ is the author of salvation; and Earthquake-Shock .- During my stay at ger. I was therefore very glad when morn- He it is whose baptism of Spirit and of fire an in the Island of Celebes, in 1859, ing came. Most of the inhabitants had not must cleanse the heart, and perform that riosity was satisfied by experiencing a been to bed at all, and some bad staid out-of-thorough work which is spoken of in Scripsharp earthquake-shock. One even doors all night. For the next two days and ture as being born again of the incorruptible I was sitting reading, the house began nights shocks still continued at short inter. Seed and Word of God. We must all pass g with a very gentle, but rapidly in vals; and several times a day for a week, through this experience, whether we be Jew g motion. I sat still enjoying the showing that there was some very extensive or Gentile, bond or free, must learn to hunsensation for some seconds; but in less disturbance beneath our portion of the earth's ger and thirst after righteousness, and to seek alf a minute it became strong enough crust. How vast the forces at work really with earnestness after the kingdom of Heaven ke me in my chair, and to make the are can only be properly appreciated when, and the rightconsness thereof. Those who visibly rock about, and to creak and after feeling their effects, we look abroad over have been brought into this condition will be as if it would fall to pieces. Then be- the wide expanse of hill and valley, plain willing to wrestle for a blessing, and will wel-

Everybody rushed out of their houses shaken.

The sensation produced by an earthquake at it prudent to get out too. On get- is never to be forgotten. We feel ourselves one to the heart of the forest. The during which time I felt as if I had been terror which the more boisterous war of the Malay Archipelago.

1787. When I take my seat in the upper gallery in our meeting-house, and cast my eyes over the meeting beholding the poor lads toward the far side of the house, and remember how it was with me of their age and circumstance, my heart is often filled with tenderness and melted with contrition. Under these feelings fervent cries ascend in my heart to the Lord Almighty, that He may be graciously pleased to extend the visitations of his love unto the souls of the poor youth, as He did to mine, and that He may bring them by his out-stretched arm to know Him to be their Saviour .- H. J.

FRIEND. THE

SIXTH MONTH 30, 1883,

There is often a feeling of weariness, in little of an outward nature to amuse the mind. op. It is about five centimeters long. At length the evening got very cold, and I and frequent assemblages where they may be with yellow rings, occurs on the savan-became very sleepy, and determined to turn relieved of the labor of seeking spiritual food

We do not doubt that there are true Chrisery throughout the village of "Tana and mountain, and thus realize in a slight decome the hour for religious meetings, where it tanagoyang!" (Earthquake! earthgree the immense mass of matter heaved and they may wait upon the Lord and seek after a feeling of his presence.

Israel Hall has been appointed Agent for of I found my head giddy and my steps in the grasp of a power to which the wildest "The Friend," in the place of James Woody, dy, and could hardly walk without fury of the winds and waves is as nothing; released at his own request: address Thorn-The shock continued about a minute, yet the effect is more a thrill of awe than the town, Boone Co, Indiana.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS

UNITED STATES .-- Captain Crawford, with four com panies of cavalry and 250 Indian captives, arrived at the San Carlos Agency, in Arizona, on the 23d instant. Chiefs Loco, Nana and Bonito talked freely with the reservation Indians with whom they were acquainted. Nana said he "was too old for further operations," and he was glad he "had arrived at a safe place." The telegram reporting the arrival of the Indians at San Carlos adds: "Rumors had reached the Indians that in case of capture they would be put in irons and killed, hence, they say, their delay in coming in. While the Indians generally do not distrust General Crook, these rumors have had effect on his plans. There are people willing to see the hostiles on the war path as then more military would be brought into the territory, making busi ness better. As an evidence of what General Crook has to contend with, it may be stated that six miles from Wilcox several persons approached the hostiles with the intention of selling ammunition to them."

General Crook has been ordered to Washington for consultation in regard to the final disposition to be made of the captured Apaches. A telegram from Agent Wilcox, dated the 24th, has been received by the Interior Department, announcing that " the renegade Indians were forced on the reservation" the day before, Secretary Lincoln's attention having been called to the matter, he said that "the agent must be in error, as he had given positive orders to General Crook to keep the renegades apart from the other Indians." He added, that he "would reiterate the orders to General Crook.

Chief Moses and two subordinate chiefs have arrived in Washington, to confer with the Secretary of the In-171 of whom are British and 500 Scandinavians.

Disastrous breaks have occurred in the levees near St. Louis. On the night of the 22d, the Fish Lake levee, which protected afteen square miles of rich farming land, on the Illinois side of the river, below East Carondelet, gave way and 10,000 acres of land were overflowed. The damage to crops and other property is estimated at $100,000. The Madison Dyke, between St. Louis and Alton, also on the Illinois side, broke in two places the next morning, and it was expected that all the bottom land north of East St. Louis, covering

50 to 60 square miles, would be inundated.
Following a terrific thunder storm, a tornado struck a tract of country near Omaha, Nebraska, on the morning of the 23d, causing a loss of property estimated at $10,000. The people along the path of the tornado, seeing its approach, saved their lives by taking refuge in their cellars, where "a number of families saw their houses turned about over their heads."

A heavy rain storm visited the neighborhood of Bedford, Pa., on the 26th inst. Bridges, fences and a part of the tracks of the Bedford Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad were washed away. The low-lying part of the town was inundated, the water rushing into the houses and rising to a height of several feet. Great damage was done to crops in the western part of the amusement in the town of Dervio, on the shore of Lake county.

The mortality among cows in the neignborhood of Joliet, Illinois, is increasing, and many people are afraid to use milk. It is supposed the cows are sick-enced by eating a small bug which appears on the grass, and is said to be very poisonous. It is reported that "a destructive bug" is destroy-ing the fruit in Berks county, Panna. "Wherever it stings the fruit falls unripe, and branches of trees die now covers two acres. Forty railway cars have been when penetrated by the bug. Farmers are applying burned. Train service between Lyons and Geneva was various remedies without success."

The Kaaterskill Railroad was opened on the 25th inst. for business. With its connections it forms an all rail route from Rondout to the top of the Catskill Construction trains on the Northern Pacific Railroad reached Missoula on Seventh-day the 23d of last month. A gap of 120 miles remains to be closed between Missoula and Helena, and work is progressing from both ends.

year. Of the whole number 156 were males, and 151 fever, and 8 of marasmus.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\(\frac{1}{2}\); 3\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 104\(\frac{1}{2}\); 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 113; 4's, Markets, &c. - U. S. 03, 1042; 03 s, 1042; 129, 140-150.

The envoys regard the hombardment of Tamatave as Cotton.—There was no essential change to notice in a wanton and cruel act. They fear that many of the price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at foreign residents of Tamatave were killed. The am-

and 81 a 85 cts, per gallon for home use.

anning a og ets, per ganton for nome met. Flour continues doll, but prices were unchanged. Sales of 1900 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at mands of France. $5.25 a $6.25; Pennsylvania family at $5 a $5.12½; The arrest of the Polish author Krazewsky and western do. at $5.75 a $6.25, and patents at $6.50 a $7.25. Rye flour is dull at $3.70 a $3.75 per barrel.

a $1.22. Polish journalist, named Adler, has handed to Corn is quiet and futures are easier. Car lots are fairly German Ambassador at Vienna important papers held. Sales of 10,000 bushels in car lots, at 56 a 66 cts. ling on their case, which have been forwarded to P Oats are dull and lower. Sales of 9000 bushels, in car Bismarck. lots, at 45 a 47 cts.

Hav and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo.

Average price during the week—Time time 11,5 so to 90 cts, per 100 pounds; mixed, 70 to 80 cts.; straw, away.

55 a 65 cts. per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were in fair demand and prices were Neisse yards at 5½ a 6¾ cts. per lb., as to quality.

Sheep were in fair demand and firmly held: 10,000 church building, two barracks and part of the post sold at 8½ a 9½ cts. per lb., as to condition.

FOREIGN.—The British passenger vessels Hurunui and Waitara, belonging to the New Zealand Shipping Company, came into collision off Portland on the night of the 22d inst., and the Waitara sank in two minutes. Twenty-five persons were drowned. The Hurunni imterior in reference to a proposed relinquishment of part mediately launched her boats, which rescued sixteen of their reservation in Washington Territory.

The definition of part mediately launched her boats, which rescued sixteen persons struggling in the waves. Among these was a The steamer Nevada, which sailed from Queenstown lady, a saloon passenger, to whom a sailor, who was for New York on the 21st, had on board 671 Mormons, saved, had given up his life-helt. Two other saloon passengers were also saved. All the second-class and steerage passengers were lost. The captain of the Waitara was dragged aboard the Hurnnui with the aid of ropes. The two vessels left London together. Hurunni struck the Waitara, end on, just in front of the saloon, on the starboard side. The survivors state that > for two months been in a state of mild melancholia, feared that several deaths from starvation have which, in the course of time, if not relieved, would pro-bably become very difficult to treat. Her condition reported in the neighborhood of Natashquan, i has naturally caused great anxiety because of the tenden- Saguenay district of Quebec. cies of her family. Her majesty and Princess Beatrice. will, in the autumn, go to the vicinity of Florence, Italy where they will remain two months."

John William Colenso, Bishop of Natal, South Africa, died at Durban on the 20th of 6th month.

unity.

The mortality among cows in the neighborhood formance was in progress at a puppet their a period to use milk. It is supposed the cows are sickly a supply the supposed the cows are sickly described to the supply and the supposed the cows are sickly described to the supply as well by well-as a small by well-as were injured.

A fire broke out in the Woodstores in Lyons, on the morning of the 19th instant, and, despite strenuous efforts to extinguish or prevent the spread of the flames, interfered with.

With reference to Admiral Pierre's despatch announcing the capture of Tamatave, the Malagassy Envoys state that the demands of the French were pre-They knew that the ultimatum would be posterous. They knew that the ultimatum would be rejected. The Queen of Madagascar gave stringent orders not to return the French fire. She recalled most of her troops to the capital, and only 200 remained at Tamatave to maintain order. Tamatave is defended by merely one mud fort, mounting four old muzzle loadwhich was 84 less than during the previous week, and Powers. It will take the French at least five mouths 2 more than during the corresponding period last to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths which mush a five mouths to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths when the mouth and the second tree mouths are the second tree mouths and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to march to the capital and those the second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second to the second tree mouths are second tree mouths are second tree mouths are second to the secon year. Of the whole number 156 were times and the work of the whole number 156 were times and the work of the whole number 156 died of consumption; 21 of cholera in have there over 6000 disciplined troops, most of fautum; 14 of diphtheria; 12 of old age; 13 of scarlet give the bitter end, meanwhile it is hoped that the lifter end, meanwhile it is hoped that the Powers will intervene.

103 a 11 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans. | bassadors, having failed to obtain any terms from Petroleum.—Standard white, 7½ a 7% cts. for export, and 8½ a 8% cts. per gallon for home use.

persons, charged with giving information to Ru revolutionists regarding the movements of Ru troops, will lead to their trial on charges of high tre Grain.—Wheat was unsettled and \(\frac{1}{2}\) a 1c. per bushel troops, will lead to their trial on charges of high tre lower. Sales of 3600 bushels red, in ear lots, at $1.09 Important evidence has been obtained against

Oats are duff and roter. Cares of 2000 busines, in ear librarders. The floods now prevailing in Sile-ia were attuent and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo. 123d, 1883.—Loads of hay, 279; loads of straw, 46 by watersponts. A large part of the town of H Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 80 are flooded. A railway near Salzbrunn was we away. A number of cattle perished. Despatch ceived from Breslau state that the rise of the Neisse at the town of that name has been most a firmer: 3000 head arrived and sold at the different ing, the water having reached a higher mark the head arrived and sold at the different yards at 3\frac{3}{4} a 6 are submerged. Disastrons floods are also report ets, per lb, and lambs at 4 a 9\frac{1}{4} experib, part lambs at 4 a 9\frac{1}{4} experib, per lb, and lambs at 4 a 9\frac{1}{4} experib, per lambs and Mornvia. The Danube is experibed to give the submerged. Disastrons floods are also report ets. Both man and Mornvia. The Danube is experibed to the submerged. Disastrons floods are also report ets. Both man and Mornvia. The Danube is experient and Mornvia. The Danube is experient ets. Both man and M mountain streams are rising rapidly. The quay at is already flooded. Of 42 deaths which occurred in Damietta on the inst., 28 were known to be from cholers, and the was suspected were from the same malady.

It is thought from the reports made by whalers have arrived recently in London from Iceland, th will not impede the progress of the steamer S having on board Professor Nordenskjold and his expedition. The difficulty between China and France has djusted. Li Hung Chang is expected to retu Pekin immediately. Payta, 6th mo. 19th.—The Chilian Commanda day gave orders that if the Peruvian anthorities knowledge General Iglesias as President, Chili: no crash was heard, but that the side of the Waitara pared to withdraw her troops immediately. gave way like cardboard. They say that more of the Diario Official to-day prints an editorial from the V passengers might have been saved had a bark and a raiso Mercurio of 6th mo. 4th, on the President's Me steamer, which were seen near by, heeded the Waitara's arguing that he always desired peace, but had h signals of distress. The Waitara was an iron ship, of one to treat with. Now he hopes it may be cor 833 tons. She was built in 1863. The Hurunui is also mated with General Iglesias.

an iron ship.

This week's Truth prints the following statement in tion along the coast of Labrador, owing to the det regard to the condition of the Queen: "The Queen has of their supplies by the ice jam along the shore.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL, Until further notice the Stage will be at West Station on the arrival of the 7,09 and 9.05 A. M. Intelligence of a dreadful calamity at a place of from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the se

> BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHILD AT TUNESASSA.

> Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Matr household duties. Apply to
>
> Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine str

John Sharpless, Chester, Penna., Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine street

WANTED.

An efficient person to assist in household duties be companion for an invalid. Address Box 666, West Chester P. O., Cheste Pennsylvania.

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSAN Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadely Physician and Superintendent - JOHN C. HALL, Applications for the Admission of Patients m made to the Superintendent, or to any of the l of Managers.

MARRIED, at an appointed meeting held 6th mo near Monroe, Orange county, New York, John I of San Jose, Cal., to HANNAH B. COOPER, of the fe

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SEVENTH MONTH 7, 1883.

NO. 48.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

id in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid vance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

cles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON,

PHILADELPHIA.

ORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J. s, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, 16 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS.

For "The Friend,"

d Memoranda of William Scattergood.

(Continued from page 370.)

er from Ann Jones.

possess thy soul, and righteously ism as his noted ancestor Robert Barclay. the seasons of summer and winter, enemy would east in thy way, and harvest, both in the outward tual creation. Then 'fear not, worm or be atterly cast down. Though , wait for Him; for his reward is the Lord blessed him.

patient dependence upon his mercy, determining 'Though thou slay me, yet will I trust in thee;' and, 'If I perish it shall be at thy no thee; and, "It person it should be a solution of the control of yea, He will enlighten thy darkness, and has taken place in my situation within a short cause thee to go on thy way rejoicing.

ing, that thou lovest the brethren? that thou served on the right hand and on the left. We also lovest the Holy Head and High Priest of are embarked in a business, which I perceive our profession? Then remember his gracious will involve us in many temptations, such as promise: 'Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, we have not been accustomed to encounter.

opened unto you.'

"Stockport, England, 12th mo. 31st, 1834.

warfety, we had not one of that kind before, are friend, William Scattergood, **

We wish thee to accept a copy of the 2d edia are often shed in secret, when I look upon tion of John Barclay's life of Alexander myelf. Here there is ample room for reflection; and I am perhaps better qualified, than of thy continued remembrance of ns. of the rise of Friends in Scotland; and some when mingling in the midst of society and of ough thy plaintive language of almost of us old-fashioned Quakers are glad of it. In my friends, to look into the doings of my own lamentation over thyself, might in this day when so many are deserting the heart. Farewell; affectionately thy entire stranger to conclude there was standard of primitive Christianity, and are ttle or no hope for thee, yet this is going back to the weak and beggarly elecase with me. Thou tells me, thou ments, it is some consolation to see a lineal secret sheds tears of sorrow over thy descendant of the able Apologist come forward condition, but they are not the tears and openly espouse the cause of Truth, for of congenial society, and of thy company with repentance. I would ask, who is it which his worthy predecessors suffered much, our little flock. I sometimes feel almost disspers this to thee? Is it not the old John Barclay is the fifth in descent from the couraged in being engaged in such a business of the brethren? who would if he Apologist. He is a plain man; of much primit requiring so much absence from the endear-thee up to impatience, and lead thee tive simplicity in appearance and manners; ments of home. de, that it is in vain to seek and try and a preacher of the same gospel with R. B. * * I have been to Greenwich to-day to God. Ah! believe him not, for he is Though born a member of the Society, he meeting. It is a long road; the distance being om the beginning; endeavor in pa- was by education as remote from true Quaker-

c, all the days of my appointed time of un united dear love awaits the acceptance with till my change come. For, as of thyself and thy dear E. I am in near symbol we have succeeded in accomplishing most the who appointed the bounds of pathy, and with desires that thou mayest put of the matters we had in hand, and I think I ation, also setteth bounds and limits on strength in the name of the Lord, and rise shall feel hereafter as though I could manage ower of the enemy; as well as ap-above every unprofitable discouragement the a glass factory; but should much prefer it

> Thy affectionate friend in gospel fellowship, ANN JONES.'

"2nd mo. 22d, 1835 .- Have felt to-day in m, and his work before Him. He meeting as I often feel of latter times, very said to the wrestling seed of Jacob, little capacity even to look towards 'the quiet me in vain.' Oh! how many gracious habitation.' * * I would fain enter the me in vain.' Oh! how many gracious habitation.' * * I would fain enter the discussion of the properties of the waiting westling soul! Remember the natiready alluded to, who wrestled the night season with the angel of a looky determined, it will not let except thou bless me.' This was a through Him who bore our sins and carried. im of great strait and difficulty and our sorrows, and who ever liveth to make in- hension that he was not in his right place, so decided tercession for us. My tears are at times not the enemy to suggest to thee, poured out in secret, upon reviewing my femous obligations, that he never afterwards neglected, u art not of the Lord's chosen as a Lediegree that He who wished to be supported by the support of th as. I believe that He who visited ing cross is in the way. Oh for a little of that

To E. C. S.

" Millville, 8th mo. 30th, 1835. [Written while at M. on business, before his boly habitation, and send thee help from have been stirred up at times in looking at his sanctuary and make thy way prosperous; my present prospects, and at the change which time past. Sincere desires prevail in mo-Hast thou not this evidence of life remain-ments of retirement, that we may be preand ye shall find; knock, and it shall be Fears often prevail that we, or rather I, may become a castaway amid the shoals and quick-* * We are much obliged for thy kind remembrance of us in the book way. The Testament I prize much; though we have a have need of prayer; not only for preserva-

To the same.

"Millville, 7th mo. 6th, 1836.

My dear E. * * I truly feel the want of congenial society, and of thy company with

* * I have been to Greenwich to-day to 17 miles. I find it requires some resolution to accomplish it, especially when business is being within easier reach of dear home. Perhaps we may have things different sometime. Meanwhile I hope thon wilt be sustained by Best Help a little longer.

Believe me thy affectionate

* William Scattergood was remarkably regular and punctual in the attendance of all the meetings at Greenthe point of not letting temporal business interfere with

He has now gone where sacrifices and crosses for the served him in and through many holy magnanimity, which would enable me to has also in mercy visited and called his service; and that as thou ento bear the chastening of his hand in the many hole and have our being, if so be late the chastening of his hand in the many hole. through mercy spared with life and health, arrest and confine an ebbing stream, which, the acceptable company of brethren frot and many earthly blessings. But alas! my unless the spring break out afresh, must ultil the Yearly Meetings on this continent leanness, my leanness! O how unwatchful! mately fail; for in various places the number one, and an evident increase of weight in bow careless! My soul at times looks toward of faithful Friends is much reduced. In deliberations has from time to time beer the quiet habitation; but faith is wanting to others we are comforted with hoping that perienced-inducing a hope and belief lay hold on that, which entereth within the it has already afresh bubbled up, and that many are concerned to dig deeper and dee family to Millville.

For "The Friend." Let Brotherly Love Continue.

The subjoined epistles, being interchanges of thought and feeling and Christian regard, between the co-ordinate Yearly Meetings of London and Philadelphia-the first in 1808, the other in 1825-are herewith offered for insertion in "The Friend."

When will the harmony again prevail, which existed at the time these communications were written? It is truly to be desired that the period may again come when these two Bodies shall alike "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, and walk therein;" shall again see eye to eye; again seek to strengthen each others' hands in the Truth and in the Lord; and again "in word. in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, and in purity," harmoniously labor for Truth's still more expressive language of conduct, will England, which we hope will be a benefit to this our favored Society was raised up, n be advocates of his righteous cause, and we Friends in that part and a relief to Ackworth be answered, in its becoming a city of righteous cause. shall clearly show forth to beholders, that the We salute you, dear friends, as brethren cousness, a faithful city, to the praise of happiness of man is inseparable from the holy united in the same cause, and endeavoring to ever adorable Founder will of the Lord—that his suffering, life and serve the same Lord; and we desire that your ignominious death for our sakes, is a proof of hands may be strong in Him, and that his particularly addressed to us, have been re it; and that obedience to his commands are all-sufficient blessing may rest on your en- in this meeting to our satisfaction and his appointed means of our becoming par-deavors. takers of his transcendent love.

the probability of a succession of laborers in the 18th to the 27th of the 5th mo. 1808. the Yearly Meeting. Many of us have lived to see most of those who were active when we set out in life, removed from this state of being. We trust that they are removed from From our Yearly Meeting held in Philadelthe trials of time to the security, peace and joy, of an everlasting union with that God whom it had been their chief object, whilst here, to serve in the Gospel of his Son; yet we dare not say they are wanted, or that their places are not supplied.

ferent from that of former times. We are the anointing oil is felt to descend from our fellow-members in Upper Canada, some d bereft of many who once labored in word and holy Head upon the members of the body in culties appear to attend them; these are doctrine with great acceptance. Of public their diversified allotments, producing that ferred to the care of our Meeting for Suff general admonition, therefore, there is less; travail of spirit by which the prosperity of ings, which will probably represent them but we are much mistaken if, low as things Zion and the enlargement of her borders are are in many places, there be not more of labor promoted, its effect is strengthening and ce-sistance. With desires for our mutual pres extended from brother; and more menting. Under a lively sense of this gracious vation in the unity of the Spirit, which is close inspection exercised, not only by this, youchsafement afresh extended to us, we now but by Quarterly Meetings. In many in- cordially salute you.

Memorandum, "6th mo. 1837.-I am still stances indeed we have chiefly, as it were, to the Lord will not be left without witnesses in order to an establishment upon the During the year 1837, he removed with his to the truth of those testimonies which, we foundation, where in quietude and stillne humbly trust, He has called us to bear. But, mind, the voice of Truth is heard, and notwithstanding the calamities which over-several duties are discerned. spread the civilized world, this is still comparatively, a day of ease to many; and this the Church we desire the rightly concer Society you know as well as we do, has long may everywhere be encouraged diligently found that to be at ease lulls the mind asleep, press after, as that on which our indiviand diverts it from the duties of the Christian advancement in righteousness, and the warfarc. Nevertheless we believe there are cess of our endeavors to promote a belie those among us who see the necessity of being the power of Christ depend. Thus, too unincumbered with the cares of this life, and may know the name of the Lord to be prepared for any storm which infinite Wisdom hiding-place in the time of trouble, and be may yet permit to overtake this long favored strumental in directing the seeking mind and too ungrateful kingdom.

Your concern for the few under our name mind that, for want of this experience m in Germany, is peculiarly acceptable, both be-loss has been sustained in our religious cause we know their distresses have been ciety, both in a general and particular 1 great, and because we are much cut off from tion; too many, even of those who have the channel by which relief can be extended; prehended themselves qualified to be ac nevertheless our Meeting for Sufferings did in religious concerns, having by a zeal w find means, near a year ago, to send them the out knowledge rather contributed to be has lately largely written to yours, and their and for want of its support been themse To the Yearly Meeting of Friends of Phila-letter has been communicated to us. We ap-betrayed first into an indifference, and t prove of its contents, and join you in consider- an open violation of its precious testimon Dear Friends, -Your very encouraging and ing it a source of mutual strength when meet to the injury of the cause they have espor intelligent epistle of last year has been read ings are enabled to convey to each other their and an exposure of their own weakness in this our large Yearly Meeting, in which reciprocal feelings of brotherly love. At the unsoundness. But while we reflect on the we trust we have been enabled to come to same time it renders it the less needful for us dangers, we are not unmindful that we are divers satisfactory results in cases of import- now to enlarge. Yet we may just mention exposed to them, and desire to unite with ance which have come before us. We fully two of the concerns of this present meeting: sincere hearts in prayer to Him who unite with you in desire that the several One has been to recommend to Monthly Meet graciously sustains the character of the Het talents and gifts, with which the Author of ings a visit by appointment to heads of fami of breaches and Restorer of paths to dwell creation and of grace, has indued his rational lies, to excite them to more diligence as to that He may be pleased, by his effectual be workmanship of the present and rising genthe religious care of their children, specified tism, to winnow away our chaff, and pure ration, may be improved to his praise, so in our (4th) Query on that subject. The other away our dross, our tin and reprobate silvents. will it also be to the further building of us is attending to the settlement of a school for that our judges and counsellors may be as up, a people, who, both by word, and by the several Quarterly Meetings in the West of the beginning, and the great end for wh

Signed in and on behalf of the Yearly Meet endeavor for the promotion of the great ca We can also rejoice with you in observing ing held in London, by adjournments from of universal righteousness and peace are s

> JOHN WILKINSON, Clerk to the meeting this year.

phia by adjournments from the 18th of the and we hope our increasing attention, 4th month to the 22nd of the same, inclu-snaded as we are that these concerns sive, 1825. To the Yearly Meeting of our ginated in Best Wisdom, and that the lab friends and brethren in London

Dear Friends,-That our correspondence has frequently had an animating effect we The aspect of things may be somewhat dif- have thankfully to acknowledge; and when

In this our large solemn gathering we l'

This necessary preparation for service others to it. But dear friends, let us bea supply of an hundred pounds.

We find our said Meeting for Sufferings fess to be governed, into question with oth

Your general epistle of last year, with t couragement, evidencing that our continu owned by the Master of our assemblies.

The abolition of slavery, the civilization the Indian natives, and the gnarded educat of our youth, with other subjects pointed in the queries, continue to engage our so of those who have (through many difficult and discouragements) been exercised in the have been blessed.

In considering the circumstance of yours if there should be occasion for your bond of peace, and that the grace of our Le and Saviour Jesus Christ may be multipl

For "The Friend." Gather the Fragments.

When William Kennard, of Ohio, was lying the bed of death, after his labors in the wings of Gospel love toward thee.

that thou hast even unto the end, it shall On the morning of week-day meeting, he th, and thou shalt have a crown of life." zhtness, and enjoyed such a precious, overcondition he remained for some time, but ength he was sensible of an internal strugfrom the Lord.

he visitations of the Lord's Holy Spirithortly before the death of Ellen Cozens, Philadelphia, a friend ealled in to see her, had crossed the river of death, and pro-led up to a bright mansion. The door On the return found it all light and glorious within. Whilst speaking, his counten- of the morning. te changed, and it soon became evident great is the responsibility which rests upon of his religious duty in this respect.

All for the influence they exert over others.

Years rolled on, and the time came in which all for the influence they exert over others.

ment of a mercantile firm, one of whose part-near to the dark valley of the shadow of ners was a Presbyterian. My friend had been death. He lingered for some months in despel of the Redeemer were nearly finished, brought up to the regular attendance of meet-clining health; and during this time, his former thus addressed a beloved friend who had lings on week-days as well as First-days, and boy, now his faithful friend, was often with ne to visit him: "I have been desirous to conscientiously believed it his duty to be faith- him, nursing and caring for him. At this thee once more, having felt the fresh ful in this matter. But he soon found that period, for the first time, he referred to their his new master was unwilling to spare him former conflict, saying, in substance, to my I am very sensible of the preciousness of from his store duties for that purpose, telling friend—"I cannot tell you how thankful I git, that, in the pourings forth of the bim he might go to meetings on First days feel that you were faithful to your convict thy trials. Cross-occurrences are to be belonged to his employer, and must not be If you had given up your meetings in deferwith; but hold fast that thou hast re-diverted from attention to his interests. The ence to my wishes, and violated your conred, that no man take thy crown; keep a boy was thus brought under deep trial and seience, it might have been the beginning of gle eye to the blessed Master in this day conflict to know his real duty in the position a downward course for you; and now, with great out-pouring of words without life, in which he was placed, and carnestly prayed the prospect of death before me, I might feel ch many have foolishly run into; hold to his Heavenly Father for light and strength. that your blood was required at my hands.

thy crown of rejoicing. Be faithful unto was told to unpack an invoice of goods recently received from China, evidently with fter a time of much solemnity, he said the intention on the part of his employer, elming sense of Heavenly goodness as the be was entrusted, our young friend went from justified. While residing at his summer home, gue of mortals could not describe. In one store to another, but met with no success Bernardsville, N. J., a few years ago, he had -none were in want of the article, and he occasion to purchase of a neighbor a farm and found himself as he was before the latterly introduced which had largely super-been satisfactorily made, but when the bishop on. He remarked that he had never seded the Chinese article. Somewhat dis was about to leave the neighbor asked the stioned this occurrence before, but that it couraged by these continued rebuffs, he found privilege of retaining the wagon a few days, mewhat similar experience, of which he Friends, then held in New Street (or Key's discernment, suspected what might be the sentation or sight of the Saviour, which chase, but gave permission to the boy to leave remove," he responded. efer to through life, and precious in his to the meeting to wait upon the Lord, and good bishop. "O, yes," was the reply. "Well, age. He spoke of it as a sacred thing to receive from Him comfort and help in his then, I don't want it; I have no use for it, troubles.

that he could furnish him with any of those is conviction, sir, that is conviction. om she told of a heavenly opening or sight represented on the eard; and accepted an d increased in the churches every where, A valued friend many years ago related to nor was any allusion made to what had ocagain salute you in the fellowship of the me an occurrence in his sown carly experience, curred, but it was well understood that no pepel, and remain your friends and brethren, which illustrates this, and also shows how opposition should be made to the performance

When a boy he was placed in the employ- his former master felt that he was drawing

Stanch Principles. The late Bishop E. S. Janes was distinguished

t when he was a young man, before he that there should be no opportunity for going for that immovable firmness with which he first married, he was in the practice of to the place of worship; and soon after re-adhered to his convictions. This eminent king out daily into the woods to pray and ceived a sample eard of a case of Chinese but- quality was most clearly shown in reference e thanks. At one time, in returning, as he tons which was in the invoice, and a list of to total abstinence, and the liquor traffic in l got over the fence into the road, he was persons in the city who dealt in such goods; all its forms. His convictions were so deep denly taken, as in a vision, into exceeding and was sent out to endeavor to effect a sale, and well-settled, that it was not possible for Pleased with the commission with which him to conceal them whenever the occasion was told that a new style of buttons had been wagon for immediate use. The bargain had himself at the end of his list of names, at the incidentally remarking that he wished to tot long before his death, Lloyd Mifflin, of store of a merchant, as I think, in Second transport a few barrels before finally disposmentown, near Philadelphia, referred to street, near Vine, and close to the meeting of ing of it. The bishop, with his usually quick he had never before spoken. In early Alley) below Second street. This last mer-object, and promptly said, "What barrels?" he had been favored with a remarkable chant was, like the others, unwilling to pur-"I have a few barrels of apple whisky yet to very precious to him at the time, precious his card on the store counter, while he went ever carted barrels of whisky?" inquired the "That is only was the immediate response. While he was thus communing with his a mere matter of opinion," said the neighbor; overshadowings of his Divine power- Creator, a person entered the store of the not measuring the profound convictions that th to be sacred to all of us, and to be prized merchant, picked up the sample-card of but-moved the bishop, though holding him in vbatever degree they are ministered to us one comfort or help.

tons, was pleased with some of the patterns, common with the entire community in great and asked the storekeeper if he had those esteem. "No, no, my friend," responded buttons in stock. The storekeeper replied Bishop Janes; that is not mere opinion; that

It is needless to say that not only was the bad had, in which it appeared to her that order for some of them which was given him intended purchase not made, but that this act produced an impression in that community On the return of the boy from meeting, to for good, an impression abiding to this day in ned on her approach, and as she entered claim his card, the merchant told him that many minds. This manly avowal of his conhe had changed his mind, and would take victions on temperance was in accordance he last time William Scattergood spoke part of the case offered him. He was told with his entire policy in practical life. During public ministry, he used the text, "Eye that the case was not to be divided; so, as he a certain autumn, when his orchards were the not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it had already sold a part, he agreed to purchase loaded with fruit, it was suggested that it tered into the heart of man, the things the whole, and our friend returned to his own would be well to manufacture vinegar for ch the Lord hath prepared for them that establishment, much gratified with the events sale, and that this could easily be done at the On entering the store, he said to his embedding the store, he said to his embedding the beddelth the country that vicinity. "Never! never!" he promptly replied. "Some one might be leave that the country that the promptly replied. the time of his departure was at hand. ployer, that he had sold the case of buttons. injured by seeing our apples carted to a died, it is believed, on the following day. He was pleased to hear it, and remarked, hose who are sensible that their earthly better eight and the same of the case in look. That was much better than going to meet-better eight are the same of the close, in look. That was much better than going to meet very appearance of evil." Visiting Europe to over their past lives, often regard it in "and if I had not gone, I would not have learned of the work and the theory was appearance of evil." Sold the buttons." From that time forward, principles that, in many instances, and out of the building the propositions with feelings very different from those sold the buttons." From that time forward, principles that, in many instances, and out of The which they were animated at the time. I the subject of meeting was never mentioned, I deference to his convictions, wine was banished from the table, a token of respect that must have borne fruit—in some quarters, as we have reason to know, and is yet bearing fruit in favor of total abstinence. On all questions this noble man was wont to say, "It may sometimes be up-hill business to be honest and true, but it pays, pays well always, and it always comes out right in the end."—Christian Advocate.

The Outer Hebrides .- One mile from Mingalay lies South Bernera, the southernmost of the isles, a bold mass of gneiss, about a mile in length and a half a mile in width, sloping gradually downward toward the east, but presenting to the western waves a precipitous front of about seven hundred feet in height, crowned with a magnificent lighthouse of granite and iron, such as may defy the wildest storm and warn all mariners to keep as far as possible from this deadly coast. It is said that this light can be discerned at a distance of upward of thirty miles, but practically the height of the crag on which it has been placed is found to be a disadvantage, as its light is often shrouded in mist, while all is clear below.

Lonely, indeed, is the lot of the men in charge of this beacon light, left to their own resources on this attermost isle, their only communication with the outer world being when, twice a year, the lighthouse stores are brought by a steamer, which can only lie to for a few hours, for there is no manner of anchorage, and the only possible landing-place is a shelving ledge of rock, on which he who would go ashore must spring at the moment when his boat rises on the crest of a wave, and then make the best of his way to the summit by scrambling up a slippery shelving

Once a year, too, a priest from Barra comes here to visit his little flock, numbering about two score—a fine, hardy, self-reliant race. Their isle supplies pasture for cows and goats. so they have the blessing of good milk; otherwise the sea birds who congregate on the cliffs-puffins and auks, guillemots and kittewakes-supply their larder with fresh meat in summer and salt meat for winter use; also with oil for their lamps and feathers for bedding. When fishing is possible, the boats go off to wrest a barvest from the sea-cuddies, haddock, herring, flounders, lythe and sythe, rock-codlings, and skate. Eels they will not touch, but dog-fish are welcome, and are salted and dried for winter store.

In the spring time thousands of eggs are taken by bold cragsmen, who venture and sometimes sacrifice their lives in this quest.—
All the Year Round.

Tis sin that Christ is come to save man from, and death and wrath as the wages of it; but those that are not saved, that is, delivered, by the power of Christ in their souls, from the power that sin has had over them, can never be saved from the death and wrath that are the assured wages of the sin they live in.—Wm. Penn.

The man who strives to put something into the world that shall make it better, not simply seeking to get the most possible out simply seeking to get the most possible out question whether life is worth living. It is the greedy life, and not the generous one, that has doubt as to the worth of existence.

LINES.

Saviour, beneath thy yoke, My wayward heart doch pine, All unaccustomed to the stroke

Of love divine: Thy chastisements, my God, are hard to bear; Thy cross is heavy for frail flesh to wear.

Perishing child of clay! Thy sighing I have heard: Long have I marked thy evil way, How thou hast err'd:

Yet fear not: by my own most holy name, I will shed healing thro' thy sin-sick frame.

Praise to thee, Gracious Lord!
I fain would be at rest,
Oh now fulfil thy faithful word,
And make me blest!
My soul would lay her heavy burden down

And take with joyfulness the promised crown.

Stay, thou short-sighted child,

There is much first to do,

Thy heart so long by sin defiled,
I must renew.
Thy will must here be taught to bend to mine,
Or the sweet peace of heaven can ne'er be thine.

Yea, Lord, but thou canst soon Perfect thy work in me,
Till like the pure, calm, summer noon,
I shine by thee.
A moment shine, that all thy power may trace,

Then pass in stillness to my heavenly place.

Ah, coward soul, confess

Thou shrinkest from my cure;

Thou tremblest at the sharp distress
Thou must endure,
The foes on every hand for war array'd,
The thorny path in tribulation laid,

The process slow of years,
The discipline of life,—
Of outward woes and silent tears,
Sickness and strife;
The idols taken from thee one by one,
Till thou canst dare to live with me alone.

Some gentle souls there are
Who yield unto my love,
Who ripening fast beneath my care,
I soon remove.
But thou stiff-necked art, and hard to rule,
Thou must stay longer in affliction's school.

My Maker and my King!
Is this thy love to me?
Oh that I had the lightning wing
From earth to flee.
How can I bear the heavy weight of woes
Thine indignation on thy creature throws?

Thou canst not, oh, my child!
So hear my voice again;
I will bear all thy anguish wild,
Thy grief, thy pain.
My arms shall be around thee day by day,
My smile shall cheer thee in thy heaven-ward way.

In sickness, I will be Watching beside thy bed:
In sorrow, thou shall lean on me
Thy aching head,
In every struggle, thou shall conqueror prove,
Nor death itself shall sever from my love.

Oh grace beyond compare,
Oh love most high and pure!
Saviour, begin, no longer spare,
I can endure.
Only vouchsafe thy grace that I may live Unto thy glory, who canst so forgive.

"Each cloud has of silver a lining,
Though we may not see its light;
The sun has not ceased its shining,
Though hidden awhile from our sight.
Our way through the world may be cheerless,
Our feet may be bleeding and torn,
Yet sharp tho' the wild blast, He tempers
The wind to the lamb that is shorn."

FORGIVING JENNY.

A little cripple passed along
The quiet village street—
The clothes she wore were patched and of Yet very clean and neat.
Though she was sickly and deformed,
Her face was sweet and fair;

And the glossy curls around her brow Proclaimed a mother's care. Ere long she passed the village school, As from the open door A train of boys came shouting forth, or the state of the school of the care. A few, more boisterous than the rest, Themselves erect and strong. Began to mock the humpbacked girl Who slowly walked along.

Once Jenny uttered sharp retorts, When jests like these she heard: But now that grace had changed her hear She answered not a word. Only the blush that dyed her cheek, And the tear that down it stole, Showed that the coarse, unfecing taunts Had sunk into her soil.

Arrived at home, poor Jenny sought Her chamber small and bare— Methinks those thoughtless lads had wep If they had seen her there. Beside her lowly bed she knelt, And sent this prayer to heaven— "O Father, help me to forgive As I have been forgiven!"

Dear children, 'tis from God above Health, strength and beanty come, And He in wisdom hath withheld These precious gifts from some: Be kind to such, and learn to keep The golden rule in view, Nor ever let a cripple hear A cruel taunt from you.

For "The Fr

Incidents and Reflections.

Every experienced Christian has for necessary to observe the emphatic or given by our Saviour to his disciples—"V and pray lest ye enter into temptation, many have known what it is to suffer loss and to be involved in serious difficition a neglect of this holy wateffulness) propose, in the present article, to coll few testimonies on this point.

few testimonies on this point. John Richardson in his journal mer his return home from a religious vi-America, and says, "And now I was a thoughtfulness how to walk and de myself so as that I might be preserved ne: Lord, and in due reverence and true fe: fore Him; that, inasmuch as I found was something of 'Holiness unto the 1 imprinted or engraven upon the fleshly of my heart, that now in this time, wh was not so particularly and immediately cerned in the like daily travel on Truth count, I might not lose the savor, relish sensation of heavenly things. in this careful and watchful frame of m have found preservation from time to ti this day, by retaining the salt of the kin in the soul of the inward man, which is and can only be kept fit for the Master's In another place, he pens this cau "Now my tender and well-beloved Fr watch against and strive to keep on enemy that he enter not; for what ways he enters and gets footing, he defiles temple; and before thou witnesses the to destroy him and cast him out again, preserving quality, with which the ver quent woman, of a majestic presence, much then you are safe nired and followed. She travelled on highest pitch of applanse fell into as low sing the latter years of her life in retiretake heed lest they fall.'

In a paper which she prepared, she "warned ose concerned in the ministry to watch to temptation. At any moment he might home. inst that Luciferian spirit which would have laid his hand on hundreds or thousands i occurrence happened.

before thou gainest all the ground thou consciously yielded. He whispered again and upon the past and prepare himself for the tost, by giving way to the adversary of again and I yielded, each time resolving in future. At the end of that time he came back, with handany, that a more abiding sense this watchful care is as essential for those ground to my enemy, and little by little I than ever of the great truth, "Thou, God, o minister unto others as it is for their drifted away from right and truth—away seest me." rers; indeed there are peculiar dangers in from honor and manhood-away from God th as a minister. He says: "She was an the very first suggestion of the tempter and eral persons were convinced by her minis-She was greatly applanded by many, A boy from the country obtained a po nt, great sorrow and mortification. She for a time. He followed as closely as possible finally so enslaved by his passion for strong s left behind her a pathetic paper of self- his father's advice, and gained the esteem of drink that he lost property and friends, and, demnation, as a caution to all who think bis equals and the confidence of his superiors. sinking from one degradation to another, y stand, although in the highest station, He rose step by step till be occupied one of at length father and brothers cast him off, gbt departure from the right way, and that all the preceding day he was fearfully tried to curse the babit which had caused all bis sy need go no further than they choose in At last the fearful moment came. All the path of self-indulgence. But it is by others had left. He remained, under the ace only that we are able to stand, and he pretence of finishing some business. He that bound him, strange, to say, came no reog years in getting to that moment. Once his position. The president was a good and and Godhead. oung man," and here the speaker's voice wise man, and promised that he would keep st have many a sore combat and some of God's creatures. But the tempter whis him to retire for a month from the bank to rfare (perhaps more than thou art aware pered to me, just as he does to all, and I un-recover his shattered energies, and to reflect er, watch unto the end, watch and pray in my own strength, and so when temptation a deep sense of his own weakness, but with a tinually, that ye enter not into tempta-came again I was like a reed shaken in the firm reliance on the grace of God as bis only a, said our great Lord unto his followers." wind. Little by little I gave up the contested true safeguard, and with a more abiding sense

It is many years since this occurred. It is path of those who are eminently gifted, and heaven. The tempter whispered in louder a lesson from the life of an experienced banker; I who attract the admiration of others, tones, until be shricked in awful tones, 'Mur-but, with some modifications, it is a history tty, in his History of Friends in Ireland, at the theory of the that man,' and I did the awful deed of the temptations that beset scores of boys ates the case of Abigail Boles, afterwards Young man, in God's name, don't yield to the and young men in city life. May the result ith, who was convinced about the year first temptation. If an evil thought comes to be also the history of every one that is tempted 5, and about eight years afterwards came yon, crush it as you would a viper—turn away to do what is not right in the sight of God!

In one of the Methodist Journals I find a narrative written by R. H. Howard, which The rough-looking prisoner was trembling illustrates the danger there is of going backth's account both in Ireland and England, like a leaf when he ceased speaking, and the ward in religious condition, if the holy watch acceptable service in many places, and two young men were almost as deeply agitated, against evil is not maintained. The person of whom he speaks was the son of a wealthy A boy from the country obtained a position and influential physician in Connecticut. l, not being strong enough to bear praise, in a banking-house in a city. Before leaving When about 22 years of age he united hims transported into pride thereby, lost her him in the counting room his father took him self with the Methodist Episcopal Church and fellowship with Friends, and from aside, and gave him this advice: "My son, and became a zealous worker in that debe obedient, obliging, civil and respectful; be nomination. But a fondness for the wineegree of contempt. It is certain, however, attentive to business, be honest, be trust cup led him astray, as it has many others. t she became sensible of the fall, and suf-ed many bitter agonies on that account, 'Thou, God, seest me.'"

Through neglect of the warnings of Divine Grace in his own heart, which would have He promised he would, and kept his pledge preserved him from this snare, be became the most responsible positions in the place. and finally his wife felt compelled to abandon But he was not to live always a stranger him and seek a refuge in her own father's

Rendered reekless and desperate by the k and adorn itself with the gifts and graces of dollars, and walked away with the money, depths to which this habit had brought him, the Holy Spirit, and not to value themselves. At first he reproached himself for permitting he enlisted in the United States army, then on any gift which God bestows on them; the thought of such covetousness to enter his lengaged in subdning the Indian tribes of cause that opens a wide door for tempta-mind; but the temptation grew stronger, and Florida and the Western frontier. For eight he grew weaker. The plans by which the years thereafter he continued to lead that One of the most successful stratagems of wicked act could be carried out opened be half-civilized life that soldiers then led amid enemy of all righteousness, is to delude fore him. Everything arranged itself with the Florida swamps and the Western prairies, unkind with the idea that if they yield to the nicest harmony and precision. The even-Meantime, surrounded by the hardships and a temptation which is presented it will ling was set, the money was where he could privations of such a life, be learned to prize there little, for it is a small thing, a very lay his hand on it in a moment. Through to leaves his only sure Helper, and follows walked to the vault, and swung open the vival of his olden love to God. On the conenemy, has no power of his own to return heavy door. As he reached out his hand to trary, he seemed, rather, only to harden his the fold from which he has wandered. It grasp the money, it fell from his fingers as if heart and to sear his conscience by adopting nonly be through the fresh extension of it had been a bar of red hot iron. He tremevery infidel doctrine he had ever known. at Divine love, whose pleadings he has re-bled as if in convulsions, for then the burning The consequence was, that when his term of ted. It is recorded of a man who was thought flashed across his excited mind, "Thou, service was completed, and he had returned afined in prison under sentence of death God, seest me." He felt the eye of God gazing to home and friends, and had become a temmurder, that he was visited there by two upon him, and, with a reproving glance, perate man, and so a kind husband and father, ung men who manifested an interest in his warning him of his guilt. He fell upon the and a respected citizen once more, he had addition, one of whom asked him how the floor and groaned aloud. The money he had also become a confirmed infidel—a bitter condropped seemed to answer, "Thou, God, seest temner and opposer of every thing connected "It did not all happen at once, young man," him." He cried out aloud, "O God of my with God and religion. The very talent s the slow reply. "Sit down in that chair mother, save me from this crime!" which had once made him an effective worker dell tell you about it. It did not all happ. And God did save him. In uttering the in a good cause now made him no less suction at once," he repeated, "it did not all prayer he had passed the crisis. 'He replaced cessful in a had onc, and he who had once ppen in a day or a month or even in a the package of money, closed the vault, and written of a Saviour's love, now not only ar. It was true that I sent an axe crush repairing at once to the house of the presi-utterly denied his divinity, but gave himself, g into the brains of a fellow man—that dent of the bank, related to him all that had with pestilent activity, to the destruction of ppened in a moment of time, but I was transpired, and begged to be dismissed from the faith of others in that Saviour's lordship

Some twelve years after his return his wife embled, "I was as pure as you are—vice the matter secret, assured thin that his confidied. It was a terrible blow to him, for not dnot then left its fearful stain upon my face, denee in him was not destroyed, and that he divided its fearful stain upon my face, denee in him was not destroyed, and that he divided its fearful stain upon my face, denee in him in his place. But he advised devotedly attached to each other. This affliction, however, severe as it was, did not yet seem in any degree to soften his heart. stead, indeed, he seemed only the more rapidly to rebel against the hand that had chastened

Two years later consumption laid its remorseless hand upon him. Slowly he failed, until at length he knew he must die. At first trained to look upon military pursuits as an its manufacture the cost of steel has g he gave no sign of relenting. About two honorable occupation; yet, when speaking of diminished, which is undoubedtly one weeks, however, before his death, his stubborn heart, his pride of intellect that had so long in Spain and Portugal, during the time of in its use. upheld him, utterly gave way, and, like a poor, broken-hearted child, he came back to the foot of the cross, supplicating with a truly despairing carnestness and energy for the peace and pardon he had once enjoyed. He dence can afflict a nation. Even your allies was one of the saddest, the most wretched, cannot avoid bringing with them desolation heart-broken of human beings. sinced against such light!" he would say; to preven their falling into the hands of the "I have crucified the Saviour afresh—counted enemy. In short, ruin and devastation follow the blood of the covenant wherewith I was in the train of an army, whether friend or foe. sanctified an unboly thing; there remains for me, therefore, no more atonement for sin.'

He conversed freely about his former Christian experience, always closing with remarks tian experience, always closing with remarks down and given as green food to the borses like these: "I am worse than Judas. I sold of our army. The French being expected my Master for nothing. Like Peter, I denied almost immediately to occupy the position him, but, unlike Peter, I did it without provecation. Like Saul of Tarsns, I persecuted properly thought it better to secure the grain Him, but, unlike Saul, I did it," he said bit for ourselves than leave it to fall into the

In this despairing frame of mind he remained until his death, earnestly entreating implored him to spare his only field, which every one around him to pray for him, and with the publican's prayer ever upon his lips. The last words he ever uttered were, "Lord Jesus, have mercy!

Whatever hopes we may entertain, that this prayer was heard and answered, yet the narrative is one that strongly enforces the of the French, his mortal enemies, would. need of obeying the command of our Saviour The colonel concluded by giving the poor tion;" and of following the example of the in dollars equal to what had been taken port life. The state of the atmosphere Apostle Paul, who said, "I keep my body under and bring it into subjection, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

The New Heart .- There is in every righteous man a new vital principle. The spirit of grace is the spirit of wisdom, and teaches us by secret inspirations, by proper arguments, by actual persuasions, by personal applications, by effects and energies; and as the soul of man is the cause of all his vital operations, so is the Spirit of God the life of that damp department, Parize noticed some small or four Timorese men and boys under a h life, and cause of all actions and productions blisters or bubbles on the plastering. On tree; and looking up, saw on a very lespiritual; and the consequence of this is what puncturing one of these there came out a horizontal branch three large bees' con St. John tells us of, viz: Ye have received very fine red dust that had resulted from the The tree was straight and smooth-bar the unction from above, and that anointing powdering of the bricks. An examination of and without a branch, till at 70 or 80 teacheth you all things that pertain to life this showed the presence of an immense num- from the ground it gave out the limb wh and godliness; all that by which a man is made truly wise and happy.

Unless the soul have a new life put into it, unless there be a vital principle within; unless bricks with a stiff brush and drilled a hole of them first produced a long piece of wo the Spirit of life he the informer of the spirit about an inch into one of them, the dust from apparently the stem of a small tree or eree of man, the word of Scripture will be as dead the bottom of this was found to contain the which he had brought with him, and bes in operation, as the body in its powers and same organisms though not in such great splitting it through in several direction possibilities. Unless there be in our hearts numbers. This shows that the germs or which showed that it was very tough a a secret conviction by the Spirit of God, the spores of these minute forms of life may exist stringy. He then wrapped it in palm leav

Grace teaches us, in the midst of life's greatest comforts, to be willing to die, and in feeting processes that are employed in apart-lone of his companions had cut, and lighted

For " The Friend."

The Scourge of War.

Events from 1799 to 1815, may be found some slight glimpses of the evils of war. The authere entered the navy when scarcely ten pig iron is now 20,000,000 tons and overse of age, and during his whole life was 5,000,000. Owing to the improvement the conflicts between the French and English causes which has led to the wonderful in Napoleon Bonaparte, he says: "God forbid, old England ever should be the scene of warfare. Contending armies are one of the greatest scourges with which Divine Provi-"I have for a time, by destroying crops of all kinds,

"Being near the town of Usagree, in Estremadura, with a brigade of dragoons, I re member seeing whole fields of wheat, &c., cut we were then in, the commanding officer very terly, "with a full knowledge that he was the hands of the enemy. A poor old Spaniard Came up to the gallant colonel, the late Sir Felton Harvey, and, shaking his grey locks, was to preserve himself and family from starving, and which he beheld our troops cutting to feed their horses. The reply was, that we were his friends; that we were obliged to take the corn, since our horses must not starve; that, if they did not eat it, those "Watch and pray lest ye enter into tempta- man an order on the commissary to pay him

"The constant state of alarm and anxiety that the whole of Spain and Portugal suffered, while the contending armies were hovering about, was extreme.

For "The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

ing Materials.—In examining some mould teresting sight it was. In the valley wi that had vegetated on a brick partition in a I used to collect insects I one day saw tl ber of living organisms, belonging to the the bees had chosen for their home. As algae, which were moving with extreme men were evidently looking after the be rapidity. Having cleaned the surface of the I waited to watch their operations. a secret conviction by the Spirit of God, the spores of these minute forms of the may consider the specific of the spores of these minute forms of the may consider the which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel itself is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and be preserved almost indefinitely in sur-which were secured by twisting a slent gospiel is a dead letter.—Christian Philo-and gospiel is a dead letter. looking for them.

the midst of its greatest crosses to be willing ments, hospitals or stables where cases of the bottom, emitting a steady stream of smol to live.

contagious disease have occurred; and the Cloths were wrapped round his bead, no importance of scraping the walls to r the layer of material in which parasitic by In W. S. Lovell's Personal Narrative of may have been able to establish them in −La Nature.

Iron and Steel .- The annual products

Spontaneous Combustion .- The Mutua Ins. Co. of New York calls the attenti its customers to the increase of fires a from spontaneous combustion, common cause of this is oily waste-wh in cotton waste, animal fibre as silk and or vegetable fibre as raw cotton, jute celsior. All such greasy material shou kept earefully cleaned up and not be all to remain about a building. Gas from Iron Cement.—In building a way bridge over the Forth, a numb cylinders were sunk into the bed of the They were built of iron rings six fediameter and several feet high, and ma total height of 60 feet. The space round sections was filled from the inside by a ture of iron turnings, salammoniae and sulp When wet this oxidizes and swells up to fill the spaces into which it was th One day when there was a perfectly atmosphere, the man at work inside the e der was observed to become overpowere some "mysterious influence," and a compa descended by a windlass to his assisti The first man was hauled up into the air recovered, but the second succumbed to same influence and fell into the water at bottom and was drowned. The effect traced to the absorption of oxygen from air in the cylinder by the iron and sull of the mixture, until it would no longer vented the free circulation of the outer ai Scientific American.

Bee-hunting in Timor .- The bees-wax i important and reliable product, formed the wild bees, which build huge honey-co suspended in the open air from the ur side of the lofty branches of the highest to These are of a semi circular form, and or three or four feet in diameter. I once Microscopic Organisms as Destroyers of Build- the natives taking a bees' nest, and a very made was fastened to one end of a stro Hence is explained the utility of the disin-creeper or bush rope 8 or 10 yards long, whi pletely bare.

just above the torch and passed the other pelago. round the trunk of the tree, holding one in each band. Jerking it up the tree a above his head, he set his feet against trunk, and leaning back, began walking It was wonderful to see the skill with ch he took advantage of the slighest irlarities of the bark or obliquity of the to aid his ascent, jerking the stiff creeper v feet higher when he had found a firm hold is bare feet. It almost made me giddy ook at him as he rapidly got up-30, 40, et above the ground, and I kept wonderhow he could possibly mount the next feet of straight smooth trunk. Still, ever, he kept on with as much coolness apparent certainty as if he were going up lder, till he got within 10 or 15 feet of bees. Then he stopped a moment, and care to swing the torch (which hung just is feet) a little toward these dangerous ts, so as to send up the stream of smoke een him and them. Still going on, in a ite more he brought himself under the

, and, in a manner quite unintelligible to et upon it. on his arms or legs. Then stretching self along the limb, he erept towards the g the limb, and brushed off the remaining opinions." with his hand, and then drawing his knife able lot of wax.

body, leaving bis face, arms and legs are used to the pain, and learn to bear it im- from the use of their trades, take what is he bee-hunter now took hold of the bush be a bee-hunter. - Wallace's Malay Archi-communicated spirituals; and having food

> God feeds the wild flowers on the lonely mountain side without the help of man, and his Spirit.

THE FRIEND.

SEVENTH MONTH 7, 1883.

We have received some extracts from book entitled, the "Inner Life of the Religious Societies of the Commonwealth," written by the late Robert Barclay, of Englanda descendant of the Apologist, but holding very different views from his honored ancestor. These extracts are designed to show that the views of George Fox and our Early Friends on Hireling Ministry were not so fully opseeing that both hands were occupied in posed to the system as those which have preborting himself by the creeper, managed vailed in our Society since his day.

Most of the extracts sent to us, with some y this time the bees began to be alarmed, others on this subject from the same work, formed a dense buzzing swarm just over are quoted and commented on by the late Examen," &c.

In this review, C. E. shows on what slender 442. est comb and swung the torch just under foundations the author rests his assumptions: nged in a most curious manner from black for granted, as undoubted facts, the suggeshite, the myriads of bees that had covered tions of his own imagination; and, that the ing off and forming a dense cloud above narrative contained in his book, as relates to off the comb at one slice close to the tree, the statement, that "it is a great mistake. attaching a thin cord to it, let it down to to suppose that Fox in protesting against a ompanions below. He was all this time 'hireling ministry,' protested against all payloped in a crowd of angry bees, and how ments to the ministers of the Gospel. What his work at that giddy height so de-ately, was more than I could understand. The assumption here—that it was only a minke or driven away far by it, and it was which Friends objected, is one of those imossible that the small stream from the aginary suggestions taken for a fact, of which h could protect his whole body when at the book contains many specimens. There were three other combs on the views of the Society of Friends on this subtree, and all were successively taken, ject are shown in the following passages:

furnished the whole party with a luscious of honey and young bees, as well as a unspotted gift [of the ministry], as they have openly and unremittingly, against a hireling ter two of the combs had been let down, it, without hire or bargaining; far less to use in the 'Inner Life' to those who took the bees became rather numerous below, fly- it as a trade to get money by; yet if God hath compensation provided by the State." The bout wildly and stinging viciously. Seve-called any one from their employments or disposition which has been manifested of late ot about me, and I was soon stung, and trades, by which they acquire their liveli-years to set aside our ancient testimony on to run away, beating them off with my hood, it may be lawful for such, according to this point, we regard as one of the accompaand capturing them for specimens. Seve the liberty which they feel given to them in niments of that unsettlement which has been f them followed me for at least half a the Lord, to receive such temporals (to wit, introduced into the Society of Friends, and pe, are perhaps the best safeguards. A having freely received, freely give . . . whose settling on a passive native probably be- hands supply their own necessities, working s as it would on a tree or other inani-honestly for bread for themselves and famipassively, as without doing so no man could freely given them by such to whom they have and raiment are therewith content.'

"[The ministers who are called and sent of God] when they stay in a place, being immediately furnished by God, and not needing to they are as fresh and lovely as those that are borrow and steal what they preach, from daily watched over in our gardens. So God books, and take up their time that way, fall can feed his own planted ones without the a working at their lawful employments and labor help of man, by the sweetly falling dew of with their hands, as Paul did when he gathered the Church at Corinth."-Id.

In 1695, George Whitehead and some other Friends had an interview with King William III., in which the king inquired of them, "What places we belonged to, or to what congregations we did minister?" To which they replied, "They were not pastors or ministers over any particular congregations, but visited Friends' meetings in divers places as the Lord inclined us. For we do not make a gain of our ministry; we do not take stipends or hire of our ministry, but preach the Gospel freely, according to Christ's command to his ministers; freely ye have received, freely give."—Friends' Library, vol. 8, p. 431.

In the same year, a law, which imposed a fine on every minister who had not taken orders according to the Church of England, being about to be renewed, Friends called on some of the members of Parliament, and, as G. Whitehead states, "Acquainted them how undeservedly many of our Friends had sufbut he brought the torch up close to Dr. Charles Evans, in his able and fair fered as preachers, by a maladministration of and coolly brushed away those that set-review of the "Inner Life," entitled "An the said Poll-act, when they have no profit, gain or contribution on that account."-Id. p.

The case of John Banks, who was an emi-The moment the smoke touched it, its color the remarkable facility with which he takes nent minister in the early days of our Society, may be taken as an example of the practice of his brethren in the work of the Gospel. He says: "In my native county in Cumberland, around. The man then lay at full length Friends, is "formulated to suit pre-conceived and also in many places elsewhere, it is well known to Friends, with what diligence I The extracts referred to commence with labored among them in the work of the Gospel, early and late, far and near, through much hardship to my body, in heat and cold; and yet, through the strength and ability given me of God, I was preserved in and ore their stings so coolly and went on he opposed was a ministry which was the through all, having faith therein. And with all diligence, when I was at home, I labored with my hands, with honest endeavors and bees were evidently not stupefied by the istry which was "hired by the civil power," to lawful employments, for the maintenance of my family."-Friends' Library, vol. 2, p. 16.

In conclusion, we are fully prepared to The unite in the judgment arrived at by Charles Evans, after a discussion of this question :-"From all this it may be safely asserted, that "They who have received this holy and the testimony which the early Friends bore, freely received it, so are they freely to give ministry, was not restricted, as represented getting into my hair and persecuting what may be needful for them for meat and which is leading some into the doctrines and nost pertinaciously, so that I was more hisbed than ever at the immunity of the displayment of the deliberate motion, and no attempt at "The ministers we plead for, are such as concerned to bear their testimony against.

We believe it is not out of place to express substance, which it does not attempt to lies. And if at any time they be called of in "The Friend," the satisfaction we feel at Still they must often suffer, but they God, so as the work of the Lord hinder them the progress thus far made in Civil Service Reform, both by the General Government which was 123 more than during the previous week, tained that the Land act worked well, and ask and in some of the States. So great are the and 58 more than during the corresponding period last demoralizing effects of the system which considers the offices under governments as the 25 died of consumption; 23 of convulsions; The chairman of the Loughese Union has degree with the control of partizan politics, and which en- of inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and 10 of 10 dags; 11 that he never knew the out-door relief list to be so as it is now, and that it has become necessary to the control of the stomach and bowels, and 11 of the stomach and bowels, and 10 of 10 dags; 12 that the reserving the control of inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and 11 of 12 the stomach and the stomach and bowels, and 12 the stomach and bowels, and 11 of 12 the stomach and bowels, and 12 the stomach and bowels, and 11 of 12 the stomach and bowels, and 12 the stomach and th forces a change of subordinate officers with pneumonia. every change of the party in power; that any blow to this system must be regarded as a step in the direction of public morality as well as economy.

What has been already done in this direction is but the beginning of a reform, which we hope will continue and extend.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.-General Crook arrived in Denver on the 1st instant, on his way to Washington. He firmly believes the troubles with the Apache Indians is settled.

The effect of the executive order consolidating various internal revenue districts, is to reduce the number of such districts 46, or from 126 to 80. It will probably take until the 1st of 8th month to carry the order into final effect. The saving effected by the consolidation is estimated at $200,000 a year.
Sixteen hundred and thirty-nine new post-offices were established in the United States during the fiscal year just closed.

The steamship Nevada arrived at New York last week with 680 Mormon converts, from Sweden, Denmark, Wales, England and Norway,

Professor Brooks, of the Red House Observatory, at Phelps, New York, reports a telescopic observation on First-day morning, of an enormous group of spots now central upon the sun's disc. The diameter of the group is 50,000 miles, and the spots are visible to the naked They exhibit violent cyclonic action, electrical storms and aurora accompanying this solar outbreak. A brilliant aurora was witnessed at Phelps all Seventhday night.

On the 28th ultimo, the Supreme Court of Ohio gave out its decision in support of the Scott liquor tax law. The Court holds the law to be "valid and constitutional, except the second section, wherein it is held not to apply to leases executed prior to the passage of the act, as no contracts made can be violated." The point is made that "declaring one section partially null and void does not destroy the validity of the law as a whole, and its legality is not thereby affected.'

The total assessed valuation of real and personal estate in the city of New York for 1883, is $1,276,677,-164, an increase of $43,200,765 on the valuation for

The total debt of the city of Boston is reported at $41,281,000, an increase of $1,118,000 since last year.

The trade dotlar, which is not a legal tender, is being refused as a circulating medium at face value, and is rapidly disappearing. Florida has 630 factories, employing 2749 hands and about $1,680,000 in capital. A special meeting of the New York State Board of Health was held on the 29th ult. in Albany, at which Erastus Brooks called attention to an alarming increase to the enormous extent of the territory, the unknown of pleuro-pneumonia among milch cows on Staten Island. A resolution was adopted calling the attention of the National Commission on Cattle Diseases to the increase of pleuro-pueumonia in New York State, "with a view to investigation of its origin and growth, and to securing its eradication, if possible, and the punishment of those responsible for its introduction."

The Delaware river was higher at Trenton on the 29th ult., than it has been for many years. The streams of the Queensland Government. We think the parwhich empty into the Upper Delaware are swollen to ticular colony of Queensland is not well suited for the a height unknown for twenty-four years.

The recent rain storm flooded collieries and damaged towns throughout the Schuylkill coal regions. In some places whole fields had grain washed out of them by the roots.

It is reported from various sections of Berks county that, in addition to the Hessian fly, a small green worm has appeared, "which eats off the grain at the head, the latter then dropping to the ground and rotting." farmers say the same worm devastated the wheat twenty-five years ago.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104\frac{1}{3}; 3\frac{1}{3}'s, 103\frac{1}{3}; 4\frac{1}{2}'s, 113; 4's, registered, 119\frac{1}{3}; coupon, 120\frac{1}{3}; currency 6's, 127 a 131.

Petroleum.—Standard white, 7½ a 7½ ets. for export, and 8½ a 8½ cts. per gallon for home use.

and 3 a 8 cs. per gaiton for nome use. Flour.—The demand for flour continues limited, both for export and home use, but prices were unchanged; days. It has been decided in Cyprus to allow no ref 2100 barrels sold, including Minnesota extras, clear, at from Egypt to land on the island, because of the $5.37\frac{1}{2} a $5.50; small lots do. straight, at $5.75 a $0.25; of quarantine stations there. The Spanish author Pennsylvania extra family at $4.90; do. do., choice, at $5; Ohio do. do., at $5.50 a $6; do. do. do., new process, a $6.25; Southern Illinois, do. do., at $5.75 a $6; Wisconsin winter family at $5.25; Ohio patent, at $6.50; Kisconsin winter family at $5.25; Ohio patent, at $6.50 a $6.75; Minnesota do., at $7 a $7.25, and 1000 barrels City Mills on secret terms; Western and Pennsylvania super at $3.50 a $3.75; do. do. extras, at $4 a $4.25; Pennsylvania extra family, at $4.87½ a $5; Ohio do. do. $5.25 a $6; Indiana do. do., at $5.25 a $6; St. Louis and Southern Illinois do. do., at $5.37 a $6.50; Minnesota, bakers' clear, at $5.25 a $5.50; do. do. straight, at $5.75 a $6.25; patents, winter wheat, at $6.50 a $7; do. spring, at $7 a $7.25. Rye flour sells at $3.62\frac{1}{2} a $3.75 per burrel. Feed.—Winter bran sells at $15 a $15.50, and spring at $14 a $14.50 per ton.

Grain.-Wheat was rather firmer: Sales of 3200 bushels red and amber, at $1.07 a $1.19; 2800 bushels retains the right of inspecting seminaries. The do, track, at $1,14; 2400 bushels No. 2 red, in elevator, recognizes the right of the Government to exat $1.133; 2000 bushels rejected at $1.07 a $1.10. Rye, 65 a 67 cts. Corn was unsettled. Sales of 9000 bushels sail, at 55 a 63 cts., as to condition. Oats were also unsettled. About 8500 bushels sold in lots 42 a 44 cts. for white, and 39 a 41 cts. per bushel for rejected and

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 6th mo. 30th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 177; loads of straw, 23. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 95 cts. to $1.05 per 100 pounds; mixed, 85 to 95 cts.; straw, 65 a 75 cts. per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were in fair demand and prices were roubles. a fraction higher: 3000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 43 a 7 cts. per lb., as to quality. Sheep were dull and lower: 12,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 31 a 53 cts. and lambs torious.

at 4 a 9 cts. per lb., as to condition. Hogs were dull and rather lower: 3700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 81 a 91 cts. per lb., acres of the crop.

as to quality.

FOREIGN.-The Old Testament company of revisers have now finished the last revision of the Old Testament, and are making up the appendix, which contains the unadjusted differences between the American and proportion of the cost. have appeared in New Orleans. The dimes, which are 7th mo, for several days, and resume work in 9th mo, of was plated with nickel, are well estaulated to de in mext. It is expected, the momentum work in 9th mo, of was plated with nickel, are well estaulated to de in mext. It is expected that the proposal that the proposal was the proposal was the proposal when the proposal was the proposal was the proposal was the proposal was the proposal when the proposal was pleted before the end of this year, and published by the University presses of Oxford and Cambridge before next spring.

The House of Lords on the 28th ult. rejected the bill permitting marriage with a deceased wife's sister on its third reading by a vote of 145 nays to 140 yeas. Derby, the Colonial Secretary, said that the Government was not prepared to annex New Guinea, owing character of the interior of that country, and the certainty that the natives would object to annexation.

Gladstone made a similar statement in the Hons Commons. He said: A despatch will shortly be forwarded to Queensland stating the view of Her Majesty's Government on this question. The annexation of New Guinea is clearly and legally null and is not warranted by policy. We are not prepared to confirm the action function which it has undertaken to perform. home Government alone will assume the responsibility if such a step would be necessary. There is no reason to believe that other powers wish to annex New Guinea. The despatch will refer to our intention to strengthen the hand of the High Commissioner in regard to police of the neighboring seas.

Earl Speacer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, speaking made to the Sat Limerick, said he saw signs of a better future for of Managers. Ireland. He advocated technical training, leading to an improved style of farming, before the people entered The deaths in this city last week numbered 430, upon the task of reclaiming waste lands. He main-crease the relieving staff.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104½; 3½'s, 103½; 4½'s, 113; 4's, Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 104½; 3½'s, 103½; 4½'s, 113; 4's, registered, 119½; coupon, 120½; currency 6's, 127 a 131.

dere received from eminent English counsely cotton.—There was no essential change to notice in were decidedly against Count de Lessep's memorp price or demand. Sales of middlings are reported at the work of constructing canals across the fath
the work of constructing canals across the fath general constructing canals across the fath solution. demand power to construct a second canal.

The cholera continues to prevail in Damietta, E bave imposed ten days' quarantine upon all vesse riving at Spanish ports which have left Egypt 6th mo. 22d, and a fortnight's quarantine upon v with sickness on board. The Italian Governmen ordered that all vessels arriving at Italian ports Egypt be quarantined ten days. The French Go ment has issued a similar order. The spectrum line of helium, an element here recognized only in the sun's spectrum, has been t by Dr. Palmieri in an examination of lava from vins At St. Petersburg the Government announces the negotiations between Russia and the Vatican have concluded. The hierarchy will be allowed freede matters of faith, hat interference in questions in re to the temporal power is forbidden. The Govern control over the education of Catholic children i Russian language, literature and history. App proval of the Government. In regard to instructi the canonical branches, the rights of the bishops re untouched. The power is restored to the bisho removing clergymen. The Government intend rogate the exceptional measures against the Catl issued in 1864.

The damage by the great fire which broke out of Island of Gutnjewsky is now estimated at 10,00

The tribes in revolt near Bagdad have had with the Turkish troops. Two hundred and fifty were killed. It is not yet known which side wa

Fears are entertained at Sourabaya and Rem Java, of a rice famine, Disease has destroyed 20

Through the exertions of the Geographical Sc of Quebec a survey is about to be made of the co-lying between Lake St. John and Hudson Bay. Dominion and Quebec Government will bear a Lima, 6th mo. 28th .- The Tribune, a new Ig rgan, says that a meeting at La Union, in the de ment of Huanuco, on 6th mo. 14th, resolved to a to the conditions of peace, and to recognize Igles President. The same paper prints a certificate Juan T. Demarini, dated Talma, 6th month 22nd similar resolutions were passed there on 6th monand at Palpa, in the province of Ica, on the 19th.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL, Until further notice the Stage will be at West Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M. from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the si

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHILD AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Matr household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine str

John Sharpless, Chester, Penna., Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine street

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSAN Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadely Physician and Superintendent-John C. Hall, Applications for the Admission of Patients m made to the Superintendent, or to any of the

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

THE FRIEND.

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

7OL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SEVENTH MONTH 14, 1883.

NO. 49.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

e, if paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid in advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail. Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to

JOSEPH WALTON MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

riptions, payments and business communications, received by

JOHN S. STOKES, NO. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend."

ers and Memoranda of William Scattergood,

(Continued from page 378.)

Are ye able to drink of the cup that I k of, and to be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with ?" was the query of dear Master to two of his first disciples. s showing that it was, in measure, to be tried and humiliating experience of every who, like them, enlisted under his banner. egnized Him as their Captain unto becomhis disciples, through filial adoption, and he fellowship of his suffering. To such as e, chastenings, trials, conflicts, with bapas part of the way to prepare for useful-in the Church of Christ, as well as that Ordained to guide the ransomed spirit home. from toilsome life to never ending rest, e have witnessed in the case of the tribulauthor of these Letters and Memoranda. though almost ready at times to east the shield of faith, and to "be swallowed ith overmuch sorrow," he was neverthein mercy supported through deep and den conflicts; and that over all the asts of the enemy, the desire was kept alive vote himself, body, soul and spirit, to the and service of Him who had visited in his tender years; who had preserved tany temptations; and who had again and returned to bless, as promised, His recorded in the heart of every one of oving children. To be made willing to ept the Saviour in his meek and lowly parance, to walk by faith, to let patience its perfect work under the Lord's chasg, and to profit duly by the things which ave suffered, are perhaps as hard Chrisrlessons as any that we are called to, or ritted to learn in the training, transformchool of Christ.

S., as set forth in the following memo-service, of his ever-excellent and adorable appointed path, and to a consistent walk

"9th mo. 23d, 1838 .- Last Fourth-day, in our little meeting at Greenwich, I opened my mouth in a few words, commencing with: 'Who will show us any good?' And oh! the feeling experienced since then till to-day. It truly seemed as if my soul had found rest, and my foot once more a firm place to stand upon. To day in meeting an impression of duty to bend the knee in public prayer was reasoned away, and emptiness is my portion this evening. It seems now as if the path was plainly pointed out in which I ought to walk, if I expected peace with God.*

Truly the fleece is turned enough in the experience of these days, to give conrage to my fearful soul, which has held back, dreading the cross; and saying, I am unfit for this great work. Truly, indeed, I am unfit. But the Lord can qualify the meanest for his service; and if He see proper to strengthen me for this work, I have great occasion to bow in submission, and say: 'Thy will be done.' O! may my trembling knees be confirmed, as as into the depths of Jordan, become and may I be enabled to put forward the las nart of the way to prepare for useful. neglected of late years."

10th mo. 15th, 1838 .- My mind, through mercy, is preserved in calmness. The effort variably believed, that in the very darkest to accomplish what appeared my duty, seems afresh to have opened the door of mercy. I am favored with renewed and I trust living desires, to draw near to God; to plead for lates to the Church, looking with man's unmercy; for a capacity to walk conformably assisted sight: nevertheless, the eye of faith to his gracious requirings. Oh! that I may improve the favor, and be found diligent in watchfulness unto prayer. True, I am weak ; I find myself, through long-continued neglect of duty, weak and prone to earthly sensual Jesus; He, who has in mercy never to be forthoughts; my heart full of other thingshard, unthankful and irresolute. Nevertheless, in the humbling sense of my many infirmities to be made to feel that help is laid upon one that is mighty, is calculated to animate in prayer, that the Great Master will hear and answer out of his holy habitation.

* From a letter by one since deceased, dated 9th mo. knows that he appeared in the same way when a very young man and before his marriage; but a few times only. I believe some of his friends have looked toward him as a laborer in that line ever since. I was not im, was now to enter upon the great alone in thinking it savored of the right thing-reem-Jun, was now to enter upon the great of of the ministry. For which service is an doubt, the foregoing recorded exercisers of the first which service is an adoubt, the foregoing recorded exercisers were, in part, the preparatory discipline, it is under the Law, they were to be "clear was not unlocked for by some of our members. They show the preparatory discipline, it is under the Law, they were to be "clear was not unlocked for by some of our members. They show the preparatory discipline, it is under the law, they were to be "clear was not unlocked for by some of our members. They show the preparatory discipline, it is under the law, they were to be "clear was not unlocked for by some of our members. They show they have the lips which is the law of the poured forth unto the praise, in this line of May I be strengthened to faithfulness in the among men. May my conversation be seasoned with salt; and may I be engaged day by day to seek a closer acquaintance with Him, who is the strength of our life, and without whose gracious assistance, we can do nothing acceptable in his eye sight.'

" Philada., 11th mo. 18th, 1838.

From Sarah Hillman to W. S.

Dear William,-Thy last letter was truly grateful, as it contained intelligence new to me and desirable. * * * And now, my dear friend, if thou lettest faithfulness to the Lord be the girdle of thy loins, He will assuredly give thee thy wages, as He has in mercy done; and all that He spake to thee of in early days, will He accomplish as thon keepest hold on thy part of the covenant. Oh! that thou mayest follow unreservedly and faithfully the leadings of his Holy Spirit, counting nothing too near or too dear to part with for his blessed name's sake: and when He leadeth again into Jordan, vea, the very depths of Jordan, be willing to abide there until He speaks the word, 'Come up hither.' Ah! then thou wilt bring up thy stones of memorial, living stones to the honor and praise of Him who hath called thee out of darkness, and whose love hath been ever toward thee; yea, I have in-times thou hast experienced since I knew thee, thon hast been in his love.

Things here are truly discouraging as refrom Pisgah's mount, beholds, at seasons, the good land and better times ahead. Then let us struggle on, my dear friend, and east our care for time and for eternity, on Christ gotten, visited us in infant years, and kept us in an humbling sense of our inability to save ourselves, and whose gracious promise even in our darkest moments has been realized, 'Lo, I am with you always,' or we had long are this fallen a prey to the enemy. Ah! and He will be with his own, as I believe, to the very end of the world. 'The mountains "From a setter oy one since deceased, dated you mol-lyth, 1838, we extract the following: "N. Scattergood has appeared both in testimony and supplication in kindness shall not depart from thee, neither our meeting within a couple of weeks. Thou perhaps shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord, that hath mercy on thee. Pray for us in this great city, this tumultuous city; that our faith fail not. Great are our conflicts; wrestling not against flesh and blood it is near meeting time, and must affection- them. And on the other hand the woe and Shepherd, and say farewell.

Thine in sincerity, may experience a fervent concern, morning this wise by morning, to walk in thy fear; that so I may know thy favor and presence extended for my consolution and strength in the need- and more with thee, and prosper thy truth lated of Abraham Griffith, a minister of ful time. My mouth of late has not been in their assemblies, that thou may have the son Meeting, which contained some ir opened in meeting; but I have had to mourn praise of thine own works, and many such tion. When looking towards marrying the solution of the solution when there, under a sense of my utter unfit-like words he uttered in prayer and exhorta- felt some difficulty in deciding, to wil ness for so weighty a work, and to desire tion, which are not remembered. And when two women his addresses should be paid preservation from the hands of my crael he delivered these things his spirit was much was rich and the other poor. He th enemy."

under a feeling of carnest desire that I might the tendering of the hearts of those that were of the other, passed by the lane lead profit by it, and know a little of the lifting up present in an extraordinary manner; and so her house, concluding that if the rich (of the Lord's countenance. Through mercy, he continued patient in mind, perfect in speech, fused him, he would try the other. H I was in some measure favored to struggle and quick of apprehension to the last mover as accepted and he married the riel for the blessing; but do not find the light and ment—it being the 29th day of 1st mo. 1704." who proved a thorn in his side. In joy which I so much desire to feel. May I because I desire the reward without the the joy of his salvation; and uphold me by his free spirit."

For "The Friend."

In a recent examination of the old records of Concord Quarterly Meeting, the following was found on a loose sheet.:

tion spoken by Walter Fausit to his wife, children and friends, about twelve hours before his departure out of this life.

"I desire to have my love remembered to all friends, and especially to Samuel Bownas, if you live to see him again, and more I would a religious visit to England. name particularly, but for reason of weakness of body I cannot. He then desired his wife earnestly by his father on his death-bed, we that his father was acquainted with the might be called, and when she came his first find by minute of Chester Monthly Meeting words to her were, I am laboring for my long of 4th mo. 1708, that "Chester Meeting laid home, and then how brave it is to be before before this meeting the great grief and trouble Healy was narrated by Nathaniel N. S. the Lord with a clear conscience; what a occasioned by J. H. and John Fausit's mis-

ately commend us to the keeping of Israel's misery that attends for the disobedient. Speaking again to his wife, said, If thou keep to God and his truth, He will be a husband lated to me a remark made by his "1st mo. 13th, 1839.—I find that conflict to thee and a father to my children, and the father, John Tatum, probably many poorer and lower thou seems to be in thine before. When an old man be was in the is still to be my portion; and that the struggle own eyes, the nearer the Lord will be unto on some religious service, and dined, as with the enemy is still to be maintained. The thee and work for thy deliverance beyond derstood, at the house of the parents condition of my mind in meeting is often trythy expectation. And then speaking to his informant. On parting, the family said ing beyond expression. So little capacity to children, said: I desire you may keep to the supposed he would soon be with them draw near to the Fountain! Such a preponTruth and then the Lord will do wonderfully as the time for the convening of the M derance of earthly sensual cares and wander for you; and speaking particularly to his son for Sufferings was approaching. John ing thoughts? How is this to be avoided! John, said, My soul bath often travailed in doubtfully; and thought his time of s Ing thoughts? How is this to be about John, said, my soul nationed the latest John, said, my soul nationed the latest John, and if was nearly over. As they seemed surpliced look down in pity upon me; and so clothe with the covering of thy Spirit that I be more faithful to God than thou hast been, before, he had expressed a concern while the covering of the second second latest the more faithful to God than thou hast been, before, he had expressed a concern while the covering of the second second latest the more faithful to God than thou hast been, before, he had expressed a concern while the covering of the second latest the more faithful to God than thou hast been. may know an arising with thee unto eternal He will make of thee a noble plant, but if thou not seem to meet with much accelife. In my daily converse among men, may refuse to be obedient to God's teachings, and among his friends, and he found his f I experience a more watchful frame of spirit, do thy own will and not his, then thou wilt little disturbed by the circumstance; that my words may be few and savory, min-become a vagabond; and then he uttered concluded that if such an occurrence istering grace to the hearers.* Oh! that I some words in prayer to God, which were in produce such an effect upon him, it v

'O Lord! keep thy people in unity one and a warning not to be disregarded. raised and the power of the Lord was emi- the poor woman was the one whom he 1st mo. 20th.—Went to meeting to day nently with him and flowed through him to to marry, but being tempted by the deeply ponder and enquire the reason. Is it we learn, that as early as 1684, Walter Fausit hold on by the hair of his head. He be because I desire the reward without the (as it was then spelled) settled on the north-domestic trials patiently, regarding the labor? and do I wish to enjoy rest and satisficant dear side of Ridley Creek, in the township of of his own procuring, since he had man faction short of a complete victory over sin Ridley. "He was a man of great industry wife of his own choosing, and not the and the corruptions of my hard heart? It is and energy of character, for while he attend whom his Heavenly Father had pointed my fervent prayer at times, that the Lord ed strictly to his religious duties as a preacher 11th mo. 1870.—A friend related at would purge me with hyssop, that I may be and member of the Society of Friends, he was dent which had been mentioned by or clean; and wash me that I might be whiter equally diligent in the service of the commu-friend Thomas Evans, as an encourage than snow. That He would 'restore unto me nity as a good citizen. In 1695 he was ap- to those having charge of children to be pointed one of the Peace Makers for Chester ful in the discharge of their duty in war county, then an office of considerable respon- over and instructing them. Sometime sibility, and also served one year as a member labors are like bread cast on the w of the Assembly.

For many years Chester Monthly Meeting was held at his house. His wife Grace hav- years ago, was a bad boy. After k ing died in 1686, he was married to Rebeeca school he was sent to sea, but was so tr Some of the last words of counsel and exhort-leaving two sons—John, who married Grace desolate island, and there left. Here I Crook, and Nathan by his first wife-and an opportunity to reflect on his course three daughters, Rebecca, Mary and Sarah, and on the good instructions he had rec by his second wife, to survive him.'

W. F. was one of the signers of the testi-He was led to repent of his sins. A mony against Geo. Keith. In 1698 be paid time he was taken from the island by an

Of W. F.'s son John, who was addressed so happy state is such; what a joy is there for steps in their conversations and the labor of at a time when Henry Clay, John J. C. love to reclaim them." At a meeting in the den, and Governor Moorhead of Ken 6th mo., J. F. appeared and gave in a paper three noted politicians and statesmen of condemnation to the satisfaction of the in the city. They wished to attend a Fu meeting. There does not appear to be any meeting, and accordingly were present accompanied by his family, all his religious meetings further mention of his name in the minutes

—a distance of twice 17½ miles—caused him to be much of Chester Monthly Meeting.

W. P. T. W. P. T. of Chester Monthly Meeting.

> Whatever our trials are, the strength of home," and proceeded to address the au the conflict lies between faith and unbelief.

Gather the Fragments.

12th mo. 31st, 1869 .- An acquaintar evidence of the weakness of advancing

From Dr. Smith's History of Delaware Co. up hill on horseback behind him, she "found after many days."

One of the scholars at Westtown S and the efforts of his friends for his w vessel, and came home a changed man. The person who gave me the narrativ son referred to.

The following anecdote of Christ He was at a meeting in Richmond, In

In the course of the meeting a co spread over the mind of Christopher, a arose with the words, "This world is no at some length. Henry Clay and J. J.

^{*} A testimony left us from another hand is: "His serious and weighty deportment, and a kind attention to the numerous persons employed in the establishment under his care, with his diligence in attending, mostly esteemed by those with whom he became acquainted, So that, it is believed, his influence and example had a restraining and salutary effect upon those with whom he had intercourse."

en sat in a very solid manner, but Moorappeared to be more unconcerned.

hen the meeting closed, Clay arose, shook ls with Christopher, and expressed his tucky that could cause such a solemnity meeting, as "that little white-haired asked Florence.

N. Stokes also spoke of a visit which ard Jordan paid to Westfield Meeting. t the year 1825. It was a rainy mornand Nathaniel had felt somewhat tempted main at home; but shaking off the sugagh the woods. On entering the house Cap. und no one there but Richard, who had early, and be was greatly rejoiced that Roger would be!" exclaimed Florence.

ad persevered.

e. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord, needs; he will soon be well again.

that serveth him.' ne remembrance of this favored oppory was evidently fresh on the mind of my d, and he appeared to have a comforting , that at the end of his days, he would foment poor Cap's leg. ze the fulfilment of the gracious promise.

True Story of Florence Nightingale. hen the eelebrated philanthropist, Flor-Nightingale, was a little girl and living erbyshire, England, everybody was struck ber thoughtfulness for people and ani-She even made friends with the shy rrels. When persons were ill she would meals for them. here lived near the village an old shep named Roger, who had a favorite sheep-called Cap. This dog was the old man's companion, and helped in looking after flock by day and kept him company at to see him." it. Cap was a very sensible dog, and kept sheep in such good order that he saved his ter a deal of trouble.

id, and saw the shepherd giving the sheep before. r night feed; but Cap was not there, and

D," he replied, "Cap will never be of any sparkled.

use to me; I'll have to hang him, poor "Do loo

"He has done nothing," replied Roger, "but he will never be of any more use to me, and I cannot afford to keep him. One of the misehievous schoolboys threw a stone at him yesfaction with the sermon, saying he should terday and broke one of his legs." And the r forget the sentence.... This world is old shepherd wiped away the tears which ur home." only the said, "he was oorbead said there was not a man in all as knowing as a human being."

"But are you sure his leg is broken?"

"O! yes, miss, it is broken, sure enough; be has not put his foot to the ground since. Then Florence and her friend rode on.

"We will go and see poor Cap," said the gentleman. "I don't believe the leg is really broken. It would take a big stone and a on, he put on his great coat and went hard blow to break the leg of a great dog like that the Grace of God which bringeth salva-

"O, if we could but cure him, how glad

When they got in the cottage the poor dog Creator, and pointing out what they must do ter the meeting gathered, Richard arose lay there on the bare brick floor, his hair dis- and leave undone. spoke on the divinity of our Saviour, heveled and his eyes sparkling with anger at of those present had imbibed Unitarian the intruders. But when the little girl called ence: "I early felt reproof for bad words and ments, and afterwards left the Society him "poor Cap" he grew pacified, and began actions, yet knew not whence it came, until e separation which followed. As R. to wag his short tail; then he erept from about the age of eight years, as I sat in a on with his discourse, he was very close, under the table and lay down at her feet, small meeting, the Lord by his heavenly love spoke of some there who were counting She took hold of one of his paws, patted his and goodness, overcame and tendered my plood of the covenant an unholy thing, rough head, and talked to him while the genteman examined the injured leg. It was me the knowledge of Himself. I saw myself badly swollen, and hurt him very much to and what I had been doing, and what it was and integrity, quoting the language of have it examined; but the dog knew it was which had reproved me for evil; and was prophet. They that leared the Lord meant kindly, and, though he moaned and made in the secret of my heart to confess that e often one to another; and the Lord winced with pain, he licked the hands that childhood and youth, and the foolish actions would both ease and help to cure him.'

"Well, then," said the little girl, "I will for many days, is beyond all expression.

coming slowly along with a piece of rope in Jacob did, and others that I read or heard of. his bands.

his leg is not broken after all."

"No, he will serve you yet," said the gen-old man, "and many thanks to you for going

The next morning Florence was up early sheep knew it, for they were scampering that in all directions. Florence and her triend were riding together, they came upon the friend were riding together, they came upon most livingly and experimentally scaled upon the soul, in a state of silent introversion, and the standard to ask. Roger why he was so Two or three days later, when Florence and "Do look at the dog, miss," said the shep-

For "The Friend." Incidents and Reflections.

YOUTHFUL CHRISTIANS.

There are few things that bring more true pleasure to the heart of the sincere Christian, than to see those young in years bending their necks to the yoke of Christ; and becoming followers of the Saviour. He can rejoice over such, because he knows they have entered on the only path in life which leads to pure and unmixed felicity. It is sweet indeed to trace the dealings of the Lord with those who yield their hearts to Him in early life. Such are often made a blessing to others in a far higher degree than they themselves can know.

There are many witnesses to the truth, tion, which is the Spirit of Christ our Redeemer shining in the heart, visits the minds of young children, eausing them to fear their

John Churchman thus relates his experikened and heard it, and a book of rebrance was written before Him for them feared the Lord and thought on his

"It's only a bad bruise; no bones are truly vanity. Yet, blessed forever be the broken," said the gentleman; "rest is all Cap name of the Lord! in his infinite mercy and goodness, He clearly informed me, that if I at day when I make up my jewels, and "I am so glad!" exclaimed Florence. "But would mind the discoveries of his pure light all spare them as a man spareth his only can we do nothing for him? He seems in such for the future, what I had done in the time of my ignorance, He would wink at and for-"Plenty of hot water to foment the part give; and the stream of love which filled my heart with solid joy at that time, and lasted

Job Scott says: "I can well remember the Florence lighted the fire, tore up an old serious impressions and contemplations which, flannel petticoat into strips, which she wrung at that early period of life, [ten years of age] out in hot water and laid on the poor dog's and for some years before my mother's de-bruise. It was not long before he began to cease, attended my mind, as I sat in meeting feel the benefit of the application, and to show with her and on my way home. I even had his gratitude in looks and wagging his tail. longing desires to become truly religious, and On their way home they met the old shepherd to serve and fear God, as Abraham, Isaac and I am fully persuaded of the great advan-"O Roger!" cried Florence, "you are not tage, and spiritual usefulness to children and nurse them, saving nice things from her to hang poor old Cap. We have found that others, resulting from frequent silent waiting on the Lord. I have seen lively and convincing evidence of it, even in children very young eman. in years; and fully believe the impressions of "Well, I am most glad to hear it," said the Divine goodness have been such to their minds at some such seasons, even when there has not been a word uttered vocally, as have lastingly remained and powerfully tended to The next morning Figure 1 and 1 beget the true fear and love of coal in the bathe Cap. On visiting the dog she beget the true fear and love of coal in the bathe Cap. On visiting much gone down. She young and tender hearts. And oh! that ne day Florence was riding out with a bathed it again, and Cap was as grateful as parents were more generally concerned to do all they could towards leading their tender offspring into an early acquaintance with, thing, I can well remember the Lord's secret w, as soon as I go home to night." | berd, "he's so pleased to hear your voice, workings in my heart, by his grace or Holy Hang him!" said Florence. "O Roger! But for you I would have hanged the best Spirit; very sensibly bringing me under conwicked of you. What has poor old Cap dog I even had in my life."—Youth's Temper demantion for my evil thoughts and actions, rudeness and bad words; (though not frequent in the use of them); disobedience to riper age was comprised in her experience. parents; inwardly wishing, in moments of The Lord was moulding and maturing the anger, some evil to such as offended me; and young spirit for its eternal home. such like childish and corrupt dispositions and practices; which over and beyond all out- the expression on her lips, whenever a dawn ward instruction I was made sensible were of hope brightened the heart of those who evil, and sprang from a real root of evil in watched beside her. And the Lord heard it.

Anna Shipton relates that when travelling to help the mother to nurse her only child; in Italy, she stopped at a large hotel. She and when remonstrated with on the danger says: "Great was my astonishment in the and cruelty of incurring the risk of infection evening, when I descended to the table d'hôte, to her children, she meekly replied that she to find a small table spread for me alone in a had obeyed the Lord in coming, and she large and magnificent saloon, lighted by one trusted her children to his care, who bade solitary lamp and warmed by the faint flame her leave all to Him. Her family and herself of a wood-fire recently ignited.

paintings and gorgeous decorations. At the close of my dinner, a lady in deep mourning, enveloped in a mantle and shawl, entered the room. Supposing from her appearance that she had just arrived in that she would recover. He replied that most astempestuous weather, I hastened to offer her suredly she would. On which she reproved the seat I had occupied, and stirred the pine him with a sternness which startled him, wood into a cheerful blaze.

As the pale face of the stranger became lighted up by the kindling flame, I was struck told of some recent sorrow.

She was lately a widow, and now mourning an only child, a fair, promising daughter of seventeen, in the dawn of life's morning given to God. She had returned for the last the things of God, but with a heart that longed time from the seminary where her education to serve Him, lay down upon a bed of fever was completed, and the still youthful mother and suffering to accomplish the desire of her welcomed her companionship, to be no more heart in ways she knew not; and died to live interrupted; both had awaited this day with with and serve Christ forever, where neither impatience.

On the first evening of her return, with her arm clasped around the waist of her mother, and her blooming face pillowed on her breast, the young daughter told forth her happiness. And then there was a long panse, as if some perplexing thought had entered her mind and shadowed the face that seemed to have known no cloud of care; and then she said slowly,

'Mother! · Are we Christians?

'Yes,' replied the widow, a little startled at the earnest tone of the question, 'Christians! Yes, I hope so.

Then,' continued the daughter, 'we do not live like Christians. We are just like other people. We take the same amusements, do the same things. If we are Christians, should we not live for Christ?

These words from the lips of her child, who had never known the trials and sorrows of her own life, awakened in the mother new views of a future, which she had imagined was to be one of social enjoyment and cultivated talents. Mother and daughter took counsel together how Christians could serve Christ, and both personally desired to know how this new life could be lived.

They had not long to wait to know the way of God more perfectly. Fever broke out in the neighborhood, and the widow's only child was one of the first to sicken and fade.

It was the messenger of the Lord to prepare the way before Him. Six long, anxious weeks of hope and fear passed by for the mother, marked by an amount of heaventaught wisdom in the child that I never before traced in one of her years, -so much of the trial and temptation more common to

'I only wish to live to serve Christ!' was

A lady left her own family of five children were preserved from the fever. The words The rain poured in torrents; the wind and example of this young disciple, 'whom howled through the long corridors, and echoed Jesus loved,' were made instrumental in the through the solitary saloon, with its fresco religious awakening of the eldest son of her nurse and of several other persons.

A physician of great eminence, who was also a friend of her family, was called in to telling him that he knew the falsehood that he had spoken; and with a power and clearness that came from the Holy Spirit's teachby the deep dejection of her countenance, that ing alone, she set before him the Saviour whom he rejected, and the wisdom and power of God which he despised.

During these six weeks this girl of seventeen, with so little [outward] instruction in tears nor death can come."

Selected.

BLUE FLOWERS. You ask which flowers I love the best,

When spring calls forth her pretty train, And each in pretty garments dressed, She sends them forth o'er hill and plain? Give me blue flowers

To grace my bowers, "The perfect color"—heaven's own blue, Meek violet, In emerald set,

And glistening with the fragrant dew; Or by the brook With downcast look. The nodding harebell's fairy form

I love to see, Where lowly she Doth bend her head to meet the storm. Blue flowers! Oh, give me fair blue flowers,

So pleadingly their azure eyes Uplook to mine at morning hours, Taking their color from the skies; Of heaven they learn,

To heaven they turn Their opening hells at break of day; And heaven doth shed On each fair head

A blessing on them where they lay— A blessing meet, For flowers so sweet,

A portion of ber glory bright, Our prayer should be, Oh, thus may we Be "clothed upon" with robes of light.

Let others boast of mansions bright, Of power, or wealth, or fame; Or seek ambition's giddy height To win an honored name; Let all who choose take foreign tours, And all who wish to roam; But leave to me the sacred walls. And sheltering roof of home.

CHRIST'S WAY OF BLESSING.

Oh! not in strange portentous way Christ's miracles were wrought of old, The common thing, the common clay He touched and tinctured, and straightway It grew to glory manifold.

The barley loaves were daily bread, Kneaded and mixed with usual skill; No care was given, no spell was said, But when the Lord had blessed, they fed The multitude upon the hill.

The hemp was sown 'neath common sun, Watered by common dews and rain, Of which the fishers' nets were spun; Nothing was prophesied or done To mark it from the other grain.

Coarse, brawny hands let down the net When the Lord spake and ordered so; They hauled the meshes, heavy-wet, Just as in other days, and set Their backs to fabor, bending low;

But quivering, leaping from the lake, The marvellous, shining burdens rise, Until the laden meshes break, And all amazed, no man spake But gazed with wonder in his eyes.

So still, dear Lord, in every place Thou standest by the toiling folk
With love and pity in thy face,
And givest of thy help and grace
To those who meekly bear the yoke.

Not by strange sudden change and spell, Baffling and darkening nature's face Thou tak'st the things we know so well And buildest there thy miracle-The heavenly on the common-place.

The lives which seem so poor, so low, The hearts which are so cramped and dull The baffled hopes, the impulse slow, Thou takest, touchest all, and lo! They blossom to the beautiful.

We need not wait for thunder-peal Resounding from a mount of fire, While round our daily paths we feel Thy sweet love and thy power to heal Working in us thy full desire.

-S. Coolie

LITTLE PATTERING FEET.

The dear little feet, oh! how busy From morning till night to and fro, All over the house they are running, Nor stopping to rest as they go. Sometimes 'tis an errand for mamma, Sometimes it is papa to meet; Oh! who does not love it, the music Of these little pattering feet.

To mothers o'er-burdened with labor, And weary with watching and care, It sometimes may seem that their music Is more than a mother can bear. But when the day's labors are over,

Then her's is a pleasure most sweet As she holds them and prays God to bless the These dear, little pattering feet.

But there are some homes oh, so lonely ! Which have been so happy before; And there are some hearts which in anguish, Refuse to be comforted more. They listen in vain for the music, So welcome to them and so sweet, In their homes they shall never more hear it

For gone are the pattering feet. For Jesus who loves little children, Has called to that "beautiful shore," Many dear ones, and safe in his presence Their little feet weary no more.

To pass through life without sorrow w naturally speaking be good; but patient bear sorrow, and profit by it, is still be the former is a temporary good, the l: leternal.

The Dress Parade at West Point.

BY JOSIAH W. LEEDS.

op Cummins, the merely mental enthuwhich such a spectacle as a dress parade excite, with that settled horror which equences may engender. address before the Cadets' Bible Society e Virginia Military Institute, at Lexing-In a letter written from the spot, he ght in the Episcopal Church.'

vere rather applied to his spiritual refine-offending God."

er, purer, holier than earth."

of a child of mine engaging in scenes of blood-in the young soldier's ebbing life, but we may shed and destruction. No consideration on well believe that the penitent thought came earth could extort my consent." And to his powerfully to mind : Had he, and these comwas with a feeling akin to pain, that I eldest daughter he wrote: "There is a sub-rades of his, and those command of the Lord Jesus Christ, to ted in the Episcopal Recorder, this expres—I mean my poor dear T—'s inclination love one another? And had not this same concerning the dress parade at that place, for a military life. Hating war as I do from Lord instructed his disciples how they, and "there is no more beautiful sight in art my very heart, convinced as I am of the in- all others after them who called Him Master, ture" than the display referred to. As consistency of it with real Christianity, and should effectually conquer their enemies? journal has not unfrequently dwelt in looking on the protession of arms as irrecons of dispraise and horror upon engagein, and preparations for war, I trust that should mourn greatly if one of my boys chose and the rattle of musketry mingle with the ing may go out from it calculated to di-so cruel, and generally speaking, so profligate curses of the combatants, and the moans of sh the force of its hitherto expressed a line of life. I could never consent to it, on the wounded and dying, how appropriate mony against the barbarous practice. I conscientions grounds, and therefore wish then this last request to his carriers—"Cover we it will not be out of place here to continuous grounds, and therefore wish then this last request to his carriers—"Cover by face! Cover my face!"—Episcopal Recorder. whole heart.'

Whilst I do not forget my own feelings of delight and exhibaration, as a lad, in witness-recent General Assembly the mother of a al acquaintance with war, and an appre-ing with all its 'pomp and circumstance' the grown-upfamily, whose home had been opened on of its baneful accompaniments and soldiers' march, yet I do confess that the for the entertainment of guests during the hen George D. Cummins was a young mind upon the subject, and that now to be had such a bitter disappointment. I volununder thirty years of age, (it being the hold a parade of the military—especially when tarily deprived myself of the privilege of 1851,) he was requested to deliver the an-participated in by the orphan-pupils of a attending most of the meetings in order that averted face.

he past three years has contributed to the hero of Lookout Mountain and Missionary boy of nine years, who was with me, in India—"Accursed war! May I never see abode beneath their parent's roof.—Selected. naturally disposed to linger that he might another shot fired!" - aptly says: "What ess the brilliant evolutions of the cadets. have Christians to do with such cruelties and iefly told him why I thought we had crimes against humanity and against the God Dr. Erlenmeyer has just given an interesting litter and show of a military parade, manilast plaintive words of the lamented Hedley of the Aryan people, as we know, write from d his preference for a soldier's life, the Vicars, when, fatally wounded beneath the the left to the right of a sheet of paper, and r expressed his dissent in the strongest tower of the Malakoff, and carried away from their books are so printed as to be read in this s. "Anything but this," said he, "any. the field of blood, he faintly exclaimed—direction. Most of the Semitic people, on the but this—the very mention of a military "Cover my face!" We know the contrary, write from the right to the left.

Look to Your Influence.-At the close of a Spirit of my God has brought me to a better Assembly, exclaimed sorrowfully: "I have Girard College or Soldiers' Home-will bring I might have four ministers of the gospel at moistened eyes, and quivering lips, and an my table these two weeks, hoping that my oldest son, who has grown skeptical these Bishop Meade's) home is near the Insti-been soldiers, but can there be any question godly influence; that their words, their exand by the lawn where the cadets parade that the profession of arms is an occupation ample and their prayers might convince his drill. This is very interesting. Both which the followers of Him who defended not heart, when arguments had failed to convince his beart, when arguments had failed to convince his beart. of flying artillery, and the rapid firing of called, and who said that "my kingdom is has been driven farther away from the truth cannon is very beautiful. This evening not of this world, else would my servants than ever before, such was the faculty of these are to have a batallion drill of the whole fight," are enjoined to come out of. The ministers for turning all proceedings of the s, and it is said to be a very fine sight. primitive Christians of the first three cen-Assembly into ridicule, such their uncharitaaddress is to be delivered at eight o'clock turies saw it so, and one of those best known ble remarks and criticisms, such their levity to us (Tertullian), writing upon the unlawful- and silly nonsense. My children were simply 1864, however, the civil war was nearing ness of the military pursuit, pointedly says disgusted, and my poor Charlie said to me lose, but its pernicious results upon so that "when a man has become a believer, and this morning, when the door had closed upon becoming each year more and more faith has been sealed, there must either be an the last of our ministerial guests: 'Mother, at to the observant mind, he speaks in a immediate abandonment of it, which has been I have been taught in the Scriptures from n which makes it evident that the sad the course with many, or all sorts of quibbling my youth up, as you have good reason to ns of the time were not lost upon himself, will have to be resorted to in order to avoid know, and I am well informed as to what a professing Christian should be. I have listened Strong language indeed was that used by to the conversation of these Reverends and Asmy life advances," he says, "I feel more "Fighting Joe Hooker" to Dr. Prime, when D. D's three hours each day for two weeks, oundly than ever, the utter worthlessness the latter spoke of the reconcilability in some and I am more than ever confirmed in my hollowness of a life of worldliness, and cases, of war and Christianity. The General unbelief. I have no desire to have any part unspeakable blessedness of a life whose said, with emphasis: "The truth is, a man or lot with such professors, much less to be tains are all in Christ—a life of separatefrom the world, of an earnost following suss, and of daily growing more like Him.

In the sad discipline of events around us

then they are just like devils."

And herein

And herein

And herein

It one of such ministers of the gospel. Skeptic must have the devil in him. To kill one anlast I am, I would not speak of my mother's then they are just like devils."

And herein

And herein

Hannah More once said of Wilberforce: "It ne past three years has contributed to the heroof Lossou annulant and associaty are as this feeling in me. The prevalence Ridge but echoed the sentiment of the first is impossible to spend an hour in the society are and all its horrors—the change in our Napoleon, that "war is the business of barrors that content to the first impossible to spend an hour in the society are and all its horrors—the change in our Napoleon, that "war is the business of barrors." It is impossible to spend an hour in the society of that man and not be the better for it." Let us make sure that the homes we enter shall be the hetter for our having been in them; any social features of our day, all help to business to be soldiers." Ought we not that some at least of the children in them; en my longing for something better, therefore to unite with the conclusion of the homes may look back in after years from editor of the Boston Christian, who, after re- honored positions in the Church, and find the hen I was last upon the parade-ground ferring to the vehement expression of Sir date of the turning point in their history est Point, two or three summers ago, my Charles Napier, in the midst of his triumphs coincident with the time of our temporary

Were the Ancient Hebrews Left-handed? r pass on. So, when the youngest son of peace?" and learned lecture to prove that the ancient excellent Leigh Richmond, inspired by In conclusion, I have remembered those Hebrews were a left-handed people. Most lls me with horror; I cannot bear to think not the revelation of those last awful moments of the paper. Hitherto this very emphatic difference has been simply represented to be An East Wind in the East.—II. H. Jessup, Rajah stick is the stem of a Borneo pa a mere characteristic of habit, kept up by writes from Beirut to the Christian Weekly as takes its name from the fact that the the reverence for tradition which is so deeply follows: rooted in the Semitic mind. It has never we Aryans call the dexter.

Talmudists after them, naturally wrote with is better than my life.' their left hands, and would have found it difficult, if not impossible, to write with the Wednesday, August 22nd. A deadening and from a gas pipe is poured on the part of other hand. Hence it was only natural that amuscript should travel along a line which next two days it grew more intense. The air the cane is pulled slowly and gradually in the cane is pulled slowl started from the right and ended on the left, was dry and hot as the breath of a farnace, till the hook is formed. An additional Dr. Erlenmeyer says that this hypothesis is The birds sat motionless in the thick trees, cation of heat then serves to bake an not a mere happy thought of his own, but The green leaves of the fig trees grew crisp that he has found striking confirmation of and dropped to the ground. Book-covers Defective Vision Among Weavers.—It the theory in the Talmud. For instance, he curled up as though they were being held by business of a weaver to keep his eye up.c. cites a passage which insists that certain a coal grate. Doors, bureaus, and tables work. The shuttle does not require I special prayers and inscriptions are always to cracked with a loud noise, and warped with tention, still the eye, when on the cloth, be written with the right hand, and not with beat. Even the wooden ceilings areaked as not help following it. The sley move the left. The execution of this exceptional partied as if the boards were in agony. Men and beasts right angles, and the eye naturally tak prescription was a work of time, patience, panted as if gasping for breath and parched this motion also. These two motions str and difficulty, and it is implied that the pro- or want of water. Our children awoke with each other in their effect upon the cess of writing with the right hand was a almost every hour of the night, calling for and produce an unnatural strain whi departure from the ordinary, easy and natu- cold water. ral way of writing. The learned doctor also "I have rarely enjoyed anything more than this try to follow the objects near the cites passages from the Hebrew of the Old I did the sight of a great flock of sparrows, side which he passes in a railway train. Testament in which a particular stress seems driven by thirst to our yard, where there is a will find it most fatiguing to the eye. to him to be laid upon the "left-handedness" long trough of water. They plunged in, drank average speed of a railway train is abo of the old Hebrews. Jacob and Job, he says, and drank again, flew around and fairly ex-miles an hour, and a shuttle in a calico preferred to give the pre-eminent benediction ulted with delight at finding in this arid runs at the rate of 10 miles an bour-with the left hand instead of the right. Jacob, mountain and on such a day an abundance then the objects passed in a railway trai "knowingly and deliberately," laid his left of water. A huge centipede plunged into our larger and at a greater distance. hand upon the head of his eldest grand-child, washbowl to slake his thirst, and although —London Echo.

for spiritual nourishment, our souls will be in was almost impossible, as the ink dried on power loom weaver has with 200 pic danger of perishing; and if we exercise not our reason, to cultivate and improve our natural understandings, to form us and our during the heat. Returning after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset, I frequently corroded owing to the present the perishing after sunset. manners so as to be pleasing and profitable met _ Bliss just coming up from Beirut. His commercial sulphur of small portions of members of society, our spirits may in our first question was, 'Is anybody left alive on phuric acids produced during sublimatic progress through life, contract dispositions the mountain?' The heat in Beirut exceeded the sulphur. In the joint presence of most contract dispositions the mountain. which, in course of time, may be inveterate anything in the memory of the oldest in- and acids corrosion takes place. The and hard to be removed; dispositions which habitant. No wonder Jonah wilted. Thou bonic acid gas of the air acts upon it, ar will much disqualify us for fulfilling our sev-sands of Syrians 'wilted' on Friday, and I this and the moisture are always preser with ease and satisfaction to ourselves and others.—Richard Shackleton.

sands of Syrams writing on Friday, and Tribas and the air, iron so exposed is always affe words; 'My death is better than my life' if more or less by rusting. Wet coal a chief corrode iron very rapidly.

Every believer, while on earth, in his several ealling, is an ambassador for Christ though not called to the ministry. He has something of his Master's character and in- examination of some of the stumps of trees such articles are noted, he found rusty, deterest to maintain. He derives his supplies, found in the coal measures of Nova Scotia oxidized blades. After much anxiety his supports, his instructions, from above: and his great charge and care should be to be snails and insects entombed in them. faithful to his commission, and every other care he may confidently east upon the Lord remedy in epilepsy, and when used for a contibe man who sorted and wrapped the kn to whom he belongs. In this sense we are to siderable time the skin becomes of a peculiar in packages. Everything he touched take the state upon ourselves, to remember bluish color. This color has sometimes be found to rust, from the peculiar acid chara our dignity, and not to stoop to a conformity come permanent. to the poor world among whom we live; we are neither to imitate their enstoms, nor re-ported wood, some from the tropies, China sons cannot carry pocket-knives or bri gard their maxims, nor speak their language, and the East Indies. The Whongee canes iron articles, as keys, &c., about their person desire their honors or their favors, nor from China are the stems of a species of without their becoming very rusty. fear their frowns; for the Lord whom we gigantic grass closely allied to the bamboo.

"Have you ever thought what is meant in paying a heavy duty. The palm care occurred to any one, so far as we know, that the Bible by an 'east wind?' Had you been more or less angular and are the leatest the direction taken by the hand of a Semitic here last week, you would have learned all of the date palm. The Malacca canes to scribe in writing was due to a physiological about it by bitter experience. No wonder stems of a slender climbing palm. cause, namely, to the fact that his left hand that Jonah's head was scorehed by it. In Many imported sticks have to go the was his better hand, and was much more the Arabic version we read (Jonah iv. 8:) a process of straightening by meet his ready and "dexterous" than the hand which And it happened at the rising of the sun that means. They are buried in hot sand ti God prepared a hot east wind and the sun become pliable; then the workman beds Dr. Erlenmeyer insists that the writers of smote on Jonah's head, and he wilted and he in the direction opposite to its natura be the Old Testament, and probably the early asked death for himself and he said, My death and so straightens it. To make the erk

"An east wind began to rage here on firmly placed in a vise, and a stream obliged to dispatch him for fear of his injur-tires the nerves, and this is of course incre If we neglect a proper care of our bodies, disorders will burt them; if we omit to seek luxury of a draught of cool water. Writing has not nearly the strain on his eyes wh has shown a number of species of fossil frogs, watching to determine the cause, whether Manufacture of Canes .- Many are of imand has given us his instructions, to which it is both our duty and our honor to conform.

Natural History, Science, &c.

Singular grass closely amed to the ballows. The training of the protects and serve has engaged to maintain and protect us, and has given us his instructions, to which it is both our duty and our honor to conform.

The training of the protects are imported and reprize and protects and protects and lemon are highly prized and arbitrary from the West Indies. The leading of the protects are imported from Algeria. The leading of the protects are imported from Algeria. The leading of the protects are imported from Algeria.

will not let any go out of the country v ho curl for the handles, one end of the co weakening. Let anyone not accustom

It is the suddenness of the motion w

A manufacturer of fine cutlery found one time a large portion of his goods b returned to him as in damaged condit Animal Remains in the Coal Measures .- An Instead of the bright, clean surfaces for w was damp paper, the ill-will of some of Nitrate of Silver is sometimes used as a agents, or other cause, it was located u of his skin exhalations.

Similarly, it is well known that some The rusting of iron proceeds with g d rails, machinery and tools is due.

npathy in a Dog .- The following toucharrative is from the pen of a lady.

ome years ago we possessed a large watchhis especial charge, walking with her, the general fragrance. pparently showing her the various walks, tic qualities were so touchingly dis-flavor of its own.

d away and left the roof.

do the sympathy which she felt, she the whole nuts. her beautiful flaxen breast on the lap cked the tear-bedewed eheeks."

.-J. G. Wood.

dements of destruction into the yet undifference in the rusting of used and cinnamon. The weight of good nutmegs same reason.—N. E. Farmer. should be nearly seven to the ounce, grocers weight. Very fine ones weigh eighty and one hundred to the pound, or five or six to the ounce. If pricked with a pin, the oil mastiff, who, when he became old, was exudes visibly, and the pin also penetrates ed the free range of the garden. We readily. Wild nutmegs are small and pointed. ad a little skye terrier, whom he took They are inferior in the amount of oil and in

The best einnamon comes from Ceylon. It r beds, &c. She had, unfortunately, one is the bark of a tree of the laurel tamily, vault, i. e., chasing the cat, who was which gives us, even in this temperate climate, pet. On one occasion she was taken such plants as our sassafras and our spice-act, and her master was administering bush. The trees are topped like osier willows, c castigation; whereupon the mastiff and the cinnamon used is the bark from the up quietly to his master, and took his young shoots, which form the bush at the arm in his mouth, not offering to bite, top of the tree. It is ent twice a year. A king him to withhold the coming stroke. tract not more than a quarter of a mile square he successor to this dog was a still more forms the great einnamon orchard of Ceylon. kable animal, belonging to the St. Ber- No other countries produce so fine a quality, breed. She was with us during a season or so great a quantity, as the fertile and er bereavement. Her own altered looks, silicious tracts of Ceylon, and the neighboruiet and sad demeanor, told how truly ing islands. The character of true cinnamon hared in the prevailing sorrow. For is the splinterry, fibrons quality of it. It tears,

A letter from a distant correspondent asks weeks she never entered the house rather than breaks, and is in small, this rolls, whether a member of the Society of Friends pt the kitchen), but would often look The taste is sweet and spicy, and it retains its can in harmony with his profession sue at ally up to the windows. At length, when flavor long in the mouth. Cassia or Chinese law for damages for injury to his character di venture into the dining-room, she leinnamon is used to mix with it, being cheap through false charges. There is nothing in y walked direct to the well known chair, and abundant. It is coarser and in thicker the letter to indicate whether this is simply inding it vacant, with saddened look rolls. It breaks readily, but does not tear, an abstract question, on which our correand if chewed is granular and mucilaginous. spondent is desirous of having his opinions ime rolled on, her visits to the house It lacks the delicate, sweet taste and smell of settled by comparison with the sentiments of renewed, and then it was that her sym-cinnamon, having a peculiar woody, strong others; or whether it has reference to any had passed over us. She noticed our reason for dissatisfaction. Their only merit difficult for any of us, however well-intenations of sorrow when we thought that now is convenience, not quality. Nutmegs, tioned to arrive at correct conclusions where as sleeping, and, leaving the spot where mace and cloves are so oily that to grind our sympathies or interests are involved.

The general principle adopted by the So-lonely one, clasped her in her arms, amined. Only three of these contained any he will not hear thee, then take with thee one cked the tear bedewed cheeks." new a case where a dog belonged to a with cassia and sawdust. The other nine three witnesses every word may be estabfamily, and, as will be the case in fami-were cassia and sawdust, mahogany sawdust lished," &c. It is one of the duties of the ne of the children occasionally got into being distinctly identified in some of them. overseers, who are under appointment in every ce, and was punished. Whenever this Three specimens of cassia were examined. Monthly Meeting, to attend to such cases, and ned, "Flo" was sure to find out the Two contained a very little cassia and a great to heal the breaches that might otherwise wing child, and, by licking its face and deal of sawdust, but the third was nothing widen, and might disturb the peace of indiig many caresses, would show her sym-but sawdnst, there being no trace of any spice viduals and of meetings. If the offender is in it.

me relations to the best qualities that ference in color is owing simply to the pre-shall be measured to you again. de apple does to a fine Baldwin. It is paration. The fleshy roots are scraped of the me with mace and cloves, while cassia bark, as in whole white ginger root or the duced into the Discipline, probibiting Friends suituted for cinnamon, so that it is al-preserved ginger. Then the ground ginger from entering suits at law against their fellow-tempossible to find stick cinnamon that is quite light in color. If the bark is left on, members, except in cases where it might seem omixed with cassia. To learn to know the ginger is brown when ground. In whole necessary to the overseers or other solid and touine spices with certainty is onr only ginger there is often a coating upon the roots, judicious friends of the meeting to which the gard. Then, if we choose to buy eassia, This is only lime, into which they have been latter belonged. This rule was founded on

True contentment is absolutely essential to happiness. There is a plant called selfishness, and if you will pull it up by its roots, you will find that it grows in the soil of misery. Were self completely renounced, and Christ fully received as all in all, sorrow would be so sweetly accepted by us that the sting of it would be taken away. We must be satisfied with what God appoints, or else we shall be constantly the prey of discomfort, and the victims of disappointment. O Christian men and women, will ye not seek to be content with such things as ye have ?-Selected.

THE FRIEND.

SEVENTH MONTH 14, 1883,

ease which has arisen,-and it is satisfactory d. She seemed to realize the change In ground spices, as a rule, we find much to us that the question is so stated—for it is an expression of countenance which starch is added, and this becomes a part of ciety of Friends in all cases where one person the ground spice as the first step, whatever feels himself wronged by another in any way, may be added later. There is, however, but is that laid down by our Saviour for the guidancously from the warm rug, and, with a little demand for ground nutmeg, American ance of his followers: "If thy brother shall thich conveyed as impressively as words housekeepers having the good sense to prefer trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear Twelve specimens of cinnamon were ex-thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if convinced of his error, and willing to make Spices We Buy.—Those spices like nut-cloves, stick cinnamon, mace and all-which we buy by weight, and in the Of the twenty-eight specimens only seven he has done, in accordance with the comin which they are gathered, are not (or twenty five per cent.) were adulterated mands of our Saviour. The exacting of a cy capable of adulteration. But there Three of these were adulterated with starch pecuniary fine does not seem consistent with rtain deception to be gnarded against. and turmeric, one with starch and mustard that free and full forgiveness which every one ferior or cheaper quality of the same, husks, one with turmeric, and two with starch of us needs at the hands of our Heavenly a similar kind of spice, may be mixed only. The remaining twenty-one varied in Father for our violations of his laws—nor is by substituted for better or more costly color from a tawny white to brown, but were it favored by such texts as the following: without any corresponding diminution all fragrant and good, and some excellent. "If ye forgive not men their trespasses, bee. For instance, wild nutmegs are None were at all yellow, except the four to neither will your Father forgive your trest with cultivated ones, bearing about which turnerie had been added. The dif-passes." "With what measure ye mete, it the principle, that it was one of the duties of the Church to settle disputes among its members, and the duty of members to submit to its decisions, without the exposure and seandal resulting from the publicity of legal proecedings.

Where the offending party is not a member of our Society, and therefore not subject to its discipline, the Friend who is wronged has the right to claim the protection of the courts ing season, is produced from an acreage 1.55 per cent. of law: and, in cases of slander, to demand a legal investigation which may establish his innocence of the charges circulated against him. But this right is one that ought to be cautiously exercised. If the recourse to legal Chrontele's estimate of the acreage of the crop just action is stimulated by a feeling of resent planted—that is, the crop of 1883-84—is 17,449,000 ment for real or fancied wrong, the effect is almost certain to be injurious to the person who indulges this feeling-for it is inconsistent with the Spirit of the Redeemer, which as other parts of the State. breathes good-will to all, even to those who have injured us, and inspired the commands, "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and perseente you.'

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.-On the 7th instant a conference was held between the Secretaries of War and of the Interior, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and General Crook. It was decided that "the Apache Indians recently captured by General Crook, and all such as may be hereafter captured or may surrender themselves to him, shall be kept under the control of the War Department at such points on the San Carlos Reservation as may be determined by the War Department (but not at the agency without the consent of the Indian Agent), to be fed and cared for by the War Department until further orders. For the greater security of the people of Arizona and to ensure peace, the War Department shall be entrusted with the entire police control of all

Chief Moses and Sar-Sop-kin, of the Columbia Reservation, and Tomaskat and Lot, of the Colville Reservation, have had a conference with Secretary Teller and Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103 Indian Commissioner Price. Tomaskat requested that |119\frac{1}{3}; currency 6's, 128 a 132 there be constructed upon the Colville Reservation a saw and grist mill, a boarding school to be established at Buonaparte Creek, to accommodate 100 pupils, and a physician to reside with them.

Sar-Sop-kin asked to be allowed to remain on the Columbia Reservation, where he now lives, and to be and 8 a 8 cts, per gallon for home use. protected in his rights as a settler, or to remove to the Colville Reservation if he so desires. In case he so re-Reservation, to have a hundred head of cattle for himself and his people. The Secretary agreed to comply with these requests provided Congress shall make sufficient appropriations. The Secretary also agreed to ask Congress to make appropriations to enable him to purchase for Chief Moses a sufficient number of cows to furnish each of his band with two cows: to build a dwelling-house for Chief Moses at a cost of not less than 45 cts. $1000; to erect a building and maintain a school therein; to construct the saw and grist mill asked for as soon as it shall be required for use, and to furnish each head of a family or male adult person with one wagon, one double set of harness, one grain cradle, one plow, one harrow, one scythe, six hoes, and such other agricultural implements as may be necessary. All this on condition that Chief Moses shall remove to the Colville 43 a 63 cts. per lb., the latter rate for a few extra reservation, and relinquish all claim upon the Government for any land situate elsewhere.

The Secretary further agreed that, if Moses and his people shall keep this agreement faithfully, he is to be paid in cash, in addition to all the above, $600 per annum during his life. This agreement is, of course, conditional upon Congress making the necessary ap-

A telegram from the City of Mexico says the treaty great mortality is attributed to the large nu. between the United States and Mexico, providing that no troops of either country shall cross into the other in pursuit of Indians has been "prorogued" for one year.

The New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle says that this year's cotton crop will be the greatest ever ret produced in the South. It is estimated at 7,100,000 bales, which is more than 1,600,000 bales larger than the crop of last year, and half a million larger than that of 1880-81, the largest hitherto recorded. crop, while 30 per cent. larger than that of the precedless, the plant of 1882-83 having been 16,590,000 acres and that of 1881-82, 16,851,000. This great difference in yield is attributed to the fact that the season of 1881
-82 was exceptionally disastrous to cotton culture, while that of 1882-83 was unusually favorable. The acres, which is the largest yet reported.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has decided that the High License law passed by the last Legislature of that State is constitutional, and applies to St. Louis as well

Oak Point, six miles of railroad and two locomotives have been destroyed

The Illinois State Entomologist reports that vast numbers of the Hessian fly are now in a dormant condition so low down in the stalk that they are left behind in the stubble when the wheat is cut. This is true of the entire winter wheat region of Illinois. He advises that the stubble be burned at the earliest date possible, or else the infested fields be ploughed deeply and rolled.

The receipts of mackerel at Gloucester, Massachusetts, this season, are 50 per cent. less than last season. The receipts of codfish during the last six months exceed by over 1,000,000 pounds those of the correspond officers of the institution refuse to admit any moing season of 1882, while the receipts of halibut have sons. It is reported in Cairo, that a yacht is being season of 1882, while the receipts of halibut have been 1,500,000 pounds below the average.

As was to be expected, the mortality in New York last week shows a very heavy increase, the total deaths bis departure necessary, being 1051, against 716 the week previous, and of the On the 9th instant it former 672 were children under five years of age. This is a sad record, but in view of the severe and prolonged which was 74 more than during the previous week, and with the duty of keeping the peace on the reservation 215 more than during the previous week, and a decording to advices from Behera, Egypt, the adpreventing the Indians from leaving it except with the consent of General Crook or the officers who may be authorized to act under him? cholera infantum; 39 of consumption; 27 of marasmus; 19 of old age; 17 of inflammation of the stomach and bowels; 14 of scarlet fever, and 10 of diphtheria Markets, &c.—U. S. 3's, 103\(\frac{1}{2}\); 3\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 103\(\frac{1}{4}\); 4\(\frac{1}{2}\)'s, 113; 4's, Cotton.—There was very little movement, but prices remain about the same as last quoted. Sales of mid-dlings are reported at 10\frac{3}{8} a 11 cts, per pound for uplands and New Orleans

Petroleum.-Standard white, 71 a 72 cts, for export, were unchanged. Sales of 1800 barrels, including Min- that his death "throws all the rich lands and min moves and relinquishes all his claims on the Columbia nesota extras, at $5 a $6.12}; Pennsylvania family at the Yoqui River district) open to the white men $4.87\frac{1}{2} a $5; western do. at $5.62 a $6.20, and patents at $6.25 a $7.25. Rye flour is dull at $3.50 per barrel. Grain.-Wheat is 1c. higher. Sales of 3700 bushels red in car lots at $1.07 a $1.17. Rye is nominal. Corn. -Car lots are in fair demand and steady. Futures are higher. Sales of 8500 bushels in lots at 50 a 62 cts. Oats are higher. Sales of 9000 bushels in lots at 40 a

> Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 7th mo 7th, 1883. — Loads of hay, 144; loads of straw, 21. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, $1 a $1.10 per 100 pounds; mixed, 90 cts. a $1 per 100 pounds; straw, 70 u 80 cts. per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were dull and prices were a fraction lower: 4700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at

Sheep were dull and lower: 16,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 31 a 58 cts. and lambs at 4 a 9 cts. per lb., as to condition.

Hogs were dull and upsettled: 3700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 81 a 91 cts. per lb.,

FOREIGN.—The steamship Daphne was launched at roundinual upon Congress making in the necessity ap-propriations, and Chief Moses will not be required to move to the Colville Reservation until the appropria-tions have been made. The Indians expressed them-tions have been made. The Indians expressed them-selves entirely satisfied with the result of their confer-dence.

workmen and others who were in the hold.

The returns issued by the Board of Trade sh during the 6th month British imports increase pared with that month in last year, by £5,200,0 that the exports decreased during the same £83,000

The Post says, De Lesseps has made a satirarrangement with the British Government in the ter of the Suez Canal.

Judge O'Brien, in addressing the Grand Limerick, declared that the diminution in the of outrages since the last Assizes amounted to: revolution.

The decision of the Home Government to rethe proposed annexation of New Guinea to Quee has caused discontent at the latter place. just McIlwrath has stated in the Legislative Assemb Queensland will do her utmost to effect the wi the colonies. In the Legislative Assembly at Mel the Premier of Victoria declined to accept the d as final.

It is stated that a treaty has been concluded b so other parts of the State.

as other parts of the State.

Persia and Russia, settling the frontier as far Gene the torest, fires are reported south of Kalama, Ore ghanistan, and providing that if England F gon; the losses already are estimated at $200,000. At 1 against it Persia shall refer her to Bussia.

Heavy floods have prevailed in Surat, India great damage to property and some loss of life waters are now subsiding. Traffic on the rail interrupted. Five hundred houses have fallen at Many villages have been destroyed by the floor thousands of people are homeless.

More than one thousand deaths from cholera ported for the week ending on First-day last in About three-fifths of the number occurred in Da The sanitary cordon around this city stretches Beyrout is crowded with fugitives from Egypt sons. It is reported in Cairo, that a yacht is bein pared and will be held in readiness to take the K to Naples in the event of the spread of cholera r On the 9th instant it was stated that provision given out at Damietta, and the people were st: A number of European residents made an atte break the cordon around the town, and severe wounded.

Advices from Venezuela state mat locusts are havoc in many parts of the country. They have r Puerto Cabello, Valencia and inland districts same longitude. In one night all the vegetation same tongitude. In one night at the vegetation neighborhood of Moron was destroyed. It is they will soon reach the fertile valleys of Carac The volcano on the Island of Ometepe, in Nicaragua, which has been smoking for some t now reported in active eruption. The inhabitan leaving the island. Cajame, Chief of the Yoqui Indians, in Mexic Flour.—The demand continues limited, but prices assassinated on Fourth-day, last week. It is be

> WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL, Until further notice the Stage will be at Wes Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M. from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the s

> BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHILL

AT TUNESASSA. Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Mat household duties. s. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine str John Sharpless, Chester, Penna., Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine street

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSAN Near Frankford, (Twenty-third Ward,) Philadel Physician and Superintendent-JOHN C. HALL Applications for the Admission of Patients n made to the Superintendent, or to any of the of Managers.

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THR

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

OL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SEVENTH MONTH 21, 1883.

NO. 50.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

, if paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid n advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON

MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

ptions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES, NO. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA For "The Friend."

rs and Memoranda of William Scattergood.

(Continued from page 386.)

To M. Comfort.*

" Millville, 1st mo. 24th, 1839. have seen of her movements, they appear under right influence; and I trust her el labors may be beneficial to the church. deportment is solid and serious, being careful of her words that they may be and savory. She is also watchful over own spirit, in becoming humility and fear. ve been glad to feel with and for her; and perience unity with her, I trust, in that is unchangeable; and have been, I benefitted by her services among us. lluding to a visit of - in this country t that time) he says : I fear that in many es great inroads will be made, especially he minds of the young and unstable, by the simplicity of our Christian proon will come to be despised, and a disporeep in to set up the devices of men ad of the Spirit of truth, as the standard have felt of late a very fervent desire that well as all others who have been favored e this snare of the enemy set for our So-, may experience a renewed engagement ind, not only to maintain the Truth in ry, but more and more to fulfil in our inual capacity all those duties which are d for at our hands; and that we may forth by our humble watchful walking, we are not only engaged for the support ne principles of truth, as a Society, but we are intent upon having the Lord's lard exalted in our own hearts, subjectvery unsanctified propensity, and lead-substance of true and vital religion.

* Mary M. Sheppard was a member of an distance of the St. of a month of the standard seems of the standard see She died the 11th of 12th mo. 1843, aged 73. upon which service, as we have learned, he entered in intuary notice and testimony concerning her, see Friend," vol. xvii. pp. 144 and 152. see the concerning her see the concerning her see the concerning her see that the service and she in Fifth mo. of 1840.

To M. M. Sheppard.*

" Millville, 3d mo. 7th, 1839.

My dear friend,-My mind has been so much affected since parting with thyself and brother to-day, with feelings of sweetness, and with something of that which unites in the one bond that, though a little out of the usual way, I have felt a strong inclination to communicate of what I have felt, if so be it may tend to our mutual encouragement in that which is good, and to the strengthening the bonds of Christian fellowship. 'If we walk in the light as God is in the light, we have fellowship one with another,' is the pre cious testimony of one of the apostles, and well comports with the declaration of our Saviour: - By this shall all men know that sar brother M.—In allusion to E. Robsonther M.—In allusion to E. Robsonther husband, I can now say, that so far have seen of her movements, they appear and affectionate desire that this kind of feeling may more and more prevail among the members of our religious Society: that we may be truly united together in the bond of peace; and that making the profession we do, we may know our fellowship to be with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. Are we not as a people, making a profession of love and unity, and yet in great measure, destitute of that which enables to salute one another as fellow travellers and pilgrims in that heavenly highway, which the vulture's eye hath not seen, nor the lion's whelp gone up thereon? Are we not dwelling too much as in the outward court, unwilling to be stripped of that in which we glory, and to come to the footstool of Him who is able to invest us with robes of righteousness, and in the abasement of self, to appear as a crown of glory and as a diadem of beauty unto us? Is it not because of this that our religious meetings, instead of being times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, are often found to be seasons of sorrow and mourning to the right minded, and greatly barren of that kind of feeling which is as incense before the throne?

O! it is a precious thing to feel a little evidence in ourselves of being united to Him, the Holy Head, and to partake of the living virtue which flows from Him into every member of his body, let that member be ever so small or insignificant in its own estimation. Such an evidence (and the true Christian is satisfied with nothing short of it) is at times furnished; and when thus favored, we can set my feet upon a rock and established my goings; and hath put a new song into my mouth, even praises to my God.' May we, my dear friend, be engaged more and more to become acquainted with God: to experience a being united to the root; to be engrafted into Christ the true Vine; and to know all our fresh springs to be in Him, who is the unfailing Fountain of all excellency. May we be brought into a willingness to go down into suffering and baptism for the Body's sake which is the Church; for it is truly given unto us not only to believe in Christ Jesus, but to suffer for his sake. And as we are thus engaged according to our measure, I believe we shall know a growth and an advancement in that which is substantial, and which fadeth not away.

I think I can say, I feel more than I can express, of an affectionate desire that those who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity, may be drawn nearer and nearer to each other in Him; and that there may be an engagement of mind to follow after peace, and those things whereby one may edify another. I believe much may be gained by a rightly timed intercourse with one another in a religious, social way; and that the interchange of mutual exercises tends to strengthen in the most holy faith. This, I trust, has been the motive which has prompted the present effort; and, should it be found to correspond with thy own feelings, thou wilt perhaps excuse the freedom which has prompted me thus to communicate mine.

I am thy affectionate friend, W. SCATTERGOOD."

To the same.

"Millville, 4th mo. 1st, 1839.

The anxiety I feel to be preserved to do [nothing] against the Truth, [nor] to follow impulses which may not arise from the right source, has prevented me from taking the pen before this time to answer thy touching lines handed me on Fourth-day last. As I read them on my way home, a crowd of recollections came before me, and scenes gone by of which no mortal knew. * * The time for apology either for this mode of communication or the freedom of its character seems past by; and I may acknowledge it a relief to the mind thus to impart my thoughts to thee, feeling assured as I do, that the exercise into which thy mind has been introduced and has

can we doubt the infiniteness of that compassion, which reached forth to us when we were enemies and strangers to the cross of Christ, and brought us into a nearness to himself and his people! Does not the recollection of these things bring something like an assurance, that with the same merciful Shepherd and Friend, there is still forgiveness that He may be tion, "There is forgiveness with the Lord there is still forgiveness that He may be tion, "There is forgiveness with the Lord through the Englishman would have put feared?" Those who obey through the door-way to the deck, but the still continues to look upon us, poor frail creatures, with tender compassion, and will heal all our backslidings, and love us freely, if we are only humble and faith-language of encouragement to a penitent He paused before me, looking still ruffle ful unto Him, and willing to receive the brother, as well as to rebuke offenders. bounty from his hand?

have a good hope that thou wilt yet see the salvation of God; and although at present it Christ for all that she had done." may seem to thee a great way off, yet remember He comes as 'a thief in the night,' there ber He comes as 'a thief in the night,' there which may not be pleasant to those to whom which I thought I had observed to it is addressed, and which the servant would failing of some. In this strait it can into the 'fearful of taking our possessions in the promised land.'

My soul is poured out for thee; and, according to my very little capacity, prays that thou mayest be enabled to cast away the sackcloth and ashes-the doubts, discouragements and conflicts of thy present conditionand be prepared to come up on Mount Zion, and again behold Jerusalem a quiet habita-* * * Stand still in thy watch and patiently bear his hand upon thee; and by and by the door of sweet relief will open, and out of weakness thou wilt be made strong. We can do nothing for ourselves. It' we are delivered, it must be by Him who led captivity captive; neither can we by taking thought, add one cubit to our stature. Let this consideration deeply affect us; and may we be unitedly engaged to patiently wait and quietly hope for the salvation of God.

With feelings of true affection, I am thy W. S.

(To be continued.)

It is better to carry away a little of the life of God in our souls, than to be able to repeat every word of every sermon we have heard.

Incidents and Reflections.

REBUKE AND EXHORTATION. What encouragement for the sincere peni- enable me to descend to my cabin. The tent may be found in the Scripture declara- had guided all. the apostle's exhortation, to bear one another's hat and cloak had been placed on the co burdens, have need at times to extend the before which my chair was closely dr

Thy reflections upon thyself, might induce "Billy Bray," of Cornwall, England. He compelled to rebuke him before others a stranger to conclude there was little or no says; "At the time I was building Bethel that it was my Master's truth that he a stranger to concinue there was fittle or no hope for thee. But is not the very sense of Chapel, I knew a very good man, but who assailed with ridicule.

Assailed with ridicule.

"He who aforetime said unto the ten death an evidence of life? Can that soul be a superficient to the superficiency of the death an evidence of life? Can that soul be had a very wicked woman for his wife. She twice dead to religions susceptibility, that is persecuted him in various ways; sometimes and the still to relate the strong man's be sick of feeding on busks? Does not that very by throwing water in his face. One day she feeling indicate a hunger for substantial food? Provoked him so much that he swore. He is tended, and unabashe and dost thou suppose thou couldst lament at once keenly fett that he had grievously fore observers and listeners, he frankly Ah, no: these are the evidences which convince thee, that thou art under the care and protection for no one would believe in him again. When What will you say to me when I tell of the Sheppel of the sheep, who is seeking I was working about the chapel the Lord and a Christian? At least, he added and a Christian? of the Shepherd of the sheep, who is seeking I was working about the chapel the Lord am a Christian? At least, he added, of the Snepherd of the sneep, who is seeking spoke to me and said, 'Go up and restore thy 'a professing Christian.' compassionate regard, by keeping thy soul brother.' So I threw down the shovel that compassionate regard, by keeping thy sonl brother.' So I threw down the shovel that from settling down in indifference and care-I was working with, and away I went to his berth, and there I realized what Paul r best began to when began to when he wrote, 'The Lord stood by m bost thou not love his children and people—his dedicated followers? Are they not still in some little degree a savor of life to thee? I doubt not for thee as well as myself, that the conflicts through which we may have to may a start that the work when the wash rough to pray, and that nobody will believe in some set that the world knows not of." I so that when a young man he was brought any more? 'Yes,' he said. Then I told him care were to sleeping in meetings for I had, or may yet have to pass, as they tend to subdue and humble us in a sense of our weakthat the dear Lord had sent me to him, and worship. He says: "I knew not whe ness, will be made availing ultimately to our that He was on his side, and that I was on best to do; and reasoned after this ma benefit, in the exercise of those gifts dispensed his side; and while I was talking to him the Lord, thou knowest that I am young, to benefit, in the exercise of those gifts dispensed by the Head of the Church; and that in rectaining to the Wornwood and the gall of these days of sorrow and mourning, we shall inghe had lost, lived and died trusting in the the greater my fall will be; besides, the state of our merciful Caretaker. * * As patience Saviour; while his wife, continuing to harden I have spoken in meetings for discussions of our merciful Caretaker. * * As patience Saviour; while his wife, continuing to harden I have spoken in meetings for discussions and make the nath of her husband when the spoken in meetings for discussions and make the nath of her husband when the spoken in meetings for discussions and make the nath of her husband when the spoken in meetings for discussions are the spoken in meetings for discussions and the spoken in meetings for discussions are the spoken in meetings for discussions and the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meetings for discussions are specified as the spoken in meeting specified as the spoken in meeting specified as the spe is abode in, and a willingness felt to embrace her heart, and make the path of her husband when Truth bath been strong upon n is abode in, and a willingness left to embrace rough and difficult, was soon removed by out of meetings, I am not fit to reproduce the offers of Divine mercy and deliverance, I death, to answer at the judgment-seat of speak to particulars. I was cautious, I > gladly feel excused from uttering. But if it my mind to go to the person in the nig is faithfully proclaimed, the obedience will the most private time and manner; for receive its reward. Anna Shipton mentions took him aside before or after a me that when on shipboard in the Mediterranean, others might wonder for what, and I at the dinner-table, her attention was arrest- betray my weakness and reproach th ed by an Englishman, who, with his bride and cause, and do no good; and if the some members of her family, was seated on should be displeased with me, he might the opposite side. He was drawing amuse liely show, what otherwise he would coment for the listeners from the Bible, and she after private deliberation. So, in the effect constrained to reprove him publicly. She I went, desiring the Lord to go with > ing. Every eye was fixed on me in amaze-came out to see who was there, and i ment and scorn, but I heeded it not. He reme in. I told him I was in baste to go torted rudely. I only heard the jeer and the but wanted to speak with him if he p laughter which had been called forth by the and so passed quietly toward home, to ridicule he had awakened on the instrument him from the door, and then told h that by the Holy Spirit was given as a reve-concern for him in a close, honest, plai lation of God to make man wise unto salva-ner; and without staying to reason tion; and so I told him.

> been wiser to have kept silence and prayed When thou doest or givest alms, let I "Nay, it was no time for silence when the is an excellent precept."

> Lord had placed me there for testimony. "When that testimony was given, I had no ministered without a word being t more strength left; so that when dinner ended I could with difficulty push my from the table to a corner near the door wait for the cold sea breeze to revive me arose from my seat to enable him to reac An illustration of this occurs in the life of hat, and expressed my regret that I had

"My work was done. I retired t in those days, of talking about religi The testimony given to the disciple of the good things, from a fear I should get a ys:

"There was a pause in eating and speak- I came to the house, I called, and the left him in a tender, loving dispositio "Doubtless, some will say, it would have believe, and returned home with great left hand know what thy right hand

Sometimes a very effective rebuke is interestingly illustrated by an incirelated of a journey across Pennsylvania years ago, before the completion of the

At a certain point on the west side of the ntains in Pennsylvania, the passengers the west left the cars and went the rest captain of the boat, a tall, rough, sunrowned man stood by his craft, superining the labors of his men, when a party out half a dozen gentlemen went up to timony on behalf of the Truth. captain and addressed him somewhat in wise:

ir, we wish to go on east, but our further ress to-day depends on you. In the cars

, we remain; what say you?' the sick man a representative here?

this unexpected interrogatory there no answer; when, without a moment's , worn out creature, whose life was nearly n up by consumption. The man's head bowed in his hands, and he was weeping.

Dh! sir,' said the shivering invalid, lookap, his face now lit with trembling exations, 'Are you the captain? and will take me? God help me! The passenlook upon me as a breathing pestilence, Thomas. are so unkind! You see, sir, I am dying ; oh! if I am spared to reach my mother my journey is more than half performed. a poor painter, and the only child of her hose arms I wish to die!

You shall go,' replied the captain, 'if I every other passenger for the trip.'

bissage moment more and that decision was they beheld him coming committee man, at whom the retort was e spread in the choicest part of the boat, ances. re he laid the invalid with all the care of ow a new feeling seemed to possess the nished passengers-that of shame and mon impulse they walked aboard the boat, they found one of their members, J .ng the passengers in the cabin.

nan that he had taught them a lesson, views with decision and harshness. they felt humbled before him, and they There was an old man who had received n the arms of his mother."

For "The Friend." Gather the Fragments.

Among the incidents connected with the efforts of our Society to dissuade its members from selling or using ardent spirits for drinking purposes, is one related by Eli Thomas, an elder of Goshen Monthly Meeting, which e journey by canal. The cars rolled up shows the care that is needed in our business enterprises, that we do not become connected with any transactions which may prove a stumbling block to others, or weaken our tes-

Many years ago, the farmers in that section of the country were much in the habit of raising barley, which was sold to brewers for the manufacture of beer. The farmers thought ave just left a sick man, whose presence that much the larger part of the ultimate sagrecable. We have been appointed a profit went into the pockets of the brewers mittee by the passengers to ask that you and that the share which they received for this man a passage in your boat. If he the cultivation of the grain was disproportionately small; and some of the more adentlemen,' replied the captain, 'I have venturous among them determined to start a d the passengers through their committee. brewery in Philadelphia, which should consume the barley they raised. The project met with favor, and so many of the Friends residing in that neighborhood took shares in e, the captain crossed over to the car, and the enterprise, that it was popularly known ring, beheld in one corner a poor, emacias "Friends' brewery." Eli Thomas steadily declined all solicitations to join the company.

It so turned out that on one occasion, the manager of the works thought proper to concaptain advanced and spoke to him vert a quantity of the barley into whiskey, instead of beer, perhaps from the state of the market, or from some accident that occurred in the preliminary stages of the manufacture.

These preliminary statements are needed to show the point of the incident told by Eli

Goshen Monthly Meeting in laboring with its members as to the use of spirituous liquors, all die happy. She lives in Burlington, appointed him and another friend, who was a stockholder in the brewery, on a committee for that purpose. They called on one who was in the way of using them, and stated to him the object of their visit, and the concern felt by the Monthly Meeting for its members. were grouped around the boat, with dulged in former times, but now he had so inr baggage piled on the path, and awaiting to a resolution to reform, and hereafter would decision of the captain before engaging confine himself to the use of whiskey which r passage.

the cars with the siek man cradled in his aimed; but he was rejoiced that his own s. Pushing directly through the crowd hands were clear, and renewedly confirmed his dying burden, he ordered a mattress in the wisdom of avoiding entangling alli-

The cultivation of barley in Chester Co. many years.

When a similar committee was laboring in ness.' rition at their inhumanity. With one the limits of Salem Monthly Meeting, N. J., not long after, another committee was storekeeper, who sold much spirits to the to the captain, entreating his presence workmen at the furnaces, &c., and who regarded the action of the meeting as an une went, and from their midst there arose warrantable interference with his private

d his forgiveness. The fountain of true the name of "Captain," who was nearly tion, that his influence over others was largely pathy was broken up, and its waters always lounging about, whom J. often em-due to one chapter in his business career. ed up. A purse was made up for the sick ployed to attend to his store when he was , and all vied in their attention to one called away; and who, he had no doubt, would circumstances, at a certain period—circumsee only desire to live was that he might be there to relieve him when the Committee stances entirely beyond his control—he was

Joseph Whitall, who was then attending meetings in the neighborhood, joined the committee, consisting of William F. Miller and others, in their visit. When they arrived at the house, word was sent to the store for J., but the "Captain" could not be found, and he was compelled to lock the door and leave it shut up. He had scarcely reached his dwelling, before a number of workmen from a neighboring furnace arrived with their jugs to have them replenished; and he hastened back to the store. As jug by jug was filled, the men began to treat each other; and considerable delay was occasioned, so that Wm.

F. Miller came to see what was the matter. He found J. surrounded by his whiskey-enstomers, while he was in the act of drawing for those not yet supplied. J. said afterwards, that at the moment he wished the floor would open and let him go through out of sight, especially as some of the men, exhilarated by their potations, backed W. F. Miller into a corner in their fruitless efforts to make him drink with them; and another called out to know whether be had any more of that excellent gin be used to keep!

At length all were served, the store-door locked, and J. returned to the house, thoroughly mortified at the exposure of his business. The committee gently opened to him their object in calling, stating in conclusion that he was the only member of the Monthly Meeting who sold liquor. To this he promptly replied This exception shall no longer exist, for I will sell no more." The events of the day had disarmed him of his weapons.

When David Ferris entered upon storekeeping as a business, he found it was the practice to sell rum. He says: "I was told that if I did not conform to it, I need not expect to do any business of importance. So without waiting for [Divine] direction, I fell into the practice; and followed it for several years; until it became a subject of uneasiness to me. I found many used that article to the injury, both of body and mind. Some spent their estates to procure it; and thus brought themselves and their families into want and distress; which gave me trouble of mind. But, being unwilling to lose the profits of this branch of business, I adopted an expedient to soothe my pain; which was, to refuse selling it to such as I thought would make an evil use of it. But this did not answer my expectations; for they would send for it by those who were not suspected. At length I was made willing to relinquish the profits on this rent. That done, the captain directed the Pa., has been almost entirely given up for I ceased to sell it; which afforded me peace, and made no great diminution of my busi-

Morality in Business.

The recent departure from earth of a Christian friend, distinguished for integrity no less than for his great business capacity, has led us to reflect upon the grounds of that personitebaired man, who with teardrops start-business; and accordingly was prepared to nal influence which be held over a wide circle n his eyes told that rough, sun-embrown resent their labors, and to express his own of acquaintance, and which seemed to strengthen to the very end of life.

We are convinced, after careful considera-

Through an unexpected combination of obliged to throw himself upon the generous confidence of his business creditors. Many Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-discomforts consequent upon this disaster stone."—James Backhouse. were to him paintully trying. Chief among these was the thought that his misfortunes had brought sorrow to families sorely in need. Hasty criticism, all the more keen because unjust, also formed a part of this severe ordeal. The days were dark, the future gave promise of little that was assuring.

But now, with a profound trust in God, and with a manly self-reliance, he summoned every energy to the task of recovery. The ordering of his household, the frank avowal of his pur pose, his diligent application to business, all evinced the sincerity of his heart. "Not one dollar shall be lost by me," was the motto of his life. Beholding that manly aim, friends gathered about him. Unjust opprobrium was silenced. The purpose within was daily strengthened. Opportunities to acquire riches came unexpectedly. Hope covered the sky with a bright bow of promise. At last the hour toward which he had looked with fond anticipation came. He met every obligation, and went forth in conscious integrity to meet the responsibilities of life.

It should not be said that final success in meeting all just demands upon him was the deepest ground of that wide Influence which marked his subsequent history. No, indeed. It was his high moral purpose; it was subjecting himself to personal inconvenience to accomplish that purpose; it was the daily exhibition of a royal manhood, vigorously battling for reinstatement; it was a tender interest in all those who temporarily suffered on his account-these were the secret reasons for that personal influence that any one might well covet for a proper use. Many a man has struggled to overcome failure and has never reached the final goal in this life. But though this be denied, the elements of manhood displayed in the mighty effort won for him the fruits of a virtual conquest. His patience, perseverance, and honest aim commanded the sympathy and inspired the confidence of his fellow-men.

Integrity in business, therefore, was the ground of that wide respect with which the name of our Christian friend will long be spoken. Such integrity has its root in the genuine religious life. That life was not demonstrative, but it was true. It was a life of trust in God, and of humble reliance upon Jesus Christ, his Son. Such a life produces such integrity; such integrity is the very best demonstration of our divine religion be fore the eyes of men, and will have its final commendation from the lips of the Judge of all at the great day .- Christian Advocate.

The Way to the Kingdom .- In the house of a settler [in Van Dieman's Land] at whose house we lodged upon the way, we had much interesting conversation on the importance of minding eternal things, and on the manner in which the kingdom of Heaven is brought near to us by the inshining of the Light of Christ, the witness of the Holy Spirit against sin, which, being attended to, enables mankind truly to receive Christ, and gives them power to become the sons of God by adoption; so that they "are no longer strangers and foreigners," in regard to the kingdom of Heaven, but "fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God," to whom "they have access by one Spirit, and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets,

HE LEADETH ME.

In pastures green? Not always; sometimes He Who knoweth best, in kindness leadeth me In weary ways, where heavy shadows be.

Out of the sunshine, warm, and soft, and bright, Out of the sunshine into darkest night, I oft would faint with sorrow and affright-

Only for this-I know He holds my hand, Whether it be in green or desert land I trust, although I may not understand.

And by still waters? No, not always so Ofttimes the heavy tempests round me blow, And o'er my soul the waves and billows go.

But when the storms beat londest, and I cry Aloud for help, the Master standeth by, And whispers to my soul, "Lo, it is I."

Above the tempest wild I hear Him say, "Beyond this darkness lies the perfect day, In every path of thine I lead the way.' So, whether on the hill-tops high and fair

I dwell, or in the sunless valleys where The shadows lie—what matter? He is there.

And more than this; where'er the pathway lead He gives to me no helpless, broken reed, But his own hand, sufficient for my need

So where He leads me I can safely go; And in the blest hereafter I shall know Why in his wisdom He hath led me so,

WHERE WE WERE BORN.

You'd know the place where we were born

Not by the old well standing by; Nor yet by fields of waving corn Which you might see in passing by; Yet you would guess it night or morn, The dear old place where we were born!

You'd know it-for in all your ways, On country road or village street, Through lengths and lengths of summer days, You never saw a place so sweet As ours in May dews, morn or night, When apple-trees are blossomed white.

For round and round on every side These trees in friendly grouping grow; You could not find or far or wide A place so circled round, I know, Toward rising sun and closing day, They stand in watchman-like array.

The ancient orchard on the slope Is first to catch the warm spring sun, Its trees are aged beyond hope And yet they blossom every one, And such odd apples ne'er were seen, As fall upon its sbady green.

And all along the dear old lane, They arch their branches over head, And in a breeze or shower of rain They scatter petals white and red. We held our little aprons high To catch the sweetness fluttering by.

And when the autumn tints were gay Upon the landscape every where In reckless heaps the apples lay; We heard them dropping here and there, And laughed and gaily tossed them high Beneath the blue, benignant sky.

And when we'd grown beyond the child, The aspirations that we knew, Our vivid fancies running wild, Our learning of the false and true, Seemed somehow in the light and gloom To hold a breath of apple bloom.

And now, when May comes yearly round, And decks the apple-trees again With blossoms sweetest to be found Sometimes, my tears drop down like rain, So vividly does memory tell About the home I love so well.

ONLY WAIT.

When the spirit, worn and weary, Neath its daily load of care Finds the pathway long and dreary, And the hurden hard to bear, Tired with hoping, faint with fearing, Sighs to reach the golden gate, Then in accents soft and cheering, Patience whispers, "Only wait: For a brighter day is dawning, Joy awaits us in the morning,-

In the beauty of the morning-

" Only wait."

O sad hearts, whose soundless sorrow Dares not let a murmur fall, Only wait and trust the morrow God's great love is over all. Only wait, O wounded spirit. By the cross of life weighed down; Thou shalt surely earth inherit-Bear the cross and win the crown. For a brighter day is dawning, Joy awaits us in the morning-In the beauty of the morning,-"Only wait."

Margaret Trembath.

The early years of Margaret Tremt were spent at Mousehole, where she was t in the Fourth month, 1800. Her pare were Wesleyans, who educated their child carefully, but it may be said that M. T.'s cation was chiefly in the school of Christ.

Mousehole is a scattered village, built! the rocky western shore of Mount's Bay, derives its name from a peculiar cave in adjoining rocks. The view from Mousel across the Bay towards St. Michael's Mot which is about four miles distant, and becon an island twice every twenty-four hours one of the most attractive of the many be tiful views in Cornwall. The eastern bou ary of that view is The Lizard, a point special interest to all navigators leaving approaching the English Channel.

The dwellers on the shores of Mount's I are a hardy, active, and independent, yet g tle class, accustomed to associate with varie grades, whether their own busy neighbors, the talented and inquiring tourist, who see refreshment and information among their tural objects of interest in this south-w peninsula of England.

The little village of Mousebole is very qui except during the departure and arrival of many fishing boats, when every one see interested in the stir, especially if success b attended the fishermen. Occasionally stori and sad disasters occur, that cast a deep glot over nearly every house.

The following record of M. T.'s early li given nearly in her own words, is taken fro a memorandum penned by herself when abo forty years of age:

"In a retrospect of my past life, truly the language of my heart is, where or how shi my wondering soul begin to record, in ar degree, the long forbearance and tender me cies of the Almighty with me? Praises f ever be ascribed unto Him, who in his u bounded love was graciously pleased to vis and instruct my infant mind, and caused n to hear distinctly his heavenly whisper in m heart in these words: 'The Lord looked dow from heaven upon the children of men, to st if there were any that did understand, the did seek God.' I was returning from school with other children, and, as nearly as I carecollect, was about six years old. This D vine, unsought-for visitation so affected me that I seemed like one amazed at being 8

ent that there surely was a God above all my days. aly heavenly fear was from this period ciety was very considerable. nted in my heart.

er for telling an untruth.

ty to fall, was pleased to alarm me much r to the feeble petition of his unworthy great Creator's praise. iant, and caused me measurably to ren Him who said, 'I love them that love nd they that seek me early shall find This was very encouraging, and for a ries that knew all things, yea, the most About this time, Twelfth month, 1812, there is seerets of the heart. This convincing was a great revival in our village (Mousehole) forbid them not,' kindly condescend derstood, powerfully reached, whilst reading the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given gh his holy awakening to show me that in one of the Gospels. I silently admired the thee; thy water shall be sure, because it shall an heir of bliss or pain, a sinner born change in my beloved sister, and was anxious be ever with thee as a well of living water, to become acquainted with some good people, springing up unto everlasting life.

and with some sincerity I sought counsel of The natural man needs the outward bread as fully convinced that I was a naughty and with some sincerity I sought counsel of and a desire to lead a better life was my Divine Leader, for He alone is to be fear- and the elementary water, that he may be are remembered that a flower, however, what I hoped would be a serious advantage and the enemy of all good suggested perienced child. I became increasingly fond es of being taken in an unprepared opportunities of being alone, and knew of a of Him whom I felt I had offended. In the Lord, something of the soul's calm sun-istress I cried unto the Lord that He shine, and heartfelt joy.' I spent many happy to sacrifice upon the cross all that sel I be pleased to pardon my many offences; hours in the fields, often rising before the sun, uly I longed for his favor more than for that I might enjoy the stillness of the morn-

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend." Religious Views and Tenets.

results much order, and of more corrupt varied scenes of good and in that cross our lore stranes. And we have to give attention its; again did my Heavenly Father visit attention in the contract of the enemy, wondrous condescension to one so guilty by sight of my great Creator! While des through, and land us safe beyond the there, as a refine with fire, He will purify us unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous of only stopped in the midst of my mirth, source of bliss, his word in me was, that if I like Paul, "suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even toked around me to see if there was any would follow Him, He would lead and guide unto bonds," (spiritually), but he says, "the a who could have thus whispored in my me all my journey through life. My heart word of God is not bound; therefore I endure After a short panse, I was directed to responded to Praw me, and I will are reall thing for the elect's sake, that they may have and was led to believe from that is in Christ horizontal and was led to believe from that is in Christ. Jesus with eternal glory.

The prophet, in his aspirations to God says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose s I have ever regarded it, seemed the and neighborhood, and the number of old and mind is stayed on Thee; because he trusteth ining of days with me, and a measure of young added to the very small Methodist So- in Thee." So "trust in the Lord and do good, and thou shalt dwell in the land; and verily Amongst the first was my cldest sister, then thou shalt be fed." Yes, thou shalt dwell in is did He, who in the days of his flesh about seventeen years of age. She had been the heavenly land, of which Canaan was only Suffer little children to come unto me, previously visited, and, as I afterwards un- a figure; where thy place of defence shall be ten in me. I wept day and night on ed and sought unto, and surely blessed are strong and able for outward things while in nt of my sins, although I was greatly those whom He teacheth out of his pure law, this probationary world. And the spiritual ved from many evils, as compared with I was not hasty in joining this religious body, man, as he passes through it, wants also children. Never, as I recollect, but for as yet I knew them by name only. After heavenly food, to nourish the "inner man," was I severely corrected by my dear some deliberation, being satisfied that my do-that he may grow strong in the Lord, and be ing so might be a preservation from evil, in thus enabled to work for his heavenly Master the Universal Parent of all good was the Third month of 1813, about my thirteenth in whatever way He may employ him. And ed to lend an attentive can to my cry, year, at the close of a large meeting, with while the outward man retains his bodily, remeded desire to offer unto this Holy much fear and trembling I offered myself to health, and receives his natural food, if it is my heart for his instruction was raised the notice of the seciety. The preacher spoke of a wholesome kind, he is by it canabled to go I forsook my playful companions for kindly, and signified his approbation at my on with the duties of life. So, if the heavenly e, and sought out places of retirement request. I returned home deeply affected, man retains his spiritual health, and is supthe world. I have often with much and the idea of making an open profession of plied with wholesome spiritual food, he is, by it, enabled to journey on in the heavenly race, , 'when offered in the bud, is no mean to my long-exercised mind, seemed a weighty doing his Heavenly Master's work. But it is bee.' Many, very many precious seasons matter. But the unchangeable Jehovah, who only as we receive the heavenly food—the afforded me. When quite a child I alone is worthy of all praise and adoration, bread of life-day by day, that we grow in reading such little books as might be ceased not to encourage me to take heed unto grace and in the saving knowledge of our al to my well-inclined mind, but as yet that Light, and unto that Grace, which from Lord. And if we become indifferent, and o form of prayer. Simple were my ex- a child had appeared unto me, with the prom- cease to rely on the true Vine for our supons (if any), but oftener did I grean to ise that if faithfully followed it would guide port, we become weak, and are easily led who knew my heart, the unnttered me safely through all the changing scenes of astray by the errors of the wicked, and so fall r. Thus was a merciful Father pleased life.

I greatly desired that, as to the outward, the order of the Tree of Life (which tree is figuration years many were my inward determined in years, that the good the presence of the control of the tree of Life (which tree is figuration in the living life) and backslidings from the living inght not be evil spoken of through an inexpectation of the tree of Life (which tree is figuration). Anothing but the from our own steadfastness. Nothing but the from our own steadfastness. from our own steadfastness. Nothing but the drinking of that pure river of water of life, tt was time enough to be serious; that of retirement, and fearful of mixing with which flows from the living fountain of God, and tenjoy myself as others of my age, young people, lest I might lose in any degree and the Lamb, can quench the thirst of the capite good enough. But the compassion to the sense of things divine, which had from heavenly man who is longing for the waters e Saviour, knowing my weakness and season to season been graciously afforded me, of salvation. And this bread and water of In addition to my father's business, he kept life is freely offered to all mankind, of every the fear of death, and the awful conse- a small farm, where I was favored with many nation, kindred, tongue and people, without money and without price. Though we have es of being taken in an unprepared opportunities of being alone, and knew of a life in exchange for it all that pertains to I was afresh concerned to seek the truth times of refreshing from the presence of to give in exchange for it all that pertains to to sacrifice upon the cross all that self-will and fleshly nature which obstructs our journeying forward in the heavenly race. It must all be ing earthly. In mercy did He incline ing, and hear the birds sweetly tune their nailed to the cross, and crucified by the assisting grace of Him who suffered and died for us, that we might live to Him. He gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity. And unless we are redeemed from all iniquity, and set free from the law and I was greatly comforted.

The Christian's path is not a gloomy one, bondage of sin and death, the full object of ween ten and thirteen years of age I though sorrows often intervene. But obedi-this gift of God, through Christ, to a fallen ne fond of playing at cards. I often felt ence to known duty leads to happiness, both world, is not accomplished in us. He is not cted for so doing, yet I was pleased to here and hereafter; for godliness has the our Saviour until He has taken away the sin tr myself that this indulgence was more promise of the life that now is, and of that of the world out of our hearts, and redeemed then. At length this game introduced the lightness and vanity, yet through all the were, at the door of every heart, and knocks some when the contract of the world out of our hearts, and redeemed then. At length this game introduced the lightness and vanity, yet through all the were, at the door of every heart, and knocks are varied scenes of good and ill that cross our lor entrance. And we have to give attention good works. When we have received this, we have received the new birth-been born again, not of corruptible seed, like the natural man, but we are new creatures. All the ture.-It has been found that in mercurial old things pertaining to the fallen nature are thermometers, after being heated to 212°, the passed away, and all things become new, and freezing point is frequently changed about only as we are spiritually renewed by Him of boiling water, and the changes in length who is the life and the light of men? "The carefully noted by a micrometer. The result true light which lighteth every man that was that zinc was less reliable than the other cometh into the world." And if we walk in substances experimented with; and that bars this true light we have fellowship one with of steel, copper or brass are not likely to vary another, and we witness the blood of Jesus in length appreciably at any temperature Christ to cleanse us from all sin. But if we within the range to which our standards are have not the spirit of Christ we are none of ordinarily subjected.

his. And if we are Christ's, we have crueified the flesh with the affections and lusts. Station .- Both field experiments and sprout-Now these are sound doetrinal views. But ing trials showed a decided superiority in Paul told Timothy, that the time would come seeds of corn taken from the tips of the ears when they will not endure sound doctrine, over that taken from the butts or the middle I have sorrowfully witnessed of late the ful- The terminal eyes of the potato were found filment of this in the head department of my to germinate more promptly and vigorously meeting. In relation to the late Philadelphia than those at the base. The best crops were Address, that body condemned it as perni-obtained by cutting the potatoes to single cious, unsound and unscriptural, and decided eyes, and so cutting them that each eye reagainst its distribution. So the time has tained a portion of the tuber running as far as come that they will not endure sound and possible to the central axis .- Science. scriptural doctrine. But having itching ears, African Exploration.-The explorations and they prefer to turn away their cars from the settlements on the Congo of H. M. Stanley, truth and listen to those who teach for doc- under the auspiess of the Belgian Intertrine the commandments of impulsive and denational Association, and those of S. de Brazza, generate men. And many are following their who is sustained by the French Government, pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way have led to some interference and dispute. of truth is evil spoken of; who, through Anappropriation of 1,275,000 francs was made covetousness and feigned words of men's wis- to de Brazza by the French Government. He dom, are making merchandize of the deluded plans to enter the interior of Africa from a people, and professing to turn them from point on the coast north of the Congo, and to me the accompanying story: darkness to light, before they have been turn-hopes to find a valley which will allow of an 'A son-in-law of mine, an ext ed themselves; or who, after they have known easy railroad route to the inner stations on the truth, have forsaken it, and ran greedily the river. The expedition is to be of a peace-after the error of Baalam for reward, and per-ful character, and 65,000 francs are to be deished in the gainsaying of Core (or Korah), voted to buying gifts for the African chiefs But I am persuaded better things of a mourn- who are to be conciliated. In the mean time ing remnant, who weep when they remember Stanley has gone up the Congo with 230 men our Zion in its primitive purity. Although and 3000 tons of merchandize. The claim of their harps may be hung for a season as on de Brazza for French possessions on the Conthe willows, in the midst of the troubled wa- go, has brought out from the Geographical Soters of confusion, yet thus saith the Lord: ciety of Lisbon an assertion of prior right on "Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not the part of Portugal. dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will up eat not only the large vine-snail which is hold thee with the right hand of my right- made use of in South France and Germany, cousness," "When thou passest through the but all kinds which are large enough to be waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when which are deemed tough and unwholesome. thon walkest through the fire, thon shalt not the burnt, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee," &c.

D. H.

of Valencia at about 40 cents a hundred. Hastic was in straits for food, and had Dublin, Ind., 6th mo. 20th, 1883,

For "The Friend."

Meeting lately with a copy of "A Visit to the Celestial City," the following selection struck me as being much in harmony with such an allegory, or such a railroad, jocund, pleasure trip: "There was much pleasure conversation about the news of the day, topics of business, politics, or the lighter amusements; while religion, though indubitably the main thing at heart, was thrown tastefully on the back-ground. Even an infidel would have heard little or nothing to shock his sensi-

For " The Friend." Natural History, Science, &c.

Changes in Dimensions by Change of Tempera all of God, who hath reconciled us to Himself half a degree, owing probably to change in by Jesus Christ. And "like as He was raised the size of the bulb. In some recent experiup from the dead by the glory of the Father, ments noted in the American Journal of Science, even so we should walk in newness of life." bars of zinc, steel and glass were alternately But how are we to walk in newness of life, packed in melting ice, and exposed to the heat

Snails for Food in Spain .- The Spaniards worth the trouble of collection, except a few They are cooked in a broth with onions, stewed, or steamed with rice. They are so much esteemed in Spain as to be imported for home uses, and exported for the benefit of way, and in a few minutes the meat was Spanish colonists in other parts of the Medi- to be in his possession. terranean.

Numbering the Hours. - The Cleveland, Akron and Columbus Railway, in Ohio, has unto death. The last I heard of the adopted the plan of numbering the hours on its time-tables from 1 to 24, the latter being midnight. This avoids the confusion which so often exists as to the A. M. and P. M. hours.

Tuckahoe .- This word in the low-lying districts of the Southern States, was applied to various roots and subterranean fungi, which are supposed to have been used by the abo- the gentleman who kindly sent it to me.

rigenes as articles of food. The fungu which it is now principally applied resem a large yam, with a rough, blackish exte and a white, cream-colored interior, very when first found, and becoming hard ivory-like when thoroughly dry. It has I or no value as food .- Science.

Power of a Steamship.—The Oregon, of Guion line, is designed to be the most por ful and the fastest of the transatlantie senger steamers. Her engines are of 13 horse power. The boilers consume about tons of coal per day, evaporate 2700 ton water, and require 6000 tons of air to supp the combustion. It is expected that the lantic will be crossed in six days in g weather.

Artificial Fuel .- A manufactory has b established which utilizes coal-dust by mix it with pitch and coal-tar. It is passed tween moulding rolls which deliver it in shaped masses. It is said to be a valufuel, and doubtless is so, if the cost of ma facture can be kept within proper limits.

Talking to Dogs, &c .- J. G. Wood, in work entitled "Man and Beast," gives following illustrations of the power of lower animals to understand the meanin what is said in their bearing.

"'Ben,' a very fine collie, belongs to an quaintance of mine, a farmer. One day Ben's master was preparing to go to a vill at some miles distance, his wife asked whet he meant to take Ben with him. He swered that he should not do so, and told to lock up the dog until he came back. ! hearing this, slipped out of the house un ceived; and when his master reached village, he found Ben waiting for him.

"A Scotch gentleman has kindly forwar

'A son-in-law of mine, an extensive sh farmer in Berwickshire, had a collie "Sweep," one of the very best of his k When, on account of old age, he became t for his ordinary work, he was used for tal out and bringing in the cattle from the pa He generally lay before the kitchen fire, when milking time came, all that was requ was to say, "Sweep, go for the cows,' he would at once get up and go for th bringing them up without any assista whatever.'

'Not many years ago there lived in E burgh a drunken, shiftless mole-catcher the name of Hastie. Like most of his tr he was very fond of dogs, especially terri and he had one which he loved above all oth

'She often used to act the part popul money, he would go past a butcher's s point to a piece of meat, and say quie "Susie, I want that." He then went on

'Time wore on, and, as every thing me must have an end, poor Susie became t waif was, that he was seen with the d object of his affection in his arms, huge her and pressing her to his heart. The was weeping like a child, and dreading swiftly coming moment when he and his loved Susie were to be parted."

"I give the following story in the word of which were found torn and mangled. In considering the proceedings of the Meet-only partially, if at all, devoured. Every ing for Sufferings much interest was elicited after some discussion was signed.

As the dog drew near, it was seen that

THE FRIEND.

SEVENTH MONTH 21, 1883.

LONDON YEARLY MEETING.

ld by Friends.

ishments under the control of other re-mittee should be reappointed. s denominations, the danger being great f the Society of Friends.

ng, were composed of solid Friends.

by grandfather, in Lanarkshire, possessed ling, and some interesting remarks were made New York, Baltimore, North Carolina, Ohio, atch-dog of the name of "Help," who was about the burdens brought on them by the lindiana, Iowa, Canada, Kansas, and the West-ully kept chained up. For some time remilitary training required of the young men, ern Yearly Meeting, were read and passed. ed losses had taken place among the sheep, and much sympathy was expressed for them. The draft of an epistle to Friends in Australia

t to trace the secret enemy proved in in regard to the opium trade to China, and s of a little river which flowed at the Friends were called on to keep their interest trade.

ou." He then went away, and gave the riage of first cousins came before the meeting, language of the apostle—"I have fought a sarry orders for the dog's execution. But and after much discussion it was decided to good fight, I have kept the faith, henceforth the servant came to lead him to his so change the rule on the subject as to allow there is laid up for me a crown of righteous-the collar was once more empty, and of these marriges, but to pointedly discourage ness."

The paragraphs against using the beathen names for the days and months, and against Elders met 5th mo. 1st and the General Meetteaching music, were omitted from the new ing on the 2nd. Epistles were received from rules of discipline.

to a discussion as to the manner in which the sas and Iowa. services of the Missions were conducted. Reade Yearly Meeting of the "Meeting of be, at times, part of the mode adopted. To a mendation from some of the members try and Oversight" commenced 5th mo. close question by one Friend as to how the During its sitting several Friends told funds were supplied to these "laborers," it of Ireland and the effect these troubles were in labors in the past year. A fear was was answered that the mode of paying their having on Friends. The judicial trials for aution was also held out as to the effect much opposition the clerk decided that it was matter was not appreciated by the public. cing the young members in educational the judgment of the meeting that the com-

the Society, but evidently led away from it. them in a very different light. None of the converts attended meeting, and a The use and sale of intoxicating liquor enmembers wishing to send a general ciety. Similar statements as to the character might have. The length the American Yearly et all bodies in America calling them. Friends, as many of the "Mission meetings" in other places Meetings had gone in their care over their Friends, as many of these meetings, were made; and the wide difference between members in respect to temperance was favor-correspondence with London Yearly them and the regular meetings of Friends was ably alluded to. openly declared. One speaker, who stated A letter from Friends in Madagascar, and reading the Queries much attention that he was a worker in the Missions, said-two from Monthly Meetings in India and iven to the benefits to be derived from "Their work was conducted more after the Brumana, were read. eful attendance of midweek meetings; manner of the Church [of England] or of be members were pressed to be more Wesleyans in their missions and Sunday meetings of Friends' Peace Society, Friends' Schools. In this important question, all Foreign Mission Association and Friends' eport from one Quarterly Meeting that should be straightforward, and acknowledge Temperance Association were held. ad introduced reading the Bible into that the style of work was pretty much that The Yearl neetings for worship brought a concern of the Wesyelans or Congregationalists. The 5th mo. 9th. minds of some Friends lest formality Society set up, that it did not believe in paid minds of some Friends lest formally Society set up, that it does not be say that as of the place of true religious nent in those gatherings.

Owing to an absence from home for several ninistry, but he came there to say that as of the letters and communication in the place of
In considering the proceedings of the Meet- and the Southern Hemisphere was read, and

In reading the proceedings of the Yearly At last, while walking one day on the the exportation of rum to Madagasear, and Meeting, and of the Mission Association and other organized bodies connected with it, it has of a pasture hill, his attention was at-alive in furtherance of efforts which might be been evident that the prevailing tendency in ted by seeing his dog, whom he supposed made to relieve those countries from the London Yearly Meeting is to lower its standard safely chained near the house, running baneful effects of these pernicious articles of of doctrine and discipline so as to conform to the altered practice of many of its members. The sittings of the Yearly Meeting from This is a source of sorrow to those who benouth and fangs were covered with blood. Second-day to Fifth-day-three full days- lieve in and love the original principles of our grandfather concealed himself so that he were taken up in considering a revision of Society; for it opens the way for further de-t watch unobserved what would follow, the Book of Discipline, brought in by a large partures, and gradually leads to that alienadog walked into the river, dipped his committee, appointed last year through the in the water, and shook his head back- different Quarterly Meetings.

In discussing the revised discipline much had such bitter experience on this side of the s of his guilt were removed. He then diversity of opinion prevailed, and a decided Atlantie. Those members of London Yearly out at the side next the house, towards feeling like laying aside the older rules as too Meeting whose eyes have been opened to see h he proceeded, his master following at strict for the advance of the age, was evineed. these dangers and who have been made will-le distance. The dog went to his kennel, The attendance of other places of worship ing to bear that testimony for the Truth which the help of his paws, put on his than our own was advocated by some, and which the Lord has required of them, are finally the wording of the discipline was entitled to the unity and sympathy of their altered so as to only place censure on "fre- brethren in other places. May their hands y grandfather walked up to him and quently attending other places of worship."

"Help, my poor fellow, there is no help

The proposition to allow of the internar, faithful to the end so as finally to adopt the The proposition to allow of the intermar faithful to the end, so as finally to adopt the

> Dublin Yearly Meeting of Ministers and New York, New England, Baltimore, Indiana, The Home Mission Committee's Report led Ohio, North Carolina, Western, Canada, Kan-

The Missionary exertions of the Western ing the Scriptures and singing were stated to American Friends elicited considerable comssed least so many members engaging expenses varied: one ease was named where taking human lives placed some Friends in a ission work should have a tendency to the salary was a fixed one. There appeared trying position, because of their conscientious the standard of true Gospel ministry much uneasiness in the minds of some with objections to serving on juries in such cases; this new phase of Yearly Meeting work. After they feeling that their true position in this

The subject of Home Mission work ealled ittee should be reappointed.

It was stated that the Mission work, as sentiment. Some thought much good had resening their attachment to the princi-carried on at Norwich, "did not strengthen sulted from these meetings; others regarded he first business, and the subject of attention so engaged by it, that they ap- and Friends were encouraged to be more on tring them gave rise to some discussion; peared to have lost their interest in the So- their grand as to the influence their habits situation of those under our name on they were determined to have a paid ministry." tions received from our correspondents have ontinent was brought before the meet. Epistles to the Yearly Meetings in Dublin, not received as prompt attention as the writers might reasonably expect. We make this ex- 14th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 191; loads of straw, 34; bands of whom hovered about and fired upon t planation, so that none may feel that they are price during the week—Prime timothy, $1] posts. Nevertheless the latter are still fired on a have been improperly neelected.

The Yearly Meeting closed on Fourth-day,

$1.10 per 100 pounds; mixed, 90 ets., a $1 per 100 A despatch from Beckenried, Switzerland, says have been improperly neglected.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.—The steamship Niagara, of the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Company, which sailed from New York for Havana on the 7th instant, was destroyed by fire on the 12th, off the coast of Florida. Her passengers and crew were saved. The Niagara was an iron vessel of 2265 tons, built by John Roach, in 1877, at a cost of $350,000. She carried a general cargo, mostly provisions.

The first permanent iron bridge on the Rio Grande, uniting the United States and Mexico, was finished by the National Mexican Railway Company, at Eagle Pass, on Fifth-day last week.

Reports from a great number of points in the West and Northwest, state that a general change for the better in all the crop prospects has taken place during the past two weeks, owing to the cessation of rains and the advent of hot weather. The spring wheat and oat crops are unusually promising, and are both now nearly assured. It is believed that the corn crop is rapidly coming up to its condition in 1882.

A telegram from Little Rock says: "Advices from the cattle centres indicate that the drive this year will reach 600,000 head against 350,000 last year. The Secretary of State, of Michigan, has issued his crop report for that State for 7th month. He estimates per cent. interest, the loan to be redeemable in fifty terly commented on. the probable yield of wheat this year at 24.194.000 years. The Government would endeavor to obtain a Heavy floods are bushels. Other crops, compared with 1882, show percentages as follows: Corn, acreage, 90, condition 72. Oats, condition 97. Barley, condition 94. Wheat was slightly injured by insects. Twenty-six per cent. of the corn planted failed to grow. Apples promise an average of 61, peaches 52

The Wilmington Every Evening publishes despatches from all points of the Peninsula, reporting that the peach crop "has felt the effect of the 6th month fall of young fruit with more than usual-severity, but as well as can be summarized the reports indicate that there will be from two-thirds to three-fourths of a full crop, and that the fruit will average better in quality than usual." Another estimate makes the crop about 80 per cent. of that of 1882, or about 4,000,000 baskets. Calculating with the old time basket, the predecessor of appeal to the opinion of the whole world, and would the present, this would make the crop one of, say 2,500,-000 baskets.

The Chicago Railway Age publishes statistics of rail way building during the first half of the present year, showing that 2500 miles of main track were constructed, not including switches or sidings, on 114 lines, in 35 of last year 4990 miles were built.

It is said that to the five groups of sun spots which have exhibited intense action during last week, two more have been added by the sun's rotation. "The sun storm, which is just coming into view, covers a great area, showing very rapid changes. The violent storms that occurred last week are thought-to have been a result of this condition of the sun.

The New York Bureau of Vital Statistics reports the number of deaths during last week as 742, of which 660 were of children under 5 years of age. The marriages numbered 254.

The deaths in this city last week numbered 563, which was 59 more than during the previous week, and which was 99 force used corresponding period last with the exports for 6th mo, last year.

142 more than during the corresponding period last with the exports for 6th mo, last year.

152 more than during the corresponding period last with the exports for 6th mo, last year.

158 more than 152 mor fever, and 13 of diphtheria.

Markets, &c.—U. S. 3½'s, 101; 4½'s, 112½; 4's, 119; 3's, 103½; enrrency 6's, 128 a 132.

Cotton continues dull, but prices were unchanged. Sales of middlings are reported at 10½ a 10¾ cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.-Standard white, 71 a 73 cts. for export. and 81 a 82 cts. per gallon for home use,

Flour is inactive and weak. Sales of 1700 barrels. including Minnesota extras, at $5 a $6; Pennsylvania family at $4.87½ a $5; western do. at $5.40 a $6, and patents at $5.75 a $7.25. Rye flour is dull at $3.50 per barrel.

Grain .- Wheat is in light request, but firmer. Sa of 4400 bushels of red in car lots at $1.06 a $1.151. Rye is neglected. Corn is quiet, but stronger. Sales of project of France for tl $500 bushels in lote at 54 a 62 ets. Oats are quiet, the Strata for Gibratter, but steady. Sales of 9500 bushels in car lots at 41½ a A despatch from H pounds; straw, 70 a 80 cts. per 100 pounds. New hay all the cultivated land in that district has been by storms and a landslip.

Beef cattle were a fraction higher: 3000 head sold at the different yards at 4\frac{3}{4} a 7 cts. per lb., as to quality.

Sheep were rather firmer: 10,000 head arrived and 4 a 8 cts. per lb., as to quality.

Hogs were lower: 4100 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 8 a 81 cts. per lb.

FOREIGN .- A number of pauper emigrants have been returned to Ireland by order of the American authori-All accounts agree in describing them as a wretched class of people. The Joint Committee of the House of Lords and brigade and troops. Several persons were in House of Commons, which has had the English Chan-Rostov has a population of about 45,000. nel tunnel scheme under consideration, has rejected it built, and defended by a strong fortress. It has by a vote of 6 nays to 4 yeas. The majority of the Committee differed so much relative to their reasons for for the trade of the country along the river Dor voting against it that they refrained from presenting any collective statement of their views to Parliament.

An agreement has been arrived at between De Lessep and the English Government, which provides for a new Suez Canal, parallel to the one now in existence; for a reduction of the canal dues and for the appointment of 101 kilometres." an English Surveyor of Traffic. The new canal is to be completed at the end of the year 1888. England, he said, would lend the Canal Company £8,000,000, at 31 per cent. Interest, the loan to be redeemante in inty tyears. The Government would endeavor to obtain a fresh concession of land from Egypt, and an extension of the original concession for ninety-nine years. The tion of property and loss of life. In the city of L London Chamber of Commerce has unanimously de-bridges and dwellings were carried away, and I cided that the agreement between the British Government and De Lesseps, for the construction of another Suez Canal, is inadequate and unsatisfactory. ings of ship owners at Sunderland and West Hartlepool have voted that the arrangement is detrimental to British commercial interests. Numerous other similar bodies throughout the country have passed resolutions month. Application may be made to either of the of the same character, independently of politics. De dersigned Telegraph that in the event of the rejection of his agree ment with the British Government regarding a parallel Suez Canal, which he thought improbable, he would ask for the support of the French Government in resisting English demands.

A report of the British Directors of the Suez Canal Company says that they have power to require a satisfactory width and depth of the new canal. By an ar rangement for a reduction of dues British shipping, at States and Territories. During the corresponding period the end of seven years, will probably be relieved to the extent of one million pounds. An agreement for the appointment of a British Vice President and an inspector of navigation secures British interest better than anything would short of a complete British management. The choice is to secure this valuable advantage or leave the Company to the full possession of the monopoly.

The revenue of France for the first half of the present year was 28,000,000 francs below the sum estimated in the Budget. It was anticipated that there would be an increase of the estimate. The imports into France during the 6th month increased 64,000,000 francs as made to the Superintendent, or to any of the l compared with those for 6th mo. 1882. The exports of Managers, for that month decreased 21,000,000 francs as compared

A despatch from Durban, dated 7th mo. 9th, says a great battle has been fought between the forces of Cetewayo and those of Oham. The latter chief was captured. Over 900 deaths from cholera are reported to have taken place in Egypt during the week ending with mourn not as those without hope.

First-day the 15th inst. The disease has appeared in _____, at her residence in Wash

Louis Pasteur, the well-known French chemist, has offered to organize a mission with the object of investigating the nature and origin of cholera in Egypt. The Hygiene Commission has approved the scheme, and Pasteur has applied to Lord Granville, the British Foreign Secretary, to furnish him with facilities for carrying out his mission.

The Spanish Cabinet have considered favorably the project of France for the construction of a tunnel under A despatch from Hong Kong, dated 7th mo, 12th.

7 cts.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 7th mo. French have captured and hanged many marauders, by storms and a landslip.

Affairs in Crete, owing to the resistance of the to the payment of taxes, are very grave. Com-are being formed throughout the island to resist sold at the different yards at $2\frac{1}{2}$ a $5\frac{1}{2}$ cts., and lambs at measures of the Porte. An outbreak is expected 4 a 8 cts. ner lb., as to quality.

sent to the Amsterdam exhibition by an Englis as an illustration of the perfection to which the p of rolling sheets of iron has been brought. The are said to be no thicker than "good-toned pape

Nearly one-quarter of the town of Rostov, Russ been burned despite the exertions of the popula of provisions for the army, and is a principal en annual fair is very large.

A telegram from the City of Mexico reports th surveys for Captain Eads' ship railway canal acre Isthmus of Tehuantepec are progressing rapidly. eighty kilometres surveyed the greatest gradient

The message of the President of Chili on the of peace with General Iglesias, has fallen like a thi bolt in Bolivia. The conduct of the Peruvians sons are reported to have been drowned.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

A woman Friend, an experienced teacher, is w to have charge of the Northern Primary Scho Application may be made to either of tl

Edward Maris, M. D., 1106 Pine St., Edward Bettle, Jr., No. 8 North Front Elizabeth C. Lowry, 1114 Pine St. Anna W. Lippincott, 460 North Seventl

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL. Until further notice the Stage will be at West Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M. from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the st

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHILD

AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Matr

Manuety a woman trouble household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine stru John Sharpless, Chester, Penna, Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine street.

FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSAN. Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadelp Physician and Superintendent - JOHN C. HALL, Applications for the Admission of Patients m with the exports for 6th mo., last year.

The French Government have informed England ber of Wilmington Monthy Meeting, Ohio, in the

---, on the 17th of 3rd mo, 1883, at his resid Athens county, Ohio, ELLWOOD BURGESS, in the year of his age, a member of Southland Prepar and Plymouth Monthly Meeting of Friends, dear Friend ever held the doctrines of Friends as fessed by our ancient worthies. His family and fri

-, at her residence in Washington county, on the 25th of 3rd mo. 1883, ABIGAIL, wife of Benji Way, in the 86th year of her age, a member of St land Particular and Plymouth Monthly Meetit

6th mo. 8th, at her residence in Burling N. J., MARY M., wife of William Bishop, aged 80 a member of Burlington Monthly Meeting of Friet -, 6th mo. 11th, at her residence in Philadell MARGARET PLOWMAN, aged 94 years, a member o Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia for Western District.

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

L. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, SEVENTH MONTH 28, 1883.

NO. 51.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

fpaid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid to all men liberally and upbraideth not. advance $2.50; 10 cents extra is charged for Postage on those sent by mail.

rticles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON.

MOORESTOWN, BURLINGTON Co., N. J.

as, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

). 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend." and Memoranda of William Scattergood. (Continued from page 394.)

ave abundant occasion in the present habitation." recur to the principles and practices r early Friends, and to seek to carry doctrine, but being established upon a rock, I look to the Captain of salvation, and be enshall patiently wait upon the Lord who giveth gaged to press forward.'

So long as we are looking to grow up upon what is furnished by or through instrumental means, we may be very sure of remaining in Dear William, * * * My mind is deeply a halting condition. We must have bread in oppressed under weights and burdens, known ourselves for our backslidings and short-com- ness, and Sanctification. ings; but if we are all the time to be in this Ah! there are none, I believe, fully made r spirits are rightly engaged about the strengthen, settle us? May we seek this Him whose we are, who knoweth us altothe Head of the Church unites his peo-his children, and knoweth that we are dust, and righteousness which are at his right gether in a visible communion. Truly He would hear and answer us out of his holy hand.

out in every branch of our conduct. afresh opened in the name of the Lord, I have ing treading in deep waters without any he more we do so, the more we shall be been occasionally engaged to utter a few ability to cast off the burden or any part of ogether as the heart of one man; the words in our meetings in much fear; in which it: but retiring last eve under much oppreswe shall shine as individuals in the work I have felt the reward of peace; and a belief sion, I was awakened, after a little sleep, with that my movements were not in my own will, this gracious promise: 'I will strengthen thee; thin before men as a city which cannot to-day, my mind was exercised in silent, fer-yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee vent prayer, that a qualification might be ex- with the right hand of my rightcousness.' s morning as I rode to meeting, under perienced to yield to the discoveries of duty, Thinking it might prove a little encouragee of my own weakness and incapacity which may be mercifully vonchsafed, how-ment to thee also, I freely pen it. Thou ery thing good, I had brought to mind ever much in the cross to my natural inclina-knowest that thy correspondent has long nguage which George Fox says was tion; that I may be engaged under His care, known of baptisms, and conflicts, and deaths him under distress and mourning at his without whom not a sparrow falleth to the many; and yet has made slow progress trondition, and when he had unavailingly ground, faithfully to follow my Heaventy wards the promised land. Nevertheless, to nany outward teachers, viz: Then, O! Leader in whatsoever He may call to wheth-

and heavenly teaching to which we all averse; and I am ready to think it doubtful into submission. When his chastening has Sarah Hillman to Wm. Scattergood. " Philada., 5th mo. 27th, 1839.

Dear William, * * * My mind is deeply our own houses and water in our own cisterus. only to our Almighty Helper; 'who weigheth We must learn for ourselves to draw water the mountains in scales,' and in his own way out of the wells of salvation, instead of de- and time bringeth from under the mountains, pending upon others to do it for us. We may removeth the weeds from about the head, and have many good desires, and may oft bemoan is afresh felt to be our 'Wisdom, Righteous-condition, where is the growing up to a per-sensible of what the poor messengers, who are feet man in Christ Jesus? When are those sometimes called upon to blow the trumpet in blessed attainments to be realized which are Zion and sound an alarm in the Lord's holy set forth in the New Testament as being mountain, have to pass through while eating within the reach of the Christian believer? the roll of prophesy, but they who are baptized True it is, our lot whilst here is to be subject-into the same death. Nevertheless, these have * The prospect of going to Yearly ed to temptation; to find Satan besetting our the sure consolation of knowing, that He that ng is attended at times with misgivings path, sometimes it may seem at every step; is in them is greater than he that is in the art, which I believe would keep me at but shall we be always yielding to his devices? world; and that He will keep that which we were there not inducements to be pre-Shall we not rather seek with earnest en- have, through mercy been enabled to commit here which overbalance these feelings treaty for victory? and is not the Captain of unto Him, unto the great day. Then in seacouragement, and seem to point out our salvation, who was made perfect through sons of great conflict, let us retire into this hing like duty in submitting to the trial, suffering, able to make us perfect, stablish, strong tower, and spread our cause before as and proceedings of so important a blessed experience; then I believe we shall gether, and whom we destre to serve in the ng. I believe we shall be in measure not often speak of our besetments, except to Gospel of his dear Son. Surely there is nothered into suffering for the Body's sake; Him who seet hi nescret, and who hears the ing in this world, worthy to be compared his, if rightly abode under, however obeyong the poor, and the sighing of the needy. our position, will yet tend to promote We shall indeed find his ear open to our cry, worthy the energies of an immortal mind, me measure those gracious ends for and as a kind and tender parent who pitieth short of the pursuit of those durable riches

I can truly tell thee, my dear friend, that since I saw thee, very little relief has been "5th mo. 12th, 1839 .- Since my mouth was afforded my poor mind; from meeting to meet-I heard a voice which said: There is cr spiritually or temporally. * * * * tained, I can say He has, forever blessed be ven Christ Jesus, that can speak to thy ion. This, my dear —, is the pre-inatural temper and disposition seem much when my heart has been thoroughly reduced in the control of the control need to come; to which if we do come whether I ever shall attain to that simplicity thus brought into passiveness, how has He ow Him to be effectually raised in us, of resignation, wherein the fervent desire is burst the bars of iron in sunder! How has all know a being new creatures; old begotten, to walk in entire conformity to the He said to the prisoner, 'Go forth!' yea, and shall have passed away, and all things will of my Divine Master. O! for more come veen out of darkness has brought into light. The become new, and all of God. We plete redemption from the lust of the flesh, Peter's situation when sleeping between two receive capacity to try words as the and the lust of the eye; for more of heavenly soldiers, bound with two chains, has been tasteth meat. Our ears will be enabled imindedness; for fervent inward prayer; for much before me. When the angel of the Dictriminate between the voice of the day a willingness to walk, in my little measure, vine presence appeared, a light shined in the er and that of the true Shepherd. We las Christ our holy Pattern walked. May I prison, and the command was given: Go hot be carried about with every wind of daily pray for help from the sanctuary; may stand and speak in the temple to the people is splendidly delusive, as S. Fothergill* said; spirit, are we now to be perfected by the life, through the assistance of the Grand those who follow it cannot distinguish flesh?" Under the restraining and constrain Spirit of God, to be to him a futbal which serveth Him not ones with thy own self, in which my dear theatre-goer denounces his dissipating follies, After they had taken each other, Lm mother and sisters unite, I am thy attached and the immoral man his immoralities. Then, Fell said the mighty power of the great statement of the control of the great statement of the sympathising friend

(To be continued.)

For "The Friend." Society.

Editorial strictures, in a late number of Marriage of Roger Haydock and Eleanor Lowe. "The Friend," upon modes recommended by the Christian Worker, for renewing the de-Woolman, and published in No. 47 of "The pleting ranks in our Society, calls to mind Friend," has suggested the printing of the language used by the editor of a weekly palexpressions used by Roger Haydock and per published in New York, for whose gen- Eleanor Lowe on the occasion of their mareral sentiments I hold a high regard. After riage. referring to the "discussion" upon this sub- Sewel, the historian, speaks of Roger Hayject, which took place in the Yearly Meeting dock as a learned and intelligent man of Lanrecently held in Philadelphia (Hicksite), he cashire, who about the year 1667 "came to rents. The only way in which these young pened, that Roger coming once to his father's people can be saved to Quakerism, is for the house, was by his mother put on to discourse and are asking for more liberty. If they can he quickly put Roger to silence, which so discomfort and joy we had in God and notably in the Protestant Episcopal Church, not having held it out longer against his whither a great many of them are going." brother; but he told her, 'I is tuth, and I was waiting in a railway station. The Christian Worker seems to embrace about, dare not say against it. Being tuth, and I was waiting in a railway station. the same idea.

of "amusements" which distract, or divert to visit the churches in England, Scotland, creature, who would run up every few mi the mind from a due consideration of our ob- Ireland, Holland, &c. And he continued stead- to kiss her mother, or say something ligations to the "Man of sorrows, who was last to the end of his days." ligations to the "Man of sorrows, who was fast to the end of his days." acquainted with grief;" whilst they may He died in 1696 at the ag think it right to be "all things unto all men, that by all means they may save some." Has Christ changed, or his Gospel been amended? Many in his day (and in all ages since) want-ed more "liberty" than the "strait and narrow way which leadeth unto life" allowed of the Truth of God having compassed my spirit produced out of her bag a little cake Doubtless, had he widened the way, there about, and the power of the Almighty resting offered it to the child, who instantly to all the words of this life. Chains could not walked no more with Him." But with the witnesses: having hope in Christ, at a bind him then. The prison doors opened of "broad gate and the wide way," so as to ad in the power of God, that according by their own accord; and we find that after the mit the world as it is, and was then, where full purpose, and result of my heart an air angel had conducted him through the gate was the influence for good, or the need of I shall be to her a loving, constant, loving and one street, he departed. Peter was to "repentance," so imperatively called for? faithful husband whilst we live, and u lo feel what he was; he was to go in the strength Where was the need of telling his disciples, of us be dissolved and be with the Lo of Him who had called him, as must we also, they need not marvel if the world should Then Eleanor said —In the Holy fig. came yesterday to our meeting, and hate them; but to remember, "it hated me thority, power, presence and dread spake long; then prayed. To me, there was before it hated you. If they have heard me, Almighty God, and in the presence of ut the savor of death. * * * The spirit that they will also hear you; but if they have perturbed it is gone forth cries words, words; belp, help; secured me, they will also persecute you." this day, I take this my friend, Roge II chiefly to the servants not to the Master. It Nay, my brethren, "having begun in the dock, to be my husband, and have I see that the servants not to the Master." between that which serveth God and that ing influence of the Cross of Christ, the pro-stant, loving and true wife, so long as via hich serveth Him not.

In love to thy dear E. C. S. and the little votee of fashion denies his vain desires; the us. we conclude, "it is good for a man that he bear mighty God, hath joined these two to; h the yoke in his youth.'

Marshalltown, Pa.

The marriage certificate drawn up by John enter into society with those called Quakers, "Very few of the young people, rich or whose doctrines his eldest brother John Haypoor, are following in the ways of their pa-dock had received before him. But it so hapolder ones to relax their old rules as to cos- with his brother John, in hopes that thereby tume and amnsements. These good old peo- he might have been drawn off from the way ple have forbidden so many things that are of the Quakers. But John gave such weighty not sinful, that the younger ones feel cramped, reasons for what he asserted to be truth, that not have within the bounds of Quakerism the pleased his mother, who was inclined to the another." liberty they want, they will seek it elsewhere, Presbyterian way, that she blamed him for vinced, he also became a public professor of was thinking my occupation a very to In the first place, these papers, and "the the doctrine of the Quakers, and in time a one, when suddenly I became so interes good old people," may differ in their convice zealons preacher of it too. And be being a watching a small conflict going on ne tion as to what is sinful. As to "costume," man of great parts, well read and full of mat-that I forgot the tedium altogether. A p. we may esteem it inconsistent with the Christer, many times engaged in disputes with the fairy-like little girl, of two or three year tian character to "adorn" the body "with priests, sometimes making use of his pen also was playing and dancing back and for gold, or pearls, or costly array," whereas they to that end; for he was an unwearied laborer, tween the door of the waiting room, or may have no testimony to bear against min- and suffered the spoiling of his goods, and of which her father walked up and down isters and elders' wives being leaders in the several imprisonments; and though he was an older child, and her young mother attended with bodily weaknesses, yet he did sat next to me. Every one's eyes we We may feel a testimony against all kinds not use to spare himself, but travelled much tracted by the laughing, loving, dainty

He died in 1696 at the age of 53.

The Form of Expressions used by Roger Haydock and Eleanor Lowe, his wife, at their would not so "many have gone back and upon my soul, it lives with me in the Spirit after the manner of children. Her m of his Son to say amongst you, that in his told her to thank the lady, but she only * Samuel Fothergill, a minister from England, paid for a religious visit to this country, arriving in the autumn of 1754; and leaving, as be records, "with peace and holy quiet," in the summer of 1756. He died 6th mo, 15th, 1772, in the 57th year of his age, and the 36th of his ministry.

and nothing short of the mighty power? great and mighty God, could have blu this thing to pass.

The remarkable form of expression up Roger Haydock-"that as God's apport for me to be a helpmeet to me, I take t beloved friend, Eleanor Lowe, to w brings very clearly and prominently to the belief which the Society of Frien ever maintained, that those who are le towards marriage, should enter upon s engagement in the Divine fear, and Divine ordering and appointment.

That the married life so reverently e on, was abundantly blessed, is shown wife's testimony concerning him, quot Sewel:

"I was made a blessing to him, more fortable every day than other: he often express it; and truly so was he every day, every way, and in every re No tongue nor pen can relate the full of happy as a child could be. At last she cli into her mother's lap, and began to m business of kissing and caressing her.

The Baby's Victory.

A lady, sitting directly behind them, not resist this sight, and began to as Roger first said :- Friends, the girdings of mother her little one's age, &c. The

Then the mother said, "It you don't in accordance therewith .- Stephen Grellet. Thank you,' I shall give the cake back te lady." Not a word came from the tiny, sate mouth. The lady began to protest ait was no matter, she knew the little one caying the two little words required.

with the declaration that "baby was a end.

b! Better a nuisance for a moment than thy goodness. I may have the critical habit of advancage in so judging of what I saw. Neveress, I wish the mother, and not the baby, nies, so scriptural and agreeable to vital like, loving all the good, I went. istianity, as does the religious Society of soon after I entered the house an elderly I was released from a train of painful circumstances, and my concern and frequent labor woman addressed the assembly from the this people are, that they may not only words, 'Except the Lord build the house,' I was nearly twelve months in this family pose. Still the blue eyes looked obsti-believe in these principles and Divine truths, they labor in vain that build it: except the dy and with silent lips at the giver of the but also walk uprightly and with faithfulness. Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh

Margaret Trembath.

(Continued from page 397.)

a sed her, &c.; but the mother reiterated bly, generally attending my class and other privileged. At this time I had not the most radeavors to coax or threaten the child, meetings, often wishing my leader, who I be- distant idea of approaching Friends further rguile her by intimations that she could lieve was a pious woman, would pass me by than when opportunity offered to be found tay it, that she had lost her tongue, &c., unnoticed; and after some private conversal waiting with them at their Master's table, if caying the two little words required.

It ion on the subject she was not anxious to but for a single crumb that might fall to my this time buby and mother both had draw words from me. The objectionable parts lot. In one of my ever memorable times of e fingers on the cake, and a faint move- for singing, also, were avoided; my respected retirement I was shown in an indescribable was made by the latter occasionally to leader chose such lines as she thought might manner that I must cease to look for instruccit away and return it to the giver. I generally be united with. As I had been fond tion from man, and that I was not to lean on ted and watched with real interest to see of singing, and understood a little of music, I earth, for at best it was but a broken reed, whe thing would end, for my old eyes can- was too easily drawn into parties at the invi- and that everything I held dear must be partchold such a battle without the thought tation of friends to whom I felt strongly at ed with, for the Lord alone would teach me, by it will tell on the future of the young tached. Adored for ever be the hand Divine and if obedient, great would be my peace. that showed me I must desist from this practure in my astonishment I cried, 'What shall I tropose the mother's effort to make the tice, as it might lead me very far from the do?' The answer was, 'I will bring the blind lobey her continued for some ten minutes, true fold of rest and peace. I believe that the by a way that they know not; I will lead ng all of which time the little one knell charms of music have a tendency to bewitch them in paths that they have not known; I Ir mother's lap, looking over her shoulder and steal the heart away from its Creator; will make darkness light before them, and te lady behind, steadily keeping her lips and his command to me was to 'come out crooked things straight; these things will I cl, while the whispered entreaties and from them and be separate.' This was a do unto them and not forsake them.' So were uttered in her ear. Then, at smarting stroke, but there was honey at the wondrously were my views changed that I thy little girl," the mother took her. In language like this I petitioned the intimate friend. For awhile be seemed to per away from the cake, and ceased her Most High for his great deliverance: "Oh! have sympathy with me in my sharp exermations; the child are the cake forthwith, Thou who hast taught me from my youth, be cless, but afterwards he thought to turn me connediately began to prattle to her mo-pleased in mercy to direct my steppings, quite from my strange notions. Here again Thou knowest my foolishness, and none of my I was met in 'love Divine, all love excelling,' that would I have had that mother do? sins are hid from thee. Be pleased also to turn with, 'He that loveth father or mother more the cake away from the dimpled fingers away my eyes from beholding vanity, and than me, is not worthy of me; he that taketh a led it so tightly, after the child once quicken thon me in thy way. What am I, not up his cross and followeth after me, can aly understood that such a result would oh, thou glorious Being! that thou shouldst not be my disciple.'

In refusal to obey. But the child would so often condescend to rescue me? Oh! may As yet I had known but little of the buffet-although, I dare say, this was not the pleased the Giver of all good to remove by the 'Life of Thomas Ellwood,' the perusal of s lesson of the kind which she had had death my beloved sister, after a few week's which caused my heart within me to leap for may seem like making much of little, illness. Her end was peace, she having wit joy, in the belief that there were those whose nessed a good confession.

time he formed a favorable opinion of me, and Shepherd. hilst engaged in feeling for and labor thought me a sincere inquirer after truth; After much inward conflict, early in the among suffering humanity, my concern but finding I was not so forward as many year 1824, I discontinued meeting with my ards the members of our own Society did others, he complained of me, at which I de endeared mistaken friends, from motives of a abate; but I attended all our meetings in sired an explanation. After I had simply purer kind than they were willing to allow.

about London. The more I have mixed stated to him some of my religious views, he Hearing of a Friends' meeting appointed at a persons of other religious denominations, replied, 'You are like the Quakers.' I told place some miles distant, I attended it to my stronger has become my attachment to him I did not know what sort of a people great satisfaction. The dear Friend rose with own Society, and the Christian principles they were; but I was induced to walk miles — He giveth power to the faint, and to them ch we maintain. I rejoice greatly indeed that I might have an opportunity of looking that have no might He increaseth strength.'
aving met with individuals, yea many in into a bookseller's shop or window, in hopes My drooping soul was refreshed, and an idea several nations where I have travelled, of seeing something to gratity my curiosity crossed my mind that some day I should bewho I believe love the Lord Jesus in sin-ty; but I met with no people who, as a three was a meeting appointed by some groups body, maintain doctrines and testi-Friends, near my own dwelling, and child-lies, so scriptural and agreeable to vital like, loving all the good, I went.

The latter end of the year, very unex-pectedly, I had the offer of living with two Friends, near my own dwelling, and child-like, loving all the good, I went.

The latter end of the year, very unex-pectedly, I had the offer of living with two Friends at Marazion-Eleanor and Joanna Richards. Thus through a kind Providence but in vain.' What this dear Friend and her companion said was like bread east on the waters, to be found after many days. I thought how I should enjoy such meetings, I went on for some time pretty comforta- and how blest were those who were thus could not conceal my feelings from my most and that would be a nuisance in such a I through every period of my life, pursue ings of the enemy, but now I was taunted with having lost all the good I had ever son taught of disobedience and self-will. For nearly three years I rejoiced in the known, by yielding as I imagined to better time that the baby is told to do some-ty, which she does not want to do, will she given, and my sins covered. The happiness profession. This involved me in sore trials kely to obey the command? I trow not. I enjoyed can but feebly he described. I and great perplexity. I could not attend my I should she? She has found that by seemed at times overwhelmed with the power class with peace of mind, nor was I free to ing out long enough she will get her own of saving grace, and often was I favored with and that is much pleasanter to her than a measure of the speechless awe that dares lake the way of others. She learned a not move, and a flow of heavenly love, t deal, I think, in the waiting-room that About this time, Third month, 1818, it Shortly after this I had put into my hands views and feelings were similar to my own. In this year I was appointed to another This for a season proved a stimulus to seek class. This change was trying to my feelings, strength from Him who had hitherto been gained the victory that day .- The Presby | for my new leader was a wordy, active man, my light and my defence. My soul delighted pleased with a detail of experience. For some in the thought of being taught by Israel's before I attended meetings, during which him that is regenerate and born of the Spirit. time, through great opposition and incessant reasonings, the enemy of all good seemed to dispute all the ground that I hoped I had gained. Oh! the mountain of opposition that was raised against going to meeting! I well remember the time when I first yielded a little When the soft twilight o'er the empurpled hills to this long required duty. As I entered the house it seemed given me for my confirmation, 'This is the way, walk ye in it;' and a All nature seems in kindliness to smile, little after, 'Oh! thou afflicted, tossed with As of its chafing cares it would the heart beguile. tempest, and not comforted; behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colors, for the Lord bath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved While lingered yet the golden light, and gaze in spirit.' Some stranger Friends were now visiting the meeting, and I was invited to at-After it was over a Friend followed me out, and, putting his hand upon my shoulder, said, 'Young woman, I wish to speak with thee.' I would gladly have been excused; but when I turned towards him, he imparted but when I turned towards him, he imparted A type-through which, the while I gazed, unsought, some weighty counsel, and bade me befaithful. Truths born of heaven swept through my quickened

I had but little alteration to make in my dress, but this was an offensive stumbling for years, until I was quite in despair through my rebellion. My distress was so great that That stilly gather, ere his course be done, I wished I had never been born! My worthy triends were deeply interested for me, and greatly desired my encouragement; but my soul refused to be comforted.

Again I concluded that the mercy of the Lord was clean gone, and that He would be favorable no more! In the midnight of my grief, the merciful long-suffering Jehovah was pleased to cheer me with the language, 'Pay thy vows unto the Most High, and call upon No sombrous mists enshroud thee, like a pall me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee." Through best help I was enabled to give up to this requiring as to my dress, and not to fear the reproach of man : I truly felt that I had 'escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowler.'

(To be concluded.)

12th mo. 23rd, 1807 .- "R. S. Harford and his son attended our little meeting [Trosnant]. I thought it an unspeakable privilege, which I would not barter for all the world, to have the opportunity of thus meeting in companies. though small, to retire from all, even lawful concerns, and with the best ability that we Of those to me most dear at early dawn have, to wait upon God, the eternal, inexhanstible Source of all good. O! how refreshing, to the drooping mind, to experience from time to time, that the Rock of our salvation remains unshaken, though the floods, the winds and the rain may beat upon the poor tabernacle. I do afresh believe, that if through faithful dedication we grow in spiritual experience, we shall acknowledge that there is no joy like unto the joy of God's salvation." -Mary Capper.

The outward testimony to the truth of the Gospel, is a very strong one; but yet it is found to be insufficient without the inward testimony. The best understandings have remained unconvinced by the outward testimony; while the meanest have been fully persuaded by the co-operation of the inward; the divine irradiation of the Holy Ghost shining upon the heart, and giving lastro to the letter The night shall pass, and on these waking eyes, of revelation .- Christian Philosophy.

Christianity, like the sun, discovers itself by its own lustre. It shines with unborrowed light on the devout heart. It wants little external proof, but earries its own evidence to —Christian Philosophy.

Selected THE BORDER-LAND.

BY RAY PALMER.

Its mellow radiance spreads, And brooding silence day's rude clamor stills, And peace her influence sheds

And nightly, e'en from childhood's dreamy days,

My joy has been to stand, As on a horder-land

All loveliness, dividing day and night, Whose scenes woke in my soul an ever-new delight.

Nor has it been-this border-land-to me A dream alone, a name But lingering oft entranced its charms to see,

All substance it became;

thought. E'en thus, where slowly sinks life's setting sun, And fall the evening shades

And death's hushed night invades A border-land there lies whose twilight glows With hoes diviner far than aught that nature knows,

O border-land, dividing life and death, Of beauty strange and rare! Whose airs are gentle as the evening's breath; Whose skies serenely fair; E'en as 'twixt day and night the twilight lies, So between earth and heaven thy chastened glories rise.

In gloom funereal hung: But evening's draperies, such as round her fall, Her grateful curtains flung;

Clouds tinged with crimson, amber, purple, gold; In the still, musing hour, e'en such I thee behold. And I have loved to greet thee, when the noise-

The soul-disturbing din— Away hath died, and left me to the joys That thought and silence win : When o'er my spirit stole a soothing power

That bade me give to thee the meditative hour, Ah! lingering thus, what tender memories woke

Of hours too swiftly past! Of scenes 'mid which life's radiant morning broke In bliss too sweet to last!

Who now in heaven abide, long since from earth with-

Nor think I sadly now of manhood's years, Its bopes, its wrestling stern, Successes glad, or failures wet with tears,

Gone never to return ! Nor that, at length, life's latest honr at hand, 'Tis mine to tread thy path, O pleasant border-land!

What though beyond thee lies the silent night? 'Tis lit with glorious stars! Its shadows do but veil the eternal light

Whose gateway death unbars, And to the pure in heart bring peaceful sleep, From which oft-sorrowing eyes no more shall wake to

Well pleased, I watch thy floating clouds that glow Suffused with lustrous beams Which from the uncreated sun do flow

In upexhausted streams;
Thou art a Beulah, whither angels come
And with the good do walk, anon to lead them home!

Enraptured at the sight, The glad resplendent morning shall arise In full effulgent light; The throne, in unveiled splendor, I shall see, And Him with glory crowned, once crowned with thorns for me!

-Congregationalist.

ANGELS' WINGS.

When the summer days were warm, and s With clover-bloom and ripening wheat, We used to lie upon the grass Within the flickering shadows spread By leafy branches overhead, And watch the bright clouds slowly pas

They were so white against the blue, With such a glory streaming through Their silver fleeces, we were sure They must, at least, be angels' wings; And the mere fancy of such things Kept childish speech and conduct pure.

We dared not quarrel, when the skies, For all we knew, were full of eyes That watched to see if we were good; And sometimes, just the sight of one White cloud illumined by the sun, Availed to check an angry mood.

Wise in our realistic lore, The shining mystery we explain— Only a vapor born of rain!— And dream of angels' wings no more. But are we wiser, after all? Haply the world-worn hearts recall,

Now we are women grown, and men, That were but careless children then;

With something like a thrill of dread, What time the Master undefiled "Set in their midst a little child," And what the words were that He said. It might-we silently infer-

It might perhaps be easier The kingdom of the Lord to win, If still in far, blue summer skies We felt the watching angel eyes
That kept our childish hearts from sin. -Mary Bradley, in Cerry

Among the good things that take long in to get into print is the revenge of the Bole Brothers, in Paris, for their father's m President Bonjean was shot, as a hosta; the Commune. His last message to his ar sons was to avenge his death, not by bridi its perpetrators to punishment, but working for the poor and ignorant of a that such horrors as those of 1870 short prevented. So far as their efforts coul he asked them to cut at the root of note of the ignorant and poor in Paris that Ik "Commune" atrocities. They have all ir carried out this request by reclaiming juris vagrants and criminals who would bit future mob-makers, thieves and incende of Paris, unless turned to better way prison-home in the Department of the E one of the branches of their work; is technical school, and in it are also trained fessional overseers of juvenile penitentile The system of this one school is intend be spread by means of these practised so intendents over many such institutions. I show the devotion of the eldest son th duty, he for a long time filled the position magistrate, sparing himself no drudgery hearing six thousand cases yearly. As " le of instruction" he attempted, as he said get into the skin of each accused" p. brought before him, to judge how much ciety was to blame for making this parti le eriminal, and to test what responsivenes remained to better opportunities. He clin in his reformatory, to have turned on a eellent young men from boys who had he How much better is this legal a murdered father being fulfilled, agains disorder of Paris, than if his sons had device themselves to the "satisfaction" of reves - Ledger.

For " The Friend."

ow fittingly and encouragingly for every has John Barclay conveyed the importof avoiding "an approach to unwatch-Friend!

I arrived here, as to unfit me for a calm especial duty; yet, I believe that few, it .- Council Fire. few there are, to whom an approach to itchfulness or levity is not dangerousrue Friend."

to railroad companies, hence a provision the man, in the Lord. - George Fox. introduced into the bills chartering the senators who are in the employ of the com- visit, for instance, the officials had under cxpanies. But so far they have failed. The amination a number of fragments of discolored Indians and their friends have been able to paper, none much bigger than a sixpence; expose and defeat all such bills. In the mean- and when put together presenting to the unss" in every thing that would unfit for time, the railroad men have been executing skilled eye not the slightest resemblance to a sweet retirement of mind in which heav- a flank movement under the leadership of one note. And yet it was preity confidently ascommunion is experienced, and which is Captain Paine. The plan is to colonize Inserted that the paper would be cashed. It uch the element and atmosphere of the dian Territory by white men, who will design be beneath the dignity of the Bank of Eng-"Isle of Wight, 6th mo. 1818.

This having so far failed, another flank movel vantage of accidents to their notes, and if ment has been started. This is conducted by there is any possibility of establishing the wealthy cattle men, and the plan is to secure identity of any one of them, it is sure to be rment of the beauties of nature, so proleases to large bodies of the lands of the Induly honored. lving upon me, not a little tend to lcad colonize with herders, and cover with cattle.

t ensnaring. How often have I been in the superiority over the woman; because food study, finally completed their models, only to ent degrees unfitted thereby for that says, that man must rule over his wife, and have them sold for old junk." The whole tretirement of mind, which seems to be, that man is not of the woman, but woman of collection brought only 8762. If the lives of were, the element and atmosphere of the man, &c. Indeed, after man fell, that com- the inventors could be traced, many of them mand was, but before man fell there was no could be found in asylums, many have died such command, for they were both meet helps, broken-hearted, others' have impoverished 1866, certain railroad companies got and therefore both to have dominion over all themselves and their families. - Chr. Adv. ters for railroads, which pass through that God had made; and so as man and woman n Territory. These charters, beside are restored again by Christ up into the image ting permission to build said roads, also of God, they both have dominion again in rightthe companies large bodies of public cousness and holiness, and are helpmates as on the lines of said roads. Congress has before they fell. So that the man is not withower to give the lands of Indian Terri- out the woman, neither the woman without scriptions, the memory of relatives and friends, s to the effect that the railroad compa-should be entitled to ten sections of land five years the paid notes amount to 77,745,000 civilized ages and nations. These epitaphs the side of said roads in any State, and in number, and they fill 13,400 boxes, which ty sections on each side in any territory if placed side by side would reach two and ear limited by space, and often provoke, e United States through which the roads one-third miles. If the notes were placed in nevertheless, in poetry or prose, a vast amount d be built. Since that time to the pre- a pile they would reach to a height of five of biographical and historical information. a railroad lobby has been kept at Wash and two-third miles, or if joined end to end Many a graveyard is a broken record of the on, for the purpose of securing the passes they would form a ribbon 12.445 miles long church to which it belongs.

Their superficial extent is said to be rather litery of the United States. If such a bill less than that of Hyde Park. They weigh inscriptions, Greek and Latin, or strangely contains 45,440,000 acres, hence these old notes are thrown into a furnace specially not the date of birth. isional grants give the railroad compa-constructed for the purpose and burned. It considerably more than one-half of the is a curious fact, however, that so firm in texe country, and the most valuable portion. ture is the paper of a genuine Bank of Eng-hee 21,770,000 acress left, 15,000,000 is land note that burning alone can hardly de-stain and desert land. The population stroy it. The authorities have in a little es are from public records, and are relial is said to be sufficiently legible to establish its a Christian museum, and devoted a hall in

mand admission of the Territory to the Union. land to take, or even to appear to take, ad-

How much of toil, trouble, sorrow, and disthe mind from that 'retired strict, and These leases would prove immensely profita-appointment is suggested by a late auction hful frame,' (as I think W. Penn calls ble to the cattle men, even though the ulti- in Washington. It was the sale of rejected thich seems to be the safest and most mate object of permanent possession should models at the United States Patent Office.

table state for me as an individual, and fail. But it is not likely to fail, if the leasing They numbered 17,000, and have accumulated most conducive to my present growth. scheme should succeed on the grand scale in cleven years. A dispatch says that they y truly say, that though I desire not to proposed. We have opposed this scheme embraced articles of every description, from ribe for any, otherwise than seems to be from the start, and shall continue to oppose a coffin to devices for perpetual motion. It also states that "the sale represented the blighted hopes of thousands of ingenious and And some may say that man must have industrious men, who, after years of trial and

Early Christian Epitaphs. BY PROFESSOR PHILIP SCHAFF,

To perpetuate, by means of sepulchral inand to record the sentiments of love and esteem, of grief and hope, in the face of death

Id become a law, the Kansas and Neosha over ninety and two-thirds tons, and their mixed (Latin words in Greek characters), ey Railroad would get 3,712,000 acres of original value was over £1,750,026,600. The often rudely written, badly spelled, mutilated, from the Indians without paying a dol-greatest of rogues might be inclined to find and almost illegible, with and without symptito the Indians. The southern branch some comfort in the extent and intricacy for bolical figures. The classical languages were earlief would get $00,000 acres; the such a store of old paper. Of course, how then in a process of decay, like classical the and Pacific, 17,920,000 acres; the ever, they are most systematically arranged, eloquence and art, and the great majority of Parallel Railroad, 1,244,000 acres. The and any note of the seventy-seven millions Christians were poor and illiterate people, ap 23,676,000 acres. The Indian Terriand, may be pounced upon with the utmost celerity one name only is given in the earlier epitaphs, ap 23,676,000 acres. The Indian Terriand precision. At the end of five years these

"Homely phrases, but each letter Full of hope, and yet of heart-break; Full of all the tender pathos Of the Here and the Hereafter."

More than fifteen thousand epitaphs have ,000. If the railroads should succeed in glazed frame the remnants of a note which been collected, classified, and explained, by ng actual possession, there would be but was in the great fire of Chicago. Though Cavalier De Rossi, from the first six centuries t seventy-five acres per capita of tillable completely charred and black, the paper still in Rome alone, and their number is constantly a left for the Indians. These facts and holds together, and the printing of the note increasing. Benedict XIV. founded, in 1750, These rational companies are determined and they are confident success.

It is said to be summently regime to establish its being cashed. We Vatican to the collection of ancient sarrough worth at present more than one humblined follars, and they are confident sarrough and the simple Christian inserting the very sarrough and the vatical sarrough and the simple Christian inserting and any statement of plants. In this Lapidarian gallery the costly little better than pulp. Indeed, the scraps and sarcophagic confront each other on opposite the sarrough and the vatical sarrough and the vatical sarrough and covered a man in the sarrough and the vatical sarrough and covered a man in the sarrough and covered a man in the sarrough and covered a man in the sarrough and the vatical sarrough and covered a man in the sarrough and covered and co ney concoct the most cunningly-worded and fragments which sometimes come into site walls, and present a striking contrast, homabills each session of congress, which the bank to be cashed have a really ridiculous. Another important collection is in the Kirchoffered, and advocated by members and appearance. On the occasion of a recent erian Museum in the Roman College, another in the Christian Museum of the University of the wiser, and the restraint the stronger, for containing her young, a distance of ab express a belief in immortality, but often debrief but significant words: "in peace;" "he" right and faithful men.—Baptist Weekly. or "she sleeps in peace;" "live in God," or "in Christ;" "live forever." "He rests well." "God quicken thy spirit." "Weep not, my child; death is not eternal." "Alexander is maid-servant Theophila erected this.

At the same time, stereotyped heathen epitaphs continued to be used (but, of course, are rare, but simple terms of natural affection prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors, and discovered, even before death, that the very frequent, as "My sweetest child;" "Inno-that is, the State Penitentiary. The number posed cobra was a harmless lizard. "My dearest wife;" "My innocent dove;" My well-deserving father," or "mother," Music among the Presbyterians.—The Gen-France as a means of destroying plat A and B "lived together" (for 15, 20, 30, 50 or even 60 years) "without any complaint or which met in Pittsburg, Pa, some weeks is made by soaking or boiling, and the modesty, chastity, prudence, diligence, fre-strongly-worded protest against the change. quently occur also on pagan monuments, and prove that there were many exceptions to tures of 50,000 members and adherents of the dead to pray for the living. From these re-instrumental music in public worship. Gregory I, purgatory became an article of vices of men," that the craving for instru-general belief in the Western Church. But mental music "implies a low and declining torn up by the roots and hurled down, (such requests are not found in the first four state of religious life." or five centuries, the overwhelming testimony peace, and this accords with the Saviour's country, of all "spirits which may be dele-promise to the penitent thief, and with St. terious to the public health." The question Where the flume former Paul's desire to depart and be with Christ, now to be decided is what kind of spirits is which is far better. Take but this example:

not deleterious to the public health.

avalanche loosened the rocks and cut a spirits is not deleterious to the public health. which is far better. Take but this example : not deleterious to the public health. "Prima, thou livest in the glory of God, and work," such as they have seen or read of in form, and shall refuse to abandon the habit, books. Perhaps they may find faith work all around them.

One of the most intelligent women I have to the principal." ever known, the Christian mother of a large family of children, used to say that the education of children was eminently a work of faith. She never heard the tramping of her boys' feet as they came home from school, or mentions in Science, that having removed a from Mount Liberty, leveling everything. listened to their noisy shouting in their play, brood of catfish from their mother, he put its path. It seems almost beyond belief or watched their unconscious slumbers, with them in a glass globe. The parent fish at so much could pass through the narrow of out an inward-earnest prayer to God for wis once recognized that her young were not in nel without being stopped in its course.

this alliance of the human and Divine elements feet. The young fish being liberate Hence, while the heathen epitaphs rarely in her instructions and discipline. At length, immediately clustered about their pare when her children became men and women, followed her into deep water. scribe death as an eternal sleep, the grave as accustomed to the hard strife of the world, a final home, and are pervaded by a tone of her name was the dearest one they could are now bog lands in Ireland, were or sadness, the Christian epitaphs are hopeful speak; and she who had taught their feet to cred with forests of oak and pine; and cheerful. The farewell on earth is fol- walk, and their tongues to speak and pray, cutting peat, immense trees are found lowed by a welcome from heaven. The sym-held their reverence and love, increased a ded in the earth at depths of ten, twen bol of Christ (Ichthys, the fish) is often placed thousand-fold by the remembrance of an early thirty feet; in some cases, whole gro at the beginning or end to show the ground education that had its inspiration in faith in ing found as they grew. The timber of his hope. Again and again we find the God, and its fruit in the humble lives of up- brought to the surface, is perfectly

Religious Items, &c.

Military Conscription .- The Vienna correnot dead, but lives above the stars, and his spondent of the Daily Telegraph says that body rests in this tomb." "Here Gordian, 100,000 Mohammedans have emigrated this long traverse the bog, and by running the courier from Gaul, strangled for the faith, year from Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia, to rods into the ground, are able to as with his whole family, rests in peace. The avoid military conscription; and that many where the trees are to be found. more are preparing to follow their example. Arbitrator.

not in a polytheistic sense) as "sacred to the in the Christian Advocate, that there is one thing creeping over his naked limbs, in place in Kansas, whose business has been in- to the conclusion that it was a cobra The laudatory epithets of heathen epitaphs jured, and population diminished by the law into a state of collapse and died, though of inmates in that institution decreased over one hundred the past year.

ago, decided to permit the introduction of thus obtained is evaporated over a f Such commemoration of conjugal happiness, organs into their places of worship. About lamp. It leaves no offensive atmosphe and commendations of female virtues, as sixty of the members of the Assembly filed a is done by the smoke.

In the Free Church of Scotland, the signa the corruption of Roman society as painted Free Church have been appended to a petition craving the General Assembly to with-Some epitaphs contain a request to the hold its sanction from the proposal to allow frightful manner. quests there was but one step to requests for petition quotes the "Westminster Confession" intercession in behalf of the departed when to the effect that God "may not be worshiponce, chiefly through the influence of Pope ped according to the imaginations and deof the oldest Christian epitaphs is that the undertaken to prohibit the importation into and there a fallen tree remains. The up pious dead are already in the enjoyment of Siam, or the manufacture or sale, within the ed trees were carried below and brok-

in the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ."—S. to a Methodist Seminary in eastern New of the flume. The brook which came England; and inserted the following pro- the upper end now flows over the north vision in his will: "If at any time a member of the new part, and makes a fall of 40s A Work of Faith.—Some people are very of the faculty or one of the teachers connected one of the prettiest in the mountains anxious to undertake some kind of "faith with the institution shall use tobacco in any which the name of Avalanche Fall is pra and the case is not attended to by the faculty, then for that year the interest shall be added dom to train them, and for the Holy Spirit the creek, although they were swimming in the scarred trees above the flume show that to guide them. She mingled praying with water. At last it left the creek and made its mass of broken rocks and gravel must counsel and restraint; and the counsel was way as best it could, to the base of the globe been at times from 50 to 60 feet deep.

> For " The Friend," Natural History, Science, &c.

Sunken Timber .- Immense tracts of and the oak, which is as black as eb used for ornaments and fancy cabinet A visitor to the wild moor and mount gion of Donegal, describes the way in the seekers after these buried forests o

Futal Effect of Imagination.—In a c ported in the Med. Press, 4th month Prohibition in Kansas.-H. A. Tucker states the patient, awakened from sleep by Tobacco-juice Vapor as an Insecticide.

White Mountain Avalanches .- The bu of a heavy rain cloud on the 30th c month, caused a tremendous avalance Mount Liberty. Huge trees and great ders went plunging down the mountai

The track of the slide on the side of M Liberty is 500 feet wide and a mile in leg There it entered the ravine leading t flume. The mountain was covered w ing everything before it. The ravine le Temperance. - The Siamese government has for two miles was swept clean, and only

Tobacco using .- Eliphalet Clark left $50,000 feet long, almost equal to the original ka ed. The new part of the flume bears a to the left, so that its entire length in when standing below the former location the bowlder. Looking from above the chasm, and upon the great change which so quickly wrought, the visitor for the time will comprehend the mighty pow brty and the other from Flume Mountain, discovered .- Friends' Intelligencer. farther south. The latter was the largest, nountain being denuded of more than 100 s of timber. Altogether these slides are largest and most destructive that have rred in the mountain region of New apshire since the great Willy slide of 1826. ent date, are of a silicious character: is, their skeleton structure or framek does not consist, as in the familiar masponges of commerce, of an elastic netk of tough fibres, but of lines of fascieuing the sponge-flesh.

or more in thickness. Their surface, There are 11 places where no week-day meetoth, or more or less tuberculated, is, in ing appears to be held. delicate green threads of the algae; while are awaiting instructions from us." he true sponge he will hardly fail to see total expense had been about $1400. characteristic pores penetrating its surand to detect the fine points of numerous Glens Falls.

ecting spicules. es in the full sunlight.

situation where water stands or runs, pting upon the muddy bottoms of shallow

m, one from the southern slope of Mount not be hopefully sought for and frequently

THE FRIEND.

SEVENTH MONTH 28, 1883.

Fresh-Water Sponges. — All fresh-water We have received a copy of the printed minutes of the Yearly Meeting held in New York City, commencing 5th mo. 25th.

> Among the matters claiming attention were the Reports of several Boards or Committees.

The Bible School and Missionary Board had extended help to a school in Mexico, to bodies in Western, Iowa and Kansas Yearly I fint needles, about the Too of an inch the Indians near Shawneetown, and to 29 Meetings, and replies sent to them, as was ngth, so arranged as to form a loose in-schools in the South, nearly all of which done last year, exture, penetrated by canals, and sup-were in North Carolina. They had also Naomi Peace When crushed, made grants of maps, blackboards, libraries efore, this texture is permanently de- and other appliances to Bible Schools in their listers, and were furnished with returning syed, and will not resume its original own Yearly Meeting; and had employed a minutes of their acceptable attendance. No be. The sponge-flesh, so called, is a thin person for eight months as a "Bible Reader" other minutes of the kind were issued, as the e covering the spicules and lining the among the sick and poor of New York City. ds of the living organism; having a pecu- The total expenditure had been about $3500 and not unpleasant odor when fresh, but of which the Yearly Meeting had appropriated aying its animal nature by an extremity $750-the balance being derived from volunpulness when the dead sponge has been tary contributions and other sources.

e species, supplemented by a higher The Committee on Evangelistic Work speakwth of branches or finger-like processes, ing of the need for "pastoral service" in many uently several inches in length. In color parts of the Yearly Meeting; says that the quite a number of young and middle-aged vary from nearly white to the most continued existence of some of the meetings persons who appear at times in these meetings d green, in an almost exact ratio to the seems dependent on it, and that they have in the line of the ministry. A concern for ce of light received. The slimy growth sought to aid such meetings where was their preservation and growth in the Truth onfervæ occasionally seen upon the bot, opened for it. In pursuance of this object this object arcse in one of the meetings of the Select published a notice, "inviting ministers who body, which led to the appointment of a ater-moss, may momentarily mislead the felt called of the Lord to this service to cor-meeting for members only, on Second-day ector; but a pocket lens will reveal to him respond with us." They state as the result, evening. At this, much weighty and approglance the minute leaves of the moss, or that "two are already in the field, and others priate counsel was communicated. The

It was concluded to meet next year at

Whatever effect may appear to be produced hese sponges are found growing upon any for a time by this plan of locating ministers porting substance except mud, and at every among weak meetings, to exercise a "pastoral" h beneath the surface of the water; but care over them, we have no confidence in the and one of the originators of the new policy of that affect chiefly the under and upper surface ultimate success of such measures in procones and timbers, the sides of piling, and moting the spread of our principles, or in submerged stumps and branches. The building up meetings of true "Friends." We es and roots of water plants are often believe it is practically impossible for minised and matted together by them. As the ters located and paid by a committee, to tion in the working force of operators, but the places of ng of earthy matter into their pores would exercise their gifts simply as servants of the suffocate them, we find in standing pools Head of the Church. If (as often happens to most flourishing specimens attached to the true minister) there should be for a time under side of stones or water-logged tim- no eall to public service, such an one would which shield them from the intrusion of feel that he was not earning the compensabeavier silicious particles; whilst in clear tion allowed him, in thus performing silent s and rapidly flowing streams they plant worship, where vocal labor was looked for.

nselves boldly upon the upper surface of He would therefore be subjected to a strong temptation to speak unbidden-thus departfurther hint as to the bodies of water ing from the ground of spiritual worship as instant. ch favor their growth, may be found in held by our Society. So also, that private fact that three species, one of them the religious influence which a devoted Christian t peculiar of American forms, were found exercises in the circle in which he moves, stream a child could step over; five were would be greatly marred, if not totally depered at one time in the submerged cellar stroyed, if his fellow-members had reason to burnt mill; while the timber-work of the regard his counsels as merely official duties, s upon some of our largest rivers has fur-ed rich collections; so that there is scarce-of Divine life in his own heart.

From a Friend who attended the late Yearly wo other slides occurred during the streams or mill-ponds, where sponges may Meeting in Canada, of the Smaller Body, we learn that it met at Pickering on Sixth-day, 6th mo. 22nd. Of the three Quarterly Meetings, but two-West Lake and Pelhamwere represented. The disunity caused by the change of discipline and other innovations, though very manifest in Yonge Street, the central Quarterly Meeting, had not eaused a formal separation there as it had in the

The meeting closed on Third-day, 6th mo. 26th, a public meeting for worship being held in the afternoon, after the business meetings were finished.

Epistles were received from corresponding

Naomi Peacock and Eunice Beesley, from Iowa, were present with certificates as min-Yearly Meeting decided a year ago to grant such returning minutes to none but members of meetings with which it was in official correspondence.

Among the strangers in attendance were a few days in water.

The Report on Statistics gave the whole some members of a Committee appointed by any of the species, native in this country, number of members as 3,672. The usual at-Ohio Yearly Meeting to consider the situation ear as mere incrustations of varying size tendance at the meetings on First-day is of the scattered remnants of the Society. shape, and from less than a line to an stated to be 2.569; and on week-days, 706. This committee had been authorized to visit, as way might open, the different bodies of such Friends, in order to ascertain their situation and condition.

There are in this small body of Friends

SUMMARY OF EVENTS

UNITED STATES .- It is estimated in Washington that about $300,000,000 of our national debt—or less than 20 per cent.-is held in Europe.

The Japanese Legation at Washington has received telegram announcing the death at Kioto, on the 21st inst., at Iwa kura, the Second Prime Minister of Japan,

The strike of the Brothelmood of Telegraphers throughout the United States and Canada, was begun on the 19th inst. There has been great embarrassment at nearly all points in consequence of the great reducmany of them have been filled in several of the principal cities. Both the companies and the strikers appear to be confident of being ultimately successful. The tock-out of cigar makers in fifteen large shops in New York, employing nearly 10,000 persons, began on the same date.

General E. O. C. Ord, of the United States army, who took passage on the City of Washington at Vera Cruz took passage on the City of Washington at Vera Cruz for New York, and was taken with yellow fever, com-pelling his removal to the shore while the vessel was at Havana, died from the disease at that place on the 23d

The Chief of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury, under the advice of the law officers of the Government, has issued orders to his agents looking to the suppression of the manufacture of bangles in imitation of gold and silver coins, which is represented to be increasing to a great extent in the West.

The portraits of the new postage stamps that come in use 10th mo. 1st are: 1-cent, Franklin; 2-cent, J.ckson; 3-cent, Washington; 5-cent, Garfield; 6-cent. Lincoln; 7-cent, Stanton; 10-cent, Jefferson; 12-cent, Clay; 15cent, Scott; 30-cent, Hamilton; 90-cent, Perry.

On First-day last a number of Cubans held a meeting to assist in freeing Cuba from the Spanish yoke. Spanish promises, it was urged, should be disregarded, because it was claimed they were never fulfilled. One speaker advised the organization of Cuban exiles and members. He also expressed his opinion that the the freeing of the colored race held in bondage by the canal should ultimately be placed under the control of Spaniards. A large contribution was taken up in aid of the cause.

The new high license laws in the West differ widely. In Illinois all licenses hereafter for the sale of spirits and wines, are to be granted upon the payment of $500 a year, and for beer at $150. The Nebraska law puts the fees in cities of a certain grade at $1000, and at $500 dentials. for all other places. The law of Iowa permits towns to others as high as $1000, while there has been a large and a considerable reduction in the number of liquor sellers

The deaths in this city last week numbered 479. which was 84 less than during the previous week, and 16 less than during the corresponding period last year. Of the whole number, 250 were males and 229 females

Cotton.—There was very little doing, but prices were unchanged. Sales of middlings were reported at 10½ a 10¾ cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.-Standard white, 67 a 7 cts. for export, and 7% a 8 cts, per gallon for home use.

Flour is in fair request and firm. Sales of 2700 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5 a $6; Penn-sylvania family at $4.90 a $5.12\frac{1}{2}; western do, at $5.50 a $6, and patents at $6 a $7.25. Rye flour is dull at $3.25 a $5.50 per barrel.

Grain.—Wheat was in hetter demand and one cent per bushel higher; sale of 4700 bushels red in car lots, southwest of Damietta, the leprosy has appeared there, at $1.10 a $1.18. Rye is nominal. Corn is in light reading rapidly. There are neither doctors quest, but a shade firmer. Sales of 10,000 bushels in nor medicines at Fareskur. car lots at 55 a 66 cts. for rejected and yellow. Outs are dull but steady; sales of 9000 bushels in car lots at 40 a 45 cts.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 7th mo. 21st, 1883.—Loads of hay, 268; loads of straw, 52. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 95 cts. a $1.05 per 100 lbs.; mixed, 85 a 95 cts. per 100 cts, a $1.05 per 100 los.; mixed, $5 a $9 cts. per 100 pounds; straw, 60 a 70 cts. per 100 pounds. New hay 50 a 70 cts. per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were a fraction lower this week: 3700 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 4½ a 6}

cts. per lb., as to condition.

Sheep.—Good grades were in fair demand and firmly held: 9000 head arrived and sold at the different yards of examining the ears of the children, and has arrived at 3 a 5½ cts., and lambs at 3½ a 8 cts. per pound, as to at the fact that of 5905 children examined no less than quality.

Hogs continue dull: 3800 head arrived and sold at 10 to 15 per cent. below that of last year, and the yield Fruit, beet-root and potatoes are everywhere good. will be below the average. Reports from the continent are very similar in their conclusions.

The Executive Council of Queensland has forwarded a memorial to the Earl of Derby, the Secretary of the Colonies, urging the Government to reconsider their decision to forbid the annexation of New Guinea to Queensland, and inviting them to take steps to provide for a federal government for Australia.

A despatch from Earl Derby, the Colonial Secretary to the Government of Queensland, in regard to the pro oosed annexation of New Guinea, has since been pub posed annexation of New Ordinea, has lished. Lord Derby states that official inquiry at Paris and Berlin shows that the fears of foreign annexation of New Guinea are groundless, and he emphasized the The French expedition also admits that Campon Bay, objections of the Home Government to the annexation of that island by Qucensland, whose Parliament, he says, represents the interests of whites, who are sus-pected of desiring to acquire a supply of colored labor for the sugar industry

After a meeting of the Managing Committee of the Suez Canal Company on the 20th inst., De Lesseps telegraphed to the Chief Engineer of the Canal in Egypt that the canal would bring Saigon directly in the track as follows: "Come to Paris immediately. Bring the of China-going-vessels and enable that place to assume plans for the second canal. Funds are assured either by execution of the British agreement or otherwise,"

On the 23d inst., W. E. Gladstone announced in the

in New York, at which addresses were made by General at this session to sanction the agreement in regard to a basis, the per centages of the average cro Bonachea and others, urging that every means be taken the Suez Canal, made with De Lesseps. Gladstone also follows: Fall wheat, 78; spring wheat, 90; h said that the consideration of the agreement was dropped oats, 90; peas, 89; rye, 93; hay, 122; pots owing to the general objection to the scheme, and become, 74; roots, 93; apples, 64; other fruit, 8 cause more time had been asked for by some of the an international committee. In the House of Lords, Earl Granville, Foreign Secretary, said that the agreement would be referred to a special committee.

Waddington has been appointed Ambassador to Eng land, from France, in place of Tissot, who has resigned on account of ill health, and has presented his cre-

A report made by De Lesseps at the meeting in Paris fix the amount, and there is no uniform rule on the on the 17th inst., of the Panama shareholders says, that subject. In some places it is as low as $75, and in the co-operation of American contractors had dissipated the preindices existing in certain centres of the United increase in the average amount throughout the State, States against his company constructing the canal. The sentiment of equity prevailing among the Americans caused them to recognize that those who have under-Isthmus of Panama have no object in view but the removal of a material obstacle to beneficial intercourse. The number of deaths from cholera in Egypt for the

Of the whole number, 250 were m des and 220 females; I The number of deaths from cholera in Egypt for the 207 were two years of age or younger; 94 died of week ending on the 22d, varies, but is probably more cholera infantum; 54 of consumption; 28 of marasmus; that 29 of meningitis; 21 of convolsions; 19 of old age; 12 of diphtheria, and 10 of typhoid fever.

Markets, &c.-U. 8, 31's, 103; 4½'s, 112; 4's, 119; 4 neglected. The funeral system is most obnoxious. The corpses, encased in very slight coffins, are carried through the crowded streets on men's shoulders. clothes of persons dying in the hospital are often stripped off and taken for wearing purposes by relatives. great quantity of tar is burned in Cairo every night. he number of poor and infirm persons who are being maintained at Damietta at the expense of the State is rapidly increasing. Relief Committees are being formed. Advices from Egypt assert that in addition to an outbreak of cholera at the town of Fareskur, eight miles

> A serious outbreak of cholera is expected at Bombay, as there were thirty-seven sporadic cases of the disease there during last week.

A member of the Commission of Inquiry of St. Peters burgh has been sent to Germany, France and England for the purpose of obtaining an exact report concerning the civil rights of the Jews in those countries.

Much attention has of late years been given by phyicians in Berlin to the defects of vision among school children. Thousands of them have been examined, and many changes and improvements made in consequence in the arrangements of school-houses, class-rooms, &c. Of late years an aurist has conceived the practical idea 1392 were affected with diseases of the ear.

The harvest in Prussia promises well, especially in The different yards at 5 a 8½ ets. per lb., according to the Northeastern provinces. It will be less in Pomeration and Brandenburg. Wheat in the former is below Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M. FOREIGN.—The Times, in its crop report, says the area of wheat planted in the United Kingdom is from Remish Prussia, drought has done much damage.

> The proposed ship canal through the Isthmus of Kraw, in India, has been decided to be impracticable. The Times, of India, says it would cost, it is said, more than the Suez Canal. The rough and hilly nature of the district would make a very circuitous route necessary, some of the cuttings involving very acute angles. According to a Strait's paper, the following is the opinion of an engineer employed by the French exploring party: "It would take the superfluous capital of France for the next hundred years to cut the canal, and when the work was done it would simply be a triumph of engineering, for there would be no profit, in fact there would be additional expense for maintenance. which would be the eastern outlet of the canal, is half filled with mind and is exposed to the full fury of the northeast monstoon. The locality of the proposed Pa, the 23rd of 6th mo. 1883, Maria Possey, we stern entrance appears to be equally in accessible, the of the late Joshina B. Passy), aged about reventy sea being thickly studded with shoals and sunken rocks and exposed to the southwest monsoon. All this will be a great disappointment to the French, who hoped the importance of Singapore, greatly to the advantage day time. of the French Cochin China settlements.

The Toronto Globe publishes crop reports from all House of Commons that he would not ask Parliament parts of Ontario and Quebec, showing that, with 100 as

The Mexican Government has undertake habilitate the extensive forests of the valley of A contract has been let for the planting of trees in that locality within four years, beginn next 3rd mo., the contractor receiving $200,0 principal varieties to be planted are ash, will lar, eucalyptus, tronosjapones, mountain cyp acacias, the contractor being bound to main in good condition for two years after plantin forestry by agricultural school graduates, the tribution of fruit trees and other useful plants to the climate, and the translation of works or culture and the German forestry laws.

The Bolivian Government declares it will n peace without a union with Peru. According news published in El Pueblo, General Cacer Suanuco, with 1200 badly armed men. Thauthority states that an engagement took place de Agucar, resulting in the loss of Colonels Rec and Secado, of General Caceres' forces.

RECEIPTS.

Received from George P. Stokes, N. J., $2, 57, and for Ann Jess, City, $2, vol. 57; from Borton, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57, and for Ezra H. and Clayton H. Haines, $2.10 each, vol. 57; from Borton, N. J., for Charles Edgerton and En Brown, $2.10 each, vol. 57; from Lydia T. Ki $2.10, vol. 57, and for Thomas Evans, Md., and 52.10, vol. 57, snd for Indonas Evans, 3d., and E. Mickle, Pa., $2.10 each, vol. 57; from Giles & waite, Pa., $2.10, vol. 57, and for Henry W. S waite, $2.10, vol. 57; from Robert Knowles, N. Y., $2.10, vol. 57, and for James R. Boss. N. Y., $2.10, vol. 57, and for James K. 1088.
Peckham and Doreas Collins, $2.10 each, vol. 57.
Samuel Woolman, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from Debor terthwaite, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from Elizabet terthwaite, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from Elizabet total, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from Mary Hall, E. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 57; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, John H. A. 108, vol. 58; and for William Hall, William Hal and John Little, 10s. each, vol. 57.

Remittances received after Fourth-day morning appear in the Receipts until the following week.

FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOLS.

A woman Friend, an experienced teacher, is to have charge of the Northern Primary Sch boys and girls; to enter upon her duties in the month. Application may be made to either of dersigned:

g: Edward Maris, M. D., 1106 Pine St., Edward Bettle, Jr., No. 8 North Front Elizabeth C. Lowry, 1114 Pine St., Anna W. Lippincott, 460 North Seveu

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN CHILL

AT TUNESASSA.

Wanted, a woman Friend to assist the Ma household duties. Apply to Joseph S. Elkinton, 325 Pine st

John Sharpless, Chester, Penna. Ephraim Smith, 1110 Pine stree FRIENDS' ASYLUM FOR THE INSAI

Near Frankford, (Twenty third Ward,) Philadel Physician and Superintendent—John C. Hall Applications for the Admission of Patients 1 made to the Superintendent, or to any of the of Managers.

years. She was a member and elder of London Monthly and Particular Meeting. After endu protracted season of physical suffering, her clo calm and peaceful, leaving with her family and the comforting belief, that the work was done

> WILLIAM H. PILE, PRINTER, No. 422 Walnut Street.

FRIEND. THE

A RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

OL. LVI.

SEVENTH-DAY, EIGHTH MONTH 4, 1883.

NO. 52.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Articles designed for insertion to be addressed to JOSEPH WALTON, MOORESTOWN, BUBLINGTON Co., N. J.

iptions, payments and business communications, received by JOHN S. STOKES,

NO. 116 NORTH FOURTH STREET, UP STAIRS, PHILADELPHIA.

For "The Friend,"

(Continued from page 402.)

nised.'

11th mo. 17th. First-day.-How precious the church triumphant in heaven. to be enabled at seasons to commemorate ed in meeting this morning to revive the upbraideth not.'

short I am of that attainment which qualifies be suffered to come against us as an over-, if paid in advance, $2.00 per annum; if not paid for the application of the promise left for 'the whelming flood, his eye is none the less over pure in heart :'- 'they shall see God.' May us, his sustaining Arm none the less near; I be more and more engaged to pray for it, and as we keep our eye single to Him, the > right spirit created within me." To M. M. Sheppard.

" Millville, 2d mo. 7th, 1840.

When our hearts are afresh opened towards God. one another, through the influence of that rs and Memoranda of William Scattergood, engagement to commune with one another desired to communicate to thee. I have 10th mo. 31st, 1839.—We have returned or reproof, I believe it is our duty as it is our cup; and fervent are my desires that we may ay from a visit to our friends in Bucks privilege, to extend reciprocally a hand of be more and more united together in that ity; and in a little sense of gratitude can help; thus fulfilling the apostolic injunction, bond of Christian unity which our blessed nowledge, that we have been favored to to Bear one another's burdens and thus fulfil Redeemer set forth as the badge and evidence reed without accident, and with our minds the law of Christ.' When our hearts are thus of discipleship with Him. eshed at times with the belief that Divine touched with heavenly virtue, and an intimacy has been near. My own mind has tion attends to impart our feelings to a fellow may both be preserved in the best sense, I lavored to feel strengthened by the com-pilgrim, if given way to, I believe it has often remain truly thy affectionate friend y of my beloved friends, and fresh desires been attended with happy effects in cheering awakened that I may be enabled to walk and enlivening such in their journey heaven-formally to that holy Christian profession, ward. Shall I tell thee, that such has been the I am making to the world; and, also, the effect of the little note thou hast ventures the outward; and my soul has been made to send me; and although its contents may experience for some days past, a little of the openings of the Heavenly Leader, and seem to thee of little account, the effect upon fresh inshining of the Sun of righteousness, oful in the pursuit of that He may be my feelings has been to cheer and strengthen after a season of winter and conflict. Herein sed to call for at my hands. May the remember in the tribulated path in which all the there seemed a prostration of hope to a great ed evidences of Divine favor experienced children of our Heavenly Father must walk degree; yet being mercifully favored patiently he past two or three weeks be remem if they are finally favored to attain 'that city to wait for the Lord's time, He has been d with gratitude; and if it be my allot which hath foundations, whose builder and pleased to arise with healing in his wings, t again to sit as it were at the King's gate maker God is.' Oh! it is a precious thing to and has enabled me again to open my mouth numiliating conflict, may I be helped to be brought low; to be made sensible of our in the assemblies of his people, which for two fast my confidence steadfast unto the own weakness; to be made to see that we are or three months has been pretty much closed. believing that He is faithful who has nothing; and to know our sufficiency to be in May I know a renewed engagement to seek Him, who bore our griefs and carried our a closer acquaintance with Him, the glorious 11th mo. 4th .- After a time of fair weather sorrows, and who, as we are attentive to the Captain of salvation; and under every cone clouds and storms; so after favor comes voice of instruction, sometimes conveyed flicting season, bow low in the sense that I lict; that we may be reminded where our through deeply trying dispensations, will need much correction, and thus be permitted endence is. In a little of this experience arise in due season with healing in his wings, to entertain the hope, that these dispensae I had to dwell; and sincerely do I desire | He will enable us to say, 'The Lord is my tions may be the means of breaking up those e preserved with a single eye to the unitary that song, and is become my salva-eorruptions of my fallen nature, which remain ug Helper; and may I in future be care-tion.' He prepares us, through these seasons to binder and perplex me in the way evero mind my calling and therein abide. A of suffering, for his service; and I am more lasting" t of faithfulness to a little opening of duty and more persuaded they are essential to a family adds to my present feeling of preparation for usefulness in his militant ing has been affected with feelings of awfulchurch, as well as for the fruition of joy in ness in reflecting upon the work I have unsure covered me this day, in the sense of how tossed upon the waves, or however our enemy even that I may have a clean heart and a victorious Captain of salvation, He will work for us by rebuking the devourer, and will bring up his humble dependent children to stand as upon Mount Zion, and will put a new song into their mouth, even praises to our

I cannot well express the feelings of tender precious uniting love which flows from the sympathy and fellowship which I feel towards Father and the Son, and in which we feel an thee, and which for some months past I have either in the line of consolation, instruction, thought many times we were drinking of one

With sincere and tender desires that we

"5th mo. 25th, 1840 .- My mind this morndertaken; which seems ready to overwhelm Dwell not, my dear friend, too much on the me at times in the sense of my weakness and goodness of the Most High! to experience sense of thy own weakness; but remember utter incapacity of myself to do any thing to ething like the language begotten in our that the Lord our Helper is mighty; and that the honor of the Great Name. May I conking hath brought me into his chambers: of conflict and trial than we can have any upon Him, the great Shepherd, who putteth will be glad and rejoice in thee.' Was en-idea of. As I rode from meeting last First-day week, of the last note, until within a week past, my clous promise of our Saviour to his disci- my feelings were touched in remembering that mouth has been again closed as to any public : 'Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, passage in which our Saviour speaks of the communication in our own meeting, and but ye shall find; knock, and it shall be open-care that is taken of the fowls of the air: 'Are few times elsewhere; in which season my into you.' Fervent desires were felt, that not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and mind has been closely exercised on several acyouth might be engaged to 'ask' in the not one of them is forgotten before God. Ah! counts. I have been dipped into sympathy of visitation of Him who giveth liberally if our confidence were, by even so small a with a state similar to that I passed through grain of living faith, kept in this ever-watch- during a time of backsliding in years past; 11th mo. 30th.—Shame hath in some mea- ful and almighty Caretaker, then however and my soul has had afresh to participate in feelings which the pen cannot record. Where-drop of living water. May we then be earn-quent piling up of the impressions. As in, nevertheless, through the goodness of the estly engaged to seek to have bread in our the nebula of Orion and all the features of Heavenly Shepherd, I have been enabled to own houses, and water in our own cisterns: tail of our latest bright comet have experience sustaining help; and I trust a little then shall we realize for ourselves the dawn-brought out by exposures lasting bet qualification to minister to that struggling ing of that glorious gospel day, wherein every two and three hours. seed, which is pressed down in the hearts of man is not to teach his neighbor, or say to the children of men; and which, as it is suf his brother "know the Lord, for they shall photographic plate is that we are able to couragement in the present day among us as it is declared, that the wayfaring men though into a spectrum, the different parts of w a religious Society; and those who can feel, fools shall not err therein. have need deeply to ponder their responsibilities and duty; and according to their respective measures, seek a qualification to fill up that which remains of the afflictions of to contend with the opposite, of endeavoring the sun. to persuade that the work of justification is in a sense of these defections among us; and may be considered under four heads:

1. The photographic eye can take a quicker especial value, and if we can find some in the constant of the weakness prevailing in the photographic eye can take a quicker especial value, and if we can find some in the constant of the cons these as well as in other respects, I was en-look than the natural one. We do not re-stance still more or differently sensitive t gaged in our Yearly Meeting last month to ceive a full impression of any object until we silver salts-which is not improbable,-th express myself in these words: 'I feel an have looked at it for about one-tenth of a does not seem to be any object which thr earnest desire that we as a religious body, second. During this time, the image gets out rays of any kind which is beyond may be more and more engaged to recur to stronger and stronger; but short of this we reach of our cameras. All our senses are v first principles—to the principles of our fore-cannot see to advantage. Now in certain ob-imperfect. They are constructed so as to fathers-which are those of unchanging truth; jects, notably the sun, the changes occupy a limited in their powers. When the vibrati and while we are very diligent as we ought much less time than this; hence with all the are of certain quality, they impress the to be in the perusal of the Holy Scriptures, magnifying power of a telescope we can never and sounds are heard; when they chang let us remember that they recommended the hope to see distinctly the forms of the elelittle, all is silence. The trouble is in the people in their day to a higher and certain ments which make up the photosphere. In that is not attuned to the new wave-leng standard, even the light, grace, and good times of calm, these elements may be granular So with the eye; given a certain rate of Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ inwardly re- and spherical; but when their fluid masses, tion of the rays which proceed from obje vealed to the soul. As we are diligently at- floating in a more fluid medium, are acted on and all the variety of the external world i tentive to the voice of this Heavenly guide by any of the countless currents and storms the limits of our gaze. Change the rate, and teacher, we shall know a qualification that sweep over the solar surface they readily after darkness follows, notwithstanding wrought in us to draw water for ourselves assume such shapes and changes as the ex- fact that emanations are still entering out of the wells of salvation; and from living terior forces impress upon them. At Mendon, pupil; the retina does not respond and experience to speak of the Lord's wonderful in France, a photograph of a portion of the image goes to the brain. The camera gi works.

Scriptures from day to day, and from month second. This gives the shapes and location is stamped upon it, and it becomes a sou to month, and from year to year; and after of the granules in a way they have never be- of visible rays, and we see the likeness of all we may find by and by that we have not fore been seen. gained one crumb of substantial bread or one

* William Penn, in allusion to the early days in the one-tenth of a second, the impression on our photographing dark objects; it is only one Society of Friends, conveys: "We were in travail for one another's preservation;" "treating one another as those who believed and felt God present," &c. Were there more of this religious exercise and concern for each other's welfare in the present day,—bearing one another's burdens and so fulfilling the law of Christ we believe it would be better with us,-with them that sow and them that reap. The weak hands would be strengthened in the ever-blessed Truth, the feeble knees confirmed in that which is everlasting; while at the same time the Scripture would be realized in our exbe insupportable, night would be as bright drawing. Memory is deceptive, and the ba perience: "He that watereth, shall be watered himas day, and hosts of faint objects would be unskilful. But these permanent records

This "travail" for the preservation and help of individuals, as well as for the whole Body, might cause the members more to rejoice in the Lord, and to set up Ebenezers to his praise; whereby also, through the con-strengthens it; and il practical difficulties did of the different pictures of the same object descension of Him who regardeth the dust of Zion, not stand in the way there would seem to be group can after the lapse of many years Sharon might abundandy blossom, Carmel be revived, no limit to the length of exposure and conse-centuries be readily made. We must reme and the Eternal Name be exalted over all.

fered to arise will, in its own blessed power, all know me from the least of them to the reign over all.*

greatest of them." Then shall we know a constructed to see. If a ray from the second them is a second to the constructed to see. If a ray from the second to the second them is a second to the second to t Many are the causes for trial and even dis- walking in that highway of holiness, of which passed through a prism, it is stretched

(To be continued.)

Celestial Photography.

Christfor his body's sake which is the Church; has made such rapid advances that it bids and a very large number outside the and be willing to come up in a faithful per fair shortly to be, not only as a means of which it never recognizes. The ultra-v formance of those things which He calls for record, but also as a means of discovery, one rays are noted for their power of affect at our hands. From the extreme that led of the prominent astronomical instruments of salts of silver and impressing themselve many to deny the Divine character and offices the immediate future. The science may be a sensitive plate. The infra-red rays are of our Holy Redeemer, and carried off many said to have originated in 1845, when Fizeau cipally rays of obscure heat; but they als into separation and contention, we have now and Foucault took a daguerrectype image of some degree can act on a photographic r wholly performed by Him in his own body the same lens in front,—the same sensitive succeeded in taking a photograph of a and offering; and that a mere belief in his out plate or membrane on which the image falls. kettle of hot water in a room perfectly d ward advent, suffices to make us holy in the It possesses some advantages and some dis-by means of the obscure beat-rays we Divine sight; and also to make us ready to advantages over its prototype. As its use will radiated from it. When we read this, it is deny that precious doctrine of Holy Scripture not disable our natural eyes, the disadvantages not seem impossible that some day, not crespecting the immediate manifestation of may be left out of account. The advantages the suns of space, but also their dark wor Christ in Spirit to his disciples and children represent so much power gained to be used will throw their images on our silver f in this day. My mind has been often affected in wresting from nature its secrets. They and thus render themselves visible. To solar surface has been obtained with an ex- us, as it were, a new sense. Its retina a It is very possible for us to read the Holy posure of only one hundred-thousandth of a respond to these invisible rays. The im-ore been seen.

2. Another advantage of the photographic object itself. It must not be supposed the eye is that it can take a very long look. After much has actually been done in the way retina becomes no stronger. As the new rays the achievements of the future which see impinge, making new images, the images to be within grasp. formed by the former rays fade away. In- 4. But the main use of photography whi deed, the tiring of the eyes is such that they will suggest itself to everyone is to obta see less well after continued looking at a faint from the heavenly bodies and their pl object. Could this one-tenth of a second be nomena images that will be lasting. lengthened out to a second, we could see ten servers have had to preserve in their memo times as brightly, the glare of the sun would the appearances and make a description brought into view. So it is with the sensitive be examined and studied at leisure. The plate in the camera. An impression formed is a certain kind of accuracy about the lasts forever; a new one on top merely which cannot be impeached, and comparison

3. Another gain we make by the use of differ in the rapidity of their vibrations. eye can take in vibrations of certain rapi and not others; it cannot see more than Celestial Photography. quarter of the whole. There is a numb Within a few years, celestial photography rays beyond the violet of the visible spect and make images of the objects from w The camera is an artificial eye. There is they come. Captain Abney, in England, more than two hundred thousand times pleased to sayr as is the great expanse between the and the sun. There is no reason to supthat nebulæ are any less distant. Any ons that take place among them will not ached us; and if the astronomers of the century will compare our work with s they may have a fund to draw from

h is denied us. nough the method is in its infancy as a more resemble my feelings. the same telescope will not reveal to the meeting for discipline! sen and Common have photographed the re.-Isaac Sharpless, in The American.

Margaret Trembath. (Concluded from page 404.)

ired of me to make a further change, village. t my heart unto Him who had deeply don through the 'Sinner's Friend.'

us and from each other, and that they for I was really afraid at this time that by by Elizabeth Richardson in her diary all in rapid motion and most of them my disobedience and repeated falls the mercy ging their relative positions. It is at of my God was clean gone forever. In my

> 'Give to the winds thy fears, Hope and be undismayed; God hears thy sighs, He counts thy tears, He shall lift up thy head.'

stected in a few years. Micrometers and This was like life from the dead, and I promised, sit circles will do something to locate the through his assistance, never more to resist er stars with a sufficient degree of pre- his grace. In one of our meetings at this n to compare, perhaps, with other posi-time a messenger from the Most High, agreebotained after the lapse of a thousand ably to my secret request, came to proclaim Christian and Infidel in the hour of danger." But the great mass of small stars—liberty to the captives, and to bind up the chousands that are thrown together in broken hearted. This of all meetings was in the way he did, for she said he refused ers,—cannot be thus located without im- most memorable to me, when I was met in a everything of the kind, and was a sad swearer; he labor. But they can, when photonarrow place, the undivided waters before he had a wife and children, who were very by becomes perfect enough, so impress me, and the host behind! Help came to me different from him.

The Elevania God is the "Second month 12th, 1841.—Elizabeth Tremtis obtained for the use of all future ages, and underneath are the Everlasting bath called; much interested in hearing somenebulæ-cloudlike forms which may be Arms. He shall thrust out the enemy from thing further respecting the tract, which in ing about in all possible configurations, before thee, and shall say, Destroy them, our last visit to Mousehole was handed—may

'Hence, my doubts!-away, my fears! Jesus is become my peace

g. Daily through many telescopes the thrust at me on the morning on which I wrote the house with a tract in his hand, which he es on the solar surface are imprisoning to a Friend on the subject of membership, said a Quaker lady had given to him; he sat simages within our reach. The one was that Friends were a declining people, down and read it awhile, then slipped it into and plates of the late transit of Venus and in a few years would be extinct. This I the Bible, and gave the child orders not to probably the most valuable outcome of met by saying that I believed it was the move it from the place in which he had put the expeditions. Harvard Observatory Truth I sought, if so, it would stand firm as it. When he came back he finished reading begun a grand sweep of the heavens, to a rock; if I fell it should be on this ground, the tract, and read his Bible, and since then race all the larger stars; Dr. Gould, in This was in the Eighth month, 1836, and on he had, so his wife said, continued reading h America, has good negatives of some the same day I was visited by several Friends, his Bible more or less every day." This man or fifty of the most noted clusters to be some of whom expressed their gratitude unto made a happy end, and was as a brand plucked in the Southern sky, and he thinks he Him who had thus far helped me; and the from the burning. photograph through a telescope, stars following month I was invited to attend their fic, to observe the solar eclipse, and ex-tations have I been brought through! Let 1847, and to take up her residence at Shotley s to photograph the whole neighborhood none despair of the mercy of God, since I, even Bridge. he sun, to make sure of catching the dis. I, have been thus favored; truly the Lord It was in the meeting at Shotley Bridge d intra-mercurial planet, should there be has done great things for me whereof I am that M. T. first spoke in the ministry. Her a thing of any considerable size; and, glad; and if I may by any means stimulate communications as a minister were brief but least wonderful. Dr. Higgins has in full one poor way-worn traveller to come, taste, weighty, and calculated to point the believer la of Orion, and what is still more strik-son, of Sunderland, and her daughters Sarah mony respecting her was issued by that its spectrum, and a number of cameras and Elizabeth, were lodging in Penzance, been turned successfully on the bright and an intimacy and close friendship with is extracted:

ts of recent times. This record in the Margaret Trembath commenced, which ended "M. Tremb ning of the science promises much for the only with life; and that intimacy was marked understanding and possessed much originality by some facts of no common character.

tracts among the fishermen of Mousehole was in language, and was sharper than One day, when engaged in this work, they corner exercise. Before this was effected handed a tract to Honor Jago, an aged woman. I much to contend with, and it was given She lived only a few weeks after this interit off. Strength was again afforded me by her side, and rejoiced in the sense of par-sharpness of his two-edged sword, and who was regarded as a very wicked man, and ters, was felt by those around her. He would be pleased in mercy to con opposed to religion, although he was the son | The last few days of her life were passed in the vast distances that separate the stars tinue to strive until I yielded him my heart; of a missionary. The narrative is thus given

"Twelfth month 29th, 1840 .- Sarah, Edward and I took an excursion to Mousehole; the seven thousand times as far to the nearest anguish a desperate act was looked at; but horse was put up, and Sarah and I went to as the extremest planet is from the sun. He that willeth not the death of a sinner was Elizabeth Trembath's, who inquired if we wished to see the village. One circumstance occurred which impressed us considerably. I had a large bundle of tracts, which we either gave to those we met or left at cottages. I handed one to a man, which he received civilly. After we had passed, E. T. remarked, 'I am glad you gave that man a tract, he is such an infidel.' 'Well,' I replied, somewhat surprised, 'the tract I gave him was "The

Il give us their outline and structure destroy them.' And on the banks of deliver- 1 not say providentially?—to a man said to a their light left them, some years before ance I was enabled to say— be 'a sad infidel, swearer,' &c. A little time ago, E. T. and this man's wife were walking together and talking over the affairs of their Never did the agitated face of the great Church; she expressed regret at her husband deep at its worst, succeeded by a perfect calm, having so long neglected the 'means of grace, but said she hoped that some time it might ns of research, there is already something. One of the enemy's last darts which was be different, for the other day he came into

The friendship formed with Sarah and Elizabeth Richardson, Jr., led M. Trembath lirectly; M. Jansen has gone to the South Oh! what a wilderness of snares and temp- to dispose of her business at Marazion in e of sun-light caught the image of the and see how good the Lord is, unto the Lord to Jesus as the Redeemer, and the Sanctifier.

solar corona on his silver plate. Draper, on high who is mighty be all the praise."

She was recorded as a minister by the Monthly In the winter of 1840-41 Elizabeth Richard- Meeting of West Cornwall in 1878. A testi-Monthly Meeting, from which the following

"M. Trembath was naturally of a strong of mind, so that the few advantages of educa-In some of their rambles M. T.'s sister tion presented by a remote fishing village at Elizabeth joined them, and they distributed the early part of the century, were turned to good account, and her acute observation of with remarkable results, and Elizabeth Rich-character and ready sympathy with the feelt was not until the year 1835 that it was ardson, Jr., called Mousehole her favorite ings of others, made her company and conversation appreciated by those far beyond ber station and opportunities, while her deep religious insight, and the gift of imparting the word in season to individuals, caused her to o understand that if my eye offended, it view, chiefly confined to her bed. She kept be especially valued by the spiritually minded be plucked out, and if my hand it must the tract ('Salvation by Christ') on the bed of all denominations; and wherever her lot was cast, the influence of her spirit, continually looking for Heavenly guidance in her ided, that I might be enabled to endure Another case was that of Martin Wright, daily concerns, as well as in weightier mat-rod and thy staff they comfort me."

She died at Mousehole, the 10th of First not pass over it." month, 1882, and was buried at Friends burial-ground, Marazion, on the 14th.

For " The Friend," Sea Side.

Sojourning for a short time at one of the many sea-side resorts, now so numerous along ness in the end. the Atlantic coast, for the renewal of health and strength, we have found much to interest, II. Sigourney, on the sea, are suggested: instruct and impress the mind. It is a pleasant occupation, when the state of the atmosphere permits, to sit upon the beach and watch the ever-changing and ceaseless swelling heaving and curving of wave after wave. And I will ponder o'er its characters, as they approach and break upon the shore.

"The ocean looketh up to heaven, And mirrors every star, Its waves are kneeling on the strand As kneels the human knee, Their white locks bowing to the sand, The priesthood of the sea

We note with interest the frequent passing and re-passing of sail and steam vessels, which The wrecking argosy to leave no trace by the aid of a moderate sized glass can be brought quite near to sight, so as to see men moving about on their deeks; and we follow the movements of the numerous little Her levelled mountains and her cultured vales, steam-tugs, engaged, it is said, in fishing with nets and boats, the fish being removed from the nets by means of a scoop, attached to an arm projecting from the mast, carried on board the vessel, and there pressed into oil as far as practicable, the residuum being sold far as practicanic, the residuent seen, and lived?

What chisel'd art hath wrought particularly of a clear day after a storm.

How long the fish will continue to supply such a wholesale demand made upon it, is a problem which time only can solve. We know that the sea is vast in its proportions beyond the comprehension of finite man to fathom its depths and mysterious contents. The more we look upon it, watch its varied Nor blancheth 'neath stern winter's direct frost? appearances, meditate upon its grandeur, yet see that the mandate uttered in the beginning is still obeyed: "Thus far shalt thou go and no further," &e., we are led to exclaim, those dark unfathomable cells—with David, "Oh! Lord, how manifold are Which he who visiteth, hath ne'er returned thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them Among the living? all; the earth is full of thy riches. So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts. These wait all upon thee, that thou mayest Is wisest, tho' the world may call him fool. give them their meat in due season.'

The frequent mention that is made of the sea in the Old as well as the New Testament, That fleeting wanderer on the shore of time, the miracles and other striking events that May, by thy voice instructed, learn of God. are narrated in the latter as occuring near to and upon it, give it, to the mind of the Christian, an impressive interest. He remembers that it was the Lord who "Gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment"-" that it was He which alone spreadeth out the heavens and treadeth upon the waves of the sea,"-who "Gathereth the sea together as an heap; He layeth up the depth in storehouses"-that of Ilim it is declared, "Thou rulest the raging of the sea; when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them,"-and that He refers to its obedience to his laws as an evidence of his power, "Fear ye not me? saith the Lord; will ye not tremmuch weakness and almost unconsciousness, ble at my presence, which have placed the in consequence of an accident while travelling; sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual but the day preceding her death she responded decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the to a friend who asked her how she did, "Thy waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they

> It is well to remember when at the sea side, as at other places of public resort, that watchfulness over our conduct and conversation is just as essential as when pursuing our daily avocation at home, and will, it is believed, be productive of more solid happi-

In conclusion, the descriptive lines of Lydia

THE SEA

Emblem of everlasting power, I come As erst the pleased disciple sought the lore Of Socrates or Plato. You old rock Hath heard thy voice for ages, and grown grey Beneath thy smitings, and thy wrathful tide Even now is thundering 'neath its caverned base, Methinks it trembleth at thy stern rebuke-

Speak gently mighty sea! I would not know the terrors of thine ire That vex the gasping mariner; and bid Or bubble where it perished. Man's weak voice, Tho' wildly lifted in its proudest strength With all its compass—all its volumed sound-Is mockery to thee. Earth speaks of man-Town, tower, and temple, and triumphal arch All speak of him and moulder while they speak. But of whose architecture and design Tell thine eternal fountains, when they rise To combat with the cloud, and when they fall! Of whose strong culture tell thy sunless plants, And groves and gardens, which no mortal eye

Those coral monuments, and tombs of pearl, Where sleeps the sea boy 'mid a pomp that earth Ne'er showed her buried kings

Whose science stretched That simplest line to curb thy monstrous tide, And graving "Hitherto" upon the sand, Bade thy mad surge respect it?

From whose loom Came forth thy drapery, that ne'er waxeth old, Who that thy keys, thou deep? Who taketh note Of all thy wealth? Who numbereth the host That find their rest with thee? What eye doth scan Thy secret annals, from creation locked,

Still but one reply Do all thine echoing depths and crested waves Make the same answer? Of that One Dread Make the same answer? Of that One Dread Name Which he, who deepest plants within his heart,

Therefore, I come a listener to thy lore And bow me at thy side, and lave my brow In thy cool billows, if, perchance, my soul,

WHAT THE TRAVELLER SAID AT SUNSET. BY JOHN G. WHITTIER

The shadows grow and deepen round me, I feel the dew-fall in the air, The muezzin of the dark'ning thicket

I hear the night-thrush call to prayer. The evening wind is sad with farewells, And loving hands unclasp from mine, Alone I go to meet the darknes

Across an awful boundary-line

As from the lighted hearths behind me I pass with slow, reluctant feet, What waits me in the land of strangeness? What face shall smile, what voice shall greet? What space shall awe, what brightness blind n What thunder-roll of music stun? What vast processions sweep before me Of shapes unknown beneath the sun?

I shrink from unaccustomed glory I dread the myriad-voiced strain; Give me the unforgotten faces, And let my lost ones speak again.

He will not chide my mortal yearning, Who is our Brother and our Friend, In whose full life Divine and human, The heavenly and the earthly blend.

Mine be the joy of soul-communion, The sense of spiritual strength renewed, The reverence for the pure and holy, The clear delight of doing good.

No fitting ear is mine to listen.

Why Aldebaran's star is ruddy,

An endless anthem's rise and fall; No curious eye is mine to measure The pearl gate and the jasper wall For love must needs be more than knowledge: What matter if I never know

Or colder Sirius white as snow! Forgive my human words. Oh! Father! I go thy larger truth to prove, Thy mercy shall transcend my longing: I seek but love, and thou art Love!

I go to find my lost and mourned for, Safe in thy sheltering goodness still, And all that hope and faith foreshadow Made perfect in thy holy will!

The Education of Character.

A friend has sent us the following thoug and suggestive article on "The Education Character," taken from the Public Ledge this city. That a good moral charact more valuable than merely intellectual ture, is so evident a truth, that, probably right-minded persons will deny it.

One of the difficulties in the moral trai so forcibly advocated in the Ledger's an is, that the only solid and reliable found: of morality is religion, which cannot be municated by any human culture. Yet r may be done by conscientious parents caretakers in keeping the young from ev early turning their attention to the voi the Saviour speaking in their bearts, as encouraging them to reverence and obey as well as in familiarizing them with the cepts and promises contained in the Script

We hope the article may awaken profi trains of thought in the minds of many lead to an increased estimate of the gr importance of character than culture, a more watchful care and greater effor "train up the children in the way they sl

"We are all ready to declare, with en sis, our belief that character is far more n sary to the welfare of the individual and good of society than any amount of lear or information. Yet this belief must be ra one of the head than of the heart, for u tunately it does not effectively influence practice. The mental discipline gaine intellectual studies is eagerly eraved b parent for his child, and by every lover nation for her people, and being thus ea craved, it is, of course, secured; continu cessions are being made to it in impi methods-teachers and text-books, and best thought of competent persons is stantly being brought to bear upon it. if we really believed in our own hearts we profess to hold-that important as tl may be, the possession of a good char

; provision for it has not been made in and good character established. system, and they have to contend with enlties which discourage and dishearten granted, in a loose kind of way, that a character will come of itself to most peoout trouble; that a trade or profession be successfully pursued without previous high to combine them.

o any one who patiently and thoughtfully iders the relative value to the world, to nation, to the family, to the individual, of eation, it will be a matter of profound is industrious, sober, honest and truthiant career, but who is a spendthrift or a entire sanctification and salvation. bler, or dishonorable in business, or selfdgent, is vastly inferior, considered in any t of view, to the man who, with but few the world.

ly more important, should we not see to bear upon a subject at once so important driven up to the deck, which, you may s of such a belief exhibited in at least to human welfare, and so little understood limagine, was a scene of danger and confusion. l efforts to promote it?

Character is formed by habits, habits by is true every parent hopes that his child repeated actions, and actions result from have it, and many a faithful mother in awakened feelings. If we would, then, such and sworked the pumps, but the water nor experience, nor preparation for the exist in every heart, are good habits formed lots be cast as to who should go in the boats.

For "The Friend."

Apt and instructive truly, is the following be truth is that moral training has yet to selection from the "Memoir of Mary Capper, rganized and systematized before it can when about 72 years of age: "Shall I be prearried on with efficiency on a large scale, sumptuous if I record, with feelings of great this will not be done until its importance seriousness, that my prevailing exercise in ore fully felt than at present. It is taken this my latter day, is secret, wrestling prayer, oft on the bended knee, in my quiet, secluded chamber. My spirit craves for more evident No one supposes that knowledge comes marks of godly simplicity among the Quakers, self; that mental power can be gained so called. I am one of those who mark the boasted 'March of intellect' with a jealous being drawn. The captain lifts it to the fear. The refinements of our day seem, in ematic preparation. Yet all or any of my view, to draw the mind from under the e are more possible than that a character, cross of Christ. According to my observathy of respect and admiration, should tion, we are not the plain, unfashionable ng up without being built, or without people that, if faithful, we should be; we are too generally intermingled with the manners er care or knowledge on the part of the doo generally intermingled with the manners der of the materials be uses, or the way can yet turn and overturn, and settle a faithful people.

To which, also from the pen of the same, showing her appreciation of fervent, reveracter and of what is popularly called ential prayer, may be added the subjoined "If the true light in the soul become darknishment that so much time, thought and ness, how great is that darkness! Watch nrees should be expended on the one and and pray that the day-spring from on high ittle on the other. Take the workman may again arise upon us as a religious Society, somewhat scattered and shaken. O! but who has barely learned to read, and had we been a rightly praying people, surely into it. e him side by side with another who has so much declension had not spread among us. yed years of mental training, but who is May there be, through a rising generation, a the procession, for his name had been among or intemperate, or unfaithful. No one revival of true spiritual mindedness. The overld besitate in pronouncing the former a shadowing of Mercy is to be experienced nore valuable member of society, a better everywhere. Oh! how it would flow did before him had leaped, suddenly his eyes fell pand and father, a better citizen, a better every heart watch and pray. I am as weak, upon a pale, wan face close to him. He happier man. So the college-bred man of myself, as the least babe; by watching remembered it, and its story flashed upon may have taken honors and begin a nito prayer is my faith renewed, my hope of him. He had talked with that young man in antages of culture, has firm principle, pro- for England. One of the passengers was a of health, he was on his way home again. s for his family, and lives honorably be-gentleman who had recently gone to Australia Three years had they been parted, and there for his health, but the place had not suited he stood among the doomed. He thought of o in every case where moral character and him; his bad health became worse. So he the wife's hopes, the children's bright talk llectual acquirements are compared—it immediately took his passage back, and was about him, and after all he was to be lost! t be to the superiority of the former now returning. The ship had made more He could not bear it. In an instant, and ether the parent is providing for the honor than half her homeward voyage when she was without a word, he seized the man forced him happiness of his child, or the Government caught in a storm, which lasted day after day over the gunwale and stepped aside into the anning for the social value of its citizens, and night after night in greatest fury. Winds man's place. It was the work of a second; work of character building must take pre fell upon her, tore her sails away, and snapped there was no chance to demur. In a few ordered of mental culture, both in time and off and blew overboard her masts. Waves moments more all was over. The ship had leaped upon the deck, tore coverings from gone down, carrying with it a heart lost to he extreme delicacy and difficulty of this over the stairways and ladders leading into litself, even to the value of life, in the thought of education afford one reason, doubtless, the hold and cabins, and poured themselves of the miseries of others. ti is so largely put aside. This, how down in tons of water, until the cook's fires, Some glorious deeds move us to clap our, when admitted, should give an addi- were put out, the berths and cabins were hands and shout. This moves us to tears truth, honesty, fidelity and industry, is tional incentive for bringing all our powers flooded, and all the miscrable passengers were tes moral principle so earnestly and pre- cessfully build up character worthy of esteem, gained on them, and the ship sunk deeper s so high an example of it in her own we must present motives to right action, and and deeper into the sea, and long before the that her children grow up well fortified strengthen the tendencies to such action by storm had abated it became quite clear that not temptation. This, however, is by no securing continuous repetition. Not by per- it must be abandoned if a single life was to ns universal, and to neglect it is not con- petually reiterating rules of conduct, insisting be saved. So the captain gave orders to red near so disgraceful as to neglect have on one thing and denouncing another; not launch the boats which had not yet been a child taught to read and write. Con-mainly by reasoning or explaining, or holding swept overboard by the sea. These were ntious teachers, too, strive hard to train up consequences to view; but by so operating only two, not half enough for the number of moral faculties of their pupils, but they upon the emotions and desires as to strengthen souls on board. The brave sailors obeyed as the higher and weaken the lower, and by thus best they could, and while the boats were ssarily desultory; they have neither developing the germs of moral principle, which being got ready, the captain ordered that

Giving his Life for his Friend.

The people gathered under the shelter of some of the ruins of the masts. It was a deeply solemn time. Only one-half at most could be saved, the rest in a few hours, perhaps moments, must be drowned in the swirl of the ship going down; they all stood in the presence of death. Each name was written on a separate slip of paper, then the papers were mixed up in a box; the captain inserted his hand, drew out a name, and read it aloud. It was a dreadful moment to many of them as one by one they heard the names read, yet still theirs had not come, and now the last is flickering light of his lantern and reads. The very storm seems silent. The name is read, the suspense is over, and all know their fate. "Range yourselves in line," cried the captain to the fortunate ones, "and move one by one to the boats." And they filed off as ordered, while the doomed ones gathered in lines on either side to watch them go.

The dark day had settled into darker night; the air was black. The vessel rolled terribly, and the little boats, now lowered to the water, leaped and plunged in the blackness below. A lantern swung at the point where the men were to leave the ship to light them down. One by one the procession disappeared over the gunwale, bung on to the ship's side till the boat was thrown near, and then leaped

The young man I have named was one of the names drawn. At length he was the next man to go. As he waited till the man sunny days, and learned from him that three years ago, with but a small chance of life, he had left behind him in England his wife, A few years ago a sailing ship left Australia a child, and a child since born, and now full and silence. It was the act of the utmost Shanghai. He could not do it. But by-and-

Annual Meeting of the Society for the Suppression of the Opium Trade.

EXTRACTS FROM ADDRESS BY J. HUDSON TAYLOR.

come in conflict with that Great Power, we was terrified. He believed that the man whose object is to furnish employment shall be crushed like the egg-shell against the would die. I have seen men die who have of good moral character and temperate granite rock." I will not say, if we are given up opium, and who had not smoked as Methodist Itinerancy.—The Methodis friends of China, let us put this evil down, much as that man smoked. The soldier was is discussing the question of removi If we are friends of England, let us put it terrified, and yet be knew not what to say. limit from the itinerancy. Their Dis down. As sure as justice does prevail, unless He could not exhort him to do what he him-we give up this evil we must suffer for it. I self had said was wrong, and he said, "Let us remain in the same station more than wish I could take you into a company of pray." The two men knelt down and pray-years successively, or more than three Chinamen, as I have often been, and see the ed. And as they prayed for help to the great in six. If these rules are stricken from Power above beholding the evil and the good, that man! When did a man resolve to do and his vengeance, though tardy, slumbers right in the strength of God, and God forsake not." Oh, let us not call this vengeance upon him or put him to shame?—London Friend. us! Let us rather at once, and at any cost, do the thing that is right, and set China free to deal as she thinks best with this enormous evil.

obedience to the will (or decree) of the Heav-Herald of Peace.

That enly Father, I vow henceforth never to touch opium in public or in private." And the date meeting of the French Peace Society, the that they are often the precursor of a the control of the sound to reach the ear. That the annual three sees is rendered more probable by the meeting of the French Peace Society, the that they are often the precursor of a the control of the sound to reach the ear. That the annual three sees is rendered more probable by the probable by the control of the sound to reach the ear. That the annual three sees is rendered more probable by the private of the sound to reach the ear. the foreign medicines that were advertised in spirator.—Herald of Peace.

tenderness and beauty; and such a heart is by a Chinese soldier, who had heard the Gos- man Catholic Church .- The Chicago re Christ's.

pel from a missionary farther inland, came to pondent of the Presbyterian writes
All lovely deeds and lovely hearts are that town, and preached to him of Jesus; and Romanists in this section are eviden precious in themselves, but most of all are the shopkeeper received the Lord Jesus Christing up to the necessity for a radical are they precious as they help us to understand into his heart. And with a renewed heart ance reform. That more than three the solemn, yes, the sad glory of redemption there came a renewed power to resist evil— of our saloon-keepers in Chicago are and the simple cause of it, the infinite tender- a power to do right. One day the soldier Catholics, is not a fact which any chul ness of the heart of Christ .- Sunday Magazine, came in to read some portion of the Scriptures in these days, very well afford to we with him, and saw him smoking his opium, ornament; and the Roman Catholic He said, "Do not you know that you cannot in this section seems to be waking u be a Christian and smoke opium?" The shop- idea. Fitty-six delegates, representin keeper had never thought of that. "Ist so?" It all abstinence societies, 36 priests, an he said. He was soon convinced that it was influential Catholic gentlemen not her It is a dangerous thing to a community, as a sin, and he was exhorted by his friend to identified with the total abstinence i well as to an individual, to continuinty, as a sin, and news examines by an intend to the cathedral of it face of heaven to do that which we know to said, "I have tried that, and failed." "Yes," Name, and after the celebration of a "be evil. Allow me to read the emphatic said the soldier, "but you had not do on high mass,' listened to a very cloque words of Henry Richard before the House of your side them. What you cannot do, God powerful temperance sermon from " Commons: "I am not ashamed to say that I can help you to do. God is able to strengthen Hodnett. Archbishop Fechan was al am one of those who believe that there is a you to give up all that is sinful." "Do you sent, and concluded the religious servic God who ruleth in the kingdoms of men; and really believe that it is really sinful to smoke a pontifical benediction. Then a D it is not safe for a community, any more than —say three drachms of opium?" "It is, in- Total Abstinence Society was organi for an individual, recklessly and habitually to deed." "Then it seems to me," said the man, the adoption of a constitution and the affront those great principles of truth, and "that if it is sinful to smoke three drachms, of officers. The archbishop identifie justice, and humanity, on which I believe God cannot be pleased to see me smoke two self with the movement very heartily ! God governs the world; and we may be drachms and nine-tenths. God cannot be ing the constitution and by become quite sure sure of this—that in spite of our pleased to see me smoking two or three times spiritual director of the Society. Many pride of place and power, in spite of our vast a day for two or three months, while I am nent and influential Irishmen in Chies possessions and enormous resources, in spite giving it up. If the thing is wrong, it must identified with this new movement, wh of our boasted forces by land and sea, if we be stopped at any cost at once." The soldier connected with it an Employment E Command, as I nave often been, and see the ed. And as they prayed for help to the great in six. I make these are stretcen indignant Chinaman referring to England's God to help this man to give up the evil, his Discipline, many of their ministers we opium traffic, and raising his finger in mute faith was strengthened. He rose from his longer circulate as beretofore, but prayed heaven, and uttering the significant knees. "Not a word," said he; but he took would settle in one place, as in most words, "There is heaven above." Need I in-his pen and wrote that paper, and posted it. Protestant denominations. The quest terpret those words? "We are powerless to up in his shop there and then, and he never volved in the discussion is a very imp resist the evil; we are powerless to defend touched opium afterwards. I do not need to one, and the change is not likely to be ourselves from the wrong; but there is a tell this Christian audience that God belped ed without much opposition, if at all.

Religious Items, &c.

Not six months ago, a friend of mine was lings of British taxation and local rates, six perceptible thunder accompanying. travelling in the province of Nganhwui. He shillings are devoted to paying the interest of stated that the illuminations of an order came to a market town which had never be- the national debt, incurred for past wars. thunderstorm are visible a distance of fore been visited by a foreigner. He was led Five shillings and nine pence are devoted to miles, while the sound of thunder is by his companions into the largest shop in the existing army and navy. So that about heard when the flash of lightning is the town, and he saw before him a Chinese twelve shillings out of every pound are pour-miles away. This favors the supposition inscription in large Chinese characters. He edforth as a national offering, upon the bloody these silent and beautiful displays are read that inscription. It was as follows: "In altar of Mars, even in these Christian days.— the phenomena attending storms too was written against it. My friend said, "What president spoke of the reactionary influence storm, or the heralds of its approact does this mean?" The owner of the shop came of the militarism of the European govern-communication from Jno. Tyndall con forward, and soon gave a reply. He had ments upon their discontented subjects, op-this. He says: "Looking to the sout been a victim to opium smoking for many, pressed and burdened by taxation for arma-south-east from the Bel Alp, the play of many years. Though well-to-do, and coase-quently able to bear the effect on his constitution and his purse better than most, he amarchy. War, instead of elevating and re-palpitating for hours, with a barely is found himself in body and in circumstances fining humanity, as Marshal Moltke declared ciable interval between the thrills. The seriously injured by it, and he tried to dimintum years ago, has, on the contrary, degraded Generoso, overlooking the Lake of Lug. ish the dose and to give it up. He could not and brutalized the peoples. It has produced about fifty miles from the Bel Alp as the do it. He got native medicines and tried to the spirit which uses for its arms the dagger flies. The two points are connected by enre himself. He could not do it. He bought of the assassin, and the dynamite of the con-graph, and frequently when the [silent

New Temperance Movement within h

Natural History, Science, &c.

Sheet Lightning .- There has been son cussion in successive numbers of Nati the source of the sheet lightning so oft War Expenses .- Out of every twenty shil- served on hot summer nights without ning] as seen from the Bel Alp, was : e with a thunderstorm in Upper Italy.' duce an audible sound.

ore vicions than those of Europe. in Nature, who has an apiary at that nickly covering him with earth.

graving to have preserved all its sharpibvention, or guarantee.

possess a diameter of twenty-five geo-have telegraphed to the proprietor of arranged to swing from a boom on the deck strange passages and alleys in all directions. onte Generoso hotel, and learnt in every of the vessel, and food for the voyage was They are bonded by the Government, and ce that our silent lightning co-existed provided in the shape of pans of live earth- owners can have their property in them as worms, under the care of the ship's butcher, long as they like without paying customs probable that in some instances these who was to feed the precious freight. Similar duties. tions are produced by the escape of the vases were sent from Calcutta, but owing to city of the clouds in flashes too feeble defective arrangements several of the fish had died by the time they reached Bombay, where -The bees of the Cape of Good Hope accordingly the vases were refilled and replanted.

Amber Deposits of Europe .- In a work that thinks they recognize persons more by has just been published on the flora of the han by sight; and refers to the case of famous amber deposits of Northern Germany, on who allowed a species of wasp, nathe great amber-supplying region of the globe, Natal, to build in the door posts of his Professor R. Goeppert gives some very interst, he was only once stung, and that by probable extent of this highly-prized fossil o approach the door, much less enter. about an equal number of mosses, and in adapte bees dislike the smell of carrot—dition no less than forty-two species of conihis screams thrusting him into a trench richest deposits lie along a strip of coast-land stretching from Memel to Dantzig, and apmbustible Paper .- G. Meyer, at a recent pear to attain their greatest development in ng of the Societé d'Encouragement, ex-the province of Samland, where they are from that full submission of heart to the Di-I a new paste combination designed for known as the "blue earth," and where they vine will, which would lead to an unreserved anufacture of incombustible cardboard occupy a belt or zone depressed from eighty obedience to all the Lord's requirings—howper of all sorts and shades. Asbestos to one hundred feet beneath the surface, ever trivial and unimportant they may seem to principal thing employed in its manual. This Samland blue earth extends along the to our natural wisdom. But it remains to be per of all sorts and shades. Asbestos to one hundred feet beneath the surface. e. He presented specimens of writing, coast for a distance of sixty miles, and posture, that to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, use of the come as little children, humble, with we must become as little children, humble, erent colors, and also showed a water- an average thickness estimated at about ten lrawing that had been submitted to the feet. Each cubic foot of earth is calculated led and guided by Him who still hides his ordeal of the potter's furnace. The by Runge to contain no less than one-twelfth mysteries from the wise and prudent and ng had preserved all its brilliancy and of a pound of the resin. The actual yield at reveals them unto babes. iper all its flexibility. A lithograph, the present time is in the neighborhood of ning the Sahara into a Sea .- The project who was given unusual facilities for sightning the Sahara, or a part of it, into a seeing, and he avers that in a tour of the St.), promises to be both practicable and over five million packages of port and sherry, xeavators, representing the work of amount in storage was two hundred and sixty tithes into the Lord's storehouse.

0 men, the sea might easily be made, million gallons. There were six and a half sseps met with the best reception from gallons for every man, woman and child of asked for with regard to the forest and from the South of Spain by its owner, who stated in the narrative. ing lands will make the scheme re- had fallen dead in the vaults. The wine along ative and wholly independent of State with his other property, had passed into chaneery, and the litigation, which has continued roids.—The number of asteroids dis- for nearly half a century, is as far from being transported with the utmost care and under the Thames on one side and well under a point. ity. Bombay sent ten glass vases filled Tower Hill on the other. They are about six-

THE FRIEND.

EIGHTH MONTH 4, 1883.

Isaac Penington, in one of his letters, in enforcing the importance of being obedient and subject to the Lord in the least thing that He makes manifest, says to his corres-Although he often interfered with esting data relative to the origin, nature and pondent: "If the Lord would show thee but this one thing,-that, to use 'thee' and 'thou' ng wasp; but no one of the Kafirs, who gum. The amber flora represents about to a particular person, is proper language, peculiarly disagreeable odor, could ven-twenty species of fungi, twelve lichens, and and Scripture language; and that, to say 'you' is improper, and arose from pride, and nourisheth pride, and so is of the world, and Hottentot child who mischievously iers, oaks, birches and willows, besides twenty- not of the Father; and thou should bow thy d a piece of carrot and spat it into the seven Monopetala and twelve Polypetala. The spirit to Him in this one thing, thou little ce of a hive, was so severely stung that amber bearing formation extends from the thinkest what a work it would make within to was only saved by a gardener who confines of the White Sea into Holland. The three and how strongly the spirit of darkness would fight against thy subjection thereto."

We believe there is at this day in the minds of many, too much of a disposition to shrink obedient, and unquestioning; content to be

We fear that some of our members, who by sixteen centimeters, was placed be two or three hundred thousand pounds per are attached to our society, and who rejoice two layers of glass in a state of fusion. annum (stated to be about five times the in the prosperity of the Church of Christ, are noval the paper was found to have comquantity annually thrown up by the waves suffering loss from want of greater faithfulness resisted the action of the heat, and on the shores of the Baltic.) Wine Vaults.-The wine vaults of London This want of faithfulness weakens the force were recently inspected by a correspondent of their testimony to the truth, lessens their influence for good in the world, and is a hindrance to their own spiritual progress. To nland sea connected with the Mediter Katherine and London Dock vaults, he saw such an one it may be said: "If then should bow thy spirit to the Lord in these things, ble. Soundings in various parts have over one million of claret, and five hundred thou little thinkest what a work it would make within thee," or how much of increased the existence of nothing but sand to thousand of spirits. They were in vast tuns, make within thee, or how much of increased pth of over 200 feet. With the aid of hogsheads, casks and barrels, and the total blessing would follow from bringing all the

A correspondent has kindly called our atab soldiery and population, and made the population of Great Britain. Some of it tention to the anecdote of the canal captain plete survey of the country between had been in store for years. The owners had and the sick traveller, related in "Incidents and the Marsh Lakes. He declared forgotten about it, and the old and mouldy and Reflections," on p. 395 of this journal. If he soil will allow of the exeavations easks had rotted away at their chines and had the passengers were coming from the West, ary to connect the lakes with the Medi- been several times replaced. One lot of one as therein stated, the place where they were

We have no means of determining how the mistake occurred, nor is it important for the purpose for which the story is told. The noble conduct of the captain, and the reproof d has reached 220, but only a few of ended, apparently, as when it began. But the administered to the inconsiderate fellow-paswine has been growing old and valuable, and sengers of the sick man, are unaffected by the to range from five to fifteen miles. Yet we love acnsport of Live Fish.—The Indian live lars under the dock-houses. In area they ag- curacy, and would not willingly have a misnt to the Fisheries Exhibition in London gregate some thirty-five acres. They extend statement on our pages, even on so immaterial quatic plants, and containing two specteen feet from floor to roof, and are by no The charge of 10 cents annually for postf climbing perch. These vases were means regular in form, but reach out in age, heretofore made to our subscribers, will for "The Friend" will be $2 per annum, payable in advance. The few subscribers who have already paid the postage on vol. 57, can

After the present number, our city subscribers will receive their papers through the mail, instead of having them delivered by a carrier.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS.

UNITED STATES.—The 121st call for the redemption of bonds has been issued by the Secretary of the Treathe different yards at 43 a 63 cts. per lb., the latter sury. It embraces, as anticipated, all the outstanding 34 per cents not offered for exchange.

The acting Director of the Mint has ordered that no

at the Mints on account of sales of silver bullion. The Treasury Department has received from the British authorities a remonstrance against "the return to England of the alleged pauper emigrants who were going to friends in this country who had promised to take care of them, and which emigrants had shown letters to that effect on their arrival in the United The matter will be inquired into. States."

A compromise between the American Rapid Telegraph Co. and its striking employees having been effected, the latter have returned to work. With this exception, the situation of affairs in the telegraphers' strike has not materially changed, both sides seeming to regard the matter as a question of endurance. The strikers express the belief that the sentiment of the business public will force the Western Union Company to yield, while the company reiterates its ability to supply the public wants indefinitely, and declares that the strikers will be forced to come in when their funds are exhausted, if not before,

Montgomery Blair died on the 27th ult., at his residence at Silver Springs, near Washington, in the 71st deed was committed by a fellow passenger named year of his age.

Another salt vein, said to be the purest crystal yet

By the railroad collision on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Bailroad, at Carlyon Station, on Sixth-day evening, the 27th ult., 16 persons were killed and 14 injured.

On Second-day morning, the 30th ult., 236 warrants were issued against violators of the new "Sunday" law, which weot into effect the day before. Among those from 56,627 to 52,445, and in Gernsey and adjacent reported as having violated the law were keepers of islands it had increased from 33,969 to 35,257. livery stables, breweries, cigar stores, barbers, hackmen, theatres, newspaper men from the proprietors down, street railway and express companies, the Union Depot Company for sending out trains, and various other persons. The Prosecuting Attorney decided to drop cases against liverymen on the ground that their business was "a work of necessity." Test cases are to be ad-Test cases are to be advanced on the dockets against the street car companies and the newspapers. The beer saloons in the central portion of the city closed on First-day before noon, but it is estimated that the entire sales of liquor in St. Louis on that day reached $60,000.

Polk, the ex-treasurer of Tennessee, has been convicted of embezzling the money in his hands belonging to the State. At Nashville, nn Seventh-day the 28th, Judge Allen overruled the motion for a new trial, and sentenced the prisoner to twenty years' imprisonment at hard labor in the penitentiary, and to pay a fine of $366,000. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court lives and a bond of $45,000 given.

The army worm is reported to be doing much damage in the neighborhood of Belvidere, New Jersey.

The deaths in Philadelphia for the week ending 7th mo. 28th, numbered 441, of which 235 were of children tion, is about to be submitted to the Swiss Federal Asunder five years of age. Of this number, 232 were sembly. The convention has been accepted by the under five years of age. Of this number, 232 were males, and 209 females: 97 died of cholera infantum; 43 of consumption; 33 of marasmus; 21 of inflammation of the stomach and bowels; 13 of diphtheria; 12 opening of typhoid fever; 8 of scarlet fever, and 7 of Bright's Vienna.

Markets, &c.-U. S. 42's, 113; 4's, 119%; 3's, 103%; currency 6's, 128 a 132.

Cotton.—Prices remain about the same as last quoted

Sales of middlings are reported at 101 a 101 cts. per pound for uplands and New Orleans.

Petroleum.—Standard white, 71 a 71 cts. for export, and 8\frac{1}{2} a 8\frac{1}{4} cts. per gallon for home use.

Flour is firm and in fair demand. Sales of 2700 barrels, including Minnesota extras, at $5 a $6; Penn- being in Cairo.

be discontinued in the future; and the terms sylvania family at $5; western do. at $5.50 a $6, and An analysis has been made of the water of the for "The Friend" will be $2 per annum, pay, patents at $6.25 a $7.25. Bye flour is firm at $3.50 which shows that it is infected with putrid mat per barrel.

Grain.—Wheat is dull and lower. Sale of 3000 bushels red in car lots, at $1.12 a $1.18. Rye is dull at bushels red in car lots, at $1.19 a $1.18. have affecting part the postage of 10.0.0.1. So bushes red in car for, at $1.12.2.1.0. The sound of fice.

After the present, number, our city subweek. Sales of $500 bashels in our lost at $0.4 06 cts. Oats are dull and week. Sales of $500 bashels in our lost at $0.4 0 at $0.5 cts.

Hay and Straw Market, for week ending 7th mo. 28th, 1883.—Loads of hay, 268; loads of straw, 67. Average price during the week—Prime timothy, 85 a 95 cts. per 100 lbs.; mixed, 75 a 85 cts. per 100 lbs.; straw, 50 a 60 cts. per 100 pounds. New hay 50 a 70 cts, per 100 pounds.

Beef cattle were in fair demand this week and prices were a fraction higher: 3500 head arrived and sold at rate for a few extra.

Sheep were in better demand and a fraction higher: 11,000 head arrived and sold at the different yards at melting charge be imposed on trade dollars deposited $2\frac{1}{2}$ a $5\frac{3}{4}$ cts., and lambs at $3\frac{3}{4}$ a 8 cts. per pound, as to quality.

Hogs were in demand and a fraction higher: 4200 head arrived and sold at the different yards at 8 a 84 cts, per lb., as to condition.

FOREIGN.-Chamberlain, President of the Board of Trade, has announced in the House of Commons that the Government had abandoned for this session the English Channel Tunnel bill.

Gladstone has written to De Lesseps, thanking him for so freely and amicably stating that the British Government was not bound to press the provisional canal agreement upon Parliament, and for similarly announcing the independent action which he proposes to take in regard to the construction of another canal. The French press generally consider the withdrawal by the English Government from their agreement with De Lesseps as favorable to the Suez Canal Company.

Intelligence has been received that James Carey, the informer in the Phœnix Park murder cases, was shot dead on the 29th ultimo, on the steamer Melrose while she was between Cape Town and Port Elizabeth. The O'Donnell.

A man named Terry left Dover, England, at 9 o'clock discovered, has been struck at Genesee, New York, at on the morning of the 28th, on a floating tricycle, and arrived safely at Calais, in France, at 5 o'clock the same afternoon.

A Parliamentary pamphlet has been published givng the results of the census of 1881 in the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands. It appears that in the Isle of Man the population had increased from 54,042, in 1871, to 54,089 in 1881. In Jersey it had decreased

Advices from Durban, relative to the death of King etewayo at the hands of the insurgents, assert that all his wives, many of his chiefs and a great number of his men were also killed.

Melbourne, 7th mo. 24th .- The opinion of the people with reference to the annexation of New Guinea and the New Hebrides is much excited. The Frenchmen at Nonmea, New Caledonia, are in a ferment, owing to rumors that Great Britain will annex the New Hebrides. An agitation has commenced in favor of the annexation of the Islands by the French, and a deputation has waited upon the Governor of New Caledonia and urged their annexation, on the ground that the New Hebrides are a dependency of the colony. The Governor promised to take measures to counteract the designs of

An explosion has occurred in a mine at Caltanisetta Sicily, by which 35 miners out of a total of 70 lost their

A despatch to the London Daily Telegraph from Berne says: A convention between Switzerland and the United States, according to which any differences between the two republics are to be settled by arbitra-United States.

Eighth 100, 16th has been fixed as the date for the ppening of the International Electral Exhibition at

One hundred and eighty houses have been destroyed by fire in the town of Semenov, in the Government of Nizhnee-Novgorod, Russia.

General Wallace, the American Minister, has sent a fresh note to the Porte demanding a prolongation of the treaty of commerce between Turkey and the United States, but relies to a registrate of the tariff.

Over 50t that from the ery occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the week that the registrate occurred in Egypt for the regist

An analysis has been made of the water of the above the cataracts.

The town of Cassamicciola, on the Island of I near Naples, was almost entirely destroyed on the of 7th mo. 28th. The neighboring towns of Fori Lacceameno were greatly damaged. Prof. Pali Director of the Meteorological Observatory on 1 Vesuvius, states that the disaster was occasioned subsidence of the ground. Four thousand live believed to have been lost.

RECEIPTS. Received from Beulah Garrigues, Pa., $2.10, vc

Received from Beann Garrigues, Pa., S.2.10, vc. from Mary P. Gibbons, City, S.2, vol. 57, from Art Fry, City, S.2, vol. 57, from Art S.2, vol. 57, Elizabeth Woodman, City, S.105, to N. vol. 57, Susanna R. Leeds, N. J., S.2.10, vol. 57; From R. Buttin, Agent, Pa., S.2.10, vol. 57; from R. Buttin, Agent, Pa., S.2.10, to No. 10, vol. 58, us. Joseph McCarty, Abet McCarty, George Schill, 's dore Hess, and John S. Brown, S.2.10 each, vol.? from James J. Lord, N. J., per George P. Stokes, vol. 57; from George McNichols, Io., $2.10, vo. from Rebecca Hornor, City, $2, vol. 57, and for P. Cox, N. J., and Lydia M. Tucker, Pa., $2.10 vol. 57; from Sidney Garrigues, Pa., $2.10, vo from Martha R. Comfort and Henrietta Haines, $2.10 each, vol. 57; from Francis Bartley, Mich. to No. 22, vol. 58; from William J. Evans, N. J. vol. 57; from Samuel P. Leeds, N. J., $2.10, vo from Joseph Waring, Canada, $2.10, to No. 23, v. and for George Pollard, John Moore, Henry S Jesse Stover, Henry S. Moore and David C. Hend-$2.10 each, vol. 57; from Benjamin Gilbert, Agen $2.10, vol. 57, and for Dillon Gibbons, Albert M. Mary M. Price, and Joshua Cope, $2.10 each, vo Mary M. Price, and Joshua Cope, 82.10 each, wo from Rachel C. Racon, III, 82.10, vol. 57, from Ea. E. Hilyard, N. J., per J. Barelay Hilyard, 821, 77; from Charles T. Lukess, Pa., 82.10, vol. 57; from Ann Haines, N. J., 82.10, vol. 57; from Ann Haines, N. J., 82.10, vol. 57; from Parles R. N. J., 82, vol. 57; and for Eliza A. Somers, N. J. Benjanyia, N. Kibakow, K. Was, 89, acab. vol. 57; Benjamin Nicholson, Kans., $2 each, vol. 57; Mary Ann Bacon, Gtn., $2, vol. 57; from Finley H Gity, S2, vol. 57; and for Mary H. Fritchman, C vol. 57; from George Abbott, Jr., N. J., $2, vc from Lvdia Ann Hendrickson, N. J., $2, vol. 57; John M. Sheppard, Pa., $2, vol. 57; from Josh Ballinger, Agent, Pa., for Charles S. Carter, Elis & S. Thomas, and Sarah Pennell, $2 each, vol. 57; Mary B. Kirkbride, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from C. Brinter, Pa., $2.10, vol. 57; from Emma A. St. Del., $2.10, vol. 57; from Anna Piekering, Cit. vol. 57; from David J. Brown, Gtn., $2, vol. 57; J. E. Hancock, N. J., $2.10, vol. 57; from Jose N Taylor, Ind., $2 10, vol. 57.

Remittances received after Fourth-day morning w appear in the Receipts until the following week.

NOTICE.

A teacher is wanted for West Grove Prepare Meeting School, for the coming term. For furth formation, call on or address ZEBEDEE HAINES, # Grove, Chester Co., Penna.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS, PARENTS AL OTHERS.

The Yearly Meeting's Committee on Education 16 placed a book at Friends' Book Store, No. 304 An Philadelphia, where applications from teachers ing situations, and committees who desire to et of teachers among Friends, may be recorded. Please give address, and full particulars.

ELLISTON P. MORRIS, Ci.

WESTTOWN BOARDING SCHOOL.

Until further notice the Stage will be at Wes #1 Station on the arrival of the 7.09 and 9.05 A. M. from Philadelphia, to convey passengers to the 8

DIED, at her residence in West Chester, Pa. 9th of 5th month, 1883, PHEBE TOMLINSON, in th year of her age, an esteemed member of West C Particular and Birmingham Monthly Meeti Friends. It having been the earnest endeavor dear Friend to walk in that Light which never de her friends are consoled with a confident belief th lamp was trimmed and burning, and she waiti the coming of her Lord.

